

THE MODERN LANGUAGE BIBLE

The New Berkeley Version

THE MODERN LANGUAGE BIBLE

*The New Berkeley Version
in Modern English*

THE MODERN LANGUAGE BIBLE

*The New Berkeley Version
in Modern English*

Revised Edition

A Completely New Translation From the Original Languages With Informative Notes to Aid the Understanding of the Reader

GERRIT VERKUYL, PH. D.
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

ZONDERVAN BIBLE PUBLISHERS OF THE ZONDERVAN CORPORATION
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN 49506

The Modern Language Bible
The New Berkeley Version
in Modern English
Revised Edition

Copyright 1945, 1959, © 1969 by the Zondervan Publishing House

New Testament Section, Copyright 1945 by Gerrit Verkuyl. Assigned 1958 to the Zondervan Publishing House Revised Edition Copyright © 1969 by the Zondervan Publishing House

Old Testament Section, Copyright © 1959 by the Zondervan Publishing House

All Rights Reserved Including that of Translation

KP-5-3-77

Library of Congress Catalog Card Number: 76-80888

MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PREFACE

This is not just another revision; it is a completely new translation. We have turned to the original languages of both Testaments, assured that "holy men from God spoke as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit." Neither is this a paraphrase, for that leads so readily to the infusion of human thought with divine revelation, to the confusion of the reader. Instead of paraphrasing, we offer brief notes, related to, but apart from, the inspired writings, to clarify and to give a sharper view of the message.

Throughout both Testaments we employ our language according to its choicest current usage. Even mention of weights, measures and monetary values is made in modern terms, so that the reader does not need to be a linguist to understand the information. As far as possible this is a complete translation of every word in the Bible.

We are in tune with the "Authorized Version" of 1611 in fidelity to the Messianic Promise, first made as soon as man had sinned, renewed to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, narrowed to Judah's offspring and later to David's descendants. This promise remained the hope of the worshiping Hebrews, whose prophets stimulated their faith, and Jesus reminded the Emmaus pilgrims of it, "starting from Moses and through all the prophets . . . in all the Scriptures that referred to Himself." To be faithful to this everlasting Evangel we needed to be faithful to the original Scriptures. Where, in the Old Testament, Hebrew words were lacking or hard to decipher, we have made use of available Greek or Aramaic. Where the Old Testament is quoted in the New (taken from the Greek), the language may differ, but the thought is the same.

Hebraic scholars of various denominations, mostly professors of their respective seminaries, have labored diligently to prepare this Berkeley Version. Each translated portion has been reviewed by at least two other members of our staff but no translator is responsible for the work of any other translator. The responsibility remains with the translator, the editors and the publishers. The notes below the translation are not necessarily in every case those of the translator; some of these were supplied by the editor-in-chief and his assistants.

We are grateful for the cooperation of these men who were so unstintedly devoted to this exacting task, and we marvel at their endurance. We thank God that not one of them who started the work was laid aside by illness while the actual work of translation was in progress. It pleased the Lord, however, shortly before we went to press, to take unto Himself our esteemed friend and colleague, Dr. George L. Robinson.

With expectant joy and acknowledgment of our Father's sustaining grace we surrender the results of our endeavors to the readers of the Bible, supremely grateful to Him who first inspired its contents. We pray that this version may be instrumental in the fulfillment of God's purpose, a translation of His teachings into Christlike living. This will most amply reward our labors.

GERRIT VERKUYL

Berkeley, California, February 10, 1959

PREFACE TO THE 1969 EDITION

The Berkeley Version of the Bible has gained for the late Dr. Gerrit Verkuyl a place among the first rank of translators of the Bible into modern English. Its growing readership since the initial publication of the New Testament in 1945 bears witness to his success in combining freshness of expression with fidelity to the original Greek. The Berkeley Version of the Old Testament (1959), which was made by a staff of translators and consultants working under Dr. Verkuyl as editor-in-chief, exhibits the same characteristics of faithful rendering of the original texts into lively modern English that mark his New Testament. While some modern translations of the Scriptures tend to be paraphrases, this version of the Bible aims to achieve plain, up-to-date expression which reflects as directly as possible the meaning of the Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek. As Professor F. F. Bruce says, "The Berkeley Version of the whole Bible (1959) is the most outstanding among recent translations of both Testaments sponsored by private groups" (The Books and the Parchments, Westwood, N.J.: Fleming H. Revell Company, 1963, pp. 236, 237).

Approximately twenty-five years have passed since The Berkeley New Testament first appeared in 1945. During this quarter century, the need for its revision has become evident. As is inevitable with any Bible translation — and perhaps most of all with a one-man version — idiosyncrasies and other matters requiring correction have come to light.

In response, therefore, to suggestions and criticisms, the publishers appointed three experienced Bible scholars to revise The Berkeley New Testament, namely, E. Schuyler English, Litt.D., chairman; Frank E. Gaebelcin, A.M., Litt.D.; and G. Henry Waterman, A.M., Ph.D. The present edition is the result of their work. While not a retranslation, the revision is a very extensive one. In making it, there was constant reference to the Greek. Recent findings of textual criticism were considered. Explanatory notes were not only revised but a great many new notes were added. Topical headings were in many cases rephrased.

This is still The Berkeley Version. It rests upon the foundation Dr. Verkuyl laid. Nevertheless, the numerous changes in the New Testament text, explanatory notes, and headings warrant calling this 1969 edition The Modern Language Bible — The New Berkeley Version in Modern English.

THE PUBLISHERS

THE STAFF OF OLD TESTAMENT TRANSLATORS

- Prof. Gleason L. Archer, B.D., Ph. D., Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena.
Prof. John W. Bailey, Ph.D., D.D., (Emeritus), Berkeley Baptist Divinity School.
Prof. David E. Culley, Ph.D., D.D., (Emeritus), Western Theological Seminary (Presbyterian), Pittsburgh.
Prof. Derward W. Deere, Th.D., Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, San Francisco.
Prof. Clyde T. Francisco, Ph.D., Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville.
The Rev. Leonard Greenway, Th.D., Pastor, Bethel Christian Reformed Church, Grand Rapids, Michigan.
Prof. Howard A. Hanke, Th.D., Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky.
Prof. S. Lewis Johnson, Jr., Th.D., Dallas Theological Seminary.
James B. Keefer, Ph.D., Missionary, United Presbyterian Church, Gambela, Ethiopia.
Prof. William Sanford LaSor, Ph.D., Th.D., Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena.
Prof. Jacob M. Myers, Ph.D., S.T.D., Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Penna.
Prof. J. Barton Payne, Th.D., Trinity Theological Seminary (Evangelical Free Church), Chicago, and Wheaton College, Graduate Division.
Prof. George L. Robinson, Ph.D., S.T.D., (Emeritus) McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago.
Prof. Samuel J. Schultz, Th.D., Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois.
Prof. B. Hathaway Struthers, Ph.D., Chaplain, United States Navy.
Prof. Merrill F. Unger, Ph.D., Th.D., Dallas Theological Seminary.
The Rev. Gerard Van Groningen, Th.M., Reformed Theological College, Geelong, Vict., Australia.
The Rev. Gerrit Verkuyl, Ph.D., D.D., (Emeritus) Presbyterian Board of Education, Berkeley, Calif.
Prof. Leon J. Wood, Th.M., Grand Rapids Baptist Theological Seminary and Bible Institute.
Prof. Martin J. Wyngaarden, B.D., Ph. D., Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids.

We desire also to express appreciation to others who gave their critical reading to portions of the manuscript and rendered valuable suggestions. Among these we include Prof. Dewey M. Beegle, Ph. D., Biblical Seminary of New York; Prof. Gerhard E. Lenski, Ph.D., Lutheran Theological Seminary, Berkeley, California; the Rev. Charles D. Krug, Th.M., San Francisco Theological Seminary (Presbyterian); the Rev. Sidney A. Hatch of Los Angeles; Prof. L. M. Farr, Baptist Bible College, San Francisco, who rendered valuable assistance twice a week over a period of many months; and to Mr. Robert E. Hink of Berkeley, whose special help contributed much to the project. Also to the Rev. Garrett Pars of Cleveland, Ohio, and the Rev. Peter De Jong of Seattle, Washington, who made valuable suggestions and criticisms on the basis of their reading portions of the manuscript, and to Mrs. Frances E. Siewert of Pasadena, California, who gave much valuable editorial assistance.

THE BOOKS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

Their Names and Order, and the Pages at Which They May Be Found

	Page		Page
Genesis	1	Ecclesiastes	670
Exodus	54	The Song of Solomon	679
Leviticus	97	Isaiah	686
Numbers	130	Jeremiah	743
Deuteronomy	179	Lamentations	807
Joshua	220	Ezekiel	815
Judges	248	Daniel	872
Ruth	275	Hosea	890
I Samuel	279	Joel	899
II Samuel	314	Amos	903
I Kings	347	Obadiah	910
II Kings	380	Jonah	912
I Chronicles	412	Micah	915
II Chronicles	445	Nahum	920
Ezra	483	Habakkuk	923
Nehemiah	494	Zephaniah	926
Esther	510	Haggai	929
Job	519	Zechariah	931
Psalms	547	Malachi	941
Proverbs	642

The Names, Order and Pages of the Books of the New Testament follow immediately after the above.

The Old Testament

THE BOOK OF GENESIS

IN THE BEGINNING^a GOD CREATED the heavens and the earth. ²The earth was formless and empty, and darkness lay upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters.^b

³God said: Let there be light, and there was light. ⁴God saw that the light was good and God divided the light from the darkness. ⁵The light God called Day and the darkness He called Night. There was evening and there was morning, one day.

⁶God said: Let there be a firmament between the waters to divide waters from waters; ⁷so God made the firmament and separated the waters under the firmament from the waters above the firmament; and it was so. ⁸God called the firmament Heaven. There was evening and there was morning, a second day.

⁹God said: Let the waters under heaven be gathered into one place and let the dry land appear; and it was so. ¹⁰God called the dry land Earth and the gathering of the waters He called Seas, and God saw that it was good.

¹¹God said: Let the earth produce vegetation, various kinds of seed-bearing herbs and fruit-bearing trees with their respective seeds in the fruit upon the earth; and it was so. ¹²The earth produced vegetation, various kinds of seed-bearing herbs and fruit-bearing trees with their respective seeds in the fruit, and God saw that it was good. ¹³There was evening and there was morning, a third day.

¹⁴God said: Let there be lights in the firmament of heaven to divide the day from the night; let them be for markers of seasons, days and years, ¹⁵and for luminaries in the firmament of heaven to shed light upon the earth; and it was so. ¹⁶God made the two great luminaries, the greater light for ruling the day and the lesser light with the stars for ruling the night. ¹⁷God set them in heaven's firmament to shed light upon the earth, ¹⁸to rule during the day and at night and to divide the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good. ¹⁹There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

²⁰God said: Let the waters teem with shoals of living creatures and let birds fly above the earth along heaven's firmament. ²¹God also created the large sea-monsters, and all living, moving creatures with which the waters swarm according to their kind and every kind of winged bird. God saw that it was good ²²and God blessed them; He said: Be fruitful; multiply and fill the waters in the seas and let birds multiply on earth. ²³There was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

²⁴God said: Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind, livestock, reptiles and wild beasts after their

a) Attempts at dating that beginning are not promising. Estimates of a very old age for the earth and the universe are acceptable to many devout Bible students. Cf. Hebr. 11:3 [Gr. aionas — eon-old worlds].

b) The Spirit's moving over the deep suggests His life-giving forces at work in the processes of creation. We do well to read also John 1: 1-5 concerning earth's forming and Ps. 139: 14-16 regarding the human body.

kind; and it was so. ²⁵God made every kind of wild beasts and every kind of livestock and every kind of creeping things; and God saw that it was good.

²⁶Then God said: Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness^e, and let them bear rule over the fish in the sea, over the birds of the air, over the animals; over the whole earth and over all creeping things that crawl on the earth. ²⁷So God created man in His image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. ²⁸God blessed them; God said to them: Be fruitful; multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; bear rule over the fish of the sea; over the birds of the air and over every living, moving creature on earth.^f ²⁹God further said: Behold, I have given you every seed-bearing plant over all the earth, and every fruit-tree, the fruit of which grows seed; it will be your food. ³⁰And to all the animals on earth, to all the birds of the air and to every living creature that creeps on the earth I have given the green vegetation for food; and it was so. ³¹God saw that everything He had made was excellent, indeed. There was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2 THUS THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH and all their host were completed.

²On the seventh day God ended His work which He had been doing; He rested on the seventh day from all the works He had accomplished. ³God also blessed the seventh day and consecrated it;^g because in it He rested from all His works, which, in creating, He had formed.

⁴These are the generations of the heavens and the earth in their creation.^h

⁵When the LORD God made earth and heaven, there was as yet not a shrub on the earth, nor any plant sprouting in the field; for the LORD God had not made it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the soil; ⁶but a vapor used to rise from the earth to moisten all the surface of the ground. ⁷And the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living soul.

⁸The LORD God also planted a garden to the east in Eden, and there He placed the man whom He had formed. ⁹From the ground the LORD God caused to sprout every tree that is pleasing to the eye and good for food; the tree of life, too, in the center of the garden, and the tree of knowing good and evil.

¹⁰There also was a river flowing out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it was divided and became four rivers. ¹¹The first is named Pishon; it flows around all the land of Havilah,ⁱ where there is gold, ¹²high quality gold; aromatic gum, too, and onyx stone. ¹³The name of the second river is Gihon; it flows around all the land of Cush.^j ¹⁴The name of the third river is Tigris,^k which flows east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁵The LORD God took the man and placed him in the garden of Eden to cultivate it and to care for it. ¹⁶The LORD God charged the man: You may eat freely from every tree in the garden; ¹⁷but do not eat from the tree of knowing good and evil; for the day you eat from it you will certainly die.

¹⁸The LORD God said: It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a suitable helper, completing him. ¹⁹Out of the ground the LORD God had formed all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air and He brought them to Adam^l to see what he would call them and whatever Adam called a living creature that was its name. ²⁰So Adam gave names to all the domestic animals, to all the birds of the

e) Endowed with power of reasoning, emotion and will.

f) By discoveries and inventions man has gained mastery also over elements and forces of nature.

g) Sanctifying, consecrating, dedicating, all involve a setting apart for God.

h) An account of heaven and earth and what proceeded from them.

i) The Havilah country which the Pishon branch encircles is mentioned [Ch. 25: 18] as Ishmael's region; also I Sam. 15:7, as inhabited by Amalekites, descendants of Esau, both in the Arabian desert.

j) Here Mesopotamia, later always Ethiopia. k) Hebrew—Hiddekel.

l) Man and Adam are the same word in Hebrew.

air and to all the wild beasts; but for the man himself there was found no suitable helper.

²¹So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to overcome Adam, and as he slept He took one of his ribs and filled up the place with flesh. ²²From the rib He had taken from the man, God formed a woman and brought her to the man. ²³Adam said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman because she was taken out of a man." ²⁴For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and cling to his wife and they shall become one flesh.^m ²⁵Both the man and his wife were naked and they felt no shame in each other's presence.

3 THE SERPENT, WILDEST OF ALL THE field animals the LORD God had made, said to the woman, "So, God has told you not to eat from any tree in the garden?" ²The woman answered the serpent, "We may eat the fruit of the garden's trees; ³but about the fruit of the tree in the center of the garden God has said, 'You shall not eat of it or touch it, lest you die.'ⁿ"

⁴The serpent said to the woman, "No, you would not die at all! ⁵But God knows that whenever you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will, like gods, be knowing good and evil." ⁶The woman saw the tree as being good for food, delightful to the eye and a tree desirable to render one wise, so she took of its fruit and ate; she also gave to her husband, who ate with her. ⁷Then the eyes of both were opened and they realized that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves skirts.^o

⁸In the cool of the day^p they heard the sound of the LORD God taking a walk in the garden and the man and his wife hid themselves among the trees of the garden from the presence of the LORD God. ⁹Then the LORD God called out to the man;^q He said to him: Where are you? ¹⁰He said, "I heard Thy sound in the garden and I was afraid because I am naked; so I hid myself."

¹¹He asked: Who made you know that you are naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I forbade you to eat? ¹²The man said, "The woman Thou gavest me for a companion, she gave me from the tree and I ate."^r

¹³The LORD God said to the woman: Just what have you done? The woman said, "The serpent tricked me and I ate."

¹⁴The LORD God said to the serpent: Because you have done this, you will be most cursed of all domestic animals and of all wild beasts. You will crawl on your belly and eat dust all your life. ¹⁵Also I will put enmity between you and the woman; also between your offspring and her offspring; He will crush your head and you will crush his heel.^s ¹⁶To the woman He said: I will greatly increase your pregnancy-troubles; you will suffer birth-pangs; yet, you will be drawn to your husband and he will dominate you. ¹⁷And to Adam He said: Because you have yielded to your wife's suggestion and have eaten from the tree concerning which I gave you orders, Do not eat of it, cursed is the soil on your account; by toil you shall eat from it all your life. ¹⁸Thorns and thistles it shall grow for you and you must eat herbs of the field. ¹⁹In the sweat of your brow you must make a living until you return to the ground, because out of it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you shall return.

²⁰The man named his wife Eve,^t because she became the mother of every living person. ²¹And the LORD God

m) A principle so enduring that our Lord bases a vital argument on it.

n) In reply to Satan's mock inquiry Eve adds to God's charge as given in 2:17.

o) Their happy days of innocence were over; they were guilty, knew it and would cover it themselves.

p) The hour of twilight remains a choice season for spiritual recreation—quiet communion.

q) This, too, is an eternal principle: God wants His children back.

r) Blaming someone else is as old as humanity; it shows lack of repentance.

s) First promise of the Redeemer, Victor over sin and Satan.

t) Eve means life. The early language was not Hebrew, but as thoughts were conveyed from one tongue to another, so were names adjusted to carry their original meaning, either by altering the proper nouns or by adopting them with their original meaning into the Hebrew vocabulary.

made robes of skins for Adam and for his wife and clothed them.

²²The LORD God said: Obviously in knowing good and evil man has become like one of Us. Now then, he might reach out his hand to pluck and eat from the tree of life so as to live forever. ²³So the LORD God expelled him from the garden of Eden, to cultivate the soil from which he had been taken; ²⁴He drove out the man and placed cherubim east of the Eden garden with a flaming sword turning in every direction to guard the path to the tree of life.^u

4 ADAM KNEW^v HIS WIFE EVE. SHE conceived and bore Cain; she said, "I have gotten a man with the LORD's help." ²Next she gave birth to his brother Abel. Abel became a herder of flocks and Cain a tiller of the soil.

³In course of time Cain brought an offering to the LORD from the products of the soil, ⁴while Abel brought an offering from the firstlings of his flocks, especially from their fat portions. The LORD approved of Abel and his offering, ⁵but He did not approve of Cain and his offering. Then Cain's anger grew hot, and his face fell. ⁶The LORD asked Cain: Why are you angry, and why is your face downcast? ⁷If you do right, will there not be a lifting up? But if you misbehave, sin is crouching at the door; its intention is toward you, and you must master it.

⁸But Cain had words with his brother Abel, and when they were out in the field, Cain assaulted his brother Abel and killed him. ⁹Then the LORD asked Cain: Where is your brother Abel? He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

¹⁰He said: What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood is crying to Me from the ground, ¹¹and now you are cursed from the ground that has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. ¹²When you till the soil, it shall no longer yield its full produce for you. You will be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth.

¹³Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is worse than I can stand. ¹⁴See, Thou hast now driven me from the land, and I shall be hidden from Thy face. I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me." ¹⁵The LORD said to him: On the contrary, if anyone kills Cain, sevenfold vengeance shall be taken on him. The LORD then put a mark on Cain so that none who found him might kill him.

¹⁶Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden. ¹⁷Cain knew his wife, who conceived and gave birth to Enoch.^w He also built a town, which he named Enoch after his son. ¹⁸To Enoch Irad was born; to Irad Mehujael, to Mehujael Methushael and to Methushael Lamech. ¹⁹Lamech took for himself two wives, named respectively Adah and Zillah. ²⁰Adah gave birth to Jabal, who became the father of all tent-dwellers and cattle men. ²¹His brother's name was Jubal, who became the father of all players on harp and flute. ²²As for Zillah, she bore Tubal-Cain, a smith who made all kinds of sharp tools of bronze and of iron. And Naamah was Tubal-Cain's sister. ²³Lamech declaimed to his wives Adah and Zillah:

"You, Adah and Zillah, do listen to my voice;

You consorts of Lamech, give ear to my speech;

For any who wounded me, him I have slain,

Also the young man, who gave me a scratch.

²⁴If Cain be awarded revenge sevenfold, then Lamech's is seventy-sevenfold required."

²⁵Adam again knew his wife and she gave birth to a son, whom she named

u) Cherubs or cherubim is the plural of cherub.

v) "Knew" is correct translation, it suggests the most intimate relationship between man and woman.

w) Only those of Adam's household whose genealogy is recorded, are named. There were daughters; one of them became Cain's wife and another Seth's.

a) The name "father" is used of these pioneers, as Washington, Franklin, Edison, Marconi and other leaders and founders are so thought of today.

Seth,^b for "God has appointed for me another offspring in place of Abel, because Cain killed him."²⁶ To Seth in turn a son was born whom he named Enosh, in whose time people began to call on the name of the LORD.^c

5 THIS IS THE ROLL OF ADAM'S GENEALOGY: When God created man, He made him in God's likeness; ²He created them male and female. He blessed them and called them human at the time of their creation.^d ³Adam at 130 got a son in his image, after his likeness and named him Seth. ⁴After Seth's birth he lived 800 years and got sons and daughters. ⁵So, altogether Adam lived 930 years and he died.

⁶Seth at 105 got Enosh, ⁷and Seth lived 807 years after Enosh's birth and had sons and daughters; ⁸so altogether Seth lived 912 years and he died.

⁹At 90 Enosh got Kenan; ¹⁰then lived another 815 years and after Kenan's birth got sons and daughters, ¹¹so that in all Enosh lived 905 years. And he died. ¹²At 70 Kenan got Mahalalel, ¹³then lived 840 more years and after Mahalalel's birth got sons and daughters, ¹⁴so altogether Kenan lived 910 years and he died.

¹⁵Mahalalel at 65 got Jared; ¹⁶then lived another 830 years and after Jared's birth got sons and daughters; ¹⁷so in all Mahalalel lived 895 years, and he died.

¹⁸Jared at 162 got Enoch, ¹⁹then lived another 800 years; and after Enoch's birth got sons and daughters, ²⁰living in all 962 years and died.

²¹Enoch at 65 got Methuselah. ²²Enoch walked with God 300 years after Methuselah's birth and got sons and daughters; ²³so Enoch lived 365 years in all. ²⁴Enoch walked with God and he was not,^e for God took him.

²⁵When Methuselah was 187 La-mech was born ²⁶and after Lamech's birth Methuselah lived 782 years and got sons and daughters; ²⁷so in all Methuselah lived 969 years and he died.

²⁸When Lamech was 182 a son was born to him ²⁹whom he named Noah. He said, "This one will comfort us about our work, our manual toil, due to the ground being cursed by the LORD."³⁰ After Noah's birth Lamech lived 595 years and got sons and daughters; ³¹so in all Lamech was 777 years old when he died.

³²After Noah was 500, Shem, Ham and Japheth were born.

6 WHEN THE EARTH BEGAN TO BE populated and daughters were born to the people, ²it developed that the sons of God took notice of the daughters of men, admired their looks and married all those of them whom they chose.³

³Then the LORD said, My Spirit shall not forever remain in man since he has gone astray; he is flesh,^h I will allow him another 120 years. ⁴There were giants on the earth in those days, and later, too, when the sons of God used to cohabit with the daughters of men, who bore them children, those mighty men of old who made a name. ⁵God saw that human wickedness was growing out of bounds on earth; that the intention of all human thinking produced nothing but evil all day.

⁶Then it was grief to the LORD ever having made man on the earth; He felt grieved at heart. ⁷The LORD said, I will wipe the human race I have created from the face of the earth, man and beast, reptile and birds of the air; for it is grief to Me that I have made them. ⁸But Noah found favor in the presence of the LORD.

⁹This is the Noah genealogy: Noah was an upright man, blameless among his fellow-men; Noah walked with

b) "Appointed" or "substituted."

c) Persons had worshiped, but with Enosh the gathering for public worship seems to have started.

d) As distinguished from the animals. f) No longer visible to human eyes [Heb. 11:5].

g) Some have it that this refers to fallen angels, but there is no Scripture evidence that they could become men with body and soul; nor, if they could, would wicked men be called "sons of God." We believe that the sons of Seth's family married daughters of Cain's family; that the home thus became ungodly and children grew up without relating life to God.

h) Flesh, as Adam spoke of it, was untainted. Now the word suggests weakness; in time it will mean human nature without God's Spirit.

God. ¹⁰Three sons were born to Noah — Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ¹¹But the earth had grown corrupted in God's sight; the earth was filled with lust for power. ¹²God looked at the earth and saw how degenerated it was; for all those living on the earth had perverted their way.

¹³God said to Noah: I see the end of all humanity,¹ for through them the earth is filled with lust for power. Take notice! I am about to destroy them and the earth with them. ¹⁴Make you an ark of resinous wood; build rooms in it and overspread it inside and out with pitch. ¹⁵Construct it after this fashion: The length of the ark 450 feet; its width 75 feet and its depth 45 feet. ¹⁶Put an 18-inch opening in the ark all around just below the upper deck and a gangway in the side of the ark. Make it with lower, middle and upper decks. ¹⁷Understand that I Myself am about to bring a water-deluge on the earth to exterminate from under heaven all flesh that has the breath of life in it; everything on earth shall perish. ¹⁸But with you I do establish My covenant; you will board the ark, and your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives along with you. ¹⁹You must also have a pair of every kind of all living creatures enter the ark, to keep them alive with you — a male and a female ²⁰of the various kinds of the birds, of the beasts and of the creatures creeping on the ground, two of each kind shall come to you to keep them alive. ²¹Collect and store enough suitable food too, for you and for them to eat. ²²And Noah did so; he carried out God's orders.

7 THE LORD SAID TO NOAH: COME into the ark, you and your whole family, because you alone in this entire generation have I found upright in My presence. ²Of each clean animal^j take seven pairs, male and female, and of the unclean, two, a male and a female; ³so of the birds of the air seven pairs each to keep their kind alive over the whole earth. ⁴For after seven more days I will make it to rain upon the earth for forty days and nights and I will blot off the face of the earth every existing thing that I have made.

⁵Noah carried out all the LORD's orders; ⁶he was 600 years old when the deluge of waters overwhelmed the earth. ⁷Noah boarded the ark with his sons, his wife and his sons' wives, ahead of the flood-waters. ⁸Pairs of clean and of unclean animals, of birds and of all that creep on the ground, ⁹both male and female, came into the ark to Noah, as God had commanded, ¹⁰until at the end of the seven days the deluge came upon the earth.

¹¹In Noah's 600th year, the seventeenth of the second month, that very day all the fountains of the great deep broke through and all the sluices of heaven were opened up; ¹²the rains gushed down upon the earth for 40 days and 40 nights. ¹³This is the date on which Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth, his sons, also Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons along with them boarded the ark — ¹⁴they and every kind of wild beast, of domestic animals, of every creature that creeps on the earth, and of winged bird. ¹⁵Of all living, breathing creatures they came to Noah in the ark two by two, male and female, as God had ordered him. ¹⁶Then the LORD closed the entrance behind him.

¹⁷For 40 days the flooding continued on the earth. The waters mounted and lifted the ark so that it rose from the ground^k ¹⁸and still the waters kept mounting on the earth with overwhelming volume, while the ark floated on top of the waters. ¹⁹Higher and higher the waters rose over the earth, gaining the upper hand until all the high mountains under heaven were covered. ²⁰More than 20 feet above them the waters rose so that the mountains were covered, ²¹and every living creature that moved on earth — birds,

i) Literally, flesh, which at times in these early chapters includes the whole animal world.

j) Clean and unclean are carefully distinguished later in Mosaic law and ritual.

k) The floating structure is rightly called "ark" because it was no sailing ship; it had no destination at some harbor. It was probably built with square corners, simply to float.

cattle, wild beasts, swarming things and men, ²²everything that had breath and lived on dry land perished. ²³He destroyed from the face of the earth every existing thing from man to beast and creeping thing and birds of the air. Only Noah and those with him in the ark remained alive. ²⁴For 150 days the waters covered the earth.

8 BUT GOD KEPT NOAH IN MIND WITH all the animals and all the livestock with him in the ark; God caused a wind to blow over the earth until the waters subsided. ²Besides, the fountains of the deep and the sluices of heaven were closed and the gushing rains from heaven were checked. ³Steadily the waters moved back from the earth, going down at the end of the 150 days.

⁴So, on the seventeenth of the seventh month the ark grounded on the Ararat mountain range, ⁵and gradually the waters kept lowering until on the first of the tenth month the mountain-tops were seen.

⁶After another forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark ⁷and released a raven that flew back and forth until the waters had dried off the earth. ⁸He also released a dove to find out how well the waters had drained from the ground-surface; ⁹but as the dove found no roost to put her foot-sole¹ on, she came back to him into the ark; for there was water all over the earth; so he put out his hand, caught her and drew her back to him into the ark. ¹⁰After waiting seven days more, he again sent the dove from the ark ¹¹and about twilight the dove returned, and look, there was a freshly plucked olive-leaf in her beak. Then Noah knew that the waters were draining off the earth. ¹²Yet another seven days he waited, then let the dove go out; but she did not return to him any more.

¹³In the 601st year,^m the first of the first month, the waters had dried off the earth. Noah removed the ark's covering, looked out, and behold, the surface of the ground was dry. ¹⁴On the twenty-seventh of the next month the earth was thoroughly dried ¹⁵and God told Noah: ¹⁶Leave the ark, you, your wife, your sons and your sons' wives along with you. ¹⁷Bring out with you every living creature you have there, birds, livestock, creeping creatures of the earth, bring them out with you, so they may breed freely on the earth. Let them be fruitful and multiply on the earth. ¹⁸So Noah went out with his sons, his wife and his sons' wives; ¹⁹every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, everything that moves on the earth, they all came out of the ark by their families.

²⁰Then Noah built an altar to the LORD. He took from all clean animals and from all clean birdsⁿ and offered burnt offerings on the altar, ²¹and as the LORD discerned the pleasing fragrance, He said within Himself: I will never again curse the ground on man's account, because he is evil-minded from his youth, neither will I again destroy every living thing as I have done. ²²So long as the earth remains, seed time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not fail.^o

9 GOD BLESSED NOAH AND HIS SONS and told them: Be fruitful, multiply and populate the earth. ²The fear of you and the dread of you shall come upon every animal of the earth, every bird of the air, all that crawls on the ground and all the fish of the sea; they are handed over into your power. ³Every living, moving thing shall be yours for food; I have given it all to you like the vegetables. ⁴However, you must not eat flesh with its life — that is, its blood — in it.^p ⁵I will require full satisfaction for your life-blood from every animal and from every person;

1) The raven, of the crow family, preferred to be alone; the dove, of a more social nature, preferred shelter and company.

m) The age of Noah, or of the Noah House, or both.

n) The Lord is not indifferent about the quality of the gifts we bring Him.

o) A fresh start for the human race, with divine grace abounding.

p) This prohibition was carried over into the Christian Church at the Jerusalem Council, Acts 15:20, 29.

from every man's brother will I require satisfaction for a person's life. ⁶Whoever sheds a person's blood, by man shall his blood be shed; because God made man in His likeness.^a ⁷As for you, be fruitful and multiply; swarm over the earth and multiply in it.

⁸God said to Noah and his sons with him: ⁹Take note! I Myself am establishing My covenant with you, with your descendants ¹⁰ and with every living creature, whether bird, livestock or wild beast—along with you, of all that left the ark, even every creature on earth. ¹¹I covenant^c with you that neither shall all flesh again be eliminated by the waters of a flood, nor shall there be another deluge to destroy the earth.

¹²God further said: This is the sign of the covenant I am making between Me and you and every living thing along with you through all successive generations. ¹³I will set My bow in the clouds; it shall be for a token of a covenant between Me and the earth. ¹⁴When I collect My clouds above the earth, then the bow shall appear in the clouds ¹⁵and I will remember My covenant that exists between Me and you and every living creature of every kind of flesh.^s Never again shall the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh; ¹⁶the bow shall be in the clouds; I shall look upon it to remember the eternal covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh on the earth. ¹⁷This, said God to Noah, is the sign of the covenant I have set up between Me and every living creature on earth.

¹⁸The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth, Ham being the father of Canaan; ¹⁹of these three sons of Noah the whole earth was populated. ²⁰Noah began his farming with planting a vineyard, but ²¹when he drank of its wine, he became intoxicated and lay uncovered inside his tent. ²²Then Ham, Canaan's father, saw his father uncovered and told his two brothers outside; ²³but Shem and Japheth got a robe, laid it on their shoulders and, walking backward, they covered their father's nakedness, keeping their faces turned the other way, so they did not witness their father's shame. ²⁴When Noah awoke from his wine, knowing how his youngest son had treated him, ²⁵he exclaimed, "Cursed be Canaan!^t May he be a servant of servants to his brothers." ²⁶He then added, "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Shem" and may Canaan be his servant. ²⁷May God make Japheth so great that he shall dwell in Shem's tents; and may Canaan be their servant."

²⁸After the deluge Noah lived 350 years; ²⁹so Noah lived in all 950 years. And he died.

10 THESE ARE THE DESCENDANTS OF Noah's sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth and the sons born to them after the flood. ²The sons of Japheth — Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan,^v Tubal, Meshech and Tiras.

³The sons of Gomer — Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah.

⁴The sons of Javan — Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim; ⁵by these the coastlands of the gentiles were populated in their separate territories, each with its respective language, its tribes and nations.

⁶The sons of Ham — Cush, Mizraim,^w Put and Canaan. ⁷The sons of Cush — Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah — Sheba and Dedan.

⁸To Cush Nimrod was born, the first on earth to become a despot. ⁹He was a mighty hunter before the Lord; therefore the proverb, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the Lord." ¹⁰He began his kingdom with Babel;

q) This command has remained the basis for capital punishment, with our likeness to God as the reason back of it. Reverence for blood was strengthened by its use for atoning sacrifices [Lev. 17: 11].

r) This is the first mention of God making a covenant

s) To the worshiper of God the rainbow still says: "God is faithful; trust Him."

t) Canaan seems to have first noticed his grandfather and to have told his father Ham with glee; then in the same disrespectful spirit, Ham told his brothers; who reacted with proper decorum.

u) Beginning with Abraham and moving on to Jesus Christ, salvation was brought to earth through Shemites.

v) Javan moved westward into Europe [Isa. 66:19], including Ionians or Greeks. Kittim is Cyprus and Rodanim is Rhodes.

w) Mizraim denotes Egypt, and Cush, Ethiopia.

then Erech, Accad and Calneh in the Shinar country.² ¹¹From there he extended his reign to Assyria, building Nineveh, Rehoboth-Ir, Calah ¹²and Resen between Nineveh and Calah, the great city.⁷

¹³To Mizraim were born the Ludim,² the Anamin, the Lehabim, the Naphtuhim, ¹⁴the Pathrusim, the Casluhim — from whom the Philistines came — and the Caphtorim.

¹⁶To Canaan were born, first Sidon, then Heth; ^{16a}also the Jebusite, the Amorite, the Girgashite, ¹⁷the Hivite, the Arkite, the Sinite, ¹⁸the Arvadite, the Zemarite and the Hamathite. Later the Canaanite clans spread abroad, ¹⁹so that the Canaanite territory reached from Zidon toward Gerar as far as Gaza, then toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim as far as Lasha. ²⁰These are Ham's descendants by clans, languages, lands and nations.

²¹Shem, too, ancestor of all the Hebrews and brother of Japheth, the oldest had offspring. ²²Shem's sons are Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud and Aram; ²³Aram's sons — Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. ²⁴Arpachshad was father to Shelah and Shelah to Eber.^a ²⁵Eber had two sons, one was named Peleg, because in his day the earth was divided; and his brother was named Joktan. ²⁶To Joktan were born Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, ²⁷Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²⁸Obal, Abimael, Sheba, ²⁹Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab.^b All these were the sons of Joktan; ³⁰they lived from Mesha toward Sephar and on eastward to the mountains.

³¹These are Shem's descendants by clans, dialects, lands and nations. ³²These are the family divisions of Noah's sons by peoples from whom the nations dispersed over the earth after the flood.

11 IT CAME ABOUT WHEN THE whole earth used one language and the same words ²that in moving in the East they came upon a plain in the Shinar territory and there they settled. ³They said to one another, "Come on! Let us mold bricks and thoroughly bake them"; so they had brick for stone and asphalt for mortar. ⁴Then they said, "Come on! Let us build a city for ourselves with a tower whose top reaches into the heavens. Let us make ourselves famous; else we shall be scattered all over the earth."

⁵Then the LORD came down to take a look at the city and the tower which the sons of men were building.^c ⁶The LORD said: Look! One people and all with one language! The way they are starting to behave, nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. ⁷Come, let us go down and so confuse their speech that they cannot make out each other's words. ⁸Thus the LORD dispersed them from there over the whole face of the earth. They quit building the city, ⁹which accordingly was called Babel.^d because there the LORD confused the whole world's language and from there the LORD scattered them over the whole face of the earth.

¹⁰These are Shem's descendants: when Shem was 100, Arpachshad was born to him, two years after the flood and, after Arpachshad's birth ¹¹Shem lived 500 years, getting sons and daughters. ¹²Arpachshad at 35 got Shelah ¹³and lived 403 years after Shelah's birth,^e getting sons and daughters. ¹⁴At 30 Shelah got Eber ¹⁵and he lived 403 years after Eber's birth, getting

x) In the Babylonian Plain.

y) Four towns together seem to be thought of as a great city, with the first superior until together they became Greater Nineveh.

z) The names ending with -im, signify peoples named after personal ancestors. The same is true of the next series of names, ending with -ite.

a) Arpachshad and Eber are specially mentioned because through them Abraham will be traced. It is also thought that Eber gave the name to the Hebrews.

b) Joktan, obviously, was a polygamist. His sons Ophir and Havilah moved southward, where "the gold of Ophir" was dug; while Havilah was mentioned in relation to the streams that came out from Eden.

c) While God is everywhere, as the sacred writer well knew, He paid at that time particular attention to this earthly attempt. d) Balale—confused.

e) Luke 3:36 mentions Cainan as Shelah's father and Arphaxad's son, from Gen. 11:13 in the Greek translation (the Septuagint) which adds "and Cainan lived 130 years and begat Shelah"—a number of years omitted in Ussher's chronology. Cainan (or his House) lived 460 years altogether.

sons and daughters. ¹⁶Eber, at 34 got Peleg ¹⁷and lived 430 years after Peleg's birth, getting sons and daughters. ¹⁸Peleg at 30 got Reu. ¹⁹After Reu's birth Peleg lived 209 years, getting sons and daughters. ²⁰At 32 Reu got Serug ²¹and after Serug's birth Reu lived 207 years, getting sons and daughters. ²²Serug at 30 got Nahor ²³and lived 200 years after Nahor's birth, getting sons and daughters. ²⁴When Nahor was 29, Terah was born to him. ²⁵Nahor lived 119 years after Terah's birth, getting sons and daughters.

²⁶Terah lived 70 years and got Abram, Nahor and Haran. ²⁷This is the Terah genealogy: Abram, Nahor and Haran were born to Terah and Lot was born to Haran; ²⁸ but Haran died in his father Terah's presence in his native land at Chaldean Ur.

²⁹Both Abram and Nahor married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran to whom Milcah and Iscah were born. ³⁰But Sarai was sterile; she remained childless. ³¹Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they migrated together from Chaldean Ur, to move into the land of Canaan; but when they got as far as Haran^f they settled there. ³²At Haran, Terah died at the age of 205.

2091 B.C.g

12 THE LORD SAID TO ABRAM: AS for you, leave your land, your relatives and your father's household for a land which I will show you, ²and I will make you into a great nation. I will bless you and make your name famous and you shall be a blessing. ³I will bless those who bless you and upon him who insults you I will put

My curse. Also in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.^h ⁴So Abram took his departure as the LORD had told him and Lotⁱ went with him. Abram was 75 when he left Haran ⁵and he took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot as well as the possessions they had secured and the personnel they had obtained in Haran and moved out to migrate to the land of Canaan, and to the land of Canaan they came.

⁶Abram kept moving through the land as far as the Shechem locality, to the terebinth^j tree of Moreh — the Canaanite then living in the land. ⁷But the LORD appeared to Abram and said: To your offspring I will give this land. There he built an altar to the LORD who had appeared to him. ⁸He then moved on to the hills east of Bethel and pitched his tent with Bethel west and Ai east of him. There he also built an altar to the LORD and called on the LORD's name.^k ⁹Then Abram traveled on, continuing toward the southland.^l

¹⁰When a famine visited the country, Abram went down to Egypt to stay there a while, because the famine was severe in the land. ¹¹As he was approaching Egypt, he said to Sarai, his wife, "See here! I know you are a good-looking woman. ¹²When the Egyptians catch sight of you, they will say, 'This is his wife'; then they will kill me, but retain you alive. ¹³I want you to say you are my sister,^m so that I may be favored on your account and, because of you, my life will be spared."

¹⁴As soon as Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians noticed how rarely beautiful a woman she was. ¹⁵Pharaoh's nobles noticed her too and highly commended her to Pharaoh;ⁿ so the woman was taken to Pharaoh's palace. ¹⁶On her account he treated Abram with

f) Probably named for the son and brother who had died.

g) Vs. 5 informs us of Abraham's age in 2091 B.C., which puts Abraham's birth in 2166, born when Terah was 130. Ch. 11:26 refers to the start of Terah's fatherhood, only one of the three sons being born in 2226, when Terah was 70.

h) In God's friend Abraham, in the godly nation and supremely in Christ.

i) Abram became Lot's guardian at Haran and Terah's death.

j) Not an oak, but yielding a fine quality of turpentine.

k) Name stood for personality; he communed with God.

l) The southern region of Canaan became known as the Negeb, which means the southland, still called the Negeb, or Negev.

m) It was a half-truth, for Sarai was the daughter of Terah by another wife. [Ch. 20:12].

n) "Pharaoh" was a title rather than a name, so that "the pharaoh" would be correct. Hence its recurrence throughout our sacred Writings.

generosity, giving to him flocks, herds, donkeys, male and female slaves, she-donkeys and camels. ¹⁷But the LORD struck Pharaoh and his household with serious diseases because of Sarai, Abram's wife. ¹⁸So Pharaoh summoned Abram and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not let me know she is your wife?" ¹⁹Why did you say, 'She is my sister' so that I took her for a wife? Look, here is your wife; take her and get out!" ²⁰Pharaoh ordered an escort for him, to conduct him away with his wife and everything he had.

13 ABRAM WITH HIS WIFE AND all he possessed and Lot along with him, went up from Egypt to the southland, ²extremely rich in livestock, in silver and in gold. ³From the Negeb he traveled by stages as far as Bethel, ⁴to the place where previously his tent had been, between Bethel and Ai, to the spot where at first he had built the altar, and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

⁵But Lot, who traveled with Abram, had flocks, too, and herds and tents of his own, ⁶and their possessions so increased that the country could not support the two of them while they stayed together, ⁷so that conflict developed between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and those of Lot's. The Canaanite and the Perizzite were then living in the land.

⁸Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no disputing between me and you or between my herdsmen and yours, for we are kinsmen. ⁹Is not the whole country open to you? I wish you might separate yourself from me, if to the left then I will turn to the right, or if to the right then I will turn to the left."

¹⁰Lot took a good look and saw how well watered the whole Jordan district was—before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah—as far as Zoar, like the LORD's garden^p, like the land of Egypt. ¹¹So Lot chose the whole Jordan basin for himself. As Lot moved eastward they separated from each other, ¹²Abram living in the Canaan country^q and Lot in the basin cities. He moved his tent as far as Sodom; ¹³but the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked; flagrant sinners against the LORD.

¹⁴After Lot had detached himself from Abram, the LORD said to Abram: Now raise your eyes and look from where you stand northward, southward, eastward and westward, ¹⁵for all the land you are viewing I will give you and your offspring forever. ¹⁶I will make your descendants as countless as the dust of the earth, so that, if anyone is able to count the dust particles by number, so may your offspring be numbered. ¹⁷Rise! Traverse the land in its length and in its breadth, for to you will I give it. ¹⁸Abram then moved his tent and came to live at the Mamre terebinths near Hebron and there he built an altar to the LORD.

2091 B.C.?

14 IN THE DAYS OF AMRAPHEL, king of Shinar; Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of nations,^r ²these kings made war against Bera, king of Sodom; Birsha, king of Gomorrah; Shinarab, king of Admah, Shemeber, king of Zeboim and the king of Belah, that is of Zoar. ³All these forces met in the Siddim valley which is now the Salt Sea.

⁴For twelve years they had been subject to Chedorlaomer; in the thirteenth year they revolted ⁵and in the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer approached with the allied kings. They conquered the Rephaim^s at Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim at Ham, the Emim in the

o) So it is well for us at times to return to places where once God met with us.

p) Almost certainly referring to the Garden of Eden. q) Abram, older and mightier, stepped back for his nephew Lot.

r) Here sacred and secular history meet and dating becomes more feasible. Shinar corresponds to Babylonia [Dan. 1:2; Isa. 11:11; Zech. 5:11] though Amraphel is not to be identified with Hammurabi, king of Babel, who reigned about 1728-1686. Eriaku, king of Larsa, may have been Arioch. Chedorlaomer-Kudurlagamar—means "Servant of Lagamar," an Elamite god. Tidal, king of nations, has been identified as Tudhul, king of Gutium, located north-east of Babylonia.

s) The Rephaim were of gigantic stature [Deut. 2:11,20; Josh. 17:17; II Sam. 21:16]. The Zuzim or Zamzuzini were their kin [Deut. 2:20]; so the Emim were tall as the Anakim [Deut. 2:9,11]. The Horites [Gen. 36:20] were destroyed by the Edomites [Deut. 2:12,22]. They carved rooms out of sheer rocks, stories above one another.

Kiriathaim plain, ⁶ and the Horites in their Seir mountain range as far as El-Paran, near the desert. ⁷Turning there, they came to En-Mishpat — that is Kadesh — and sacked the whole Amalekite region^t and the Amorites who lived at Hazazon-Tamar.

⁸Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboim and the king of Bela — that is Zoar — marched out in battle-formation against them in the Siddim valley — ⁹against Chedorlaomer, king of Elam; Tidal, king of nations; Amraphel, king of Shinar; and Arioch, king of Ellasar — four kings against five. ¹⁰Now the Siddim valley was full of tar pits, so, when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah took to flight, they fell there, while the rest fled to the mountains. ¹¹The victors took all the wealth and all the provisions of Sodom and Gomorrah and moved on; ¹²they also captured Lot, Abram's nephew, who lived in Sodom, his goods too, and decamped.

¹³But one who had escaped, came to Abram the Hebrew and told him; for he was living by the terebinths of Mamre, the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and of Aner, who were allies of Abram.^u ¹⁴When Abram learned that his kinsman had been captured, he mustered his trained men, born in his household, 318 of them, and marched in pursuit as far as Dan. ¹⁵Dividing his force against them by night, he and his men defeated the enemy and chased them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus. ¹⁶He recaptured all the loot and brought back his kinsman Lot and his possessions with the women and the people. ¹⁷Upon his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and his royal allies, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Shaveh valley — the King's vale. ¹⁸Melchizedek, too, king of Salem and priest to God Most High, brought out food and wine. ¹⁹He also blessed him, saying, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth," ²⁰and blessed be God Most High who has delivered your oppressors into your hand." Then he^v gave him a tithe of everything.

²¹The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Allow me the persons and you keep the goods for yourself," ²²but Abram answered the king of Sodom, "I lift up my hand to the LORD God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth, ²³that I will not receive one thread or sandal-strap from anything of yours so that you may never say, 'I made Abram rich'; ²⁴nothing except what the young men who marched with me have consumed, and the portion to which my allies, Aner, Eshcol and Mamre are entitled; let them take their share."^w

15 FOLLOWING THESE EVENTS THE word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: Have no fear, Abram; I am your Shield; your reward is marvelously rich. ²Abram said, "O, LORD God, what canst Thou give me, since I am ending life childless and my heir is this Eliezer of Damascus." ³Abram further said, "See, Thou hast given me no offspring and, consider, one belonging to my household will be heir to me." ⁴Then the LORD's message to him was: This one shall not be your heir; your heir will be born from your own body. ⁵Then He conducted him outdoors and said: Now look toward the heavens and count the stars, if you can number them. So, He told him, shall your offspring be. ⁶He believed in the LORD, who accounted it for him as righteousness. ⁷Then He said to him: I am the LORD who brought you from Chaldean Ur to give you this land to possess.

⁸"LORD God," he said, "in what way can I be assured it will be mine?"^x ⁹He said; Get Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtle dove and a young pigeon. ¹⁰All these he got himself and cut them into halves, then laid the halves opposite each other; but the

t) Later possessed by Amalekites, who were descendants of Esau.

u) Abram had achieved enough prominence to form alliance with native chiefs and was glad to secure such friendship to protect his increasing livestock.

v) Abram gave Melchizedek the tithe, because as priest he represented God.

w) Abram did not demand from his allies the loyalty to God that motivated him.

x) Complete faith did not come easily to Abram.

birds he did not divide. ¹¹And when birds of prey swooped down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

¹²About sunset a deep sleep overcame Abram and a horror of dense darkness got hold of him. ¹³Then He said to Abram: You will know with certainty that your descendants shall be aliens in a land not theirs for 400 years, working for those who shall oppress them. ¹⁴In turn I will punish the nation they shall be serving and afterward they will come away with ample wealth. ¹⁵As for yourself, you will join your fathers in peace; you will be buried in ripe old age. ¹⁶But they will come back here in the fourth generation^y; for the wickedness of the Amorites is not yet brim full.

¹⁷When the sun had set and dense darkness had come, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch passing between those pieces. ¹⁸At that time the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: To your descendants I will give this country from the river of Egypt^z to the Great River, the river Euphrates — ¹⁹the Kenite, the Kenizite, the Kadmonite, ²⁰the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Raphaim, ²¹the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Girgashite and the Jebusite.

2081 B.C.

16 SARAI, ABRAM'S WIFE, BORE him no children, but she had an Egyptian maid named Hagar. ²So Sarai said to Abram, "See here! The LORD has prevented me from bearing. Do go in to my maid; perhaps I may build up (a family) through her." Abram listened to Sarai's voice ³and Sarai, Abram's wife, took her maid Hagar, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram for a wife. That was after Abram had lived in the land of Canaan for ten years.

⁴He went in to Hagar and she conceived; but as soon as she realized that she had conceived, she looked down on her mistress. ⁶Then Sarai said to Abram, "May the injury I suffer come home to you. I entrusted my maid to your bosom and as soon as she found herself with child she looked down on me. Let the LORD do justice between me and you." ⁶Abram said to Sarai, "Look, your maid is in your power; handle her as you please." Then Sarai treated her harshly until she ran away from her. ⁷The Angel of the LORD found her near the spring of water in the desert, by the fountain on the way to Shur^a and He said: Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from and where are you going?

She said, "I am running away from my mistress Sarai." ⁹Then the Angel of the LORD told her: Go back to your mistress and humble yourself under her authority. ¹⁰The Angel of the LORD added: I will greatly increase your descendants beyond all counting, they will be so numerous. ¹¹The Angel of the LORD, further said: Take note, you are with child and you will give birth to a son, whom you will name Ishmael,^b because the LORD has noticed your harsh treatment. ¹²He will become a wild-ass of a man, his hand against every one and every one's hand against him and he shall live over against all his kindred.^c

¹³She called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, "Thou seeing God," for she said, "Have I not looked after the One who looked on me?" ¹⁴She named the well, therefore, "Well of the living One who sees me."^d It is located between Kadesh and Bered. ¹⁵Hagar bore Abram a son and Abram named his son whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. ¹⁶Abram was 86 when Hagar bore him Ishmael.^e

Early 2067 B.C.

17 WHEN ABRAM WAS 99 THE LORD appeared to Abram and

y) Cycle of age or generation reckoned by the 100 years which was the productive life span of healthy persons.

z) Probably "The River of Egypt," halfway between Philistia and Egypt, a stream that served as southern boundary of Palestine; but the Hebrew word "nabar," used for the Euphrates, too, renders possible the Nile, a few miles east of which the desert began. Then the north-eastern boundaries of Egypt would be the western boundaries of Israel southward.

a) Wall, fortification, along the east border of Egypt. b) God hears.

c) He speaks as the Lord Himself. We believe Him to be the Son of God — the Word.

d) Heb. Beer-Lohai-Roi. e) All Arabians accepting Moslem instructions, claim descent from Ishmael.

told him: I am God Almighty; live in my presence and be upright. ²I will make My covenant between Me and you and I will in a most unusual way multiply you. ³Abram fell on his face while God continued speaking to him: ⁴As for Me, My covenant is with you and you will be ancestor to many nations. ⁵Your name shall no longer be Abram but your name shall become Abraham, because I have designated you a father of many nations; ⁶I will render you extremely fruitful. ⁷Out of you I will make nations and from you kings shall spring. ⁸I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants in their successive generations for an everlasting covenant, to be your God and your offspring's after you. ⁹To you and to your descendants after you I will give the country to which you have migrated — the whole Canaanite country — for an everlasting possession; I will be their God.

⁹Therefore, God said to Abraham: You must keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you in their respective generations ¹⁰and this is My covenant between Me and you and your children after you, which you must observe: Every male of you shall be circumcised; ¹¹you must circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; it shall be for a covenant sign between Me and you. ¹²Eight days after his birth every boy born to you throughout your generations shall be circumcised, whether he be of your family circle or bought with money from any outsiders and not of your own offspring; ¹³without exception, home-born or bought with money, he must be circumcised. ¹⁴So shall My covenant be marked in your flesh, a never-ending covenant. ¹⁵The uncircumcised male, the flesh of whose foreskin is not circumcised, that person shall be eliminated from his people; he has broken My covenant.

¹⁶God said to Abraham: As for Sarai, your wife, do not call her Sarai, for her name shall be Sarah; ¹⁷I will bless her, yes, and give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she shall become a mother of nations and from her kings of peoples shall spring.

¹⁷Abraham fell on his face and laughed, saying to himself, "Shall a child be born to a centenarian, or can Sarah bear at ninety?" ¹⁸So Abraham said to God, "O, that Ishmael might live before Thee!" ¹⁹But God said: No, but Sarah, your wife, is about to bear you a son and you will name him Isaac. ²⁰With him, too, I will establish My covenant as an everlasting covenant for his children after him. ²¹I have also heard you regarding Ishmael and will indeed bless him, and render him fruitful. I will multiply him immensely; he will be ancestor to twelve princes and I will set him up for a great nation. ²²But My Covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear you this season next year.

²³When God had ended speaking with him, He ascended from Abraham ²⁴and Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the males born in his household; also those bought with his money, every male from his communal group, and on that very day circumcised the flesh of their foreskin, as God had told him. ²⁵Abraham was circumcised at 99 in the flesh of his foreskin ²⁶and his son Ishmael at thirteen. ²⁷Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised that same day, ²⁸and so were all the males of his household with him, those home-born and those purchased for money from the stranger.

Late 2067 B.C.

18 THE LORD APPEARED TO HIM BY the Mamre terebinths as he was sitting in the tent-door when the day was hot. ¹He looked up and saw three men standing opposite him. On seeing them, he ran from the tent-door to meet them, and bowing to the ground, ²he said, "My master, if you would do me a favor, then, please do not pass your servant by. ³I beg of you, let us have a little water brought, to

f) Abram-exalted father; Abraham — father of a multitude.

g) Not without hygienic value, too, especially during adolecent years.

h) Laughter, for both Abraham and Sarah laughed in view of the apparently impossible prospect; and at his birth they laughed [21:6]. i) Any time from 12 to 3:00 p.m.

wash your feet. Recline under the tree ⁵while I get a bite of bread so you may refresh yourselves; then you may go on; for this you surely came by your servant."

They said, "Do as you have said." ⁶So Abraham hurried to the tent to Sarah and said, "Quickly, bring three pecks of fine meal; knead it and bake cakes." ⁷Then Abraham ran to the herd, took a calf tender and good and gave it to the servant who dressed it in short order. ⁸He then took curds, milk and the prepared veal, placed it before them and stood by them under the tree, while they ate.

⁹They asked him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" He said, "There in the tent." ¹⁰Then He said,^j Without fail I shall come back to you at the reviving season and, see, Sarah, your wife will have a son.

Now Sarah was listening in at the tent door behind Him, ¹¹and since Abraham and Sarah were aged, well advanced in years, and the custom of women had ceased with Sarah, ¹²she laughed to herself, saying, "Connubial enjoyment for me, worn out as I am; and my master aged, too?" ¹³The LORD asked Abraham: Why did Sarah laugh just then, saying, "How could I possibly bear a child, old as I am?" ¹⁴Is anything beyond the LORD's reach? At the appointed time^k I will return to you, at the reviving season and Sarah will have a son. ¹⁵Feeling afraid, Sarah made denial, "I did not laugh." He said: No, but you did laugh.

¹⁶The men got up from there, looking toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to direct their way. ¹⁷Then the LORD said, Am I hiding from Abraham what I am about to do, ¹⁸whereas Abraham will certainly become a great and powerful nation, and all the nations on earth shall be blessed through him? ¹⁹For I have known him, so that he may charge his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD, doing what is right and fair, so that the LORD may bestow upon Abraham what He has told him.

²⁰Then the LORD said: The Sodom and Gomorrah outcry is loud and their sin is very grievous. ²¹I will now go down and see whether their behavior is like the outcry that has reached Me; and if not, I will know.^l

²²Then the men turned and went on to Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the LORD. ²³Abraham came closer and said, "Wilt Thou wipe out the good too, with the bad?" ²⁴There are perhaps fifty good persons in the city; wilt Thou indeed wipe out and not pardon the community because of the fifty good people among them? ²⁵Far be it from Thee to do such a thing, to slay the good with the bad, to treat righteous and wicked alike. Far be it from Thee. Shall not the Judge of all the earth deal justly?"

²⁶The LORD said: If I find within the city of Sodom fifty righteous, then I will grant pardon to the whole place for their sake.

²⁷Abraham replied, "I am aware that I have undertaken to speak to the LORD although I am but dust and ashes; ²⁸perchance there will be five lacking of the fifty righteous, wilt Thou for five destroy the entire city?" If I find there forty-five, He said, I will not destroy it.^m ²⁹Once more he spoke to Him, "Perchance forty will be found there." And He said, For the sake of the forty I will take no action.

³⁰He said, "Let not the LORD be angry, so that I may speak; perhaps there will be thirty found there." He said, I will not act, if I find thirty there.

³¹He said, "Thou seest that I am undertaking to speak to the LORD; perchance twenty shall be found there." And He said, I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake.

³²He said, "Let not the LORD be

j) Again this is the Lord Himself, ultimately to come as the Messiah.

k) Appointment made, Ch. 17:21. God may have thought so within Himself, as some surmise, but more likely He expressed Himself to Abraham. Abraham's walk with Him was evidence of hospitality, observed in Eastern lands more than here.

l) God sent his messengers to Sodom; He knew the measure of their wickedness.

m) Our Lord's teaching on prayer [Lk. 11:5-13; 18:1-8], is in line with Abraham's persistence and God's patient response.

angry, so that I may speak once more. Perchance ten shall be found there." And He said, I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten.ⁿ

³³When He was through talking to Abraham the LORD went away, and Abraham returned to his place.

19 THE TWO ANGELS ARRIVED IN Sodom at evening as Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom.^o When Lot noticed them, he got up to meet them; he bowed his face to the ground² and said, "Look here, my masters, please turn aside to your servant's home and stay overnight. Wash your feet, then rise early to be on your way." But they said, "No, we will spend the night outdoors."³ But he urged them strongly; so they turned aside to him and entered his home. He prepared a dinner for them; he baked unleavened cakes, and they ate.⁴ But before they lay down, the men of the city, the Sodomites, young and old, all the people from every direction, surrounded the house, shouting to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you this night? Bring them out to us, so we may rape them!"

⁶Lot went out to them to the doorway, closed the door behind him, and said, "I beg of you, my brothers, do not behave wickedly.⁸ Look here, I have two virgin daughters; let me bring them out to you, and you do with them as you like; but do nothing to these men, because they have come for shelter under my roof."⁹ They said, "Out of the way," and went on, "This fellow came here as an immigrant and he keeps acting as a judge. Now we shall treat you worse than them." Then they crowded Lot dangerously and nearly broke down the door; ¹⁰but the men^q thrust out their hands, pulled Lot inside to them and shut the door. ¹¹Then they struck with blindness the men at the door, from small to big, so that they wore themselves out trying to find the entrance.

¹²The men asked Lot, "Do you have still others here—sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters? Get everyone you have in the city away from here, ¹³for we are about to destroy this place; because the outcry of it has grown loud before the LORD and the LORD has sent us to wipe it out."¹⁴ So Lot went out to speak to his sons-in-law, who were taking his daughters. He said, "Up and away from this place, for the LORD is at the point of wiping out the city." But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be as one who jested.^r

¹⁵With break of day the angels hurried Lot along, "Get ready; take away your wife here and your two daughters, lest you be swept away in the city's punishment."¹⁶ But he loitered until—because the LORD would spare them—the men seized him, his wife, and his daughters by the hand, brought them out and put him outside the city. ¹⁷Once they had gotten them outside, one of them said, "Escape for your life! Do not look behind you; do not stop anywhere in the valley; escape to the mountain, lest you be swept away."

¹⁸Lot's response to them was, "O no, please, my master. ¹⁹See here, your servant has found favor with you and you have shown wonderful kindness in what you have done for me to save my life; but I am not able to escape to the mountain, lest disaster overtake me and I die. ²⁰Look! This town is near enough to flee to and it is small. Please, let me escape to it — is it not small? — to save my life!"

²¹He replied to him, "See, I am granting you this request, too, not to destroy this town you have mentioned.^s ²²Hurry to escape there, for I can do nothing until you have reached it." So they named that town Zoar.^t ²³Just after sunrise Lot entered Zoar. ²⁴Then the LORD rained sulphur and fire from

n) Lot's own family should have supplied at least eight of these.

o) Lot's sitting at the gate denotes considerable importance. His hearty welcome to strangers seems to have been exceptional in that lost city.

p) A degree of protection to guests that surpasses our sense of propriety.

q) The angels who in appearance were not readily distinguishable from men.

r) One wonders what his witness for God had been when these relatives took his warning as a jest. However, II Peter 2:8 mentions "his righteous soul."

s) As God's messenger — which is the meaning of the name "angel" — he could speak in the name of God. t) Zoar means small.

heaven, from the LORD on Sodom and Gomorrah; ²⁵He overturned these cities and the entire basin with the whole population of the towns and whatever grew on the ground. ²⁶But from behind him his wife looked back and became a pillar of salt.^u

²⁷Early in the morning Abraham went up to the spot where he had stood in the LORD's presence. ²⁸As he looked down upon Sodom and Gomorrah and upon that whole valley, he saw the smoke of the country rising like the smoke from a furnace. ²⁹But it was so, when God wiped out the basin cities, that God remembered Abraham and led Lot out of the catastrophe, when He was over-turning the cities where Lot lived.

³⁰Together with his two daughters Lot went up from Zoar and lived in the mountains, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar; so he lived with his two daughters in a cave. ³¹The older said to the younger, "Our father is aging and there is not a man in the land to marry us in the usual way. ³²Come on, let us get our father to drink wine and let us lie with him, so as to perpetuate our family through our father."^v ³³So that night they had their father drink wine and the first-born went in and lay with her father without his being aware of her lying down or her getting up. ³⁴Next day the first-born said to the younger, "You see, I lay with my father last night; let us have him drink wine tonight as well, then you go in and lie with him so we may preserve offspring from our father." ³⁵So they had their father drink wine that evening, too, and the younger got ready and lay with him without his being aware of her lying down or her getting up. ³⁶Thus the two daughters of Lot conceived by their father. ³⁷The first-born bore a son whom she named Moab^w; he became the ancestor of the Moabites of today. ³⁸The younger also bore a son, whom she named Ben Ammi^x; he became the ancestor of today's Ammonites.

20 ABRAHAM MOVED FROM THERE to the South country and lived between Kadesh and Shur; then he lived for a time in Gerar.^y ²About Sarah, his wife, Abraham said, "She is my sister." Then Abimelech, king of Gerar, sent for Sarah and took her. ³But in a dream by night God came to Abimelech and said to him: Take notice! You are about to die because of the woman you have taken; for she has a husband. ⁴However, Abimelech had not touched her, and said, "O Lord, wilt Thou slay a plainly blameless people? ⁵Did he not tell me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' I have done this from an honest heart and with clean hands."

⁶In the dream God said to him, I knew very well that you did this from an honest heart and I, even I, restrained you from sinning against Me^a; for this reason I did not let you touch her. ⁷Now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet^b; he will pray for you and you will survive. But if you do not return her, understand that you and all yours will surely die.

⁸Early in the morning Abimelech got up, summoned all his attendants and repeated all these words for them to hear, and they were thoroughly frightened. ⁹Abimelech summoned Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? In what have I offended you, that you have involved me and my kingdom in a great sin? You have treated me in an unbecoming way." ¹⁰Then Abimelech added, "What did you have in view to do such a thing?"

¹¹Abraham replied, "I said to myself, there is no reverence for God in this place, so they will kill me on account of my wife. ¹²Besides, she actually is

u) The salt of the Dead Sea would accumulate around the body and permeate it.

v) Lot's daughters had done well to preserve their virginity in their wicked environment; but the moral degradation of their community had told on their character. w) Moab - "Father's progeny."

x) Ben Ammi - "Son of my kin." y) 6 miles south of Gaza, on the Philistine boundary.

a) Man's relation is primarily to God first, as later Joseph felt and it helped him not to sin; and as David realized after he was rebuked for a sin.

b) As a man who customarily lived and spoke God's thought, Abraham was a prophet.

my sister; she is my father's daughter, but not my mother's and she became my wife. ¹³So when God made me wander away from my father's home, I said to her, 'Show me this kindness,— wherever we go, say of me, he is my brother.'"¹⁴Abimelech then made Abraham a present of flocks and herds, with male and female servants and he returned Sarah, his wife, to him. ¹⁵"Look! my land is at your disposal," Abimelech said, "settle wherever you please." ¹⁶And to Sarah he said, "Take note! I have given your brother 1,000 silver dollars by way of compensation to you for all that you and yours experienced, and, before all, your name is totally cleared."

¹⁷Abraham prayed to God^c and God healed Abimelech; also his wife and his maids, so they gave birth to children, ¹⁸for the LORD had completely closed the wombs in Abimelech's household on account of Sarah, Abraham's wife. 2066 B.C.

21 THE LORD CAME TO SARAH AS He had said; He dealt with her as He had promised.^d ²Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the season which God had mentioned to him. ³Abraham named the newly born son whom Sarah bore him, Isaac ⁴and, in agreement with God's command, Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was 8 days old, ⁵Abraham himself being 100 at his son Isaac's birth. ⁶Sarah remarked, "God has prepared laughter for me; every one who hears of it will laugh with me." ⁷Then she added, "Who would have told Abraham, 'Sarah will nurse children'? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

⁸The child grew big enough to be weaned^e and on Isaac's weaning day Abraham prepared a great feast. ⁹But Sarah noticed the son of Hagar, the Egyptian, whom she had borne Abraham, teasing.^f ¹⁰So she told Abraham, "Expel this servant girl with her son;

for the son of this servant girl shall not inherit with my son, with Isaac." ¹¹To Abraham the proposal seemed very wrong on account of his son, ¹²but God said to Abraham; Do not consider it objectionable because of the lad and because of your maid. Listen to everything Sarah tells you, for your name shall be perpetuated through Isaac; ¹³and of the son of the maid, too, I will make a nation, because he is your offspring.

¹⁴Early next morning Abraham got up, took bread and a skin of water,^g which he gave to Hagar and put on her shoulder, also the lad^h and dismissed her. She left and roamed in the Beersheba desert ¹⁵until the water in the skin-bottle was gone. Then she put the youth beneath one of the shrubs ¹⁶and went to seat herself at a bow-shot's distance opposite him, for she said, "I must not see the boy die." As she sat there, she wept audibly; ¹⁷but God heard the lad's call, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven: "Hagar, what is troubling you? Have no fear, for God has heard the lad's voice there where he is." ¹⁸Rise up, raise the boy and hold him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation."

¹⁹Then God opened her eyes and she noticed a spring; so she went and filled the skin with water and gave the lad to drink. ²⁰God was with the youth; he grew up and lived in the desert, becoming an expert bowman. ²¹He made the Paran desert his home and his mother got him a wife from the land of Egypt.

²²About that time Abimelech and Phicol, his general, said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do. ²³Now swear to me here before God that you will not play me false, nor my children, nor my posterity, but that, as I have shown you friendship, so you will treat me and the land in which you are an immigrant." ²⁴Abraham answered, "I so swear." ²⁵But

c) As Job was commissioned to pray for his three friends. The prayer of a devout worshiper "avails much" [James 5:16], and believers need to exercise that grace in behalf also of non-believers.

d) Enabling her to be a mother. e) Usually on the fifth birthday.

f) The Septuagint has, "laughing at her son Isaac."

g) A goat's complete body-skin, well sewed together so that no leak occurred.

h) Ishmael was around 18; his mother did not carry him, as some would have it.

i) Ishmael may have learned from his father to whom he might turn for help when all else has failed.

Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water-well, which Abimelech's servants had seized; ²⁶to which Abimelech replied, "I do not know who did this; you never told me and I never heard of it till today."^j

²⁷Then Abraham presented sheep and cattle to Abimelech, and the two made a covenant. ²⁸When Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock, ²⁹Abimelech asked him, "What about those seven ewe lambs you have set apart?" ³⁰He answered, "Accept these seven ewe lambs from me to be my witness that I have dug this well."^k ³¹The place was therefore named Beer-sheba; for there both made an oath. ³²They thus made a covenant at Beer-sheba.^k

Then Abimelech and his general Phicol got ready and returned to the Philistine country. ³³Abraham planted a tamarisk at Beer-sheba^l and there he called on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. ³⁴For many a day Abraham lived as a stranger in the land of the Philistines.

22 FOLLOWING THIS, GOD TESTED^m Abraham. He said to him, Abraham! He answered, "Here I am."

²Take now your son, He said, your only one, Isaac, whom you love; be-take yourself to the region of Moriah and there offer him up as a burnt-sacrifice on one of the summits which I will designate to you. ³Early next morning Abraham got up, saddled his donkey, selected two young men to go with him, as well as his son Isaac, split the wood for a burnt-offering, then started out for the location of which God had told him. ⁴On the third day Abraham looked up and in the distance saw the place. ⁵Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here by yourselves with the donkey; while I and the lad go yonder; so we may worship and return to you."ⁿ

⁶Abraham took the wood for the burnt-offering and laid it on Isaac,^o his son, while he carried in his hand the torch and a knife; so the two walked together. ⁷"My father," Isaac said to his father Abraham, who said, "Here I am, my son."^p Then he inquired, "Here are the fire and the wood; but where is the lamb for the burnt-offering?" ⁸Abraham answered, "My son, God will provide Himself the lamb for the burnt-offering"; so the two walked on together.

⁹When they reached the spot of which God had told him, Abraham built the altar there; then he arranged the wood and bound his son Isaac,^q whom he laid on the altar upon the wood. ¹⁰Abraham then reached out his hand and took hold of the knife to slay his son; ¹¹but the Angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, Abraham! Abraham! He said, "Here I am." ¹²Do not lay hands on the lad, He said, do nothing to him; for now I know that you revere God. You have not held back from Me your son, your only one.

¹³Abraham raised his eyes and there behind him he saw a ram, entangled by its horns in a thicket; so Abraham went, took the ram and offered it for a sacrifice instead of his son. ¹⁴Abraham called that place Jehovah-Jireh,^r so that to this day it is said, "In the mountain of the LORD it shall be provided."

¹⁵The angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time; ¹⁶He said, "By Myself I have sworn, the LORD says, because you have done this and have not held back your son, your only one," ¹⁷I will bless you beyond words; I will greatly multiply your descendants so as to compare with the

j) Abimelech denied responsibility, which he should exercise; hence Abraham's demand for an oath.

k) Beer - well; sheba - oath; Well of the oath.

l) Evidence that Abraham expected to stay there for a good while; he must have considered it part of "the land of promise."

m) God does not tempt [James 1:13]; temptation is always from "the evil one." But God tests often. n) He knew they would both return. o) The son was physically stronger than the father.

p) Whenever the words, "Here I am" occur, the literal words are, "Look at me"; so that usually "Here I am," will do.

q) To which Isaac was perfectly agreed, even as the Son of God so loved the world - and the Father - that He gave Himself. r) Meaning, The Lord will provide.

s) God did not allow Abraham to forget that his affair with Hagar was altogether out of order; that only Isaac was the son of His promise.

stars of heaven and the sand on the seashore for numbers. Your offspring shall possess the gate of his enemies¹⁸ and through your offspring all peoples of the earth shall be blessed; because you have obeyed My voice.”

¹⁹Then Abraham went back to his young men and together they started for Beersheba where Abraham made his home.

²⁰Later this news came to Abraham: Take note, Milcah, she too has borne children to your brother Nahor—²¹Uz, his first-born; ²²his brother Buz; Kemuel, the father of Aram; ²³Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel. ²⁴To Bethuel Rebekah was born. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother. ²⁵Also Reumah, his concubine, bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

2029 B.C.

23 SARAH'S LENGTH OF LIFE WAS 127 years; ²she died at Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. Abraham³ came to lament and weep for her. ⁴Then arising from the presence of his dead, Abraham said to the sons of Heth, ⁵“As I am a stranger and immigrant among you, may I have my own burial ground among you, so that I may bury my dead from my presence?” ⁶The Hittites answered Abraham, ⁷“Listen to us, Sir! You are a godlike prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our sepulchres; none of us will refuse you his sepulchre for burying your dead.” ⁸Then Abraham stood up, bowed earthward to the Hittites, the people of the land, ⁹and told them, “If you are willing to have me bury my dead from my presence, then listen to me: Request for me of Ephron, Zohar's son, ¹⁰to let me have the Machpelah cave he has at the end of his field. At its full price he should let me have it in your presence for my own cemetery lot.”

¹¹Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; so Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of all the Hittites,^x who were entering the city-gate, ¹²“No, Sir. Listen to me! I give you the field and the cave it contains; I give it to you with the sons of my people witnessing; you bury your dead.”

¹³Abraham bowed down before the people of the land ¹⁴and said to Ephron, so that all the natives heard it, “If you consent, then please listen to me. I will pay you for the field; accept the money from me, and I will bury my dead.”

¹⁵Ephron answered Abraham, ¹⁶“Listen to me, Sir! The land is worth 260 dollars, what does that amount to between me and you? Go ahead, and bury your dead.”

¹⁷Abraham understood Ephron; so he weighed out to Ephron the silver he had stipulated in the hearing of the Hittites, 260 dollars, currency with the merchants. ¹⁸This secured Ephron's field at Machpelah that faced Mamre; the field with the cave that was in it, and all the trees that were in the field to its surrounding boundaries ¹⁹were legally conveyed to Abraham to be his property, witnessed by all the Hittites who were entering the gate of his city. ²⁰This done, Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave of the Machpelah field, fronting Mamre, that is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. ²¹The field and the cave it contained were legally conveyed by the sons of Heth into Abraham's possession for a cemetery.^y

2026 B.C.

24 WHEN ABRAHAM WAS OLD AND up in years, blessed of God in every way, ²he said to the oldest servant in his household, who was in charge of all his property, “Kindly place your hand under my thigh, ³and I will have you swear by the Lord, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not get my son a wife from the daugh-

t) Job is later mentioned as living in the land of Uz.

u) Aram has given his name to all Arameans, to many more than his own descendants.

v) Abraham had moved back to Mamre. Sarah had her own tent; which Abraham entered for the mourning.

w) The Hittites were a great nation north and east of Palestine. A colony of them had migrated to southern Canaan. x) We would say, “The citizens,” in this case of Hebron.

y) Here we have a true picture of an important business transaction in the Near East, without use of writing; the price was high, but Abraham would not barter.

ters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living. ⁴Instead, you must go to my country and to my relatives to obtain a wife for my son Isaac."²

⁵The servant said to him, "In case the woman is not willing to follow me to this country, then should I take your son back to the land from which you came?" ⁶Abraham told him, "Beware of taking my son back there. ⁷The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, who spoke to me and made oath to me, 'To your offspring I will give this land,' He will send His angel ahead of you, so that you may obtain a wife from there for my son. ⁸However, should the woman be unwilling to come with you, then you are released from this oath to me; only, do not take my son back there."

⁹The servant then placed his hand under his master Abraham's thigh and swore to him to that effect. ¹⁰He took ten of his master's camels, and took the road with all sorts of his master's treasures in hand; he went to Mesopotamia, to Nahor's town. ¹¹There, outside the town, he made the camels kneel near the well of water. It was toward evening when the women came out to draw water.

¹²He said, "LORD God of my master Abraham, prosper me, I pray, this day and show grace to my master Abraham. ¹³See, I am standing here by the well of water, while the daughters of the townsmen are coming out to draw water. ¹⁴May it be so, that the girl to whom I say, 'Please, lower your pitcher so that I may drink,' and who shall answer, 'Drink, and I will water your camels, too,' that she may be the girl Thou hast designated for Thy servant Isaac. By this I shall know that Thou hast treated my master graciously."^a ¹⁵Things began to happen before he had done speaking: Rebekah, born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, was coming out with a pitcher on her shoulder.

¹⁶The girl was exceptionally good-looking, a virgin — no man had known her. Going down to the well, she filled her pitcher and came up. ¹⁷The servant ran to meet her and said, "Would you kindly let me have a drink of water from your pitcher?"

¹⁸She said, "Drink, sir!" and quickly lowered the pitcher on her hand to give him a drink. ¹⁹When she was through quenching his thirst, she said, "I will draw for your camels, too, until they have enough." ²⁰Promptly she emptied the pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw and drew for all the camels.^b

²¹Silently the man stood gazing at her, to observe whether or not the LORD had made his trip successful, ²²and when the camels had finished drinking the man produced a quarter-ounce ring of gold and two five-ounce golden bracelets for her wrists ²³and asked her, "Whose daughter are you? Please, tell me, is there room at your father's house for us to lodge?" ²⁴She told him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor." ²⁵Then she added, "We have plenty of straw and fodder and space to spend the night." ²⁶The man then bowed and worshiped the LORD. ²⁷He said, "Praised be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not failed my master with His mercy and His truth. I, being on the way, the LORD guided me to the house of my master's kinsfolk."^c

²⁸The girl ran to tell everything at her mother's home. ²⁹Rebekah had a brother named Laban and Laban ran out to the well to the man. ³⁰So it was, when he saw the ring, also the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and heard his sister Rebekah repeat what the man had said to her, he ran outdoors to the well and exclaimed, as he saw the man standing there, ³¹"Come in, you blessed of the LORD. Why stand outdoors when I have gotten the house ready and a place for the camels?" ³²So the man

z) Abraham would gladly have married Isaac to the daughter of a home as godly as his own; but there was none; so he kept near to it. a) He was looking for physical ability and a benevolent disposition. b) One likes to think the camels were assisted, too; but Rebekah showed her mettle. c) Cooperation between God and man; the man on the move and God guiding.

came in and unloaded the camels. Then he^d provided straw and fodder; also water to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him. ³³Food was placed before him to eat. But he said, "I shall not eat until I have told my errand."

"Tell it!" he said. ³⁴So he spoke, "I am Abraham's servant, ³⁵and the LORD has richly blessed my master; he has become great. He has given him flocks, and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, camels and donkeys. ³⁶After Sarah, my master's wife, had grown old, she bore my master a son, to whom he is leaving all he has." ³⁷My master also made me swear; he said, 'Secure no wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I am living; ³⁸but go to my father's house, to my relatives, and get a wife for my son.'

³⁹"I said to my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow me,' ⁴⁰but he told me, 'The LORD, in whose presence I walk, will send His angel with you to render your trip successful, so that you will obtain a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father's house. ⁴¹You will then be freed from your oath to me. If, when you come to my kinsmen, they fail to give you (one), then you are freed from your oath!'

⁴²"Today as I came to the well, I said, 'LORD God of my master Abraham, if Thou art about to prosper the way I am going, ⁴³see, I am standing by the water-well; let it be that the girl who comes to draw water, to whom I say, 'Please, let me drink a little water from your pitcher,' ⁴⁴and who says to me, 'You drink, and I will draw for your camels, too,' let her be the woman whom the LORD has designated for my master's son. ⁴⁵And before I was through saying this in myself, there came Rebekah with her pitcher on her shoulder. She went down to the well and drew. I said to her, 'Please, let me have a drink.' ⁴⁶Quickly she lowered her pitcher and said, 'Have a drink, and I will water your camels, too!' So I drank, and she watered the camels, too.

⁴⁷"Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore him.' I then put the ring on her face and the bracelets on her wrists, ⁴⁸and I bowed myself in worship to the LORD and praised the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the right road to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. ⁴⁹Now then, if you are going to treat my master kindly and fairly, let me know; or if not, let me know, so I may turn to the right or to the left."

⁵⁰Both Laban and Bethuel^f replied, "This thing is from the LORD; we cannot speak for or against it. ⁵¹Look, Rebekah is present; take her and go; let her marry your master's son, in agreement with the LORD's message."

⁵²When Abraham's servant heard their response, he bowed to the earth before the LORD; ⁵³then the servant brought out and gave Rebekah articles of silver and of gold, and clothes. Her brother and her mother he gave jewelry, too. ⁵⁴Then he and the men with him ate and drank, and they stayed overnight.

As they got up in the morning, he said, "Let me go back to my master"; ⁵⁵but her brother and her mother said, "Let the girl stay with us a few days, maybe ten, after which she may go." ⁵⁶But he told them, "Do not detain me, since the LORD has made my journey successful; let me be off to get back to my master." ⁵⁷They said, "Let us call the girl and ask her personally." ⁵⁸So they called Rebekah and asked her, "Are you willing to go with this man?" Her answer was, "I will go!" ⁵⁹Then they saw their sister Rebekah off with her nurse and with Abraham's servant and his men. ⁶⁰They pronounced a blessing on Rebekah, "You, our sister, may you become the mother of mild) Not the servant, but Laban, furnished the necessities.

e) Abraham's representative was a good salesman.

f) Laban assumed the rights of the first-born rather early, as aggressive sons are likely to do. And, oriental fashion, Rebekah had not been consulted. This seems Rebekah's father's first and only chance to get in a word edgewise; Laban, her brother, did all the conversing.

lions, and may your offspring possess the gates of those who hate them."

⁶¹Then Rebekah started with her maids and, riding on camels, they followed the man; thus the servant obtained Rebekah and took his course.

⁶²Now, Isaac had come from a trip to the well of Lahairoi, for he was living in the South. ⁶³He had gone out in the field for his twilight meditations and looking up, he saw camels coming. ⁶⁴Rebekah looked up, too. When she saw Isaac, she slid down from the camel ⁶⁵and asked the servant, "Who is that man over there, walking in the field to meet us?" The servant replied, "That is my master." She therefore took her veil and covered herself.

⁶⁶The servant told Isaac everything he had done, ⁶⁷and Isaac conducted her inside his mother Sarah's tent. He married Rebekah;⁶⁸ she became his wife, and he came to love her. So Isaac found consolation after his mother's death.

25 ABRAHAM MARRIED ANOTHER wife named Keturah,² who bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian,^b Ishbak, and Shuah. ³Jokshan got Sheba and Dedan. The children of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites, and the Leummites. ⁴And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Ephher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were Keturah's children.

1991 B.C.

⁵Abraham left all he had to Isaac; ⁶but, while still living, Abraham gave presents to the children of his concubines and sent them away eastward to the Kedem¹ country, out of Isaac's way. ⁷Abraham's life span was 175 years; ⁸then at a ripe old age, after a long and full life, Abraham expired. He was gathered to his people, ⁹and his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the Machpelah cave, fronting Mamre, in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hittite, ¹⁰which Abraham had bought from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried beside Sarah, his wife. ¹¹After Abraham's death, God's blessing was on his son Isaac, who lived at the well of Lahairoi.^j ¹²These are the descendants of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, whom Hagar, the Egyptian, Sarah's maid, bore to Abraham; ¹³these are the names of Ishmael's sons by their names, in the order of their birth: Ishmael's first-born, Nebayoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ¹⁴Mishma, Dumah, Massa, ¹⁵Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. ¹⁶These are Ishmael's sons by their names, their villages, and their encampments, twelve chiefs with their clans.

1943 B.C.

¹⁷This is the length of Ishmael's life, 137 years; then he breathed his last; he died and was gathered to his people; ¹⁸who lived from Havilah as far as Shur, east of Egypt on the way toward Assyria. He settled before all his kin.^k

¹⁹These are the descendants of Isaac the son of Abraham: Isaac was born to Abraham. ²⁰At 40 Isaac married Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel, the Aramean of Padan Aram and sister to Laban the Aramean. ²¹Isaac prayed the LORD on behalf of his wife, for she remained childless, and the LORD responded to his entreaty; his wife Rebekah conceived. ²²Then within her body the children jostled each other, and she said, "If this is so, why am I this way?" So she went to the LORD to find out ²³and the LORD told her: "Two nations exist in your womb, and two peoples shall separate from your body, one stronger than the other, and the older shall serve the younger."^l

²⁴When her days for delivery were completed, there were indeed twins in her womb. ²⁵The first came out reddish all over, like a hairy coat; so they called him Esau.^m ²⁶Then his brother was born, his hand holding on to Esau's

g) Both were hopeful and neither was disappointed. Both seem to have been disciplined in the give-and-take ways of living and thus made a better match than results from purely physical attraction. Habitually relating his interests to God, Isaac's feet turned him for his meditation in the direction from which his bride was coming. h) The Midianites are to make life hard for the Israelites.

i) Where the Lord had shown Hagar and Ishmael a spring when they were thirsty.

j) Mostly the region of the Israelites' journeyings in the desert, therefore south of Jacob's, Esau's, and Lot's descendants. k) The location is foretold, Ch. 16:12. l) That is, Jacob was to enjoy the rights of the first-born. m) Esau - hairy; Edom - Red; Jacob - heel-grabber, therefore, Supplanter.

heel; so they named him Jacob. Isaac was 60 when she bore them. ²⁷As the boys matured, Esau became an expert hunter, a man of the open spaces, while Jacob was of a quiet disposition, living in tents. ²⁸Isaac favored Esau, for he enjoyed the taste of his game; and Rebekah favored Jacob."

²⁹Jacob was boiling a stew when Esau came in from the field, exhausted, ³⁰and he said to Jacob, "Let me drink some of that red, that red there, for I am famished"—hence his name Edom. ³¹Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright!" ³²Esau said, "Look here! I am starving; then what good will my birthright do me!" ³³"Swear to me this moment," Jacob said, and he swore to him; he sold his birthright to Jacob. ³⁴Then Jacob dished Esau bread and lentil stew. He ate and drank, then got up and went his way. Thus lightly did Esau esteem his birthright.

26 A FAMINE VISITED THE LAND IN addition to the earlier famine in Abraham's day, so Isaac moved to Gerar, to Abimelech^o the Philistine king. ²Then the LORD appeared to him and said, Do not go down to Egypt; remain in the land which I indicate to you. ³Live as an immigrant in this land and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and to your descendants I will give all this territory. I will make good the oath I swore to your father Abraham; ⁴I will make your offspring as countless as the stars of heaven, and I will give your descendants all these lands. Through your offspring all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, ⁵because Abraham minded My voice and kept My charge, My orders, My rules and My laws. ⁶So Isaac stayed at Gerar. ⁷When the men of the community inquired about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," (thinking) the men of this place may kill me to get Rebekah, who is beautiful.

⁸So it was after he had been there a long time that Abimelech, the king, looked out of the window, and there he saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah. ⁹Abimelech then summoned Isaac and said, "See here, she is really your wife. How could you say, 'She is my sister?'" Isaac told him, "Because I reasoned that else she might cost me my life." ¹⁰Abimelech retorted, "What is this that you have done to us! One of my men might readily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us." ¹¹Then Abimelech charged all the people, "Whoever touches this man or his wife shall certainly be executed."

¹²Isaac sowed his crop in that land and that year he harvested a hundred-fold; the LORD blessed him. ¹³He became a rich man and continued prospering until he grew so very wealthy, ¹⁴owning flocks and herds and a great body of servants, that the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵They stopped all the wells which his father's servants had dug in his father Abraham's time, filling them up with dirt. ¹⁶Abimelech told Isaac, "Move away from us, for you are much more powerful than we."^p

¹⁷So Isaac moved away from there; made camp in the Gerar valley and lived there. ¹⁸The water-wells that had been dug in his father Abraham's time, but which the Philistines had choked after Abraham's death, he reopened; he also gave them the same names his father had given them. ¹⁹But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and struck a spring of running water, ²⁰the Gerar shepherds disputed with Isaac's shepherds, saying, "The water is ours." So he named the well Esek^a because they disputed with him. ²¹They dug another well, over which there also was a dispute; so he named it Sitnah.^q ²²He moved away from there and dug another well, over which there was no dispute. He named it Rehoboth, saying, "Surely, now the LORD has made

n) Until modern times favoritism in the home has been a serious trouble, aggravated by the naming of children after kin on either side of the family.

o) The name Abimelech, like the name Pharaoh in Egypt, seems to have been a title that applied to successive rulers.

p) Isaac with all his servants and their families was still fewer in numbers, but in movable property he outstripped all the Philistine sheiks. And his flocks and herds fed on what grew in the Philistine country so long as the Hebrew clan remained among them.

q) Esek - Contention; Sitnah - Enmity, or accusation, satanic.

room for us, in order that we may be fruitful in the land."

²³From there he went up to Beer-sheba, ²⁴where that night the LORD appeared to him and said: I am the God of your father Abraham. Have no fear, for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of My servant Abraham. ²⁵There he built an altar and called upon the name of the LORD; there he made camp, and there Isaac's servants dug a well.

²⁶Abimelech called on him from Gerar, with his friend Ahuzzath and his general Phicol. ²⁷Isaac asked him, "Why do you call on me when you hate me and sent me away from you?"

²⁸They said, "We have clearly seen how the LORD is with you; so we said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you, ²⁹that you will not harm us, since we have not touched you.' We have done you nothing but good, and we sent you away in peace; you are now blessed of the LORD!"

³⁰He then prepared a banquet for them; they ate and drank ³¹and, rising early in the morning, they swore each to the other. Then Isaac bade them farewell, and they took their leave from him in peace.

³²That same day Isaac's servants came to tell him about a well they had dug; they reported to him, "We have found water." ³³He named it Shebah; therefore to this day the town is called Beer-sheba.^r ³⁴At forty Esau married Judith, the daughter of Be-eri, the Hittite; also Basemath, the daughter of Elon, the Hittite, ³⁵which brought great distress to Isaac and Rebekah.

1929 B.C.

27 WHEN ISAAC WAS AGING AND HIS eyes had grown so dim that he could not see, he called Esau, his elder son, saying to him, "My son," to which he replied, "Here I am!" ²He said, "Look here, I am growing old; I do not know when I may die; ³ so now, please take your hunting outfit, your arrow-case and your bow; go out in the open country and hunt game for me. Prepare me a tasty dish, the kind I am fond of, and bring it to me to eat, so I may ⁴give you my blessing before I die."^a ⁵Rebekah was eavesdropping while Isaac spoke to his son Esau; so, while Esau had gone to the field, hunting game to bring in, ⁶she told her son Jacob, "Take note! I heard your father telling your brother Esau, ⁷'Bring me game and prepare me a tasty dish, so I may eat and bless you in the LORD's presence, before I die.' ⁸Now, son, listen to what I order you. ⁹Go to the flock now and fetch me two well-fed kids of the goats. I will prepare them as a tasty dish for your father such as he likes ¹⁰and you will take it in to your father, so he can eat and give you the blessing before he dies."

¹¹Jacob answered Rebekah, his mother, "Remember, my brother Esau is a hairy man and I am smooth. ¹²My father may stroke me and I will seem to him a mocker; then I shall bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing."

¹³His mother said, "I will take your curse on me, my son; you simply do as I say. You go and fetch them for me."

¹⁴So he went and got them; he brought them to his mother and his mother made the tasty dish as his father liked.

¹⁵Rebekah then got the choicest clothes of Esau, her elder son, which she had with her at home, and dressed Jacob, her younger son; ¹⁶she also fitted the skins of the goat-kids on his wrists and on the smooth of his neck, ¹⁷and handed the delicious meat and the bread she had baked to her son Jacob.

¹⁸He went to his father and said, "My

r) Be-er - well; Sheba - seven, as with our Nez Perce Indians a thrice repeated statement equals an oath, probably so here a seven times repeated statement equals an oath. Shibah, feminine form of Shebah, which means seven, or an oath.

s) The birthright which Esau had sold to Jacob, was the right of the first-born - a double share in the father's legacy and the assumption of the father's rank, as head of the family or clan and as member of the community. The blessing was more spiritual; it was the father's invocation of divine favor upon the son, in this case Isaac's prayer that Jacob might receive God's promise to Abraham and to himself, to be blest and to bring blessings to the world, a spiritual function for which Esau never was fitted and for which Jacob was not yet ready. And God had designated Jacob for that blessing. [Ch. 25:23].

father!" He said, "Here! Who are you, my son?" ¹⁹Jacob told his father, "I am Esau, your first-born; I have done as you told me. Please, sit up and eat of my game, so that you yourself may heartily bless me." ²⁰Isaac remarked to his son; "How is this, that you found it so quickly, my son?" He said, "Because the LORD, your God brought it direct to me."

²¹Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come close to me, so I may stroke you, my son, whether you really are my son Esau or not." ²²When Jacob moved closer to his father Isaac, he stroked him and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are Esau's hands." ²³He did not identify him because his wrists were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him. ²⁴He said, "Are you truly my son Esau?" He answered, "I am." ²⁵He said, "Then bring it near me that I may eat of my son's game, so I may personally bless you." So he placed it near him and he ate; he brought him wine, too, and he drank.

²⁶His father Isaac then said to him, "Now come close and kiss me, my son." ²⁷He moved near and kissed him and when he smelled his clothes, he blessed him. He said, "Truly, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed. ²⁸God grant you from heaven's dew and from earth's fatness abundance of grain and wine. ²⁹May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be master over your kinsmen and may your mother's sons prostrate themselves to you. A curse on those who curse you and a blessing on those who bless you."

³⁰Isaac had hardly finished blessing Jacob and Jacob had just left his father Isaac, when his brother Esau came in from his hunting. ³¹He, too, had prepared a tasty dish, which he brought in to his father, to whom he said, "Let my father sit up and eat from his son's game, so that you may personally bless me." ³²Isaac asked him, "Who are you?" He said, "I am Esau, your son, your first-born." ³³Then Isaac was so shocked he trembled; he said, "Who was it then who hunted game and brought it in to me? And I ate of all of it before you came in; I also blessed him. Yes, and he shall be blessed."

³⁴Upon hearing his father's words, Esau wailed with a most loud and bitter cry, pleading with his father, "Bless me, too, my father." ³⁵But he replied, "Your brother came in with pretense and stole your blessing."

³⁶He remarked, "Was he not well named Jacob, for twice now he has over-reached me; he robbed me of my birthright and now he has stolen my blessing; but"—he pleaded—"have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

³⁷Isaac responded, "You see, I have made him your master and I have given him all his kinsfolk for servants; I have provided him with grain and wine. Now what can I do for you, my son?"

³⁸Esau pleaded with his father, "Is that your only blessing, my father? Bless me, O my father; me, too!" At this, Esau raised his voice and wept loudly. ³⁹Then his father responded to him: "See, you will live on the fatness of the earth and from the dews of heaven above. ⁴⁰You will sustain yourself by your sword and you will serve your brother; but when you strenuously exert your power, you will break his yoke from your neck."

⁴¹Because of the blessing which his father had bestowed on him, Esau nurtured a grudge against Jacob and said under his breath, "Mourning time for father is not far off; then I will kill my brother Jacob." ⁴²When these sentiments of Esau, her elder son, reached Rebekah, she sent and called for Jacob, her younger son and told him, "See, your brother Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you; ⁴³so now, my son, listen to my voice. Get ready and flee to my brother Laban at Haran ⁴⁴and stay with him for a few days until your brother's fury has blown over and his anger at you subsides;

t) Neither Jacob nor Rebekah gained anything by their cruel and ungodly deceit; instead both suffered much on account of it. On earth they apparently never met again, after Jacob had to flee.
u) This was not a blessing, but a statement of an unfavorable situation and a suggestion for making the best of it.

⁴⁵till he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send for you and get you back from there. Why should I be deprived of you both at the same time?"

⁴⁶To Isaac, Rebekah complained, "The presence of those Hittite women wears me down so, if Jacob marries one of the Hittite girls like these daughters of the land, my life will not be worth living."

28 ISAAC THEN CALLED JACOB AND blessed him; he also charged him, "You are to marry no Canaanite girl. ²Get ready; go to Padan Aram^v to the family of Bethuel, your mother's father, and get you a wife there from your uncle Laban's daughters. ³God Almighty bless you, make you prolific and multiply you so that you may become an association of peoples. ⁴May He grant you and your descendants after you the blessing He bestowed on Abraham, so as to possess the land in which you are now a stranger, which God gave to Abraham." ⁵With this Isaac sent Jacob away and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, mother of Esau and Jacob.

⁶When Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Padan Aram to get a wife from there, that in his blessing he had charged him, "Take no wife from the daughters of Canaan," ⁷and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Padan Aram, ⁸when Esau realized that the Canaanite women did not please his father Isaac, ⁹Esau went to Ishmael and married, in addition to the wives he had, Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, and sister to Nebaioth.

¹⁰Jacob started out from Beer-sheba and as he traveled toward Haran ¹¹he reached a certain place where he spent the night because the sun had set.^w

He took one of the stones there, adjusted it for his pillow and lay down in that place. ¹²He dreamed and, behold, a ladder standing on the ground and its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God ascending and descending on it.^x ¹³And behold, the LORD stood above it, who said: I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham, and the God of Isaac. The land on which you are lying I will give you and your descendants; ¹⁴your offspring shall be as the dust of the earth; you will enlarge westward and eastward, northward and southward and in you and in your offspring all the families of the earth shall be blessed. ¹⁵See now, I am with you and I will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this country; for I shall not forsake you until I have done everything I have mentioned to you.^y ¹⁶When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he said, "Amen, the LORD is in this place and I did not know it." ¹⁷He felt awe and said, "How awesome a place! This is no other than God's house; this is the gate of heaven." ¹⁸Jacob rose early in the morning and took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up for a memorial pillar; he poured oil on its top ¹⁹and named that place Beth-El,^z though previously the town was called Luz.

²⁰Jacob then made this vow, "If God accompanies me and watches over me on this journey, giving me food to eat and clothes to wear, ²¹and I return in peace to my father's home, then the LORD shall be my God ²²and this stone which I have erected for a memorial pillar shall become a house of God. Moreover I will without fail give Thee a tithe of all Thou shalt give me."

29 JACOB THEN TRAVELED ON AND reached the land of the Easterners. ²He looked and saw a well in the open country and also noticed three

v) Road (or Plain?) of Aram, that is, of Syria, located in Mesopotamia, which means, between rivers, the Euphrates and the Tigris. Haran is the town in that Plain, which still exists as Harran, a small village 280 miles N.E. of Damascus.

w) It is third or fourth night (see Ch. 22:4, when Abraham had started from the same place).

x) A ladder between earth and heaven means that these two spheres are vitally connected; there is travel in between, and the angels were making use of the ladder; so may we.

y) That is, He would never, never forsake him.

z) Beth means house, El means God, worshiped as the Almighty.

flocks of sheep lying near it; for from that well they regularly watered their flocks. There was a large stone over the well's mouth. ³All the flocks would be gathered there, then the men would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place over the well's mouth.

⁴Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" They said, "We are from Haran." ⁵He asked, "Do you know Laban of Nahor's family?" They said, "We know him." ⁶He asked them, "Is he well?" They replied, "He is well, and, look, Rachel, his daughter is coming with the sheep." ⁷He remarked, "But the day is still in its prime; it is not yet time to bring in the livestock^a—water the sheep and take them grazing." ⁸They replied, "We can't until all the flocks are collected and they roll the stone off the well's mouth; then we water the sheep."^b

⁹While he was still conversing with them, Rachel arrived with her father's sheep; for she was a shepherdess. ¹⁰When Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, with the sheep of his uncle Laban, Jacob stepped up, rolled the stone off the well's mouth and watered his uncle Laban's sheep. ¹¹Then Jacob kissed Rachel and wept audibly. ¹²When Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's nephew, son of Rebekah, she ran and told her father, ¹³and Laban, on hearing the tidings of Jacob, his sister's son, ran to meet him, embraced and fervently kissed him and brought him home. Then he told Laban all the particulars, ¹⁴to which Laban responded, "You certainly are my own bone and flesh."^c

He had stayed with him for a full month ¹⁵when Laban said to Jacob, "Just because you are near kin to me, ought you to work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be."

¹⁶Now Laban had two daughters,

the elder named Leah and the younger named Rachel. ¹⁷Leah's eyes had no sparkle, while Rachel was lovely of form and face. ¹⁸Jacob was in love with Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter"; ¹⁹to which Laban replied, "I would rather give her to you than to another man. You stay with me."

²⁰So Jacob did serve seven years to have Rachel; which seemed to him like a few days because of the love he felt for her. ²¹Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife; for my time is up; let me go in to her." ²²Laban then invited all the people there and served a banquet. ²³But in the evening he took his daughter Leah to him and he went in to her. ²⁴Laban also gave his daughter Leah his maid Zilpah for a maidservant.

²⁵And so it was in the morning, see, it was Leah. He said to Laban, "Is this the way to treat me? Have I not worked with you for Rachel? Why then have you cheated me?" ²⁶Laban replied, "It just is not done in these parts, to marry the younger before the older. ²⁷Complete this one's week and for another seven years of service we will give you the other one, too."^d ²⁸Jacob did so: he completed her week and Laban gave him his daughter Rachel, too, for wife. ²⁹He also gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel for her maid. ³⁰Jacob went in to Rachel, too,^e and he loved Rachel more than Leah; so he worked for him seven more years.

³¹Seeing that Leah was slighted, the LORD gave her fertility, while Rachel was sterile. ³²Leah conceived and bore a son whom she named Reuben,^f for she said, "Because the LORD has noticed my trouble, for now my husband will love me." ³³Again she conceived and bore a son; she said, "Because the LORD has heard that I was slighted, He has given me this one also," so she

a) More grazing time was needed. While Esau had been hunting, Jacob had mastered the technique of animal husbandry.

b) The shepherds had joined their strength, it seems, to do what Jacob did alone.

c) "My own flesh and blood," we would say.

d) Perfect retribution. As Jacob had impersonated Esau at a most critical moment, so Laban made Leah impersonate Rachel at an even more critical time.

e) It seems that Rachel was given him at the start rather than at the close of that second contract.

f) Reuben — "See, a son!"; Simeon — "Hearing"; Levi — "Attachment"; Judah — "Object of Praise."

named him Simeon. ³⁴She conceived again and bore a son; she said, "This time my husband will grow attached to me, for I have borne him three sons"; therefore he was named Levi. ³⁵Once more she conceived and bore a son; she said, "This time I will praise the LORD," so she named him Judah. Then she ceased bearing.

30 WHEN RACHEL REALIZED THAT she had borne Jacob no children, she grew envious of her sister and said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I am going to die!" ²Then Jacob's anger rose hotly against Rachel; he rejoined, "Am I taking God's place, who has deprived you of fertility?" ³She then suggested, "Consider my maid Bilhah; go in to her and let her bear for me! Through her I will rear a family."^g ⁴So she gave him her maid Bilhah for a wife and Jacob went in to her. ⁵Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son. ⁶Rachel said, "God has done me justice; He has heard my voice and has given me a son"; so she named him Dan.^h ⁷Again Bilhah, Rachel's maid conceived and bore Jacob a second son. ⁸Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister and I have won out"; so she named him Naphtali.^h

⁹When Leah saw that she had ceased bearing, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob for a wife ¹⁰and when Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a son, ¹¹Leah said, "I am fortunate," and named him Gad.¹ ¹²Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a second son, ¹³so Leah said, "To my happiness; for the women will certainly call me happy," and named him Asher.¹

¹⁴During the wheat harvest Reuben went out into the field and found May-apples which he brought home to his mother Leah. When Rachel asked Leah, "Please, give me some of your son's May-apples," ¹⁵She replied to her,

"Is your taking my husband a trifle, and would you take away my son's May-apples as well?" Rachel said, "Then for your son's May-apples you can have him tonight."

¹⁶That evening as Jacob came in from the field, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You are to come home with me, for I have definitely hired you with my son's May-apples"; so he lay with her that night. ¹⁷The LORD heard Leah; she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son; ¹⁸she said, "God has allowed me my reward because I gave my husband my maid" and she named him Issachar.¹ ¹⁹Then Leah conceived once more and bore Jacob a sixth son. ²⁰Leah said, "God has presented me with a rich dowry; this time my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulon.¹ ²¹Later she gave birth to a daughter whom she named Dinah. 1915 B.C.

²²God also remembered Rachel; God heard her and rendered her fertile. ²³She conceived and gave birth to a son; she said, "God has removed my reproach," ²⁴and named him Joseph,¹ saying, "May the LORD add to me another son."

²⁵When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Grant me leave to move on to my own community and my country. ²⁶Let me have my wives and my children for whom I have served you, so I can go; for you know what service I have rendered you."

²⁷Laban answered him, "I beg of you to stay if you care enough for me; for I have divined^k that the LORD has blessed me on your account"; ²⁸then added, "Name to me your wages and I will pay them."

²⁹He replied, "You know how I have worked for you and how your livestock has fared with me; ³⁰for the little you had before I came has broadened to a great many. The LORD has blessed you at my footsteps. Now when am I to

g) Jacob must have learned of the Abraham-Hagar trouble; but a following generation usually prefers to learn lessons the harder way. h) Dan, "He judged"; Naphtali - "Obtained by wrestling."

i) Gad - Good fortune; Asher - happy; Issachar - there is hire; Zebulon - dwelling.

j) A childless wife felt she was failing her husband, especially in not perpetuating his family, and so other women who had children felt about her. The name she gave Joseph meant, "May he add." But the next son cost Rachel her life.

k) This may mean divination, that is, consulting omens; else, that he had so reasoned out for himself.

provide for my own family?"

³¹When Laban asked, "What shall I pay you?" Jacob replied, "Pay me nothing. I will go back and pasture and tend your stock, if you will agree with me on this: ³²Today I will inspect all your livestock and separate from them all the speckled and spotted sheep and every black lamb, and all the spotted and speckled of the goats; these will compose my wages. ³³My fairness will testify for me in the days ahead. When you examine my wages before you and find among the goats any that are not speckled or spotted and among the sheep any that are not black, you may consider them stolen." ³⁴Laban said, "Very well, I am agreeable to your proposition." ³⁵So he set apart then and there the striped and spotted he-goats and all the speckled and spotted she-goats, every one that had a touch of white; also every black lamb, and put them in his sons' charge.¹ ³⁶He then put a three-days' distance between himself and Jacob; while Jacob continued tending the rest of Laban's flocks.

³⁷But Jacob secured rods of the green poplar, almond and plane trees, into which he peeled white stripes, that laid bare the white on the rods. ³⁸These peeled rods he placed by the troughs, the water-troughs in front of the flocks, to which the flocks came to drink. ³⁹They bred, facing the rods as they came to drink, and the flocks lambled striped, speckled and spotted young.^m ⁴⁰The lambs Jacob then set apart and had the herds face the striped and all the black in Laban's flocks, keeping his own droves by themselves and not adding them to Laban's herd. ⁴¹Jacob used to place the rods at the troughs in sight of the sturdier flocks whenever they bred so that they might breed by the rods; ⁴²but for the weaker herds he did not place them, so that the weaker fell to Laban and the stronger to Jacob; ⁴³who grew richer and richer with great herds, male and female servants, camels and donkeys.

1909 B.C.

31 HE HEARD TALK FROM LABAN'S sons, who were saying, "Jacob has appropriated everything father had; he owes all this wealth to what belonged to our father."ⁿ ²Jacob also noticed that Laban's attitude toward him was not as it used to be. ³Also the LORD told Jacob: Go back to the land of your fathers and to your kinsfolk and I will be with you.

⁴So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field, where his flocks were, ⁵and said to them, "I have been noticing that your father's feelings toward me are not what they used to be; but my father's God has been with me. ⁶You yourselves know how I have served your father to the best of my ability, ⁷while your father has cheated me; ten times he has changed my wages; but God has not permitted him to harm me. ⁸When he said this: 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the animals bore speckled young, and when he said, 'The striped will be your wages,' then all the livestock bore striped young. ⁹In this way God has taken away your father's stock and has given it to me. ¹⁰When the flocks were breeding, I looked in my dream and saw that the he-goats that leaped upon the flock were the striped, the speckled, and the mottled.

¹¹"In a dream the Angel of the LORD said to me: Jacob! and I said, 'Here am I.' ¹²He said: Look and observe how all the he-goats that leap upon the flock are striped, speckled and mottled; for I have seen everything Laban is doing to you. ¹³I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a memorial pillar and where you made a vow to Me. Now, get ready, move out of this country and go back to your native land."

¹⁴Rachel and Leah answered him: "What share or legacy is there left us in our father's house? ¹⁵Does he not

1) This seems to refer to Laban's sons.

m) The Bethel experience had not converted Jacob; he had remained selfish and tricky. His scheme to increase the number of animals due him was not stealing but it was taking unfair advantage.

n) Which was true, for Jacob had nothing but his staff, when he arrived in Padan Aram; but it was a half truth, for Laban had greatly prospered because of Jacob's superior skill as a herdsman, and divine favor, so that Laban owed fully as much to Jacob as Jacob owed to him.

consider us outsiders? For he sold us and has enjoyed the profits of our dowry as well.^o ¹⁶For all the wealth God has taken away from father belongs to us and to our children. Now then, you do whatever God has told you."

¹⁷Jacob then got ready. He mounted his children and his wives on camels ¹⁸and brought away all his cattle, all the movable property he had acquired and the herds of his possession, which he had accumulated in Padan Aram, to travel to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan. ¹⁹Laban had gone to shear his sheep; Rachel stole her father's household gods, ²⁰and Jacob got the best of Laban, the Aramean, by not telling him of his flight. ²¹So he fled with all his belongings.

Starting out, he crossed the river^p and turned toward the Gilead mountain range. ²²On the third day of Jacob's flight Laban was told of it, ²³so, taking along his kinsmen, he went in pursuit of him for seven days until he overtook him in the Gilead range. ²⁴But in a dream by night God came to Laban, the Aramean, and said to him: Be careful about speaking to Jacob either good or bad.

²⁵When Laban overtook Jacob, Jacob had pitched camp at the mountain^q and Laban, too, camped at the Gilead mountain with his kinsmen. ²⁶Laban said to Jacob, "What do you mean to take advantage of me and to carry off my daughters as if they were captured by the sword? ²⁷Why did you flee secretly and steal away from me without telling me? I would have seen you off with mirth and song, with tambourine and harp.^r ²⁸Why did you not give me a chance to kiss my sons and my daughters goodbye? ²⁹It was a silly thing to do and I could hurt you; but your father's God told me last night, 'Be careful not to speak to Jacob, good or bad.' ³⁰Now, if you hurried off because you so greatly longed for your father's home, then why did you steal my gods?"

³¹Jacob answered Laban, "I fled because I feared you might forcibly take your daughters from me. ³²With whom you find your gods, let him not live. Under supervision of our kinsmen make a search for what I have that is yours and take it"; for Jacob did not know that Rachel had purloined them.

³³Laban then entered Jacob's tent and Leah's, the tents of the two maids, too, but did not find them. Coming out of Leah's tent he entered Rachel's tent.

³⁴Now Rachel had gotten hold of the household gods and had put them inside her camel's saddle, on which she was sitting. Laban searched through the whole tent without finding them, ³⁵and she said to her father, "I hope my master does not object to my being unable to get up in front of you, for I am meeting with the indisposition of women." So, for all his searching he did not find the images.

³⁶Angrily Jacob reprimanded Laban; Jacob said to Laban, "What is my misdemeanor? What is my crime that you have pursued me so hotly? ³⁷Though you have been feeling all my household goods, which of all your utensils have you discovered? Place it here in front of my kinsmen and yours, so they may judge between us two. ³⁸During my twenty years with you, your ewes and your she-goats have not miscarried and the rams of your flock I have not eaten. ³⁹What the wild beasts mangled I did not bring to you, but I personally replaced it, and you exacted from me whatever was carried off by day or by night. ⁴⁰As for me personally, heat wore me down by day and cold by night, besides loss of sleep. ⁴¹So I spent twenty years in your home, fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your stock. Ten times^s you changed my wages. ⁴²Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Reverence of Isaac^t had been on my side, you would now doubtless have dismissed me empty-handed; but

o) In as much as Jacob's service was the dowry he paid, by which Laban had done so well.

p) Euphrates, sometimes called the great River.

q) Shortly named Mizpah because of the agreement between Laban and Jacob.

r) Jacob knew well enough that Laban would not have allowed him to leave, if he had any way to prevent it; so did Laban know it. s) "Again and again," or "Time and again," we would say.

t) Literal translation meaning "He whom Isaac reveres."

God saw my misery and my manual labor, and He gave judgment last night."

⁴³Laban replied to Jacob, "Mine are the daughters and the children; mine are the flocks, mine is everything you see. And what can I now do to these my daughters or to the children they have borne? ⁴⁴Come now, let us make a covenant, I and you, and let it be for a witness between me and you."

⁴⁵So Jacob took a stone and set it up for a memorial pillar; ⁴⁶he also told his kinsmen, "Gather stones"; so they brought stones together and formed a cairn. There atop the cairn they ate together. ⁴⁷Laban named it Jegar-sahadutha and Jacob named it Galeed.^u ⁴⁸Laban said, "This cairn today is witness between me and you"; hence the name Galeed; ⁴⁹also Mizpah, for he said, "May the LORD watch between me and you when we are out of each other's sight. ⁵⁰If you ill treat my daughters; if you take wives in addition to my daughters, although no other is present, see, God is witness between me and you!" ⁵¹Laban further told Jacob, "Look at this pillar and at this cairn, which I have set up between me and you. ⁵²Let this cairn be a witness and this pillar, too, that I will not pass it to harm you and that you will not pass it to harm me. ⁵³The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, the God of their father judge between us."

⁵⁴Jacob swore by the reverence of his father Isaac and offered sacrifice on the mountain-side. He invited his kinsmen to break bread; then spent the night on the mountain. ⁵⁵Early in the morning Laban got up, kissed his sons^v and his daughters goodbye, gave them his blessing; then left and went back home.

32 AS JACOB RESUMED HIS TRAVEL, God's angels met him² and when Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's camp," and named that place, Mahanaim.^w ³Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the Seir range of the Edom country, ⁴charging them, "You must say to my master Esau, 'Your servant Jacob says, I have been living as a stranger with Laban and stayed there until now. ⁵I have come to possess oxen, donkeys, herds and male and female servants, and I have sent to tell my master about it, hoping to gain your favor.'"^x ⁶The messenger returned to Jacob with the report, "We arrived at your brother Esau's and he is now on the way to meet you, accompanied by 400 men."

⁷Then Jacob, greatly alarmed and distressed, divided the people that were with him, and his flocks, his herds and his camels into two camps, ⁸reasoning that if Esau should come upon one camp and destroy it, the remaining camp would escape. ⁹Jacob also prayed, "O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, Jehovah, who told me, 'Return to your land and to your kindred and I will treat you kindly,' ¹⁰I do not deserve the least of all the kindness and faithfulness Thou hast rendered Thy servant; for with my staff I crossed this Jordan and now I have become two camps. ¹¹Save me, I pray, from my brother's hand, from the power of Esau, for I fear him, that he may come and slay me, with mother and children. ¹²Thou hast said, I will unfailingly deal kindly with you and I will make your descendants like the sea sand that cannot be counted for its numbers."

¹³That night he lodged there and arranged from what he had on hand a present for his brother Esau.—¹⁴200 she-goats and 20 he-goats; 200 ewes and 20 rams; ¹⁵30 milch camels with their calves; 40 cows and 10 bulls; 20 she-donkeys with 10 foals. ¹⁶These he entrusted to his servants, drove after drove separately, and told his men, "Drive ahead of me and leave space between the several droves."

¹⁷To the first driver he gave orders, "When my brother Esau meets you and he asks you, 'To whom do you be-

u) Laban gave the Aramean and Jacob the Hebrew name for Witness-cairn. Mizpah means Watch-post. v) The Hebrew term — sons — often includes all children; in this case Laban's grandchildren. w) Mahanaim means "Two Camps"; Jacob had protecting angels right and left. Read something similar — II Kings 6:8-23.

x) Jacob wanted Esau to see that he now no longer stood in need of the blessing he had so cruelly exacted from his elder brother.

long? Where are you going? Whose is this drove?' ¹⁸then you reply, 'These are your servant Jacob's; it is a present sent to my master Esau and he also is behind us.'" ¹⁹He so ordered the second, the third and all the successive drove herders; he said, "You give the same message to Esau, ²⁰and be sure to add, 'Your servant also is behind us.'" For he reasoned, "I will appease him with the gift that precedes me; then when I meet him personally, he may accept my presence." ²¹So, his presents went over ahead of him, while he lodged in the camp.

²²During the night he got up, took his two wives and his two maids,² also his eleven sons and forded the Jabbok;^a ²³he took them and helped them across the brook with everything he possessed.

²⁴So Jacob was left alone, and there wrestled a man with him until day-break, ²⁵who, when he saw he was not throwing him, struck his hip socket so that Jacob's thigh was dislocated in his wrestling with him. ²⁶The man said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But he replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

²⁷He asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob." ²⁸He said, "Your name will be Jacob no longer, but Israel,^b because you have striven with God and with men and you have won." ²⁹Jacob then asked him, "Please tell me, what is your name?" He said, "Why do you inquire after my name?" And He blessed him there. ³⁰Jacob named that place Peniel, for "I saw God face to face and yet my life was preserved."

³¹The rising sun shone on him as he passed through Peniel and he was limping at the hip. ³²For this reason the Israelites to this day never eat the hip-muscle that covers the hip-socket, because He struck Jacob's thigh at the hip-muscle.

33 AS JACOB LOOKED UP, HE SAW Esau coming, accompanied by 400 men. So he apportioned the children to Leah, to Rachel and to the two maids respectively. ²The maids and their children he put in front; Leah and her children behind them, and Rachel with Joseph in the rear. ³He then advanced to the front and bowed to the ground seven times until he came close to his brother. ⁴But Esau ran to meet him, threw his arms around him, fell on his neck and kissed him; then they both wept.

⁵As he looked up and saw the women and the children, he asked, "Who are these with you?" He replied, "The children whom God has graciously granted your servant." ⁶The maids then approached with their children and bowed deeply. ⁷Leah, too, came forward with her children and they bowed to the ground. After them Joseph and Rachel came up and bowed deeply.^c

⁸He asked, "What do you mean by all this drove I met?" He said, "To gain my master's favor." ⁹Esau rejoined, "I have plenty, my brother; let what you have remain yours." ¹⁰"No, please," urged Jacob, "if you will do me a favor, accept my present, because being in your presence is like being in God's presence; you have been pleased with me. ¹¹I beg of you, do accept my blessing^d that has been brought to you; for God has treated me lavishly and I have everything."

Thus he urged him until he accepted it ¹²and said, "Let us break camp and travel on together; I will accompany you." ¹³But he replied, "My master is aware that the children are frail, while the flocks and the herds with me are giving suck; should they overdrive them for a single day the whole flock would die. ¹⁴Please let my master go in advance of his servant and I will move on slowly, at my leisure, adjust-

y) He not only showed what he had gained, but that he was voluntarily handing Esau the riches to which Esau had by birth been entitled.

z) As the mothers of Jacob's four sons, Bilhah and Zilpah had special standing, but personally they remained maids [Gen. 37:2].

a) The Jabbok brook still divides the Gilead mountain range. It empties into the Jordan 43 miles south of Lake Galilee and 23 miles north of the Dead Sea. b) Israel means, "Striver with God."

c) Each bowing involved kneeling on both knees and touching the ground with the forehead.

d) Jacob definitely refers to "the blessing" he had unfairly taken from his brother and which he now returns.

ing ourselves to the pace that suits the endurance of the livestock in front of me and of the children, until I reach my master at Seir."^e

¹⁶Esau suggested, "I should like to assign some of my men to help you"; but he replied, "What is the need of it; it is enough that I enjoy your favor."

¹⁶So Esau started back that day on his way to Seir, ¹⁷while Jacob moved to Succoth, where he built a dwelling for himself and put up booths for his herds; hence the name Succoth for the place. 1908 B.C.

¹⁸Traveling from Padan Aram, Jacob arrived safely at Shechem-town in the land of Canaan and camped facing the town. ¹⁹He bought the lot,^f on which he had pitched his tent, for about 200 dollars from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father. ²⁰There he built an altar and called it El, the God of Israel.

34 DINAH, LEAH'S DAUGHTER, whom she had borne Jacob, went out to get acquainted with the girls of the community, ²and when Shechem, son of Hamor, the Hivite,^g the local chief, laid eyes on her, he seized her, lay with her and dishonored her. ³He was passionately in love with Dinah, Jacob's daughter, and talked to the girl in endearing terms. ⁴Then Shechem said to Hamor, his father, "Get me this girl for a wife."

⁵While his sons were in the field with his herd, Jacob learned that he had ravished his daughter, Dinah, so he kept quiet until their return; ⁶but Hamor, Shechem's father, called on Jacob to talk with him. ⁷On hearing of it, Jacob's sons came in from the field, disgusted and angry beyond words, that such a shameful deed had been committed in Israel, as to lie with Jacob's daughter, a thing that should never be done. ⁸But Hamor conversed with them; he said, "My son Shechem's affections are centered on your daughter. I beg of you, give her to him in marriage. ⁹Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves. ¹⁰Settle among us and the land is at your disposal; make your home in it and acquire property in it."^h

¹¹Shechem then said to her father and her brothers, "Let me have your consent and I will pay any sum you name me; ¹²put your price and dowry as high as you want to, I will meet your demands, only give me the girl for a wife."

¹³Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, because he had dishonored their sister Dinah.

¹⁴They said to them, "We are in no position to do this, to give our sister to an uncircumcised person; for that would be a disgrace to us. ¹⁵However, on one condition we will consent to give you our sister: If you become like us, every male of you being circumcised, ¹⁶then we will give our daughters to you and we will marry your daughters; we will settle among you and become one people with you. ¹⁷But if you will not agree with us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and move away."

¹⁸Their suggestion appealed to Hamor and to Hamor's son Shechem ¹⁹and without delay the young man went into action, for he was in love with Jacob's daughter; he also held highest rank in his father's household. ²⁰So Hamor and his son Shechem resorted to their town gate and talked it over with their fellow citizens. They said, ²¹"These men are in harmony with us, so let them stay and do business in the land; for the country, you observe, has room enough for them. Let us marry their daughters and let us give them our daughters. ²²There is, however, one condition on which their mixing with us as one people depends, that every male among us be circumcised as they are. ²³Will not their stock, their property, yes, all their animals be ours? Only let us accept their condition and they

e) Jacob might some day see him again, as when he and Esau buried their father; but Jacob had no intention to enjoy Esau's hospitality at Seir.

f) Which he gave Joseph, who was ultimately buried there [Josh. 24:32].

g) There were colonies of Hivites scattered through Canaan; the men of Gibeon, who with deceit made treaty with Joshua, Ch. 9 — were Hivites. In David's time there were Hivites around Mt. Hermon, and Solomon required service from them for his building operations.

h) Had such arrangements been made, there would have been no chosen people and no prophetic and priestly preparation for Christ's coming.

will live with us." ²⁴All the responsible men agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem and every male in town was circumcised.

²⁵So it was that on the third day, when they were sore, two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, ¹ boldly invaded the town, put to the sword every male, ²⁶ including Hamor and his son Shechem, took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and left. ²⁷Jacob's sons went over the slain and plundered the town, because they had ravished their sister. ²⁸They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys and all their movable property in town and field; ²⁹they carried away captive their little ones and their wives and looted what was indoors.

³⁰Jacob told Simeon and Levi, "You have shocked me, to make me odious to the natives of this country, to the Canaanites and the Perizzites, and since we are few, if they unite against me, they will slay me—I and my family will be destroyed." ³¹They said, "Should they treat our sister like a prostitute?"

35 GOD SAID TO JACOB: GET READY! Move up to Bethel; settle there and build there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau. ²Jacob then told his household and all under his authority, "Get rid of all the strange gods you have with you; purify yourselves and change your clothes; ³then let us get ready and move up to Bethel. There I will build an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and kept me company on my journey." ⁴Then they handed Jacob all the strange gods they had, and their earrings, ¹ which Jacob buried beneath the Shechem terebinth. ⁵They broke camp and a God-sent dread rested on the surrounding towns so that they did not pursue Jacob's sons.

⁶When Jacob and all the people with him arrived at Luz — that is Bethel —

in the land of Canaan, ⁷he built there an altar and named the place^k El-Bethel, because there God had revealed Himself to him during his flight from his brother. ⁸Then Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and was buried below Bethel under the oak, which he named Allon-bachuth.¹

⁹Once more, since his return from Padan Aram, God appeared to Jacob to bless him. ¹⁰God said to him: Your name was Jacob; your name will be Jacob no longer, but Israel shall be your name; so He called him Israel. ¹¹God said to him: I am God Almighty; be fruitful and multiply. A nation, yes, a group of nations shall spring from you. ¹²The land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you and to your offspring that follows you. ¹³Then from the very spot where He had spoken to him, God ascended; ¹⁴and Jacob erected a pillar where He had talked with him, a memorial pillar of stone, poured upon it a libation and anointed it with oil. ¹⁵Jacob called the place where God had talked with him, Bethel.

¹⁶They moved on from Bethel and still some distance from Ephrath,^m Rachel felt the birth pangs. ¹⁷She was in hard labor when the midwife said to her, "Have no fear, for this too is a son for you." ¹⁸With her last breath — for she expired — she named him Ben-oni,ⁿ but his father called him Benjamin. ¹⁹Rachel died and was buried on the Ephrath or Bethlehem road. ²⁰On her grave Jacob erected a pillar which to this day remains the memorial pillar of Rachel's grave.

²¹Israel moved on and pitched his tent beyond the Edar tower,^o ²²and while they lived in that land Reuben went in to Bilhah, his father's concubine, and lay with her — and Jacob was informed.

The sons of Jacob numbered twelve: ²³The sons of Leah — Reuben, Jacob's first-born; Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issa-

i) As Abraham could muster 318 men to go fighting, so Simeon and Levi could use their sheep- and cattle-men, probably not less than forty, to invade Shechem, which was physically helpless.

j) Earrings were worn by both sexes and by children [Ex. 32:2], but some used them idolatrously as amulets [Isa. 3:20]; hence their removal on this occasion. k) God of Bethel. l) Oak of Weeping. m) Ephrathah or Ephratah, the earlier name for Bethlehem [Gen. 48:7, Ruth 4:11]. In Micah 5:2, Bethlehem-ephratah. n) Ben-oni—Son of my sorrow; Benjamin—Right-hand son, or Son of happiness. o) Flock-tower, so near Bethlehem, suggests flocks and shepherds there this early in Bible history; possibly Jacob named it.

char and Zebulun; ²⁴the sons of Rachel, Joseph and Benjamin; ²⁵the sons of Rachel's maid Bilhah, Dan and Naphtali; ²⁶the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maid, Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, born to him in Padan Aram.^p ²⁷Jacob arrived at his father Isaac's at Mamre, suburban to Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron; where Abraham and Isaac had pilgrimaged. ²⁸Isaac's life span was 180 years; ²⁹then Isaac expired, and upon his death he was gathered to his people, aged and satisfied with life; so his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36 THESE ARE THE DESCENDANTS of Esau, that is, Edom; ²Esau married Canaanite women, Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the son of Zibeon the Hivite; ³also Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, and sister to Nebaioth. ⁴Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau and Basemath bore Reuel. ⁵Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam and Korah — these were Esau's sons born to him in the land of Canaan.

⁶Then Esau took his wives, his sons and his daughters, all the members of his household, also his herds, his beasts of burden and all his movable property, which he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and moved into a country away from his brother Jacob, ⁷because their possessions were too great for them to live together; the land in which they were immigrants could not support them, due to their livestock.^q ⁸So Esau settled in the Seir mountain range, Esau being Edom.

⁹These are the descendants of Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites in the Seir mountain range; ¹⁰these are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, son of Adah, Esau's wife, and Reuel, son of Basemath, Esau's wife. ¹¹The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Ga-tam and Kenaz. ¹²Timna, a concubine of Eliphaz, the son of Esau, bore Amalek^r to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

¹³These are Reuel's sons: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah, descendants of Basemath, Esau's wife.

¹⁴These are the sons of Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, son of Zibeon, Esau's wife; she bore to Esau, Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

¹⁵These are the chiefs among Esau's sons: The sons of Eliphaz, Esau's first-born, chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, ¹⁶Korah, Gatam and Amalek. They were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom, descendants of Adah.

¹⁷These are the sons of Esau's son Reuel — chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah; they are the chiefs sprung from Reuel in the land of Edom, descendants of Esau's wife, Basemath.

¹⁸These are the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife — chiefs Jeush, Jalam and Korah, the chiefs that sprang from Oholibamah, Esau's wife and Anah's daughter. ¹⁹They are the sons of Esau, that is Edom, and these are their chiefs.

²⁰These are the sons of Seir, the aboriginal Horites of that country: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, ²¹Dishon, Ezer and Dishan, the chiefs of the rock-dwellers, descendants of Seir in the land of Edom.^s ²²Lotan's sons were Hori and Heman, and Timna was Lotan's sister.

²³Shobal's sons were Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam. ²⁴Zibeon's sons, Aiah and Anah, the Anah who discovered the hot springs in the desert as he was tending his father Zibeon's donkeys. ²⁵Anah's children were Dishon and Oholibamah, Anah's daughter. ²⁶Dishon's sons were Hemandan, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran.

²⁷Ezer's sons — Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

²⁸Dishan's sons — Uz^t and Aran.

p) Although Benjamin was not born at Padan Aram, he was born on the journey from there to Isaac's home and is so counted in.

q) Acknowledging Jacob's first right to sufficient room in Canaan, Esau moved out before Jacob's return, obviously expecting that return.

r) Amalek's descendants will oppose the Israelites at every turn for centuries, down to Haman, a descendant of King Agag (Esther 3:10).

s) These rock-dwellers or Horites were not on the best of terms with the Edomites, who eventually destroyed them (Deut. 12:22).

t) The name Uz appears in the great Drama of Job — "in the land of Uz."

²⁹These were the chiefs of the rock-dwellers — chiefs Lotan, Shobal, Zibcon, Anah, ³⁰Dishon, Ezer and Dishan, chiefs among the rock-dwellers by their clans in the land of Seir.

³¹These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king ruled the Israelites": ³²Bela, son of Beor, reigned in Edom with Dinhabah as his capital. ³³When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah, took his place. ³⁴Jobab died and Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead. ³⁵Husham died and Hadad, son of Bedad, who defeated the Midianites in the land of Moab, succeeded him, with Avith for his capital city. ³⁶Hadad died and Samlah of Masreka reigned in his place. ³⁷Samlah died and Shaul, of Rehoboth by the river, reigned after him. ³⁸Shaul died and Baal Hanan, son of Achbor, succeeded him. ³⁹Baal Hanan, son of Achbor, died and Hadar reigned in his stead, with the city of Pau for his capital and Mehetabel, daughter of Matred, Me-Zahab's daughter, for his wife.^v ⁴⁰These are the names of the chiefs of Esau by family, place and name: Chiefs Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, ⁴¹Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, ⁴²Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, ⁴³Magdiel and Iram. These are Edom's chiefs as they were located in the land they ruled, Esau being the father of the Edomites.

1898 B.C.

37 JACOB LIVED IN THE LAND IN which his father had lived as an immigrant, the land of Canaan. ²This is Jacob's family record: Joseph at seventeen was tending the flock with his brothers, a youth with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and Joseph told their father of their misbehavior.^w ³Now Israel loved Joseph more than all the rest of his sons because he was to him a son of his old age^x; so he made him a long coat reaching to his feet. ⁴And when his brothers saw that their father prized him more dearly than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak cordially to him.

⁵Joseph also had a dream, which he told his brothers and for which they hated him worse than ever. ⁶He told them, "I want you to listen to what I have dreamed. ⁷You see, we were binding sheaves in the field and, think of it, my sheaf rose up and stood erect while your sheaves surrounded it and bowed deeply to my sheaf!" ⁸His brothers said, "You are going to rule over us! You, indeed, are you going to dominate us?" So they hated him still worse because of his dreams and because of his words.

⁹He had still another dream which he recounted to his brothers. "See here," he said, "I have had another dream. Take notice: The sun, the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me."^y ¹⁰When he related this to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him; he said to him, "What sort of dream is this you had? Are we, your mother and I and your brothers actually going to come, prostrating ourselves to the earth for you?" ¹¹His brothers then felt resentful toward him; but his father pondered the words.

¹²When his brothers had gone to Shechem to tend their father's flock, ¹³Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come on, I will send you to them." He said to him, "At your service." ¹⁴He further told him, "I wish you would go and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flock; then report back to me."^z So he dispatched him from the vale of Hebron and he arrived at Shechem.

¹⁵A certain man came across him as he was meandering in the open country

u) A distinction is made between kings and chiefs, the former having more authority and more territory.

v) As Saul made his native town, Gibeah, the capital of Israel, so the Edomite kings made their native towns Edom's capital while they reigned.

w) Bilhah, the mother of Dan and Naphtali, and Zilpah, the mother of Gad and Asher, were more pagan than Leah and Rachel and so their sons less disciplined.

x) That Joseph was Rachel's son had also much to do with Jacob's discrimination; Jacob planned Joseph to be his successor and that coat was evidence of it, a princely coat.

y) There was vision in Joseph, such as his brothers lacked; these dreams came true.

z) Jacob worried about pasturing near Shechem after the fearful massacre by Simeon and Levi.

and asked him, "What are you looking for?" ¹⁶He answered, "I am looking for my brothers. Please, tell me where they are pasturing." ¹⁷The man said, "They have moved away from here,^a for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan'." So Joseph traced his brothers and found them at Dothan.

¹⁸When they saw him in the distance, before he reached them, they conspired against him to kill him. ¹⁹They said to each other, "Look! This master of dreams is coming. ²⁰Now, then, come on, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits and we will say, 'A wild beast has devoured him.'^b Then we shall see what becomes of his dreams."

²¹Reuben heard of it and delivered him from their hands; he said, "Let us not take his life." ²²Reuben continued, "Do not shed blood. Throw him into this desert-pit and do him no violence," so he might rescue him and return him to his father.^c ²³So it was as soon as Joseph reached his brothers, they stripped him of his coat, the princely robe he had on, ²⁴then took hold of him and threw him into a pit, an empty pit with no water in it. ²⁵Then they sat down to break bread. Looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, their camels carrying gum, balsam and resin to transport it to Egypt. ²⁶Judah suggested to his brothers, "What is the good of killing our brother and concealing his blood! ²⁷Come on, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not do him violence; for he is our brother, our own flesh," to which his brothers agreed. ²⁸Then Midianite^d traders came along, and they pulled Joseph up, brought him out of the pit and they sold Joseph for 20 dollars to the Ishmaelites. And they conducted Joseph to Egypt.

²⁹Reuben came back to the pit and, horrors, saw no Joseph in the pit! He tore his clothes, ³⁰went back to his brothers and exclaimed, "The lad is not there, and I, where can I turn!" ³¹But they took Joseph's coat, butchered a he-goat and dipped the coat in the blood; ³²then sent the princely full length robe to their father with the remark: "We have found this! Examine the coat whether it is your son's or not."

³³He recognized it and said, "My son's coat! A wild beast has devoured him; Joseph has doubtless been torn to pieces." ³⁴Jacob tore his clothes, wore a sackcloth girdle, and mourned many a day for his son. ³⁵His sons and daughters all did their best to console him; but he refused to be comforted. He said, "I want to go down to the grave mourning for my son." So did his father weep for him.^e ³⁶The Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, a courtier of Pharaoh, the captain of the royal guard.

38 ABOUT THAT TIME JUDAH WITH-drew from his brothers and affiliated with an Adullamite called Hirah.^f ²There Judah made acquaintance with a daughter of Shua, a Canaanite.^g He married her and went in to her. ³She conceived and gave birth to a son whom he named Er. ⁴Again she conceived and bore a son whom she named Onan. ⁵She gave birth to still another son and named him Shelah; they were living at Chezib^h when she bore Shelah.

⁶For Er, his firstborn, Judah chose a woman called Tamar;ⁱ ⁷but Er, Judah's firstborn, was so wicked in the Lord's presence that the Lord ended his life. ⁸Judah then told Onan, "Go in to your brother's widow; fulfil to her the duty of a brother-in-law and raise a family for your brother." ⁹But, knowing the offspring would not be his, Onan,

a) Jacob's sons seem to have shared their father's uneasiness; they broke camp sooner than Jacob had anticipated.

b) They planned murder, which could hardly be perpetrated without also lying, "O, what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive!"

c) Reuben, as the oldest son, was most responsible for what might happen to younger brothers.

d) Midianites seem to have been slave-dealers among the Ishmaelite caravan.

e) Had Jacob surmised what God had in mind, he would have changed from grief to trust.

f) Joint ancestors of Jesus (Matt. 1:3).

g) All Jacob's sons, except Joseph, seem to have married daughters of pagan peoples in Canaan.

h) Or Achzib - deceitful - in southern Judah [Josh. 15:44].

whenever he went in to his brother's widow, spilled the sperm on the ground, to prevent his brother from having children.¹ ¹⁰His behavior was wicked in the LORD's sight, so he ended his life, too. ¹¹Then Judah told Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your parental home until my son Shelah is mature," for he thought, else he might die, too, like his brothers. So Tamar went to live in her parental home.

¹²In course of time Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died and, after the mourning season, Judah went to his sheepshearers at Timnath with his friend Hirah, the Adullamite. ¹³When Tamar was told, "Your father-in-law, you should know, is going up to Timnath for his sheep-shearing," ¹⁴she took off her widow's weeds, veiled and disguised herself and seated herself at the Enaim gateway on the road to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah had grown up and she had not been married to him. ¹⁵When Judah saw her, he thought, since her face was veiled, that she was a harlot. ¹⁶He stepped aside to her by the road and said, "Let me please come in to you!" for he did not know she was his daughter-in-law. ¹ She asked, "What will you give me to come in to me?" ¹⁷He replied, "Let me send you a kid from the flock." She asked, "Will you leave me a pledge until you send it?" ¹⁸He said, "What pledge should I give you?" "Your signet ring with your cord, and the staff you are using," she said. These he gave her and he went in to her. She conceived by him. ¹⁹She got up and left, took off her veil, and put on her widow's weeds.

²⁰By his friend, the Adullamite, Judah sent the kid of the goats, to get back the pledge from the woman; but he did not find her. ²¹When he inquired of the local men, "Where is the harlot who sat by the Enaim roadside?", they said, "No harlot has been here." ²²So he went back to Judah and told him, "I cannot find her; besides, the local men say there was no harlot here." ²³Judah replied, "Let her keep them for herself; we do not want to be ridiculed. I sent the kid and you failed to find her."

²⁴About three months later the word reached Judah, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the harlot and is with child through harlotry." Judah said, "Bring her out and have her cremated." ²⁵When she was brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, "By the man to whom these belong, I am with child. Be kind enough to look well, whose are the signet ring, the cord and the staff." ²⁶Judah recognized them and exclaimed, "She is in the right against me; because I failed to marry her to my son Shelah." And he did not again cohabit with her.^k ²⁷At the time of delivery there were twins in her womb, ²⁸and during her labor one put out his hand. The midwife took hold of it and tied a string around it, saying, "This one came first." ²⁹But when he drew back his hand, his brother was born, so she said, "What a breach you made for yourself," so he was named Perez.¹ ³⁰Later his brother was born on whose hand was the crimson string, so he was called Zerah.

39 WHEN JOSEPH HAD BEEN brought down to Egypt, an Egyptian, Potiphar, a courtier of Pharaoh, captain of the life guard bought him from the Ishmaelites, who had brought him there. ²The LORD was with Joseph^m and he became a successful person. As he lived in the house of his Egyptian master, ³his master noticed that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he undertook; ⁴so Joseph pleased him and became his orderly. Then he appointed him his household steward and gave him charge over all his affairs. ⁵And so it was that from the time when he appointed him super-

i) His sin, still called Onanism, was aggravated by his ill-will toward his deceased brother.

j) Judah, as a widower, committed fornication, not adultery.

k) This chapter gives a faithful picture of morals and standards of those days and it was inserted because Perez became an ancestor of David, which for us betokens his relationship to the Messiah.

l) Perez means, a breach; Zerah, dawn.

m) As our Lord Jesus promised us — and He keeps His promise. It is ours to acknowledge and to respond to His companionship.

intendant of house and property, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's household for Joseph's sake; the LORD's blessing rested on all his belongings in house and field. ⁶So he committed everything to Joseph's care; he did not bother about anything; he simply ate his meals.

Now Joseph was well formed and of handsome appearance. ⁷The time came when his master's wife ogled Joseph and said, "Embrace me!" ⁸But he refused; he said to his master's wife, "Look here! My master does not bother about anything in the house; he has put me in charge of everything. ⁹No one in this house is superior to me; he has kept nothing from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How could I commit so great a crime and sin against God!"^a ¹⁰Day after day she kept talking to Joseph; but he did not give in to her to lie with her or to keep her company. ¹¹Then one day, when he entered the house to attend to his work and there was not a house servant indoors, ¹²she caught hold of his coat, saying, "Lie with me!" But he left the coat in her hand as he fled and ran outdoors. ¹³When she found herself with his coat in her hand, while he had fled outdoors, ¹⁴she shouted to the men of her house, "Look! he has brought in to us a Hebrew man to mock us. He came into my room to violate me, and I screamed; ¹⁵so when he heard me raise my voice and scream, he left his coat with me, fled and ran outdoors."

¹⁶She kept his coat with her until his master came home, ¹⁷whom she then told the same story, "That Hebrew slave you brought in to us, came to my room to molest me; ¹⁸but when I raised my voice and screamed, he left his coat with me and ran outdoors." ¹⁹When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is the way your slave treated me," he grew hot with anger. ²⁰Joseph's master arrested him and put him in the prison, where the state prisoners were confined; there

he was interned.^o

²¹But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him kindness; He also inclined the prison warden favorably toward him. ²²The prison warden entrusted to Joseph all the convicts in the prison, holding him responsible for all that was going on. ²³The warden did not check on anything under Joseph's management,^p because the LORD was with him and the LORD gave him success in everything he undertook.

1887 B.C.

40 SOME TIME LATER THE BUTLER and the baker of Egypt's king offended their master, the king of Egypt; ²so Pharaoh was angry at his two officials, the chief butler and the chief baker. ³He put them in custody at the house of the Captain of the Guard, the place where Joseph was confined. ⁴The Captain of the Guard put them in Joseph's care, who was at their service; and they remained in custody for quite a period. ⁵One night both the butler and the baker of Egypt's king, who were confined to prison, had each his own dream with its personal significance. ⁶When Joseph came to them next morning and took a look at them, he saw that they were despondent; ⁷so he asked Pharaoh's courtiers who were with him in custody in his master's house, "Why do you look so woebegone today?" ⁸They told him, "We had a dream and there is no one to interpret it." Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell them to me." ⁹So the chief of the butlers told Joseph his dream:

"In my dream I saw a vine in front of me ¹⁰and on the vine three branches. And no sooner did it bud than it blossomed, too, and its clusters ripened into grapes. ¹¹Pharaoh's cup was in my hand and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, then gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand."

¹²Joseph told him, "This is its interpretation: The three branches are three days. ¹³Within three days Pha-

a) Awareness of God's presence never left Joseph and it strengthened him in a great temptation.

o) Had Potiphar believed his wife's story, he would have had Joseph executed; but to protect his family name he felt constrained to administer imprisonment.

p) Both at Potiphar's and in the prison Joseph did more than he was told to do; invariably he walked the second mile. God blessed his labors.

raoh will raise your head and restore you to your position; you will hand Pharaoh his cup as was your previous custom when you were his butler. ¹⁴But when all is well with you, please keep me personally in mind, and show your gratitude by mentioning me to Pharaoh; get me out of this house; ¹⁵for I was actually kidnaped from the Hebrew country, and here, too, I have done nothing to deserve being put in the dungeon."

¹⁶When the chief of the bakers noticed that the interpretation was encouraging, he told Joseph, "I had a dream, too; in mine I saw three baskets of white bread on my head ¹⁷and in the upper basket all sorts of bakers' delicacies for Pharaoh; but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

¹⁸Joseph gave answer, "This is its interpretation: The three baskets are three days. ¹⁹Within three days Pharaoh will raise your head from you and hang you on a tree; then the birds will eat the flesh from upon you."

²⁰And it came to pass on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he served a banquet to all his courtiers, and among his servants he raised the head of the chief of the butlers and of the chief of the bakers; ²¹the chief butler he restored to his butlership, so he handed Pharaoh the cup; ²²but the chief baker he hanged,^a just as Joseph had interpreted. ²³However, the chief of the butlers did not keep Joseph in mind; he forgot him.^c

1885 B.C.

41 TWO WHOLE YEARS HAD PASSED when Pharaoh dreamed. He saw himself standing by the river^a ²and observing seven splendid-looking, well-fed cows that came up out of the river and were grazing in the marsh grass. ³Then he saw seven other cows coming up from the river after them — ugly and lean. They were standing with the other cows on the river bank ⁴and the ugly, lean cows ate the seven splendid-looking, well-fed cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

⁵When he fell asleep again he dreamed a second time. He saw seven heads of large and full grain growing on a single stalk. ⁶He then saw seven lean heads of grain, blasted by the east wind, sprouting out after them, ⁷and the seven lean ears swallowed the seven large, full heads of grain.

Pharaoh woke up; it was all a dream. ⁸But in the morning he felt disturbed in spirit; he sent for all the scribes and the wise men of Egypt and Pharaoh told them his dream; but none was able to interpret it for Pharaoh. ⁹Then Pharaoh's chief butler spoke up, "Today I am reminded of my offences; ¹⁰how Pharaoh was angry at his servants and committed me into custody in the house of the Captain of the Guard, me and the chief baker. ¹¹I and he had a dream on the same night, each with a different significance. ¹²A Hebrew youth, who was a slave of the Captain of the Guard, was there with us, to whom we told our dreams and he interpreted them to us, to each his different dream, ¹³and as he interpreted them so it happened, me Pharaoh restored to my position and him he hanged."

¹⁴Pharaoh then summoned Joseph and quickly they brought him out of the dungeon.^c He shaved, changed his clothes and came to Pharaoh, ¹⁵"I have had a dream," Pharaoh said to Joseph, "and no one is interpreting it; but I have heard it said of you that you interpret a dream when you hear it told." ¹⁶Joseph answered, "Not by myself. God will give Pharaoh a favorable response." ¹⁷Pharaoh then told Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the river bank ¹⁸and saw seven well-fed, splendid-looking cows come up out of the river and they grazed among the reed grass. ¹⁹Then I saw in my dream seven other cows come up, very ugly and lean; I have never seen such bad looking ones in all the land of Egypt. ²⁰But the lean, ugly cows ate

g) Evidence must have accumulated against the baker, to show that in an attempt to poison the Pharaoh, not the butler but the baker had been guilty.

r) Gratitude is extremely uncommon. s) In Egypt always the Nile.

t) Joseph's great chance after 13 years. Dreams were his specialty. He must have had many through the years, becoming a master in them.

the first seven fat cows, ²¹and they did not look any better for having them in their stomachs; they looked as ugly as before. Then I woke up. ²²Again I saw in my dream seven heads of grain on a single stalk, full and good. ²³I also saw sprouting out after them seven heads of grain, withered and shriveled up by the east wind, ²⁴and the thin ears swallowing the seven good ears. This I related to the interpreters, but nobody explained it to me."

²⁵Joseph answered Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dream is a unit; God has made known to Pharaoh what He is about to do. ²⁶The seven fat cows represent seven years and the seven full ears represent seven years; it is one complete dream. ²⁷The seven lean and ugly cows, that came up after them, mean seven years, and the seven thin ears, shriveled by the east wind mean seven years of famine. ²⁸This is my message to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do." ²⁹Take note! There are seven years of great abundance ahead throughout the land of Egypt, ³⁰but following them there will come seven years of famine, and all the plenty in the land of Egypt will be forgotten; the famine shall exhaust the land. ³¹The country's abundance will not be in mind, because of the subsequent famine; for it will be woefully severe. ³²That the dream was repeated for Pharaoh means: The matter is divinely settled and God will presently bring it about.

³³"Now then, let Pharaoh look for an intelligent and prudent man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt. ³⁴Let Pharaoh take further action; have him appoint supervisors over the land to take in one fifth of Egypt's produce during the seven abundant years. ³⁵Have them collect all that food during these coming good years and store away the grain under Pharaoh's direction, to retain food in the cities. ³⁶This food shall be stored for the people in view of the seven years of famine that will come upon the land of Egypt, so that the country may not be ruined by the famine."

³⁷The plan appealed to Pharaoh and to all his servants. ³⁸Pharaoh said to his servants: "Can we find this man's equal, who has in him the spirit of God?" ³⁹And to Joseph Pharaoh said, "Since God has taught you all this, there is none as discerning and wise as you are; ⁴⁰you shall be in charge of my palace, and as you give orders my people shall conduct themselves. Only in matters of the throne will I be your superior." ⁴¹He further said to Joseph: "Observe! I have put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt."

⁴²Then Pharaoh pulled his signet ring from his finger and put it on Joseph's finger; ^x he dressed him in fine, linen garments, put the gold chain around his neck ⁴³and had him ride in his second chariot. Ahead of him they proclaimed, "Bow the knee!" Pharaoh appointed him over all Egypt ⁴⁴and said to Joseph, "I remain the Pharaoh, but without acknowledging you not one person in all Egypt shall stir hand or foot." ⁴⁵Pharaoh also gave Joseph the name Zaphenath Paneah ^y and wedded him to Asenath, daughter of Poti-Phera, priest of On.

Joseph traveled all over Egypt. ⁴⁶At 30 he stood in Pharaoh's presence, then went out from Pharaoh, visiting every part of Egypt. ⁴⁷During the seven years of abundance, when the land produced by handfuls, ⁴⁸he stored food in the cities. ⁴⁹Joseph collected grain in immense quantities as the sand on the seashore; he quit recording it, because it was beyond reckoning.

⁵⁰Previous to the famine years two sons were born to Joseph, which Asenath, daughter of Poti-Phera, priest of On, bore him. ⁵¹The first-born Joseph named Manasseh—for, "God has made me forget my hardships and all my father's house." ⁵²The second he

u) Like Daniel (2:28) before Nebuchadnezzar, Joseph is careful to ascribe interpretive power to God.
v) Once more Joseph walks the second mile — he gives advice unasked for, but is aware that as God's messenger he is obligated to speak.

w) Thus publishing to all his position next to the king.

x) Joseph was thereby empowered to take measures in Pharaoh's name. y) Sustainer of Life.

named Ephraim, for "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."²

⁵³When the seven years of plenty were ended in the land of Egypt, ⁵⁴the seven years of scarcity began, as Joseph had foretold. In all adjoining countries there was famine; but everywhere in Egypt there was food. ⁵⁵But when the whole land of Egypt suffered hunger, the people appealed to Pharaoh for food and Pharaoh announced to all the Egyptians, "Apply to Joseph and do what he tells you." ⁵⁶While the famine was spreading all over the earth, Joseph opened all the granaries and sold to the Egyptians; for the famine grew severe in Egypt. ⁵⁷And all nations came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain because everywhere the famine was severe.^a

1876 B.C.

42 WHEN JACOB UNDERSTOOD THAT there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why stare at one another? ²I have heard" — he went on — "that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so we may survive and not starve." ³So Joseph's ten brothers went down to Egypt to buy grain; ⁴but Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother^b, along with his brothers, for he felt afraid some harm might come to him.

⁵Among those who came to buy grain the sons of Israel arrived, for there was famine in the land of Canaan. ⁶Joseph was in control of the land, in charge of sales to all the people of the earth. So Joseph's brothers came and bowed to him with their foreheads touching the ground. ⁷Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger to them and spoke gruffly to them. He said, "Where do you come from?" They answered, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

⁸While Joseph knew his brothers, they did not recognize him^c, ⁹and

Joseph remembered the dream he had dreamed about them. He said to them, "You are spies; you have come to detect where the land lies exposed." ¹⁰They replied, "No, my master, your servants have come to buy grain for food. ¹¹We are all sons of one man; we are honest men; your servants are not spies."

¹²He said to them, "No, you came to find undefended places in the land." ¹³Then they said, "Your servants are 12 brothers, the sons of one man in Canaan; the youngest is now with our father and one is no more."^d ¹⁴Joseph told them, "Just as I have said to you, you are spies. ¹⁵Here is your test: As sure as Pharaoh lives, you shall not get away from here unless your youngest brother comes here. ¹⁶Send one of you to fetch your brother, and you will be interned, so as to test your statement whether you are honest; else by the life of Pharaoh, you certainly are spies."

¹⁷Joseph put them together in custody for three days ¹⁸and told them on the third day, "Do this and survive! I revere God. ¹⁹If you are true, then let one brother remain bound in your prison-house and the rest convey grain for your starving families. ²⁰Bring me your youngest brother so as to verify your words, and you will survive." And so they did. ²¹They said to one another, "Unquestionably we were guilty about our brother when we witnessed the agony of his soul, as he pleaded to us and we would not listen; therefore this agony is now upon us^e."

²²Reuben answered them, "Did I not tell you, 'Do not sin against the lad'? But you paid no attention. Take note, payment for his blood has come due." ²³They had no idea Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter. ²⁴He withdrew a moment and wept; then came back to resume the conversation with them. He indi-

z) Manasseh — Forgetting; Ephraim — Fruitful.

a) At least nine years after Joseph had come to power, 22 years since his brothers had sold him.

b) Benjamin was the only other son of Jacob and Rachel.

c) Although he was smooth-shaven, the years had wrought much change in his appearance, due in part to his environment and his clothes. He spoke through an interpreter and in their minds no relation seemed thinkable between this potentate and their disposed-of brother.

d) Joseph must have maneuvered with many questions to get that statement out of them. It did not come glibly.

e) This was a result of Joseph's "third degree" tactics. He aimed to know their present feelings.

cated Simeon^f out of the group and had him bound as they looked on.

²⁵Joseph gave orders to fill their sacks with grain; also to return each man's money in his sack and to add provision for the trip; and so they did for them. ²⁶Then they packed the grain on their donkeys and were off. ²⁷But as one of them opened his sack to feed his donkey at the lodging place, there was his money in the mouth of his sack! ²⁸So he told his brothers, "My money has been returned. Look, it is inside my sack!" Their hearts sank. Horrified, they exclaimed to one another, "What is this that God^g has done to us?"

²⁹On reaching their father Jacob in Canaan, they related to him all their experiences. They said, ³⁰"The man in charge of the country spoke to us gruffly; he took us for spies of the land. ³¹We told him, 'We are honest people; we have never been spies.' ³²There are twelve brothers of us on our father's side; one is no more and the youngest is now with our father in Canaan.' ³³Then the man, the master of the country, said to us, 'In this way I shall ascertain that you are honest people. Leave one brother with me; take grain needed for your starving families and be off; ³⁴bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies but are trustworthy men. I will then give you back your brother and you can trade in this country.'"

³⁵When they emptied their sacks, behold, every one's money bundled inside his sack! The sight of the money bundles sent fear into them and their father. ³⁶Their father Jacob said to them, "You bereave me (of children); Joseph is gone; Simeon is gone, and now you would take Benjamin! All this comes down on me."

³⁷Reuben told his father, "You may take the lives of my two sons if I fail to bring him home. Place him in my charge and I will return him to you."^h ³⁸But he replied, "My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead and he alone is left. In case harm befalls him on the trip which you are to make you will bring down my hoary head with sorrow to death's realm."ⁱ

43 THE FAMINE, HOWEVER, WAS A sore trial in the land; ²and when they had finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father told them, "Go again and buy us a little food." ³Judah answered him, "But the man warned us sternly, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.' ⁴If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food; ⁵but if you are not sending him, then we shall not go down, either, for the man told us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

⁶Israel demurred, "Why did you treat me so shabbily to tell the man you had another brother?" They said, "The man put the straight question to us about us and our family, 'Is your father still living? Do you have another brother?' So we answered him accordingly. How could we know he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"

⁸Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the lad with me and we will get up and go, so we may survive and not starve, we as well as you, and our little ones. ⁹I will stand guaranty for him; demand him back from me. If I do not bring him back and place him before you, then I shall bear the blame forever. ¹⁰But if we had not dallied, we could have been back the second time!"

¹¹Their father Israel conceded, "If it must be, do this: Take along in your sacks choice products of the land for a present to the man, a bit of balsam, a little honey, some aromatic powder,

f) With Reuben absent when Joseph was sold down to Egypt, Simeon was the responsible leader, being next to the oldest; hence his being retained.

g) One great lesson life had taught them, specially since Jacob's conversion, life is always related to God.

h) Two more deaths in the family would hardly serve to appease Jacob.

i) Hebrew name for "realm of the dead" is Sheol.

j) With Simeon and Levi disqualified because of their slaughter of the Shechemites, Judah became leader next to Reuben.

gum, nuts and almonds.^k ¹²Have double payments with you, including the silver that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; take it back. Perhaps it was a mistake. ¹³Take your brother along, too, and get up; go back to the man. ¹⁴And may God Almighty grant you such favor with the man that he may let both your other brother and Benjamin come back. As for me — if I am bereaved of children, I am bereaved."

¹⁵The men took along Benjamin, the present and also double payment, got started, went down to Egypt, and stood in Joseph's presence. ¹⁶When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he told his house steward, "Bring the men home; see to the butchering and make preparations, for at noon the men are to dine with me." ¹⁷The man did as Joseph had said and brought the men into Joseph's house; ¹⁸but being taken into Joseph's house made them afraid, suspecting, "We are being brought in because of the money that was returned to our sacks on the first trip; he will accuse us, overpower us, make us his slaves and appropriate our donkeys." ¹⁹So they contacted Joseph's house steward and addressed him at the house entrance, ²⁰"Please, Sir, we came here before to buy food ²¹and when we reached the lodging place and opened our sacks, there was each one's money full-weight back in our sacks; so we have brought it back with us. ²²Besides, we have brought payment with us for more food. Who put that money in our sacks, we have no idea."

²³"Welcome to you!" he said, "Have no fear! Your God, your father's God, has put for you the secret deposit in your sacks. I received your money." He then brought Simeon out to them, ²⁴conducted them into Joseph's house, supplied them with water to wash their feet, and also foddered their donkeys. ²⁵On their part they got their gift ready for Joseph's arrival at noon, for they had learned they were to dine there.

²⁶As soon as Joseph came home, they offered him the gift they had with them in the house, bowing to the ground before him. ²⁷He inquired after their welfare and asked, "Is your father in health, the old man you mentioned? Is he still alive?" ²⁸They said, "Your servant, our father, is alive and in good health" all the while bowing their heads and bending their bodies.

²⁹As he looked up, he saw his brother Benjamin, the son of his own mother, and inquired, "Is this your youngest brother of whom you told me?" and said, "God be gracious to you, my son!" ³⁰Then Joseph hurried away, for he was deeply moved over his brother; so he stepped into a room and wept. ³¹Then he washed his face, came out and mastered his emotions. He said, "Serve dinner!"

³²Dinner was served separately for him, for them, and for the Egyptians who ate there, because the Egyptians must not eat with the Hebrews; it would be an offense for the Egyptians. ³³They were seated in view of him in the order of their ages from the first-born to the youngest; which made them look at one another, wondering. ³⁴From his own table he sent them their courses, but those of Benjamin were five times as large^l as any of theirs. They drank and got hilarious with him.

44 BUT HE GAVE ORDERS TO HIS house steward: "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry and put each one's payment in the mouth of his sack. ²Also place my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack with his grain payment." And he did as Joseph had told him. ³With break of day the men were let go with their donkeys ⁴and they had left the city, but no great distance, when Joseph said, "Up and after the men! Overtake them and ask them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good? (Why have you stolen my silver cup?)'"^m ⁵Does not my master do his drinking out of it and use it for divina-

^k) Impoverished as Canaan had become, there still were choice things which Egypt did not produce, the giving of which involved great sacrifice by the donor.

^l) Would they show jealousy? Had their attitude changed for the better? Joseph found out.

^m) The Septuagint translation contains this brief sentence which seems quite in place.

tion? That was a wicked thing to do!"

⁶He overtook them and repeated these words to them. ⁷They replied to him, "Why does my master speak this way? It is utterly foreign to your servants to commit such a crime. ⁸Remember the money we found in our sacks and brought back from Canaan; how then should we steal silver or gold out of your master's house? ⁹The one of your servants with whom it is found should die and besides we will be my master's slaves."

¹⁰He answered, "Very well, be it as you say; he with whom it is found shall be my slave; but the rest go free."

¹¹Then hurriedly each of them lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.

¹²Beginning with the oldest and finishing with the youngest he did the searching, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. ¹³They tore their clothes, packed each his donkey and went back to the city.

¹⁴Judah with his brothers came to Joseph's house — for he was still there — and they fell before him to the ground. ¹⁵Joseph said to them, "How could you do such a thing? Did you not know that a man like me would unquestionably discoverⁿ?"

¹⁶To which Judah replied, "We do not know what to say to my master, or how to word our cause so as to clear ourselves. God has exposed your servants' guilt. See, we are my master's slaves, we as well as he with whom the cup is found."

¹⁷But he rejoined, "Not at all! I will do no such thing. The person with whom the cup was found shall be my slave, but you, you go up peacefully to your father."

¹⁸Judah then stepped up to him and said, "With your permission, my master, your servant would tell you something intimate, and let not your anger blaze against your servants, for you are Pharaoh's counterpart. ¹⁹My master asked his servants, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' ²⁰So we told my master, 'We have an aged father and a young brother, a child of his old age; his brother is dead, so he alone remains of his mother, and his father loves him!' ²¹Then you told your servants, 'Bring him down to me, so I may set my eyes on him!' ²²But we said to my master, 'The lad cannot leave his father; should he leave him, his father would die.' ²³Upon which you told your servants, 'If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you shall not see my face again.'

²⁴"On our return to your servant my father, we gave him my master's message, ²⁵and when our father said, 'Go back to buy us a little food,' ²⁶we answered, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us we will go down; for we cannot meet the man unless our youngest brother goes with us.'

²⁷"Your servant our father said to us, 'You know that my wife^o bore me two sons. ²⁸One left me and I said, Yes, he is surely torn to pieces and I have not seen him since. ²⁹If you take this one, too, and something happens to him, you will bring down my gray hairs to Sheol with sorrow!' ³⁰Now then, since his life is bound up in the lad's life—³¹when I come to my father and the lad is not with us, he will die, and your servants will be bringing the hoary head of your servant my father with sorrow to the grave. ³²But your servant went guaranty for the lad to my father, saying, 'If I fail to bring him back to you, then I will bear the blame before my father forever.' ³³I beg of you, therefore, to retain your servant in the lad's place, a slave to my master, and let the lad go up with his brothers; ³⁴for how could I go up to my father and not have the lad with me, there to witness the grief my father must suffer!"

45 JOSEPH WAS NOT ABLE ANY longer to control his emotions before all the bystanders; he shouted, "Have everyone withdraw!" So there

n) There was "crystal gazing" in Egypt and Joseph's gift of foretelling was probably ascribed to similar practices. We know that his trust was in God and not in the silver cup.

o) Jacob thought of Rachel alone as his real wife — a hard pill to swallow for Leah's sons, and it was not God's thought. Leah and not Rachel was buried with Jacob in the Machpelah cave; she also became ancestress of Jesus.

were no others present when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. ²So loudly did he weep that the Egyptians and Pharaoh's household heard it. ³Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?" His brothers were so confounded, they could not answer him.

⁴Joseph said to his brothers, "Please, come close to me"; so they came nearer. He said, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt; ⁵be not disheartened or vexed with yourselves for selling me here, because God sent me ahead of you to save your life. ⁶For two years now the famine is in the land and there are five more years without plowing or harvest, ⁷and God sent me before you to assure for you continuance on the earth; to grant you survival through a great salvation. ⁸So then, you did not send me here, but God^p, and He has appointed me a father to Pharaoh, a master of his whole palace and ruler over all Egypt.

⁹"Hurry and go up to my father and tell him, 'This is your son Joseph's message: God has put me in charge of all Egypt. Come down to me without delay. ¹⁰You will live in the land of Goshen where you will be near me, you, your children and your grandchildren, your flocks, your herds and everything you have. ¹¹There I will support you, so that you, your family and all you possess may not suffer privation — for there are five more years of famine.'^q

¹²"Take note! You see for yourselves and so does my brother Benjamin, that I am personally conversing with you; ¹³and tell my father about all my splendor in Egypt, and everything you have observed. Hurry and bring my father down here." ¹⁴He then fell on his brother Benjamin's neck and wept; so did Benjamin weep on his neck. ¹⁵He also kissed all his brothers and embraced them as he wept. Afterwards his brothers conversed with him.

¹⁶When the news that Joseph's brothers had come reached Pharaoh's palace, Pharaoh and his servants were pleased ¹⁷and Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers to do this: 'Pack your animals; go back to the land of Canaan, ¹⁸get your father and your families and come to me. I will give you the best that Egypt contains; you will live on the fat of the land,'^r ¹⁹And these are my orders for you to carry out: Take wagons from the land of Egypt for you, for your little ones, and for your wives; bring your father and come. ²⁰Do not trouble about furniture, for the best of all Egypt is yours.

²¹The sons of Israel did so. Joseph furnished them wagons as Pharaoh had ordered, and provisions for the trip. ²²He gave each of them new suits, but Benjamin he gave 200 dollars worth of silver and five new suits. ²³To his father he sent this: Ten donkeys loaded with Egypt's choice products; also ten she-donkeys carrying grain, food and provision on the way. ²⁴Thus he saw his brothers off and as they left, he told them: "Have no disagreement by the way."

²⁵They went up from Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to their father Jacob, ²⁶whom they told, "Joseph is still alive and he is ruler over the whole land of Egypt." Jacob's heart remained unmoved, for he could not believe them; ²⁷so they repeated to him everything Joseph had told them, and when he saw the wagons Joseph had sent to transport him, their father Jacob's spirit revived ²⁸and Israel said, "Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

46 WITH EVERYTHING HE HAD, Israel journeyed as far as Beersheba, where he offered sacrifices to his father Isaac's God. ²In night visions God spoke to Israel, Jacob, Jacob; who said, "Here am I." ³I am God, He said, the God of your father. Be not afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you a great nation. ⁴I will

p) An outstanding illustration of divine sovereignty and government: God is in charge of the universe, including each single person, and His program carries through.

q) The direct message to father Jacob is finished. Joseph wants their personal testimony to their father — which cannot help being a confession.

r) When famine was felt by all Egyptians, it required a deep sense of appreciation to invite outsiders in, and to offer them its best.

go down with you to Egypt, and I will without fail bring you up again. And Joseph will close your eyes.

⁶Jacob then moved on from Beer-sheba and the sons of Israel conveyed their father Jacob, their little ones and their wives in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to convey him. ⁷They took their cattle and their movable belongings, which they had accumulated in Canaan and arrived in Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him — ⁷his sons, his grandsons, his daughters, his granddaughters — all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt⁸.

⁸These are the names of Israel's children who came into Egypt — Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's first-born, ⁹and Reuben's sons Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

¹⁰Simeon's sons: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin and Zohar; also Shaul, the son of a Canaanitess.

¹¹Levi's sons: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

¹²Judah's sons: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in Canaan. Perez' sons were Hezron and Hamul.

¹³Issachar's sons: Tola, Puvah, Job and Shimron.

¹⁴Zebulun's sons: Sered, Elon and Jahleel. ¹⁵These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore Jacob in Padan Aram; also his daughter Dinah; the total number of persons, sons and daughters, 33.

¹⁶Gad's sons: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.

¹⁷Asher's sons: Imnah, Isuah, Isui, Beriah, and their sister Serah. Beriah's sons: Heber and Malchiel; ¹⁸the sons of Zilpah whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah. These she bore Jacob, 16 persons.

¹⁹The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰To Joseph in Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath¹, daughter of Poti-Phera, priest of On, bore him.

²¹And Benjamin's sons: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muphim, Huphim and Ard; ²²sons of Rachel whom she bore Jacob — fourteen altogether.

²³Dan's son: Hushim.

²⁴Naphtali's sons: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem, ²⁵sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave his daughter Rachel; she bore these to Jacob, seven persons.

²⁶The total number of persons that entered Egypt with Jacob, his blood descendants, his sons' wives not included, was 66⁴. ²⁷Joseph's sons, born in Egypt were two; so all the members of Jacob's family as he came into Egypt were 70.

²⁸He sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph, so as to meet him in Goshen; and they arrived in the Goshen district. ²⁹Joseph then hitched up his chariot and rode to Goshen to meet his father Israel, and when they met, Joseph embraced his father and wept a long while, hugging him again and again. ³⁰Israel said to Joseph, "Now I am ready to die, for I have personally seen you and you are still alive."

³¹Joseph told his brothers and his father's family, "I will call on Pharaoh and let him know; I will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household have come to me from Canaan; ³²they are shepherds, their trade is to tend cattle. They have brought along their flocks and their herds and all they have.' ³³Now, when Pharaoh summons you and asks what your occupation is, ³⁴you answer, 'Your servants have been cattlemen ever since we were youngsters, both we and our fathers,' so that you may settle in the Goshen district; for every tender of sheep is detested by the Egyptians."⁵

47 JOSEPH THEN WENT TO PHARAOH and told him, "My father, my brothers, their flocks and their herds, with all they have, are come

s) Grandchildren included, both in Leah's and in Rachel's case.

t) Her training of Manasseh and Ephraim would hardly be in the Hebrew faith.

u) Leah had died in Canaan and had been buried in the family sepulchre of Machpela [Ch. 49:31]. Jacob and Joseph complete the 70.

v) Joseph ran a risk, which only high characters dare or care to take; for, not being a native himself and having been elevated to a position many nobles would covet, he took the responsibility for a type of foreigners that was heartily disliked and looked down upon, and that when many natives went hungry.

from the land of Canaan and are now in the Goshen district." ²He also introduced five of his brothers to Pharaoh ³and Pharaoh asked his brothers, "What is your occupation?" They answered Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers," ⁴then added, "We have come to live here temporarily because there is no pasturage for your servant's flocks in the land of Canaan, which is hard hit by the famine. So we beg of you to let your servants live in the land of Goshen."

⁵Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you; ⁶the land of Egypt is at your disposal. Have your father and your brothers settle in the best of the land; let them live in the Goshen district. If you know of capable men among them, put them in charge of my own livestock."

⁷Joseph then brought in his father and introduced him to Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh ⁸and Pharaoh asked Jacob, "How many years have you lived?" ⁹Jacob answered Pharaoh, "The years of my pilgrimage number 130; few and strenuous my life's days and years have been and not equal to the pilgrim years of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage." ¹⁰Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and withdrew from Pharaoh's presence.

¹¹Joseph arranged for his father and his brothers to get settled, and donated to them property in the land of Egypt, its choicest section, the Ramses section, as Pharaoh had ordered. ¹²Joseph supported his father, his brothers and his father's entire household with food, rationed according to the number of the children.

¹³There was lack of food all over the country, for the famine was severe; both Egypt and Canaan became exhausted from the famine. ¹⁴So Joseph collected all the available money in Egypt and in Canaan^w for the grain they bought, and he deposited the money in Pharaoh's palace. ¹⁵When the cash gave out in Egypt and in Canaan, the Egyptians all came to Joseph, saying, "Give us food! Why let us starve in front of you because we are out of money!"

¹⁶Joseph replied, "If your money is gone, hand over your livestock and I will give you food in exchange." ¹⁷So they brought Joseph their animals and he traded them food for their horses, the flocks, the herds and the donkeys; that year he nourished them in exchange for all their livestock.

¹⁸With that year ended, they came to him the next year and told him, "No use hiding from my master that our money is gone and all our livestock is owned by our master; there is nothing left to bring our master except our persons and our acreage. ¹⁹Why should we die before your eyes and our land lie waste! Buy us and our acres in exchange for food, then we and our land shall be in serfdom to Pharaoh.* Hand us seed, too, so we may survive, not starve, and the land not lie waste."

²⁰Joseph then bought all of Egypt's acreage for Pharaoh; for all the Egyptians sold their fields, due to the overwhelming severity of the famine; in this way the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹Also from one end of Egypt to the other he had the people move to town. ²²Only the land of the priests he did not purchase, for the priests enjoyed royal subsidies, and lived on the rations Pharaoh regularly allowed them; so they did not sell their land.

²³Joseph announced to the people, "Take note that now I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Look! Here is seed for you. ²⁴Put in your crop and at harvest time contribute one fifth to Pharaoh and keep four fifths for yourselves — for seeding the field, for personal sustenance, for your domestics and for your little ones."^y ²⁵They replied, "You have saved our lives; may we gain our master's favor,

w) Canaan is mentioned with Egypt partly because about this time Egypt held sovereignty over the peoples of Canaan.

x) An absolute sovereign, the Pharaoh claimed full ownership of the national treasury and with it eventually over the lives and persons of his subjects.

y) There was no sowing or planting till the last year of famine; for the seed would be wasted; but the ruling for a 20% taxation could be made then and there.

and we are willing to be Pharaoh's serfs." ²⁶Joseph then established it as a regulation that has been in force in the land of Egypt to this day that Pharaoh shall have the fifth — exempting only the priests' lands, which did not become Pharaoh's.

²⁷Israel² lived in the land of Egypt, in the Goshen district; there they acquired property, were prolific and multiplied rapidly. ²⁸For 17 years Jacob lived in Egypt, so Jacob reached the age of 147. ²⁹When Israel's end drew near, he summoned his son Joseph and said to him, "If you will do me a favor, please place your hand under my thigh and pledge me kindness and truth. Please, do not bury me in Egypt, ³⁰for I want to rest with my fathers. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burying place."

³¹He said, "I will carry out your suggestion." "Swear to me!" he said, and he swore to him. Israel then bowed in worship on the head end of his couch.

48 FOLLOWING THIS, SOMEONE told Joseph, "Your father is ill," so he took along his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. ²When Jacob was informed of Joseph's visit to him, Israel, collecting all his strength, sat up in bed. ³Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz^a in the land of Canaan and blessed me.^b ⁴He said to me, I will make you fruitful and numerous; I will make you a multitude of peoples; I will give your descendants after you this land for an everlasting possession. ⁵And as for your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in Egypt before my coming here, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh shall be to me like Reuben and Simeon. ⁶But your children who are born after them shall be yours; they shall be mentioned like their brothers in their inheritance. ⁷As for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by my side in the land of Canaan a little distance from Ephrath and I buried her by the Ephrath — that is Bethlehem — road."

⁸Israel then looked at Joseph's sons and asked, "Who are these?" ⁹Joseph answered his father, "They are my sons, whom God has granted me here." "Please lead them to me," he said, "and I will bless them."

¹⁰As Israel's eyesight was dim with age, he could not see well; so Joseph brought them close to him; then he kissed and embraced them. ¹¹And Israel remarked to Joseph, "I did not expect ever to see you again, and, think of it, God has granted me to see your offspring!" ¹²Joseph then removed them from his knees and bowed with his head to the ground. ¹³With his right hand, Joseph placed Ephraim by Israel's left hand and with his left hand he placed Manasseh by Israel's right hand and brought them close to him. ¹⁴But Israel extended his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, consciously directing his hands, although Manasseh was the first-born.^c ¹⁵He blessed Joseph, saying, "The God in whose presence my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who shepherded me through life to this moment, ¹⁶the Angel who continually redeemed^d me from every evil, bless these lads. May they perpetuate my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they increase to multitudes in the midst of the earth."

¹⁷When Joseph noticed that his father was placing his right hand on Ephraim's head, he disliked it; so he seized his father's hand to shift it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's. ¹⁸Joseph said to his father, "Not this way, my father; for this is the first-born. Place your right hand on his head." ¹⁹But his father declined and said, "I know, my son, I know; he too shall become a people and he too shall grow great; nevertheless, his younger brother shall be-

2) The Israelites rather than Jacob alone. a) Named Bethel after Jacob's experience there.

b) The least we Christian parents can do toward our children is to tell them how wonderful God has been to us, a testimony to which no child can take exception.

c) Somewhat of a repetition of the Esau-Jacob relationship so far as parental blessings are concerned.

d) Literally, The One redeeming me — the Goel — here first so mentioned.

come greater than he and his descendants shall become a completeness of nations." ²⁰That day he blessed them, saying, "In you the Israelites shall bless; they will say, 'May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh';" so he placed Ephraim before Manasseh.

²¹Israel said to Joseph, "You see, I die; but God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers. ²²As an extra legacy among your kinsfolk I am leaving you the ridge I took from the Amorite with my sword and my bow."^e

49 JACOB CALLED FOR HIS SONS; HE said, "Come together so that I may tell you what you will experience in coming days. ²Form a circle and hear, you sons of Jacob; listen to your father Israel.

³"Reuben, you are my first-born, my strength and the first issue of my vitality; excellent in dignity, prominent in prowess. ⁴Boiling over like water, you will not retain pre-eminence; for you climbed up to your father's bed; you defiled my couch with your climbing.^f

⁵"Simeon and Levi are brothers; their weapons are implements of violence. ⁶My soul, do not share in their plot; my spirit, do not join their meeting; for in their anger they murdered men and in their insolence they hamstringed oxen.^g ⁷A curse on their anger, for it is fierce and on their rage, for it is cruel. I will disperse them among Jacob and scatter them in Israel.^h

⁸"Judah, you are the one your brothers will praise;ⁱ your grip will be on the necks of your foes. May your father's sons bow down to you. ⁹Judah, a lion's cub! From prey you have gone high,^j my son! Like a lion he stoops, he crouches; like an old lion; who would rouse him? ¹⁰The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the leader's staff from between his feet until Shiloh comes and Him the peoples shall obey.^k ¹¹Hitching his foal to the vine, the donkey's foal to the choice vine, he washes his clothes in wine, his garments in the juice of the grapes. ¹²His eyes are red with wine and his teeth white with milk.

¹³"Zebulun shall dwell by the sea-shore; he shall be a harbor for ships, with his flank toward Zidon.

¹⁴"Issachar is a big-boned donkey, lying down between the sheep folds. ¹⁵When he finds rest enjoyable and the land pleasant, he bends his shoulder to carry loads and submits to servitude.

¹⁶"Dan will judge his people as one of Israel's tribes. ¹⁷Let Dan be a serpent on the road, a horned snake in the path, that snips the horses' heels so that the rider falls backward. ¹⁸I am waiting, O LORD, for Thy salvation!

¹⁹"Gad, raiders will assail him, but he assails their rear.

²⁰"From Asher, his food will be rich and he shall deliver royal dainties.

²¹"Naphtali, a deer let loose; he produces beautiful sayings.

²²"Joseph is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a spring, whose branches run over the wall. ²³The archers sorely harassed him and shot at him; they have hated him; ²⁴but his bow remains steady; his arms and his hands are reinforced by the aid of the Mighty One of Jacob, from the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel; ²⁵through the God of your father, who will help you; through the Almighty who will bless you with blessings from heaven above; blessings from the deep that lies below;^l blessings of breasts and wombs. ²⁶Your father's blessings surpass the blessings of my forebears, reaching what is choicest on the everlasting hills. They shall be on the head of Joseph, on the crown of him who was distinguished^m from his brothers.

²⁷"Benjamin, a tearing wolf; in the

e) A lot apparently bought from the Shechemites [Ch. 33:19]. Joseph was finally buried there [Josh. 24:32].

f) Reuben's sin with Bilhah [Ch. 35:22]. g) Their massacre of the Shechemites [Ch. 34:25-29].

h) Jacob at his deathbed speaks for God; he is become a prophet.

i) In agreement with his name, Judah - Object of Praise.

j) Picturing the lion either with his prey or after devouring it, scaling the mountain trail to a safe resting-place.

k) Pointing, we believe, to Messiah.

l) Judah and Joseph stand out clearly, and for Joseph the patriarch can hardly find enough words.

m) Or separated from his brothers.

morning he devours prey, in the evening he divides loot."ⁿ

²⁸These together composed the twelve tribes of Israel and this their father said about them when he blessed them, blessing each with a particular blessing. ²⁹He then charged them: "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰in the Machpelah cave, facing Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite for a family cemetery. ³¹There they buried Abraham with his wife Sarah; there they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah, and there I buried Leah. ³²The field including the cave was bought from the Hittites."

³³When Jacob had finished his charge to his sons, he drew his feet together upon the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

50 WEeping over him and KISSing him, Joseph fell on his father's face. ²Then Joseph ordered his medical attendants to embalm his father; so the physicians embalmed Israel. ³They devoted 40 days to him, for such is the length of the embalming period. And the Egyptians bemoaned him 70 days.

⁴When the mourning days were over, Joseph said to the Pharaoh family, "If you feel friendly toward me,^o please tell Pharaoh ⁵that my father exacted an oath from me, saying, 'You see that I am dying. Bury me in the sepulcher which I hewed out for me^p in the land of Canaan.' So, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come back." ⁶Pharaoh responded, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."

⁷Then Joseph went up to bury his father, and along with him went all Pharaoh's servants, the chief men of his household and the senators of Egypt; ⁸also Joseph's entire household, his brothers and his father's household. Only their little ones, their flocks and their herds they left in the Goshen district. ⁹Chariots and horsemen escorted them, too, making a formidable army.

¹⁰When they reached Atad's^a threshing-floor, east of Jordan, they observed an impressive and stately mourning; for seven days Joseph made lamentation for his father. ¹¹When the natives there, the Canaanites, noticed the mourning at the Atad threshing-floor, they said, "This is a deep-felt mourning for the Egyptians"; so they named it Abel Mizraim.^r It lies east of the Jordan.

¹²His sons did with him as he had ordered them; ¹³they conveyed him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the Machpelah field that faces Mamre,^a the field that Abraham had bought from Ephron the Hittite for a family cemetery.

¹⁴After they had buried his father, Joseph with his brothers and all who had gone up to bury his father, returned to Egypt. ¹⁵But when Joseph's brothers realized^t that their father was dead, they said, "Suppose Joseph feels resentful toward us and requires full retribution for all the harm we did him!" ¹⁶So they sent word to Joseph, "Your father before he died charged us, ¹⁷'You say to Joseph, in kindness forgive now your brothers' crime and their sin; for they have maltreated you.' Now we beg of you, forgive the misdemeanor of the servants of your father's God."

When they spoke to him, Joseph wept. ¹⁸His brothers then fell down before him and said, "Look! We are your servants."

¹⁹Joseph said to them, "Have no fear; for am I in God's place? ²⁰True enough you planned evil against me, but God planned it for good, to bring about what today is fact, the keeping alive of much people."^u ²¹So, have no

n) This sounds as if Benjamin had not behaved admirably.

o) A suggestion here that, with the ordeal of famine past, the authority of Joseph and his intimacy with the Pharaoh had lessened.

p) Possibly, when Leah was buried, Jacob had the vault enlarged.

q) Bramble, or thorn [see Judges 9:14,15]. It may be a man's name; or of a place, or both.

r) Either Meadow or Mourning of Egypt; probably the latter. It is the same place as Atad.

s) Or, East of Mamre. t) Saw a changed situation.

u) An ever-recurring divine principle: God allows sin; a man may do or disobey His will; but ultimately His purpose becomes realized, supremely manifest in Christ's death and resurrection.

fear; I will take care of you and of your little ones." Thus he put them at ease as he spoke to their hearts.

²²Joseph and his father's family remained in Egypt, where Joseph reached the age of 110; ²³long enough to see Ephraim's children, the third generation. The children of Machir, too, Manasseh's son, were born at Joseph's knees.^v ²⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, "I shall die and God will certainly visit you, to bring you up from this country to the land which He promised on oath to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob." ²⁵Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear saying, "God will certainly visit you and you will carry up my bones from here."^w

1805 B.C.

²⁶Joseph died at the age of 110. They embalmed him and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.^x

v) They were shown him at birth and, as they grew, sat on his knees and played around him.

w) Joseph remained a Hebrew at heart and a worshiper of the true God. He seems the best qualified Israelite before Moses to have gathered up the Genesis incidents and teachings, of which Moses could make use for the composition of Genesis. Joseph had time and ability for it, and as a boy had heard Isaac and Jacob review vital events told in Genesis.

x) The embalmed body was ultimately buried near Shechem, on Joseph's property [Josh. 24:32].

THE BOOK OF

EXODUS

1 AND^a THESE ARE THE NAMES OF the sons of Israel who came into Egypt with Jacob, each with his household: ²Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah; ³Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin; ⁴Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.^b ⁵The descendants of Jacob numbered 70 altogether, as Joseph was already living in Egypt.

⁶Joseph died, and so did all his brothers and that whole generation; ⁷but the children of Israel were prolific and increased abundantly; they multiplied and grew incredibly strong, so that the land became filled with them.

⁸Then a new king rose to power over Egypt, who had no knowledge of Joseph. ⁹He told his people, "See how the Israelitish people are more numerous and mightier than we are. ¹⁰Come on, let us deal shrewdly with them, so they may increase no further; otherwise in case of war they may side with our enemies, fight against us and get up out of our country."

¹¹So they put gang foremen over them to make life hard for them with heavy toil; for they were building the store cities Pithom and Ramses for Pharaoh. ¹²But the more they held them down the faster they grew, and they spread themselves until the Egyptians became frightened about the Israelites.

¹³They harshly enslaved the sons of Israel; ¹⁴they embittered their lives by hard service, making them work as slaves in mortar and in brick and in all sorts of field work. Everything they forced them to do by harsh treatment.

¹⁵The king of Egypt also gave this order to Shiphras and Puah, the Hebrew midwives, ¹⁶"As you aid the Hebrew women in childbirth, watch them closely on the birthstool;^d if it is a son, kill him; if it is a daughter, let her live." ¹⁷But the midwives revered God and did not carry out the orders of the king of Egypt; they kept the male babies alive. ¹⁸So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this, letting the male babies live?" ¹⁹The midwives answered Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; they are quick of delivery they give birth before the midwife gets to them."

²⁰God treated the midwives well while the people kept on increasing and grew ever mightier. ²¹And because the midwives revered God, He prospered them with families. ²²Then Pharaoh charged all his people,^e "Throw

a) Exodus is a continuation of Genesis, therefore the conjunction "and." It usually takes the place of our punctuation marks and often it may be omitted.

b) The names are recorded according to age and mothers — Leah, Rachel, Bilhah and Zilpah. Of the descendants mentioned only two are women [see 1 Chr. ch. 1-8].

d) They could see or feel the babe before the mother could, and might effect death without her positively knowing it. The mother was placed on a special chair.

e) All the people should know, but those immediately concerned were the Hebrews.

every newborn Hebrew son into the river^f and keep alive every newborn daughter."

2 A MAN OF THE LEVITE TRIBE WENT and married a Levite maiden.^g ²The wife became pregnant and gave birth to a son; then, seeing that he was exceptionally well-formed, she concealed him for three months. ³But when she could hide him no longer she got him a reed basket, which she daubed with asphalt and pitch. She tucked the child in it and set it among the reeds near the river-bank, ⁴while his sister stationed herself at a distance to know what might happen to him.

⁵Then Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe in the river, while her ladies were strolling on the river-side. As she noticed the basket among the reeds, she sent her maid to fetch it ⁶and, on opening it, she saw the child, a boy, crying. She pitied him and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children!"

⁷His sister then said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and invite a nurse for you of the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?" ⁸Pharaoh's daughter told her, "Go!" So the girl went and called the child's mother ⁹to whom Pharaoh's daughter said, "Take along this child and nurse him for me and I will pay your wages." The woman took the child and nursed him. ¹⁰The lad grew up and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became a son to her. She called him Moses,^h "Because," she said, "I have drawn him from the water."

¹¹In time when Moses was fully matured he went out to his kinsmen and observed their hardships.ⁱ He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his kin. ¹²He looked right and left, and when he saw nobody, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. ¹³Next day he went out and came upon two quarreling Hebrews and said to the one who was unfair, "Why do you strike your neighbor?" ¹⁴But he retorted, "Who appointed you a prince and a judge over us? Are you thinking of killing me as you did the Egyptian?" Then Moses felt frightened; he said (to himself), "This incident is known."

¹⁵When Pharaoh learned of the affair, he took steps to kill Moses; but Moses fled from Pharaoh and paused in the land of Midian,^j where he sat down by a well.

¹⁶Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, who just then came to draw water, and they filled the troughs to water their father's flock; ¹⁷but the shepherds came and drove them away. Then Moses got up, helped them and watered their flock. ¹⁸When they came to their father Reuel,^k he said, "How is it you are back so early today?" ¹⁹They answered, "A man from Egypt rid us of the shepherds; he drew for us, too, and watered the flock." ²⁰He said, "And where is he? Why did you leave him there? Invite him in for supper." ²¹Moses was willing to stay with the man, who gave Moses his daughter Zipporah. ²²She bore him a son whom he named Gershom,^l for he said, "I have become an exile in a foreign land."

²³In the course of this long period the king of Egypt died and the children of Israel were groaning on account of their slavery. They kept crying out and their cry on account of their slavery ascended to God. ²⁴God heard their groaning and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. ²⁵God looked upon the children of Israel and God concerned Himself about them.

3 AS MOSES WAS HERDING THE SHEEP of Jethro, his father-in-law, the Midian priest, he led the flock deeper

f) River means the Nile throughout the Book of Exodus.

g) Anirram was the man and Jochebed the woman, Exodus 6:20, both descendants of Levi.

h) Hebrew, "Drawn out"; Egyptian, "Saved from the water." i) At 40, Acts 7:23.

j) Midianites were descendants of Abraham by Keturah, whom he married after Sarah's death.

k) Better known as Jethro.

l) The name suggests not merely "stranger", but exile, banishment. A second son, Eliezer, "God is a Helper," is mentioned in Ch. 18:3,4.

into the desert^m and came near Horeb, the mountain of God. ²There the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a fiery flame from the center of a thornbush. He gazed and saw the bush afire, but it did not burn up. ³So Moses said, "I will step aside right now and examine this wonderful sight, why the thornbush is not burned up."

⁴The LORDⁿ saw him turn aside to observe and God called to him from the bush: Moses, Moses! He answered, "Here I am." ⁵Then He said; Do not move nearer! Take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground. ⁶He also said, I am your fathers' God, the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob. And Moses covered his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

⁷The LORD said: I have well observed the misery of My people in Egypt and I have heard their cry under their slave drivers; for I know their sorrows. ⁸Now I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians and to bring them up from there to a broad and good land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites. ⁹Since the cry of the children of Israel has reached Me and I have observed the Egyptians oppressing them, ¹⁰you come now and I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may bring My people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.

¹¹But Moses said to God, "Who am I to go to Pharaoh and to bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" ¹²He said: But I will accompany you, and this will be your evidence that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will serve God on this mountain.

¹³Moses then asked God, "When I come to the Israelites and say to them,

'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they say to me, 'What is His name?' then what shall I tell them?" ¹⁴God said to Moses, I am who I am. Thus you will speak to the Israelites, I AM^o has sent me to you.

¹⁵God said further to Moses, You tell the Israelites: Jehovah, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob^p has sent me to you. This is My name forever and by this I am to be remembered through all generations. ¹⁶Go and convene the elders of Israel and tell them, the LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob has appeared to me with this message: I have faithfully been present with you and observed the treatment you received in Egypt, ¹⁷and I promise to bring you up from the affliction of Egypt into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, into a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁸They will listen to your message and you with the elders of Israel shall call on the king of Egypt and tell him, "The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now, please let us go a three-days' journey into the desert to sacrifice to the LORD our God."^q

¹⁹I am aware that the king of Egypt will not allow you to go except by a mighty hand, ²⁰so I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all the wonders I shall work there; after which he will send you away. ²¹And I will give this people such favor with the Egyptians that when you leave, you will not go empty-handed; ²²but each woman shall request from her neighbor and from the lodger in her home silver and gold articles, and garments with which you will dress your sons and daughters. You shall strip the Egyptians.^r

m) The essential meaning of "desert" is not sandiness, but loneliness, reflected in "deserted." Moses led his sheep where there was grass.

n) Angel of the Lord, proves to mean the Lord Himself, not merely here but all through the Bible. We think this meant the Son of God.

o) Suggesting, the same yesterday, today and forever. Yahweh, from which the name Jehovah, is closely related to it.

p) Among some of our American Indians a threefold repetition equals our oath; so in the Near East. God's covenant was threefold.

q) More was expected and planned, but a minimum was first requested.

r) It was but fair that the Hebrews should get some return for their many years of hard labor.

4 MOSES THEN REPLIED, "THEY WILL neither believe me nor listen to my appeal; for they will say, 'The LORD has not appeared to you'." ²The LORD said to him: What is that in your hand? He answered, "A staff." ³He said: Throw it on the ground. He threw it on the ground and it became a snake from which Moses fled. ⁴But the LORD said to Moses: Put out your hand and catch it by the tail — he put out his hand and caught it and in his hand it became a staff — ⁵so they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob did show Himself to you.^a ⁶The LORD also told him: Now place your hand to your bosom; which he did. But when he took it out, look, his hand was leprous, as white as snow! ⁷He said: Return your hand to your bosom. He did so and when he took it out of his bosom it was restored to be like all his flesh. ⁸The LORD said, In case they will not believe you nor mind the testimony of the first sign, they will believe the witness of the second sign. ⁹However, should they fail to accept these two evidences and will not listen to your voice, then take some of the river water and pour it onto the dry land; the water you take out of the river shall on the land become blood.

¹⁰Moses said to the LORD, "Please, Lord, I am no orator now and I never was; not even while Thou art speaking to Thy servant. I am slow of speech and of an awkward tongue." ¹¹The LORD said: Who has made man's mouth, or who makes a person dumb or deaf or blind? Is it not I, the LORD? ¹²You, therefore, go and I will be with your mouth; I will teach you what to say.^t

¹³But he said, "O Lord, please send anyone (else) Thou wilt."

¹⁴Then the LORD's indignation burned against Moses. He said: Is not Aaron, the Levite, your brother? I know him to be a fluent speaker and he is, besides, coming out to meet you. He will be heartily glad to see you. ¹⁵You speak to him and convey to him the message, and I will sustain you both in your speaking. ¹⁶He shall be your spokesman to the people; for him you shall take the part of God. ¹⁷Take hold of this staff, with which you shall work the signs.

¹⁸Moses then left, returned to Jethro, his father-in-law, and said to him, "Please, let me go back to my brothers in Egypt to see if they are still living." Jethro answered Moses, "Go in peace!"

¹⁹It was in Midian that God said to Moses: Go back to Egypt, for all the men who were after your life are dead.^u ²⁰So Moses took his wife and his sons, helped them onto a donkey and returned to the land of Egypt. Moses also took God's staff in his hand.

²¹The LORD said to Moses: As you go back to Egypt, see to it that you work before Pharaoh all the signs I have placed in your power. But I will encourage^v him in his stubbornness and he will not let the people go. ²²You then say to Pharaoh, "This is the LORD's message — 'Israel is My first-born son; ²³so I tell you to let My son go, to let him serve Me; but if you refuse to let him go, beware — I am about to kill your first-born son!'" s) The simple staff of a godly man may yield more power than the golden scepter of a godless king. In the second miracle God's power to punish and to heal is evidenced.

²⁴At an inn on the way the LORD met him^w and was at the point of taking his life; ²⁵but Zipporah took a flint knife, circumcised her son and threw the foreskin at his feet with the words, "You are indeed a blood bridegroom to me." ²⁶Then He let him alone when she said, because of the circumcision, "You are my bridegroom in blood."

²⁷The LORD said to Aaron: Go and

t) As our Lord assured His disciples of the Holy Spirit's aid in their witnessing.

u) So came the message to Mary and Joseph in Egypt when Herod had died.

v) There is no Hebrew word for "mind", instead the heart is mentioned. The word translated "harden" in the KJV, is translated "strong" elsewhere, as in Deut. 31:6,7,23, "Be strong and of good courage." Pharaoh, like the Assyrian leaders of Isaiah's day, challenged God to a duel. He started with increased oppression and proved himself stubborn. God let him fall into his own pit. God let him exert that strong will to the limit, which meant, to Pharaoh's own limit. Of course, he lost in that duel.

w) Moses had failed to live up to the Covenant of circumcision; perhaps severe illness brought that sin home to him and his wife rectified the situation.

meet Moses in the desert. He went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.^x ²⁸Moses then told Aaron the whole message with which God had sent him and all the signs with which he had been charged. ²⁹So Moses went with Aaron and they convened all the elders of Israel, ³⁰to whom Aaron conveyed all the words the LORD had spoken to Moses, and he^y enacted all the signs before the people, ³¹so that the people believed. When they learned that the LORD had come to the Israelites' home and had looked upon their affliction, they bowed deeply and worshipped.

5 THIS DONE, MOSES AND AARON called on Pharaoh and said, "This is the message of the LORD God of Israel: Let My people go so they may hold for Me a feast in the desert." ²But Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should pay attention to His orders to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD and, what is more, I will not let Israel go." ³They rejoined, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us, please, go a three-days' journey into the desert and let us sacrifice to the LORD our God, so He may not strike us with pestilence or sword."

⁴The king of Egypt retorted, "Why do you, Moses and Aaron, draw the people away from their work? Attend to your duties. ⁵Look here," Pharaoh continued, "The people of the land are now numerous, yet you are having them quit their work."

⁶That same day Pharaoh ordered the slave drivers in charge of the workers and their foremen,^z ⁷"Provide the people no longer with straw for making bricks; they must go and glean straw for themselves. ⁸And exact from them the fixed number of bricks which they have been daily making — not one less. They are shouting, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God!' because they are lazy. ⁹Weigh down heavily on them, so they are occupied with work instead of trusting in lies." ¹⁰Then the slave drivers and the foremen went and announced to the people, "Here is Pharaoh's answer, 'I will not furnish you straw. ¹¹Glean it for yourselves wherever you can find it; but your output will not be reduced.'" ¹²So the people scattered all over the land of Egypt to glean stubble for straw, ¹³with the slave drivers hurrying them on, saying, "Finish your day's quota as when the straw was provided."

¹⁴The foremen of the Israelites, whom the slave drivers of Pharaoh had placed over them, were lashed and were told, "Why have you failed to finish your fixed job of brickmaking, the same as on previous days!" ¹⁵The Israelite foremen then went and appealed to Pharaoh, "Why do you treat your workers this way? ¹⁶No straw is being provided for your workmen, yet they say to us, 'Make bricks!' Look! Your workers are lashed and your people are unfair." ¹⁷His reply was, "You are lazy, just plain lazy; that's the reason you are saying, 'Let us go to sacrifice to the LORD!' ¹⁸You go to work at once! No straw will be provided for you, but you must produce the fixed amount of bricks."

¹⁹When the Israelite foremen were told, "You shall not reduce the daily number of bricks," they knew they were in grave trouble. ²⁰On coming away from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron, waiting for them ²¹and to them they said, "May the LORD look at you and judge you for spoiling our prospects with Pharaoh and with his servants, handing them a sword to kill us."

²²Moses in turn made his appeal to the LORD, "Why, LORD, hast Thou treated these people so badly? Why then hast Thou sent me? ²³For ever since I called on Pharaoh to speak in Thy Name he has treated this people harshly and Thou hast not at all delivered Thy people."

x) Aaron, three years Moses' senior, took the initiative.

y) Moses had been commissioned; not Aaron. And it developed that Moses also did most of the talking.

z) With straw provided they had slaved; without straw the endless task was killing.

a) The slave drivers were Egyptians; the foremen were Hebrews.

6 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: YOU will now see how I handle Pharaoh; for he must not merely be compelled to let them go; but he must drive them out of his land by force.^b ²God further said to Moses: I am the LORD. ³I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by My name Jehovah^c I did not reveal Myself to them. ⁴I also established My covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they lived temporarily; ⁵besides I have personally heard the groanings of the Israelites whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered My covenant. ⁶You therefore quote Me to the Israelites: I am the LORD and I will liberate you from Egypt's burdens; I will rid you of their enslaving and redeem^d you with an outstretched arm and with severe judgments. ⁷I will take you on as My own people and will be your God. You will know that I, the LORD your God, am the One who brings you out from under Egypt's burdens ⁸and I shall bring you into the land which I raised My hand^e to give Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I will give it you as a legacy; I am the LORD.

⁹Thus Moses quoted to the Israelites, but, being disheartened and downed by cruel slavery, they failed to listen to Moses. ¹⁰Then the LORD told Moses: ¹¹Go and reason with Pharaoh, king of Egypt, about letting the Israelites leave his country. ¹²But Moses argued before the LORD, "Thou seest how the Israelites have not minded me; how then should Pharaoh pay attention to me, uncultured of speech as I am."

¹³The LORD addressed both Moses and Aaron, giving them orders for the Israelites and for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁴These are the paternal clanheads: The sons of Reuben, Israel's first-born — Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi, Reuben's families. ¹⁶The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite; Simeon's families.

¹⁶These are the names of Levi's sons in the order of their birth: Gershon, Kohath and Merari; Levi reached the age of 137. ¹⁷The sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei; ¹⁸the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel; Kohath reached the age of 133. ¹⁹The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. This is the Levite genealogy. ²⁰Amram married his aunt Jochebed,^f who bore him Aaron and Moses. And Amram lived 137 years.

²¹The sons of Izhar: Korah, Nepheg and Zichri. ²²The sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

²³Aaron married Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab^g and sister to Nahshon, who bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ²⁴The sons of Korah: Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These are the Korah families. ²⁶Eleazar, Aaron's son, married a daughter of Putiel, who bore him Phinehas. These were the Levite clan heads arranged by families.

²⁶This brings us to Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said: Lead the Israelites out of the land of Egypt in military formation. ²⁷These are the ones who told Pharaoh, king of Egypt, about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt, this same Moses and Aaron. ²⁸On the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹the LORD said to Moses: I am the LORD. Quote to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything I am telling you. ³⁰But Moses argued before the LORD, "As I am an uncultured speaker, how is Pharaoh going to mind me?"

7 THE LORD ANSWERED MOSES: Observe! I appoint you a god to Pharaoh and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet. ²You shall quote all that I command you and your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh, so

b) God forcing him.

c) His name had been Elohim, or El, the Almighty; now it is Yahweh, the Faithful God. Since Yahweh sounds unfamiliar we shall occasionally use the word Jehovah, but usually "the Lord."

d) Goel, God as Redeemer. e) That is, God gave His oath.

f) The Septuagint, the Syriac, and the Vulgate agree that Jochebed was Amram's paternal cousin.

g) Amminadab was of the Judah tribe, an ancestor of David and of Jesus. Nahshon, Aaron's brother-in-law, was appointed chief of the tribe of Judah [Num. 1:7].

he may let the Israelites leave his country. ³I will stiffen Pharaoh's heart and multiply My signs and wonders in the land of Egypt; ⁴but Pharaoh will not listen to you. So I will lay My hand on Egypt and with severe judgments bring out My armies, My people, the Israelites, out of the land of Egypt. ⁵Then the Egyptians shall grow aware that I am the LORD, when I stretch out My hand to come on Egypt and to bring out the Israelites from among them. ⁶Moses and Aaron did as the LORD ordered them, to the last syllable. ⁷When they interviewed Pharaoh, Moses was eighty and Aaron eighty-three.

⁸The LORD told Moses and Aaron: ⁹If Pharaoh says to you, "Identify yourselves by a miracle," then tell Aaron to take his staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh and it will become a snake. ¹⁰So Moses and Aaron called on Pharaoh and did as the LORD had told them. Aaron threw down his staff in front of Pharaoh and his attendants and it became a snake. ¹¹Pharaoh in turn called in sages and magicians and they, the scribes of Egypt, did the same by their secret formulas; ¹²each threw down his staff and they became snakes. But Aaron's staff swallowed theirs. ¹³And Pharaoh's mind was stubborn; he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

¹⁴The LORD said to Moses: Pharaoh's mind is stubborn; he refuses to let the people go. ¹⁵In the morning, when as usual he is going out to the water, stand by the river bank to meet him. Take in your hand the staff that became a snake ¹⁶and say to him, "The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you with the message: 'Let My people go, so they may serve Me in the desert.' But to date you have not listened; ¹⁷therefore the LORD says, 'By this you will know that I am the LORD. Look! With this staff that is in my hand I am about to strike the river water and it will be turned into blood. ¹⁸The fish in the river will die and the river will have such an odor the Egyptians will be disgusted to drink water from it.'"

¹⁹The LORD then said to Moses, tell Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, their canals, their ponds and all their reservoirs so they shall become blood in the whole country of Egypt, the contents of wooden and stone containers included.

²⁰Moses and Aaron did exactly as the LORD had given orders. He raised the staff and in the presence of Pharaoh and his attendants he struck the river water and all the river's water was turned into blood. ²¹The fish in the river died and the Nile stunk so that the Egyptians could not drink from it, and there was blood in the whole Egypt country. ²²But the scribes^h did the same thing through their secret formulas and Pharaoh's mind was obstinate; he did not heed them as the LORD had said. ²³Pharaoh turned and went home without taking this to heart. ²⁴But all the Egyptians had to dig near the river bank for water, because they could not drink the river water. ²⁵Full seven days the LORD's stroke upon the river continued.ⁱ

8 THE LORD THEN SAID TO MOSES: Call on Pharaoh and tell him, "The LORD says, 'Let My people go to serve Me. ²If you keep on refusing to let them go, beware! I will afflict your whole country with frogs. ³The river, too, will be alive with frogs. They will crawl up into your home, into your bedroom and onto your couch; into the homes of your attendants and onto your people, into your bake ovens and into your kneading pans. ⁴The frogs will be crawling all over you, over your people and over your attendants.'"

⁵The LORD then said to Moses,^j Tell Aaron, "Stretch forth your hand with

h) The most learned among the priestly caste of which Jannes and Jambres are named (II Tim. 3:8). They created the hieroglyphics, the picture writings from which the Phoenicians reduced their alphabet and which, with Hebrew, Greek and Latin modifications, we use today. They also applied their ingenuity to occult arts or black magic. In India sleight of hand, hypnotism, invention, perhaps demonic aid produce such seemingly impossible feats today.

i) The Lord was active through Moses and Aaron as they implicitly obeyed Him, which can be our experience. j) Time for repentance was allowed Pharaoh and his court.

your staff over the rivers, the canals and the reservoirs and bring up the frogs on the land of Egypt." ⁶So Aaron reached out his hand over the waters of Egypt and the frogs crawled up to cover all of Egypt. ⁷But the scribes did the same with their secret formulas; they brought up frogs on the Egyptian country.

⁸Pharaoh called out to Moses and Aaron, "You pray the LORD to remove the frogs from me and from my people and I will let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."^k ⁹Moses responded, "The honor is yours to tell me when I shall plead for you and for your attendants and your people to have the frogs removed from you and from your homes and be left only in the river." ¹⁰He said, "Tomorrow."

He said, "As you say! So that you may know that there is none like the LORD our God, ¹¹the frogs shall leave you, your homes, your attendants and your people; they will be left in the river only." ¹²Moses and Aaron then left the Pharaoh and Moses invoked the LORD regarding the frogs, as he had promised Pharaoh, ¹³and the LORD wrought in agreement with Moses' word. Out of the houses, out of the yards and out of the fields the frogs perished; ¹⁴the people piled them in heaps till the land reeked. ¹⁵But when Pharaoh noticed that relief had come, he stiffened his heart; he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

¹⁶The LORD said to Moses: Tell Aaron, "Reach out your staff, strike the dust of the ground and let it become gnats in the whole Egypt country." ¹⁷They did so. Aaron reached out his hand with his staff, struck the ground, and the gnats settled on man and beast. All the dust in the entire Egyptian country became gnats. ¹⁸The scribes practiced with their secret formula but they failed; yet the gnats swarmed on man and beast. ¹⁹So the scribes said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God."^l But Pharaoh's mind was set. He did not yield to them, as the LORD had said.

²⁰The LORD said to Moses: Get up early in the morning and face Pharaoh — he will be going to the water — and tell him, "This is the LORD's message, Let my people go, so they may serve Me; ²¹for in case you fail to let My people go, beware! I am about to send the gadfly on you, on your attendants, on your people and on your home. The homes of the Egyptians shall swarm with gadflies; the ground, too and those on it. ²²But that time I will set apart the land of Goshen where My people live; it will be free from gadflies, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am in the land. ²³I will make a distinction between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall materialize."

²⁴The LORD did so. In swarms the gadflies invaded Pharaoh's palace, the homes of his retinue and the whole Egypt country, so that the land was being ruined by the gadflies. ²⁵Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, "You go and sacrifice to your God within our boundaries." ²⁶But Moses rejoined, "It would not be right to do that; for we would offer the LORD our God something offensive to the Egyptians. You see, if we offer something the Egyptians abominate right before their eyes, might they not stone us? ²⁷We want to go three days' travel into the desert to sacrifice to the LORD our God the way He directs us."

²⁸Pharaoh said, "I will let you go. You may sacrifice to your god in the desert; only, do not travel far.^m And pray fervently for me."ⁿ ²⁹Moses answered, "I am about to leave your presence and to pray the LORD. Tomorrow the gadflies will leave Pharaoh, his attendants and his people. However, let not Pharaoh persist in his deception by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD!" ³⁰Moses then left Pharaoh and fervently prayed the LORD ³¹and the LORD wrought ack) It looks as if either the king or some of his courtiers had detected something shady about the scribes' pseudo-miracles.

l) An involuntary confession of their own failure to gain cooperation from their gods.

m) As the world tells the Christian, "Don't move too far away from us; don't differ too much from us!" It could not satisfy Moses.

n) As Simon, the magician, asked Peter to pray for him [Acts 8:24].

cording to Moses' request. The gaddies moved away from Pharaoh, from his courtiers and from his people; there was not one left. ³²But this time again Pharaoh set his mind stubbornly; he did not let the people go.

9 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: CALL on Pharaoh and tell him, "Thus speaks the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let My people go, so they may serve Me; ²for if you refuse to let them go and persist in detaining them, ³beware! The LORD's hand will be on your livestock out in the field, on the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herds and the flocks with a dreadful plague. ⁴The LORD will draw distinction between Israel's livestock and that of Egypt. Nothing that belongs to the Israelites shall die." ⁵The LORD even set a definite time; He said: Tomorrow the LORD will do this in the land.^o ⁶Next day, the LORD did so. All the livestock of Egypt died; but of the Israelites' livestock not a single one. ⁷Pharaoh sent to investigate and found that not one of the Israelites' animals was dead; yet Pharaoh's mind was set; he did not let the people go.

⁸Then the LORD told Moses and Aaron: Both of you fill your hands with ashes from the furnace and, with Pharaoh looking on, let Moses toss it up to the sky. ⁹It will turn to fine dust all over the land of Egypt, that settles upon man and beast and causes boils that break out in open sores. ¹⁰So they took ashes from a furnace and, facing Pharaoh, Moses tossed it up toward the sky and it caused boils that broke out in open sores on man and beast. ¹¹The scribes could not stand before Moses because of the sores: for the scribes as well as the rest of the Egyptians were covered with sores. ¹²But the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his own way; he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said to Moses.

¹³Again the LORD said to Moses: Get up early in the morning, face

Pharaoh and say to him, "This the LORD God of the Hebrews has to say, Let My people go, so they may serve Me; ¹⁴for this time I am sending all My plagues to reach your heart, that of your attendants and that of your people; so you may sense the fact that there is none like Me in all the earth. ¹⁵For if by now I had stretched out My hand, I could have stricken you and your people with pestilence, and destroyed you from the earth; ¹⁶but I have preserved you for this reason—to make you see My power and to publish My name in all the earth.^p ¹⁷Are you still setting yourself up against My people not to let them go? ¹⁸Take notice! Tomorrow about this time I will rain a downpour of hail so heavy, the like of it has not occurred in Egypt from its founding until now. ¹⁹So you better bring in your stock and everything you have out in the field for safety; for the hail shall come down on every man and beast found in the field and not brought home and they shall die." ²⁰Then whoever of Pharaoh's servants revered the LORD's word, hurried his slaves and his livestock under shelter; ²¹but he, who did not mind the LORD's word, left his slaves and his livestock in the field.

²²The LORD told Moses: Reach your hand up toward heaven, so that hail may fall on all the land of Egypt, on man and beast and on all vegetation in the land of Egypt. ²³So Moses raised his staff toward heaven and the LORD sent thunder and hail, with lightning bolting along the ground, and with hail falling on the land of Egypt. ²⁴There was lightning darting in between the hailstones, all so dreadful, nothing like it had occurred since Egypt had become a nation. ²⁵The hail struck down everything in the field, both man and beast, all vegetation, too, and it broke down every tree. ²⁶Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel lived, there was no hail.

o) At least two divine principles stand forth among these plagues: God gives fair warning before He administers punishment and He patiently repeats His warnings. Man may obey or disobey. p) Those doubtful of God's ways should observe that Pharaoh had stiffened his mind before God gave him definite orders; also that not merely the king of Egypt and his people were concerned but even more the Israelites and ultimately the whole earth.

²⁷Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said to them, "This time I have sinned; God is righteous; I and my people are guilty. ²⁸Pray the LORD fervently, as there is enough of God's thunder and hail, and I will let you go; you shall stay here no longer." ²⁹Moses assured him, "The moment I am out of the city I will spread my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease and there shall be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD's. ³⁰As for you and your courtiers, however, I know that you do not yet revere the LORD God."

³¹The flax and the barley had been beaten to the ground, for the barley had headed and the flax was in bloom; ³²but the wheat and the spelt^a were not ruined for they were a later crop.

³³Leaving Pharaoh, Moses went out of the city^r and spread his hands to the LORD; the thunder and hail ceased; there were no more torrents of rain gushing on the earth. ³⁴But when Pharaoh felt certain that the rain, the hail and the thunder had stopped, he persisted in sinning; he stiffened his heart, he and his attendants. ³⁵Stubborn as Pharaoh was, he did not let the Israelites go, just as through Moses the LORD had declared.

10 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: CALL on Pharaoh, for I have toughened his mind and the minds of his courtiers, so that I may work these My wonders among them, ²and so that you may tell your children and your children's children how I have handled Egypt, and the signs I worked among them, so that you may know that I am the LORD.

³So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and told him. "This is the message of the LORD God of the Hebrews — 'How long will you decline submission to Me? Let My people go, so they may serve Me; ⁴for if you refuse to let My people go, beware! Tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. ⁵They will cover the entire surface of the land so that the ground cannot be seen and they will devour the leftovers that survived the hail. They will strip every tree in the field of its foliage; ⁶they will fill your homes, the homes of your nobles and of all the Egyptians in a way neither your fathers nor their ancestors have experienced from the time they were born until now.'" Then he turned and left Pharaoh.

⁷Pharaoh's courtiers said to him, "How long is this person to threaten our ruin? Let the men go, so they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not realize that Egypt is in ruins?" ⁸So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, who said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God; but who are to go?" ⁹Moses replied, "We go together; our youths and our aged, our sons and our daughters, our flocks and our herds are to go; for we are celebrating the LORD's feast." ¹⁰He said, "May the LORD be with you^s if I intend to let you and your little ones go! Look out! You are plotting mischief! ¹¹No, indeed! You men go and serve the LORD, for that is what you wanted!" And Pharaoh expelled them from his presence.

¹²The LORD then said to Moses: Stretch your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts to come up on it and devour all the vegetation the hail has left. ¹³So Moses reached out his staff over Egypt and the LORD drove an east wind upon the land all that day and night till in the morning the east wind carried in the locusts. ¹⁴They swarmed all over Egypt and settled on all its domain in incredible numbers. Never before were there such locusts^t and never again will there be. ¹⁵They covered the land's surface everywhere so that it grew

q) A grain better to eat than barley but not as good as wheat, though more like it. It came later than barley and was hard to be cleaned of its chaff. Egypt used it for bread. Rye did not grow in Egypt or in Palestine.

r) Memphis was the earlier royal city and nearer Goshen than No or Thebes, the royal city higher up the Nile. At this time the Pharaoh must have resided in Memphis.

s) Mockery, derision, arrogance and anger mark this insulting harangue. The king begins to feel that he is beaten and he resents it.

t) Unusually large, too, it would seem. There were severe locust plagues in that region in 1463 and in 1763 A.D.

dark; they devoured all vegetation in the land and stripped all the fruit on the trees which the hail had left. Nothing green remained either on trees or of field vegetation in the entire Egyptian country.

¹⁶Pharaoh sent an urgent call for Moses and Aaron. "I have sinned," he said, "against the LORD your God and against you. ¹⁷Please, forgive my sin only this once and plead with the LORD your God to remove from me this fatal destruction." ¹⁸He left Pharaoh and implored the LORD. ¹⁹Then the LORD changed the wind to a mighty west wind that caught up the locusts and blew them into the Red Sea until not one locust remained in the whole land of Egypt. ²⁰However, the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his stubborn way; he did not let the Israelites go.

²¹The LORD said to Moses: Stretch your hand toward heaven, so there may fall such a darkness upon Egypt, that they must feel their way. ²²As Moses stretched his hand toward heaven, there came a thick darkness over all the land of Egypt for three days; ²³they could not see each other; for three days they could not get up and move around, while all the Israelites enjoyed light in their homes.

²⁴Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "You go and serve the LORD; only leave your flocks and herds behind, while you take your little ones along." ²⁵Moses replied, "You must allow us our sacrifices and burnt-offerings to offer the LORD our God. ²⁶Our livestock must therefore come with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, because from them we shall take to serve the LORD our God, and we do not know what to use for the LORD's service until we reach there." ²⁷But the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his way; he was not willing to let them go. ²⁸And Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me and see to it that you never come near me again; for if I ever see you again, you die!"

²⁹"Correctly spoken," Moses retorted, "you will not see me again."

11 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: There is one more blow I shall bring down on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you move out; in fact, he will not merely give you leave without any conditions; he will push you out. ²Tell the people to request, each man from his neighbor and each woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and of gold. ³The LORD inclined the Egyptians favorably toward the people. Besides, Moses as a man became highly esteemed in Egypt, both by Pharaoh's aristocracy and by the common people. ⁴Then Moses said,^u "This is the LORD's message: 'Around midnight I shall move in the midst of Egypt ⁵and every first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh on his throne to the first-born of the slave girl behind the hand mill and all the first-born of cattle. ⁶Throughout the land of Egypt there shall be loud wailing, the like of which never occurred and never will be again. ⁷But against any of the Israelites either man or beast, not a dog shall bark — to show you how the LORD distinguishes between Egypt and Israel. ⁸All these nobles of yours^v shall come down to me and bow deeply to me, begging of me, Do go out; you and all your followers!' And after that I will go out." He then left Pharaoh in hot indignation.

⁹The LORD had said to Moses: Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My mighty works may multiply in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰Moses and Aaron did all these wonders in the presence of Pharaoh; but the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his own way and he did not allow the Israelites to leave his country.

March-April 1446 B.C.w

12 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND Aaron in the land of Egypt: ²To you let this month be the first, the

u) Moses had not left Pharaoh as yet, but continued with God's message, which concerned both Egypt and Israel and which in all fairness both should know. His final departure is noted at the close of vs. 8.

v) This is definitely to Pharaoh, with his attendants taking it all in.

w) The matter of dates is far from settled; but dating aids in relating events to one another.

month with which your year begins.^x

³Announce to the whole Israelite congregation,^y that on the tenth of this month each man shall secure a lamb for his paternal family, one lamb for each home. ⁴If the household is too small for a lamb, then let him and his next door neighbor go partners, sharing the expense of the lamb according to the amount respectively eaten. ⁵Your lamb should be a perfect, male yearling, taken from the sheep or from the goats. ⁶Confine it until the fourteenth day of the same month when at twilight the whole Israelite congregation shall do the killing. ⁷Some of the blood^z they must apply to the two doorposts and to the lintel of the house in which they eat it. ⁸That night they shall eat the meat, fire roasted, with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs. ⁹Do not eat it raw or cooked in water, but roasted, head, legs, heart and liver. ¹⁰Save nothing of it until morning and, if all is not eaten, burn it up in the morning.

¹¹Eat it this way, with your waist belted,^a your feet sandaled and your staff in hand; eat it in expectant haste; it is a Passover for the LORD. ¹²For this night I will pass through in the land of Egypt and strike down every first-born in Egypt of man and of beast and I, the LORD, will execute judgments on all the gods of Egypt. ¹³Then the blood shall mark for you the homes where you are living; when I see the blood I will pass over you. No fatal plague shall attack you while I am smiting the Egyptians.

¹⁴This day, then, shall be a memorial day for you; observe it as a feast to the LORD through the centuries, an appointed feast forever. ¹⁵For seven days you will eat unleavened bread, clearing your houses of all leav-en the very first day; for if anyone eats anything leavened from the first until the seventh day that person shall be eliminated from Israel.

¹⁶On the first day and on the seventh have a sacred gathering; do no work at all on these days except preparing what each person needs to eat. ¹⁷Guard this unleavened bread observance; because on this historic day I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt.^b Observe this day as an institution through all your generations forever. ¹⁸In the first month from the fourteenth at eventide until the twenty-first at eventide you shall eat unleavened bread; ¹⁹for seven days there must be no leavened bread whatever in your houses, for if anyone eats anything leavened, that person, whether native or immigrant, shall be excommunicated from Israel's congregation. ²⁰Eat nothing leavened; wherever you dwell, eat unleavened bread.

²¹So Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and told them, "Select and set apart lambs for your several households and kill the Passover."^c ²²Take a bunch of hyssop,^d too, dip it in the basin of blood and apply it to the posts and the lintel of the door; then none of you shall go outdoors until morning; ²³the LORD will be passing through to strike down Egypt. He will see the blood on the lintel and on the two door posts, and the LORD will pass over the door; He will not allow the destroyer to enter your homes for destruction.^e x) Named Abib — ear of grain. Months dated differently with the new moon, but from the middle of March to the middle of April is near Abib.

²⁴"Observe this order as an institution for yourself and for your descendants evermore. ²⁵Faithfully guard this worship service when you enter the land which, in agreement with His promise, the LORD will give you. ²⁶And when your children ask you, 'What

y) Here for the first time Israel is called a congregation.

z) Which does not mean that the blood remained in the body, the lamb's blood was used for marking doorposts and lintel. And no faithful Hebrew ate meat from which the blood had not been drained.

a) To tuck under whatever of the upper garment might impede walking.

b) So certain to occur, it can be mentioned as having happened.

c) Name for the lamb or kid killed and eaten at the Passover Festival. In this spirit Christ is called "our Passover" [I Cor. 5:7].

d) A fragrant plant of the mint family, small, bushy, serving as a brush.

e) The Lord Himself, then, is not the destroyer. He seems to have crossed the threshold of each house marked with the blood of the lamb, to protect the first-born there.

does this service mean to you?" Then you will say, 'It is a Passover sacrifice to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when He was smiting Egypt, and saved our homes!'" The people bowed their heads and worshiped; ²⁸the Israelites went out and did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

²⁹At midnight the LORD struck down every first-born in Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh on his throne^e to the first-born of the prisoner in the dungeon; all the first-born of the cattle, too. ³⁰That night Pharaoh got up and his courtiers as well, and all the Egyptians; there was loud wailing in Egypt, because there was not a home without someone dead. ³¹During the night he sent word to Moses and Aaron, "Get up and get out from among my people; both you and the Israelites. Go and serve the LORD as you argued; ³²take along your flocks and your herds as you said and be gone. Ask a blessing for me, too."

³³The Egyptians urged the people to hurry them out of the country, for they said, "We all face death." ³⁴So the people shouldered their dough before it was leavened, tying their kneading-bowls in their robes and on their shoulders. ³⁵And in agreement with the instructions of Moses they asked the Egyptians for silver and golden articles, also for clothing, ³⁶and the LORD had inclined the Egyptians so favorably toward the people that they granted them (all they asked); so they took heavy payment from Egypt.^h

³⁷The Israelites moved from Rameses to Succoth, about 600,000 men and their households. ³⁸A great, motley throng went up with them,ⁱ too; also flocks and herds, very much livestock. ³⁹From the dough which they had brought along out of Egypt they baked unleavened cakes. The dough was not leavened because they had been expelled from Egypt; they could not delay to prepare food for themselves.

⁴⁰The period of the Israelites' stay in Egypt was 430 years. ⁴¹At the end of 430 years to the day^j all the hosts of the LORD left the land of Egypt. ⁴²That was a night when the LORD kept watch to bring them out of Egypt; it is the night in which through all their generations the Israelites shall keep watch in the presence of the LORD.

⁴³The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: This is the way to observe the Passover — No alien may eat of it; ⁴⁴but every slave bought for money, after you have circumcised him, may partake of it. ⁴⁵Neither a foreigner nor a hired servant shall participate. ⁴⁶It shall be eaten in a single house; you must not carry any of the meat outside the house; neither shall you break a bone of it.^k ⁴⁷Also, the whole Israel congregation shall observe it. ⁴⁸In case an alien lives among you and desires to observe the Passover to the LORD, let all the male members of his family be circumcised; then he may approach to observe it; he shall be like a native of the land; but no uncircumcised person shall eat of it. ⁴⁹One law shall hold for the native and for the stranger who lives among you.

⁵⁰In every point the Israelites carried out what the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron. ⁵¹And on this very day the LORD brought the children of Israel out of Egypt in martial order.^l

13 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Dedicate to Me every first-born in Israel that opens the womb, human or animal; it is Mine.^m ³And Moses charged the people, "Commemorate this day in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of slavery; for by a

f) God made our children questioners because they have much to learn. And many of their questions, if understood and wisely answered, will lead their thoughts toward God.

g) Egyptian history records a crown-prince at this time, Meneptan Seti, who had won back lost territory for his father, but never took the throne.

h) The Hebrews had earned much more from the Egyptians than they received.

i) Whom the mighty works of God had deeply impressed; if they, too, applied blood to their doorposts, they suffered no fatalities. But some of them became sources of constant trouble.

j) On the anniversary of Jacob's arrival, some Rabbis tell us.

k) Fulfilled John 19:36.

l) They had kept their family records, so they could move by families, clans and tribes.

m) Because God had saved every firstborn in the blood-applied home.

mighty hand the LORD brought you out of there. So, no leavened bread must be eaten ⁴this day of the month Abibⁿ on which you are going out.

⁵"When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you — a land flowing with milk and honey — then you shall hold this service in this month. ⁶For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, with a feast to the LORD on the seventh day. ⁷During the seven days unleavened bread shall be eaten; you shall have no leavened bread around; neither shall any fermented dough be present within your boundaries.

⁸"You must tell your son on that day, 'This is on account of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.' ⁹It will serve as a sign on your hand and a reminder on your forehead, so that the LORD's law may be on your lips; for with a mighty hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt. ¹⁰Observe this institution annually at its appointed time.

¹¹"When the LORD brings you into the Canaanite country and gives it to you, as He swore to you and to your fathers, ¹²then you shall pass on to the LORD every first opener of the womb, including the firstling of the cattle you own; the males are the LORD's.^o ¹³Each firstling of a donkey you may redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, then break its neck. Redeem also every first-born son.

¹⁴"When hereafter your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' then you will answer him, 'With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt out of the house of slavery, ¹⁵and when Pharaoh steeled himself against letting us go, the LORD killed every first-born in the land of Egypt,^p both of man and of cattle. I am therefore sacrificing to the LORD every first-born male, but the first-born of my sons I redeem.^q ¹⁶It will be as a sign on your hand and on your forehead, for with great might the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

¹⁷When Pharaoh had allowed the people to go, God did not lead them by way of the Philistines' land, although that was a shorter route; for God considered that, on tasting war, the people might feel regret and go back to Egypt. ¹⁸So God detoured the people toward the desert by the Red Sea. In martial order the Israelites went up from the land of Egypt.^r ¹⁹Moses took with him the bones of Joseph, because he had demanded an oath from the sons of Israel, saying, "God is certain to visit you and you shall carry my bones up with you."^s

²⁰They trekked from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the desert. ²¹The LORD moved before them in a column of cloud by day to lead them on the way, and at night in a column of fire to give them light, so they could travel day and night. ²²The column of cloud did not fail by day nor the column of fire by night, leading the people.

14 THE LORD THEN SAID TO MOSES: ²Tell the Israelites to turn about and make camp facing Pi-Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, opposite Baal-Zephon; make camp, fronting it by the sea. ³Then Pharaoh will say about the Israelites, "They have lost their way; the desert has cooped them in." ⁴I will encourage Pharaoh in his own way, and he will pursue them. So through Pharaoh and his whole army I will be honored; the Egyptians will learn that I am the LORD.^t

They did so, ⁵and when it was told Pharaoh that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his attendants changed their minds about the people. They said,

n) First month of the Hebrew year. Its exact date followed lunar changes, like our Easter date, the Passover, starting the 14th day, often running into April.

o) As first planned, each oldest son a spiritual leader, a function later assigned to the Levites.

p) Previous messages are repeated now that all have gotten together.

q) From this time the words redeem, ransom, deliver become frequent.

r) The Hebrew blood relationship, Israel, tribes, clans, families, households, persons, established order and identity rarely known elsewhere.

s) Proof that Joseph remained a Hebrew and a follower of Jehovah throughout all his years.

t) They still needed this final and fatal lesson.

"What have we done? We gave Israel leave from working for us!" ⁶So he ordered his chariot and took his army with him, ⁷600 choice chariots and what other chariots Egypt had, all manned and captained. ⁸The LORD encouraged Pharaoh king of Egypt in his own way so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out under a higher guidance.

⁹The Egyptians went after them and caught up with them at their camp by the sea near Pi-Hahiroth, ¹⁰fronting Baal-Zephon — all of Pharaoh's chariots and his horsemen, also his cavalry and infantry. ¹¹As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians there marching behind them and they were frantic. The Israelites cried out to the LORD ¹²and they said to Moses, ¹³"Did you take us away to die in the desert because there are no graves in Egypt? Why did you treat us this way, to bring us out of Egypt? ¹⁴Did we not tell you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians!' Better for us to work for the Egyptians than to die in the desert." ¹⁵Moses answered the people, "Have no fear; be steadfast and watch how the LORD will be your salvation today. As for the Egyptians whom you see today, you will never, never see them again; ¹⁶the LORD will fight for you while you keep still."

¹⁷The LORD then said to Moses: Why do you call to Me? Tell the Israelites to move forward. ¹⁸Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea; divide it, so that the Israelites may go right through the sea on dry ground. ¹⁹As for Me, take note! I will encourage the minds of the Egyptians to follow them. Through Pharaoh, through his armed forces, his chariots and his horsemen My honor will be sustained; ²⁰the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when My honor is advanced over Pharaoh with his chariots and his horsemen.

²¹Then the Angel of God, ²²who had been moving ahead of Israel's camp, withdrew and went behind them — the column of cloud withdrew from the front and stood behind them — ²³and came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; it was cloud and darkness; it also lit up the night; ²⁴so they did not get close to each other at night.

²⁵Moses then stretched out his hand over the sea and the LORD moved the sea all night by a mighty east wind turning the sea into dry land. The waters were divided ²⁶and the Israelites went into the midst of the sea on dry ground. To their right and to their left the waters formed a wall for them. ²⁷In hot pursuit the Egyptians followed them, all the horses, the chariots and the horsemen of Pharaoh into the midst of the sea. ²⁸Around 6:00 in the morning the LORD looked upon the Egyptian army from the column of fire and cloud and brought on panic among the Egyptian host; ²⁹He clogged their chariot wheels and made them move so heavily that the Egyptians said, "Let us get away from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against the Egyptians." ³⁰

³¹The LORD said to Moses: Stretch out your hand over the sea and let the waters flow back upon the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen. ³²So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea and at break of day the sea returned to its usual flow, with the Egyptians fleeing against it. The LORD tumbled ³³the Egyptians into the middle of the sea. ³⁴The waves rolled back and submerged the chariots and their driv-

u) Sedge-place, on the Egyptian side of the Red Sea.

v) Some, it would seem, called out to God; others complained to Moses.

w) No disagreement or rebuke; silence and confidence were needed before God's help could be appreciated. x) Previously mentioned as the Lord Himself, Ch. 13:21.

y) Darkness to the Egyptians and light to the Hebrews.

z) A wall of water due to a mighty wind is not perpendicular; it bulges. All pictures that so portray it are false to this Bible passage. Mighty winds moved waters to right and to left, making a wide path for the Hebrews and all they had.

a) After the Hebrews had well passed the earlier portion of their miraculous path, the sandy bottom started moistening and softening so that chariot wheels went deeper and deeper; for the winds that had turned the waters back ceased blowing. b) As fruit is shaken from a tree.

ers together with the whole army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not even one of them was left. ²⁹But the Israelites had walked on dry ground in the middle of the sea with the waters for their wall to the right and to the left. ³⁰So did the LORD save Israel that day from Egypt's dominance, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. ³¹When Israel looked upon the mighty work which the LORD had wrought upon Egypt, the people revered the LORD and came to believe in the LORD and in His servant Moses.

15 THEN MOSES AND THE ISRAELITES sang this hymn to the LORD, "I will sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider He has hurled into the sea. ²The LORD is my strength and song; He has become my salvation.^c This is my God and I will glorify Him; my father's God and I will exalt Him.

³"The LORD is a warrior;^d Jehovah is His name; ⁴the chariots of Pharaoh and his army He has thrown into the sea; the pick of his fighters are drowned in the Red Sea. ⁵The floods cover them; they sank into the depths like a stone.

⁶"Thy right hand, O LORD, is glorified in power; Thy right hand, O LORD, shattered the foe. ⁷In the greatness of Thy majesty Thou didst pull down those who rose up against Thee; Thou didst loosen Thine indignation which consumed them like stubble. ⁸At the blast of Thy nostrils the waters were heaped up; the streams stood up like a wall; the waves were congealed in the heart of the sea.

⁹"The foe said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will share the plunder; I shall have my satisfaction on them; I will unsheath my sword; my hand shall destroy them.'

¹⁰"Thou didst blow with Thy wind; the sea covered them; they sank as lead in mighty waters." ¹¹Who is like Thee among the gods, O LORD? Who is like Thee, glorified in holiness,^e revered in hymnody, doing wonders! ¹²Thou didst stretch out Thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

¹³"In Thy mercy Thou hast led the people Thou hast redeemed; in Thy might Thou hast guided them to Thy holy dwelling. ¹⁴Nations heard of it and trembled; anguish gripped the Philistines. ¹⁵Edom's princes were confounded; the Moab chiefs — trembling attacks them. All the dwellers of Canaan melted away; ¹⁶terror and dread come down on them. By the greatness of Thy arm they are static as a stone, until Thy people, O LORD, come through, until the people come through whom Thou hast made Thine own. ¹⁷Thou bringest them in and plantest them in the mountain of Thy heritage, the place, O LORD, which Thou hast made Thy dwelling, the sanctuary which Thy hands, O LORD, have established. ¹⁸The LORD shall reign forever and ever."

¹⁹For Pharaoh's horses went into the sea with his chariots and his horsemen, and the LORD returned upon them the waters of the sea, but the children of Israel walked on dry ground through the middle of the sea.

²⁰Then Miriam, the prophetess, sister of Aaron, took in her hand a tambourine and all the women followed her with tambourines to which they danced. ²¹While Miriam taught them to sing, "Sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider has He plunged into the sea."

²²Then Moses ordered Israel to move away from the Red Sea and they went on into the Shur desert; for three days they traveled in the desert without finding water. ²³Arriving at Marah they could not drink the Marah water, for it was bitter; for that reason they named it Marah.^f ²⁴So the people complained against Moses, "What shall we drink?" ²⁵He called out to the LORD and the LORD showed him a log, which he threw into the water and the water became enjoyable.

Then he laid down a statute and

c) To this hymn the Hebrew prophets and singers referred repeatedly [see Isa. 12]. They quoted from it verbally, and the majesty, the might and the sublimity of God remained a main source of courage, so continuing through the Christian era.

d) With this phrase of God's nature Pharaoh had not reckoned.

e) With their heavy armor unable to swim or float. f) First mention of God's holiness.

g) Which means, bitter. Miriam, Mary, myrrh, are built on the same stem.

ordinance for them;^b there He tested them; ²⁶He said: If you will carefully listen to the voice of the LORD, your God, do what is right before Him, give ear to His commands and observe all His injunctions, then I will put on you none of the diseases I put on Egypt; for I am the LORD, your healer. ²⁷They came to Elim with its twelve springs of waters and seventy palm trees; there they camped beside the waters.¹

16 THE WHOLE CONGREGATION OF Israelites set out from Elim and came into the Sin desert,^j which lies between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth of the second month^k since their leaving Egypt. ²In the desert the entire Israelite congregation grumbled against Moses and Aaron, ³saying, "We had rather have died by the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, where we sat¹ by our flesh pots and ate all the food we wanted; for you have led us into this desert to kill all of us by starving." ⁴Then the LORD said to Moses: Observe! I am going to shower bread for you from heaven. The people shall go out and collect one day's ration each day, so that I may test them, whether they will follow My instructions or not. ⁵And on the sixth day they shall be ready to bring in double the daily ration.

⁶So Moses and Aaron told all the Israelites, "This evening you shall recognize that the LORD has brought you from the land of Egypt, ⁷and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, who hears you grumble against the LORD. For who are we, that you should grumble against us!" ⁸Moses continued, "The LORD is giving you flesh to eat in the evening and bread in the morning as much as you want, because the LORD is hearing your complaints against Him. Who are we?

Your complaints are not against us, but against the LORD."

⁹Moses said to Aaron, "Tell the whole assembly of Israel, 'Present yourselves before the LORD, for He has heard your grumbings.'" ¹⁰And while Aaron was addressing the whole congregation of Israel and they looked toward the desert, they beheld the glory of the LORD manifested in the cloud.^m ¹¹Then the LORD said to Moses: ¹²I have heard the grumbings of the Israelites. Tell them, "At twilight you will have flesh to eat and in the morning plenty of bread and you will recognize that I am the LORD your God."

¹³So it was. At twilight quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning a heavy dew lay all round the camp. ¹⁴When the dew evaporated, there lay on the surface of the desert something small and flaky, as fine as hoarfrost, on the ground. ¹⁵As the Israelites looked at it, they said to one another, "What is it?"ⁿ For they did not know what it was.

Moses told them, "This is the bread which the LORD has given you for food. ¹⁶The LORD's command is this: Each one of you gather of it what you need, three quarts for each as you number the persons; let each man gather for those in his tent." ¹⁷The Israelites did so, some gathering much and some less. ¹⁸Measuring it with a six-pint vessel,^o he who gathered much had none to spare, while he who gathered little did not come short; they collected according to personal needs.

¹⁹Moses said to them, "Let no one save any of it until morning." ²⁰But they did not listen to Moses and left some of it till morning, and it grew wormy and rancid. So Moses felt angered by them.

²¹Morning after morning they gathered, each according to his eating and,

h) God established the eternal principle that He hears and helps them who sincerely "trust and obey" Him. i) Still called, Springs of Moses. j) A local name without reference to good or evil. k) Named Ziv in I Kings 6:37. The seventh month was called Ethanim and the eighth Bul. After the Captivity different names were used.

l) So soon they had forgotten how seldom their slavery had allowed them to sit at ease.

m) The column of cloud and of fire.

n) The word manna carries the meaning, "What is it?" It was so used in Egypt and in the Sinai peninsula. Young Nez Perce Indians, whom we watched playing ball, often turned to the leader with, "Manna?" They told us it meant, "What do you mean?"

o) An omer, between six and seven pints.

as the sun grew hot, it melted; ²²but on the sixth day they collected a double ration, two omers for each one. When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses, ²³he assured them, "This is what the LORD said, There is rest tomorrow, a Sabbath holy to the LORD. Bake and cook what you need and lay aside the rest for yourselves till next morning." ²⁴They saved it till morning as Moses had ordered and it was neither rancid nor wormy.

²⁵Moses said, "Eat it today, because today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it outdoors. ²⁶Collect it six days but on the seventh day, a Sabbath, there will be none." ²⁷Yet, on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather it; but they did not find any.

²⁸The LORD then spoke to Moses: How long will you^p refuse to obey My commands and My instructions? ²⁹Mind this: Because the LORD has given you the Sabbath, He is giving you two days' bread on the sixth day, while everyone should stay home and not leave his place on the seventh day. ³⁰So the people rested on the seventh day.

³¹The house of Israel named it manna; it was white like coriander seed^q and it tasted like honeyed cakes. ³²Moses said, "This is the LORD's command: 'Fill an omer of it to keep for future generations, so they may see the bread I fed you in the desert when I brought you from the land of Egypt.'" ³³So Moses told Aaron, "Take a jar, put an omer of manna in it and deposit it before the LORD to keep for your descendants." ³⁴So, in agreement with the LORD's command to Moses, Aaron deposited it in front of the Testimony^r to be preserved. ³⁵The Israelites ate the manna for forty years, until they entered a settled land; they ate the manna until they reached the outskirts of the land of Canaan. ³⁶An omer is a tenth of a bushel.^s

17 IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LORD's orders the whole community of Israel traveled from the Sin desert by stages and made camp at Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink. ²The people quarreled with Moses; they said, "Give us water to drink!" Moses replied, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put God to the test?" ³There the people thirsted for water and grumbled against Moses; they said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? To kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?" ⁴Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do with this people? They are not far from stoning me!"

⁵The LORD said to Moses: Advance before the people and take along some of the elders of Israel; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile and go forward. ⁶Take note! I will stand there ahead of you on the Horeb rock.^t When you strike the rock, water will gush out of it and the people will drink. And Moses did so, with the elders of Israel looking on. ⁷He named that place Massah and Meribah,^u because of the Israelites' quarreling and their testing the LORD saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

⁸At Rephidim, Amalek^v came and fought Israel; ⁹so Moses said to Joshua, "Pick us out men; march and fight Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand."

¹⁰As Moses had told him to fight Amalek, so Joshua did, and Moses, Aaron and Hur^w climbed to the hilltop.

p) The verb in which "you" is conveyed, is plural, it concerns the people. Without "ye" our language has become less clear, and those who say "you-all," have good reason for it.

q) Of the parsley family, cultivated in Palestine but growing wild in Arabia and northern Africa. One species of it was used to season dishes.

r) When the Ark of the Covenant was finished; later on, the Testimony or Decalogue was also deposited there.

s) The ephah measure that equalled about seven gallons and five pints, a good sized bushel.

t) "Sinai" and "Horeb" are used interchangeably, possibly peak and range.

u) Near Rephidim where they camped when the grumbling occurred.

v) The Amalekites were descended from Esau [Gen. 36:12].

w) Hur was of Judah's tribe; the Jewish historian Josephus calls him Miriam's husband.

¹¹Then, while Moses held his hand raised, Israel gained the upper hand, but when he lowered his hand, Amalek won. ¹²But Moses' hands grew weary, so they took a stone and placed it under him. He sat on it and Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on each side, so that his hands kept steady until sunset. ¹³Thus Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the sharpness of the sword.

¹⁴The LORD said to Moses: Write this for a record in a book and rehearse it to Joshua; for I shall completely blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven. ¹⁵Also Moses built an altar and named it, "The LORD my Banner,"^x ¹⁶for he said, "Because the LORD has sworn His war against Amalek from generation to generation."

18 WHEN JETHRO, THE PRIEST OF Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had wrought for Moses and for His people Israel, and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt, ²Jethro had taken Zipporah, the wife of Moses, who had sent her back;^y ³ also her two sons, — the one named Gershom, for he said, "I am an alien in a foreign land,"^z ⁴and the other named Eliezer, for he said, "My father's God is my help, and saved me from Pharaoh's sword." ⁵Now Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came to Moses with his sons and his wife, to the desert by the mountain of God, where he was camping. ⁶He sent word to Moses, "I, Jethro, your father-in-law, have come to you with your wife and her two sons with her." ⁷So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed deeply to him and kissed him. They then inquired about each other's welfare and entered the tent. ⁸Moses recounted to his father-in-law everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians because of Israel; all the hardship they had experienced on the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

⁹Jethro felt glad over all the goodness the LORD had wrought for Israel, delivering them from Egypt's oppression. ¹⁰Jethro exclaimed, "Blessed be the LORD who saved you from Egypt's oppression and from Pharaoh's heavy hand, who delivered Israel from Egypt's grip. ¹¹Now I recognize that Jehovah is greater than all the gods; so much so that their impudence went against them."^a ¹²Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to join Moses' father-in-law in eating a meal before the LORD.^b

¹³Next morning Moses sat down to administer justice for the people, and the people stood around Moses from morning until evening. ¹⁴When Moses' father-in-law noticed all his dealings with the people, he remarked, "What are you doing to the people? Why do you hold court alone, with all the people standing around from morning till evening?"^c ¹⁵Moses answered his father-in-law, "The people come to inquire of God. ¹⁶When they meet with difficulty they come to me for justice between each other; so I instruct them in God's rules and laws." ¹⁷Then Moses' father-in-law rejoined, "You are not doing it most helpfully; ¹⁸you are wearing out yourself and the people as well. The work is too exacting for you; you cannot handle it alone. ¹⁹Now listen to me; I have counsel for you, and God be with you. You represent the people before God and bring the cases to God. ²⁰You make clear to them the rules and the laws; you show them the way to behave and what they ought to do. ²¹Now search for able men among all the people, men who revere God and are honest, men who despise unfair profits, and appoint them leaders of

x) Jehovah Nissi.

y) Finding it unsafe for his family, with Pharaoh so adverse, Moses had sent wife and children back to Midian. z) Moses so named his elder son [Ex. 2:22]; his second son, [Ex. 18:4].

a) A people and their idols stand or fall together.

b) Jethro was a descendant of Abraham by Keturah and was a priest of God.

c) Because he could conduct a court session better than others, Moses let all the work be loaded on him, without training others to share the labors with him, a serious mistake of Christian leaders to this day.

thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens. ²²Let them regularly administer justice for the people and only when there is an extremely difficult case, let them bring it to you; but for ordinary affairs let them judge. It will make it easier for you and they will share with you the responsibility. ²³If you work this out, and if God commands you, you will be able to stand the strain and all these people will go home satisfied."^d ²⁴Moses listened to his father-in-law and carried out all he had suggested; ²⁵he chose able men from all Israel and made them chiefs of the people — leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, ²⁶and they judged on ordinary matters. Difficult cases they referred to Moses; but those of lesser import they judged. ²⁷And Moses let his father-in-law return to his own country.

19 ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE third month after their leaving Egypt the Israelites entered the Sinai desert; ²for they had traveled from Rephidim and reached the Sinai desert, where they encamped facing the mountain, ³while Moses went up to God.^e

The LORD called to him from the mountain: Say this to the house of Jacob and announce to the Israelites, ⁴"You have seen what I did to Egypt, while I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. ⁵Now then, if you will obediently observe My message and keep My covenant, then you will be above all nations My personal possession; for the whole earth is Mine. ⁶You will become to Me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Announce this message to the Israelites. ⁷So Moses came and summoned the elders of the people, to whom he conveyed all these words which the LORD had commanded him,^f ⁸and unitedly all the people answered, "Everything the LORD has said we will do"; which response of the people Moses reported back to the LORD. ⁹The LORD then said to Moses: Observe! I am coming to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear My conversation with you and may always trust you.

Moses reported the people's words to the LORD,^g ¹⁰ and the LORD said to Moses: Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow; have them wash their clothes ¹¹and let them be ready for the third day; for day after tomorrow the LORD will, in the sight of all the people, descend upon Mount Sinai. ¹²Mark boundaries for the people all around and caution them, "Each of you be careful not to climb the mountain or even to touch the edge of it; for whoever touches the mountain shall without exception be executed."^h ¹³Not a hand shall touch him, but he will be stoned or pierced with arrows; whether man or beast, he shall not survive. At the lengthy blast of the ram's horn they may come up to the mountain."

¹⁴Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated them and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵He told the people, "Be ready for the third day; do not come near a woman."

¹⁶On the morning of the third day there were thunders and lightnings and a heavy cloud on the mountain and a trumpet blast so unusually loud that all the people in the camp trembled. ¹⁷Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God and they stood at the base of the mountain. ¹⁸All of Mount Sinai was smoking, because the LORD came down upon it in fire; its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace and the whole mountain quaked severely. ¹⁹When the loud trumpet peal grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and the LORD answered him with a voice. ²⁰The LORD then descended to the summit of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the mountain top; so Moses went up ²¹and the

d) Such counselors as Jethro are sorely needed in most churches and all Christian workers may well make these suggestions part of their own program.

e) A preliminary visit with God, with features of a definite appointment from the Lord.

f) The elders relaying it to the people.

g) Which, of course, the Lord knew without being told; but so He knows what we tell Him in prayer. h) It is well for all His offspring to grow keenly aware of His holiness.

LORD told him: Go down! Warn the people not to intrude in order to look at the LORD, for then many of them would perish. ²²Have the priests, too, who draw near to the LORD, consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

²³Moses answered the LORD, "The people cannot climb Mount Sinai, for Thou hast warned us, Set boundaries to the mountain and consecrate it."

²⁴The LORD said to him: Go down and then come up with Aaron; but let not the priests and the people intrude to climb up to the LORD, lest He punish them. ²⁵So Moses went down to the people and told them.

20 GOD SPOKE ALL THESE WORDS, saying: ²¹I am the LORD your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ³You shall have no other gods before My face. ⁴You shall make for yourself no idol in the likeness of anything in the heavens above or on the earth below or in the waters under the earth. ⁵You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am God who brooks no rival; ¹bringing home to children of the third and fourth generation of those who hate me the sins of their fathers, ⁶and applying kindness to thousands of those who love Me and obey My commandments.

⁷Do not use the name of the LORD your God profanely; for the LORD will not regard him innocent who uses His name profanely.

⁸Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. ⁹Six days you will labor and do all your work, ¹⁰but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God; then you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your servant, your maid, your cattle or the alien in your household. ¹¹For in six days the LORD made the heavens, the earth, the sea and everything these contain, and He rested on the seventh day. The LORD therefore blessed the Sabbath Day and consecrated it.

¹²Honor your father and your mother, so that your life may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

¹³You shall not murder! ¹⁴You shall commit no adultery! ¹⁵You shall not steal! ¹⁶You shall not witness falsely against your neighbor! ¹⁷You shall not covet your neighbor's household: you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, his ox, his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

¹⁸As all the people observed the thunderings and the lightnings, the trumpet peal and the smoking mountain, and as the people looked at them, they moved away and stood at a distance. ¹⁹They said to Moses, "You converse with us and we will listen. Let not God address us, lest we die." ²⁰Moses assured the people, "Be not afraid! God has come to test you, so you may revere Him enough not to sin." ²¹But the people stood at a distance while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

²²The LORD said to Moses: Convey¹ this message to the Israelites: You have experienced My speaking to you from heaven. ²³Make yourselves no gods of silver or gold to rival Me. ²⁴Make Me an earthen altar and upon it sacrifice your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your cattle. Wherever I would have My name memorialized, there I will come to you and bless you. ²⁵If you build Me an altar of stone, do not construct it of dressed stone, for you profane it by applying tools to it. ²⁶Neither go up to My altar by steps, lest on it your nudity be exposed.

21 THESE ARE THE LEGAL ORDERS you shall announce to them: ²When you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years and in the seventh

i) No other God exists; there is no place for rivals. Worship of others is destructive to the soul, deceptive and disappointing.

j) God complied with their entreaty, although it was not wholesome for them; they should have shared in divine fellowship, to know and serve Him well.

he shall go out free, without charge.¹

³In case he started single, he shall leave single; if he had a wife, his wife shall go free with him. ⁴If his master gave him a wife and she bore him sons or daughters then the wife and her children shall belong to her master; he shall go out by himself. ⁵Should the slave persistently say, "I love my master, my wife and my children; I do not care to go free," ⁶then his master shall bring him to the gods.^m He shall also bring him to the door or to the door post, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl, and he shall serve him permanently.

⁷When a man sells his daughter to be a slave, she shall not go free the way the male slaves do. ⁸In case she does not please her master, who engaged her for himself, he shall allow her to be bought back; he shall have no right to sell her to outsiders, because he has treated her unfairly. ⁹If he engaged her for his son, then the custom of daughters shall be observed. ¹⁰Should he marry another wife, then her food, her clothing and her marriage rights shall not lessen, ¹¹and if he fails to maintain these three obligations, then she may go out free without any reimbursement.

¹²Whoever hits another fatally must certainly be executed. ¹³However, if he did not plan it, but God allowed an accident, then I will appoint a place for you to which he may flee.ⁿ ¹⁴But when a man is resentful against his neighbor and kills him with design, you shall take him to his execution even from My altar.^o ¹⁵Whoever strikes his father or his mother shall be put to death. ¹⁶Whoever kidnaps a person and sells him, or holds him in his possession, shall be executed. ¹⁷Whoever curses his father or his mother shall be put to death.

¹⁸When two men quarrel and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist and the victim does not die, but is confined to bed, ¹⁹then gets up and with a staff walks about on the street, the one who hit him shall go unpunished, except that he must pay for lost time and must see to it that he is completely healed.

²⁰When a man beats his male or his female slave with a club, so that the slave dies then and there, the victim shall be avenged; ²¹but if he survives a day or two then he must not be avenged, because he is his property.

²²If in a quarrel between men a pregnant woman is hit, so that she miscarries, but is not otherwise injured, the offender shall be fined by the woman's husband with consent of the judges. ²³But if there is further harm, then it is life for life, ²⁴eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵burn for burn, wound for wound and lash for lash.^p

²⁶When a man hits the eye of his slave, male or female, and destroys it, he must let the slave go free for his eye; ²⁷if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female slave, he must let him go free for his tooth.

²⁸When an ox fatally gores a man or a woman, the ox must unquestionably be stoned and its flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox is guiltless. ²⁹However, if an ox has repeatedly been goring people and its owner has been cautioned, but he failed to corral it, and it kills a man or a woman, then the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death. ³⁰But if atonement is applied to him, then he shall pay the redemption of his life as it is imposed on him. ³¹The same law holds for him where an ox has gored a boy or a girl. ³²And if an ox gores a male or a female slave, the owner shall pay to their master thirty silver shekels^q and the ox must be stoned.

³³When a man uncovers or digs a

1) The Hebrew was a citizen in a commonwealth of which God was King; for him perpetual slavery would be dishonorable, also for God, his Owner.

m) From Ch. 22:8 and from our Lord's retort to opponents, John 10:34-36, it appears that judges are here called gods, probably because in dealing out justice, they represented God.

n) A city of refuge, six of which were appointed in the promised land.

o) Ordinarily a place of refuge, but not always. Joab was slain there [I Kings 2:28].

p) While this is not the law of love, to be practiced in neighborly relationships, it has remained through the ages the essence of civil law, still practiced in our courts.

q) A silver shekel was for centuries equivalent to 65 cents. Today the dollar more truly equals it.

pit and fails to cover it, so that an ox or a donkey falls in, ³⁴the owner of the pit shall pay its owner full damage and shall keep the dead body.

³⁵When a man's ox hurts another's ox fatally, they shall sell the live ox and equally divide the price and shall equally divide the dead ox. ³⁶But if the ox was known to gore previously and its owner did not keep it corralled, then he must fully pay ox for ox, and the carcass shall be his.

22 IF SOMEONE STEALS AN OX OR A sheep, and butchers or sells it, he shall pay five oxen for the ox and four sheep for the sheep. ²When a burglar is caught breaking in and is fatally beaten, there shall be no charge of manslaughter, ³unless it happened after dawn, in which case there is manslaughter. The thief^r must make full restitution. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for what he stole. ⁴In case the theft is found alive in his possession, whether an ox, a donkey or a sheep, he shall refund double.

⁵If a man pastures livestock in his field or vineyard and then allows the animal to graze in another's field, he shall repay with the choicest of his own field or vineyard.

⁶When a field fire spreads and gets in the thorns with the result that shocked or standing grain burns up, the one who started the fire shall make refund.

⁷When a man hands his neighbor money or articles for safe keeping, and it is stolen from that man's house, if the thief is discovered, have him pay double; ⁸if the thief is not found, the householder shall be brought before the judges^s to inquire whether or not he has laid his hand on his neighbor's goods.

⁹For every kind of misconduct, whether it concerns an ox, a donkey, a sheep or clothing or anything lost, about which someone says, "This is mine," the case of both parties shall come before the judges. Whom the judges pronounce guilty, he shall repay his neighbor double.

¹⁰When someone commits to his neighbor's care a donkey, an ox, a sheep or any livestock, and it dies or is injured or is driven off,^t without anyone observing it, ¹¹an oath before the LORD shall be required between the two, that he has not laid his hand on his neighbor's property. The owner shall accept that and there is no refund. ¹²But if it is actually stolen from him,^u then he must repay the owner. ¹³If it was torn to pieces, he shall bring it for evidence; he shall make no refund for what was torn.

¹⁴When a person borrows a neighbor's animal and it is injured or dies away from its owner, the borrower shall certainly make refund. ¹⁵If its owner is present there shall be no refund; in case it was hired, the hire suffices for payment.

¹⁶If a man seduces a virgin to whom he is not engaged and cohabits with her, he must without fail pay her dowry and marry her. ¹⁷If her father steadfastly refuses to let him have her, then the man must weigh out the cash equivalent to the dowry of virgins.^v ¹⁸Allow no sorceress to live. ¹⁹Whoever lies with an animal must be executed.

²⁰He who sacrifices to gods, except to the LORD alone, shall be destroyed.

²¹Do not affront or maltreat an alien; for you were aliens in the land of Egypt; ²²neither cause distress to any widow or orphan. ²³If you distress them in any way and they cry out to Me, ²⁴I will hear their cry and My indignation shall burn; I will slay you with the sword,^w so that your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless.

²⁵If you lend money to the poor of My people, do not act the creditor to him; do not charge him interest. ²⁶If

r) In the text the word thief does not occur here. "He" must refer to the burglar just mentioned.

s) The name Elohim, regularly translated God, is used here. It is almost always used in the plural and our Lord so quotes it, but with "judges" in mind, as God's representatives. We therefore use the word "judges."

t) In a raid. u) Appropriated by the neighbor who was to care for it.

v) As there was no minted coin, cash payment had to be weighed.

w) God will bring war upon you; for retribution is a divine law.

you actually take your neighbor's coat in pawn, return it to him by sunset; ²⁷for it is the only cover he has for his naked body. In what else shall he sleep? When he cries out to Me, I will hear, for I am sympathetic.

²⁸Heap no abuse upon judges and do not curse a ruler of your people.*

²⁹Do not delay the offerings of your grains and vines. Give Me the first-born of your sons. ³⁰Do the same with your oxen and sheep; for a week the firstling may stay with its dam; on the eighth day present it to Me.

³¹Since you are yourselves to be dedicated to Me, eat no meat that was dismembered in the field; throw it to the dogs.⁷

23 PRESENT NO HEARSAY, UNSUPPORTED evidence; do not cooperate with an evil-minded person to become a malicious witness. ²Do not follow the crowd in wrongdoing, nor, when witnessing in a lawsuit, lean toward the majority to thwart justice; ³neither be partial to the poor man in his lawsuit.

⁴When you happen upon your enemy's stray ox or donkey, be sure to bring it back to him. ⁵In case you see the donkey of one who hates you lying helpless under its pack and you hesitate lending a hand, by all means give him aid.

⁶Do not twist the rights of your poor in his lawsuit; ⁷keep clean from a false charge; do not execute the innocent and guiltless; for I do not justify the wicked. ⁸Accept no bribe; for a present blinds one who can see and thwarts a just man's testimony.

⁹Do not make life hard for the foreigner; you know the alien's attitude, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt,

¹⁰Put in your crops in your land for six years and gather its harvest; ¹¹in the seventh year let it rest and fallow

it,⁸ so that the needy among your people are fed, and what they leave, the field animals may eat. Similarly with your vineyard and with your oliveyard.

¹²You shall work six days and rest on the seventh day so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the son of your slave maid, and your alien may enjoy a breathing spell.

¹³Pay strict attention to everything I have told you; do not mention the name of another god; let it not be heard from your lips.

¹⁴Thrice a year observe a feast for Me. ¹⁵Keep the feast of unleavened bread; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread at the appointed time, the month Abib, because in it you came out of Egypt. And none shall appear in My presence empty-handed.

¹⁶Also keep the harvest feast, the first fruits of your toil, of what you sowed in the field. Then keep the feast of ingathering^a at the end of the year,^b when you are through gathering in the fruits of your field work. ¹⁷Thrice a year your every male shall appear before the LORD God.

¹⁸Do not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of My feast remain overnight until morning. ¹⁹Bring the choicest of the first fruits of your land into the house of the LORD your God.

Do not boil a kid in its mother's milk.^c

²⁰Take note! I am sending an Angel before you to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared; ²¹mind His presence; heed His suggestions; do not offend Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions, since in Him is My name. ²²But if you will heartily obey His word and do everything I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an opponent to your opponents. ²³For My Angel^d will go before you and bring you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the

x) Again the name Elohim is used, which usually stands for God, but balanced, Hebrew fashion, with "rulers" in the next clause, it must denote judges as it did previously.

y) Not butchered by men, and the blood, which represents life, not properly drained.

z) Plowing was done on some acres and weeding on others, as Jer. 4:3 and Hosea 10:12 indicate.

a) The three great annual Feasts are scripturally known as Passover, Pentecost and Feast of Booths or Tabernacles. b) The end of the harvest season including fruits and grapes early October.

c) Be gentlemen even toward your animals.

d) Notice how "My Angel" and "I" are mentioned interchangeably; so in the burning bush; commissioning Gideon [Judg. 6:12,14,16]; there seems to be the presence of the Son of God.

Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, whom I will eliminate.

²⁴Do not bow down to their gods; do not serve them and do not behave their way; demolish them and break to fragments their worship pillars.^e ²⁵Serve the LORD your God and He will bless your food and your drink and I will remove sickness from among you. ²⁶There will be none miscarrying or barren in your land; I will fill out the number of your days. ²⁷I will send My terror ahead of you and bring panic on all the people you approach. I will turn your enemies from you in flight. ²⁸I will send wasps in advance of you, for driving out the Hivites, the Canaanites and the Hittites before you reach there. ²⁹I will not move them out of your way in a single year, lest the land turn desert and the wild beasts grow too numerous for you. ³⁰Little by little I will move them out of your way until you are numerous enough to take possession of the land.

³¹I will fix your boundaries from the Red Sea to the Philistine coast and from the desert as far as the river,^f for I will hand over to you the natives whom you will expel to make room for you. ³²Seal no covenant with them or with their gods; ³³they must not live in your land, lest they cause you to sin against Me. To serve their gods would ensnare you.

24 HE SAID TO MOSES, COME UP to the LORD — you, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and seventy of Israel's elders, and worship at a distance; ²let Moses alone draw near to the LORD. The others must not come close; neither shall the people come up with him.

³When Moses came back, he recited to the people all the LORD's announcements and all the legal instructions, to which the people unanimously replied, "Everything the LORD said we will do,"

⁴so Moses wrote down all the LORD's pronouncements. He got up early next morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain along with twelve pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵He then dispatched young men of Israel who offered burnt offerings, and oxen as peace offerings to the LORD. ⁶But Moses himself put half the blood in basins and sprinkled half the blood upon the altar. ⁷He then took the Book of the Covenant, which he read for the people to hear. They said, "All the LORD's directions we shall obediently carry out."^g ⁸Moses then took the blood^h and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "Behold, the blood of the Covenant which the LORD has sealed with you is centered on all these words."

⁹Then Moses with Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and the seventy elders of Israel, ¹⁰went up, and they saw the God of Israel; under His feet there was the likeness of a sapphire pavement, clear as the heavens. ¹¹He did not let His hand come down on the chiefs of Israel; they looked upon God, yet they ate and drank.ⁱ

¹²The LORD said to Moses: Ascend the mountain to Me and remain there. I will give you the stone tablets with the Law and the commandment which I have written for you to teach them. ¹³So Moses and Joshua, his assistant, rose and Moses ascended the mountain of God. ¹⁴To the elders he said, "Wait here until we return to you. Keep in mind that Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a case to settle can go to them."

¹⁵So Moses went up the mountain, which was covered with a cloud. ¹⁶The glory of the LORD was resting upon Mount Sinai; for six days the cloud covered it. On the seventh day He called to Moses from the depth of the cloud. ¹⁷To the onlooking Israelites the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the mountain top. ¹⁸Still

e) Those pillars, sometimes called "groves" in the KJV, were shameful images, encouraging licentious practices under cover of religion.

f) The Euphrates eastward, the Mediterranean westward.

g) This sacred event was ever after held before the Hebrews as their marriage ceremony, with God the Husband and Israel the wife. h) The remaining half.

i) As God is Spirit, they saw no body [Deut. 4:15], but a glory and even this remained a marvel through sacred history, for "no man shall see Me and live" [Ex. 33:20].

climbing, Moses entered the depths of the cloud and he remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

25 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:

²Tell the Israelites to take up an offering for Me. Every person of a willing mind shall contribute^j for the offering ³which shall consist of gold, silver and bronze; ⁴blue, purple and scarlet material, fine linen, goats' hair, ⁵rams' skins dyed red, goatskins and acacia wood; ⁶lamp oil, spices for anointing oil and for perfumed incense, ⁷onyx stone and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.^k ⁸Also have them construct for Me a sanctuary, so that I may dwell among them; ⁹make it in exact agreement with all that I am about to show you, the plan for the tabernacle as well as for its furniture.

¹⁰They shall make an Ark of acacia wood, ³/₄ feet long, by ²/₄ feet wide and high. ¹¹Overlay it inside and out with pure gold and run a gold molding around it. ¹²Cast four rings of gold for it to be attached to the four lower corners, two rings on one side and two on the other. ¹³Make poles, too, of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. ¹⁴Put the poles through the rings on the side of the Ark for carrying the Ark; ¹⁵the poles shall stay in the rings of the Ark; they must not be taken out.

¹⁶Deposit the Testimony^l which I will give you inside the Ark ¹⁷and make a mercy seat of pure gold, ³/₄ feet long, ²/₄ feet wide. ¹⁸Make two golden cherubim of beaten work,^m ¹⁹one cherub at the near end, the other at the further end and both of one piece with the mercy seat. ²⁰The cherubim shall spread their wings over the mercy seat, facing each other and both faces turned toward the mercy seat.ⁿ

²¹Top the Ark with the mercy seat

and deposit the Testimony which I will give you, inside the Ark. ²²There I will meet with you and convey to you, above the mercy seat between the two cherubim upon the Ark of the Testimony all that I command you for the Israelites.

²³Make a table of acacia wood three feet long, ¹/₂ feet wide and ²/₄ feet high; ²⁴plate it with pure gold and run a golden molding around it; ²⁵make a three-inch frame all around and a golden molding all the way around the frame. ²⁶Then make four gold rings for it and put them on the four corners at the table's four legs. ²⁷The rings must be close to the frame to hold the poles for carrying the table. ²⁸Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold; with them the table will be carried. ²⁹Make its plates, its bowls, its pitchers and its flasks to pour with all of pure gold ³⁰and have the showbread perpetually on the table before Me.^o

³¹Make a lampstand, too, of pure gold; its base and shaft of beaten gold; its bowls, its knobs and its blossoms all of one piece with it. ³²Six branches shall rise out of its sides, three branches on this side of the lampstand and three on the other; ³³three cups of almond-blossom shape, each cup with calyx and petals on one branch and three almond shaped cups with calyx and petals on the other branch; and so on for all six branches coming out of the lampstand; ³⁴but on the shaft itself four cups of almond-blossom form, each with calyx and petals. ³⁵Also make a calyx under each pair of branches for the six that rise from the lampstand, ³⁶their calyxes and branches being of one piece with it, so that the whole shall be a single piece of pure, beaten gold. ³⁷Make its seven lamps for it, and so place them that they shall illumine what is in front of them. ³⁸The snuffers

j) Not a tax; not compulsory, but voluntary, the rich and the poor participating.

k) Ephod is the Hebrew name for the sacred upper garment of the priest, of plain linen for the regular priest; embroidered, many-colored for the high priest. The breastplate, worn by the high priest alone, went above the ephod or upper garment; it was square and twelve precious stones were set in it, one for each tribe. l) The two tables of the Ten Commandments.

m) Solid gold, not hollow; not molten. The Hebrew plural of cherub is cherubim.

n) Suggesting the holy ones forever curious about the marvels of God's grace to men.

o) God's people daily acknowledging their dependence on God and His constant care for them. Literally the bread was termed Face-bread, or Bread of the Presence.

and the ashtrays shall be of pure gold; ³⁹use a circle of gold^p for it, including all the utensils. ⁴⁰And see to it that you make it in agreement with their pattern that was shown you in the mountain.

26 ¹FOR MAKING THE TABERNACLE^q use ten curtains of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet, with cherubs skilfully wrought in. ²The curtains shall each be forty-two feet long and six feet wide, all of the same size. ³Five curtains shall be joined together and similarly the other five. ⁴Make blue loops on the edge of the first curtain at the joint; so on the edge of the second joint — ⁵fifty loops for the one curtain and fifty loops for the edges of the other curtain so that the loops correspond between them. ⁶Then make fifty golden clasps and fasten the curtains to each other with the clasps so the Dwelling becomes a unit.

⁷Make goats'-hair curtains, too, for a covering of the tabernacle, eleven curtains altogether, ⁸the length of one curtain forty-five feet and its width six feet and the eleven curtains all the same size. ⁹Join five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves and double the sixth curtain to hang in front of the tent.^r ¹⁰Make fifty loops on the edge of the first curtain set and fifty loops on the edge of the other set; ¹¹then make fifty bronze clasps and put the clasps into the loops, thus fastening the covering together to make it a unit. ¹²The leftover portion of the curtains, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the rear end of the tabernacle ¹³and the 1½ foot left over in the length of the curtains on each side of the Dwelling shall hang over it for coverage. ¹⁴Construct a roof, too, for the tent, of rams' skins dyed red and on top of them goatskins.

¹⁵Prepare uprights of acacia wood for the tabernacle, ¹⁶fifteen feet long, 2¼ feet wide,^s ¹⁷with two tenons in each frame to fit tightly to the next frame, and so construct all the frames in the Dwelling. ¹⁸Make the frames for the Dwelling, twenty for the south side ¹⁹with forty silver sockets under them, two for each frame for its two tenons; ²⁰twenty frames for the second side of the Dwelling, the north side, ²¹with their forty silver sockets, two under each frame. ²²For the rear of the Dwelling, the west side, make six frames; ²³also two frames for the rear corners. ²⁴These must be coupled down below, and coupled with a ring on top, both frames, for the two corners. ²⁵So there will be eight frames with their sixteen silver sockets, two sockets under each frame.

²⁶Make bars, too, of acacia wood, five for the frames on one side of the Dwelling ²⁷and five for the frames on the other side; also five for the rear that looks westward, ²⁸the middle bar running all the way from end to end. ²⁹Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings on them to hold the bars, which also you shall overlay with gold. ³⁰Erect the Dwelling^t according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

³¹Make a blue, purple and scarlet veil of fine, twined linen with cherub design skilfully embroidered; ³²hang this by golden hooks on four acacia pillars overlaid with gold and resting on four silver sockets. ³³Hang the veil from the clasps, and bring the Ark of the Testimony within the veil. The veil shall divide for you the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies.

³⁴Place the mercy seat upon the Ark of the Testimony in the Holy of Holies; ³⁵but set the table^u outside the veil; also the lampstand opposite the table

p) A talent; its weight of gold equal to at least $30,000. The word "circle" suggests that shaping preceded coining of the precious metal.

q) The five curtains joined by clasps are thought of as one curtain both in this paragraph and in the next.

r) The goats' hair curtains were hung over the linen curtains for protection and for moderating the temperature both winter and summer.

s) Acacia trees would not likely grow that large and the Hebrew name for them, left untranslated in the KJV, intimates more than one piece of wood for each frame.

t) The tabernacle's Biblical name is most truly Dwelling because [Ex. 25:8,9] God came to dwell there. Another name is Tent of Meeting, as there God met with his people [Ex. 25:22; Num. 17:4]. Also, Tent of Testimony, as the two tables of Law were deposited there [Num. 9:15; Ps. 122:4].

u) The table of show-bread in the holy place, the bread of the Presence.

on the south side of the Dwelling, as the table is on the north side.

³⁶For the entrance to the Dwelling make a blue, purple and scarlet veil of fine twined linen, skilfully embroidered. ³⁷To hang the veil, make five acacia pillars, overlay them with gold and supply them with gold clasps; also cast five bronze sockets for them.

27 CONSTRUCT THE ALTAR OF ACACIA wood; make it square, $7\frac{1}{2}$ feet long and wide, $4\frac{1}{2}$ feet high. ²Make horns of one piece with it on the four corners and overlay it all with bronze. ³Make ashpens for it and shovels, basins, fleshhooks and firepans; make all the utensils of bronze; ⁴make a network grating, too, of bronze with four bronze rings on its four corners. ⁵Fit the grating under the altar's ledge, so it comes halfway of the altar. ⁶Make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze. ⁷Thrust the poles through the rings along both sides of the altar for carrying it. ⁸By the use of boards make the altar concave; make it as it was shown you on the mountain.

⁹You shall construct the court of the tabernacle. On the south side have hangings of fine twined linen, the length of 150 feet, ¹⁰with 20 pillars and their 20 sockets; the clasps of the pillars and their bands are to be of silver. ¹¹So also for the north side, make the hangings 150 feet long with 20 pillars and their 20 bronze sockets, the clasps of the pillars and their bands to be of silver.

¹²For the court's width, on the west side the hangings shall be 75 feet, with 10 pillars and their 10 sockets. ¹³The east side of the court shall be 75 feet, ¹⁴with hangings on one side of the entrance, $22\frac{1}{2}$ feet with 3 pillars and their 3 sockets ¹⁵and similarly on the other side of the entrance.

¹⁶The entrance to the court shall have a thirty-foot veil of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet, skilfully embroidered, with four pillars and their four sockets. ¹⁷The pillars all around the court shall be connected by silver bands; their hooks also of silver and their sockets bronze. ¹⁸The court shall be 150 feet long, 75 feet wide all the way and $7\frac{1}{2}$ -foot hangings of fine twined linen. The sockets shall be of bronze; ¹⁹so all the utensils of the tabernacle, all its pins and all the pegs for the court shall be of bronze.

²⁰Order the Israelites to bring you pure, beaten olive oil for illumination, so that a lamp may stand to burn perpetually. ²¹In the Tent of Meeting^v outside the veil that faces the Testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep it supplied from evening until morning before the LORD, an everlasting institution for the Israelites.

28 HAVE YOUR BROTHER AARON with his sons as your associates from among the Israelites to officiate as My priests — Aaron and Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron. ²Make for your brother Aaron dedicated garments for honor and for beauty ³and tell all artisans whom I have endowed with skill, to make Aaron garments for his dedication to serve Me in the priestly office. ⁴And these are the garments they shall make: A breastplate, an upper garment,^w a robe, an undergarment of woven material, a turban and a sash. They shall make dedicated garments for your brother Aaron and for his sons to serve Me as priests. ⁵They must use gold; blue, purple and scarlet material and fine twined linen.

⁶The upper garment they shall make of gold; blue, purple, scarlet and pure twined white linen with artistic workmanship. ⁷It shall have two shoulder straps to bring it together at the two ends. ⁸The artistic sash shall be of the same material and workmanship — gold; blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen. ⁹Get two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of Israel's

v) The Dwelling, known to most of us as the Tabernacle, composed of the holy place, with table of showbread and sevenfold lamp, and the Holy of Holies, separated by the veil and containing the Ark of the Covenant, called Testimony here because the two tables of the Law were in it.

w) Hebrew name "ephod," reaching from loins to shoulders, connected on shoulders by a precious stone, inscribed with six tribal names in each stone. Front and back were covered to that length.

sons, ¹⁰the names of six on the one stone and the names of six on the other stone, according to their birth. ¹¹Engrave the names of Israel's sons on the two stones as a seal is engraved by a jeweler and have them set in gold sockets, ¹²to have the two stones fastened upon the upper garment's shoulder straps as memorial stones for the Israelites. As a memorial Aaron shall bear their names upon his shoulders before the LORD.

¹³Make sockets, too, of pure gold ¹⁴and two chains of pure gold, twining like cords, and fasten the twined chains to the sockets. ¹⁵Then make the judicial breastplate,* the work of a skilful craftsman, made, like the upper garment, of gold; blue, purple, scarlet and pure twined linen, ¹⁶nine inches square and doubled. ¹⁷Set in it four rows of jewels, the first row sardius, topaz and emerald; ¹⁸the second row carbuncle, sapphire and jasper; ¹⁹the third row amber, agate and amethyst ²⁰and the fourth row chrysolite, onyx and beryl;⁷ all shall be set in gold enclosures. ²¹There shall be twelve stones named after the twelve sons of Israel, engraved like a seal, for the twelve tribes.

²²Make upon the breastplate twined chains, cordage fashion, of pure gold, ²³also two gold rings for the two ends of the breastplate; ²⁴then fasten the two gold chains to the two rings at the end of the breastplate. ²⁵Fasten the other two ends of the twined chain to the two sockets and place them on the front part of the shoulder straps of the upper garment. ²⁶Make two more gold rings to put on the two ends of the breastplate inside the edge next to the upper garment ²⁷and two gold rings to put on the two shoulder straps of the upper garment where they join underneath in front, above the skilfully woven sash. ²⁸Fasten the rings of the breastplate to the rings of the upper garment² with a blue cord so that the breastplate may not swing loose from the upper garment.

²⁹Aaron shall wear the names of Israel's sons over his heart on the breastplate of judgment as he enters the holy place, for a perpetual memorial in the presence of the LORD. ³⁰Insert the Urim and the Thummim^a into the breastplate over Aaron's heart as he enters the LORD's presence, so that Aaron may perpetually bear the rights of Israel over his heart before the LORD.

³¹Make the entire robe of the ephod blue ³²with a central opening at the top, the edges of which shall be bound all around with woven work, like the neck of a coat of mail, so that it may not fray. ³³Embroider the skirts with pomegranates, blue, purple and scarlet, interspersed with golden bells, ³⁴a gold bell and a pomegranate alternating all around near the edges. ³⁵Aaron is to wear it as he ministers, so that its sound shall be heard as he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and as he retires, that he may not die.

³⁶Make also a plate of pure gold and engrave on it with seal engravings: "Holiness to the LORD." ³⁷Attach it with a blue cord to be part of the turban at the turban's front ³⁸on Aaron's forehead, so that Aaron may take on him the guilt connected with the sacred gifts which the Israelites dedicate.^b It shall always be on his forehead, so there may be acceptance for them in the presence of the LORD.

³⁹Weave the tunic of checkered fine linen and make a turban of fine linen; also a sash of embroidered workmanship. ⁴⁰Make tunics for Aaron's sons, too, and sashes and turbans for honor and for beauty; ⁴¹dress your brother Aaron and his sons in them; anoint them, install^c and consecrate them to serve Me as priests. ⁴²Make them linen trunks to reach from waist to thigh to

x) By which God's will is known, if rightly sought.

y) Translators do not agree on the respective names of the twelve stones. Diamond seems impossible, because of its hardness, and sapphire not much better (see Rev. 21:19-21 for large precious stones).

z) Or ephod, its Hebrew name, which we shall often use hereafter.

a) Hebrew words for "lights and perfections," used for seeking direction from God, never for personal but always for national matters. They were objects that could be put in the breastplate; some think they were used like dice. We believe they were symbols of the high-priest's holy office, that God would reveal His will and plan if humbly approached.

b) Prophetic of our Lord's taking "on Him the iniquities of us all."

c) Literally, "fill their hand," that is, impart power to them.

cover their bare flesh. ⁴³Aaron and his sons shall wear them as they enter the meeting tent or approach the altar to serve in the holy place, so they may incur no guilt and die. It shall be a perpetual ordinance for him and for his descendants.

29 TO CONSECRATE THEM TO ME for the priestly office, do this for them: Select one young bull and two flawless rams; ²have unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mixed with oil; also unleavened wafers sprinkled with oil, using fine wheat flour to make them. ³Place them in one basket and present them in the basket, along with the young bull and the two rams. ⁴Then have Aaron and his sons come to the door of the meeting tent and wash them with water. ⁵Take the garments and dress Aaron in the tunic, the ephod, its robe^d and the breastplate, girding him with the artistic sash. ⁶Place the turban on his head and attach the sacred diadem to the turban. ⁷Then take the anointing oil and, pouring it on his head, anoint him.

⁸Bring his sons, too, and dress them with tunics; ⁹gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons; bind the turbans on them and theirs shall be the priestly office by perpetual ordinance. Ordain Aaron and his sons this way. ¹⁰Then have the bullock led in front of the meeting tent and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands on the head of the bullock before the LORD at the door of the meeting tent. ¹¹Slaughter the bullock before the LORD at the door of the meeting tent; ¹²take some of the bullock's blood and smear it with your finger on the horns of the altar; then pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar. ¹³Take all the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them and burn them on the altar; ¹⁴but the bullock's meat, its hide and its offal you shall burn outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

¹⁵Then take the one ram and have Aaron and his sons lay their hands on the ram's head. ¹⁶Slaughter the ram, catch its blood, and sprinkle it all around on the altar; ¹⁷cut the ram into pieces, wash its entrails and its legs, place them upon its pieces and its head ¹⁸and burn the whole ram upon the altar for a burnt offering to the LORD; it is an acceptable odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

¹⁹Take the other ram and have Aaron and his sons lay their hands on its head. ²⁰Kill the ram and, catching some of its blood, put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, on the tip of his sons' right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the great toe of their right feet; also sprinkle the blood all around on the altar. ²¹Take some of the blood from the altar and the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments; also on his sons and on their garments, so that he and his garments, also his sons and their garments will be consecrated.^e d) A sleeveless robe, all blue, worn underneath the upper garment or ephod and longer; the fringe of alternate pomegranates and gold bells belonged to it.

²²Then take the ram's fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them, also the right thigh — for it is a consecration ram—²³with one loaf of bread, a cake made with oil, and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is set before the LORD, ²⁴and lay them all in the hands of Aaron and of his sons to wave them as a wave-offering before the LORD.^f

²⁵Next receive them from their hands and burn them on the altar for a burnt-offering, an acceptable fragrance before the LORD, an offering to the LORD made by fire.

²⁶Take the breast of Aaron's ordination ram and wave it before the LORD; that will be your share. ²⁷Then consecrate the waved breast and the thigh of the ordination ram that was donated; ²⁸it belongs to Aaron and to his sons as a perpetual obligation from the Israelites, a contribution from the children of Israel from their thanksgiv-

e) From head to foot the person is dedicated — all he is, all he does and all he has.

f) A person's hand represents his powers and the waving indicates harmony. There is to be full agreement between the worshiper and his Lord.

ing sacrifices, their contribution to the LORD.

²⁹Aaron's sacred garments shall pass to his sons who succeed him, to be anointed and ordained in them. ³⁰The son who succeeds him in the priesthood shall wear them seven days as he enters the meeting tent to serve in the sanctuary. ³¹Take the ordination ram and boil its flesh in a sacred place.^s ³²Aaron and his sons shall eat the ram's meat and the bread that is in the basket, at the entrance of the meeting tent. ³³They shall eat the things with which atonement was made to install and to consecrate them; but no layman shall partake, for they are holy. ³⁴If any of the ordination meat or bread is left till morning, it must be burned; it must not be eaten, because it is dedicated.^b

³⁵Deal with Aaron and with his sons just as I gave you orders. Devote seven days to their installation ³⁶and each day offer a bullock for a sin offering to make atonement. Purify the altar, too, as you make atonement for it and anoint it for its sanctification. ³⁷For seven days make atonement for the altar, to sanctify it and it shall become a completely holy altar; everything that touches it shall be dedicated.¹

³⁸Here is what you shall offer upon the altar: two yearling lambs daily without fail, ³⁹the one lamb to be offered in the morning and the other at twilight. ⁴⁰With the first lamb you shall offer an ample six pints of fine flour mixed with 3 pints of pressed olive oil; and a libation of 3 pints of wine. ⁴¹Offer the second lamb at twilight, adding a similar cereal offering and libation for an acceptable fragrance, an offering by fire to the LORD, ⁴²a daily burnt offering through your generations at the entrance of the meeting tent before the LORD, where I meet with you and speak with you. ⁴³And

there I will meet with the children of Israel and by My glory it will be sanctified. ⁴⁴I will sanctify the meeting tent and the altar and I will sanctify Aaron and his sons to serve Me as priests. ⁴⁵I will dwell among the children of Israel and I will be their God; ⁴⁶so they shall know that I am the LORD, who brought them out of the land of Egypt to dwell among them, I, the LORD their God.

30 MAKE AN ALTAR ALSO FOR BURNING incense; make it of acacia wood and square, ²¹ $\frac{1}{2}$ feet long and wide, by three feet high; its horns of one piece with it. ³Overlay it with pure gold, its top, its sides all around and its horns, and run a gold molding around it. ⁴Just below the molding at the corners on both sides, fashion two gold rings for holding the poles to carry it. ⁵Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. ⁶Place it in front of the veil that screens the Ark of the Testimony, in front of the mercy seat that is above the Testimony at which I will meet with you.¹

⁷Aaron shall burn perfumed incense on it every morning when he trims the lamps ⁸and again when he lights the lamps at twilight; it shall be a continual burning of incense before the LORD for your successive generations. ⁹Offer on it no unprescribed incense, nor any burnt offering or meal offering; neither pour libations on it. ¹⁰But once a year Aaron shall make atonement on its horns with the blood of the sin-offering of atonement and thus make an annual atonement through your successive generations. It is supremely sacred to the LORD.

¹¹The LORD said to Moses: ¹²When you take the Israelites' census, to muster them, each person shall give a ransom for his life to the LORD at the census-taking, so that no plague may fall on them as they are being counted.

g) Not within the tabernacle itself, which was not yet built, and within which there was no altar except that of incense connected with the Holy of Holies. The altar for animal offerings belonged to the tabernacle but was located in the court.

h) There are two meanings to "holiness"; one is the acme of purity and righteousness; the other separation, a setting apart for God, consecration or dedication.

i) Holy to the Lord, because of the purpose of the altar.

j) This little golden altar belonged to the Holy of Holies, although not placed within it; not for burnt sacrifices but only incense would ascend from it.

¹³Every one enumerated shall pay half a dollar by sanctuary money standards,^k a contribution to the LORD. ¹⁴Every one who joins those who are numbered, 20 years of age and over, shall make this contribution to the LORD; ¹⁵the rich no more, the poor no less,^l than 50 cents in contributing to the LORD to make atonement for your souls. ¹⁶Receive the atonement money from the Israelites and apply it to the tabernacle service so that for the children of Israel it may be a reminder that they make personal atonement in the presence of the LORD.

¹⁷The LORD said to Moses; ¹⁸Make a bronze washbasin, too, with a bronze base for washing; locate it between the tabernacle and the altar and supply it with water, ¹⁹in which Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet; ²⁰as they enter the tabernacle they shall wash with water, so they may not die; or when they approach the altar to minister by burning a sacrifice to the LORD, ²¹they shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die. It shall be a statute to them forever for him and for his offspring through their successive generations.

²²The LORD further said to Moses: ²³Secure for yourself the choicest spices, 250 dollars worth of pure myrrh,^m half as much of fragrant cinnamon, that is 125 dollars worth; 125 dollars worth of aromatic calamus ²⁴and 250 dollars of cassia, by sanctuary money values; also six quarts of olive oil. ²⁵Compound these into a sacred anointing oil, scientifically prepared as by a druggist; it shall be a holy anointing oil. ²⁶Anoint with it the tabernacle,ⁿ the Ark of the Testimony, ²⁷the table and all its furnishings, the lampstand and its utensils, the altar of incense; ²⁸the altar of burnt offerings with all its utensils, the washbowl and its base. ²⁹Sanctify them so as to become completely dedicated; whoever touches them shall be dedicated.

³⁰Anoint also Aaron and his sons and consecrate them to serve as My priests ³¹and give this message to the Israelites, that this is to be holy anointing oil for Me through your generations; ³²it is not to be poured on a layman's body; nor must you compound anything like it for yourself, for it is holy; you must hold it holy. ³³Any person who compounds the like or who applies it to a layman shall be eliminated from his people.^o

³⁴The LORD said to Moses: Acquire perfumes, myrrh-oil drops, powdered mollusk^p shell and Persian gum with pure frankincense, these of equal portions, ³⁵and prepare these into a perfume, an ointment, a druggist's preparation, salted, pure and holy. ³⁶Grind some of it fine and place some of it in front of the Testimony in the tabernacle, where I shall meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. ³⁷Make none by this formula to be perfume for yourself; it shall be dedicated to the LORD. ³⁸Whoever prepares the like of it to enjoy its fragrance shall be eliminated from his people.

31 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Take notice! I have called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah ³and have filled him with God's Spirit in skill, intelligence and understanding for all craftsmanship ⁴to plan designs in gold, silver and bronze work, ⁵for cutting precious stones for setting, for woodcarving and for all sorts of craftwork. ⁶And know further that for his collaborator I have appointed Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan. And I have endowed all the skilful-

k) One evidence of true democracy — all alike are invited to pay that small religious tax, a principle that should obtain in our churches; not because God is in need, but because we need that experience of participation. l) In terms of a day's wages, the value was much higher.

m) Product of a small tree in Arabia with fragrant wood and bark; also found in Eastern Africa; a yellowish brown and gummy substance, it exudes from its tree — like resin.

n) Dwelling, meeting tent and tabernacle refer to the home structure — Dwelling because God dwelt there; meeting tent because He met the people there and they each other; tabernacle because moveable — the name usually given in the KJV.

o) Possibly by execution, but more likely by banishment; even excommunication might be applied, depriving the culprit of his Hebrew privileges.

p) Mollusc shells were found in Indian lakes; they are fragrant when ground and burned. Persian gum oozes from two plants found in Persia, Syria and Arabia.

minded with skill^a to make everything I have ordered you — ⁷the meeting tent, the Ark for the Testimony, the mercy seat upon it, all the furnishings of the tent, ⁸the table and its utensils, the pure lampstand and all its fittings, the altar of incense, ⁹the altar of burnt-offering and all its utensils, the wash-basin and its base, ¹⁰the woven garments, the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to wear when they serve as priests, ¹¹the anointing oil and the perfumed incense for the sanctuary — have them work it out just as I have ordered you.

¹²The LORD said to Moses: ¹³Tell the Israelites to keep My Sabbaths by all means; for this is through your generations a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD, who consecrates you. ¹⁴You therefore must keep the Sabbath, as it stands for your holiness. Those who profane it shall surely be executed; whoever works on it, that person shall be eliminated from among his people. ¹⁵For six days work may be done but on the seventh day there is a Sabbath of rest enjoyment, holy to the LORD. Whoever works on the Sabbath day shall certainly be executed. ¹⁶So then the Israelites shall keep the Sabbath, with Sabbath observance through their successive generations as an everlasting covenant. ¹⁷It is a sign forever between Me and the children of Israel; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth and on the seventh day He rested and refreshed Himself.^r ¹⁸When He had finished conversing with Moses on Mount Sinai He gave him the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets written with the finger of God.

32 WHEN THE PEOPLE NOTICED that Moses delayed his coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and told him, "Get up! Make gods for us to lead us on;

for this man Moses, who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we have no idea what has happened to him."

²Aaron told them, "Pluck off the gold rings in the ears of your wives, your sons and your daughters and bring them to me." ³So all the people tore off the gold rings from their ears and brought them to Aaron, ⁴who took them from their hands, fashioned it with a graving tool^s and molded it into a calf. Then they said, "This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt."

⁵Seeing that, Aaron built an altar in front of it and proclaimed, "A feast to the LORD tomorrow!" ⁶So next morning they rose early; they offered burnt-offerings and brought peace-offerings: the people sat down to eat and drink; then they got up to make merry.

⁷The LORD said to Moses: Go, get down, for your people whom you brought up from the land of Egypt have behaved wickedly. ⁸They have quickly swerved from the path in which I directed them; they have made for themselves a molten calf, have bowed to it, have sacrificed to it and have said, "This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt."

⁹The LORD further told Moses: I have observed this people and, see, it is a stubborn people; ¹⁰so, leave Me alone so that My indignation may flame against them and I may consume them; then I will make you into a great nation. ¹¹But Moses pleaded before the LORD his God; he said, "LORD, why does Thy indignation flame against Thy people whom Thou hast brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand? ¹²Why should the Egyptians say, 'To their misfortune He brought them out, to kill them in the mountains and to sweep them from off the face of the earth.' Do turn from Thy fierce anger and change Thy purpose about Thy

q) We might wisely recognize divine influence on human minds today when benevolent discoveries and inventions are made.

r) Literally in the Hebrew, He took a breath; or enjoyed a breathing spell.

s) The mold could be made of sand or of bronze, in the form of a yearling calf, and the gold melted and poured into the cast. No doubt skilled craftsmen, rather than Aaron himself accomplished the task.

people's punishment. ¹³Turn Thy thought to Abraham, Isaac and Israel, Thy servants, to whom Thou didst swear by Thyself and to whom Thou didst say, I will make your offspring as countless as the stars of heaven and all this land that I have mentioned I will give your descendants; they shall possess it forever." ¹⁴And the LORD felt grieved regarding the punishment He had thought to apply to His people.^t ¹⁵Moses then turned and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, both tablets written on both sides; ¹⁶the work of God they were; the writing was God's writing engraved upon the tablets. ¹⁷As Joshua heard the noise of the shouting people, he said to Moses, "A sound of war in the camp." ¹⁸But he said, "It sounds neither as a shout of victory nor as a cry of defeat; I am hearing the sound of singing." ¹⁹Then as he came close to the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses' anger grew hot; he flung the tablets from his hands and broke them at the base of the mountain. ²⁰He took the calf they had made, committed it to the flames and ground it to powder, which he scattered on the water and made the Israelites drink^u of it.

²¹Moses said to Aaron, "What has this people done to you that you have saddled them with so great a sin?" ²²Aaron replied, "Let not my master's anger blaze! You know this people and their wickedness. ²³They said to me, 'Make us gods to go ahead of us, for this man Moses, who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we have no idea what happened to him.' ²⁴So I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, let him pluck it off.' They gave it to me; I cast it into the fire, and out came this calf."

²⁵When Moses saw that the people were unrestrained — for Aaron had allowed them to cast off restraint until their foes would deride them"—²⁶Moses stationed himself at the camp entrance and said, "To me, whoever sides with the LORD!" All the Levites then joined him, ²⁷and he told them, "Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, Gird on your sword, each of you, move back and forth from gate to gate in the camp and each one slay his brother, his neighbor and his kin."^w

²⁸The Levites carried out Moses' order and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. ²⁹Moses said,^x "You are installed today for the LORD, because each was against his son and against his brother so that today He may bestow on you a blessing." ³⁰Next day Moses told the people, "You have committed an enormous sin. Now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can obtain forgiveness for your sin."

³¹So Moses went back to the LORD and said, "Oh, please! this people has sinned an enormous sin; they have made for themselves a god of gold. ³²And yet, if Thou wilt forgive their sin . . . and if not, please blot me out of Thy book which Thou hast written."^y ³³The LORD said to Moses: Whoever has sinned against Me, him will I blot out of My book. ³⁴Go now and lead the people where I have told you. Mind you, My Angel will go ahead of you. However, in My time of retribution I will punish them for their sin. ³⁵And the LORD plagued the people because they were the makers of the calf which Aaron fashioned.

33 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:
Move on up there, you and the people you have brought up from the land of Egypt; go up to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob, saying, "To your offspring I will give it." ²I will send an angel before you — and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the

t) Jonah 3:10 is of similar import, but the Ninevites had shown humble repentance.

u) It would seem that pedestal and other appurtenances of the shrine were burned and the golden calf itself ground to powder.

v) Idolatry involves not only the worship of material things, but it is almost invariably accompanied with sexual immoralities. w) Almost certainly those who were immorally indulging.

x) Being of the same tribe with Moses may have influenced the Levites, but even so their siding with God against idolatry marked them best fitted for the religious ministries, not as priests, but as assistants to the priests and as teachers of the people.

y) Somewhat prophetic of the vicarious sacrifice of Christ.

Perizzites and the Jebusites—³to a land flowing with milk and honey. For I shall not go up in your midst, because you are a stubborn people; I might destroy you on the way.

⁴When the people heard this adverse message, they felt sorry; no one wore his ornaments; ⁵for the LORD had told Moses to say to the Israelites, "You stubborn people, if I went up in your midst for but a moment I would destroy you; so lay off your ornaments to have Me know what to do with you."² ⁶The Israelites therefore stripped themselves of their ornaments at Mount Horeb.

⁷Moses regularly pitched the tabernacle outside the camp at some distance from it and called it the meeting tent. Anyone who sought the LORD^a would go out to the meeting tent outside the camp. ⁸Whenever Moses went to the tent, all the people would rise and everyone would remain standing at his tent door with eyes fixed on Moses until he entered the tent. ⁹And as Moses entered the tent the cloudy column would come down and stand at the entrance of the tent, where He would converse with Moses. ¹⁰Then all the people would see the column of cloud standing at the tabernacle^b entrance and would rise to worship, each at his tent door, ¹¹and the LORD would speak to Moses face to face as a man speaks to his friend. Then he went back to the camp, but his assistant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the tabernacle.

¹²Moses said to the LORD, "Consider! Thou art saying to me, 'Lead this people up'; but Thou hast not made known to me whom Thou wilt send with me. Yet, Thou hast said, 'I know you personally' and, 'You have found favor with Me, too.' ¹³Now, then, I pray, if I have found favor with Thee, please do make Thy ways clear to me so that I may understand Thee^c and always find favor with Thee. Consider also that this nation is Thy people."¹⁴ Shall I Myself, said He, go along and put you at ease? ¹⁵"If Thou Thyself," said he, "art not going, then do not bring us up there. ¹⁶For how shall it be known that I have found favor with Thee, unless Thou goest with us? Then we shall be distinguished, I and Thy people, from all the nations on the face of the earth." ¹⁷The LORD said to Moses: I will do what you have mentioned, for you have found favor with Me; I know you by name.^d ¹⁸Then he said, "Show me Thy glory, I pray." ¹⁹He answered: I will cause all My goodness to pass before you and I will proclaim the LORD's name before you; for I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious and I will show mercy to whom I will show mercy.^e ²⁰He further said: You are not able to see My face, for no human being can see Me and live. ²¹But note! the LORD said, there is a place near Me. Take your stand on the rock ²²and as My glory passes by, I will place you in a cleft of the rock and I will cover you with My hand while I am passing by. ²³Then I will remove My hand, so you will see My back; My face shall not be seen.

34 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: HEW out for your use two stone tablets like the first and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you broke.^f ²Be ready by morning and in the morning ascend Mount Sinai; there on the mountain top present yourself to Me. ³No one must come up with you, nor shall any person be seen on the whole mountain; neither let any flocks or herds graze close to the mountain.

⁴So Moses hewed two stone tablets similar to the first, rose early in the

2) God tested their willingness to obey even when that meant deprivation.

a) Either to seek divine counsel, or for communion with God.

b) Since the name "tabernacle" is most familiar to every devout Bible reader, we plan to use it often for the sanctuary that was erected in the desert, remembering that meeting tent, tent and Dwelling relate to the same structure.

c) A prayer which we may well use and practice in our work and in our worship.

d) Intimately.

e) Grace and mercy are undeserved; we have no claim to them, except as it has pleased God to promise and to grant them.

f) In this life God is so willing to give His offspring a second chance.

morning and ascended Mount Sinai as the LORD had ordered him, taking the two stone tablets in his hand. ⁵Then the LORD descended in a cloud and took His stand with him there, as he called on the name of the LORD. ⁶The LORD passed in front of him, and declared: The LORD, Jehovah, God, is compassionate and kind, slow to anger and abounding in mercy and faithfulness, ⁷keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression and sin, but not at all acquitting the guilty; visiting the sins of fathers on their children and on their grandchildren to the third and fourth generation.⁵

⁸Moses quickly bowed to the ground and worshiped. ⁹He said, "If I have found favor with Thee, O LORD, then let the LORD, I pray, go among us; for we are a stiffnecked people. Forgive our iniquity and our sin and take us for Thine own."

¹⁰Then He said: Look! I am making a Covenant. Before all your people I will work such wonders as have never been wrought anywhere on earth among any nation. All the people among whom you are, shall see the work of the LORD, for what I am about to do with you inspires awe. ¹¹Mark well what I am commanding you today. Understand that I am about to drive out of your way the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; ¹²so practice great care to make no covenant with the natives of the land you are going to enter, lest they become a snare in your midst. ¹³Instead you must break down their altars, smash their images and cut down their sacred trees.^h ¹⁴For you shall not worship another god, because the LORD, whose name is Ardent, is a God who brooks no rival.ⁱ ¹⁵If you make a covenant with the natives of the land, while they run wantonly after their gods and sacrifice to their gods, they will invite you to eat of their sacrifice. ¹⁶When you also marry your sons to their daughters, who go wantonly after their gods, they will lead your sons into adultery after their gods.^j ¹⁷Cast no molten gods for yourself.

¹⁸Observe the feast of unleavened bread; for seven days eat unleavened bread as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month Abib; for in Abib you came out of Egypt. ¹⁹Every first-born^k belongs to Me; including every male firstling of your livestock, of cow or sheep; ²⁰but redeem the firstling of a donkey with a lamb; or, if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem every first-born of your sons. None shall appear before Me empty-handed.

²¹Labor six days and rest on the seventh day; even in plowing and in harvest time have your rest.

²²Observe also the feast of weeks at the first harvesting of wheat, and the feast of ingathering at the end of the year.¹ ²³Thrice a year all your males shall appear before the LORD, the God of Israel; ²⁴for I will dispossess nations before you and will enlarge your frontiers. None shall covet your land while you appear before the LORD your God thrice a year.

²⁵Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to Me together with leavened bread; neither shall the Passover sacrifice be left overnight.

²⁶Bring your earliest first fruits to the house of the LORD your God.

Boil no kid in its mother's milk.

²⁷The LORD said to Moses: Write these words for your use, because the Covenant which I made with you and with Israel is based on these words.

²⁸He remained there with the LORD forty days and forty nights without eating or drinking. And he wrote the words of the Covenant, the Ten Commandments on the tablets.

²⁹As Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, he was not aware that his facial skin glowed, because he had been speaking with

¹) God's statement about Himself. These words are weighty enough to be memorized.

²) Tree stumps carved after male and female organs. ⁱ) No creature can equal its Creator.

^h) The Hebrew nation was married to Jehovah, so idolatry was adultery.

^k) Every (first) opener of the womb. ¹) Passover, Pentecost and Tabernacles or Booths.

Him;^m ³⁰but Aaron and all the Israelites looked at Moses and saw that his facial skin had become shining, and they were afraid to approach him. ³¹So Moses called out to them and Aaron and all the leaders of the gathering came back to him and Moses spoke to them. ³²Afterward all the Israelites came near and he charged them with all that the LORD had said to him on Mount Sinai.

³³When Moses was through speaking to them, he covered his face with a veil; ³⁴but whenever Moses entered the LORD's presence to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out, and he would come out to tell the Israelites the given orders. ³⁵The Israelites would see that the skin of Moses' face shone, so Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

35 MOSES CONVENED THE ENTIRE Israelite congregation and told them, "These are the orders the LORD has commanded you to obey. ²There are six days for work, but the seventh day shall be a sacred day to you, a Sabbath of impressive rest, related to the LORD. Whoever works in it shall be executed. ³Kindle no fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day."ⁿ screen, ¹³the table with its poles and its utensils, the showbread, ¹⁴the lampstand for illuminating, its lamps and the oil for light, ¹⁵the incense altar and its poles, the anointing oil, the perfumed incense, the curtain for the entrance to the tabernacle, ¹⁶the altar for burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils, the wash basin and its base, ¹⁷the hangings of the court, its pillars and their sockets, the screen for the court gate, ¹⁸the pegs and the pins for the court with their cords; ¹⁹the woven garments for service in the sanctuary, the sacred garments for Aaron, the priest, and the garments of his sons to officiate as priests."^p

⁴Moses said to the assembled Israelites, "This is what the LORD orders: ⁵Lay aside from what is yours a contribution to the LORD. Every one of a mind to volunteer it, may bring it, an offering to the LORD: gold, silver and bronze; ⁶blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen; goats' hair ⁷and red-dyed ram skins, badger skins, acacia wood, ⁸oil for the lights, spices for the anointing oil and for the incense perfumes, ⁹onyx stones and stones to set in the upper garment^o and on the breastplate.

¹⁰"Let every skillful worker come and make everything the LORD has ordered —¹¹the tabernacle, its tent, its coverings, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars and their sockets, ¹²the Ark and its poles, the mercy seat, the veil for a

²⁰The whole assembly of the Israelites then came away from Moses ²¹and those who felt enthused and of good will brought a contribution to the LORD for the construction of the tabernacle for all its equipment and for the sacred garments. ²²Both men and women, all of willing mind, came and brought in clasps, noserings, earrings, necklaces and all sorts of gold jewelry — every donor waving a gold wave offering to the LORD. ²³And everyone who had blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, red-dyed ram skins, or badger skins, brought them. ²⁴Every one in position to bring silver or bronze presented it as a contribution to the LORD so each one, who had acacia wood suitable for any service, brought it. ²⁵Every skilled woman, too, spun with her hands and delivered the yarn she had spun, blue, purple, scarlet material and fine linen, ²⁶and all the women of superior skill spun goats' hair.

²⁷The rulers brought onyx stones and stones for setting in the ephod and in the breastplate; ²⁸also the spices and the oil for the light and for the anointing oil and the perfumed incense. ²⁹The Israelites brought voluntary offerings to the LORD; every willing-minded man and woman, as their hearts prompted them toward service, brought what the LORD through Moses had ordered.^q m) Reflection of divine presence which in a measure may be ours.

³⁰Moses told the Israelites, "Take

n) So frequently reiterated, because so vital for spiritual life and growth. o) The ephod.

p) As we owe our skill to divine gifts we are using, He expects us to serve Him with our skill.

q) Tithing was by divine order; these gifts were brought voluntarily upon divine request.

notice! The LORD has called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah ³¹and has filled him with the Spirit of God in skill, intelligence and knowledge to execute all craftwork, ³²to design artistic work in gold, silver and bronze, ³³to cut stones for settings, to do wood-carving, to design workmanship of every kind; ³⁴also to instruct others. Both him and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, ³⁵has He filled with a keen mind to do all sorts of smithing, engraving and designing decorative work in blue, in purple, in scarlet and in fine linen, in weaving, doing artistically whatever is required."^r

36 "BEZALEEL AND AHOIAB ARE to do the work, together with every skilled person to whom the LORD has given dexterity and understanding to know how to accomplish every task for the sanctuary service in agreement with the LORD's orders."

²So Moses summoned Bezaleel, Aholiab and every skilled artisan whom the LORD had granted skill, every one with enough ambition to report for work. They received from Moses all the contributions which the Israelites had brought for the work of putting the sanctuary into operation. Yet the people kept on bringing him voluntary contributions every morning ⁴until the killed artisans, who were working on the sanctuary, all left what they were making ⁵and said to Moses, "The people are bringing far more than is needed for the construction work which he LORD ordered to have done." ⁶So Moses issued an order to be broadcast over the entire camp, "Let neither man nor woman produce any more material to contribute to the sanctuary." Thus were the people restrained from contributing; ⁷for the material on hand sufficed for all the constructive work to be done; in fact, there was too much.

⁸The skilled among the workers on the construction of the tabernacle made the curtains of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet with designs of cherubs woven in. ⁹The length of each curtain was forty-two feet and the width six feet, all curtains being the same size. ¹⁰The five curtains were joined together and so were the other five. ¹¹They made blue loops on the edge of the end curtain in the one set for coupling and the same on the edge of the end curtain in the other set; ¹²fifty loops to the one curtain and fifty loops to the other curtain at the coupling edge, the loops opposite each other. ¹³So they made fifty gold clasps and joined the curtains into one with the clasps to make the tabernacle a unit.

¹⁴They also made goats'-hair curtains for a covering^a over the tabernacle, eleven of them, ¹⁵each curtain forty-five by six feet, all eleven the same size.^c ¹⁶They coupled five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves; ¹⁷they also made fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain for coupling and fifty loops at the edge of the other curtain, ¹⁸and fifty bronze clasps to join the covering so as to form a unit. ¹⁹Then they made for the tent a roof of red-dyed rams' skins and a cover of badger skins over that.

²⁰They made for the tabernacle upright frames of acacia boards, ²¹fifteen feet long by 2¼ feet wide. ²²Each frame had two clutches, connected with each other and all the frames for the tabernacle were fashioned alike. ²³They made twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle ²⁴with forty silver sockets underneath the twenty boards, two sockets under each board for its two clutches. ²⁵For the other side of the tabernacle, the north side, they also made twenty boards ²⁶and their forty silver sockets, two sockets under each frame.

²⁷For the west side of the tabernacle they made six frames, ²⁸and two frames for the rear corners of the tabernacle.

^a) For working in wood and in metals God filled men with His Spirit. Through the ages inventors of helpful or beautiful devices might trace their inspiration back to the Fountain of all wisdom.

^b) Literally, a tent, since a tent is a covering, and the material was what would be used for a tent; so was the form as it protected the first construction; and it thus formed part of the tabernacle; but it was not in itself a tent as we think of it, or a tabernacle.

^c) The 45 feet stretched along a whole side, the 11 curtains formed part of north, south and west sides.

²⁰They were linked at the bottom and similarly linked on top with one ring; so they arranged them both at both corners. ³⁰There were, then, eight frames and sixteen sockets, two sockets under each frame.

³¹The bars were made of acacia wood, ³²five for the frames on one side and five for the frames on the other side of the tabernacle; also five bars for the west side. ³³The middle bar was made to run along the center of the frames from end to end. ³⁴The frames were overlaid with gold and the rings to hold the bars were made of gold, while the bars, too, were overlaid with gold.

³⁵They made a veil of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen, with cherubs artistically designed. ³⁶For it they made four pillars of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold; also golden hooks, and they cast four silver sockets for them.

³⁷For the entrance into the tabernacle they made a veil of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen, decorative work, ³⁸and its five pillars with their hooks. Their tops and their bands they overlaid with gold and their sockets they made of bronze.

37 BEZALEEL MADE THE ARK^u OF acacia wood, $3\frac{3}{4}$ feet long, $2\frac{1}{4}$ feet wide and $2\frac{1}{4}$ feet high. ²He overlaid it with pure gold inside and out and ran a gold molding around it. ³He cast four gold rings for it on its four lower corners, two rings on one side and two on the other ⁴and made poles of acacia wood which he overlaid with gold. ⁵He thrust the poles into the rings on the sides of the Ark for carrying the Ark. ⁶The mercy seat, $3\frac{3}{4}$ feet long and $2\frac{1}{4}$ feet wide, he made of pure gold. ⁷On the two ends of the mercy seat he placed two cherubim made of beaten work, ⁸one cherub at this end and one at that end. He made the cherubs of one piece with the mercy covering from out its two ends. ⁹The cherubim spread their wings aloft, overshadowing the mercy covering; their faces toward each other and both cherubim's eyes on the mercy seat.

¹⁰The table^v he made of acacia wood, a yard long, half a yard wide and $2\frac{1}{4}$ feet high; ¹¹he overlaid it with pure gold, ran a gold molding around it, ¹²made a four-inch border all around, and ran a gold molding around the border. ¹³He also cast four gold rings for it and fastened the rings to the four lower corners at the four legs ¹⁴close to the border to hold the poles for carrying the table. ¹⁵He made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table and overlaid them with gold. ¹⁶The table ware, the plates, the bowls, the cups, the pitchers for pouring libations they made of pure gold.

¹⁷The lampstand he made of pure, beaten gold, base and shaft and cups, each with calyx and petals, all of one piece^w. ¹⁸Six branches came out of its sides, three branches from one side of the lampstand and three from the other side. ¹⁹Each branch bore three cups, shaped like almond blossoms with calyx and petals; so also the six branches that came out from the lampstand. ²⁰On the lampstand itself there were four almond-like cups, each with calyx and petals; ²¹also a calyx where each pair of branches met; so also the six branches extending from the shaft. ²²Calyx and branch were all of one piece with the lampstand, the whole forming a single piece of beaten gold. ²³Its seven lamps, its snuffers and its ashtrays he made of pure gold, ²⁴using 131 pounds of pure gold for it, including all its fittings.

²⁵The incense altar^x he made of acacia wood, a square 18 inches by 18 inches and a yard high; its horns were of one piece with it. ²⁶He overlaid it with pure gold—its top, its sides all around and its horns, and he ran a golden molding around it. ²⁷He further made

u) As Oholiab had worked with many helpers to build the structure, so Bezaleel did not work alone but had assistants. The Ark they built is remembered as the Ark of the Covenant and as the Ark of the Testimony, or simply, thinking of the Law, as the Testimony.

v) The table for showbread in the holy place.

w) No candlesticks, which were not yet invented; neither would they serve, for wicks must draw oil from the central bowl.

x) Placed in the holy place, near the veil but belonging to the Holy of Holies.

two gold rings for it under the molding on the two opposite corners, to hold the poles for carrying it. ²⁸The poles he made of acacia wood, overlaying them with gold. ²⁹He also prepared by the compounder's art the sacred anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense.

38 THE ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING he made of acacia wood, an altar 7½ feet square, 4½ feet high; ²its horns, of one piece with it, were constructed on its four corners, and he overlaid it with bronze. ³He made all the utensils of the altar, the ash pans, the shovels, the bowls for sacrifice, the forks and the fire pans, all its utensils, of bronze. ⁴He made a bronze grate of network for the altar underneath the all-around ledge, reaching halfway up. ⁵He cast four rings at the four corners of the bronze grating to hold the poles, ⁶which he made of acacia wood and overlaid with bronze. ⁷The poles he thrust through the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it. The altar he made concave with boards.

⁸The wash basin and its base he made of bronze, composed of mirrors that were contributed by the women who assembled for service at the entrance of the meeting tent.^y

⁹Then he made the courtyard. For the south side there were hangings for the court of fine twined linen stretching 50 yards, ¹⁰held up by 20 columns on their 20 bronze sockets, the hooks and the bands being of silver. ¹¹On the north side, too, 50 yards of hangings on their 20 columns and their 20 bronze sockets, their hooks and bands of silver. ¹²On the west side 25 yards of hangings held by 10 columns and their sockets, the hooks and the bands of the columns of silver. ¹³For the 25 yards of the east side^z ¹⁴there were 7½ yards of hangings on each side of the entrance on their three columns with sockets; ¹⁶the same on both sides of the court gate. ¹⁶All the hangings of the court were of fine, twined linen, ¹⁷with the sockets for the columns of bronze, and the hooks and bands for the columns were of silver; their tops were overlaid with silver and all the columns of the court were filleted with silver.

¹⁸For the court gate the hanging was embroidery of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen, 30 yards long and 2½ yards high, corresponding to the hangings of the court. ¹⁹Their four columns had four bronze sockets; while their hooks, their platings on top, and their fillets were of silver. ²⁰The pegs for the Dwelling and for the surrounding courtyard were of bronze.

²¹These are the numbered articles for the Dwelling, the tabernacle of Testimony, as they were counted by order of Moses, a service rendered by the Levites under direction of Ithamar, the son of Aaron, the priest. ²²Bezaleel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that the Lord had commanded Moses, ²³and with him worked Aholiab, son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, a skilful artisan, an embroiderer in blue, in purple, and scarlet material and in fine linen.

²⁴The total amount of gold used for the building and furnishings of the sanctuary was around 3,800 pounds^a in weight by the sanctuary scales, all of it contributed; ²⁵while the weight of silver by sanctuary standards paid by the registered citizens ²⁶was about 12,000 pounds,^b around 65 cents per man for everyone registered from 20 years up, 603,550^c men. ²⁷The casting of the sockets for the sanctuary and the veil required 11,600 pounds of silver, 116 pounds for each socket, ²⁸and from the remaining 400 pounds of silver he made the hooks for the columns, overlaid their tops and joined them.

²⁹The bronze that was donated came

y) "Hoping women" some have it, remembering Hannah, who prayed for a son.

z) As the tabernacle was always placed to face east, there always were the same south, north and west sides. The width of the entrance lessened the lengths of the hangings.

a) $877,300. b) $201,000.

c) No money had been coined; it had to be weighed. Actual values of gold and silver can be estimated only approximately. Classically, a talent of gold equaled $30,000 and a talent of silver $2,000; a shekel of gold $10 and a shekel of silver 65 cents. One standard of values remains — a day's wages and what can be bought for it; but monetary wages are not mentioned in our early Scriptures.

to nearly three tons, ³⁰from which he made the sockets for the entrance to the meeting tent, the bronze altar and its bronze grate, all the utensils for the altar, ³¹the sockets for the courtyard all around, the sockets for the court gate, all the pegs for the Dwelling and all the pegs for the surrounding court.

39 OF THE BLUE, PURPLE AND scarlet material they wove garments for ministering in the sanctuary, especially the sacred garments for Aaron, as the LORD had ordered Moses. ²The ephod they made of gold, blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen. ³They beat the gold into thin plates, then cut those into threads to work it artistically in between the blue, the purple, the scarlet and the fine twined linen. ⁴They made shoulder straps for it to join it; ^d it was coupled at its two ends. ⁵The artistic sash, to hold it around the waist, was similar of gold, blue, purple and scarlet material, and fine twined linen, as the LORD had ordered Moses. ⁶The prepared onyx stones, engraved with the names of Israel's sons, were set in plaited gold-work ⁷and he put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod—stones to remind the Israelites, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

⁸The breastplate, like the ephod, he wrought skilfully of gold; blue, purple, scarlet material and fine twined linen, ⁹nine inches square and doubled over. ¹⁰In it they set four rows of precious stones—the first row sardius, topaz and emerald; ¹¹the next row carbuncle, sapphire and jasper, ¹²the third row amber, agate and amethyst, ¹³and the fourth row chrysolite, onyx and beryl, all set in gold enclosures. ¹⁴In accordance with the names of Israel's sons there were twelve stones with corresponding names of the twelve tribes, engraved as on a seal.

¹⁵To the breastplate they attached

twined chains, cordage work of pure gold; ¹⁶also two gold clasps and two gold rings. The two rings they fastened to the two ends of the breastplate ¹⁷and they passed the two chains of twined gold through the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. ¹⁸The other two ends of the two chains they fastened¹ to the clasps and attached them to the shoulder straps of the ephod, on the front. ¹⁹They made two more rings of gold to fasten to the lower ends of the breastplate on the inner side next to the ephod, ²⁰and two gold rings they fastened to the two shoulder straps of the ephod in front on the inner side and well above the artistic sash. ²¹Then they fastened the breastplate and its rings with a blue ribbon, to stay above the skilfully wrought girdle and to keep the breastplate from swinging loose from the ephod, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

²²The robe to go with the ephod² was weaver's work, all blue, ²³with an opening in the top center like the neck of a coat of mail, reinforced all around to keep it from fraying. ²⁴On the hems of the robe they worked pomegranate designs of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen. ²⁵Between the pomegranates they hung bells of pure gold, ²⁶alternating bell and pomegranate all the way around, for use in the service as the LORD had ordered Moses.

²⁷The tunics for Aaron and his sons ²⁸they made of fine woven linen,⁴ the turban and the lovely caps of fine linen, the trunks of fine twined linen, ²⁹the sash of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet embroidery, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

³⁰The plate of the sacred diadem they wrought of pure gold, engraven like a seal with the words: HOLY TO THE LORD. ³¹They tied a blue ribbon to it, to fasten it to the turban above, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

³²So the work on the tabernacle, the

d) One stone on each shoulder, according to divine suggestion [Ex. 28:9,12], large enough to have six names on each. The front and back parts of the ephod were brought together with the aid of these jewels, the shoulder straps being fastened there.

e) The ephod was a garment but hardly a robe; its length and form were more vestlike, but buttoned on the shoulders and not in front. The robe, sleeveless, was under the ephod and came down to the ankles.

f) The tunic is the under-garment usually worn next to the skin and the only remaining garment for the worker, who takes off the robe or mantle for manual labor.

meeting tent, was completed; the Israelites had done everything according to the LORD's directions to Moses. ³³They brought Moses the Dwelling—the tent and all its furnishings—its clasps, its frames, its columns and their sockets, ³⁴the coverings of red-dyed ram skins, badger skins and the covering veil; ³⁵the Ark of the Testimony, its poles and the mercy seat, ³⁶the table with its utensils and the showbread, ³⁷the pure lampstand with its arrangement of lamps and all its utensils, the oil for light, ³⁸the golden altar, the anointing oil and the perfumed incense, the veil for the tabernacle entrance, ³⁹the bronze altar with its bronze grate, its poles and its tools, the wash basin and its base, ⁴⁰the hangings of the courtyard, its columns and sockets, the hangings for the court gate, its cords and pegs and all needed articles for the service of the tabernacle — the meeting tent — ⁴¹the woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary, the sacred garments for Aaron, the priest, and the garments for his sons to serve as priests. ⁴²The children of Israel did everything in full agreement with the LORD's orders to Moses. ⁴³As Moses inspected the work, he saw they had done it just as the LORD had commanded. Then Moses blessed them.

40 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²ON the first day of the first month erect the Dwelling, the meeting tent; ³there deposit the Ark of Testimony and screen the Ark with the veil. ⁴Then bring in the table and arrange what belongs on it; bring in the lampstand, too, and set its lamps aright. ⁵Place the golden altar of incense in front of the Ark of Testimony^h and hang the curtain of the tabernacle door. ⁶Set up the altar of burnt-offering in front of the tabernacle,ⁱ the meeting tent ⁷and place the wash basin between the meeting tent and the altar, putting water in it. ⁸Fence in the courtyard all around and hang the curtain at the court entrance.

⁹Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle with everything in it; dedicate^j it with all its furnishings and it shall become holy. ¹⁰Anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; dedicate the altar and it shall become the supremely holy altar.^k ¹¹Anoint the wash basin, too, with its base and dedicate it. ¹²Then lead Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the meeting tent; wash them with water ¹³and dress Aaron in the sacred garments. Anoint him and consecrate him to serve Me in the priestly office. ¹⁴Then lead his sons near, dress them in tunics ¹⁵and anoint them as you anointed their father to serve Me in the priestly office; their anointing will be for their unending priesthood through their successive generations.

¹⁶So Moses did; he did everything as the LORD had ordered him. ¹⁷On the first day of the first month of the second year^l the tabernacle was erected; ¹⁸Moses raised the Dwelling, put down the sockets, set up the frames, placed the bars in position and erected the columns. ¹⁹He spread the tent cover over the Dwelling and put the roof on top of it, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

²⁰He deposited the Testimony^m inside the Ark, put the poles on the Ark, set the mercy seat over the Ark ²¹and brought the Ark inside the tabernacle. He then hung the veil as a curtain to screen off the Ark of Testimony, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

²²The table he placed inside the meeting tent on the north side of the Dwelling, outside the veil, ²³arranging upon it the bread of the LORD's presence, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

²⁴Moses also set the lampstand inside the meeting tent on the south side of the Dwelling opposite the table ²⁵and arranged the lamps before the LORD as the LORD had ordered Moses.

g) Thus setting apart the Holy of Holies.

h) But not inside the Holy of Holies because it required daily incense, while the high priest must enter the Holy of Holies only once a year.

i) As the sanctuary faced east, the altar stood east of the entrance to the tabernacle and west of the courtyard gate. j) In its secondary meaning — set apart to God; dedicated.

k) Rendering many forms of sacrificial service. The golden altar near the inner veil with its fragrant incense remained most holy.

l) Late March, 1445, B.C. is a probable date. m) The two tablets of the Law.

²⁶The golden altar he established in the meeting tent in front of the veil ²⁷and burned on it fragrant incense, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

²⁸He hung the curtain at the tabernacle entrance ²⁹and placed the altar of burnt-offering by the entrance of the Dwelling, the meeting tent, offering on it the burnt offering and the cereal offering, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

³⁰The wash basin he put between the meeting tent and the altar, putting water in it for washing; ³¹there Moses and Aaron as well as his sons regularly washed their hands and their feet. ³²They washed before entering the meeting tent and before they approached the altar, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

³³He fenced the courtyard around the Dwelling and the altar and hung the curtain at the court entrance. Thus Moses completed the work.

³⁴The cloud then covered the meeting tent and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle; ³⁵Moses was unable to enter the meeting tent because the cloud rested upon it and the glory of the LORD filled the Dwelling.

³⁶Whenever the cloud arose from the Dwelling the children of Israel would move ahead on their trek; ³⁷but when the cloud did not lift, they would not move on until the day when it lifted. ³⁸For the cloud of the LORD rested on the tabernacle by day and in it there was fire by night for the whole house of Israel during all their travels.

LEVITICUS^a

IT OF MEETING
oses^b ²and said ildren of Israel;
e of you would ring, then you ng of livestock
the flock. ³In burnt sacrifice
c shall bring a e shall present neeting tent so the LORD. ⁴He
he head of the his behalf it ake atonement kill the bullock and the priests, the blood and nd against the h is by the en-
. ⁶He shall skin
cut it into por-of Aaron the
upon the altar the fire. ⁸The
all also arrange and the fat on es on the altar and its legs he and the priest urnt sacrifice, a fragrance to the ¹⁰If his offering is from the flock, from sheep or from goats for a burnt sacrifice, then he shall present a flawless male,^e ¹¹which he shall kill on the north side of the altar in the presence of the LORD. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood all around upon the altar. ¹²He shall then cut it into portions with its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange them upon the wood that is on the altar fire; ¹³but he shall wash the intestines and the legs with water and the priest shall bring it all and burn it as incense upon the altar. It is a burnt sacrifice, a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.

¹⁴In case his burnt offering to the LORD is of birds, then he shall present his offering of turtle doves or of young pigeons. ¹⁵The priest shall take it to the altar, wring off its head and burn it upon the altar; its blood shall be squeezed out upon the side of the altar. ¹⁶He shall remove its crop and feathers and throw them on the ash-heap just east of the altar. ¹⁷He shall tear it by its wings without severing those and the priest shall burn it upon the altar on top of the wood that is on the altar fire; it is a burnt sacrifice, a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.^f

^apecially priests, at Mt. Sinai, between May, 1446, and May, 1445, B.C.
^bin these 27 chapters of God speaking to Moses. In Exodus God spoke peaks from the Holy of Holies in the Dwelling from above the mercy int; for between Jehovah and Israel the Covenant had been made.
ctim that represents him, as Christ represented us on the cross.
blood no remission of sins.
rfect as earthly creatures can be, for they are prophetic of our perfect ur perfect God.
uch as Mary and Joseph brought to the temple with the Child Jesus g as the other.

2 WHEN A PERSON PRESENTS A FOOD offering to the LORD, then his offering shall consist of fine flour. He shall pour oil on it, add incense to it ²and present it to the priests, the sons of Aaron, who shall take out a handful of the fine flour and oil, together with all its incense, and the priest shall burn it on the altar as a memorial incense, a fire offering, a fragrance agreeable to the LORD. ³The remainder of the food offering is for Aaron and for his sons, the holiest portion of the fire offerings to the LORD.⁵

⁴When you present a food offering baked in the oven,^h it shall consist of unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or of thin unleavened cakes overspread with oil. ⁵If your gift is a food offering from the griddle, then it shall be composed of unleavenedⁱ bread mixed with oil. ⁶You shall divide it into portions and pour oil on them; it is a food offering. ⁷But if your gift is a food offering from the roaster, then it shall be of fine flour prepared with oil. ⁸Bring the food offering composed of these things for the LORD to the priest, ⁹who shall take up from the food offering a memorial portion and burn it on the altar, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ¹⁰The remainder of the food offering is for Aaron and for his sons, the most holy of the fire offerings to the LORD.

¹¹No food offering which you present to the LORD shall be prepared with leaven, for you must never burn leaven or honey in any fire offering to the LORD. ¹²You may bring them as an offering from the first fruits for the LORD, but not for a pleasing fragrance upon the altar.^j ¹³Season your every food offering with salt; do not omit the Covenant salt of your God from your food offering. Offer salt with every offering.*

¹⁴If you bring the LORD a food offering of first fruits, present roasted heads of grain, broken to grits from fresh grain, ¹⁵add oil to it and spread incense over it; it is a food offering. ¹⁶The priest shall burn a portion of the broken grain and of the oil with the incense;^l it is a fire offering to the LORD.

3 IF THE GIFT IS A PEACE OFFERING and he offers it from the herd, whether male or female, he must offer a flawless animal before the LORD.^m ²He shall lay his hand on the head of his sacrifice and kill it at the entrance of the meeting tent; Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood all around upon the altar.ⁿ ³Of the peace offering to the LORD with fire he shall offer the fat that covers the intestines and all the fat that lies on the intestines; ⁴also both kidneys and the fat on them at the loins and the lobe of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys. ⁵The sons of Aaron shall kindle it upon the altar over the burnt offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.^o

⁶If his present is from the flock for a peace offering to the LORD, then he shall bring a flawless animal, either male or female. ⁷If he presents a lamb^p for his offering, ⁸then to offer it before the LORD he shall lay his hand on the head of his sacrifice and kill it in front of the meeting tent and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around upon the altar. ⁹From the peace offering made with fire to the LORD he shall present its fat,^q the whole fat tail which he should cut off close to

g) Fine flour means white flour, which might be offered as unleavened bread or as cakes or as wafers. A food offering might also consist of roasted heads of grain, always with salt, to which sometimes olive oil was added. Often white flour went with animal sacrifices. Only from the poorest was it accepted as a sin offering or as a trespass offering, because of the basic blood requirement.

h) The burnt offering symbolized dedication of life, such as was perfected in our LORD's sacrifice on the Cross. As food is the product of God's earth and man's labor, it is a thank offering, acknowledging God's chief part in the process. i) Leaven, for fermentation, can be symbolic of sin.

j) The burning of leaven or of honey produces no agreeable fragrance.

k) Salt preserves from corruption; it helps edibles to last; it is a token of a lasting Covenant.

l) Incense is symbolic of hearty, voluntary dedication.

m) God is worthy of our best in our service, our gifts and ourselves.

n) Blood for life; altar for dedication; all to the glory of God. Better than Abel's blood [Heb. 12:24], which accused of murder; this speaks forgiveness in view of the coming Redeemer.

o) As through Christ our lives may please God.

p) Usually a yearling; always prophetic of "The Lamb of God."

q) The animal's fat betokens abundant life; lean animals' bodies were not rich enough.

the backbone; also the fat that covers the intestines and all the fat that lies on the intestines; ¹⁰the two kidneys and the fat on them at the loins and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys. ¹¹The priest shall burn this on the altar, a food offering by fire for the LORD.

¹²If his present is a goat, he shall, to offer it before the LORD, ¹³lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the meeting tent and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar. ¹⁴From it he shall bring his gift, an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the intestines, all the fat that lies on the intestines, ¹⁵also the two kidneys, the fat on them at the loins and the lobes of the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys. ¹⁶The priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, a burnt offering of food, an agreeable fragrance; all the fat is the LORD's. ¹⁷Let this be an everlasting ordinance for your successive generations wherever you live, to eat no fat or blood whatever.

4 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²TELL the Israelites: When a person sins ignorantly against any of the LORD's commandments and acts contrary to any of them, ³if the anointed priest has sinned and thus involved the people in guilt, then he shall offer for his sin which he has committed a flawless young bull as a sin offering to the LORD. ⁴He shall bring the bullock to the entrance of the meeting tent before the LORD, shall lay his hand on the bullock's head and slaughter the young bull before the LORD. ⁵The anointed priest shall take some of the young bull's blood and bring it to the meeting tent. ⁶The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and shall sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the veil of the holy place. ⁷The priest shall also apply some of the blood to the horns of the incense altar that stands before the LORD within the meeting tent. All the remaining blood he shall pour at the foot of the altar of burnt offering that stands by the entrance of the meeting tent. ⁸All the fat of the sin offering bullock he shall remove from it, the fat that covers the intestines, ⁹the two kidneys and the fat on them at the loins and the lobe of the liver, to be removed with the kidneys, ¹⁰just as it is removed from the bullock of the peace offering. The priest shall burn them as incense on the altar of burnt offering, ¹¹but the bullock's hide, all its meat with its head and its legs, its intestines and its dung, ¹²the whole bullock he shall convey outside the camp to a clean place where the ashes are poured out, and shall burn it on the wood fire. It shall be burned where the ashes are poured out.

¹³If the whole congregation of Israel sins ignorantly and the affair escapes the notice of the people, if they have trespassed any of the LORD's commandments, doing what should not be done and are guilty, ¹⁴then the congregation, when the sin they have committed has become evident, shall offer for a sin offering a bullock, which they shall bring before the tabernacle of the congregation ¹⁵and the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the bullock's head before the LORD and the young bull shall be slaughtered in the LORD's presence. ¹⁶The anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood to the meeting tent ¹⁷and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil. ¹⁸Some of the blood he shall apply to the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the meeting tent and all the remaining blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering by the entrance to the meeting tent. ¹⁹He shall take away from it all its

2 Usually a bullock and young bull are identical.

3 There was a curtain over the entrance to the tabernacle, of which the first room was the holy place; but this refers to the veil between the holy place and the Holy of Holies, for the golden altar of incense is being used, which stood near the Holy of Holies and formed part of it.

5 The incense altar, of pure gold, served for the burning of pure incense to the LORD; but the fat, burned on the great altar, was incense, too, "a pleasing fragrance for the LORD."

6 The simpler name is meeting tent; another name is Tent of Testimony, for the two tablets of the Decalogue within the Ark of the Covenant; but choicest to us is the Dwelling, for God's unique presence between the cherubim above the mercy seat.

fat and shall burn it as incense on the altar. ²⁰He shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock of the sin offering, which is the proper way. The priest shall make atonement for the people and they shall be forgiven. ²¹He shall carry the bullock outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bullock. It is the sin offering for the congregation.

²²When a ruler has sinned, has ignorantly done something contrary to one of the commandments of the LORD his God, he is guilty. ²³When he grows aware of the sin he has committed he shall present for his sin offering a flawless he-goat; ²⁴he shall lay his hand upon the goat's head^v and butcher it at the place where usually they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering. ²⁵With his finger the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering and the remaining blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering. ²⁶But all the fat he shall burn as incense on the altar, similar to the fat of the peace offering. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin and it shall be forgiven him.

²⁷When one among the people of the land sins ignorantly;^w doing one of the things which God has forbidden and is thus guilty, ²⁸when his sin is brought to his attention, then he shall present as his offering for the sin which he has committed a flawless she-goat. ²⁹He shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering and butcher the sin offering at the burnt offering place. ³⁰The priest shall with his finger take some of the blood and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering and shall pour out all the remaining blood at the base of the altar. ³¹He shall remove all its fat, just as the fat is taken away from the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, an agreeable fragrance to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him and it shall be forgiven him.

³²If he presents a lamb^x as his sacrifice for a sin offering, then he shall bring a flawless female. ³³He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and shall slaughter it for a sin offering at the place where they lay the burnt offering. ³⁴With his finger the priest shall take some of the blood from the sin offering and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. All the remaining blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. ³⁵All its fat he shall remove, just as the fat is removed from the lamb of the peace offering. The priest shall burn it as incense on the altar like the offering to the LORD by fire. In this way the priest shall make atonement for him, for the sin which he committed and it shall be forgiven him.

5 WHEN A PERSON SINS BY BEING adjured to testify and has seen or has learned of the matter, but fails to inform, he assumes his iniquity.^y ²Or when a person contacts an unclean thing, either the carcass of an unclean wild beast or of unclean livestock, or of unclean creeping things, although he is unaware of it, he is unclean and guilty. ³Or if he contacts human uncleanness of whatever sort, that renders him unclean without being aware of it, when he knows, he shall be guilty.^z ⁴Or if a person unthinkingly utters an oath to do something, either evil or good, any rash oath that people swear, and he grows conscious of it, then he shall be guilty in any of these, ⁵and when a person is guilty in any of these instances he shall confess the sin he has committed ⁶and shall present his

v) As each worshiper, from Aaron down, comes with a living sacrifice and puts his hand upon its head, it meant, "This animal represents me; I have forfeited my life by sinning. I do not hold it back, it is Thine, LORD. Grateful that Thou lettest me live, I surrender myself to Thee."

w) All these offerings were brought by those sinning ignorantly; no forgiveness is offered those going knowingly and willfully against God's will.

x) The great majority offered a lamb, which was within their means, thus rendering the name "Lamb of God" so appropriate for our Redeemer.

y) In two ways the silent witness becomes guilty — he fails to warn the transgressor, who needs correction, and he fails to warn society which needs protection from the evildoer — an issue which is still much alive among us in dealing with subversives.

z) Symbolic of personal influence. "Handle pitch and you get black."

trespass offering to the LORD for the sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering, and the priest shall make atonement for his sin.

⁷However, if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall present to the LORD as his trespass offering for the sin he has committed two turtle doves or two young pigeons, one for a sin offering, the other for a burnt offering.^a ⁸He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the sin offering and shall nip the head from the neck without severing it. ⁹Some of the blood of the sin offering he shall sprinkle on the side of the altar and what remains he shall drain out on the altar base; it is a sin offering.

¹⁰He shall then prepare the second for a burnt offering according to directions.^b In this way the priest shall make atonement for him and the sin shall be forgiven him. ¹¹If he cannot afford^c two turtle doves or two young pigeons, then he shall present as his offering a tenth of a bushel of white flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil upon it and no frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. ¹²He shall bring it to the priest and the priest shall take a handful of it, a memorial portion, and shall burn it as incense on the altar like the offerings made by fire to the LORD; it is a sin offering.^d ¹³In this way the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he committed and the sin shall be forgiven him. The remainder shall be the priest's as in the food offering.

¹⁴The LORD said to Moses: ¹⁵When a person behaves unfaithfully and sins unintentionally in matters that are holy to the LORD, then to make good he shall bring the LORD a flawless ram of the flock, evaluated by you in silver coin according to sanctuary standards; it is a trespass offering. ¹⁶He must also make amends for whatever harm was done in the sacred thing, adding a fifth of its value, which he shall hand the priest. The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering and his sin shall be forgiven him.^e ¹⁷If a person sins, doing anything that the LORD has forbidden to be done, although he is ignorant of it, yet he is guilty and answerable for his iniquity.^f ¹⁸He shall bring a flawless ram of the flock as a trespass offering to the priest and the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for the mistake he made unknowingly, and it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁹It is a trespass offering; he has unquestionably trespassed against the LORD.

6 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²IF A person sins by unfaithfulness to the LORD, and he lies to his neighbor about storage, or a deposit, or a robbery, or in extortion, ³or he has found what was lost and denies it upon oath;^g in all these actions of a person in which he sins and becomes guilty, ⁴he must restore what he robbed or what he extorted, or what was entrusted to him, or the lost which he found, ⁵or anything about which he swore falsely; he must reimburse it in full and add one fifth of its value to it, giving it to whom it belongs on the day of his trespass offering. ⁶He shall present to the priest as a trespass offering to the LORD a flawless ram from the flock with its value estimated by you. ⁷The priest shall make atonement for whatever he did to render him guilty.

⁸The LORD further said to Moses: ⁹Order Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall remain on the altar's hearth all night until morning and the altar fire shall keep burning upon it. ¹⁰Then the priest shall put on his linen garment with his linen trunks on

a) Rich and poor alike in God's presence.

b) The second bird took the place of the fat in animal offerings, burned as incense to the LORD.

c) Literally, if his hand does not reach.

d) No forgiveness without blood-shedding? But God is gracious and allows exceptions - for His salvation is for the most wretched, too.

e) Trespassing, well illustrated by our signs, "NO TRESPASSING," is invading the rights of others, dealing unfairly with them, which may be done also toward God. When worship is disturbed or God is dishonored, confession and reconciliation are needed; but also among men there must be restoration, repair of damages.

f) Ignorantly we may cause great harm; it is but fair that we make good so far as in us lies.

g) A false oath calls upon God to witness to what is not true.

his loins; he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar and deposit them beside the altar. ¹¹Then stripping off these garments and putting on others, he shall carry out the ashes to a cleared spot outside the camp. ¹²The fire must be kept burning on the altar; it must not die down. The priest shall refuel it with wood every morning, arrange the burnt sacrifice upon it and on top of it the fat of the peace offering. ¹³A fire shall continually burn upon the altar; it must never go out.^h

¹⁴This is the law of the food offering: The sons of Aaron shall present it in the LORD's presence in front of the altar ¹⁵and a priest shall take a handful of it, from the flour of the food offering and of its oil; also all the incense that lies upon the food offering, and he shall burn it on the altar, an agreeable fragrance, a memorial to the LORD. ¹⁶What is left of it Aaron and his sons shall eat.ⁱ With unleavened bread it shall be eaten in a sacred place; in the court of the meeting tent they shall eat it. ¹⁷It shall not be baked with leaven;^j I have given it as their portion of My burnt offerings; it is most holy like the sin offering and the trespass offering. ¹⁸All the males among Aaron's offspring may eat it, an everlasting decree among your generations about the LORD's burnt sacrifices; whoever touches them shall be set apart.

¹⁹The LORD said to Moses: ²⁰This is the offering of Aaron and his sons which they shall offer to the LORD on the day of his anointing,^k the tenth of a bushel of white flour for a daily food offering, half of it each morning and half each evening. ²¹It shall be prepared with oil on a griddle; bring it in well baked and offer the baked pieces of the food offering as an agreeable fragrance to the LORD. ²²The priest who, of his sons,^l shall be the anointed in his place, shall do this. It is an everlasting statute to the LORD: all of it shall be burned; ²³every food offering of the priest shall be completely burned; it shall not be eaten.

²⁴The LORD said to Moses: ²⁵Tell Aaron and his sons, This is the law of the sin offering: At the place where the burnt offering is killed there too the sin offering shall be slaughtered before the LORD; it is most holy. ²⁶The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it; it shall be eaten in a sacred place, in the court of the meeting tent. ²⁷Whoever touches its flesh shall be holy,^m and if any of its blood has spattered on any garment, the piece on which it spattered shall be washed in a sacred place. ²⁸The earthen pottery in which it was cooked shall be shattered; but if it was boiled in a bronze vessel, that shall be well scoured and rinsed with water. ²⁹All males among the priests may eat of it; it is most holy.ⁿ ³⁰However, no sin offering of which the blood is taken into the meeting tent for atonement in the sanctuary shall be eaten; it shall be burned with fire.^o

7 THIS IS THE LAW OF THE TRESPASS offering; it is most holy. ²At the place where they kill the burnt sacrifice they shall kill the trespass offering and its blood they shall sprinkle all around upon the altar. ³They shall offer all its fat, the fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails; ⁴the two kidneys and the fat on them by the loins,^p also the liver-lobe, which he shall take away with the kidneys. ⁵The priest shall burn them as incense on the altar, an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a trespass offering. ⁶All the males among the priests may eat it at a sacred place; it is most holy. ⁷As with the sin offering so with the trespass offering,^q the

h) Typical of God's constant care and of Christ's undying love.

i) As reflected in I Cor. 9:13 — those who conduct the temple service make their living from the temple, which remains true today.

j) No fermentation in the holy place, for that suggests impurity.

k) Of Aaron's anointing to begin with; later the same for his successors in the high priesthood.

l) Aaron's successor, normally his oldest son, the next high priest and so for successive generations.

m) In this case "set apart," for holiness is contagious.

n) Because it is God's therefore His ministers may have it.

o) Its blood will be sprinkled on the mercy seat within the Holy of Holies; therefore the flesh, also, is too sacred for human food.

p) Fat was highly treasured, for only few could secure it; fat-tailed sheep brought high prices.

q) "Trespass" is a better name for this offering than "guilt," for the selfish, inconsiderate aspect of sin is kept in view.

same law holds for both; the priest who makes atonement through it shall have it. ⁸Besides, the priest who offers anyone's burnt offering, that priest shall have the hide of the burnt offering he has offered.^r ⁹So every food offering that is baked in the oven and everything prepared in a pan or on a griddle is for the priest who offers it; it shall be his. ¹⁰But every other food offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, shall be for all the sons of Aaron for all alike.^s ¹¹This is the law of the peace offering which one may bring to the LORD. ¹²If he presents it as a thank offering, then with the thank offering he shall bring unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and thin unleavened cakes daubed with oil; also cakes of fine flour well mixed with oil. ¹³With the cakes he shall offer leavened bread for his thank offering besides his peace sacrifice.^t ¹⁴Out of each offering he shall present a portion for a heave offering to the LORD; it shall be for the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering before the LORD. ¹⁵The flesh of the thank offering, presented as a peace offering, shall be eaten on the day it is presented; nothing of it shall be left until morning. ¹⁶If the sacrifice he offers is for a vow or is a free-will offering,^u then the day on which he presents his offering it shall be eaten and whatever is left of it shall be eaten next day. ¹⁷But what still remains of the sacrificial meal on the third day must be consumed by fire.^v ¹⁸Should any meat of the peace offering nevertheless be eaten on the third day, then the one who brought it shall not be acceptable; it will be no credit to him; it will be disgusting and the person who eats it must answer for his sin.

¹⁹The flesh that comes in contact with anything unclean shall not be eaten; it must be consumed by fire. Every clean person may eat flesh,²⁰ but the person who, while tainted with uncleanness, eats flesh of the peace offering, which belongs to the LORD, that person shall be eliminated from his people. ²¹The person who contacts anything unclean, human uncleanness or an unclean animal or unclean creeping creatures and then eats of the flesh of the peace offering, which belongs to the LORD, that person shall be eliminated from his people.^w ²²The LORD said to Moses, ²³Tell the children of Israel: Eat no fat of bullock, sheep or goat. ²⁴You may make use of the fat of an animal that died naturally or that was torn by beasts for any other purpose, but you certainly must not eat it, ²⁵for whoever eats the fat of the animal of which one offers a portion as a burnt offering to the LORD shall be eliminated from his people. ²⁶Neither shall any kind of blood be eaten whether of fowl or of animal in any of your homes. ²⁷The person who eats any blood,^x that person shall be eliminated from his people.

²⁸The LORD said to Moses: ²⁹Tell the Israelites: Whoever wants to present his peace offering as a sacrifice to the LORD must bring a portion of his peace offering as a donation; ³⁰with his own hands he shall bring to the LORD that sacrifice that is to be burned. He shall bring the fat with the breast for a wave offering to be waved before the LORD.^y ³¹The priest shall burn the fat as incense on the altar, but the breast^z shall be for Aaron and for his sons. ³²The right thigh you will give the priest as a contribution out of the peace offering. ³³Whoever among the sons of Aaron offers the blood and the fat of the peace offering shall have the right thigh for his share; ³⁴because the breast that is waved and the thigh of

r) Hides, of which sandal soles, straps and belts were made, were valuable.

s) Descendants of Aaron, unfitted for the priesthood, were included.

t) When this harmonious relationship with God has been reached, the use of leaven becomes acceptable. u) Like a free will offering so a vow is made voluntarily, hence the similarity of method.

v) In both offerings there is an element of spontaneity that should not be lost.

w) Not executed but removed, excommunicated. The marvel is that a Holy God will commune with any of us; which is made possible by our Redeemer.

x) Because blood is the animal's life and God, not man, is the Life-giver.

y) The offering was lifted toward heaven to acknowledge God as the Giver and to dedicate the offering to Him. It was also waved toward the altar, according to Rabbinical tradition, because the altar stood for God's redeeming grace.

z) Breast and thigh were considered the choicest meats, awarded the priests as the LORD's ministers.

ferred I have taken from the Israelites and given to Aaron, the priest, and to his sons by an everlasting statute from the children of Israel. ³⁵Out of the LORD's burnt offerings this is the remuneration set apart for Aaron and for his sons at their anointing when He anointed them to minister to the LORD in the priest's office. ³⁶The LORD ordered this to be given them at the time when He anointed them from among the Israelites, an everlasting statute throughout their generations. ³⁷This is the law of the burnt offering, of the food offering, of the sin offering, of the trespass offering, of the consecration offering and of the peace offering, ³⁸which the LORD ordered Moses on Mount Sinai on the day when He commanded the children of Israel to bring their offerings to the LORD in the Sinai desert.^a 8 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²TAKE with you Aaron and his sons; also the garments, the anointing oil, the bullock for the sin offering, the two rams and a basket of unleavened bread, ³and convene the whole congregation at the entrance of the meeting tent. ⁴So Moses did as the LORD had ordered him and when the congregation was assembled at the entrance of the meeting tent,^b ⁵Moses told the assembly, "This is what the LORD has commanded to be done." ⁶Moses then had Aaron and his sons come near and he washed them with water.^c ⁷He put on him^d the undergarment, girded him with the sash, dressed him with the upper garment, put on the ephod over it, which he tightened with the artistic girdle of the ephod, ⁸then put on him the breastplate and fastened to it the Urim and Thummin. ⁹He placed the turban on his head and attached the golden plate, the sacred diadem at its front, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

¹⁰Moses then took the anointing oil, anointed the tabernacle and everything it contained and consecrated it. ¹¹He also sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times,^e anointing the altar and all its utensils; also the basin and its base, to sanctify them. ¹²He then poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him. ¹³Then Moses had Aaron's sons come near. He put tunics on them, girded them with sashes and bound the turbans on them as the LORD had commanded Moses. ¹⁴He then had the bullock for the sin offering led forward and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bullock for the sin offering. ¹⁵Moses killed it, took some of the blood and applied it with his finger to the horns of the altar all around; he purified the altar. The remaining blood he poured on the base of the altar; he sanctified it to make atonement for it.^f ¹⁶Moses also took all the fat that lay upon the intestines, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them and burned them as incense on the altar. ¹⁷But the bullock with its hide, its meat and its dung he cremated outside the camp as the LORD had commanded Moses.

¹⁸He further brought forward the ram of the burnt offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the ram's head. ¹⁹Moses killed it and sprinkled the blood all around against the altar. ²⁰Moses divided the ram into sections and the head, the sections and the fat he burned as incense. ²¹The entrails and the legs Moses washed with water and he cremated the entire ram, an offering by fire for the LORD, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

²²Next he brought forward the other ram, the ram for the consecration, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. ²³Moses killed it, took some of the blood and applied

a) God wants order and tells His people how to achieve it.

b) During the seven days not only leaders of the people but the rest as well got a chance to be near the tabernacle's entrance. c) Water was typical of purifying from sin.

d) Aaron wore the white linen garments all priests wore and for his special duties the high-priestly garments over them, described fully in Ex. 28 and 39.

e) In the consecration of the altar the number seven is significant for it combines three, the divine number, with four, the human number.

f) Washing with water did not suffice for the removal of sin; the sin offering was required and after it the burnt offering, the complete consecration of the redeemed sinner. Aaron the high priest needed it for himself before he could administer it to the people.

to the tip of Aaron's right ear, to the thumb of his right hand, and to the big toe of his right foot. ²⁴Moses also had Aaron's sons come forward and he applied some of the blood to the tips of their right ears, to the thumbs of their right hands and to the big toes of their right feet. ²⁵And Moses sprinkled the blood all around against the altar.

²⁶He then took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat on the intestines, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys, the fat on the hem and the right thigh, ^{26a}and he took, out of the basket of unleavened bread before the LORD, one unleavened cake, one bread cake with oil and one thin wafer, which he placed upon the fat portions and on the right thigh. ²⁷All these together he laid in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons who waved them as a wave offering before the LORD. ²⁸Moses then took these out of their hands ^{28a}and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering; an ordination offering, an agreeable fragrance to the LORD.

²⁹Moses also took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before the LORD, the portion of the ordination ram that was his as the LORD had commanded Moses. ³⁰Moses further took some of the anointing oil and of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled it upon Aaron and on his clothes, ³¹on his sons and on his sons' clothes to consecrate Aaron and his clothes, also his sons and his sons' clothes together.

³¹Moses told Aaron and his sons, Boil the meat at the entrance of the meeting tent and eat it there with the bread in the basket of consecration offerings, as I ordered, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it. ³²What is left over of the meat and the bread you shall cremate. ³³You shall not leave the entrance of the meeting tent for seven days until your consecration period is completed, or seven days are required for your consecration. ³⁴What happened today the LORD has ordered to make atonement for you; ³⁵day and night¹ for seven days you will remain at the entrance of the meeting tent, observing the LORD's instructions, lest you die; for so I am ordered.' ³⁶So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD commanded through Moses.

9 ON THE EIGHTH DAY MOSES summoned Aaron and his sons; also the elders of Israel, ²and told Aaron, "Select for you a bull calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both flawless, and present them before the LORD. ³You will also tell the Israelites, 'Take a he-goat for a sin offering and a calf and a lamb both a year old and in perfect condition for a burnt offering; ⁴also a bullock and a ram for a peace offering, to offer them before the LORD with a food offering mixed with oil, because today the LORD will appear to you.'"⁵

⁵They brought to the front of the tabernacle what Moses had ordered and the whole congregation approached and stood in the presence of the LORD. ⁶Moses said, "This is what the LORD ordered for you to do so that the glory of the LORD may be manifested to you."

⁷Moses then told Aaron, "Come to the altar; prepare your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and for the people; then prepare the people's sacrifice and make atonement for them in agreement with the LORD's injunction."¹

⁸So Aaron approached the altar and killed the calf that was intended for his sin offering. ⁹The sons of Aaron handed him the blood; he dipped his finger in the blood and applied it to the horns of the altar; then poured the blood at the altar base. ¹⁰The fat, the kidneys and the lobe of the liver from the sin offering he burned on the altar

;) Thought, activity and purpose are offered to God in their sacred ministry.

;) Moses had filled the hands of Aaron and of his sons with the offerings which they waved before the LORD. i) Their being set apart included their clothes.

;) Their holy office required disciplinary preparation. The Eli-Samuel incidents of I Samuel 3 show here were conveniences for lodging in or near the tabernacle.

;) Aaron, typical of Christ as high priest, could not perfectly typify Him, because he was not sinless; he had to find atonement for his own sins first.

;) To sense the presence of God both priest and people must themselves be fully consecrated, as Rom. 12:1 has it, "living sacrifices, holy, acceptable."

as incense, as the LORD had ordered Moses, ¹¹but the meat and the hide he cremated outside the camp.

¹²He then slaughtered the burnt offering and Aaron's sons conveyed to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar. ¹³They also handed him in sections the burnt offering including the head and he burned them on the altar. ¹⁴But he washed the intestines and the legs and burned them upon the burnt offering on the altar. ¹⁵He then presented the people's sacrifice; he took the he-goat of the sin offering on the people's behalf, killed it and prepared it for a sin offering like the first one. ¹⁶He presented the burnt offering according to directions, ¹⁷then had the food offering brought, took a handful of it and burned it on the altar alongside the morning's burnt sacrifice. ¹⁸He also slaughtered the bullock and the ram as a peace offering for the people.^m The sons of Aaron handed him the blood which he sprinkled all around on the altar; ¹⁹but the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the fat tail, the fat on the intestines, the kidneys and the lobe of the liver, ²⁰these fat pieces they laid upon the breast pieces and they burned the fat pieces as incense on the altar, ²¹while Aaron waved the breast and the right thigh as a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses had ordered.

²²Aaron then raised his hands toward the people and blessed them.ⁿ After sacrificing the sin offering, the burnt offering and the peace offering he came down.^o ²³Moses and Aaron entered the meeting tent and as they came out and blessed the people, the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. ²⁴Fire went out from the presence of the LORD and consumed on the altar the burnt offering and the fat portions. All the people saw it; they rejoiced and fell on their faces.

10 BUT NADAB AND ABIHU, SONS of Aaron, took each his censers, put fire in it, laid incense on it and offered strange fire before the LORD, such as He had not ordered them. ²The fire issued forth from the presence of the LORD and consumed them; they died before the LORD. ³Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD meant when He said, 'Among those in My presence I will be hallowed and in the sight of all the people I will be honored.'"

⁴Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Uzziel, Aaron's uncle and told them, "Come, carry you brothers away from the sanctuary outside the camp." ⁵They came and carried them out dressed in their tunics as Moses had mentioned. ⁶Moses told Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Neither let your hair hang loose nor tear your clothes^p lest you die and indignation come upon the whole congregation; but your brothers, the whole house of Israel, shall bemoan the flame which the LORD has kindled. ⁷Do not leave the entrance of the meeting tent lest you die; for the LORD's anointing oil is upon you." And they did as Moses told them.

⁸The LORD said to Aaron: ⁹Neither you nor your descendants shall drink wine or liquor as you are about to enter the tabernacle, lest you die;^q it shall be an ordinance throughout your generations, ¹⁰so you may distinguish between holy and secular, between clean and unclean, ¹¹and that you may teach the Israelites all the ordinances which the LORD has conveyed^r to them through Moses.

¹²Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his surviving sons, "Take the food offering that is left over from the offerings to the LORD by fire and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy. ¹³Eat it at the holy

m) The sin offering always first, typical of our atonement wrought for us by Christ; then the burnt offering as Christ offered Himself for our purifying; then the food offering, acknowledging His gift of salvation; finally the peace offering, which is also a thank offering, for by His life and death we enjoy fellowship with God and with one another.

n) The blessing written Num. 6:24-26. o) The altar was built on an elevation.

p) A sign of deep distress and mourning, such as the people may observe, but not the priests, because their relationship was supremely with God.

q) This injunction suggests that Nadab and Abihu had disobeyed under alcoholic influence.

r) Divine instructions were clear and for the welfare of the worshipers. We cannot break His laws; disobedience breaks us.

place because it is legally yours and legally your sons' from the LORD's burnt offerings, for so I ordered. ¹⁴But he wave breast and the thigh you may eat at any clean place, you with your sons and your daughters, for they are designated for you and for your sons, granted out of the peace offerings of the Israelites. ¹⁵They shall bring the thigh for the heave offering and the breast for a wave offering along with the offerings by fire of the fat, to wave them in the presence of the LORD for a wave offering. It shall be yours and your sons' by an everlasting statute, as the LORD has commanded."

¹⁶Moses searched and searched for the goat of the sin offering, to find that it had been burned up. He felt angry toward Eleazar and Ithamar, the surviving sons of Aaron, and said, ¹⁷"For what reason did you not eat the sin offering^a at the sanctuary? For it is most holy and He gave it to you to take away the iniquity of the people, to make atonement for them in the LORD's presence. ¹⁸See here! Its blood has not been brought inside the sanctuary. You should without fail have eaten the meat in the sanctuary as I ordered."

¹⁹Aaron answered Moses, "Observe that today they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD and yet these are my experiences. If I had eaten the sin offering, would it have been pleasing in the sight of the LORD?" ²⁰Moses listened and fully agreed.

11 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND to Aaron: ²Tell the Israelites, these are the creatures you may eat among all the earth's animal life¹: ³All that have cloven hoofs cleft through, and chew the cud, these among the animals you may eat. ⁴But of those that chew the cud or part the hoof you must not eat the camel because while it chews the cud it has no cleft hoofs; for you it is unclean. ⁵So the rock badger, for though it chews the cud it has no cloven hoof; it is for you unclean. ⁶The hare, too, that chews the cud but has no cleft hoof, is unclean for you. ⁷The hog, while it splits hoofs cloven through, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you; ⁸you must neither eat their meat, nor touch their carcass; they are unclean to you.¹¹

⁹Of all that are in the waters you may eat whatever has fins and scales in any waters—seas or streams; you may eat them. ¹⁰But all that have no fins or scales in seas or streams among all that move in the waters, of all creatures in the waters they shall be offensive to you. ¹¹They shall in fact be abhorrent to you; you must not eat their meat, and their dead bodies you shall loathe. ¹²Everything in the waters without fins or scales shall be repulsive to you.^v

¹³Among the birds these you shall loathe, they shall not be eaten, they are detestable—the eagle, the fish hawk, the black eagle, ¹⁴the vulture, every species of buzzard, every kind ¹⁵of crow, the ostrich, ¹⁶the owl, the sea-gull, every kind of hawk, ¹⁷the white owl, the cormorant, the horned owl, ¹⁸the marsh hen, the pelican, the carrion eagle, ¹⁹the stork, every kind of heron, the lapwing and the bat.^w

²⁰All winged insects going on all fours shall be repulsive to you. ²¹You may, however, among the winged insects that go on all fours, eat those that have thighs above their feet with which to leap upon the ground. ²²Of these you may eat every kind of locust, every kind of traveling locust, every kind of cricket and every kind of grasshopper; ²³but all other winged, four-footed insects shall be repulsive to you;^x ²⁴in contact with them you become un-) Neither Aaron nor his sons could bring themselves under those grievous circumstances to eat anything, not even what had been divinely assigned to them and He "knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust."

) The regulations that follow have religious and sanitary aims; they are prescriptions for physical and spiritual health.

1) As man is soul and body, the one influencing the other, what we eat and drink affects our whole being. An abundance of wholesome food was allowed the Hebrews.

2) The forbidden fish was mostly of the snake-like type — conger, moray, lamprey and other eels.

v) The forbidden birds are birds of prey and of carrion, which we, too, would not care to eat.

w) The insects mentioned were never intended for human food.

clean. Whoever touches their dead bodies shall be unclean until evening ²⁵and he who picks up any part of their body must wash his clothes and is unclean till evening.

²⁶Every animal with parted hoof, not split through, and those not chewing the cud are unclean to you; whoever touches them shall be unclean. ²⁷All of the quadrupeds, that walk on their paws,^y are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcass shall remain unclean until evening. ²⁸Whoever carries their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean till evening; they are unclean to you.

²⁹These are unclean to you among the roving creatures that ramble on the ground—the weasel, the mouse, every species of turtle, ³⁰the ferret, the chameleon, the lizard, the snail and the mole. ³¹These are unclean among all that rove; whoever touches their dead bodies shall be unclean until evening ³²and anything upon which one of these falls when dead shall be unclean. Each wooden vessel, each piece of clothing or skin or sack, each utensil in use shall be placed in water; it remains unclean till evening; then it will be clean. ³³But an earthen vessel into which one of them falls—all its contents are unclean; it must be broken into fragments. ³⁴All edible food which its water contacts shall be unclean and all drinkable liquid in every such vessel shall be unclean. ³⁵Everything on which part of their carcass falls shall be unclean, whether an oven or a baking pan, it must be broken to pieces; they are unclean; to you they are unclean. ³⁶But a fountain, a cistern or a water reservoir shall be clean, while whatever (in it) touches their dead body shall be unclean. ³⁷If such a dead body falls on seed grain that is to be sown, that remains clean; ³⁸but if any part of their dead body falls on it after water has been put on it, then to you it is unclean.^a

³⁹When one of the animals of which you may eat dies, then the one who contacts the carcass shall be unclean till evening. ⁴⁰He who eats of the dead body shall wash his clothes and remain unclean until evening; he also who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and remain unclean till evening.^b

⁴¹Every creeping thing that creeps on the ground is repulsive; it shall not be eaten. ⁴²All that move on their belly; all that move on all fours; all many-legged among creepers, all that creep on the ground you must not eat; for you they are loathsome. ⁴³Do not defile yourselves through any creeping creature so as to become unclean ⁴⁴for I am the LORD your God. Set yourselves apart; be holy, for I am holy. Never defile yourselves through any creeping creature that crawls on the ground, ⁴⁵for I am the LORD who have you leave the land of Egypt to be your God. Be holy because I am holy.

⁴⁶This is the law regarding the animal, the bird, everything that moves in the waters and every living creature that moves upon the ground, ⁴⁷to discriminate between the unclean and the clean, between the creatures that may be eaten and the creatures that must not be eaten.^c y) Lacking hoofs altogether — cats, dogs and the like.

12 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES ²Tell the Israelites: When a woman has conceived and has given birth to a boy, she shall be unclean seven days, unclean as at the time of her menstruation. ³On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. ⁴She shall then continue for 33 days in the blood of purification. She shall contact nothing holy and shall not attend the sanctuary till the days of her purification are completed. ⁵If

a) No fruits or vegetables of any kind are forbidden. The virility of the Hebrew race witnesses to the hygienic value of these regulations. Through opposition, poverty and epidemics they have come such as made "Gentiles" die like flies.

b) Death and sin are closely related. Jesus was deeply indignant, John 11:33, 38, as He approached the tomb of Lazarus; He came to conquer and destroy death. Dead bodies we put out of sight; dead animals are repulsive.

c) With Christ's coming these Mosaic regulations became obsolete. What enters the mouth does not pollute the person, says Jesus, Matt. 15:11, and Paul, Col. 2:16, reaffirms it.

she gives birth to a girl, then she shall be unclean for two weeks as in her monthly separation and for yet 66 days, while bleeding, she shall stay at home, the purification period.^d ⁶At the completion of the purifying she shall bring to the priest at the door of the meeting tent for a son or for a daughter a yearling lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtle dove for a sin offering. ⁷The priest shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement for her; she shall be cleansed from her blood issue. This is the law for her who has given birth, whether to a boy or to a girl. ⁸But if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall bring two turtle doves or two young pigeons, the one for a burnt offering, the other for a sin offering. The priest shall make atonement for her and she shall be clean.^e

13 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND Aaron: ²When a person has a swelling or an eruption or a white spot on the skin of his body and it suggests the plague of leprosy in his skin, then he shall be taken to Aaron or to one of his sons, the priests. ³The priest shall examine the affected spot in the skin of his body and if the hair on the affected spot has turned white and it shows that the disorder goes deeper than his skin, then it is the leprosy plague; the priest who inspects it shall pronounce him unclean. ⁴But if the white spot in the skin of his flesh is evidently no deeper than the skin and the hair has not turned white, then the priest shall quarantine the patient for seven days. ⁵On the seventh day the priest shall take a second look and if he finds that the disorder seems arrested and has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall quarantine him for another seven days. ⁶On the seventh day the priest shall examine him again and if the spot has faded and has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption; he shall wash his clothes and be clean. ⁷But in case the eruption keeps on spreading in the skin after he has shown himself to the priest to be pronounced clean, then he must show himself to the priest again; ⁸the priest shall examine him and if he sees that the eruption has been spreading, then the priest must pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.^f ⁹When the plague of leprosy attacks any person he must be taken to the priest. ¹⁰The priest shall examine him and if it develops that there is a white swelling in the skin which turns the hair white, or that white flesh is growing in the swelling, ¹¹then it is chronic leprosy in the skin of the body; the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not quarantine him, for he is unclean.^g ¹²But if the leprosy breaks out all over the skin so that the leprosy covers the afflicted person's skin from head to foot as the priest looks at it, ¹³then the priest shall investigate and if the leprosy has covered the entire body,^h he shall declare the afflicted person clean; it has all turned white; he is clean. ¹⁴But the moment raw flesh shows on him he is unclean; ¹⁵when the priest observes the raw flesh he shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy. ¹⁶But if the raw flesh changes again and turns white, then he shall go to the priest; ¹⁷the priest shall look him over, and see if the patient has turned white, the priest shall declare him cleansed of the plague; he is clean.

¹⁸When in the skin of the body there has been inflammation which has healed, ¹⁹and instead of the sore there comes a white swelling, or a pale reddish spot, then it must be shown the priest. ²⁰The priest shall examine it and if it is evidently beneath the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest must pronounce him unclean; it

d) As loss of blood was involved in giving birth to a child, the laws of purity applied.

e) The purification of the mother became the occasion for the dedication of the son, Luke 2:23, who had already been entered into God's gracious Covenant with the rite of circumcision administered by the father on the eighth day.

f) Leprosy may be in the body without appearing until maturity; but it is progressive.

g) There were then and there are now diseases that bear similarity to but are not leprosy, such as scrofula, eczema and ringworm, so that the priest needed to identify each particular case.

h) Whiteness over the whole body without that body being fatally corrupted, indicated trouble different from leprosy.

is a leprosy attack, broken out in the boil. ²¹But if the priest, observing it, detects no white hairs on it, neither is it beneath the skin and it is fading, then the priest shall quarantine him for seven days ²²and if it has spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the disease. ²³If, however, the affected spot remains where it is without spreading, then it is a scar from the eruption; the priest shall declare him clean.¹

²⁴Or when the skin of the body has been scorched and the raw flesh has become a light spot, reddish and white, ²⁵the priest shall examine it and, see, if the hair on the bright spot has turned white and it shows to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy broken out in the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprosy affliction. ²⁶But in case the priest examines him and the hair on the spot is not white, neither does the spot go deeper than the skin, but is fading, then the priest shall quarantine him for seven days. ²⁷On the seventh day the priest shall look him over and if it has spread further in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy. ²⁸But if the bright spot has stayed in its place, has not spread in the skin and has faded, then it is a scar from the burn. The priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is a scar from the burn.¹

²⁹When a man or a woman has a sore on the head or in the beard, ³⁰the priest shall examine the sore and if it looks deeper than the skin and there is on it yellowish, thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an eruption, a leprosy of the head or beard. ³¹But if the priest notices that the spot, attacked by the eruption, does not show deeper than the skin and there is no dark hair on it, then he shall quarantine the patient for seven days. ³²On the seventh day the priest shall examine the affected spot and when there is evidence that the eruption has not spread, neither is there yellow hair on it, nor does the sore go deeper than the skin, ³³then he shall shave himself — not shaving the eruption — and the priest shall quarantine the affected patient another seven days. ³⁴On the seventh day the priest shall examine the eruption and if evidently the eruption has not spread in the skin and it shows that it does not go beneath the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; then he shall wash his clothes; he is clean. ³⁵But if the disease keeps spreading in the skin after he has been pronounced clean, ³⁶then the priest must look him over and if the disease has spread in the skin, the priest does not look for yellow hair; he is unclean. ³⁷But if the eruption, so far as he can see, is inactive and no dark hair is growing on it, then the eruption has healed; the priest shall pronounce him clean.²

³⁸In case a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots, ³⁹the priest shall make an examination. If the spots on the skin are a faint white, it is ordinary eruption broken out in the skin; he is clean. ⁴⁰When a man's head is hairless, he is just bald, but he is clean. ⁴¹When a man's hair falls out in front, he has baldness of the forehead and he is clean. ⁴²But if on the bald head or on the bald forehead there is a white-reddish spot, then there is leprosy broken out on his bald head or on his bald forehead. ⁴³The priest shall examine him and if the affected swelling on the bald head or on the forehead is reddish-white in appearance, like leprosy in the skin of the body, ⁴⁴then he is a leprosy man; he is unclean. The priest must pronounce him unclean; the disease is on his head. ⁴⁵The clothes of the leper who has been attacked by the plague shall be torn; he shall let the hair of his head hang loose; he shall cover his upper lip and cry, "Unclean, unclean."³ ⁴⁶So long as he has the plague he re-

i) When the activity of the disease is visible, the priest can determine its virulence by its depth, color and spread.

j) Every precaution is taken to guard against mistakes; repeated examinations will prevent the ostracizing of any but the real leper.

k) The fatal nature of leprosy mentioned here and elsewhere in the Bible has been doubted and denied, but when, Num. 12, Miriam was struck with leprosy, Aaron pleaded, "Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed." He certainly thought of leprosy in a horrible form.

mains defiled; he is unclean. He shall be isolated; His abode shall be outside the camp.¹

⁴⁷The garment, too, that has in it the plague of leprosy, whether a woolen or a linen garment, ⁴⁸whether in the warp or in the woof of linen or wool, whether in leather or in anything made of skin, ⁴⁹if the plague shows up greenish or reddish in the garment in either warp or woof, or in any leather or in anything made of leather, this is the plague of leprosy, and it must be shown to the priest. ⁵⁰The priest shall examine the affected spot and shall isolate the affected part for seven days. ⁵¹On the seventh day he shall examine the affected part. If the affected part in the garment has spread in warp or woof or in leather or in any product made of leather, then the plague is malignant leprosy; it is unclean. ⁵²He shall burn the spotted garment, warp or woof, wool or linen, or anything of leather in which the plague is; for it is malignant leprosy; it must be burned in the fire. ⁵³But if the priest looks and sees that the plague is not spreading in the garment, or in the warp or in the woof, or in anything of hide, ⁵⁴then the priest shall order that they wash the affected object, and he shall isolate it for another seven days. ⁵⁵The priest shall examine the affected object after it is washed and if to him the affected spot looks unchanged, even if it has not spread, it is unclean. You shall burn it up; it is eating inward on the inner or the outer side. ⁵⁶But if, on examination, the priest finds that the affected spot is pale after its washing, then he shall tear the portion out of the garment or the leather, the warp or the woof.^m ⁵⁷If it reappears in the garment, in warp or woof, or in any of the leather, then it is a spreading leprosy;

burn up what has the plague in it. ⁵⁸But the garment, the warp or woof, or anything of leather, which you wash, you shall wash the second time when the plague has gone out of it, and it shall be clean. ⁵⁹This is the law of the leprosy plague in a woolen or a linen garment, or in anything of leather; pronounce it clean or unclean.

14 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES ²THIS shall be the law for the leper on the day of his cleansing.ⁿ He shall be taken to the priest, ³and the priest shall go out beyond the camp.^o As the priest examines him and it shows that the leprosy attack is cured, has left the leper, ⁴then the priest shall order to get for him who is to be cleansed two living, clean birds, cedar wood, a scarlet string, and hyssop. ⁵The priest shall give orders to kill one bird over an earthen pot with running water. ⁶The living bird he shall take with the cedar wood and the scarlet string with hyssop and dip these with the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed above the living water. ⁷Seven times he shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed of leprosy and he shall pronounce him clean. The living bird he shall let fly in the open country. ⁸The one to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, have a close hair cut, and take a water bath; then he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp but stay outside his tent for seven days. ⁹On the seventh day he shall cut off all the hair on his head, his beard, his eyebrows, all his hair he must cut off. He shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in water and he shall be clean.

¹⁰On the eighth day he shall take two flawless he-lambs and one flawless yearling ewe-lamb, also a food offering of six quarts white fine flour mixed

1) Every person on reaching maturity begins physically to die; but this fatal course is fearfully accelerated in the leper; he is definitely dying. But death involves uncleanness. Leprosy puts the patient outside the camp as sinners are excluded from heaven. Rev. 21:27.

m) As the garment is not an organism but a fabric, the removal of the affected spot was likely to end the trouble. There was a resemblance to leprosy in the change of color to greenish or reddish, due probably to attacking fungi. Cleanliness and hygiene demanded arrest and removal.

n) To be cleansed meant to start life anew, symbolic of the new birth in the Spirit.
o) The leper could neither heal himself nor pronounce himself clean. He could not even go to God's minister; the priest had to meet him outside the camp. The killed bird typifies the need of a life to heal him and the freed bird pictures his own new life after cleansing, but not until it has been dipped in the killed bird's blood. The cut and shaven hair suggest thorough riddance of the old, so as to enter the new unhindered. And the anointing is the dedication of this new life to the Great Physician.

with oil and a pint of oil. ¹¹The priest who attends to the cleansing shall present the man to be cleansed together with all this before the LORD at the entrance of the tabernacle. ¹²The priest shall take one he-lamb and offer it with the pint of oil as a trespass offering and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD. ¹³He shall kill the he-lamb at the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering in the holy place, because as the sin offering is the priest's so is the trespass offering; it is most holy. ¹⁴The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and the priest shall apply it to the tip of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, to the thumb of his right hand and to the big toe of his right foot. ¹⁵The priest shall also take some of the pint of oil and drip it into the palm of his own left hand. ¹⁶The priest shall then dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left palm and sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times in the presence of the LORD. ¹⁷From the remaining oil in his palm the priest shall apply some to the tip of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, to the thumb of his right hand, to the big toe of his right foot and upon the blood of the trespass offering. ¹⁸The priest shall apply the rest of the oil that is in the palm of his hand to the head of the one to be cleansed; so shall the priest make atonement for him before the LORD. ¹⁹The priest shall then offer the sin offering and atone for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall slaughter the burnt offering. ²⁰The priest shall offer the burnt offering and the food offering on the altar; so shall the priest make atonement for him and he shall be clean.

²¹But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he shall take one he-lamb for a trespass offering, to be waved, to make atonement for him before the LORD; also three quarts of fine flour mixed with oil^p for a food offering; and a pint of oil; ²²besides two turtle doves or two young pigeons, according to his ability, the one for a sin offering, the other for a burnt offering. ²³On the eighth day he shall bring them to the priest for his purification, to the entrance of the meeting tent in the LORD's presence. ²⁴The priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering and the pint of oil and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD. ²⁵He shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and apply it to the tip of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, to the thumb of his right hand and the big toe of his right foot. ²⁶The priest shall pour some of the oil into his own left palm and ²⁷the priest shall sprinkle with his right forefinger some of the oil seven times before the LORD. ²⁸The priest shall also put some of the oil that is in his left palm on the tip of the ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot,^q where the blood of the trespass offering had been put. ²⁹What is left of the oil in the priest's palm he shall apply to the head of the one to be cleansed to make atonement for him before the LORD. ³⁰One of the turtle doves or young pigeons, ³¹such as he is able to secure and can afford, he shall offer, the one for a sin offering, the other for a burnt offering with a food offering.^r So the priest shall make atonement for the one to be cleansed in the presence of the LORD. ³²This is the law for one who suffered from leprosy, who cannot afford the regular cleansing process.

³³The LORD said to Moses and to Aaron: ³⁴When you enter the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put leprosy infection in a house in the land you possess, ³⁵then the owner of the house must come

p) Not the sacred priestly oil but olive oil dedicated for this service was being used, to dedicate this renewed life.

q) Both oil and blood were applied at this juncture. The healed man must not readily forget this blessed experience. Impressive ministrations have their place in our Christian fellowship, if performed reverently with God in view.

r) The food offering resembles to some degree our Communion Service. The LORD is the real Host, and ties of friendship are felt if he who offers is sincere and understands the meaning. Often a peace offering, which always implies gratitude, follows it; but the food offerings also indicate peace.

. "In my house
ue is showing hen give orders fore the priest use, so that not is declared uniest shall go to
: shall examine ws that the in-the house is in ities that pene-the priest shall the house and days. ³⁹On the hall come back tion has spread, to remove the y shall throw in an unclean ave the inside around and the d off they shall n place outside ke other stones
e former stones
ortar to plaster

on breaks out he has removed ped and plas-shall go and e infection has
n it is a malig-
; it is unclean.
the house, its l the mortar of
to an unclean ⁴⁶Anyone who it is closed up vening. ⁴⁷Who-use shall wash er eats in the oths.^c priest comes, inds that the side the house
tered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. ⁴⁹For the purifying of the house he shall take two birds, cedar wood, a scarlet string with hyssop, ⁵⁰and kill one bird in an earthen vessel over running water. ⁵¹He shall then take the cedar wood, the hyssop with the scarlet string and the living bird and dip them in the blood of the killed bird—also in the living water and sprinkle the house seven times. ⁵²He shall purify the house with the bird's blood, with the living water and with the living bird, the cedar wood, the scarlet string and the hyssop.

⁵³He shall release the living bird in the open field and shall make atonement for the house; it shall be clean.

⁵⁴This is the law for all sorts of leprous infection, for eruptions ⁵⁵and for leprosy of garment and house, for a swelling, ⁵⁶for an eruption and for a pale spot, ⁵⁷to indicate when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law of leprosy.

15 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND to Aaron: ²Speak to the children of Israel; tell them: When any person has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.^a ³This is the situation regarding his uncleanness from the discharge; whether his body lets the issue flow or whether his body stops the flowing, it is his uncleanness. ⁴Every couch on which the person with the discharge reclines shall be unclean and every object on which he sits shall be unclean. ⁵Everyone who contacts his couch shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening.
⁶So he, who sits on an object on which he sat who has the issue, shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. ⁷Whoever contacts the body of the one with the flowing shall wash his clothes, take a water diseases are due to bacteria. This was, of course, known to God, who liminate infection through clothes and dwellings. Slums are not in ng.

ed house seems even more odd than that of infected clothes; but what tenements? Are they wholesome breeding places? No patching suffices; and building afresh. So are used clothes, uncleaned, dangerous for asis for the adage, "Cleanliness is next to godliness."
rs one unclean seems to concern the reproductive organs. Pus may from a festering wound, but that does not come under the unclean re concerned. Adam and Eve covered those organs with fig leaves after ad turned to shame.

bath and be unclean until evening. ⁸In case the one with the flowing spits upon a clean person, that one must wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. ⁹Any saddle too on which he sits who has the issue is unclean. ¹⁰So every one who touches what was under him shall be unclean until evening and he who picks it up shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. ¹¹Anyone whom the one with the discharge touches without having his hands rinsed in water must wash his clothes, take a bath and be unclean till evening. ¹²The pottery that he with the issue touches must be broken and every wooden vessel rinsed with water.

¹³When he who has the flowing is cleansed from his discharge, then he shall count seven days for his purification. He shall wash his clothes, bathe his body in running water and shall be clean. ¹⁴On the eighth day he shall get two turtle doves or two young pigeons, bring them to the entrance of the tabernacle before the LORD and present them to the priest. ¹⁵The priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, the other as a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for him in the presence of the LORD on account of his discharge.

¹⁶When a man has an emission of sperm, he shall take a complete bodily water bath and be unclean until evening. ¹⁷Every garment and all leather on which sperm settled shall be washed in water and be unclean until evening. ¹⁸The woman and the man who has lain with her, if sperm is spilled, shall both take a water bath and be unclean until evening.^v clean and everything on which she sits is unclean. ²¹Whoever contacts her couch shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. ²²Whoever touches any article on which she sat shall be unclean till evening. ²³If he touches anything on her bed or on the seat she occupied he shall be unclean till evening. ²⁴If a man lies beside her so that her menstruation comes on him, then for seven days he shall be unclean and so shall every couch on which he lies be unclean.

¹⁹When a woman has a discharge, a flowing of blood of the body, then she shall be in separation for seven days. Whoever touches her shall be unclean till evening. ²⁰Everything on which she lies during her uncleanness shall be un-

²⁵If a woman has a flowing of her blood not connected with her menstrual period, or if she has bloody discharge beyond her menstruation, then during all the time of her discharge she shall remain as in her period of uncleanness; she is unclean. ²⁶Every couch on which she lies during all the days of her flux shall be to her as the couch of her menstruation and every object on which she sits shall be unclean like the uncleanness of her separation. ²⁷All who touch those things that are unclean shall take a water bath and be unclean until evening.^w v) These rules entered vitally into the ways and plans of men and even more into those of women: The incident of Mark 5:25-34, where Jesus healed a woman who for twelve years had been isolated, remains impressive. The normal woman, however, enjoyed through these regulations periodic rest: w) The Hebrews were blessed with distinct revelations from God, the Holy One, whom alone they were to worship. Moral impurity separates the worshiper from the LORD. Physical impurity is not sin, but neither does it come in the category of holiness; it is typical of sin. The worshiper must never forget with whom he has to do; therefore the required sacrifices for purification.

²⁸When she is cleansed of her issue then she shall count seven more days and after that she is clean. ²⁹She shall get two turtle doves or two young pigeons and shall bring them to the priest at the entrance of the meeting tent. ³⁰The priest shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; thus the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD on account of the unclean issue. ³¹In this way you will purify the Israelites from their impurities so they may not die in their uncleanness by defiling My Dwelling which is among them. ³²This is the law for him who has a discharge and for him who has an emission of sperm that renders him unclean; ³³also for her who suffers from her menstruation and for anyone.

experiences dis-
1 who lies with

H OF THE TWO
when they had e of the LORD said to Moses:
1 that he must nter the holy that fronts the rk, lest he die;
anifest Myself 1Only this way oly place: with in offering and ring. 4He shall 1 tunic and on s; he shall gird sash and wear are the sacred n after bathing n the congregae shall get two 1g and one ram

e young bull as self and shall imself and for ll take the two efore the LORD Dwelling 8and
r the two goats, d the other for bring the goat
: LORD fell and offering; 10but
lot for Azazel live before the ent with it by
into the desert.
ne bullock as a to make atonehis household;
bull for himself shall then take coals from the shall fill his hands with finely ground, fragrant incense, take it inside the veil 13and place the incense on the fire before the LORD² so that the incense cloud covers the mercy seat on the Ark, lest he die.

14He shall take of the blood of the bullock and sprinkle it with his finger on the east part of the mercy seat and seven times he shall sprinkle the blood with his finger in front of the mercy seat. 15He shall then slaughter the he-goat of the sin offering on behalf of the people, bring the blood inside the veil and do with the blood as he did with the blood of the bullock; he shall sprinkle it upon the mercy seat and in front of the mercy seat. 16Thus he shall make the atonement for the holy place because of the uncleanness of the Israelites, all their sinful transgressions.
He shall do the same for the Dwelling, which stays with them in the midst of their impurities. 17Not a person shall be in the Dwelling, when he enters to make atonement in the holy place, until he comes out and has made atonement for himself, for his own household and for the whole congregation of Israel. 18He shall then go out to the altar that stands before the LORD, shall make atonement for it and take of the bullock's blood, also of the goat's blood and apply it to the horns of the altar all around. 19He shall also sprinkle upon it of the blood with his finger seven times to cleanse and sanctify it for the uncleanness of the Israelites.^a 20When he has completed the atoning of the holy place and of the tabernacle then he shall bring the living goat 21and Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of the Israelites, all their transgressions and all their sins; he shall lay them upon the head of the goat and send it away into the desert by a man at hand. 22The goat shall carry away upon itself all sons of the high priest assist him, but on Atonement Day he alone ing care of atonement for himself. As high priest he typifies Christ, ress alone.¹¹

From Azazel (dismissed one) thus properly thought of as the scapegoat.
outside the veil, belonged to the Holy of Holies, but could not stand offered on it daily. On the Atonement Day the high priest took the behind the veil into the Holy of Holies.

ly celebrated by Orthodox and Reformed Jews as Yom Kippur, and ed from the congregation. It is a three-hour service, every moment of their iniquities to a desolate region and in the desert he shall let the he-goat go free.^b

²³Aaron shall then enter the meeting tent, take off his linen garments which he had put on when he went to the Holy Place^c and shall leave them there. ²⁴He shall wash his body with water in the sanctuary, put on his clothes, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people; he shall make atonement for himself and for the people. ²⁵The fat of the sin offering he shall burn as incense on the altar. ²⁶The one who let the goat go as scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, after which he may enter the camp. ²⁷The bullock of the sin offering and the he-goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought into the holy place to make atonement, they shall carry outside the camp; they shall consume with fire their hides, their flesh and their dung. ²⁸Whoever cremates them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, after which he may enter the camp.

²⁹This shall be an everlasting ordinance to you, that in the seventh month on the tenth of the month you shall humble yourselves, do no work whatever, neither the native nor the foreigner who lives among you, ³⁰because on that day atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you. You will be cleansed from all your sins in the presence of the LORD. ³¹It shall be a Sabbath of complete rest for you; you shall humble your souls. This is an everlasting ordinance. ³²The anointed priest, who has been consecrated priest to succeed his father, shall make atonement. He shall put on the linen garments, the sacred garments. ³³He shall make atonement for the Holy of Holies, for the tabernacle and for the altar; he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the congregation. ³⁴This shall be an everlasting ordinance for you so that atonement will be made for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And what the LORD commanded Moses did.^d

17 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Tell Aaron, his sons and all the Israelites; say to them: This is what the LORD commanded: ³Every man of the house of Israel who butchers a bullock, a sheep, or a goat in the camp, or who butchers it outside the camp, ⁴who does not bring it to the entrance of the meeting tent to offer it as a gift to the LORD, that man shall be counted guilty of bloodshed; he has spilled blood. The man shall be eliminated from among his people, ⁵in order that Israelites may bring their sacrifices which they butcher in the open field to the LORD at the entrance of the meeting tent, to the priest to offer them to the LORD as peace offerings. ⁶The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the LORD's altar at the entrance of the meeting tent and burn the fat for a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ⁷They shall no longer present their offerings to field spirits whom they are adulterously courting.^e

⁸Tell them: Every man of the house of Israel or any stranger who lives among you, who offers a burnt offering or a sacrifice ⁹and does not come to the entrance of the meeting tent to present it to the LORD, that man shall be eliminated from his people. ¹⁰And every man of the house of Israel and every immigrant who stays among you, who eats any blood, I will set My face against the person who eats the blood and will eliminate him from among My people, ¹¹because the life of a living creature is in the blood and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for the blood

b) The slain goat typified our Savior as suffering for us; the dismissed goat typified Him as bearing away our sins, which was made possible by His dying for us.

c) Usually, "the holy place" means the first and larger room or the whole tabernacle; but here it means the Holy of Holies which, behind the veil contained the Ark of the Covenant.

d) Many Hebrews fancied that the animal they brought so took their place that they needed not to surrender themselves to God; but God did want them, and their sacrificed animals should be the tokens of their self-surrender.

e) The whole Hebrew nation had been married to Jehovah [Deut. 4:13,23] at Sinai, and again: [Deut. 29:1], a new generation on the plains of Moab.

through the life in it serves for expiation. ¹²I have therefore said to the Israelites, None of you shall eat blood, neither shall any alien who stays among you eat blood. ¹³Every man of the Israelites or of strangers who settle among you, who catches any game or fowl that may be eaten, shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth, ¹⁴for blood is the life of every creature. I therefore told the Israelites, eat no blood of any living thing; the life of every creature is its blood.^f Whoever eats it shall be eliminated. ¹⁵And every person who eats what died of itself or what was torn to death, be he a native or a foreigner, shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean until evening. Then he shall be clean. ¹⁶If he neither washes (his clothes) nor bathes his body, he shall be burdened with his iniquity.

18 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Tell the Israelites, say to them: I am the LORD your God.^g ³You shall not behave as they behaved in the land of Egypt where you lived, nor as they do in the land of Canaan where I am asking you; you will not follow their rules. ⁴You will practice My regulations and observe My statutes and live hem; I am the LORD your God. ⁵Therefore keep My law and My ordinances; whoever practices them enjoys life through them. I am the LORD.

⁶None of you shall get close to any of his near of kin to expose her nakedness.

I am the LORD. ⁷The nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother, you shall not expose. ⁸The nakedness of your father's wife you shall not expose; it is your father's nakedness. ⁹The nakedness of your sister, your father's daughter, or your mother's daughter, whether she is born at home or born elsewhere, her nakedness you shall not expose. ¹⁰You must not expose the nakedness of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter; for it is your nakedness. ¹¹Do not expose the nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, born to your father; she is your sister; do not expose her. ¹²Do not expose the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's near kin. ¹³Do not expose the nakedness of your mother's sister; she is your mother's near kin. ¹⁴Do not expose the nakedness of your father's brother; do not lie with his wife; she is your aunt. ¹⁵Do not expose the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife; do not expose her. ¹⁶Do not expose the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness. ¹⁷Do not expose the nakedness of both a woman and her daughter; neither take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to expose her; they are blood relatives. It is incest.^h

¹⁸While your wife is still living do not take her sister for a rival to expose her nakedness. ¹⁹Do not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness during her separation for uncleanness. ²⁰You shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's wife to defile yourself with her.

²¹Do not have your offspring pass through the fire to Molech; neither profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

²²Do not lie with a male as with a woman; it is detestable. ²³You shall lie with no animal whatever and defile yourself with it; neither shall a woman stand before an animal to commit lewdness with it; it is perversion. ²⁴Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for by all these practices the nations whom I am driving out before you are defiled. ²⁵The land became unclean and I brought down its iniquities upon it so that the land threw up its inhabitants. ²⁶But you shall observe My laws and My regulations; you must not practice those abominations, neither the native nor the foreigner who resides among you, ²⁷because all these abominations the men of the land practiced before you and they rendered the country unclean, ²⁸lest the land throw you out, too, when you defile it, as it disgorged the nation that preceded you. ²⁹For whoever commits any of these offenses, the persons who commit them shall be eliminated from among their people.¹ ³⁰You therefore observe My instructions so as to avoid what was practiced before you. Do not defile yourselves by them; I am the LORD, your God.

^f The command to Noah for his family and for all future generations, Gen. 9:4, includes abstaining from eating of blood, which the Christian Council in Jerusalem enjoined, Acts 15:20,29, upon all Christians. The use of blood in the sacrifices strengthened its meaning.

^g Thrice in these five verses and often later God reminds them of His sovereign lordship and of His holiness, of which Israel had grown aware at Mt. Sinai.

^h Sexual purity is essential for health of body and soul. The Canaanites had by their sexual sins forfeited their rights to their country, and their excuse for living. The sins just enumerated were common to them.

19 ¹THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Address the whole congregation of Israel and tell them: You must be holy because I the LORD your God am holy.¹ ³Every one of you must have respect for his mother and his father and keep My Sabbaths; I am the LORD your God. ⁴You must not turn to idols, nor make for yourselves molten gods. I am the LORD, your God.

⁵When you offer the LORD a peace offering, so offer it that you will be pleasing Him. ⁶It shall be eaten on the day you offer it and on the next day. If anything remains till the third day, it must be burned with fire. ⁷If nevertheless it is eaten on the third day, it is offensive, not acceptable. ⁸The one who eats it shall be burdened with his sin, for he has rendered unclean what had been dedicated to the LORD. That person shall be eliminated from among his people.

⁹When you harvest the produce of your field, do not completely mow the edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. ¹⁰Do not glean your vineyard bare or gather scattered grapes; leave them for the poor and for the stranger. I am the LORD your God.¹¹

¹¹Neither steal, nor cheat, nor lie to one another. ¹²Do not deceitfully swear by My name and thus dishonor the name of God; I am the LORD. ¹³Neither use extortion toward your neighbor, nor rob him. Do not retain the hired man's wages with you till morning. ¹⁴Do not curse the deaf or put obstruction before the blind; but revere your God; I am the LORD.

¹⁵Practice no unfairness in a court decision; you shall neither favor the poor nor show deference to the influential; judge your neighbor with fairness.^m ¹⁶You must not go around among your people as a gossip or take your stand against your neighbor's life. I am the LORD. ¹⁷Do not in your heart hate your brother; yet correct your fellow man lest you incur sin on his account. ¹⁸Do not avenge yourself or bear a grudge against the children of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself.ⁿ I am the LORD.

¹⁹Observe My laws. Do not have your cattle breed with a different kind. Do not sow seed of two kinds in the same field, nor wear a garment made of two kinds of material.

²⁰If a man cohabits with a slave girl who is betrothed to a husband, but neither ransomed nor redeemed, a court inquiry shall be conducted. They shall not be executed, because she was not free; ²¹and he shall bring his trespass offering before the LORD at the entrance of the meeting tent, a trespass offering ram.^o ²²The priest shall make atonement for him with the trespass offering ram before the LORD for the sin which he has committed, and the sin he has committed will be forgiven him.

²³When you come into the land and have planted all kinds of fruit trees, then you must consider their fruit inedible for you. For three years it shall be inedible for you; you shall not eat

i) As a malignant tumor must be removed to save the body, so must the habitually unchaste be eliminated from the community. Joshua and his warriors were to free the land from iniquity for servants of the holy God.

j) The holiness of God is the basis and the goal of all lofty endeavor. Jesus put it [Matt. 5:48], "You are to be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect."

k) God never forgets the poor and the foreigner; widow and orphan, too, are remembered.

l) Practice of deceit thwarts personality; it is a kind of suicide.

m) Addressed to the court and judges of the people. n) As Jesus puts it [Matt. 22:39].

o) The slave girl, too, had rights, but her position made exercise of them difficult. The man had to seek atonement.

it.²⁴ In the fourth year all the fruit shall be dedicated, a praise offering to the LORD. ²⁵ But in the fifth year you may eat of its fruit, so that its produce may enrich you. I am the LORD your God.

²⁶ Eat nothing that contains the blood. Make use of neither fortune telling nor witchcraft practice. ²⁷ Do not clip the corners of the hair on your head, nor cut the edge of your beard.²⁸ There must be no cutting into your flesh for the dead, or tattoo marks on you. I am the LORD.²⁹

³⁰ Do not defile your daughter by making her a prostitute, lest the land be licentious and the country thoroughly wicked.³¹ Observe My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary.³² I am the LORD. ³³ Do not turn to mediums and seek no wizards to defile yourselves by them. I am the LORD your God.³⁴ Stand up before the gray-haired person; honor the face of the aged and revere your God. I am the LORD.

³⁵ When a stranger lives among you in your land, do not maltreat him; the foreigner who lives among you shall be like a native among you. You shall love him as your own, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.³⁶ ³⁷ You shall practice no injustice in court, in measurements, in weights or in quantity; ³⁸ you shall use honest scales, honest weights, an honest bushel and an honest gallon.³⁹ I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt. ⁴⁰ Observe all My laws and all My ordinances and do them. I am the LORD.

20 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:

¹ Tell the children of Israel: Every Israelite and every foreigner who resides in Israel, who presents any of his offspring to Molech,² shall certainly be executed; the people of the land shall stone him. ³ I Myself will set My face against that man; I will eliminate him from among his people because he presented of his offspring to Molech, to the defilement of My sanctuary and the dishonor of My holy name. ⁴ If the people of the land close their eyes for the man who presents his offspring to Molech, without putting him to death, ⁵ then I will set My face against that man and against his family and I will eliminate both them and all who followed them in their harlotry after Molech; I will eliminate them from among their people.

⁶ The person who turns to spirits and to wizards, harloting after them, against that person I will set My face and I will eliminate him from his people. ⁷ Set yourselves apart, therefore, and be holy, for I am the LORD your God. ⁸ Observe all My laws and practice them. I am the LORD who sets you apart.

⁹ If there is anyone who curses his father or his mother,⁷ he shall surely be executed; he has cursed his father or his mother; his bloodguilt rests upon him.

¹⁰ If a man commits adultery with another's wife, adulterating with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death. ¹¹ When a man cohabits with his father's wife, he exposes his father's nakedness; they shall both be executed; their bloodguilt is upon them. ¹² When a man cohabits with his daughter-in-law, both shall be executed; they committed incest; their bloodguilt rests upon them.¹³ When a man lies with a male as with a woman, both have committed something perverse; they will certainly be put to death; their

) For three years newly planted trees bear no well developed fruit. In the original Hebrew it is termed uncircumcised. The fourth crop is used to acknowledge God as the Owner.

) Pagans cut hair of head and beard certain ways to honor their idols.

) Pagans cut into their bodies to show grief.

) Pagans placed daughters in temples to serve the lusts of men.

) LORD's Day observance is essential for true worship. u) God's revelation suffices.

) Respect for age goes with reverence for God. w) Worship of God and dishonesty do not mix.

) Molech, also named Moloch or Milcom or Malcom, meaning king or lord, was worshiped by the ammonites, descendants of Lot. The acme of their worship was to throw children into the fire for Molech.

) God pays more attention to words than we do, for words are expressive of the speaker, "The Word was God." The curser of father or mother was essentially their murderer.

) Incest, here mentioned in various forms, is destructive to family life.

bloodguilt rests upon them.^a ¹⁴When a man takes a wife and her mother, too, it is incest; they shall be burned with fire, he and they so that no incest remains among you. ¹⁵If a man lies with an animal, he shall unquestionably be executed and you shall kill the animal. ¹⁶If a woman moves up to a beast to lie with it, you shall kill the woman and the beast; they must without fail be put to death; their bloodguilt rests upon them.^b ¹⁷If a man takes his sister, his father's daughter or the daughter of his mother and they cohabit, it is shameful; they shall be eliminated in the presence of their people. He has exposed his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his guilt. ¹⁸If a man lies with a woman during her menstruation and cohabits with her, he has exposed her fountain and she has exposed the fountain of her blood; both shall be eliminated from among the people. ¹⁹You shall not expose the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that exposes a near relative; they shall bear their iniquity. ²⁰If a man cohabits with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall suffer for their sins; they shall die childless. ²¹If a man takes his brother's wife, it is incest; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall die childless.

²²Observe well all My laws and all My ordinances and practice them, so that the land to which I bring you to live may not throw you up. ²³You must not behave in agreement with the customs of the nation which I expel ahead of you, for they have done all these things and I abhor them. ²⁴But to you in particular I have said: You shall inherit their soil and I will give it you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God who has separated you from the other peoples.^c ²⁵You therefore must distinguish between clean and unclean animals and between unclean and clean birds. Do not render yourselves offensive through beast or bird or whatever crawls on the ground, which I have separated as unclean to you. ²⁶You shall be holy to Me because I the LORD am holy and I separate you from the peoples to belong to Me. ²⁷A man or a woman who is a medium or a fortune teller shall certainly be put to death; they shall stone them; the bloodguilt rests upon them.

21 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND AARON and tell them: None of them must incur uncleanness on behalf of the dead among his people, ²except for his nearest kin, for his mother, for his father, for his son, for his daughter, for his brother ³and for his virgin sister who without a husband is close to him for her he may render himself unclean.^d ⁴As a family man he shall not render himself unclean among the people so as to profane himself. ⁵They must by no means shave their heads or shave the edges of their beards or make cuttings in their bodies. ⁶They shall be holy to the LORD their God and not desecrate the name of the God; for they bring the fire offering of the LORD, their God's bread; they therefore shall be holy.

⁷They shall marry neither a prostitute nor a woman who has been violated, nor a woman put away by her husband, for the priest is set apart for his God.^e ⁸Set him apart, for he offers God's food. He is holy to you, for I the LORD am holy, who sanctifies you. ⁹In case the daughter of a priest defiles herself by playing the harlot, she defiles her father; she shall be burned with fire.

¹⁰The high priest among his brothers, upon whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated so as to wear the garments

a) Homosexuality was Sodom's fatal sin [Gen. 19:5] and was practiced also in Israel [Judg. 19:22] by Benjamites; but punished by all other tribes of Israel.

b) No incident is related of such sin in Israel, but verse 23 of this chapter gives it as a chief reason for the expulsion and extermination of the Canaanites.

c) God has in store for His people a more wholesome and joyous life.

d) An ordained minister of God has many privileges and duties peculiar to his sacred office; he does well to refrain from doing certain things a Christian layman may do. Our Lord did not rub ripe ears of wheat on the Sabbath as His disciples did [Matt. 12:1-8].

e) The minister's wife is the making or breaking of him. Fortunately the majority possess qualities at least equal to those of their husband.

shall not let his hair hang loose, nor tear his clothes. ¹¹He shall not get near a corpse or defile himself even for his father or for his mother. ¹²He shall not leave the sanctuary or desecrate the holy place of his God; for upon him is the consecration of the anointing oil of his God. I am the LORD. ¹³He shall take a virgin for wife; ¹⁴he shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman, or one violated, or a prostitute, but he shall take to wife a virgin of his own people ¹⁵so that he may not dishonor his offspring among the people,^f for I am the LORD who sanctifies him.

¹⁶The LORD said to Moses: ¹⁷Tell Aaron: Whoever among your offspring in successive generations has a physical blemish shall not come near to offer the food of his God; ¹⁸for no one with a blemish shall draw near — no blind person, or lame, or of facial deformity, or with limbs too long ¹⁹or with broken foot or hand, ²⁰or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or with defective eyesight, or with itch or skin trouble or with imperfect testicles. ²¹No descendant of Aaron the priest with physical infirmity shall come near to offer the LORD's offerings with fire. He has a blemish, he shall not approach to offer the food of his God; ²²but he may eat both the holy and the most holy food.^g ²³Only, he shall neither get near the veil nor approach the altar, for he has a blemish, so he may not profane My sanctuaries; for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.^h ²⁴Thus Moses spoke to Aaron, to his sons and to all the children of Israel.

22 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Tell Aaron and his sons: In order not to desecrate My holy name, behave guardedly about the sacred gifts of the Israelites, which they dedicate to Me; I am the LORD. ³Tell them, Whoever of all your offspring in your generations takes care of the sacred gifts which the Israelites dedicate to the LORD, while uncleanness is upon him, that person shall be removed from My presence. I am the LORD. ⁴Not a single one of Aaron's offspring, who is a leper, or has a discharge shall eat of the sacred things till he is clean. Similarly one who contacts what is rendered unclean by a corpse; or one who has an emission; ⁵or one who touches a creeping creature that renders him unclean, or contacts a person who defiles him because he has some kind of uncleanness; ⁶or who contacts something of this kind shall remain unclean until evening; he shall not eat of the sacred gifts unless he washes his body with water. ⁷At sunset he shall be clean and afterward he may eat of the sacred gifts because it is his nourishment. ⁸What naturally dies or is torn, he must not eat to his defilement; I am the LORD. ⁹They shall observe My ordinance, lest they load themselves with sin by profaning it and die from desecrating it. I am the LORD who sets them apart.

¹⁰No one unqualified shall eat of anything sacred.ⁱ One living with the priest, or his hired man, shall not eat what is holy; ¹¹but a person whom the priest buys for his money may eat of it. Also those born in his house may eat of his food. ¹²But a priest's daughter who is married to a layman shall not eat of what is set apart as a 'sacred offering. ¹³However, when a priest's daughter has become a widow or has been divorced and is childless and has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; but no outsider shall eat of it. ¹⁴If ignorantly anyone eats something sacred, then he must repay it to the priest, adding one fifth of the amount of the holy food. ¹⁵They^j must not

f) Certainly an Israelite; preferably of Aaronic ancestry. Elizabeth was "of Aaron's daughters"; she also was a cousin of Mary, Luke 1:5,36.

g) Anything like complete performance of the priestly functions, required as does the ministry today, a healthy body, a clear mind, a sympathetic heart and a consecrated will — an extraordinary person spiritually endowed.

h) Forever the marvel remains that God, the HOLY ONE was and is willing to make use of humans for His service. Only the Holy Spirit can bring about the requisite ability and the humble inclination.

i) This guarding of holy edibles is carried over in the celebration of The Lord's Supper, of which only those who humbly seek cleansing from sin and whose desire is to serve the LORD may partake.

j) The priests. Only our best, coming from a grateful, willing heart, is acceptable to God; it made the widow's mite [Mk. 12:42-44] so worthy of attention.

desecrate the holy gifts of the Israelites, which they shall set apart to the LORD, ¹⁶lest they burden those who eat their holy things with the sin of their transgression, for I the LORD sanctify them.

¹⁷The LORD said to Moses: ¹⁸Speak to Aaron, to his sons and to all the children of Israel and tell them: Whoever of the house of Israel and of the foreigners in Israel brings any offering in agreement with all their vows and free will offerings, which they offer to the LORD as a burnt offering, ¹⁹shall offer it of his own free will, a sound male of the cattle, of the sheep or of the goats. ²⁰Whatever has a blemish you shall not offer; it would not render you acceptable. ²¹Whoever offers a peace offering sacrifice to the LORD to fulfil a vow or for a freewill offering from herd or flock, it must be flawless to be pleasing; there must be no blemish in it. ²²Never offer the LORD what is blind, or fractured or maimed or with infected sores or itch or skin disease; of them make no offering by fire on the altar to the LORD. ²³For a freewill offering you may present a bullock or a lamb with members overgrown or shrunk, but for a vow it will not be satisfactory. ²⁴Nor shall you offer the LORD what has been damaged by bruising, by crushing, by fracturing or by cutting; make of them no sacrifice within your borders. ²⁵Neither shall you offer as food to your God any such as came from a foreigner's hand, for they are defective; they are mutilated; they will not render you pleasing.

²⁶The LORD said to Moses: ²⁷When a bullock or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain with its dam for seven days, but from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as a burnt offering to the LORD, ²⁸But do not slaughter a cow or a ewe and her young on the same day. ²⁹When you offer the LORD a sacrifice of thanksgiving, let it be pleasing. ³⁰It shall be eaten on that same day; leave nothing of it until morning. I am the LORD.

³¹Heartily accept My commandments and practice them; I am the LORD. ³²Do not desecrate My holy name; I will be revered in the midst of the children of Israel. I am the LORD who makes you holy; ³³who had you leave the land of Egypt to be God to you. I am the LORD.

23 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Tell the Israelites: The appointed feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim as holy convocations — my appointed feasts — are these: ³For six days labor may be performed, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation when you do no work at all. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings. ⁴These are the LORD's appointed feasts, the sacred convocations which you shall broadcast at their appointed times. ⁵On the fourteenth of the first month in the evening begins the LORD's Passover. ⁶On the fifteenth of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to the LORD; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. ⁷On the first day you shall have a sacred gathering. Perform no strenuous labor, ⁸but for seven days present fire offerings to the LORD. On the seventh day hold a holy convocation; do no hard work.

⁹The LORD said to Moses: ¹⁰Tell the Israelites: When you have come into the land which I give you and you harvest its crop, bring the first sheaf of your harvest to the priest, ¹¹who shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to render you acceptable. On the morning after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it ¹²and on the day of waving the sheaf you shall offer a flawless yearling he-lamb for a burnt offering to the LORD. ¹³The accompanying food offer-

k) To do so would tend toward cruelty, not so much to the animals concerned as within the heart of the owner. God would train His sons and daughters in gentleness.

l) The seventh day stands first among God's appointments. Rich and poor alike shall enjoy rest, with none to rule them but God, not merely thrice a year but every week.

m) Each of the three feasts was related to their crops, even the Passover that had been established to commemorate their exodus from Egypt, for it also was their feast of unleavened bread. At the first feast the first sheaf of grain was waved before the LORD. At Pentecost, fifty days later, loaves baked from the harvests were waved before the LORD. The feast of tabernacles was a week of thanksgiving, with all harvests gathered in, and it commemorated the desert years of their fathers.

ing shall be a fifth of a bushel of fine flour mixed with oil — a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD; also with it a drink offering, three pints of wine. ¹⁴Until the very day when you have brought an offering to your God, you shall eat neither bread, nor parched nor fresh grain. This shall be an ordinance for your successive generations in all your dwellings.

¹⁵Count for yourselves from the morning after the Sabbath, from the day when you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, seven full weeks; ¹⁶until the morning after the seventh Sabbath you will count fifty days and bring a new cereal offering to the LORD. ¹⁷Bring along from your homes two loaves to be waved, made from a fifth bushel of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven, the firstfruits to the LORD. ¹⁸With the bread offer seven flawless yearling lambs, one young bull and two rams to be a burnt offering to the LORD with their food offering and their drink offering — a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ¹⁹You shall then sacrifice one he-goat for a sin offering and two yearling lambs for a peace offering. ²⁰The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. ²¹On that same day you shall broadcast a call; you will conduct a holy gathering; you shall do no strenuous work whatever. ²²It is an everlasting ordinance in all your dwellings through your successive generations.

²²When you harvest the crop of your land neither mow to the very edges of your field nor glean what has been dropped in harvesting; leave it for the poor and for the foreigner. I am the LORD your God.^o

²³The LORD said to Moses, ²⁴Tell the Israelites: In the seventh month,^p on the first day of the month enjoy a day of complete rest, a memorial day, announced by the blowing of trumpets, a sacred convocation. ²⁵You will do no hard work and will offer a fire offering to the LORD.

²⁶The LORD said to Moses: ²⁷The tenth day of the seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement; you will hold a holy meeting. You will humble yourselves and present a fire offering to the LORD.^q ²⁸On the same day you shall do no work of any kind, because it is Atonement Day, to make atonement for you in the presence of the LORD your God; ²⁹for whoever does not humble himself on this particular day, that person shall be eliminated from among his people. ³⁰Anyone who does work of any kind on this same day, that person I shall destroy from the midst of his people. ³¹You shall do no work whatever; it is an everlasting ordinance throughout your generations in all your dwellings.^r ³²It shall be for you a perfect Sabbath. You will humble your souls on the ninth of the month at eventide; from one evening to the next you will celebrate your Sabbath.

³³The LORD said to Moses: ³⁴Tell the Israelites: On the fifteenth of this seventh month, the feast of booths to the LORD begins, lasting seven days, ³⁵with a holy convocation on the first day; you will do no strenuous work. ³⁶For seven days you will present your offerings by fire to the LORD and on the eighth day you shall have a sacred gathering and bring the LORD a fire offering. It is a festive gathering; you shall do no hard work. ³⁷These are the LORD's appointed festivals, which you shall publish as holy gatherings to present sacrifices by fire to the LORD — burnt offerings, food offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each according to the day's program ³⁸in addition to the LORD's Sabbaths and your gifts, all your votive offerings and your free-

^o Throughout sacred history the LORD has practiced and has ordered making known; the prophets published His messages; Christ commissioned His disciples to be witnesses. We call it advertising, a vital element in evangelization.

^p In the midst of worship suggestions God remembers the poor and the immigrant.

^q Named Ethaniam (Incessant Rains). It corresponds to our late September and much of October.

^r Humility is indispensable in devotions, as our LORD points out [Luke 18:9-14] in the Pharisee and tax collector parable.

^s One reason for resting, bodily relaxation; another, time for worship; a third, centering of thought on God as Redeemer, Friend and Sovereign, as they could not so concentrate while working.

will offerings which you will give the LORD.

³⁹On the fifteenth of the seventh month, when you are bringing in the produce of your field, you shall celebrate a feast to the LORD lasting seven days, a Sabbath on the first day and a Sabbath on the eighth day. ⁴⁰On the first day bring the produce of splendid trees, palm branches, twigs of leafy trees and water willows.^s You will be glad in the presence of the LORD your God for seven days. ⁴¹You will observe it as a festival to the LORD your God annually for seven days; it is an ordinance forever through all your generations; observe it in the seventh month. ⁴²For seven days you shall live in booths; all native Israelites shall live in booths ⁴³in order that your generation may know that I made the children of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God. ⁴⁴In this way Moses acquainted the Israelites with the appointed festivals of the LORD.

24 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²Order the Israelites to bring you pure oil from crushed olives for the lamp to keep the light continually burning. ³Outside the veil of the Testimony in the meeting tent Aaron shall keep it continually supplied from evening till morning before the LORD; it shall be an everlasting regulation throughout your generations. ⁴He shall continually supply the lamps upon the lampstand of pure gold before the LORD.^t

⁵You will take fine flour and bake it into twelve loaves, each loaf prepared from the fifth of a bushel. ⁶You will place them in two rows, six in each row on the table of pure gold before the LORD. ⁷You will lay pure frankincense on each row to go with the bread^u as a memorial, as an offering to the LORD by fire. ⁸Regularly each Sabbath day he^v shall arrange it anew before the LORD, an everlasting covenant on the part of the Israelites. ⁹It shall be for Aaron and his sons; they shall eat it in a holy place, because to him it is most holy of the LORD's offerings made by fire, due to Him forever.

¹⁰Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian: among the Israelites, went out and this son of an Israelite woman and an Israelite quarreled in the camp. ¹¹The son of the Israelitish woman blasphemed the Name and cursed; so they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan. ¹²They put him in custody awaiting revelation of the LORD's will. ¹³The LORD then said to Moses: ¹⁴Take the blasphemer out of the camp; have all who heard him lay their hands upon his head and the whole congregation shall stone him. ¹⁵To the Israelites you shall say, Whoever curses his God shall be burdened by his load of sin ¹⁶and whoever blasphemes the Name shall certainly be put to death. The whole congregation shall stone him, the stranger as well as the native, in case he blasphemes the Name.^w ¹⁷Whoever wounds a person fatally shall be executed; ¹⁸but he who wounds livestock shall compensate, a life for a life. ¹⁹When a man hurts his neighbor physically, then as he has done so shall it be done to him, ²⁰fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; with the hurt that he has done to a man he shall be hurt. ²¹Whoever kills an animal shall refund it and whoever kills a man shall be executed. ²²Have an identical law for foreigner and native, for I am the LORD your God.^x ²³Moses so spoke to the Israelites; they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The chil-

s) Of such branches booths were constructed and to a measure the desert journeys were relived, as our national and religious holidays may, with God in view, become holy days.

t) The lamps were typical of God's revelation through the ages and prophetic of Christ, the Light of the world.

u) The showbread stood for man's acknowledgment of God's care and of communion with Him, made perfect in Christ, the Bread of Life. v) The officiating priest.

w) The man, half Egyptian and half Hebrew, obviously not well trained in Hebrew lore and worship, had spoken the Name insultingly. The Rabbis, when copying the Sacred Writings, put Adonai instead of Jehovah to guard against further abuse of the Name, and so read it in the Services.

x) This law is still in force in our courts and justly; but should not be applied to private relationships.

dren of Israel did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

25 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES on Mount Sinai: ²Speak to the Israelites, and tell them: When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall have a Sabbath rest to the LORD. ³Six years you will sow your acreage; six years you will prune your vineyard and gather in the produce, ⁴but in the seventh year there shall be a restful Sabbath for the land, a rest toward the LORD: you shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard.^y ⁵The volunteer growth of your crop you shall not harvest; the grapes of your unpruned vines you must not gather; it will be a year of rest for the land. ⁶The Sabbath produce of the land shall be your nourishment, for you, for your male and female servants, for your hired hands and for the stranger with you. ⁷For your livestock and for the wild beasts in your land all the produce shall be food.^z ⁸You shall count seven weeks of years for you, seven times seven years; the seven weeks of years period shall be 49 years. ⁹On the tenth of the seventh month, on the Day of Atonement you will have the trumpet sounded to broadcast throughout the whole country. ¹⁰You shall consecrate the fiftieth year and PROCLAIM LIBERTY THROUGHOUT ALL THE LAND UNTO ALL THE INHABITANTS THEREOF.^a It shall be a jubilee to you. Every one of you shall go back to his own property and each to his family. ¹¹That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you. During it you shall neither sow, nor harvest the volunteer crop, nor gather the grapes from the unpruned vines, ¹²for this is a jubilee. It shall be holy to you; you shall eat from what the field yields.

¹³In this jubilee year every one of you shall return to his property. ¹⁴In case you sell to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor; do not exploit one another. ¹⁵You shall buy from your neighbor according to the number of years after the jubilee and he shall sell to you according to the number of years and crops. ¹⁶The greater the number of years the higher the price and the fewer the number of years the lower the price,^b for the number of crops is being sold. ¹⁷Do not exploit one another but revere God, for I am the LORD your God.^c

¹⁸You shall practice My laws, carefully observe My ordinances and apply them, then you will live securely in the land. ¹⁹The land shall yield its produce; you will eat your fill and dwell in safety. ²⁰If you say, "What shall we eat during the seventh year? See, we may neither sow nor harvest our crop," ²¹I will order My blessing upon you in the sixth year so that it will yield produce for three years. ²²You will sow in the eighth year, but still eat of the old crop. Until the ninth year, till its harvest comes in you will eat of the old.^d y) Land not so rested loses its fertility. Crop rotation helps, pasturing helps more; but Sabbatical rest has proven best, especially when cultivated [Jer. 4:3; Hosea 10:12].

²³No land shall be sold in perpetuity, because the land belongs to Me and you are lodgers and tenants with Me.^e ²⁴For all the land you have, for that land you must allow redemption. ²⁵When your brother is impoverished and sells some of his property, then his nearest relative shall come and buy back what he has sold. ²⁶But if a man is without a redeemer and he himself gains ability to buy it back, ²⁷then let him count the years since its sale and pay back the remaining value to the man to whom he had sold it. ²⁸But if he has not gained enough to buy it back, then what he sold remains in the hands of the one who bought it until the year of jubilee and in the jubilee

z) Every seventh day recuperation; every seventh year a vacation with food provided for all; every fiftieth year a return of the ancestral estate. Not much chance for fabulous riches or extreme poverty.

a) The capitalized clause is cast around the rim of our Liberty Bell.

b) The number of crops till the next jubilee decided the cash value.

c) God remained the Owner; the Hebrew leased the land from Him. Had the Israelites observed these divine orders, the captivity would never have occurred.

d) It required faith to act on these assurances and few seem to have practised the ordinances completely. e) A theocratic government of the people, with God as Sovereign and as Landowner.

it will be released; he will get his property back.^f

²⁹If a man sells a residence in a walled city, then its redemption right continues for a full year after the sale; the right of redemption shall last a year. ³⁰If it is not redeemed within a full year, then title to a house in a walled city shall go in perpetuity to the buyer and to his descendants; it shall not be released in the jubilee.^g

³¹But houses in unwalled villages shall be considered in the category of country farms; they may be redeemed and shall be redeemed at the jubilee. ³²As for the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities which they possess the Levites may redeem at any time, ³³and if anyone buys a house from a Levite, the sold house in the city they possess shall be released in the year of jubilee, for the city houses of the Levites are their property among the Israelites.

³⁴The pasture lands that belong to their cities shall not be sold forever.^h

³⁵If your brother becomes poor and unable to meet his obligations to you, then you shall sustain him, foreigner or neighbor, so he may keep alive with you. ³⁶Charge no interest or gain from him, but revere your God so that your brother may keep alive with you. ³⁷Neither lend him money at interest nor give him food for profit. ³⁸I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.ⁱ

³⁹If your brother near you^j gets so poor, he sells himself to you, then do not make him serve you as a slave; ⁴⁰but he shall be with you as a hired hand, as a temporary resident until the year of jubilee. ⁴¹Then he shall leave you, he with his children and go back to his relatives and to his ancestral property. ⁴²Because they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt, they shall not be sold as slaves, ⁴³neither shall you lord it over him with severity. You shall revere God.^k ⁴⁴Your slaves, male and female whom you shall own, shall be from the nations around you; of them you shall buy male and female slaves. ⁴⁵You may also buy from among the children of the strangers who live among you and from their relatives in your environs who were born in your country; those you may own, ⁴⁶and you may leave them as a legacy to your children after you, so that they become their property, for you will retain them in perpetual servitude. But over your brothers, the children of Israel, you must not lord it with severity.

⁴⁷When a foreigner or a temporary dweller among you grows rich and your brother near him becomes poor and sells himself to the foreigner or to the sojourner or to offspring of a foreign race, ⁴⁸then the one who has sold himself shall retain the right of redemption.^l One of his brothers may buy him free, ⁴⁹or his uncle or his cousin may redeem him, or anyone close kin to him in the family may redeem him, or if his income suffices he may redeem himself. ⁵⁰With his buy he shall count from the year when he was sold to him until the coming year of jubilee and the price of his release shall be according to the number of years, rating his time as that of a hired hand. ⁵¹If many years are still required the price shall be adjusted accordingly in refunding his original cost. ⁵²If but a few years are left till the year of jubilee, then they must come to terms and he shall pay back a corresponding redemption price. ⁵³He shall treat him as a wage earner; make sure he shall not severely lord it over him. ⁵⁴If in these ways he is not redeemed, then he shall go free in the year of jubilee, he and his children with him; ⁵⁵because the children of Israel are servants to

f) Ruth 4:1:12 shows the law of redemption in operation, with Boaz, ancestor of Jesus, as redeemer.
g) As sales transactions were adjusted in view of the number of crops before the next jubilee, the values of city property were not affected by jubilee arrangements.

h) Levites inherited no tribal territory; they were distributed among the eleven tribes to be their teachers; his house was the Levite's only property. To remain in the family it must be returned at jubilee.

i) Christians might well observe these injunctions, specially those related to interest on borrowed money and on sales without profit, known scripturally as usury.

j) Brother, not because of the same father or mother, but of the same Hebrew nation.

k) To be an Israelite and to be a slave were incompatible terms; for Israel was God's people.

l) No jubilee availed for their non-Hebrew slaves and such slavery was allowed.

Me; My servants they are whom I led out of the land of Egypt.^m I am the LORD your God.

26 YOU SHALL NEITHER MAKE idols for yourselves nor set up a carved image or a devoted pillar, nor erect for yourselves a sculptured stone for worship in your land, for I am the LORD your God. ²You shall observe My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary; I am the LORD. ³If you walk by My laws and obey My orders so as to practice them, ⁴then I will grant you your rains in their season; the land shall yield its produce and the trees shall bear their fruit. ⁵Your threshing shall last until vintage time and your vintage until sowing time; you shall eat your food to the full and live in your land safely. ⁶I will grant peace in the land so that you will lie down without anyone to frighten you. I will clear the land of ferocious beasts and no sword shall move through your country. ⁷I will chase your enemies who shall fall before you by the sword; ⁸five of you shall chase a hundred and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword. ⁹I shall be leaning toward you, rendering you fruitful and numerous and My covenant with you I will confirm.ⁿ ¹⁰You shall eat what had long been stored, then clear it out for the new. ¹¹I will set My dwelling among you and My soul will not reject you; ¹²I will be walking in your midst;^o I will be your God and you will be My people. ¹³I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you should be slaves no longer; I have burst the thongs of your yoke and made you walk erect.^p and will not practice all these commandments; ¹⁵if you despise My laws; if your soul abhors My injunctions, so that you fail to put all My orders into practice and break My covenant, ¹⁶then I will do this to you — I will visit you with terror, with tuberculosis and burning fever that destroys the eye and saps the life. You will sow vainly, for your enemies will eat it. ¹⁷I will set My face against you and you will be beaten when facing your enemies. Your haters will lord it over you.^q You will flee when no one pursues you. ¹⁸If nevertheless you will not listen to Me, I will go on disciplining you sevenfold on account of your sins. ¹⁹I will break down the pride of your might; I will make your heaven as iron and your earth as brass. ²⁰You will then apply your strength uselessly, for neither will your land produce a crop nor will the trees of the land bear fruit.^r m) Hebrews who within their country became slaves to non-Hebrews, were released at the jubilee. Redeeming and buying back were the same; always redemption prefigured our LORD's redemptive work.

¹⁴But if you will not listen to Me

²¹If you behave contrary to Me, unwilling to listen to Me, then I will plague you according to your sins seven times worse. ²²I will unleash among you the wild beasts, which shall bereave you of your children, destroy your livestock and decimate your number so that your roads shall be deserted. ²³And if by this discipline you do not turn to Me, but still walk adversely to Me, ²⁴then I will personally walk adversely to you and I Myself shall punish you sevenfold for your sins. ²⁵I will bring a sword upon you that shall administer retribution for the Covenant.^s When you have concentrated within your cities I will send pestilence among you and you will be delivered into the power of the enemy. ²⁶When I have broken your staff of bread^t then ten women shall bake your loaves in a single oven and they will return you

n) Confirmation of His promise to Abraham [Gen. 12:2; 13:16; 15:5; 17:5,6; 18:18; 22:17,18.]

o) Particularly by His Presence, the Shekinah, between the cherubim above the mercy seat in the Holy of Holies.

p) As slaves in Egypt their backs had been bent; like oxen in the yoke they had pulled and carried burdens. God made them walk erect, as He had man walk from the start.

q) Which has been true wherever God has been forsaken.

r) The purpose of discipline is improved behavior, usually upon some measure of repentance. Forgiveness on God's part follows repentance on our part.

s) A covenant always involves more than one. God and Israel had pledged mutual loyalty.

t) Usually bread means any food, but here it means oven-baked flour as with us, of which there would not be enough.

loaves weighed out; you will eat and not be satisfied.

²⁷If in spite of all this you do not listen to Me, but behave in opposition to Me, ²⁸then I will with indignation take measures against you; I will personally punish you sevenfold for your sins. ²⁹You shall eat the flesh of your sons; you shall also eat the flesh of your daughters.^u ³⁰I will ruin your high places and tear up your incense altars. I will pile your corpses on the breakage of your idols and My soul shall loathe you. ³¹Your cities I will turn into ruins; your chapels I will lay waste and I will no longer smell your pleasant odors. ³²I will personally so thoroughly lay waste the land, that your enemies who settle in it shall be astonished at it. ³³But you I will disperse among the nations, unsheathing the sword after you. Your land shall be desert and your cities ruins.

³⁴Then shall the land enjoy its Sabbaths, during the period while the land lies waste and you live in the enemies' land. Then the land shall rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.^v ³⁵During the whole period of its desolation it shall rest, a rest which it did not get on your Sabbaths when you lived in it. ³⁶Into the hearts of your survivors I will send faintness, so that the sound of a shaken leaf will startle them and they will flee as when they take flight from the sword; they shall fall when none is after them. ³⁷They shall stumble over each other as if facing a sword when none is pursuing and you will not be able to stand up to your enemies. ³⁸You shall perish among the nations and the land of your enemies shall absorb you. ³⁹Those of you who survive shall pine away in the land of your enemies because of their guilt, and because of the guilt of their fathers,^w too, they shall like them, pine away.

⁴⁰But if they acknowledge their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, the treason they perpetrated against Me; ⁴¹also that they set themselves against Me so that I opposed them and brought them into their enemies' country — if now their uncircumcised heart is humbled; if they accept the punishment for their sins, ⁴²then I will remember My covenant with Jacob; My covenant also with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. ⁴³However, the land shall be left behind by them and shall enjoy its Sabbaths while in their absence it lies desolate, and they must accept the penalty for their sins, because they despised My ordinances and their souls abhorred My laws. ⁴⁴Yet even when they are in the land of their enemies I will not cast them off, neither will I abhor them so as to annihilate them completely and to break My covenant with them, for I am the LORD your God. ⁴⁵On their behalf I will remember^x My covenant with their forefathers; whom in sight of the nations I brought out of the land of Egypt to be their God. I am the LORD.

⁴⁶These are the statutes, the ordinances and the laws which the LORD established between Him and the children of Israel on Mount Sinai by the ministry of Moses.

27 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:

²Speak to the Israelites; say to them: When one sets apart a vowed offering to the LORD that involves the evaluating of a person, ³then your estimate of a male from 20 to 60 years of age shall be 50 dollars by sanctuary standards ⁴and the evaluation of a female, 30 dollars. ⁵From 5 to 20 the evaluation of a male shall be 20 dollars and of a female, 10. ⁶From a month to 5 years the estimate shall be 5 dollars for the male and 3 dollars for the female. ⁷From 60 years up the estimate shall be 15 dollars for the male and 10 for the female. ⁸But if he is too poor to pay the evaluation, then he shall present himself to the priest and the priest shall evaluate him in propor-

u) This plumbs the depths of misery; it could not be worse.

v) In spite of their disobedience God provided sabbatical rest for the land.

w) As early as the days of the Judges divine punishments came; they repented, were forgiven and delivered; but the next generation backslid again.

x) God never goes back on covenant or promise and He requires the same from us.

tion to the ability of him who vowed.⁷

⁹If it is cattle of which they bring the LORD a sacrifice, then all of it that they give to the LORD shall be holy. ¹⁰They shall not replace it or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good, and if one animal is exchanged for another then this one as well as the other shall be dedicated. ¹¹If it is an unclean animal, such as is not brought to the LORD for an offering, then they shall present that animal to the priest. ¹²The priest shall estimate its value, whether good or bad, and according as you, the priest,² value it, so shall it be. ¹³If the man wants to buy it back, he shall add one fifth to its value.^a ¹⁴When a man dedicates his house to be set apart for the LORD, the priest shall evaluate it, whether good or bad, and as the priest values it, so shall it stand. ¹⁵If he who set it apart, wants to buy back his house, then he shall add one fifth to your estimate and it shall be his.

¹⁶When a man sets apart to the LORD a field he owns, then your estimate of it shall be according to the amount of seed required,^b ten bushels of barley means fifty silver dollars. ¹⁷If he dedicated his field from the year of jubilee on, then it shall start at your full estimate, ¹⁸but if he dedicates his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall compute the value in proportion to the years remaining till the next jubilee and so deduct from the evaluation. ¹⁹If the owner of the field wants to buy it back, then he shall add one fifth of the value in money to redeem it and it remains his. ²⁰If he does not wish to buy back the field, or has sold the field to another man, then it cannot be redeemed anymore ²¹and the field shall in the jubilee year, when it comes free, be holy to the LORD as a field set apart to Him. It shall be the priest's property.

²²If he dedicates to the LORD a field he bought, a field that is not his property by inheritance, ²³then the priest shall compute to him its value in view of the year of jubilee and on that day he shall give the estimated value as holy to the LORD. ²⁴In the year of jubilee the field returns from him who bought it to the original owner. ²⁵All estimates shall be by sanctuary silver standards; the dollar shall equal ten dimes.^c ²⁶The first-born of livestock, whether cattle or sheep, belongs to the LORD; it shall not be dedicated.^d ²⁷But if it is an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it at the estimated price and add a fifth to it, or if it is not bought back then it shall be sold at your estimate.

²⁸However, nothing devoted, nothing that a man has set apart to the LORD of everything he has, be it man or animal or inherited land, shall be sold or redeemed. Everything devoted is most holy to the LORD.

²⁹Among people no one who is under human doom can be bought off; he must certainly be executed.

³⁰All the tithe of the land, of the grain of the field and of the fruit of the trees is the LORD'S; it is holy to the LORD. ³¹If a man wants to buy any of his tithes, he must add its fifth to it. ³²The whole tithe of cattle and flocks, every tenth animal that passes under the rod shall be holy to the LORD.^e ³³He shall not investigate whether it is good or bad; he shall make no exchanges. If he exchanges one for another then both animals shall be dedicated; it shall not be redeemed.

³⁴These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses at Mt. Sinai for the children of Israel.

^y) Previous regulations do not cover or touch these voluntary vows, yet, once made, they should be fully and heartily carried out. But children, vowed by their parents or any other persons not of the tribe of Levi, were not acceptable for sacred service, hence the need of evaluation.

^z) Instructions are directed to the priests, for they must handle all offerings.

^b) The fifth added served to keep worshipers from vowing hastily.

^c) The acreage that required 10 bushels of barley to be sown on it would be worth 50 silver dollars. ^d) It is risky to compare our money values with those of the Hebrews, but as modern Bible readers we need these items also translated into our own terms.

^e) What has already been divinely appointed as being the LORD'S cannot be vowed to Him.

^f) Sheep were counted one by one as they passed under the shepherd's staff on entering the fold.

THE BOOK OF NUMBERS^a

April/May, 1445 B.C.

1 ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE SECOND month, in the second year after Israel's migration from Egypt, the LORD spoke with Moses in the wilderness of Sinai as he was in the meeting tent^b saying: ²Take a census^c of the entire assembly of the people of Israel, according to their families and clans, name by name; and get a record of every male ³from 20 years of age and upward, all who are subject to military service in the nation. You and Aaron conscript them according to their respective armies. ⁴Moreover there shall be a man, the leader of his clan, from each tribe to assist you. ⁵The names of these assistants are: from Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur; ⁶from Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; ⁷from Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab; ⁸from Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar; ⁹from Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon; ¹⁰from the people of Joseph, first from Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; then from Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; ¹¹from Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni; ¹²from Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai; ¹³from Asher, Pagiel the son of Ochran; ¹⁴from Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel; ¹⁵and from Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan. ¹⁶These are the national representatives, princes of their fathers' tribes and chiefs of the family divisions of Israel.

¹⁷So Moses and Aaron took these men who were designated by name, ¹⁸and when they had summoned the entire congregation on the first day of the second month, they registered them by ancestry according to their clans, name by name, from 20 years of age and upward ¹⁹in the way the LORD had directed Moses. In this manner Moses conscripted them in the wilderness of Sinai.

²⁰As for the descendants of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; ²¹those who were conscripted of the tribe of Reuben totaled 46,500.

²²Of the descendants of Simeon, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward who were subject to military service, ²³those who were conscripted of the tribe of Simeon totaled 59,300. ²⁴Of the descendants of Gad, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old and upward, who were subject to military service; ²⁵those who were conscripted of Gad totaled 45,650.

^a) This Book is called "Numbers" because of the two censuses it records. The Hebrew name is "in the wilderness," a key phrase in the opening verse. Numbers records the history of Israel from their stay at Mount Sinai to their arrival at the east bank of the Jordan. Chapters 1-10:10 continue the Sinaitic legislation and the rest takes up the journeyings. Instructions appear in this latter portion of the book, the last few chapters containing directions for the conquest and settlement of Canaan. ^b) The meeting place of God and man. ^c) A military census.

²⁰Of the descendants of Judah, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; ²⁷those who were conscripted of Judah totaled 74,600.

²⁸Of the descendants of Issachar, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old and upward, who were subject to military service; ²⁹those who were conscripted of the tribe of Issachar totaled 54,400.

³⁰Of the descendants of Zebulun their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; ³¹those who were conscripted of the tribe of Zebulun totaled 57,400.

³²Of the descendants of Joseph, of the sons of Ephraim, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; ³³those who were conscripted of the tribe of Ephraim totaled 40,500.

³⁴Of the sons of Manasseh, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; ³⁵those who were conscripted of the tribe of Manasseh totaled 32,200.

³⁶Of the descendants of Benjamin their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years upward, who were subject to military service; ³⁷those who were conscripted of the tribe of Benjamin totaled 35,400.

³⁸Of the descendants of Dan their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years upward who were subject to military training; ³⁹those who were conscripted of the tribe of Dan totaled 62,700.

⁴⁰Of the descendants of Asher, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years upward who were subject to military training; ⁴¹those who were conscripted of the tribe of Asher totaled 41,500.

⁴²Of the descendants of Naphtali, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years of age and upward who were subject to military service. ⁴³Those who were conscripted of the tribe of Naphtali totaled 53,400.

⁴⁴These are the people who were conscripted by Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel, those twelve men who came each from his respective family. ⁴⁵The grand total of those who were conscripted of the people of Israel by their families, from twenty years of age and upward who were subject to military service in the nation, ⁴⁶was 603,550.

⁴⁷The Levites, however, in their tribal lineage, were not included in this census, ⁴⁸because the LORD had instructed Moses: ⁴⁹As for the tribe of Levi, do not conscript them^d or take their census with the other people in Israel. ⁵⁰Rather, see that you put them in charge of the Dwelling that contains the Testimony, its furniture and all its belongings; they shall carry it with all its equipment, take care of it, and camp around it. ⁵¹When it is time for the Dwelling to be moved, the Levites shall dismantle it, and when it encamps they shall set it up; but any layman^e who approaches it shall be executed.^f ⁵²The people of Israel shall camp in their assigned positions under their standards, according to their armies; ⁵³but the Levites shall camp around the Dwelling that contains the Testimony to avert any indignation against the assembly of the people.

d) They were to be the spiritual warriors of the LORD, a more important position.

e) Any unauthorized persons, for even the Levites were restricted in their association with the tabernacle. See ch. 16, esp. vs. 40.

f) This is the first mention of the majestic sacredness of the LORD's Dwelling.

Moreover, the Levites shall take complete charge of this structure. ⁵⁴So the people of Israel acted in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

1445 B.C.

2 THE LORD ALSO DIRECTED MOSES and Aaron: ²The people of Israel are to camp around the tent of meeting^g though at a distance,^h each under his respective standard and by their clans' ensigns. ³Those under the standard of the division of Judah are to camp according to their armies on the east side toward the sunrise. The prince of Judah's descendants is Nahshonⁱ the son of Amminadab, ⁴and his army made up of their conscriptees totals 74,600. ⁵Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Issachar, whose prince is Nethaneel the son of Zuar, ⁶whose conscript army totals 54,400. ⁷Next is the tribe of Zebulun, their prince being Eliab the son of Helon; ⁸his army, 57,400. ⁹The total number that were conscripted of Judah's divisions is 186,400 by their respective armies; they are to be the first to break camp and march.^j ¹⁰In like manner, on the south side shall be the standard of the division of Reuben according to their armies. The prince of Reuben's descendants is Elizur the son of She-deur; ¹¹his army, 46,500. ¹²Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Simeon, their prince, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; ¹³his army, 59,300; ¹⁴then the tribe of Gad; their prince, Eliasaph the son of Reuel; ¹⁵his army, 45,650. ¹⁶The total number that were conscripted of Reuben's divisions is 151,450 by their respective armies; they are to break camp and march second. ¹⁷Then the tent of meeting with the ranks of the Levites is to move forward in the central position. As they camp, so shall they march, each in his own position, under the standards.

¹⁸To the west shall be the standard of the division of Ephraim according to their armies. The prince of Ephraim's descendants is Elishama the son of Ammihud, ¹⁹and his army made up of their conscriptees totals 40,500. ²⁰Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Manasseh, their prince being Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; ²¹his army, 32,200; ²²then the tribe of Benjamin; their prince, Abidan the son of Gideoni; ²³his army, 35,400. ²⁴The total number that were conscripted of Ephraim's divisions is 108,100 according to their respective armies. They are to break camp and march third.

²⁵In like manner on the north side shall be the standard of the division of Dan according to their armies. The prince of Dan's descendants is Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai; ²⁶his army 62,700. ²⁷Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Asher; their prince, Pagie; the son of Ocran; ²⁸his army, 41,500; ²⁹Then the tribe of Naphtali; their prince, Ahira the son of Enan; ³⁰his army, 53,400. ³¹The total number of those conscripted of Dan's divisions is 157,600. Under their standards they are to break camp and bring up the rear.^k ³²The foregoing is a list of those who were conscripted of the divisions of Israel according to their respective armies, the grand total being 603,550.

³³The Levites, however, were not conscripted with the rest of the people of Israel since the LORD had commanded Moses otherwise.^l ³⁴So the people of Israel complied with all the LORD's directions to Moses; as they encamped under their standards, so they broke camp and marched, each with his respective family and clan.

1445 B.C.

3 THIS IS THE GENEALOGICAL REGISTER of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. ²The names of Aaron's sons are Nadab the oldest, then Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, ³all of them the sons of Aaron and anointed priests.

g) The Dwelling was always to occupy the central position, whether they were camping or trekking [See Ps. 46:5]. h) See Josh. 3:4.

i) He is listed with Christ's genealogy in Matt. 1:4, and appears to have been the most responsible division commander. j) This began the national fulfilment of the prophecy in Gen. 49:8-12.

k) The ancestors of these tribes were Dan and Naphtali, the sons of Jacob by his concubine, Bilhah. Asher was Jacob's son by Zilpah. This seems the main reason they were kept in the rear.

l) See ch. 1:47ff.

whom he installed in priestly office. ⁴Nadab and Abihu, however, died in the LORD's presence when they offered improper fire^m before Him in the wilderness of Sinai. They had no children; consequently, Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of Aaron their father.

⁵Summon the tribe of Levi, the LORD instructed Moses, ⁶and assign them to Aaron the priest that they may assist him; ⁷they shall discharge the obligations imposed by him and the duties connected with the entire assembly before the meeting tent as attendants upon the Dwelling. ⁸They shall be in charge of all the furnishings of the meeting tent and attend to Israel's service of maintaining the work of the Dwelling. ⁹Therefore, assign the men of Levi, yes, everyone of them as dedicated from among the people of Israel, ¹⁰to Aaron and his sons. As for the latter, ordain them that they may attend to their priestly duties, because anyone else who makes such attempts shall be executed. ¹¹For I, continued the LORD to Moses, ¹²even I, have adopted the men of Levi from among the people of Israel as a substitute for all those who are the first to be born of their mothers throughout the nation.ⁿ The men of Levi shall be Mine ¹³on the basis that all the first-born belong to Me; you remember it was when I killed all the first-born in the land of Egypt that I set apart for Myself this similar group in Israel, both man and beast;^o therefore, they belong to Me. I am Jehovah.

¹⁴The LORD further directed Moses in the wilderness of Sinai: ¹⁵Take a census of the descendants of Levi according to their clans and families, including every male a month or more old. ¹⁶Moses therefore numbered them at the LORD's command as he was directed. ¹⁷These are Levi's sons by name: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari; ¹⁸and these are the names of Gershon's sons by families: Libni and Shimei. ¹⁹Those of Kohath by families were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, ²⁰and those of Merari by families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their clans.

²¹The clan of Gershon is comprised of the families of Libni and Shimei, these two making up the clan; ²²their number, all the males a month or more old, totaled 7,500. ²³These families of Gershon were to camp behind the tabernacle on the west side, ²⁴with Eliasaph the son of Lael as their clan leader. ²⁵The men were responsible for the following articles in connection with the meeting tent: the Dwelling and the tent, particularly its covering and the curtain at its entrance, ²⁶the hangings and the door curtain of the court which is around the Dwelling, the altar and the ropes for all the work connected with the tent.

²⁷The clan of Kohath consists of the families of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, these four making up the clan; their enrollment, ²⁸likewise reckoned from all the males a month or more old, amounted to 8,600. They were the custodians for the sanctuary. ²⁹These families of Kohath were to camp by the south side of the tabernacle ³⁰with Elizaphan the son of Uzziel as the clan leader of their families.

³¹Specifically, they were in charge of the Ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary used in the service, ³²the veil,^p and all the work entailed with them. Eleazar the son of Aaron, who was the chief leader of the Levites, had the oversight of these sanctuary attendants.

³³The clan of Merari consists of the families of Mahli and Mushi, these two making up the Merari clan; ³⁴their number, all the males a month or more old, totaled 6,200. ³⁵The leader of this clan with its families was Zuriel the

m) An offering of incense which had not been made in the prescribed manner [Lev. 10:1,2]. The Lord's warning [Lev. 10:8-11] against wine or strong drink suggests that their lack of reverence had been due to drinking.

n) By this arrangement, through which the care of the service at the sanctuary became the full-time occupation of one tribe, a more orderly and efficient performance of this service was obtained than could have been rendered by the first-born from all the tribes.

o) See Ex. 13:1,2. p) Between the Holy of Holies and the holy place.

son of Abihail; they were to camp by the north side of the tabernacle. ³⁶The men of Merari had charge of the frames of the Dwelling, its bars, pillars, sockets, all the accessories, and the work connected with them; ³⁷also the pillars of the surrounding court with their sockets, pegs and ropes.

³⁸Finally, those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle — that is, to the east of the meeting tent^q — were Moses and Aaron and his sons, who had complete charge of the sanctuary for the service of the people of Israel, and any layman who approached too near was to be executed. ³⁹The grand total of those who were enrolled by families from Levi by Moses and Aaron in accord with the LORD's command — namely, all the males a month or more old — was 22,000.

⁴⁰The LORD further directed Moses: Take a census of all the first-born males a month or more old in the nation of Israel to determine how many there are. ⁴¹Then as a substitute for these first-born, take the men of Levi for Me — I am the LORD — and Levi's cattle in place of all the first-born cattle belonging to the people. ⁴²Moses therefore took the number of all the first-born in the nation of Israel as the LORD had directed, ⁴³and this prescribed group totaled 22,273.^r ⁴⁴The LORD then said to Moses: ⁴⁵Take now the men of Levi in place of all the first-born in the nation of Israel, likewise Levi's cattle for their cattle so that the men of Levi may be Mine. I am Jehovah. ⁴⁶The ransoms which you are to require from the 273 — that is, from the first-born in Israel over and above the men of Levi — ⁴⁷shall be five dollars^s a head, the standard being the dollar of the sanctuary where twenty nickels^t make a dollar. ⁴⁸Then give the ransom silver from this excess group to Aaron and his sons. ⁴⁹Accordingly, Moses collected the silver for the redemption from those whose number exceeded the total redeemed by the Levites, ⁵⁰and the precious metal which he received from these firstborn in Israel amounted to 1,365 sanctuary dollars. ⁵¹Then at the LORD's command, he gave this ransom payment from the ransomed to Aaron and his sons as the LORD had ordered him.

1445 B.C.

4 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND AARON: ²Take a census of the men of Kohath from among the descendants of Levi according to their families and clans, ³including those from the age of 30 up to those who are 50, all who qualify to enter the service^u to do the work in the meeting tent. ⁴Their responsibilities in this tent shall be in connection with the most holy things. ⁵When it is time to break camp, Aaron and his sons shall enter, take down the covering veil,^v and with it cover the Ark that contains the testimonial evidence. ⁶Over this they shall place a covering of treated leather,^w spread an all-violet cloth on top of that,^x and then adjust^y the carrying poles. ⁷They shall also cover the table of the Presence with a violet cloth upon which shall be placed the dishes, the spoons, the bowls, and the jars for the libation, and the perpetual bread shall also be on it. ⁸Next, they shall spread over them a crimson cloth, wrap it all with a covering of treated leather and insert the carrying poles. ⁹They shall then take a violet cloth and cover the lampstand of light, its lamps, snuffers, and trays, and all the oil containers from which they service it. ¹⁰Afterwards

q) This was the most important side, as it guarded the entrance to the Dwelling.

r) All the first-born prior to the exodus had already been redeemed by the paschal lamb [Ex. 12:22,23]; therefore, the command for consecration of the first-born in Ex. 13:2 must refer to the first-born from that time forward. Vss. 11-13 substantiate this conclusion.

s) Heb. — "shekel" — a weight, not a coin. It was made of silver, weighed about two-fifths of an ounce, and would be worth about one dollar today. t) Heb. — "gerah" — equal to our nickel.

u) This word in the Hebrew means military service. The spiritual battle in which the men of Levi were engaged was of great consequence.

v) Which separated the holy place from the most holy place, see Ex. 26:31-35.

w) Which served as a waterproof covering for the articles in the tabernacle.

x) This special outer covering was to distinguish the Ark from the remainder of the equipment, as it was the LORD's glory throne.

y) The carrying poles of the Ark were not to be removed [Ex. 25:15].

they shall put it and all its accessories in a wrapping of treated leather and place it on a carrying frame. ¹¹They shall spread a violet cloth over the golden altar, wrap this with a covering of treated leather, and insert its carrying poles. ¹²They shall then take all the ministering utensils used in the service of the sanctuary, wrap them first in a violet cloth and next with a covering of treated leather, and place them on the carrying frame.

¹³After cleaning the ashes out of the altar, they shall spread a reddish-purple cloth over it ¹⁴and place on this all the utensils that are used in connection with it; namely, the fire pans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar. Over this they shall place a wrapping of treated leather and then insert the carrying poles. ¹⁵Finally, after Aaron and his sons have finished packing the sanctuary and all its contents, and the camp is starting to move on, the men of Kohath shall come to carry them; they must not, however, touch the holy things, else they die.² The foregoing constitute the load of the meeting tent for the men of Kohath. ¹⁶Now Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, shall attend to the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil; moreover, he shall be in charge of the entire Dwelling and everything that is in it, both the sanctuary and its equipment.

¹⁷The LORD further cautioned Moses and Aaron: ¹⁸Do not destroy the branch of the Kohath families from among Levi; ¹⁹but do this for them in order that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Let Aaron and his sons enter and assign each individual his task and his particular load. ²⁰They are not, however, to come in to look at the sanctuary, even for a moment, else they will be killed.

²¹The LORD further said to Moses: ²²Take a census, too, of the men of Gershon, according to their clans and families, ²³and enroll those between the ages of 30 and 50, that is, all who qualify to enter the service for work in the meeting tent. ²⁴The following shall be the duties of the families of Gershon in serving and carrying: ²⁵They shall carry the curtains of the Dwelling; the meeting tent with its covering; the covering of treated leather which goes over that, and the curtain for its entrance; ²⁶the hangings of the court, and the door curtain for the gate of the court which surrounds the tabernacle and the altar; their ropes, and all the accessories for their use. In addition, they are to do everything that has to be done in connection with these articles. ²⁷All these duties of the men of Gershon, both in total transport and labor, shall be under the supervision of Aaron and his sons; you shall assign to them everything that they are to carry. ²⁸This is the work of the families of Gershon in connection with the tent of meeting; their tasks shall be under the immediate supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

²⁹As for the men of Merari, you are to enroll them according to their families and clans, ³⁰those who are between the ages of 30 and 50, all who qualify to enter the service for work in the tent of meeting. ³¹Specifically, these are the things which they must carry as all their work in this tent: The Boards of the tabernacle and its bars, pillars and pedestals; ³²the pillars of the surrounding court and their pedestals, pegs and ropes, with all their accessories and servicing. Moreover, you leaders point out to each the articles which he is to carry. ³³This is the work of the families of Merari with regard to all their tasks in the meeting tent; all this is under the supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

³⁴So Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the congregation enrolled the men of Kohath according to their families and clans, ³⁵all those between the ages of 30 and 50 who were qualified to enter the service for work in the meeting tent. ³⁶The total number of their appointees according to their families was 2,750. ³⁷These were enrolled from the families of Kohath, everyone who worked in the meeting tent, whom Moses and Aaron appointed at the LORD's command through Moses.

² This was later exemplified in the case of Uzzah, killed for touching the Ark [II Sam. 6:6,7].

³⁸Those enrolled from the men of Gershon in the same manner — by family and clan and from those ³⁹between the ages of 30 and 50 — for similar service in the meeting tent ⁴⁰numbered, according to their families, 2,630. ⁴¹These are the appointees from the families of Gershon: everyone who was to work in the meeting tent, those whom Moses and Aaron commissioned under the LORD's direction.

⁴²Those who were likewise enrolled from the men of Merari — by family and clan and ⁴³from those between the ages of 30 and 50 for similar service in the meeting tent numbered, ⁴⁴according to their families, 3,200. ⁴⁵These appointees from the families of Merari were likewise commissioned by Moses and Aaron at the LORD's command through Moses. ⁴⁶The whole enrollment of the men of Levi obtained by Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel, when they numbered them by their families and clans, ⁴⁸totaled 8,580. ⁴⁷This group was made up of all those between the ages of 30 and 50 who were appointed to enter the service for work and burden bearing in the tent of meeting. ⁴⁹At the LORD's command they were each assigned their respective duties and burdens; and their enrollment was accomplished after the manner in which the LORD had instructed Moses.

5 FURTHERMORE THE LORD TOLD Moses: ²Order the people of Israel to remove from the camp every leper and everyone who has an emission or is defiled by touching a corpse;^a ³whether male or female, they shall be expelled from and sent outside the camp, because they are not to defile their camp where I dwell among them. ⁴The people of Israel did so and evicted them from the camp, doing it as the LORD had directed Moses.

⁵The LORD also said to Moses: ⁶Tell the people of Israel, If a man or a woman commits any of the crimes of mankind,^b thus dealing unfaithfully with the LORD, then that person is guilty. ⁷He must then confess the crime which he has committed, make full restitution for his wrongdoing with one fifth added, and restore it to the person wronged.^c ⁸But if the man has no next of kin to whom restitution can be made,^d this reparation, now due to the LORD, shall go for the priest; though it is not to be confused with the ram for atonement with which complete satisfaction is to be made in his behalf. ⁹Moreover, every offering of all the sacred gifts presented by the people of Israel^e shall belong to the priest. ¹⁰The sacred gifts of every man shall belong to him; whatever any man gives to the priest shall be his.

¹¹The LORD also said to Moses: ¹²Speak to the Israelites and tell them, Any man whose wife shall turn aside and be unfaithful to him ¹³so that another man has intercourse with her, even though the affair be concealed from the eyes of her husband and she be undetected though defiled, there being no witness against her since she was not caught in the act; ¹⁴still, if he becomes suspicious and is jealous of his wife because she really is defiled, or if the same doubts come to his mind even though she has not defiled herself, either way, ¹⁵the man shall bring his wife to the priest along with an offering for her — three and one-half quarts of barley flour. He is not, however, to pour oil on it or place incense on it, since it is an offering of suspicion, one for remembering, intended to bring sin to mind.

¹⁶The priest shall then bring her and present her before the LORD. ¹⁷In addition, he shall take holy water in a clay jar, pick up some dust from off

a) The period and conditions of their eviction varied; for leprosy see Lev. 13; for emission, Lev. 15:2ff., and for defilement, Num. 19:11ff.

b) Crimes involving another man's property [Lev. 6:2,3]. c) For details, see Lev. 6:4,5.

d) In case the person wronged is dead.

e) Not sacrifices but offerings of dedication, first fruits, etc.

the floor of the tabernacle, and put it in the water. ¹⁸Then after placing the woman before the LORD^f he shall let her hair down, place in her hands the offering for remembering — the one of suspicion — and hold in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse. ¹⁹Next, the priest shall make her take an oath saying to her, "If a man has not had intercourse with you and you have not had sexual relations with other than your husband, then be free from the effects of this bitter water which brings a curse. ²⁰But if you have turned to another in place of your husband, if you have defiled yourself, and some man besides your husband has lain with you" — ²¹the priest shall make the woman swear with an oath of adjuration and continue — "then may the LORD make you a curse and an oath^g among your people by making your thighs shrivel and your abdomen swell: ²²this curse-bringing water shall enter your stomach, making your abdomen swell and your thighs shrivel." "Let it be so," she shall acknowledge; "Let it be so."

²³The priest shall then write these curses in the book and wash them off in the bitter water,^h ²⁴and when he gives the woman this water, bitter with curses, to drink, it shall cause bitter pain upon entering her system. ²⁵Meanwhile, the priest shall take the meal offering of suspicion from her hand and move it back and forth before the LORD bringing it to the altar. ²⁶Moreover, he shall take a handful of it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar,ⁱ after which he shall make the woman drink the water. ²⁷Once he has given her the water to drink, it shall be that if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, the bitter water which brings the curse, having entered her system, will cause her abdomen to swell and her thighs to shrivel; she shall become a curse among her people. ²⁸If, however, she has not defiled herself, but is pure, she will remain unharmed and bear children. ²⁹This is the law of jealous suspicion in case a wife is unfaithful to her husband and is defiled. ³⁰When a man gets doubts in his mind and becomes jealous of his wife, then he shall similarly present her before the LORD and the priest shall deal with her according to this entire law. ³¹Thus the husband shall be innocent of any sin and the wife shall pay for her crime.

6 THE LORD FURTHER SAID TO MOSES: ²Tell the people of Israel, If a man or woman shall do the signal act of making the vow of a Nazarite—namely, to live in consecration to the LORD — ³he must abstain from wine and intoxicating drink.^j He must not drink the vinegar of wine nor strong drink, nor any kind of grape juice; neither may he eat fresh or dried grapes. ⁴During the entire period of his consecration, he must not eat anything which is prepared from the grapevine, not even the seeds and skins.^k ⁵Furthermore, during the entire period of his consecration vow, no razor must be used on his head; he is to be holy, allowing the locks of hair on his head to grow until the period during which he lives as a Nazarite to the LORD is completed.^l ⁶During this same period he must not come near a dead body; ⁷he may not even render himself unclean by his father, mother, brother, or sister when they die, because his consecration to God is upon his head. ⁸During his entire period as a Nazarite he must be holy to the LORD.

⁹If someone should die suddenly in his presence and he defile his consecrated head, then he must shave it on his purification day; the seventh day he shall shave it completely. ¹⁰On the eighth day he must bring either two

f) In front of the altar. g) For an example of a person becoming an oath or curse, see Jer. 29:22. h) In doing this, the curse was symbolically imparted to the water; moreover, God gave it the power to act injuriously upon a guilty person, an innocent party suffering no ill effects, the awareness of innocence or of guilt cooperating to make this an effective lie detector.

i) Upon the Lord's acceptance of this offering He brought to remembrance the sin of a guilty party, thus imparting the curse to the water. j) Consecration and self-denial cannot be separated.

k) The fruit of the vine stood for all sensual enjoyments.

l) The long hair symbolized dedication of all the forces of his nature, undiminished, to the LORD.

turtle doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the door of the meeting tent, ¹¹whereupon the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt-offering, that he might make atonement for him, since he sinned in the matter of the corpse. ¹²He shall anew dedicate his head on that day, that he might live as a Nazarite to the LORD during the period of his consecration. He must also bring a year-old lamb for a guilt-offering, for the previous days cannot be counted because his consecration was rendered unclean.

¹³Now this is the procedure of the Nazarite for the day on which his consecration period is completed: After he has been brought to the door of the meeting tent, ¹⁴he is to present his offering to the LORD; namely, a flawless year-old male lamb for a burnt-offering, a flawless year-old lamb for a sin-offering, a spotless ram for a peace offering, ¹⁵and a basket of unleavened bread — cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers daubed with oil — together with their meal offering and libations.^m ¹⁶The priest shall present these before the LORD and offer his sin-offering and burnt-offering. ¹⁷The ram he shall offer as a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; he shall also offer its meal-offering and libation.

¹⁸The Nazarite shall then shave his dedicated head at the door of the meeting tent, take this hair and put it in the fire which is under the peace-offering sacrifice. ¹⁹The priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram along with an unleavened cake and wafer from the basket and put them in the hands of the Nazarite after he has shaved himself of the hair of his consecration. ²⁰The priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; they are to be a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast of the wave-offering and the shoulder of the heave-offering.ⁿ After that, the Nazarite may drink wine. ²¹This is the law of the Nazarite, who shall vow to give his offering to the LORD in accordance with his consecration, not including what extra he may be able to do; according to the vow which he has taken, so must he conform to the law of his consecration.

²²The LORD further said to Moses: ²³tell Aaron and his sons: This is the way you are to bless the people of Israel. Say to them, ²⁴"The LORD bless you and keep you; ²⁵the LORD make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you; ²⁶the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace." ²⁷In this manner they shall invoke My name upon the people of Israel and I Myself will bless them.

7 NOW IT WAS ON THE DAY WHEN Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle and had anointed and sanctified it with all its equipment, including the altar and its utensils which he likewise anointed and sanctified, ²that the princes of Israel, the leaders of their tribal houses — these are the tribal princes in charge of those who were enrolled — made a presentation. ³They brought their gifts before the LORD — six covered wagons and twelve bullocks, a wagon for two princes and a bullock for each, and presented them in front of the Dwelling. ⁴The LORD then told Moses: ⁵Accept these things from them, that they may be used in effecting the work^o of the meeting tent and give them to the men of Levi, to each as his work requires. ⁶Accordingly, Moses took the wagons and the bullocks and gave them to the Levites. ⁷Two wagons and four bullocks he gave to the men of Gershon as their work required; ⁸likewise, four wagons and eight bullocks to the men of Merari as their work required, under the supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. ⁹To the men of Kohath, however, he gave nothing, because it was their responsibility to attend to the work of the holy things which they had to carry on their shoulders.^p ¹⁰Now the princes presented the dedicatory gift for the altar on the day it was anointed, offering it before the altar. ¹¹Consequently, the LORD instructed Moses: Have them, each prince on his day,^a present the dedicatory gift for the altar.

^m) See Num. 15:3ff. ⁿ) See Lev. 7:32-34.

^o) Transporting the Dwelling and all its equipment. ^p) See ch. 4:15.

¹²The one who presented his gift on the first day in behalf of the tribe of Judah was Nahshon the son of Amminadab. ¹³His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds^r and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds,^s in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ¹⁴one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ¹⁵one young bull from the cattle, one ram and one year-old lamb for a burnt-offering; ¹⁶One male goat for a sin-offering; ¹⁷and for the peace offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

¹⁸On the second day Nethaneel, the son of Zuar, the prince of Issachar made his offering. ¹⁹The gift which he presented was likewise one silver dish which weighed about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ²⁰one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ²¹one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one year-old male lamb for a burnt-offering; ²²one male goat for a sin-offering; ²³and for the peace offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

²⁴On the third day, the prince of Zebulun's descendants, Eliab the son of Helon, made his offering: ²⁵His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary—both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ²⁶one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ²⁷one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ²⁸one male goat for a sin-offering; ²⁹and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Eliab, the son of Helon.

³⁰On the fourth day, the prince of Reuben's descendants, Elizur the son of Shedeur, made his offering: ³¹His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary—both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ³²one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ³³one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ³⁴one male goat for a sin-offering; ³⁵and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

³⁶On the fifth day, the prince of Simeon's descendants, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, made his offering: ³⁷His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ³⁸one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ³⁹one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ⁴⁰one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁴¹and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

⁴²On the sixth day, the prince of Gad's descendants, Eliasaph the son of Reuel,^t made his offering: ⁴³His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the

q) Presumably, because of the nature of the gifts. The limited space in the court would not have allowed the receiving, slaughtering, and preparing for sacrifice of 252 animals all in one day, let alone the burning of 36 whole animals and the fat portions of 216 animals on the altar.

r) 130 shekels. One shekel about one dollar today. s) Seventy shekels.

t) The Samaritan text has Deuel each time the name occurs, while the Septuagint and the Syrian have Reuel. In Hebrew the R and the D may be written much alike.

standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ⁴⁴one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ⁴⁵one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ⁴⁶one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁴⁷and for the peace-offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Eliasaph the son of Reuel.

⁴⁸On the seventh day, the prince of Ephraim's descendants, Elishama the son of Ammihud, made his offering: ⁴⁹His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ⁵⁰one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ⁵¹one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ⁵²one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁵³and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

⁵⁴On the eighth day, the prince of Manasseh's descendants, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, made his offering: ⁵⁵His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ⁵⁶one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ⁵⁷one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ⁵⁸one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁵⁹and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

⁶⁰On the ninth day, the prince of Benjamin's descendants, Abidan the son of Gideoni, made his offering: ⁶¹His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ⁶²one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ⁶³one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb for a burnt-offering; ⁶⁴one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁶⁵and for a peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

⁶⁶On the tenth day, the prince of Dan's descendants, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, made his offering: ⁶⁷His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ⁶⁸one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ⁶⁹one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb for a burnt-offering; ⁷⁰one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁷¹and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

⁷²On the eleventh day, the prince of Asher's descendants, Pagiel the son of Ochran, made his offering: ⁷³His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds, and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ⁷⁴one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ⁷⁵one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ⁷⁶one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁷⁷and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Pagiel the son of Ochran.

⁷⁸Finally on the twelfth day, the prince of Naphtali's descendants, Ahinai the son of Enan, made his offering: ⁷⁹His gift was one silver dish weighing about $3\frac{1}{4}$ pounds, and one silver basin of about $1\frac{3}{4}$ pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; ⁸⁰one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; ⁸¹one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; ⁸²one male goat for a sin-offering; ⁸³and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Ahira the son of Enan.

⁸⁴The foregoing was the dedicatory gift from the princes of Israel for the altar on the day it was anointed; it included twelve silver dishes, twelve silver basins, twelve gold pans, ⁸⁵each silver dish weighed about 3¼ pounds and each silver basin, about 1¾ pounds. The total weight of the silver utensils was about sixty pounds,^u in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary. ⁸⁶The twelve gold pans full of incense weighed about four ounces apiece, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary; all the gold of the pans amounted to four pounds.^v ⁸⁷The total number of animals for the burnt-offering was twelve young bulls from the cattle, twelve rams, and twelve male year-old lambs with their grain-offerings; for the sin-offering, twelve male goats; ⁸⁸and the total number of animals for the peace offering sacrifice was twenty-four young bulls from the cattle, sixty rams, sixty he-goats, and sixty year-old lambs. This was the dedicatory gift for the altar after it had been anointed. ⁸⁹When Moses entered the meeting tent to talk with Him, he heard the Voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim and above the mercy seat^w which was on the Ark of the Testimony; in this manner He spoke to him.

1445 B.C.

8 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²SPEAK with Aaron and tell him, When you place the lamps, let the seven lamps shine frontward from the lampstand. ³Aaron acted accordingly; he placed the lamps so that they faced outward from the lampstand, just as the LORD had directed Moses. ⁴As for the fashioning of the lampstand,^x it was hammered work of gold; it was of hammered work from the base to the flowers. Thus he fashioned the lampstand according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses.

⁵The LORD further told Moses: ⁶Take the men of Levi from among the people of Israel and cleanse^y them. ⁷To accomplish this cleansing, do this to them: sprinkle the purifying water^z over them and have them shave their entire bodies with a razor, and have them wash their clothes and cleanse themselves. ⁸Then have them procure a young bull from the cattle with its grain-offering — fine flour mixed with oil.^a Moreover, take another young bull from the cattle for a sin-offering. ⁹Next bring the men of Levi to the front of the meeting tent and assemble the entire congregation of the people of Israel. ¹⁰Present the men of Levi before the LORD and let the people of Israel place their hands on them.^b ¹¹Aaron shall then offer^c the Levites as a wave offering before the LORD from the people of Israel so that the Levites may be in position to execute the LORD's service.^d ¹²As for the Levites, have them lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; then offer one as a sin-offering and the other as a burnt-offering to the LORD to atone for the men of Levi. ¹³Moreover, place the men of Levi before Aaron and his sons and offer them as a wave offering to the LORD.

¹⁴In this way you are to separate the Levites from the people of Israel, so they will belong to Me. ¹⁵Thereafter the men of Levi shall enter to perform duties connected with the meeting tent. Cleanse them and offer them as a wave offering, ¹⁶for they must definitely be given to Me from among the people of Israel as a substitute for all who open the womb; the first born of

u) 2400 dollars. v) 120 dollars. w) See Ex. 25:22. x) See Ex. 25:31-37.

y) The word sanctify is used for the priest's cleansing in Ex. 29:1. The Levitical service, in comparison with the priestly service, was of a less solemn and sacred nature.

z) Used symbolically of purification, possibly with water from the laver.

a) For a burnt offering.

b) Presumably representatives of both groups took part in this ceremony. c) Symbolically.

d) The laborious service connected with the Dwelling, see 3:25-26.

all the people of Israel, for I have chosen them for Myself. ¹⁷This is because all the first-born in the nation of Israel are rightfully Mine, both among man and beast, for at the time that I slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, I set them apart for Myself.^e ¹⁸I have, however, chosen the Levites as a substitute for all Israel's first-born. In addition, ¹⁹I have given the men of Levi as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the nation of Israel to perform the service^f of her people in the meeting tent and to atone for them, so that there may not be a plague in the nation of Israel when her people approach the Holy Place.^g ²⁰Therefore Moses, Aaron, and the entire assembly^h of the men of Israel dealt with the Levites in accordance with everything that the LORD had commanded Moses concerning them; thus the people of Israel dealt with them. ²¹The men of Levi cleansed themselves from sin and washed their clothes; then Aaron offered them as a wave offering in the presence of the LORD and made atonement for them for their purification. ²²From that time on the men of Levi came in to do their work in the meeting tent in the presence of Aaron and his sons. In short, they took the proper steps with the Levites, even as the LORD had directed Moses concerning them.

²³In addition, the LORD said to Moses: ²⁴This applies to the men of Levi: Starting at the age of 25, they shall commence to engage in active duty in the service of the meeting tent. ²⁵At the age of 50, however, they shall retire from active duty in the service and shall not be employed anymore. ²⁶Thereafter they shall assistⁱ their fellow workers in the meeting tent in keeping with the office, but shall not discharge the regular duties. So shall you deal with the men of Levi in connection with their office.

March/April, 1445 B.C.

9 IN THE FIRST MONTH OF THE SECOND year after their departure from the land of Egypt, the LORD had instructed^j Moses in the wilderness of Sinai: ²The people of Israel are to observe the Passover^k at its designated time. ³The fourteenth of this month at dusk^l is the assigned date for you to keep it, and be sure to observe it according to all its rules and regulations.^m ⁴So Moses directed the nation of Israel to keep the Passover. ⁵They observed the Passover in the wilderness of Sinai on the fourteenth day of the first month at dusk; the people of Israel did exactly as the LORD had instructed Moses.

⁶Certain men, however, were not able to observe the Passover that day, because they had been defiled, contacting a person's corpse. Those men, therefore, came to Moses and Aaron the same day ⁷and told himⁿ their predicament. "We have been defiled by a man's corpse, but why should we be prohibited from presenting among the people of Israel the sacrificial gift^o of the LORD at its designated time?" ⁸Moses replied to them, "Wait while I see what the LORD prescribes in your case."^p ⁹Then the LORD said to Moses: ¹⁰Speak to the nation of Israel in this manner: If anyone of you or of your descendants is defiled by a corpse or is on a long trip, he too must keep the Passover. ¹¹Let them, however, observe it on the fourteenth day of the second month^q at dusk, eating both unleavened bread and bitter herbs with it.

e) See Ex. 13:1,2.

f) Both the work connected with the Dwelling and the service due to the LORD from the first born. g) God's holiness must be revered. h) The main representatives of the people.

i) Doing less exacting, less important work. j) It seems that these instructions were given the same day that the tabernacle was erected, one month prior to the events of chapter one, see 9:15 and Ex. 40:2,17.

k) This was a command. The observance was to remind the people how God had delivered them from the bondage of Egypt, typifying their deliverance through the Redeemer Christ from the bondage of sin [I Cor. 5:7]. l) Heb. — "between the two evenings," probably between sunset and dark. See Ex. 12.

m) An unclean person could not participate in a sacrificial meal [Lev. 7:20,21. Compare II Cor. 11:28,29]. n) Moses. o) The Passover lamb.

p) God always has the right answer to every problem [see James 1:5].

q) The entire nation observed it after the revival under Hezekiah [II Chron. 30:15].

¹²They are not to keep any of it over until morning or break one of its bones;^r they are to observe carefully every regulation of the Passover. ¹³On the other hand, if any individual who is clean and not traveling fails to observe the Passover, that person is to be cut off from his fellowmen because the sacrificial gift for the LORD was not presented at its proper time; that individual must pay for his sin.^s ¹⁴If a foreigner resides among you and wishes to keep the LORD's Passover, he also must observe it according to its rules and regulations;^t all must abide by the same rule, both the foreigner and the native.^u

¹⁵On the day when the tabernacle was erected, the cloud covered the Dwelling, the tent containing the testimonial evidence,^v and from evening until morning over the tabernacle it had the appearance of fire. ¹⁶Thus it was continually; the cloud would cover it by day and the form of fire at night. ¹⁷The people of Israel, moreover, would break camp and depart whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tent; and at the place where it stationed itself, there the people would camp. ¹⁸At the LORD's command the people of Israel pulled up stakes, and at His command they halted, remaining encamped as long as the cloud was stationed above the tabernacle.^w ¹⁹Whenever the cloud remained in this position for some time, the men of Israel would not break camp but would perform the service of the LORD.^x ²⁰If the cloud was over the tabernacle for only a few days, still at the LORD's command they would encamp and at His command they would decamp. ²¹Sometimes the cloud would remain only from evening until morning; in this case in the morning after the cloud was taken up, they would break camp. Whether it was during the day or at night, whenever the cloud was removed they would pull up stakes. ²²If the cloud continued to remain over the tabernacle for a day or two, or a month, or even for a longer period, the Israelites would remain in camp and not leave; but when it was taken up, they moved on. ²³At the LORD's command they camped, and again at His command they would leave.^y They performed the LORD's service as He had directed through Moses.

March/April, 1445 B.C.

10 THE LORD FURTHER SAID TO Moses: ²Make you two silver trumpets; fashion them of hammered work; they are for you to use for summoning the assembly and for breaking camp. ³When they sound both of them, the entire assembly^z is to gather at the door of the tent of meeting. ⁴If, however, they blow only one, then just the princes, the leaders of Israel's thousands, are to assemble before you. ⁵When you sound a blast, the camp situated on the east side shall start to break camp and to leave, ⁶and at the sound of a second blast, those situated on the south side shall break camp; a blast is given for their departure. ⁷If you merely want to summon the assembly, however, then blow,^a but without giving a blast. ⁸Aaron's sons, the priests, are to blow the trumpets, and the use of them shall be continually binding upon you throughout your future generations. ⁹When you go to war in your own country against the enemy who oppresses you, then sound an alarm with the trumpets. The LORD your God will take note of your situation and you will be delivered from your enemies.^b ¹⁰On any celebration day, also on your appointed feasts^c and on the first day of your months, you are to blow the trumpets over your burnt-offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings, for they^d serve

r) See Ex. 12:8,10,46, so with Christ, our Passover Lamb, John 19:33,36.

s) Indifference to God's specific command meant excommunication. Does such indifference today go unnoticed and unpunished? [See Prov. 24:11,12].

t) The foreigner must be circumcised to enjoy those privileges [Ex. 12:48,49]. u) The Hebrew.

v) See Ex. 40:34ff, for similar statement, but including mention of divine glory.

w) Today the church is led by the Spirit through faith more than by sight.

x) The service connected with the tabernacle.

y) The instructions for our daily walk are as definite and binding [see Deut. 30:11-14].

z) The nation's representatives. a) Blowing in short, sharp tones rather than in a steady blast.

b) Any true victory must be gained through God's strength [Ps. 44:5-7].

c) The three annual feasts [see Chap. 28,29]. d) The trumpets.

for your remembrance before your God; I am the LORD.

¹¹On the twentieth day of the second month in the second year, the cloud ascended from above the Dwelling containing the testimonial evidence, ¹²and the Israelites broke camp and departed in prescribed groups^e from the wilderness of Sinai, and the cloud came to a halt in the wilderness of Paran.^f

¹³This was the first time they broke camp at the LORD's command under Moses' ministry. ¹⁴The first to start out, in accord with the LORD's command through Moses, was the camp standard of Judah's descendants. They traveled in the lead position with their divisions,^g Nahshon the son of Amminadab being in command of this army.^h

¹⁵Nethaneel the son of Zuar commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Issachar's descendants, ¹⁶and Eliab the son of Helon, commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Zebulun's descendants. ¹⁷The tabernacle was then dismantled and the men of Gershon and Merari, the bearers of the Dwelling set out.

¹⁸Next came the camp standard of Reuben according to its divisions; Elizur the son of Shedeur being in command of this army. ¹⁹Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Simeon's descendants, ²⁰and Eliasaph the son of Reuel commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Gad's descendants. ²¹Then the Kohathites, who were the bearers of the sanctuary,ⁱ departed — but before they arrived at their destination the tabernacle was to be already erected.^j mihud was in command of this army.

²²Next followed the camp standard of Ephraim's descendants according to its divisions, Elishama the son of Am-

²³Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur commanded the division made up of the tribe of Manasseh's descendants. ²⁴and Abidan the son of Gideon commanded the division consisting of the tribe of Benjamin's descendants. ²⁵Bringing up the rear for all the camps was the camp standard of Dan's descendants according to its divisions; Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai being in command of this army. ²⁶Pagiel the son of Ochrán commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Asher's descendants, ²⁷and Ahira the son of Enan commanded the division composed of the tribe of Naphtali's descendants. ²⁸These were the arrangements in which the nation of Israel traveled with its armies.

²⁹Before they left, however, Moses had told Hobab,^k the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are on our way to the place about which the LORD has promised. 'I will give it to you.' Come along with us and we shall make it worth your while, because the LORD has mentioned good things about Israel." ³⁰But he replied to him, "I cannot go; I must return to my native land and to my family." ³¹Then he begged him, "Please do not leave us, for you know about our camping here in the wilderness, and you shall be for us as eyes. ³²Moreover, if you will go with us, we shall promote your welfare with whatever good the LORD shall prosper us."^m e) In the order prescribed in the following verses; see also ch. 2.

³³After breaking camp, they left the mountain of the LORDⁿ and traveled^o for three days, with the Ark of the LORD's Testimony preceding them the three days in order to choose a place for them to rest.^o ³⁴The LORD's cloud was over them daily as they traveled

f) This is a general heading for the next few chapters, since many events and a few minor stops occurred before their arrival at Paran, recorded in ch. 12:16.

g) According to the order of march established in ch. 2.

h) In addition to the tribe of Judah, he had the general supervision of the following two tribes.

i) And all the sacred things; see ch. 4:4ff.

j) This provided immediate shelter and a worship center.

k) Moses' brother-in-law may have come to Sinai with his father, Reuel (Jethro), Ex. 18:1-5, to remain after his father went home, Ex. 18:27.

m) Although his decision is not recorded, he must have complied with Moses' request, since his descendants are mentioned later as living in Canaan [Judges 1:16; I Sam. 15:6].

n) Mt. Sinai, or Horeb, as called in Deuteronomy.

o) The LORD always looks out for the best for His children [Deut. 31:8].

from camp, ³⁶and whenever the Ark started out, Moses prayed, "O LORD, arise and let Thy^p enemies be dispersed; make those who hate Thee flee from Thy presence." ³⁶When it came to a halt he would pray, "Return,^q O LORD, to the countless thousands of Israel."

11 NOW THE PEOPLE COMPLAINED of misfortune in the LORD's hearing and when the LORD heard it, His anger flamed up, whereupon the fire of the LORD burned among them; it devoured those at the far end of the camp. ²The people then came wailing to Moses, who supplicated the LORD and the fire died down. ³That place came to be called Taberah,^r because the fire of the LORD had burned among them.

⁴Moreover, the alien rabble^a among them began to have cravings; likewise, the people of Israel turned again to weeping and cried, "Who is giving us meat to eat? ⁵We still remember the fish we used to eat gratis in Egypt, not to mention the cucumbers, water-melons, leeks, onions and garlic. ⁶But now our souls are famished; there is nothing at all upon which to look except this manna."^t ⁷The manna was like coriander seed^u and had the appearance of resinous gum.^v ⁸After the people had gone out and gathered it, they would grind it with millstones or beat it in a mortar. It was then boiled in a pot and made into cakes. It tasted something like a cake baked with oil.^w ⁹When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna fell with it.

¹⁰When Moses heard the people whining throughout their families, each man at the door of his tent, it not only greatly inflamed the LORD's indignation, but Moses too felt chagrined. ¹¹Moses, therefore, asked the LORD,

"Why hast Thou afflicted Thy servant so, and why have I not found favor in Thy eyes, that Thou hast placed the responsibility of all these people upon me? ¹²Was it I who conceived all these people, or am I the one who gave birth to them that Thou shouldst say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse lifts up the nursing child,' to the land Thou hast promised to their forefathers? ¹³Where can I get enough meat to give to all these people when they whine to me, saying, 'Give us some meat to eat'? ¹⁴I am unable to bear the responsibility of all these people alone; they are too much for me! ¹⁵If this is the way Thou art going to deal with me, please kill me now, if I have found favor in Thy eyes; do not make me face my misfortune!"

¹⁶The LORD then directed Moses: Assemble Me 70 men from the elders of Israel whom you know to be elders and officials^x of the people. Bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them stand there with you. ¹⁷I shall come down and talk with you there and shall take of the Spirit who rests upon you and place Him upon them in order that they may share the responsibility of the people with you, and you will not have to continue bearing it alone. ¹⁸Moreover, give the following instructions to the people: "Cleanse yourselves^y for tomorrow, because you are going to eat meat. You have cried in the LORD's ears, 'If only we were given meat to eat! Surely we were well off in Egypt!' Therefore, the LORD will give you meat to eat. ¹⁹You will not eat it for one day only, nor two, nor five, nor ten, nor twenty, ²⁰but for an entire month until it comes out of your nose and becomes nauseating to you. This is the result of your having spurned the LORD, who is among you, and of your having grumbled to His face,"^z

p) His enemies are our enemies.

q) Essentially, "Return and dwell among us after defeating Thy enemies." r) Heb. - "Burning."

s) The foreign element that came out of Egypt with Israel [see Ex. 12:38].

t) Contrast Phil. 4:11.

u) A small round seed about the size of a black pepper-corn used for seasoning.

v) A fragrant and transparent resin resembling wax. w) See Ex. 16:14,31.

x) Men who were respected and held in esteem by the people.

y) They were to be physically and spiritually fit to witness the LORD's glory in the coming miraculous provision of meat [Comp. Isa. 59:1,2].

z) God notices the actions, words and thoughts of every person in every place [Prov. 5:21; Matt. 12:36,37; Heb. 4:13].

saying, 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?' "

²¹But Moses queried, "The people I am with are six hundred thousand infantrymen; but Thou hast said, 'I will give them so much meat that they shall gorge for an entire month.' ²²Can one find enough flocks and herds to slay for them; or if all the fish in the sea were caught, would enough be found for them?" ²³The LORD replied to Moses: May the LORD's hand be too short? You will see presently whether I keep My word with you or not.

²⁴Moses went outdoors and repeated to the people what the LORD had said; furthermore, he assembled seventy men from the elders of the people and stationed them around the tent.^a ²⁵The LORD then came down in the cloud and spoke to him, took of the Spirit who was upon him, and had Him rest upon seventy of the elders.^b After the Spirit had come upon them, they prophesied once, but not again.

²⁶Two men, however, stayed in the camp;^c the one's name was Eldad, the other's Medad. They were among those who had been listed, but they had failed to go out to the tent; nevertheless, the Spirit came upon them, too, and they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷Then a young man ran and reported to Moses: "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!" ²⁸Joshua, the son of Nun, who had been Moses' attendant since he was a youth, spoke up and said, "My master Moses, make them stop!" ²⁹Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets; that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them too." ³⁰And Moses, accompanied by the elders of Israel, returned to the camp.

³¹The LORD caused a wind to arise which brought quail from the sea, scattering them in the neighborhood of the camp about as far as one could walk in a day in either direction from the camp and lowering them to about three feet above the ground.^d ³²The people went out and spent all that day, all that night, and all the next day gathering the quail; even the one gathering the least obtained more than a hundred bushels which they spread out all around the camp.^e ³³But while the meat was still unchewed between their teeth, the LORD's anger flared up against the people, and the LORD struck them with a terrible plague. ³⁴Henceforth that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah,^f because it was there they buried the people who had been so greedy. ³⁵From Kibroth-hattaavah the people traveled to Hazeroth, and there they remained.

June, 1445 B.C.

12 MIRIAM CONVERSED WITH AARON about Moses regarding the Cushite woman he had married;^g for he had married a woman of Cush.^h ²They said, "Has the LORD spoken exclusively through Moses? Has He not also communed through us?" And the LORD heard it. ³Now this man Moses was very gentle, more than any other person on earth.ⁱ ⁴At once the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam: You three come out to the tent of meeting; so the three came out. ⁵Then the LORD came down in the cloudy pillar, stood at the door of the tent, and summoned Aaron and Miriam. As the two stepped forward, He said: ⁶Pay attention to My words. If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD will make Myself known to him in a vision; I will speak with him in a dream. ⁷Not so with My servant Moses, who is trusted in all My house.^j ⁸With him I speak in person, plainly, not obscurely. He shall view the very form of the

a) In half circle in front of the tent.

b) Anything done in the LORD's behalf demands supernatural power [Acts 1:8]. The Spirit was in no way diminished by this extension. c) The tent was pitched outside the camp [Ex. 33:7].

d) Making it easy for the Hebrews to catch or kill them. e) To cure them by drying.

f) Heb. — "Graves of the greedy."

g) Descendant of Ham, [Gen. 10:6,7] which group settled in Ethiopia.

h) Miriam must have seen her influence on Moses dwindling under this new relationship.

i) This was not self glory on the part of Moses but the stating of a fact, necessary for the full understanding of this incident.

j) Found worthy of God's confidence in everything pertaining to the guidance of the house of Israel.

LORD.^k Why then are you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses? ⁹Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and He departed. ¹⁰But when the cloud withdrew from above the tent, there was Miriam leprous, white as snow.^l

Aaron turned to Miriam, and when he saw that she was leprous, ¹¹he begged Moses, "Oh, please, my master, do not count this offense against us in which we have acted so foolishly, in which we have sinned. ¹²Please do not let her be as a dead person, as one who is stillborn with half his flesh decomposed." ¹³So Moses cried out to the LORD, "O God, I beseech Thee, heal her!" ¹⁴The LORD answered Moses: If her father had publicly spit in her face, would she not be humiliated for seven days? She must be excluded from the camp for seven days; then she may come back. ¹⁵Therefore, Miriam was excluded from the camp for seven days, but the people did not leave until Miriam had been reinstated. ¹⁶Afterwards the people left Hazeroth and made camp in the wilderness of Paran.

August, 1445 B.C.

13 THE LORD NOW TOLD MOSES: ²Send out men, so they may spy out the land of Canaan which I am giving to the Israelites.ⁿ Send one man as representative from each of their father's tribes, each a ruler among them. ³Moses, therefore, sent them from the wilderness of Paran^o as the LORD had directed, and all the men were leaders among the people of Israel. ⁴These are their names: From the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur; ⁵from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori; ⁶from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; ⁷from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph; ⁸from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun; ⁹from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu; ¹⁰from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi; ¹¹from Joseph—that is, from the tribe of Manasseh—Gaddi the son of Susi; ¹²from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli; ¹³from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael; ¹⁴from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi; ¹⁵and from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi. ¹⁶These are the names of the men whom Moses dispatched to spy out the land; and Moses called Hoshea, the son of Nun, Joshua.

¹⁷When Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he gave them these instructions, "Go up this way into the Negeb^p— and on up through the highlands. ¹⁸Find out what the land is like, and whether the people who are living in it are strong or weak, few or many. ¹⁹Notice whether the nature of the land is good or bad, and whether the cities in which they live are mere camps or fortified cities. ²⁰See what the land is like, whether it is fertile or barren, and whether it is covered with trees or not. Moreover, do your best to bring back some fruit from the land," for this was at the season when the grapes first ripened.^q

²¹So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, which is on the way to Hamath. ²²They went up through the Negeb and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the sons of Anak,^r were. Hebron was built seven years prior to Zoan in Egypt.^s ²³When they came to the valley of Eshcol, they cut a branch having a single cluster of grapes, which two of them carried on a pole between them;

k) Some real manifestations, Ex. 33:18 ff. 1) She had taken the lead in this insurrection, vs. 1. Aaron again showed his lack of will power, as in making the golden calf.

n) Notice the parallel account in Deut. 1:19-46.

o) The particular place in this region was Kadesh-barnea, vs. 26; Deut. 1:19.

p) The south country. It was a dry, parched district, the least fertile of Canaan, extending northward from Kadesh to within a few miles of Hebron, and from the Dead Sea westward to the Mediterranean. q) Late July or August.

r) The Anakim were a race of giants [Deut. 1:28; 9:2], of whom the Nephilim were a division [Num. 13:33].

s) The exact date is not known, but Hebron was known in Abraham's time, 2000 B.C., Gen. 13:18. It may, however, refer to a rebuilding of Hebron, 7 years before the founding of Avaris-Tanis-Zoan.

they also brought some pomegranates and figs. ²⁴That place was called the valley of Eshcol^t because of the cluster of grapes which the men of Israel cut there.

²⁵After forty days they returned from spying out the land, ²⁶traveling until they arrived at Kadesh in the wilderness of Paran where Moses, Aaron and the entire assembly of the people were. Showing them the fruit of the land, ²⁷they gave their report to them and to the entire assembly. They reported to him, "We came to the country to which you sent us, and it certainly is flowing with milk and honey; this is its fruit. ²⁸But the people who live in the land are strong and the cities are fortified and very large. Besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there. ²⁹Amalek lives in the Negeb territory; the Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the highlands and the Canaanites live along the sea-coast and along the edge of the Jordan."

³⁰Then Caleb calmed^u the people in Moses' presence and urged, "Let us confidently go up and conquer it, for we are well able to do it." ³¹But the men who went up with him said, "We are not able to go up against these people; they are too strong for us." ³²And they brought to the people of Israel this discouraging report of the land which they had spied out, "The land through which we passed as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants,^v and all the people we saw in it are men of great stature. ³³We saw there the Nephilim, the descendants of Anak, who are of the giants." Even to ourselves we looked like grasshoppers, and so we looked to them!" Sept., 1445 B.C.

14 THEN THE ENTIRE CONGREGATION raised their voices, and the people wept throughout that night.

²The entire nation of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron to such a degree that the whole course said to them, "Oh, that we had perished in the land of Egypt or even had died in this wilderness. ³Why is the LORD bringing us into this land to slay us with the sword and to have our wives and children taken? Would it not be preferable for us to return to Egypt?" ⁴They said to one another, "Let us appoint a leader and go back to Egypt."

⁵Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the entire congregation of the people of Israel which had assembled.^r ⁶But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, two of those who had gone to find out what the land was like, tore their clothes ⁷and told the whole gathering of Israel, "The land through which we passed as spies is an extremely fertile land. ⁸If the LORD is pleased with us, He will bring us in and give us this land which is flowing with milk and honey. ⁹Above all, neither rebel against the LORD nor have fear of the native population; they shall be as bread to us." Their defense is as a vanishing shadow, for the LORD is with us; do not fear them." ¹⁰At these words the whole crowd was on the verge of hurling stones at them when suddenly the glory of the LORD^z appeared to the entire nation of Israel in the tent of meeting.

¹¹How long are these people going to spurn Me? the LORD said to Moses. How long will they mistrust Me, not heeding all the miracles which I have performed among them?^a ¹²I will destroy them with a plague, and thus having disinherited them I will propagate through you a greater and more powerful nation than they. ¹³But Moses replied^b to the LORD, "When Egypt, from whose presence Thou didst bring this nation in Thy strength, hears of

t) Heb. - "Cluster." u) The majority report had greatly excited the people.

v) Perhaps referring to the Negeb, see footnote to vs. 17.

w) The Nephilim, who cannot be the offspring of the "sons of God," Gen. 6:2,4, are known to have been mighty men, renowned.

x) They realized from experience that the LORD would not tolerate such rebellion, ch. 11; Ex. 32.

y) That is, we shall consume them. z) A manifestation of the LORD in a cloud.

a) The world is still despising His riches (Rom. 2:4).

b) This man of meekness, who conversed with the LORD face to face, could thus debate with the LORD. He did this once before and won [Ex. 32:10-14]. See also Ps. 106:23. His prime argument is that the LORD's reputation is at stake.

this, ¹⁴they will inform those who live in this land. They have heard that Thou, LORD, art among these people, even to the extent that Thou, LORD, art seen with the naked eye; that Thy cloud watches over them constantly, and that Thou takest the lead before them in a cloudy pillar by day and in a fiery pillar by night. ¹⁵If Thou destroyest this people down to the last man, Thou knowest what the nations, who have heard of Thy reputation, will say: ¹⁶'The LORD was not able to bring this nation to the land which He promised them, so He destroyed them in the wilderness.' ¹⁷But now verify my LORD's great power, that it be as outstanding as Thou hast affirmed, saying: ¹⁸'The LORD is patient and exceedingly merciful, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He is One who will on no occasion leave the guilty unpunished; One who requires of the children down to the third and fourth generations to pay for the iniquity of their parents.' ¹⁹Forgive, I beseech Thee, the sin of these people in keeping with the greatness of Thy mercy, as Thou hast forgiven them ever since they left Egypt."

²⁰The LORD said: I have forgiven them at your request; ²¹nevertheless, as surely as I live and as the earth is full of the LORD's glory — ²²seeing that all these men, who have constantly witnessed My glory and My miracles which I have performed in both Egypt and in the wilderness, have nonetheless tried Me these ten times^e and disregarded My word — ²³they shall never see the land which I promised by oath to their fathers; not one of those who have despised Me shall see it. ²⁴But because My servant Caleb has a different attitude and has wholeheartedly followed Me, I shall allow him to re-enter the land on which he once set foot, and it shall always belong to his descendants.^f ²⁵The Amalekites and the Canaanites are living in the valley; therefore, tomorrow you must turn back^g and travel through the wilderness by way of the Red Sea.

²⁶How long must I put up with this sinful assembly which is constantly grumbling against Me? protested the LORD to Moses and Aaron, ²⁷for I have heard the complaints of the people of Israel which they are continually muttering against Me. ²⁸Say to them, "As I live, declares the LORD, I am going to deal with you exactly as I have heard you prescribe it. ²⁹Your corpses shall fall in this wilderness, namely, all the enlisted men of your entire number above the age of twenty who have grumbled against Me. ³⁰None of you except Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua, the son of Nun, shall enter the land in which I swore by the uplifted hand to establish you. ³¹I will be, however, an escort to your little ones who, you said, would be taken, so that they may appreciate the land which you have rejected. ³²But as for you, your corpses shall fall in this wilderness. ³³And because of your unfaithfulness your sons will have to wander as shepherds in this wilderness for forty years until all your corpses lie in the desert. ³⁴The forty years during which you must pay the penalty for your sins shall be determined by the number of days which you spent in spying out the land; that is, forty days — a year for each day; then you will realize what it means to have Me against you. ³⁵I the LORD have spoken; I will most certainly deal with this entire wicked assembly which has conspired against Me, even as I stated; they shall succumb and die in this wilderness.

³⁶Meanwhile, the men who had been dispatched by Moses to spy out the land and who on their return had prompted the entire assembly to grumble against him by starting a whispering campaign against the land, ³⁷these very men, who had spread this detri-

c) Moses' second argument. The LORD's character or Word is at stake. d) See Ex. 34:6,7.

e) The number of completeness. The LORD had enough; the promised judgment of Ex. 32:34 was now to be executed, for the punishment of sin is a divine principle which is not changed [Job 4:8, Gal. 6:7]. f) See Josh. 14:6ff.

g) Apparently the hardest message of the incident. Unbelief had cost them the promises of God. Read the lesson as taught in Heb. 3:7-19.

mental report of the land, died from a sudden plague before the LORD.^b ³⁸Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh alone survived of those men who had gone to spy out the land.

³⁹When Moses relayed this message to the entire nation of Israel, the people mourned deeply. ⁴⁰Early next morning they got up and started to ascend the mountain. "Here we are," they said; "we realize that we have sinned, but we are now ready to proceed to the place which the LORD has promised." ⁴¹Moses insisted, "Why are you trampling under foot the LORD's direct order? It will get you nowhere!" ⁴²The LORD is not with you; do not go up or you will be decimated before your enemies. ⁴³You will fall in battle, for the Amalekite and the Canaanite are there to oppose you. Since you have deserted the LORD, how do you expect Him to be with you?" ⁴⁴Nevertheless they stubbornly persisted in climbing the mountainous plateau, despite the fact that neither the Ark of the LORD's covenant nor Moses left the camp.¹ ⁴⁵Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that mountainous region came down and attacked them, driving them back in defeat as far as Hormah.

1444 B.C.

15 THE LORD GAVE THESE INSTRUCTIONS to Moses: ²Address the people of Israel and tell them, "When you arrive at your destination in the land which I am giving you^k ³and would present a burnt offering or a sacrifice by fire to the LORD—whether in fulfilling a special vow, or as a free will offering, or at your set festivals,¹ offering it as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD from herd or flock; ⁴then he who presents his offering to the LORD shall bring a meal offering composed of six pints^m of fine flour mixed with three pints of oilⁿ ⁵and a drink offering of three pints of wine. Prepare this to accompany the burnt offering or the sacrifice of each lamb. ⁶If it is a ram, then prepare a meal-offering composed of six quarts of fine flour mixed with two quarts of oil ⁷and also a drink-offering of two quarts of wine; offer this as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ⁸When you prepare a young bull for a burnt-offering or as a sacrifice to fulfill a special vow or for a peace-offering to the LORD, ⁹one must present with the young bull a meal-offering composed of nine quarts of fine flour mixed with three quarts of oil ¹⁰and also present three quarts of wine for a drink-offering. This shall be offered by fire as a pleasing fragrance, to the LORD. ¹¹Every bull, ram, lamb, and goat must be presented in this prescribed manner. ¹²No matter how many you present, each one of the entire number must be prepared in the same way.

¹³Every native shall prepare these things in this same manner when presenting an offering by fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ¹⁴And if a foreigner lives among you now or one among you in succeeding generations, who shall present an offering by fire for a pleasing fragrance to the LORD, he shall present it exactly as you do. ¹⁵All residents, both you and the foreigner who lives with you, shall abide by the same regulation, and it shall continue in effect throughout all your future generations. The foreigner shall be regarded in the same light as you are before the LORD. ¹⁶The same law and ordinance shall apply to both you and the foreigner who lives with you."

¹⁷The LORD said to Moses: ¹⁸Address the people of Israel and tell them: When you arrive in the land to which I am conducting you ¹⁹and have started to eat of its food, you are to offer a heave offering to the LORD. ²⁰For this heave offering, present a cake made from the first of your coarse

h) Being struck down by the hand of God in divine judgment. Compare Prov. 29:1.

i) To the sin of unbelief [vs. 1-4] is now added the sin of presumptuous self-confidence.

k) These instructions gave hope to the new generation, while judgment was being executed upon their fathers, who were made to wander in the wilderness of Paran, from the autumn of 1445 to the autumn of 1407. ¹) See Lev. 23.

m) One-tenth of an ephah, an ephah being a little less than a bushel.

n) One-fourth of a hin, a hin being about six quarts.

meal; offer it as a heave offering from the threshing floor.^o ²¹Down through your successive generations you are to give a heave offering to the LORD from the first of your coarse meal.

²²If you make a mistake^p and fail to observe all these commands which the LORD has spoken to Moses—²³all these which the LORD has dictated to you by the ministry of Moses from the day He gave the commands down through your successive generations — ²⁴if it be committed ignorantly without the congregation realizing it, then the entire congregation must present a young bull for a burnt-offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD, along with its meal offering and drink offering as the ordinance prescribes.^q There shall also be a young goat for a sin offering. ²⁵The priest shall atone for the entire congregation of the people of Israel, and since the sin was committed ignorantly, they shall be forgiven because they have presented their offering by fire to the LORD and their sin offering in the LORD's presence for their mistake. ²⁶Both the entire congregation of the people of Israel and the foreigner who lives among you shall be forgiven, seeing that all the people were in ignorance in the matter.

²⁷If only one person should sin ignorantly, then he must present a year-old she-goat for a sin offering. ²⁸The priest shall atone before the LORD for the person who ignorantly sins by mistake, so that by making atonement for him, it may be forgiven him. ²⁹The native in the nation of Israel and the foreigner, who lives among you, shall benefit by the same law when he errs ignorantly. ³⁰But the person, whether the native or the foreigner, who defiantly rebels,^r is a blasphemer against the LORD; that a person must be destroyed from among his people, ³¹because he has regarded the LORD's word with contempt and has violated His command; that person must unquestionably be cut off; his iniquity lies upon him.

³²While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they surprised a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day.⁸ ³³Those who had surprised him gathering the wood, brought him to Moses, Aaron, and the whole congregation;⁴ ³⁴but they were obliged to put him in confinement because there was no distinct ruling on how he should be punished.^u ³⁵The man must most certainly be executed, the LORD told Moses. Have the entire congregation hurl stones at him outside the camp. ³⁶So the whole congregation took him outside the camp and threw stones at him until he died, as the LORD had directed Moses.

³⁷The LORD said to Moses: ³⁸Address the people of Israel and tell them to attach tassels to the hems of their clothes^v throughout their successive generations. Fasten the tassels to the hem with a blue thread. ³⁹You are to have the tassel, so that when it catches your eye you may remember all the LORD's commands and observe them and may not wander after your heart's inclinations and after your eyes which have previously led you into harlotry.^w ⁴⁰Being thus reminded of all My commands, you will be able to observe them, for you must be holy before your God. ⁴¹I am the LORD your God, who has purposely brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am Jehovah.

16 KORAH, WHOSE ANCESTRY WENT back through Izhar and Kohath to Levi, with three descendants of Reu-

o) Coarsely bruised meal procured at the beginning of the harvest.

p) Sins of omission as contrasted with the sins of commission in Lev. 4:13ff. q) Vss. 8-10.

r) Heb. — "sins with a high hand"; that is, raises his hand in defiance of the Lord.

s) A practical illustration of the "sinning with a high hand."

t) To the assembly of elders who were the congregation by representation, Ex. 18:25,26; Deut. 27:1.

u) The punishment was death, Ex. 31:14,15; but the mode of execution had not yet been revealed. Comp. Lev. 24:12.

v) The upper garments, Deut. 22:12. This ordinance may have been prompted by the foregoing incident.

w) Both physical and spiritual. Even as He is holy, so He has commanded us to be, Lev. 11:45; I Pet. 1:16. There is no valid excuse for sin, I Cor. 10:13.

ben* — Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On^y the son of Peleth—²enlisted 250 men of Israel, who were leaders in the assembly, national representatives and men of distinction ³and jointly they revolted against Moses Assembling themselves against Moses and Aaron, they said to them, "You assume too much authority. This entire community — yes, everyone of them — is dedicated,² for the LORD is present with them. Why should you elevate yourselves above the LORD's people?"

⁴When Moses heard this, he fell on his face. ⁵Then he said to Korah and all his company, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will make clear who belongs to Him, who is dedicated, and He will allow that one to approach Him. The man whom He singles out, He will allow to approach Him."^a ⁶Korah and all his company, you do this: ⁷get yourselves censers. Tomorrow in the LORD's presence place hot coals on them along with incense. He whom the LORD selects shall be the dedicated one. You descendants of Levi are the ones who are assuming too much."

⁸"Listen closely, you men of Levi," continued Moses to Korah. ⁹"Is it an insignificant thing to you that the God of Israel, by selecting you from the community of Israel, has given you the privilege of approaching Him, so that you may look after the service connected with the LORD's tabernacle and may stand before the congregation to wait upon them? ¹⁰Thus He has honored both you and your fellow clansmen, the men of Levi with you. And now do you desire to have the priesthood also?"^b ¹¹It is against the LORD that you and your entire company have assembled. As for Aaron, what has he done that you complain against him?"^c

¹²Then Moses sent a summons to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. "We will not come up," they answered. ¹³"Is it such a trivial matter that you have brought us up from a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you should also set up yourself as a dictator over us?" ¹⁴Furthermore, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or even given us a field or a vineyard as an inheritance.^d Do you think you can keep on blinding the eyes of these men? We will not come up!" ¹⁵Then Moses grew very angry. "Pay no attention to their offering," said Moses to the LORD. "I have not taken a single donkey from them; neither have I mistreated one of them."

¹⁶Moses further directed Korah, "Tomorrow you and your entire company present yourselves before the LORD; you, they, and Aaron. ¹⁷Each man is to take his censer, and, having put the incense upon it, each one shall present his censer before the LORD, 250 censers, both you and Aaron, each one with his censer." ¹⁸So each man took his censer and, having placed hot coals on them along with incense, they stationed themselves at the door of the tent of meeting along with Moses and Aaron. ¹⁹No sooner had Korah assembled the entire community^e against them at the door of the meeting tent, than the glory of the LORD appeared to the entire gathering. ²⁰The LORD addressed Moses and Aaron: ²¹Separate yourselves from this gathering; I will destroy them in a moment. ²²Falling on their faces, they prayed, "God, Thou God of the spirits of all flesh, if just one man sins,^f wilt Thou be indignant against the whole community?" ²³The LORD then instructed Moses: ²⁴Tell the congregation, Draw away from the vicinity of the home of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.

²⁵Then Moses got up and, followed

x) As descendants of Reuben, the first-born, they claimed that they were entitled to giving orders.

y) On is not mentioned again in this conspiracy; he may have realized his mistake and withdrawn.

z) In a stricter sense, those who belonged to the LORD by His own choice [Ex. 28:1].

a) The LORD will make clear which tribe He has chosen and who in that tribe He has selected to be High Priest.

b) He wishes them to think it all over, that they may repent before it is too late.

c) Aaron has not usurped the priesthood, but has been chosen by the LORD to fulfill this office. God is responsible [Ex. 16:7].

d) The LORD had promised them this through Moses [Ex. 3:7ff; 4:30].

e) Rulers could demand tribute from their subjects [I Sam. 8:11ff; 12:3].

f) This was no small scale rebellion g) Korah, as instigator of the rebellion.

by the elders of Israel, he went to Dathan and Abiram. ²⁶He warned the community, "Draw away from the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that belongs to them; else you will be swept away with all their sins." ²⁷So they hurried away from the house of Korah, Dathan and Abiram; but Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents along with their wives, sons, and little ones. ²⁸"By this," declared Moses, "you shall understand that the LORD has commissioned me to carry out all these activities, that I do not act on my own impulse. ²⁹If these men die the natural death of all men, and if the usual experiences of all men are theirs, then the LORD has not commissioned me. ³⁰But if the LORD creates something new^h in which He causes the ground to split open and swallow them and all their possessions, so that they are buried alive in Sheol,ⁱ then you will understand that these men have spurned the LORD."

³¹As soon as he had finished speaking all these things, the ground split open beneath them, ³²and having opened its mouth, it swallowed them and their families,^j all the men who had sided with Korah, and all their goods.^k ³³They and all their households were buried alive in Sheol as the earth fell in upon them, and they vanished from the community. ³⁴But all the Israelites who surrounded them fled at their screams, exclaiming, "The earth may swallow us too." ³⁵Moreover, a fire proceeded from the LORD, which consumed the 250 men who had offered the incense.^l

³⁶Afterwards the LORD gave Moses these directions: ³⁷Tell Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, to pick up the censers from between those who were burned, for they are now sacred,^m and scatter the hot coals at a far distance. ³⁸Have them beat the censers of these sinners, who have forfeited their lives, into broad plates as a covering for the altar. Since they presented them before the LORD, they are to be sacred; let them serve as a sign to the nation of Israel.

³⁹After Eleazar the priest had taken up the censers of brass, which those who had been burned had presented, they beat them into plating for the altar. ⁴⁰This was to serve as a memorial to the nation of Israel to remind any outsider, who was not from the offspring of Aaron, that he should not draw near to burn incense before the LORD, so they might not experience the same fate as did Korah and his company. This was carried out as the LORD through Moses had directed him.ⁿ

⁴¹The next day the entire congregation of the nation of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron, charging, "You have slain the LORD's people."^o ⁴²No sooner had the congregation assembled against Moses and Aaron, than they looked toward the tent of meeting, and there was the cloud covering it!^p When the glory of the LORD appeared also, ⁴³Moses and Aaron hurried out to the entrance of the meeting tent. ⁴⁴Whereupon the LORD commanded Moses: ⁴⁵Move away from this congregation so that I may destroy them in a moment. But they^q fell on their faces. ⁴⁶"Take your censer," Moses charged Aaron, "put hot coals on it from off the altar, place the incense upon it and hurriedly carry it to the congregation. Make expiation for them, for vengeance has already proceeded from the LORD; the plague has started!"^r ⁴⁷Aaron took it as Moses had directed, ran out among the

h) Heb. - "create a creation." i) In Hebrew, the place of the dead.

j) Not all of Korah's sons perished; his descendants are again mentioned. Num. 26:58; 1 Chron. 6:18-22, and in the Psalms.

k) By their rebellion their possessions, too, were contaminated. l) Compare Lev. 10:1-2.

m) Because presented to the LORD, Lev. 27:28. n) Eleazar.

o) "In destroying our indispensable leaders, you have destroyed us." The calamity had effected no change in their attitude.

p) When the people camped, the cloud was always over the tabernacle, Ch. 9:15ff. The cloud had something extraordinary about it at this time. Comp. Ex. 40:34.

q) Moses and Aaron.

r) Moses had no time for intercession or argument to avert God's judgment. The high-priestly offering was now the only remedy; Lev. 16:12,13.

people, and saw that the plague had already started among the people. Then having fixed the incense, he made expiation for the people. ⁴⁸When he had stationed himself between the dead and the living, the plague was checked. ⁴⁹Those who died in the plague numbered 14,700, besides those who died in the Korah event. ⁵⁰When the plague had ended, Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tent of meeting.^a 17 LATER ON THE LORD SAID TO Moses: ²Speak to the Israelites and take one rod from each clan—that is, from all their princes according to their clans, twelve rods in all.^t Write each man's name on his rod,³ and put Aaron's name on the rod of Levi since each rod stands for the head of each respective clan. ⁴Place them in the tent of meeting in front of the Testimony^u where I always meet with you. ⁵The rod of the man whom I have chosen^v will then produce shoots. In this way I shall relieve Myself of the complaints which the people of Israel are continually lodging against you.

⁶After Moses had thus informed the Israelites, all the princes gave him rods, a rod each from their respective clans, twelve in all,^w Aaron's rod being among theirs. ⁷Moses placed the rods before the LORD in the tent containing the testimonial evidence. ⁸Next morning when Moses entered the tent containing the Testimony, Aaron's rod, representing the clan of Levi, had indeed sprouted, put forth shoots, produced blossoms, and had even borne some ripe almonds.^x ⁹When Moses brought each of the rods from the LORD's presence to all the people of Israel, they gazed at them and finally each man claimed his rod. ¹⁰The LORD then commanded Moses: Put Aaron's rod back in front of the Testimony, that it may be preserved as an object lesson to these rebellious people. Thus you can put a stop to their complaints against Me, that they may not die. ¹¹Moses acted accordingly; he did what the LORD had told him.

¹²"Certainly we are in distress," cried the people of Israel to Moses. "We perish, we all perish!" ¹³Everyone who approaches, who even comes near the LORD's Dwelling dies; are we all to die?"

18 THE LORD MADE CLEAR TO AARON: You, your sons, and your family are responsible for the sins against the sanctuary;^y likewise, you and your sons are responsible for the sins against your priesthood.² ²Bring your relatives with you from the tribe of Levi, your father's tribe, so that by joining you, they may assist you when both you and your sons are in front of the tent containing the testimonial evidence. ³They shall discharge the obligations imposed by you and all the duties connected with the tent. Only they must be careful to stay away from the articles of the sanctuary and the altar in order that they may escape death, both they and you. ⁴Have them join you, that they may discharge the duties connected with the tent of meeting—that is, whatever work the tent entails. No layman, however, is to come near you. ⁵You are to discharge the duties connected with both the sanctuary and the altar so that wrath may never again fall upon the nation of Israel.^a ⁶Take notice that as a gift for you I have selected your relatives, the Levites, out of the nation of Israel, to serve as custodians of the tent of meeting, seeing that they were given to the LORD; ⁷but you and your sons are to discharge your priestly duties in everything, from that which pertains

s) The high-priestly ministration proved necessary to pacify the LORD's indignation.

t) The princes carried these as a symbol of their tribal authority, comp. Gen. 49:10.

u) The two stone tablets containing the Law which were in the Ark. v) For the priesthood, ch. 16:5.

w) Ephraim and Manasseh reckoned together under Joseph [Deut. 27:12].

x) Aaron's priestly powers were likewise supernatural. As a man he was on a level with the other princes. y) They must prevent its desecration by the people.

z) Neglect of their priestly duties, offenses against the priesthood and defilement in carrying out their official responsibilities. The holy articles, for instance, had to be cleansed once a year [Lev. 16:16ff].

a) Twice previously this had happened [Lev. 10:2 and Num. 16:35].

to the altar to that which is inside the veil. Be sure to perform it, for the office of the priesthood is a gift which I am giving you. Any layman who approaches^b must be executed.

⁸The LORD informed Aaron: I, indeed, have assigned to you My heave offerings to keep, even all the holy gifts from the people of Israel; I have allotted them to you as a consecrated portion and to your descendants as a perpetual allowance. ⁹You are to have the portion of the most holy gifts which is not burned; namely, all their offerings — all their meal offerings, sin offerings, and trespass offerings—with which they make restitution to Me. The most holy gifts belong to you and to your sons. ¹⁰Regard it as most holy as you eat it; every male may eat of it, because, being holy, it belongs to you.

¹¹The heave offering involved in their contribution which is included in all the wave offerings from the people of Israel is also yours. I have apportioned it as a perpetual allowance to you and to your sons and daughters, so that everyone in your family may eat it provided they are clean. ¹²I have likewise assigned to you their first fruits which they have given to the LORD — that is, all the best of the oil and of the fresh wine and grain. ¹³The first ripe fruits of everything which is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, is yours. Everyone in your family who is clean may eat it.

¹⁴Also every devoted thing^c in Israel is for you. ¹⁵Every first-born of all living beings — both man and animal which they present to the LORD — belongs to you. ¹⁶Only be sure to redeem the first-born of both men and unclean animals. The redemption money for the month-old child whom you are redeeming shall be fixed by you at five silver dollars,^d the standard being the dollar of the sanctuary, which is twenty nickels. ¹⁷Because they are holy, you must not redeem a first-born bullock, sheep, or goat; you are to sprinkle their blood upon the altar and make their fat go up in smoky fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ¹⁸Their meat, however, is for you; you are to have especially the wave breast and the right thigh. ¹⁹Summarily, all the heave offerings included with the holy gifts, which the people of Israel offered to the LORD, I have apportioned as a perpetual allowance to you and to your sons and daughters. It is a covenant of salt^e which will last forever before the LORD for both you and your offspring after you. ²⁰The LORD further informed Aaron: You are not to have an inheritance in their land nor own any property among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the people of Israel.^f ²¹As for the descendants of Levi, I have assigned to them all the tithes in Israel as their share in payment for their services as custodians of the tent of meeting. ²²From now on the people of Israel are never to come near the tent of meeting, else they will incur the penalty of sin and die. ²³The Levites shall discharge the duties connected with the tent of meeting, and they shall be held responsible if they fail. This is a perpetual statute which shall continue in effect throughout your generations, that they are not to possess an inheritance among the people of Israel. ²⁴For I have designated the tithes which the people of Israel contribute to the LORD as the share which belongs to the Levites. Therefore I have told them that they are not to own any property among the people of Israel.

²⁵The LORD further said to Moses: ²⁶Speak to the Levites and direct them, "When you receive from the people of Israel the tithe which I have assigned to you as your share from them, set part of it aside as a heave offering to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe. ²⁷Your heave offering shall be credited to you as though it were the grain from the threshing floor and as the full produce

b) Not only to perform these priestly duties, but for any reason.

c) Anything which was entirely dedicated to the LORD and therefore could not be sold or redeemed, Lev. 27:28.

d) Heb. — Five shekels of silver. Weights which could be worth about five dollars today. See the footnote to ch. 3:47. e) An indissoluble covenant [Lev. 2:13].

f) If we trust the Possessor of heaven and earth, our needs will be supplied [Phil. 4:19].

of the wine press. ²⁸Thus from all your tithes which you receive from the people of Israel, you are to contribute a heave offering to the LORD and give the LORD's contribution to Aaron the priest. ²⁹Out of all that is given to you, you are to select from every heave offering for the LORD the best part, the sacred portion of it. ³⁰Tell them also, "When you offer the best part of it, it shall be credited to the Levites as the yield of the threshing floor and the wine press. ³¹As it is your remuneration for your services in the tent of meeting, you and your family may eat it anywhere you wish. ³²You will not bring any sin upon yourselves, provided that you contribute the best part of it. In short, you are not to desecrate the holy gifts of the Israelites or you will die."

19 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND Aaron: ²This is the statute of instruction which the LORD has instituted: Tell the people of Israel to bring you a perfect red heifer^g entirely without blemish, which has never borne a yoke. ³Give it to Eleazar the priest and after he has led it outside the camp, have someone^h slaughter it in his presence. ⁴Eleazar the priest shall next take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven timesⁱ toward the front of the meeting tent. ⁵Someone must then burn the heifer before his eyes, and after he is through burning its skin, flesh and blood, along with its waste, ⁶the priest shall take cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet wool and throw it into the midst of the burning heifer. ⁷Finally, before entering the camp, the priest must wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; nevertheless, the priest is still unclean till evening. ⁸He who burns it shall also wash his clothes with water and bathe his body; he too remains unclean till evening. ⁹Someone who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them in a clean place outside the camp. They shall be kept for the congregation of the Israelites as water of uncleanness;^j it is a sin offering. ¹⁰He who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and remain unclean until evening.

This shall be a perpetual regulation for the nation of Israel and for the foreigner who resides among you. ¹¹He who touches the dead body of any person shall remain unclean for seven days. ¹²He shall cleanse himself with it^k on the third day, and on the seventh day, and then he shall be clean; but if he fails to purify himself on the third day, then on the seventh day he shall not be clean. ¹³Every one who touches the corpse of a man who has died and fails to cleanse himself has defiled the Dwelling of the LORD; that person must be excommunicated from Israel because the water of uncleanness was not sprinkled upon him. He is unclean; his uncleanness is still upon him.^l

¹⁴This rule applies when a man dies in a tent: Anyone who enters the tent, together with those who are already in the tent, shall be unclean for seven days. ¹⁵Every open utensil, which does not have its cover fastened down, is also contaminated. ¹⁶In addition, anyone in the open field who touches him, who is fatally wounded in battle, or a corpse,^m or a human bone, or a grave, shall stay unclean for seven days. ¹⁷For the unclean person they are to take some of the ashes left from the burning of the sin offering and pour fresh water over them in a basin. ¹⁸A clean person shall then take some hyssop, dip it in water, and sprinkle it on the tent, all the furniture, and the individuals

g) Of the female sex, as the bearer of life, Gen. 3:20.

h) Probably a representative of the congregation for whom the offering was being made.

i) It became a sacrifice, having been brought into relation with the LORD.

j) Water (mixed with ashes, vs. 17) by which uncleanness was to be removed. The ashes contained the blood of the heifer, (thus making it a sin offering), as well as the other purifying elements.

k) The water of purification.

l) Death is the wages of sin, Gen. 2:17; therefore a person was contaminated with sin when he touched a corpse. Because of the many deaths which were to occur in the wilderness as the penalty for unbelief, ch. 14:32ff, the usual laws of purification would not afford enough time to cleanse so many offenders. The red heifer purification took care of this.

m) A person who has died a natural death.

who were there, as well as on the person who touched the bone, or the slain, or the corpse, or the grave. ¹⁹The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean person on the third and on the seventh day so as to purify him on the seventh day. Then, after washing his clothes and bathing in water, he shall be clean that evening. ²⁰On the other hand, the individual who is unclean and will not purify himself, that person must be excommunicated from the community, for he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD by not having the water of uncleanness sprinkled upon him; he is unclean. ²¹This shall be a regulation for them forever. Moreover, he who sprinkles the water of uncleanness is to wash his clothes, and the one who touches the water of uncleanness shall remain unclean till evening. ²²Anything the unclean person touches becomes contaminated, and the individual who touches it shall likewise be unclean until evening.ⁿ

20 WHEN THE ENTIRE ASSEMBLY of the nation of Israel arrived at the wilderness of Zin in the first month,^o the people stayed in Kadesh. This is where Miriam died and was buried.^p

²Because the community was without water, they assembled against Moses and Aaron. ³The people started arguing with Moses, complaining, "Had we but died when our relatives died before the LORD!^q ⁴Why have you brought the congregation of the LORD into this desert to die, both we and our livestock? ⁵Why have you forced us to leave Egypt to bring us to this miserable location? It is no place for seed or fig trees, or vines, or pomegranates; there is not even any drinking water!"^r

⁶Moses and Aaron then went out from the assembly's presence to the door of the tent of meeting, and as they fell on their faces, the glory of the LORD appeared to them. ⁷The LORD told Moses: ⁸"Take the rod^s and together with Aaron your brother assemble the congregation. Speak to the rock before their eyes, that it may give forth its waters. Thus you shall draw forth water for them out of the rock so that you may give the assembly and their livestock to drink. ⁹Accordingly Moses took the rod from before the LORD even as He had directed him.

¹⁰After Moses and Aaron had assembled the congregation in front of the rock, he said to them, "Listen well, you rebels; must we draw water out of this rock for you?" ¹¹Then lifting up his hand, Moses struck the rock twice with his rod,^t and out flowed the water freely, allowing both the congregation and their livestock to quench their thirst.^u ¹²Nevertheless, the LORD reprimanded both Moses and Aaron: Because you have not firmly trusted in Me so as to vindicate My holiness in the eyes of the people of Israel, you shall not lead this assembly into the land that I have given them. ¹³These are the waters of Meribah,^v where the nation of Israel contended with the LORD; nevertheless, He vindicated His holiness before them.^w ¹⁴Later Moses dispatched messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "This comes from your brother Israel.^x You are well aware of all the misery which we have experienced; ¹⁵how our fathers went down to Egypt and stayed there for a long time and how the Egyptians mistreated both us and our fathers. ¹⁶But when we cried out to the LORD, He heard our plea and sent an angel to bring us out of Egypt. Now here we are at Kadesh, a town near the border of your territory. ¹⁷Would you be so kind as to permit us to pass

n) Our sins have harmful effects on others too.

o) In the fortieth year after they left Egypt. Comp. 14:33-35; 33:3, 37-39.

p) A thoughtful girl at Moses' birth, now about 130.

q) Generally throughout the 40 years of wandering and specifically as a result of Korah's rebellion, ch. 16.

r) Discontent as the fruit of unbelief. s) Aaron's rod from the Ark.

t) Temper, disobedience, self-will, and lack of faith, see Ps. 106:32,33. The Book that records his virtues, 12:3, now records his backsliding.

u) Despite the sin of Moses and Aaron, the people received the life-giving water, typical of the true life received from Christ [I Cor. 10:4]. God's blessings are not dependent on man.

v) Heb. - "Strife." w) Supplying the water and punishing Moses and Aaron. God is not mocked.

x) Esau, the brother of Jacob, was the father of the Edomites [Gen. 36].

through your country? We shall not cut across any field or vineyard, neither shall we drink any water from a well, but we shall take the king's highway^y without turning off to the right or to the left until we cross your border."¹⁸ "You cannot pass through here," Edom answered him, "for if you do, I shall come out in battle against you."¹⁹ "We shall go up the public highway," appealed the nation of Israel; "if we do drink of your water, however, either I or my livestock, I shall pay whatever it costs. I only want to pass through on foot; will that do any harm?"²⁰ Again he answered, "You cannot pass through." Edom then came out to engage him with a large, well-armed force.²¹ Therefore, seeing Edom refused permission for Israel to pass through his territory, Israel turned away from him.

²²After leaving Kadesh, the entire congregation of Israel came to Mount Hor.²³ While at Mount Hor, near the border of the land of Edom, the LORD informed Moses and Aaron:²⁴ Aaron shall be reunited with his kindred,^z for he cannot enter the land which I have given to the nation of Israel, because both of you rebelled against My instructions at the waters of Meribah.²⁵ Therefore take Aaron and his son Eleazar and bring them up to Mount Hor.²⁶ Strip Aaron of his robes and put them on Eleazar his son, inasmuch as Aaron is going to pass on and die there.²⁷ Moses did as the LORD had directed and they ascended Mount Hor, as the entire assembly looked on.²⁸ After Moses had stripped Aaron of his robes and had put them on Eleazar his son, Aaron died there^a on the mountain top; after which Moses and Eleazar came down, from the mountain.²⁹ When the entire congregation saw that Aaron had passed away, the whole family of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

August, 1407 B.C.

21 WHEN THE KING OF ARAD, A Canaanite who lived in the South-land, heard that Israel was approaching by way of Atharim,^b he attacked Israel, taking some of them prisoner.² Israel then made a vow to the LORD, saying, "If Thou wilt indeed deliver this people into our hand, we will completely wipe out their cities."³ The LORD heard Israel's request and delivered to them the Canaanites, so that they completely destroyed them and their cities; as a result, the place was named Hormah.^c

⁴In order to make the trip around the land of Edom, they were forced to travel by way of the Red Sea. The people, however, became depressed in spirit as a result of the route,⁵ and they again assailed God and Moses, "Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in the desert? There is neither bread nor water and we loathe to our souls this flat diet."^d ⁶As a consequence, the LORD sent among them stinging^e serpents, which bit the people so that many Israelites died.⁷ Then hurrying to Moses, the people confessed, "We have sinned in criticizing the LORD and you; pray to the LORD that He may remove the serpents from us." So Moses interceded in behalf of the people,⁸ and in turn the LORD instructed Moses: You make a stinging serpent and raise it on a pole. Anyone of those who are bitten, who looks at it, shall live.⁹ Moses therefore made a serpent of brass^f and lifted it up on the pole,^g and so it was that, if a person who had been bitten by the serpent, looked^h at the serpent of brass, he lived.¹

¹⁰The nation of Israel then pushed forward and set up camp in Obobh.

y) The main highway over which the king and his armies traveled.

z) An intimation of life after death. a) Aged 123 [ch. 33:39].

b) Or "Of the spies," apparently the route used by the spies in ch. 13:17,21.

c) Heb. - "a devoted thing," or, doomed to destruction.

d) The manna, which had been their wholesome nourishment, received without working for it and without which they must have starved. e) An inflammatory bite filled with poison and fever.

f) The form without the poison, so Christ in sinful flesh, yet without sin [II Cor. 5:21]. Our Lord accepts that brazen serpent as a symbol of Himself [John 3:14].

g) Comp. John 3:14; 12:32. h) Faith is ever the prerequisite for saving grace [Eph. 2:8; Isa. 45:22].

i) This serpent became an object of idolatrous worship and had to be destroyed [II Kings 18:4].

¹¹Leaving Oboth, they next camped at Iye-abarim in the desert on the eastern border of Moab.¹ ¹²After leaving there and camping in the valley of Zered, ¹³they continued and made camp where the desert extends back from the border of the Amorites on the other side of the Arnon, which is likewise Moab's boundary between them and the Amorites. ¹⁴For this reason it is described in the book, The Wars of Jehovah, "Waheb,^k like a stormy wind, and the water courses of Arnon, ¹⁵the ravine of the brooks which stretches toward the dwelling of Ar and rests on the border of Moab."

¹⁶From there they continued on to Beer,^l the place of the well where the LORD had said to Moses: Assemble the people and I will give them water.^m

¹⁷Israel then sang this song, "Spring up, O well! Sing ye to it!" ¹⁸A well which princes dug, which nobles of the people hollowed with the scepter and with their staves."

¹⁹From the desert they proceeded on through Mattanah, Nahaliel, ²⁰and Bamoth, to the valley overlooking the desert in the plateau of Moab by the top of Pisgah.

²¹Israel dispatched messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, with the message, ²²"Would you permit me to pass through your country? We shall not turn off into a field or vineyard, nor shall we drink any water from a well; for we promise to keep to the king's highway until we have crossed your border." ²³But Sihon would not grant Israel permission to pass through his territory; in fact, he mobilized his entire force and went out to meet Israel in the desert. Upon reaching Jahaz, he fought against Israel; ²⁴but Israel cut him down in battle and occupied his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the nation of Ammon, since the Ammonite border was very strong." ²⁵Israel seized all these cities belonging to the Amorites and later settled in them, both in Heshbon and all her towns; ²⁶for Heshbon was the capital of Sihon, the Amorite king who had fought against the former king of Moab and had seized control of all his territory as far as the Arnon. ²⁷Therefore the composers of ballads say, "Come to Heshbon. Let the city of Sihon be rebuilt; let it be restored." ²⁸For a fire went out from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon. It consumed Ar of Moab, the masters of the heights of the Arnon. ²⁹Woe to thee, O Moab; you are ruined, O people of Chemosh! He^o has surrendered his sons as fugitives, his daughters too as captives, to Sihon, king of the Amorites. ³⁰But we have shot them down; Heshbon is lost even to Dibon. We have ravaged as far as Nophah, which reaches even to Medeba."

³¹While Israel was residing in the land of the Amorites, ³²Moses sent out a reconnaissance party to Jazer. They then captured her towns, driving out the Amorites who were there.

³³After this they turned and traveled up the road toward Bashan; but Og, the king of Bashan, came out with all his forces to battle with them at Edrei.

³⁴Nevertheless, the LORD assured Moses: Be not afraid of him, for I have delivered him into your hand^p—along with all his subjects and land. You shall deal with him even as you dealt with Sihon, the Amorite king who lived in Heshbon. ³⁵So they slew him, his sons, and all his subjects until he did not have a single survivor remaining, and then they occupied his land. January/February, 1406 B.C.

22 THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL THEN traveled on and set up camp in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan^q opposite Jericho. ²And when Balak the son of Zippor perceived all that Israel had done to the Amorites, ³Moab was utterly dismayed at the people's presence because there were so many of them; in fact, Moab was terrified at the

j) Heb. — "Toward the sunrise." k) A town near the Arnon river northward. l) Heb. — "Well."

m) There is a promise for every need [Phil. 4:19].

n) The main reason for not entering Ammon is given in Deut. 2:19: Lot was their ancestor.

o) Chemosh the chief god of Moab [Jer. 48:7].

p) Need we ever fail with such sustaining power? Isa. 41:10.

q) The common term for the land taken east of the Jordan.

presence of the nation of Israel. ⁴In view of this, Moab consulted with the elders of Midian, "This multitude will now shear off everything around us, as an ox shears off the grass in the field."

Wherefore Balak the son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, ⁵dispatched messengers to solicit the aid of Balaam^r the son of Beor, who was in Pethor, his native land, which is near the River,^s saying, "Look, a people has emigrated from Egypt; mind you, they cover the face of the earth! They are even staying directly across from me. ⁶Come at once and curse this people for me, for they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I shall be in a position where we can defeat them and drive them out of the country, because I know he whom you bless remains blessed and he whom you curse stays cursed."

⁷Accordingly, the elders of Moab and Midian, having left with the fees for sorcery in their hand, came to Balaam and conveyed to him Balak's message. ⁸"Spend the night here," he said, "and I shall give you a reply as the LORD directs me;"^t so the princes of Moab lodged with Balaam. ⁹God then came to Balaam and asked: Who are these men with you? ¹⁰Balaam answered God, "Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, has sent for me saying, ¹¹'Look! The people that emigrated from Egypt have covered the face of the earth. Please come at once and curse them for me. Perhaps I can fight against them and drive them away.'"

¹²But God restrained Balaam: You shall not go with them; you are not to curse the people, for they are blessed.^u

¹³In the morning Balaam got up and told the princes of Balak, "Return to your own land, for the LORD has refused^v me permission to go with you."

¹⁴The princes of Moab arose and returning to Balak reported to him, "Balaam refused to come with us."

¹⁵In spite of this, Balak again tried, sending a larger number of princes who were more distinguished than the former. ¹⁶When they came to Balaam they said to him, "Balak the son of Zippor has this to say, 'Please let nothing hinder you from joining me, ¹⁷for I will surely honor you exceedingly. Besides, I promise to do whatever you request of me; only please come and curse this people for me.'"¹⁸In answer Balaam replied to Balak's officers, "If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not overstep the command of the LORD my God to do anything, whether small or great. ¹⁹Nevertheless, you stay here tonight, too, and I shall find out what else the LORD may have to say to me."²⁰During that night God came to Balaam and told him; If the men have come to summon you, get up and go with them, but you are to do only what I tell you.

²¹So next morning he got up, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab. ²²But God's anger was inflamed over his going,^x and the Angel of the LORD stationed Himself on the road as his adversary. He was riding on his donkey accompanied by two servants, ²³when suddenly the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the road with His drawn sword in His hand, and she turned off the road and went into the field. Balaam, however, hit the donkey to get her back on the road.^y ²⁴Next the Angel of the LORD stood in a lane between the vineyards, a wall being on either side. ²⁵On seeing the Angel of the LORD, the donkey pressed against the wall, squeezing Balaam's foot in the process, thus causing him to strike her again. ²⁶The Angel of the LORD

r) Whose God was Jehovah, to whom here an idolater turns in distress.

s) The Euphrates.

t) He knew their mission was evil. To entertain temptation is sin, as in Gen. 3.

u) God's word is always clear, if we will hear.

v) He suppresses the fact that the LORD has forbidden him to curse Israel.

w) The LORD may grant a persistent selfish request even though He knows the answer will hurt [Ps. 106:15]. Balaam's heart was not right; "he loved the wages of wickedness" [II Pet. 2:15].

x) The Hebrew construction here suggests that God was displeased with his frame of heart as he traveled. See further vs. 32.

y) Balaam was unable to see the LORD, for the reward Balak had promised. Sin blinds us spiritually.

then moved still farther and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn either to the right or to the left. ²⁷When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam. Balaam lost his temper and struck the donkey with his stick. ²⁸At that point, the LORD opened the donkey's mouth, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you should hit me these three times?" ²⁹"Because you have made me look ridiculous," Balaam retorted to the donkey; "if I had only had a sword in my hand, I would have killed you by now." ³⁰The donkey reminded Balaam, "Have I not been your donkey upon which you have ridden all your life to this very day? Have I always been in the habit of doing this to you?" "No," he admitted.

³¹The LORD then opened Balaam's eyes, and when he saw the Angel of the LORD standing there in the road with His drawn sword in His hand, he bowed his head and fell on his face.

³²"Why have you struck your donkey these three times?" the Angel of the LORD admonished him. "Take note, I have come as an adversary because in My sight your road leads headlong into destruction." ³³The donkey saw Me and has shied away from Me these three times and if it had not been for her shying away from Me, I certainly would have killed you by now and spared her." ³⁴Balaam confessed to the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not realize that Thou wert standing in the road to confront me; but now if it is displeasing in Thy sight, I shall go back." ³⁵However, the Angel of the LORD directed Balaam: Go with the men, but you are only to relay the message that I tell you. Thus Balaam continued on with the princes of Balak.

³⁶When Balak heard that Balaam had arrived, he went out to meet him in a city of Moab near the border of the Arnon river, which is at the far end of the boundary. ³⁷Balak questioned Balaam, "Did I not urgently send you a party to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not capable of honoring you?" ³⁸Balaam replied to Balak, "But look! I have now come to you; nevertheless, am I entirely at liberty to speak anything? The message which God brings to my mind, that I must speak." ³⁹Balaam then went with Balak until they reached Kiriath-huzoth,^a ⁴⁰where Balak proceeded to sacrifice bullocks and sheep,^b sending some^c to Balaam and to the princes who were with him. ⁴¹And early the next day Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-baal, from which vantage point he could see to the outer-most edge of the people.

23 "BUILD ME SEVEN ALTARS here," ²Balaam directed Balak; "and likewise prepare seven bulls and seven rams."^d After Balak did as Balaam had ordered, Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar. ³"Stand beside your burnt offering while I am gone," Balaam told Balak; "perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and then whatever message He imparts to me I shall reveal in turn to you." When he had gone to a barren height,^e ⁴God did meet Balaam who told Him, "I have arranged the seven altars in a row and have offered a bull and a ram on each altar." ⁵Presently the LORD placed a message in Balaam's mouth, explaining: Return to Balak, for this is what you must say. ⁶When Balaam returned to him, there he was standing beside his burnt offering along with all of Moab's princes. ⁷Balaam then began his discourse, "From Aram^f I am brought by Balak from eastern mountains by Moab's king; Oh, come and curse Jacob for me, yes, come and threaten Israel. ⁸How shall I curse whom God has not cursed, and how condemn when the LORD condemns not? ⁹For

z) Balaam's spiritual resistance weakened steadily during the trip; God knew that unless his spiritual senses were awakened, tragedy would result.

a) City of streets. b) To Jehovah, since He was the God of Balaam and of the Israelites.

c) As a sacrificial meal.

d) He was a perfectionist, but his heart was not right with God; "To obey is better than sacrifice" [1 Sam. 15:22; Mark 12:33]. e) The common practice of pagan sorcerers. f) Mesopotamia.

from the rocky peak I view them, and from the heights I observe them; surely a people who live by themselves, who cast not their lot among other nations.^g ¹⁰Who can number Jacob's millions,^h or count one fourth of Israel's?ⁱ Let me die as dies the righteous,^j and may my end resemble his."

¹¹"What have you done to me?" demanded Balak of Balaam. "I secured you to curse my enemies, but you certainly have done nothing but bless them." ¹²In answer he said, "Must I not be extremely careful to relay only that which the LORD puts in my mouth?"

¹³Nevertheless, Balak urged him, "Please come with me to another place from which you can see them, although you shall only see the further edge of them, not all of them. Curse them for me from there." ¹⁴After taking him to the field of Zophim,^k at the top of Pisgah, he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar. ¹⁵He then instructed Balak, "Stand here beside your burnt offering while I have a meeting yonder."

¹⁶The LORD then met Balaam and placed a message in his mouth, explaining: Return to Balak, for this is what you must say. ¹⁷When he rejoined him, there Balak was standing beside his burnt offering along with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, "What did the LORD say?" ¹⁸Balaam then announced this discourse:

"Get to your feet, O Balak, and listen, pay attention to me, O son of Zippor! ¹⁹For God is not man that He should lie, neither human that He should change his mind. When He gives His word, does He not perform it? Or does He promise and not fulfill it? ²⁰Look! I was given an order to bless, and since He has blessed, I cannot alter it. ²¹He has detected no sin in Jacob,^m neither has He witnessed mischief in Israel. The LORD, their God, is ever among them, and they shout with praise to a King.ⁿ ²²God is leading them out of Egypt, their strength is like that of a buffalo,^o ²³Indeed, there is no sorcery in Jacob, neither is witchcraft found in Israel.^p At a proper time it shall be stated to Jacob, yes, to Israel what God has brought about! ²⁴Surely the people arise as a lioness, even as a lion they exert themselves;^q it does not rest till it eats the prey, nor till it drinks the blood of the slain."

²⁵In view of this, Balak charged Balaam, "Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all." ²⁶In answer to Balak, Balaam said, "Did I not explain this to you? Whatever the LORD says I must do."

²⁷Nevertheless, Balak urged Balaam, "Please come. Let me take you to another place; perhaps it will be agreeable with God to curse them for me from there." ²⁸So Balak conducted Balaam to the top of Peor where it looks out over the desert. ²⁹Again Balaam directed Balak, "Construct seven altars for me here, and likewise prepare seven bulls and seven rams." ³⁰After Balak did as Balaam had ordered, he offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 WHEN BALAAM PERCEIVED THAT it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go back and resort to omens as on previous occasions, but turned his face toward the desert.^r ²As he raised his eyes and viewed Israel, camping according to their tribes, the Spirit of God came upon him. ³He then took up his oracles; he said, "The

g) Israel, as God's chosen people, was religiously and morally separate from the Gentile nations. h) Heb. — "dust," an allusion to God's statement in Gen. 13:16.

i) One of the four divisions in the camp, ch. 2.

j) To die as the righteous one must live as the righteous. He was later killed in a battle between Israel and the Midianites.

k) Or "watchers"; because of its location it was probably an observation post in times of disturbance. l) A vague statement, possibly to encourage Balak. Balaam, too, may have been hoping for a change for his own benefit.

m) Their sins were covered by the blood on the mercy seat; so those of every repentant sinner.

n) The theocratic kingdom which they later rejected [I Sam. 8].

o) A species of buffalo now extinct which had towering horns, a symbol of its strength.

p) They had no need of these. So the church today has no use for godless cunning; she has the Holy Spirit and His Word [John 14:26; I Cor. 2:6ff].

q) Probably an allusion to Gen. 49:9. Here the strength is applied to all Israel.

r) The plain of Moab where Israel was camped.

revelation of Balaam, Beor's son, the revelation of a man whose eye is opened; ⁴the revelation of him who hears God's words, a vision of the Almighty he also sees; for when he falls, his eyes are open. ⁵How pleasant, O Jacob, are your tents, your dwellings, O Israel. ⁶Spread out as valleys, as gardens along a stream, like aloes^s which the LORD has planted, like cedars beside the waters.^t ⁷Water will flow from their buckets,^u their offspring shall be by much water. Their king shall be higher than Agag,^v their kingdom too shall be exalted. ⁸God is leading them out of Egypt, their strength like that of a buffalo. The nations, their opponents, they shall swallow, crushing their bones into pieces, piercing them through with their arrows. ⁹They lie, they crouch as a lion; as a lioness, who would disturb them? Blessed are they who bless you and cursed are they who curse you."

¹⁰Balak's anger flared up against Balaam, and striking his fists, he rebuked Balaam, "I engaged you to curse my enemy, but without fail you have done nothing but bless them these three times. ¹¹Flee immediately to your home; I certainly promised I would highly honor you, but the LORD has held you back from this prestige."

¹²Balaam reminded Balak, "But did I not inform your messengers whom you sent me, ¹³If Balak should give me his house full of silver and gold, I still cannot overstep the LORD's command to do good or evil of my own accord; whatever the LORD tells me I must say?" ¹⁴But now, notice! I am returning to my people. Come, let me inform you what this people shall do to your people in the future days."^x ¹⁵He then took up his discourse, saying:

"The revelation of Balaam son of Beor, the revelation of a man with opened eyes, ¹⁶the revelation of him who hears God's words, who perceives the knowledge of the Most High. A vision of the Almighty he also sees, for when he falls, his eyes are open. ¹⁷I see Him but not now; I observe Him but not nearby. A Star shall come up out of Jacob,^y a Scepter shall rise out of Israel,^z which shall crush Moab from one end to the other and destroy all the children of Sheth.^a ¹⁸Edom too shall become a possession and Seir a conquered territory,^b while Israel is displaying his strength. ¹⁹One with dominion shall come out of Jacob and kill the survivors left from the city."

²⁰When he perceived Amalek,^c he took up his discourse: "Amalek was the first of the nations,^d but his end shall close with destruction."

²¹Then observing the Kenite^e he proceeded with his discourse: "Your home is of lasting duration, and your nest is set in the rock. ²²Nevertheless Kain^{ee} shall head toward destruction till Assyria^f departs you as captives."

²³He then concluded his discourse by saying, "Woe! who shall live when God performs this?"^g ²⁴Ships shall come from the coasts of Cyprus;^h they shall oppress both Assyria and Eber.ⁱ He also shall end in destruction."^j ²⁵Balaam then got up to leave^k and returned to his home, while Balak also went his way.

s) A plant highly valued for its fragrance and used in making incense. t) Compare Ps. 1:3.

u) An abundance of water in a hot, arid climate.

v) A general title given to the Amalekite kings, as the name Pharaoh was in Egypt. The Amalekites here represent the gentile kingdoms in opposition to God's kingdom, since they were the first to oppose Israel after leaving Egypt [Ex. 17:8]. w) Does not imply divine approval.

x) This national prophecy became history and will be climaxed with victory over all world powers. y) The coming Messiah. The star has long been the symbol of royalty and imperial greatness [Matt. 2:2 and Rev. 22:16]. z) Gen. 49:10.

a) The history of Moab was characterized by warlike confusion.

b) Edom, the people, Seir the country. c) In his vision.

d) The first to oppose Israel as they left Egypt.

e) The Kenites were friendly. Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, was of this tribe. See Num. 10:29; I Sam. 15:6. ee) Or, the Kenite.

f) Destruction must come for the Kenites in so far as they did not with Israel enter into God's gracious covenant [I Sam. 15:6].

g) To destruction. h) Heb. — Kittim, Gen. 10:4.

i) Descendants of Eber, Gen. 10:21-30, who settled in the Near East. Together with Assyria they represented the coming world powers of the East.

j) II Sam. 7:12ff; Ps. 2; Dan. 2:44,45.

k) Sometime before Balaam left, he suggested to Balak immoral ways of leading the men of Israel astray [31:16 and Rev. 2:14].

Early 1406 B.C.

25 WHILE ISRAEL WAS STAYING IN Acacia,¹ the people began to have illicit relations with the women of Moab,² who had invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods. The people then started eating and bowing down to these gods,³ and before long Israel was uniting freely with Baal-peor. The LORD's anger burned against Israel,⁴ and He commanded Moses: Summon all the leaders of the people and hang them⁵ up in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the LORD's burning anger may be diverted from Israel. ⁶Therefore Moses ordered the judges of Israel, "Each of you execute those of his men who have fraternized with Baal-peor."

⁶Later, indeed, one of the men of Israel, in plain view of Moses and of the entire Israelite community,⁷ who were weeping at the door of the meeting tent,⁸ came in and introduced a woman of Midian to his relatives. ⁹When Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the grandson of Aaron the priest, witnessed this, he withdrew hurriedly from the congregation, and seizing a spear in his hand,¹⁰ he rushed after this man into the tent and pierced them both through, the man of Israel and the woman right through her stomach. The plague upon Israel then came to a stop,¹¹ but not until 24,000 had died of the plague.

¹⁰The LORD then said to Moses: ¹¹Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the grandson of Aaron the priest, has turned away My indignation from the nation of Israel by being so concerned about My zeal among you and as a result I did not finish dealing with the people of Israel according to My zeal. ¹²Therefore announce: I indeed am reaffirming with him My covenant of peace.¹³ He and his descendants after him shall retain this covenant of the everlasting priesthood,¹⁴ because he has been zealous for his God and has made atonement¹⁵ for the people of Israel.

¹⁴The slain man's name, the Israelite who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, the leader of one of Simeon's clans. ¹⁵The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur who was the head of a group of clans in Midian.

¹⁶Moses was then ordered by the LORD: ¹⁷Provoke aggression with the Midianites and afterwards smite them; ¹⁸for, you see, they too are tormenting you with their underhandedness, having deceived you in the Peor affair and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was killed on the day of the plague in the Peor trouble.

Early 1406 B.C.

26 A SHORT TIME AFTER THE plague, the LORD told Moses and Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest: ²Take a census of the entire assembly of the people of Israel from 20 years of age and upward according to their clans; all who are subject to military service in Israel.³ In turn Moses and Eleazar the priest relayed this order to them⁴ in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying, ⁴"Take a census of the people from twenty years of age and upward, in the same manner as the LORD commanded Moses and the people of Israel who emigrated from the land of Egypt."⁵

⁶The descendants of Reuben, the first-born of Israel, were: Hanoch of whom is the Hanochite clan; Pallu, the

1) At the northern end of their camp in the plains of Moab they came in closest contact with the Moabites. m) Eating of the pagan offerings and practicing the accompanying immoralities.

n) As leaders they had failed the people; see Lk. 12:48.

o) The shameless attitude before the people was wicked, but worse yet was the brazen blasphemy against God. p) Over the death of their leaders and the plague victims.

q) Nothing could intervene to break this covenant: the promise of eternal priesthood [vs. 13]. Comp. Ps. 106:28-31.

r) The final and perpetual High Priest would be Christ Himself. Ps. 110:4.

s) An unprecedented means of atonement; not a required sacrifice but a voluntary deed prompted by his righteous indignation against sin as opposition to God.

t) While the primary purpose of the census was to determine the inheritance of each tribe in Canaan, vs. 52-56, it was also a military census.

u) Presumably, the various tribal leaders as in ch. 1:4ff. v) Num. 1:2,3.

Palluite clan; ⁶Hezron, the Hezronite clan; and Carmi, the Carmite clan. ⁷These are the Reubenite clans whose conscriptees totaled 43,730. ⁸The son of Pallu was Eliab, ⁹ whose sons were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the same Dathan and Abiram, national representatives, who contended against Moses and Aaron along with Korah's company when they quarreled against the Lord. ¹⁰The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah at the same time when that company was killed by the fire which, as a warning,^w consumed the 250 men. ¹¹Korah's sons, however, did not die.

¹²The sons of Simeon according to their respective clans were: Nemuel, of whom is the Nemuelite clan; Jamin, the Jaminite clan; Jachin, the Jachinite clan; ¹³Zerah, the Zerahite clan; and Shaul, the Shaulite clan. ¹⁴These Simonite clans totaled 22,200.^x

¹⁵The sons of Gad^y according to their respective clans were: Zephon, of whom is the Zephonite clan; Haggi, the Haggite clan; Shuni, the Shunite clan; ¹⁶Ozni, the Oznite clan; Eri, the Erite clan; ¹⁷Arod, the Arodite clan; and Areli, the Arelite clan. ¹⁸These are the clans of Gad's descendants, whose conscriptees totaled 40,500.

¹⁹Two of Judah's sons were Er and Onan who died in the land of Canaan.^z ²⁰The sons of Judah according to their respective clans were: Shelah, of whom is the Shelanite clan; Perez, the Perezite clan;^a and Zerah, the Zerahite clan. ²¹The sons of Perez were: Hezron, of whom is the Hezronite clan; and Hamul, the Hamulite clan. ²²These are the clans of Judah, whose conscriptees totaled 76,500.

²³The sons of Issachar according to their respective clans were: Tola, of whom is the Tolaite clan; Puvah, the Punite clan; ²⁴Jashub, the Jashubite clan; and Shimron, the Shimronite clan. ²⁵These are the clans of Issachar, whose conscriptees totaled 64,300.

²⁶The sons of Zebulun according to their respective clans were: Sered, of whom is the Seredite clan; Elon, the Elonite clan; and Jahleel, the Jahleelite clan. ²⁷These are the Zebulunite clans whose conscriptees totaled 60,500.

²⁸The sons of Joseph according to their respective tribes were Manasseh and Ephraim. ²⁹The descendants of Manasseh were: Machir, of whom is the Machirite clan. Machir was the father of Gilead, of whom is the Gileadite clan. ³⁰The sons of Gilead were: Iezer, of whom is the Iezerite clan; Helek, the Helekite clan; ³¹Asriel, the Asrielite clan; Shechem, the Shechemite clan; ³²Shemida, the Shemidaite clan; and Hephher, the Hephherite clan. ³³Now Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, had no sons but only daughters, and the names of Zelophehad's daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.^b ³⁴These are the clans of Manasseh whose conscriptees totaled 52,700.

³⁵The sons of Ephraim according to their respective clans were: Shuthelah, of whom is the Shuthelahite clan; Becher, the Becherite clan; and Tahan, the Tahanite clan. ³⁶The following are the sons of Shuthelah: Eran of whom is the Eranite clan. ³⁷These are the clans of Ephraim's descendants whose conscriptees totaled 32,500. The preceding are the sons of Joseph according to their clans.

³⁸The sons of Benjamin according to their respective clans were: Bela, of whom is the Belaite clan; Ashbel, the Ashbelite clan; Ahiram, the Ahiramite clan; ³⁹Shephupham, the Shuphamite clan; and Hupham, the Huphamite clan. ⁴⁰The sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: Ard, of whom is the Ardite clan; and Naaman, the Naamite

w) Num. 16:30,38, a further evidence of God's mercy.

x) Comparing the national census of ch. 1, Simeon suffered the greatest decrease; they were probably most involved in the Baal-peor affair.

y) After Reuben and Simeon the Levites are next in line, but they as ministers, are numbered by themselves. Gad, elder son of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid, fills the gap between Simeon and Judah.

z) Gen. 38:6-9.

a) From which David and thus ultimately Jesus were born. Occasionally it is spelled Pharez, and the Pharisees - separatists - revived the name.

b) Here mentioned because their father's inheritance passed down through them [see ch. 27:5-7].

clan. ⁴¹These are the sons of Benjamin according to their clans who totaled 45,600.

⁴²These are the sons of Dan according to their clans: Shuham, of whom is the Shuhamite clan. These represent the families of Dan according to their clans. ⁴³The number from all the Shuhamite clans totaled 64,400.

⁴⁴The sons of Asher according to their respective clans were: Imnah, of whom is the Imnite clan; Ishvi, the Ishvite clan; and Beriah, the Beriite clan. ⁴⁵Beriah's sons were: Heber of whom is the Heberite clan; and Malchiel, the Malchielite clan. ⁴⁶Asher also had a daughter named Serah. ⁴⁷These are the clans of Asher's sons whose number totaled 53,400.

⁴⁸The sons of Naphtali according to their respective clans were: Jahzeel, of whom is the Jahzeelite clan; Guni, the Gunitite clan; ⁴⁹Jezer, the Jezerite clan; and Shillem, the Shillemite clan. ⁵⁰These represent the families of Naphtali according to their clans who totaled 45,400.

⁵¹The foregoing are the conscriptees from the nation of Israel, whose sum total was 601,730.

⁵²Afterwards the LORD instructed Moses, ⁵³The land is to be allotted as an inheritance in proportion to the number of names. ⁵⁴The one with the larger amount shall receive the greater inheritance; the one with the fewer shall receive the smaller inheritance. Each tribe shall be allotted its inheritance in proportion to its total number. ⁵⁵Nevertheless, the land shall be distributed by lot;^c and they shall take possession of it according to the names of their paternal tribes. ⁵⁶Their inheritance shall be divided according to lot between the larger and the smaller.

⁵⁷Those who were numbered of the Levites according to their respective clans are: Gershon, of whom is the Gershonite clan; Kohath, the Kohathite clan; and Merari, the Merarite clan. ⁵⁸These are also the clans of Levi:^d The Libnite clan, the Hebron-ite clan, the Mahlite clan, the Mushite clan, and the Korahite clan. Now Kohath was the father of Amram,⁵⁹ whose wife's name was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi who was born to him in Egypt. She gave birth by Amram to Aaron, Moses, and their sister, Miriam. ⁶⁰Aaron was the father of Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ⁶¹Nadab and Abihu, however, died when they offered improper fire^e before the LORD. ⁶²Their enrollment, all the males a month or more old, totaled 23,000, for they were not counted with the Israelites since there was no inheritance assigned to them among the people of Israel.^f

⁶³The foregoing are those who were enrolled by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they took a census of the nation of Israel in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho. ⁶⁴Among these, however, there was not a single man who had been enrolled by Moses and Aaron the priest when they took the census of the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai, ⁶⁵for the LORD had declared to them: Without fail you will die in the wilderness.^g Consequently, not a single one of them survived except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.^h

Early 1406 B.C.

27 THEN CAME FORWARD THE daughters of Zelophehad, whose ancestry goes back through Hephher, Gilead, Machir, and Manasseh, the clans of Manasseh, to Joseph. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ²As they stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the princes, and the entire assembly at the entrance of the meeting tent, they stated, ³'Our father died in the wilderness — though he did not go along with the company, Korah's company, which assembled against the LORD; he died because of his own sinⁱ — leaving no sons. ⁴But why should our father's name be withdrawn from his family tree just because he had no son? Grant us a pos-

c) To prevent any jealousy or strife which might arise.

d) Descendants of the preceding three major clans.

e) See ch. 3:4.

f) Ch. 18:20, 24.

j) Ch. 14:28ff. k) The Lord breaks no promise or threat [Gal. 6:7,8].

l) Included in the general punishment prescribed at Kadesh, but not in any rebellious group.

session among our father's relatives."^m

⁶Moses therefore brought their case to the LORD, ⁶and in reply the LORD instructed Moses: ⁷The daughters of Zelophehad have a just complaint. You must certainly grant them a possession by right of inheritance among their father's relatives by transferring their father's inheritance to them. ⁸In addition, issue this statement to the people of Israel: If a man dies who has no son, you are to transfer his property to his daughter. ⁹If he has no daughter, then assign it to his brother. ¹⁰If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his uncles, ¹¹and if he has no uncles, then assign his property to the closest relative in his family;ⁿ this one shall possess it. The people of Israel shall have this as a statute for determining legal right in accord with the LORD's command to Moses.

¹²The LORD said to Moses: Climb this mountain of Abarim^o and view the country which I have given to the nation of Israel. ¹³After you have seen it, you also will be reunited with your people as Aaron, your brother, was reunited with his kinsfolk, ¹⁴because by failing to vindicate Me before their eyes at the waters, you rebelled against My orders when the congregation was finding fault in the wilderness of Zin. These are the waters of Meribah at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

¹⁵Moses then made this request of the LORD:^p ¹⁶"Let the LORD, the God who knows the dispositions of all mankind, put a man in charge of the congregation ¹⁷who can lead them in war and direct their national affairs so that the LORD's congregation be not like a flock without a shepherd."^q ¹⁸The LORD therefore directed Moses: Secure for yourself Joshua the son of Nun, a man who has the Spirit within him, and lay your hands upon him. ¹⁹Have him stand before Eleazar the priest and before the entire community that you may commission him before their eyes. ²⁰Confer upon him some of your authority,^r in order that the entire congregation of the Israelites may be obedient to him. ²¹He shall present himself before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him before the LORD the decision of the Urim. Both in war and in peace they, Joshua along with all the Israelites and the entire assembly, shall act under his orders.^s ²²Moses acted accordingly, even as the LORD had commanded him; he took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and before the entire assembly. ²³As he placed his hands upon him, he commissioned him as the LORD had instructed through Moses.

28 THE LORD FURTHER TOLD Moses:^t ²Command the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be careful to present My sacrificial gift, My food which is offered with fire as a pleasing fragrance to Me, at its designated time. ³The offering made by fire which you are to present to the LORD is this: Flawless yearling lambs, two each day, as a continual burnt offering.^u ⁴Offer one of the lambs in the morning and the other at dusk, ⁵along with a meal offering composed of three quarts of fine flour mixed with three pints of oil. ⁶This is the continual burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai^v to be offered with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ⁷The accompanying drink offering shall be three pints for each lamb. Pour out this drink offering of strong wine^w before the LORD in the holy place. ⁸Offer the other lamb at dusk in the same manner as the morning meal offering and drink offering, burning it with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.

m) By faith they took advantage of God's promise to Abraham [Gen. 15:18].

n) Peruse the story of Ruth and Boaz in the Book of Ruth, ch. 4:1-11.

o) Its peak Nebo, comp. the parallel account in Deut. 32:48-52.

p) Not a word of complaint, although he fully realized that another was to reap the reward of his labors. q) In spite of all their failures, Moses still had their interests at heart.

r) "Some of your spiritual gifts and the respect you have of the people."

s) The high priest would be God's representative in this theocracy as soon as Moses passed away, because no one could personally replace him.

t) The congregation is now on the eve of entering Canaan and is reminded of the prerequisites for enjoying a constant fellowship with their LORD.

u) Symbolic of daily consecration to the LORD. v) Ex. 29:38-42. w) Wine not to be imbibed.

⁹On the Sabbath day you are to offer two flawless male yearling lambs, a meal offering composed of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil, and the accompanying drink offering. ¹⁰The burnt offering for every Sabbath is in addition to the continual burnt offering^x and its accompanying drink offering.

¹¹At the beginning of each month,^y you are also to offer to the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven flawless male yearling lambs. ¹²Nine quarts of fine flour mixed with oil is to serve as a meal offering to accompany each bull; six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a meal offering for the ram; ¹³and three quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a meal offering for each lamb. This is a burnt offering presented with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. ¹⁴The drink offerings which shall accompany them shall be three quarts of wine for a bull, two quarts for a ram, and three pints for a lamb. This is the burnt offering for each month throughout the entire year.^z ¹⁵In addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying drink offering, one he-goat is also to be offered as a sin offering^a to the LORD.

¹⁶The LORD's Passover is on the fourteenth day of the first month. ¹⁷Therefore on the fifteenth of this month there shall be a feast, lasting for seven days, at which unleavened bread shall be eaten. ¹⁸You are to refrain from any strenuous labor on the first day, for it has been set aside for a sacred meeting. ¹⁹You are to sacrifice with fire a burnt offering to the LORD of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male yearling lambs; make sure they are flawless,^b ²⁰along with their respective meal offerings, fine flour mixed with oil. Present nine quarts with a bull, six quarts with the ram, ²¹and three quarts with each of the seven lambs. ²²Moreover, offer one he-goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you. ²³You are to offer these in addition to the morning burnt offering, which is the regular burnt offering. ²⁴Follow this pattern daily for seven days as you offer the food^c with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. It shall be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying drink offering. ²⁵You are to refrain from any strenuous labor on the seventh day since it has been set aside for a sacred meeting.

²⁶On the day of the first fruits, when in your feast of weeks you bring the LORD a food offering of new grain, you shall have a sacred meeting; you shall do no exhausting work. ²⁷But offer a burnt offering for a pleasing fragrance to the LORD — two young bullocks, one ram, seven yearling he-lambs; ²⁸and their food offering — fine flour mixed with oil, ten and a half quarts for each bullock, seven quarts for the ram, ²⁹seven pints for each of the seven he-lambs; ³⁰one he-goat to make atonement for you. ³¹You shall offer these and their libations in addition to the regular burnt offering and food offering; and be sure they are sound.

29 YOU ARE ALSO TO HAVE A SACRED meeting on the first day of the seventh month^d and because of that you must refrain from all strenuous labor; the day has been set aside for you for the blowing of trumpets.^e ²As a pleasing fragrance to the LORD you are to present to the LORD a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram, and seven yearling male lambs which are flawless, ³together with their rex) Since this day was especially the LORD's.

y) Monthly as well as daily consecration. This was binding upon them; thus we may offer ourselves personally and also as represented by our gifts in works and money [Rom. 12:1].

z) According to Num. 10:10, a trumpet was to be blown at this time to bring to God's remembrance their prayers and offerings, so that He would deal mercifully with them.

a) Consecration is not effective until sin is removed.

b) For details see Lev. 22:18-25, typical of the moral perfections of Christ, I Pet. 1:19.

c) The burnt offering and its accompanying offerings. These, being symbolic of consecration, were to respond to God's yearning for human love and worship.

d) Consecrated as a Sabbatical month, the two main events being the Day of Atonement, vss. 7-11, and the Feast of Tabernacles, vss. 12-28. God's order is atonement, then fellowship and blessing.

e) To invoke God's blessed attention upon them, see ch. 10:10.

spective meal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, nine quarts with the bull, six quarts with the ram, ⁴and three quarts with each of the seven lambs. ⁵In addition offer a he-goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you, ⁶together with the burnt offering of the new moon with its meal offering, the regular burnt offering with its meal offering, and their respective drink offerings as their regulation specifies. They are an offering made with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.

⁷On the tenth day of this seventh month you are to have a sacred meeting; you shall humble yourselves^f and refrain from any type of work. ⁸Furthermore, present as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram, and seven yearling male lambs, making certain they are flawless, ⁹along with their respective meal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil, nine quarts with the bull, six quarts with the ram, ¹⁰and three quarts with each of the seven lambs. ¹¹Moreover, offer one he-goat for a sin offering in addition to the sin offering of atonement,^g the continual burnt offering, its accompanying meal offering, and their respective drink offerings.

¹²Likewise on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you are to have a sacred meeting; you are to refrain from any strenuous labor and are to observe a feast to the LORD for seven days.^h ¹³Offer a burnt offering with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs, which are flawless, ¹⁴along with their respective meal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil, nine quarts with each of the thirteen bulls, six quarts with each of the two rams, ¹⁵and three quarts with each of the fourteen lambs. ¹⁶Offer one he-goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

¹⁷On the second day offer twelve young bulls,ⁱ two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs which are flawless. ¹⁸Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. ¹⁹In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering, its accompanying meal offering and their respective drink offerings.

²⁰On the third day offer eleven young bulls, two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs which are flawless. ²¹Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. ²²In addition offer one male goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

²³On the fourth day offer ten young bulls, two rams and fourteen male yearling lambs which are flawless. ²⁴Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. ²⁵In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

²⁶On the fifth day offer nine young bulls, two rams and fourteen male yearling lambs, which are flawless. ²⁷Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. ²⁸In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

f) Heb. - Afflict your soul, probably including fasting. Comp. Isa. 58:5-10.

g) The annual atonement for the people's sin, Lev. 16, and for a comparison with Christ's atonement, see Heb. 9, especially vss. 25, 26.

h) The feast was a memorial of God's care for Israel in the desert and a thanksgiving for His provision during the year just completed [Lev. 23:39-43].

i) The number of bulls is arranged to reach seven on the seventh day, the number of perfection, to represent God's complete provision, such as we now enjoy in Christ and in His dealings with men.

²⁹On the sixth day offer eight young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs which are flawless. ³⁰Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. ³¹In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

³²On the seventh day offer seven young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs, which are flawless. ³³Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. ³⁴In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

³⁵On the eighth day you are to have a sacred meeting and therefore must refrain from any strenuous labor. ³⁶Offer a burnt offering with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD: namely, one young bull, one ram, and seven male yearling lambs, which are flawless. ³⁷Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bull, the ram, and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. ³⁸In addition offer one male goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

³⁹You are to offer these to the LORD at your set festivals in addition to your vows and your freewill offerings,^j consisting of your burnt offerings, your meal offerings, your drink offerings, and your peace offerings. ⁴⁰Moses told the people of Israel exactly what the LORD had commanded him.

Early 1406 B.C.

30 MOSES ADDRESSED THE TRIBAL leaders of the Israelites, "The Lord has issued the following order:

²When a man makes a vow^k to the LORD or takes an oath to abstain from something,^l thereby pledging himself to it, he must not go back on his word but must carry out all that his mouth has uttered. ³Similarly, when a woman makes a vow to the LORD or takes a pledge of self-denial, while still an adolescent in her father's house, ⁴and her father hears of her vow or this pledge of self-denial and grants her his silent consent, then all her vows and every pledge of self-denial with which she has bound herself shall remain in effect. ⁵But if, on the day he hears of it, her father should forbid her, then all her vows and pledges of self-denial shall be invalid; in this case the LORD will forgive her, since she was forbidden by her father.

⁶Likewise, if she is about to be married to her fiancé while still committed to her vows or to a thoughtless statement which she has made,^m ⁷and her fiancé hears of this, then if he says nothing on the day he hears of it, her vows and pledges of abstinence shall remain in effect. ⁸On the other hand, if on the day her fiancé hears of this he restrains her by annulling the vow which obligates her and the thoughtless pledge to which she has committed herself, then the LORD will forgive her.

⁹But in the case of the vow of a widow or of a divorcee, anything with which she has bound herself shall remain as her personal responsibility. ¹⁰Similarly, when she makes a vow while in her husband's house or pledges herself to abstinence by oath, ¹¹and her husband, hearing of this, by silent consent does not forbid her, then every vow and pledge of self-denial shall remain in effect. ¹²If her husband, however, definitely nullifies them on the day he hears of it, then whatever has passed her lips, whether her vow or pledge of self-denial, shall not stand; and since her husband made them invalid, the LORD will forgive her.

¹³In short, her husband may either

j) Comp. ch. 15:3-13. The foregoing were obligatory; these are optional.

k) A positive vow in appreciation, in worship, or in distress.

l) A negative vow, usually fasting or some other form of self-denial. Comp. the Nazarite vow in ch. 6.

m) A promise to God demands supreme consideration and attention, Prov. 20:25; Eccl. 5:4,5.

confirm or nullify every vow and every pledge of abstinence she made in self-denial. ¹⁴If her husband offers her no objection from day to day, he then confirms all her vows and pledges which obligate her; he thus establishes them because he gave her his silent consent on the day he heard of them. ¹⁵If however, he utterly renounces them after he has heard of them,ⁿ he must suffer the consequences of her sin."^o ¹⁶These are the regulations which the LORD prescribed to Moses governing a man and his wife, or a father and his daughter who is still an adolescent in her father's house.

February, March, 1406 B.C.

31 THEN THE LORD SAID TO Moses: ²Seek retribution for the Israelites against the Midianites, after which you shall be reunited with your people.^p ³Moses therefore spoke to the people, "Arm some of your men for battle, for they are to attack Midian to execute retribution against them for the LORD."^q ⁴Send 1,000 men per tribe from all of Israel's tribes." ⁵So after 1,000 men from each tribe were conscripted from Israel's families, 12,000 in all who were equipped for warfare, ⁶Moses sent them — 1,000 men from each tribe — to battle, along with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, the sacred articles,^r and the alarm trumpets which he carried in his hand. ⁷They engaged Midian as the LORD had ordered Moses, killing every male.^s ⁸In addition they executed, along with their fallen men, the Midianite kings: namely, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian.^t In the battle^u they also killed Balaam the son of Beor. ⁹Furthermore, the Israelites captured the Midianite women and their children, seized all their cattle, flocks, and wealth as booty ¹⁰and set fire to all the cities in which they lived and to all their camps. ¹¹They then took all the booty and prey, both people and livestock, ¹²and brought them — that is, the captives, prey, and booty — to the camp in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho, to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of Israel.

¹³When Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders in the congregation went to meet them outside the camp, ¹⁴Moses grew very angry with the army heads, the battalion commanders, and the company commanders, who were just returning from the battle front. ¹⁵"Have you left all the women alive?" demanded Moses. ¹⁶"Take note, in the Peor affair these are the ones who, at Balaam's advice, caused the men of Israel to renounce fidelity to the LORD," resulting in a plague among the congregation of the LORD. ¹⁷Now kill every young boy and every woman who has had intercourse with a man. ¹⁸Every young girl, however, who has not had intercourse with a man you may keep alive for yourselves. ¹⁹Besides, all of you who have killed a person or have touched a slain body, must remain outside the camp for seven days. Then purify both yourselves and your prisoners on the third and seventh days, ²⁰as well as every garment, all leather goods, all materials of goat's hair, and all wooden articles."

²¹Eleazar the priest informed the soldiers who had engaged in the battle: "This is the statute of instruction which the LORD has commanded Moses. ²²In the case of gold, silver, copper, iron, tin, and lead — ²³everything which will stand fire — you are to pass it through fire, that it may be cleansed; nevertheless, it must also be purified with the water of uncleanness."^w In addition you are to rinse with water everything that cannot stand fire. ²⁴Then after you have washed your clothes, on the seventh day you shall be clean and may re-enter the camp."

²⁵The LORD also told Moses: ²⁶You,

n) Other than the day he heard of them. o) For the two have become one in marriage.

p) A detailed reminder of the command given in ch. 25:17.

q) The seduction by the Midianites had brought dishonor to the LORD.

r) The sacred articles may refer to the Ark, comp. Josh. 6:8; they represented God's presence.

s) All adult males, see vs. 17. t) Comp. Josh. 13:21.

u) The LORD repays, Gal. 6:6,7. II Pet. 2:15.

v) Balaam became a false prophet; he tried to serve two masters.

w) See ch. 19:9.

Eleazar the priest, and the tribal leaders of the assembly, find out how much booty was seized both of people and of livestock. ²⁷Then divide the booty in two parts between the soldiers who have engaged in the battle and the rest of the congregation.^x ²⁸Moreover, levy a tax for the LORD on the soldiers who have engaged in the battle: namely, one out of every 500 of the people, the oxen, the donkeys, and the flocks. ²⁹Exact this from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as a contribution to the LORD. ³⁰In addition, from the congregation's half, appropriate one out of every fifty from the captives, the oxen, the donkeys, and the flocks, even of all the livestock, and distribute them to the Levites who have charge of the LORD's tabernacle.^y ³¹Moses and Eleazar the priest thus did as the LORD had directed Moses.

³²The booty that remained^z of what the soldiers had originally taken amounted in all to 675,000 sheep, ³³72,000 oxen, ³⁴61,000 donkeys, ³⁵and 32,000 persons, that is, women who had never lain with a man.^a ³⁶The half which fell to the war veterans totaled 337,500 sheep, ³⁷minus 675 which were due the LORD, ³⁸36,000 oxen of which 72 were due the LORD, ³⁹and 30,500 donkeys of which 61 were due the LORD. ⁴⁰There were also 16,000 persons of whom 32 were due the LORD. ⁴¹Moses then gave the tribute, which was the offering for the LORD, to Eleazar the priest as the LORD had directed him.

⁴²From the half belonging to the people of Israel which Moses had separated from that of the war veterans—⁴³this half belonging to the congregation was 337,500 sheep, ⁴⁴36,000 oxen, ⁴⁵30,500 donkeys, ⁴⁶and 16,000 persons. ⁴⁷From the half belonging to the Israelites, Moses in compliance with the LORD's directions to him, appropriated one out of every fifty from both people and livestock and gave them to the Levites, who discharged the duties of the LORD's tabernacle.

⁴⁸Later the generals of the army, the battalion commanders, and the company officers approached Moses ⁴⁹and reported to him, "Your staff has taken a census of the soldiers who are under our command and not one of our men is missing.^b ⁵⁰Moreover, we have brought an offering to the LORD of what each one has obtained — golden jewelry, ankle bracelets, wrist bracelets,^c signet rings, earrings, and necklaces — to make atonement for our souls before the LORD."^d ⁵¹Moses and Eleazar the priest then accepted the gold from them, which was worked jewelry entirely, ⁵²and all the gold in this contribution which they — the battalion and company commanders — had presented to the LORD was about 305,000 dollars.^e ⁵³In this connection the soldiers had taken the booty for themselves personally. ⁵⁴After Moses and Eleazar the priest had received the gold from the battalion and company commanders, they brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the people of Israel before the LORD.^f

Early 1406 B.C.

32 NOW THE PEOPLE OF REUBEN and Gad had a vast number of cattle and when they saw^g that the country of Jazer and Gilead would indeed be a place of fine pasture land,^h ²they approached Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the assembly leaders saying, ³"Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon — ⁴the area which the LORD conquered before the congregation of Israel — is cattle country, and, as you know, your servants have cattle. ⁵If we have found favor in your eyes,"

x) Comp. I Sam. 30:24.

y) This percentage gave all the tribes an equal share in the booty.

z) Persons who had not been executed and livestock which had not been consumed by the soldiers. a) These women would hardly become ideal mothers to train their offspring in the worship and service of God. b) A striking proof of God's protection, note Ps. 91:7.

c) Given to the Levites and priests.

d) Not so much for sin as to offer humble gratitude to the LORD.

e) Heb. — 16,750 shekels of gold, a shekel being worth about $18.20.

f) A thankful remembrance to the LORD and for a favorable remembrance by the LORD.

g) One of the widest avenues of temptation, comp. Gen. 3:6; 13:10.

h) Many are satisfied with only the good and as a result miss God's best. They were among the first to go into captivity [I Chron. 5:25,26].

they petitioned, "then let this area be granted to your servants as a possession. Do not force us to cross the Jordan."

⁶"Shall your fellow men engage in combat while you relax here?" Moses reprimanded the men of Gad and Reuben. ⁷"Now why do you turn the heart of the Israelites against crossing into the country which the LORD has given them?" ⁸That is exactly what your fathers did, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to survey the land; ⁹for after they went up to the valley of Eschol and viewed the land, they spread fear into the hearts of the Israelites, so as to hinder them from entering the land which the LORD had promised them. ¹⁰Consequently the LORD's anger was inflamed at that time and He swore saying: ¹¹The men from twenty years of age and upward who came from Egypt shall never seeⁱ the land which I have promised by oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, because they have been disloyal to Me, ¹²with the exception of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, both of whom have wholeheartedly followed the LORD. ¹³So the LORD's anger was inflamed against Israel, and as a result He made them wander back and forth in the desert for forty years until the entire generation that had practiced evil in the LORD's sight had perished.^k ¹⁴Now here you are rising up in your fathers' place as a brood of sinners to amplify even further the fiery anger of the LORD against Israel. ¹⁵If you give up following Him, He will leave them even longer in the desert, and you, in turn, will bring disaster to this entire nation!"

¹⁶But they approached him, saying, "Here we will build some pens for our livestock, and towns for our little ones,^l ¹⁷but we ourselves shall be armed and on the alert in front of Israel's men until we have escorted them to their settlement. Meanwhile our families will remain in the fortified towns out of reach of the native residents. ¹⁸We shall not return to our homes until each of the Israelites has taken over his possession. ¹⁹Since we have fallen heir to our own possession across Jordan to the east,^m we shall not be occupying with them on the further side of the Jordan and onward."

²⁰Moses replied, "If you will carry out this plan, if you will equip yourselves for combat in the LORD's presenceⁿ ²¹and every equipped soldier among you in turn will cross the Jordan in the LORD's presence until He has driven His enemies before Him ²²and the land is subdued before the LORD, then you may return free of guilt before the LORD and Israel, and this land will belong to you as an inheritance before the LORD. ²³But if you fail to act accordingly, behold, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out.^o ²⁴Now build yourselves some towns for your families and pens for your livestock, and then do what you said you would." ²⁵The men of Gad and the men of Reuben assured Moses, "Your servants will carry out my^p commander's orders. ²⁶Our children, wives, flocks and cattle shall remain there in the cities of Gilead ²⁷while your servants — all who are on active military duty — cross over in the LORD's presence to the battle, as my commander directs."

²⁸Moses then gave orders concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun and to the tribal leaders of the Israelites; ²⁹he directed them, "If all the equipped soldiers from Gad and Reuben cross the Jordan with you in the LORD's presence and the country is subdued before you, then grant them the territory of Gilead as a possession. ³⁰But if those under arms fail to cross with you, then they shall have to possess^q property along with you in the

i) Personal stumbling is bad; causing a brother to stumble is devilish [Matt. 18:6-9].

j) Woe to the man who goes beyond this point of God's mercy!

k) Chapters 13, 14. l) Implying all the defenseless personnel.

m) On the east side of the Jordan, comp. vs. 32.

n) Either generally, that is, "under the LORD's observation," Ps. 139:7-16; or specifically, the LORD's presence with the Ark which was taken into battle.

o) You will experience the consequence of your sin which is certain to overtake you.

p) There seems to be one spokesman for the entire group.

q) To prevent a rebellion or division in the nation.

land of Canaan." ³¹The men of Gad and Reuben spoke up and explained, "Whatever the LORD orders your servants we shall carry out. ³²We definitely will cross over under arms before the LORD to the land of Canaan, so allow us^r to possess our inheritance beyond the Jordan."

³³Under these conditions Moses granted them — the people of Gad, Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasse^s the son of Joseph — the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan, even the entire land with its towns and their surrounding districts. ³⁴The men of Gad then built Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, ³⁵Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, ³⁶Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran as fortified towns and also constructed sheep pens. ³⁷The men of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, ³⁸Nebo, Baal-meon — the names being changed — and Sibmah; and they gave new names to the cities which they built. ³⁹The men of Machir the son of Manasseh, went out and captured Gilead, driving out the Amorites located there. ⁴⁰Moses therefore assigned Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh and there he settled. ⁴¹Likewise, Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, went out and captured some of their^t towns, naming them Havvoth-jair,^u ⁴²while Nobah went out and seized Kenath and its surrounding villages, renaming it Nobah after himself.^v

33 THIS IS THE ITINERARY OF THE nation of Israel which, according to their armies under the leadership of Moses and Aaron, emigrated from the land of Egypt. ²At the LORD's command Moses recorded their places of departure according to the route they trekked, and this is their itinerary according to their places of departure. ³The people of Israel broke camp at Rameses the morning after the Passover, on the fifteenth day of the first month. They departed by an uplifted hand* in plain view of all the Egyptians ⁴who were burying all their first-born whom the LORD had struck dead among them. In conjunction with this, the LORD had also inflicted judgments upon their gods.

⁵The people of Israel left Rameses^w and camped in Succoth. ⁶Leaving Succoth, they next stayed at Etham which is at the edge of the desert. ⁷After leaving Etham they turned back towards Pi-hahiroth, which is opposite Baal-Zephon, and camped before Migdol. ⁸They left the vicinity of Hahiroth, cut across the middle of the sea into the desert, traveling for three days as far as they could in the desert of Etham, and set up camp^x at Marah. ⁹Leaving Marah,^x they pushed forward to Elim, which had twelve springs of water and 70 palm trees, and they camped there. ¹⁰Leaving Elim, they camped by the Red Sea, ¹¹then, in the wilderness of Sin, ¹²at Dophkah, ¹³Alush, and Rephidim, where there was no drinking water for the people. ¹⁴They left Rephidim; and after having camped in the wilderness of Sinai, ¹⁵they traveled on, camping at Kibroth-hattaavah, ¹⁶Hazereth, ¹⁷Rithmah, ¹⁸Rimmone-perez, ¹⁹Libnah, ²⁰Rissah, ²¹Kehelathah, ²²Mount Shepher, ²³Haradah, ²⁴Makheloth, ²⁵Tahath, ²⁶Terah, ²⁷Mithkah, ²⁸Hashmonah, ²⁹Mosereth, ³⁰Benejaakan, ³¹Hor-hagidgad, ³²Jotbathah, ³³Abronah, ³⁴Ezion-geber, ³⁵the wilderness of Zin — namely, Kadesh — ³⁶and then at Mount Hor on the border of the land of Edom. July, 1407 B.C.

³⁷Now under the LORD's command Aaron the priest ascended Mount Hor and died there on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the nation of Israel had emigrated from the land of Egypt. ³⁸Aaron was 123 years old when he died there on Mount Hor.^y

⁴⁰At this time it was reported to the

r) Heb.: "Let it be with us."

s) The participation of the half tribe in the possession seems due to their acquisitions as recorded in vs. 39. See further 21:33-35. t) Of the kings mentioned in vs. 33. u) "Towns of Jair."

v) Comp. I Chron. 2:22,23. *God delivered them and made their departure possible.

w) The name of each place which they left behind is a memorial of God's faithfulness.

x) In recounting the journey the bitterness of Marah is forgotten while the blessedness of Elim is remembered. Thus it is best in life's journey; "beauty for ashes" [Isa. 61:3; 35:13].

y) Ch. 20:22-29.

Canaanite king of Arad, who was living in the Negeb in the land of Canaan that the nation of Israel was coming.²

⁴¹Leaving Mount Hor they next made camp at Zalmonah, ⁴²then at Punon, at ⁴³Oboth, at ⁴⁴Iye-abarim near the border of Moab, at ⁴⁵Dibongad, at ⁴⁶Almon-diblathaim, at ⁴⁷the mountains of Abarim before Nebo, ⁴⁸and finally along the Jordan in the plains of Moab opposite Jericho. ⁴⁹Their camp lay along the Jordan in the plains of Moab from Beth-jeshimoth to Abel-shittim.

⁵⁰While there along the Jordan in the plains of Moab opposite Jericho, ⁵¹Moses was told by the LORD: Say to the people of Israel: After you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ⁵²you are to drive all the native residents out of your area,^a smash all their stone idols and molten images, and demolish all their high places.^b ⁵³Then take possession of the land and live there, for I have given you the land to occupy. ⁵⁴In this connection, you are to divide the property among yourselves by lot according to the size of your families; the one with the largest number shall receive the largest inheritance; the one with the fewest shall receive the smallest inheritance.^c Each shall have whatever falls to him by lot; furthermore, you are to apportion the land according to your paternal tribes.^d ⁵⁵But if you fail to drive out the native residents from your area, then that portion that you allow to remain shall be as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides,^e for they shall be a constant source of irritation to you in the country in which you settle, ⁵⁶and sooner or later I will do to you as I had originally intended doing to them.^f

34 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: ²GIVE this order to the people of Israel: When you enter the land of Canaan, this shall be the territory which you will receive as an inheritance — that is, the land of Canaan within these limits:^g ³Your southern frontier shall extend to the wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom; more specifically, your southern border shall extend eastward ⁴from the further end of the Dead Sea, angling to the south of the Ascent of Akrabbim^h and then on over to Zin. Its lowest point shall be south of Kadesh-barnea, and it shall then extend to Hazar-addar and pass on over to Azmon. ⁵From here the border shall veer over to the river of Egypt,ⁱ terminating at the sea.^j ⁶As for your western boundary, it shall be the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea; this is your western border.

⁷This shall be your northern boundary: from the Mediterranean Sea you shall draw your boundary line to Mount Hor;^k ⁸from Mount Hor strike a line to the entrance of Hamath, continuing it on as far as Zedad. ⁹The border shall then extend to Ziphron and terminate at Hazar-enan; this is to be your northern border.

¹⁰Next you shall mark off your eastern boundary from Hazar-enan to Shepham ¹¹and from there on down to Riblah on the east side of Ain. The border shall then extend down until it touches the northeast corner of the Sea of Galilee.^l ¹²The border shall then reach down to the Jordan and finally end at the Dead Sea;^m the preceding are the boundaries of the land which you shall own.

¹³Moses then commanded the people of Israel, "This is the territory you are to apportion by lot among your-

z) Ch. 21:1-3. a) It implies extermination.

b) The continued presence of temptation is likely to be fatal. "Lead us not into temptation."

c) God is no respecter of persons.

d) Each tribe to receive its respective province. Comp. ch. 26:53-56.

e) They who fail to expel or to convert the enemy will eventually be overcome by the enemy.

f) This warning, prompted by love and mercy, was repeated by Joshua. [Josh. 23:13].

g) The boundaries of all nations are set by God [Acts 17:26]; thus nations should set bounds to their ambition; so should individuals. h) Scorpion Pass.

i) Not the Nile; but halfway between Canaan and Egypt, the River of Egypt.

j) The Mediterranean Sea.

k) Not the Mount Hor on which Aaron died; but at the northern boundary.

l) Heb.: Sea of Chinnereth. m) Heb. — Salt Sea.

selves. The LORD has given orders to assign it to the nine and a half tribes, ¹⁴since the tribe of Reuben's descendants, and that of Gad — according to their respective clans — and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance, ¹⁵these two and one-half tribes having received their inheritance on the eastern side of the Jordan opposite Jericho."

¹⁶The LORD further directed Moses:

¹⁷These are the names of the men who shall divide your inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun.

¹⁸You are to select a prince from each tribe to assist in distributing the land for inheritance.ⁿ ¹⁹The names of the additional men are, from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

²⁰from the tribe of Simeon's descendants, Shemuel the son of Ammihud;

²¹from the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad of Chislon;

²²from the tribe of Dan, a prince^o named Bukki the son of Jogli;

²³from Joseph's descendants: from the tribe of Manasseh a prince named Hanniel the son of Ephod, ²⁴and from the tribe of Ephraim, prince Kemuel of Shiphtan;

²⁵from the tribe of Zebulun, prince Elizaphan of Parnach;

²⁶from the tribe of Issachar, prince Paltiel of Azzan;

²⁷from the tribe of Asher, prince Ahihud of Shelomi;

²⁸and from the tribe of Naphthali's descendants, a prince named Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

²⁹These are the men whom the LORD authorized to distribute the inheritance among the people of Israel in the land of Canaan.

35 WHILE IN THE PLAINS OF MOAB along the Jordan opposite Jericho, the LORD said to Moses: ²Order the Israelites to grant the Levites towns in which to live from the inheritance which they have possessed; furthermore, give the Levites the pasture lands around the towns. ³The towns are for them to occupy, while the pastures are for their cattle and flocks, all their livestock. ⁴Now the pasture lands which you are to give the Levites shall extend from the wall of the town outward on all sides for a distance of 1,500 feet.

⁵Then outside the town mark off 3000 feet on the east side, 3000 feet on the south side, 3000 feet on the west side, and 3000 feet on the north side, the city being in the center. This area shall be theirs to serve as pasture land for the towns.

⁶Of the towns which you assign to the Levites, six shall serve as cities of refuge to which the person guilty of manslaughter^p may flee. You are also to furnish 42 towns in addition to these.

⁷In all, you are to assign to the Levites a total of 48 towns together with their pastures.

⁸With regard to the towns which you are to provide from the possession of the Israelites, you shall appropriate more from the larger (tribes) and less from the smaller;^q each one shall contribute some of its towns to the Levites in proportion to the size of the property^r which it inherits.

⁹The LORD further said to Moses:

¹⁰Tell the nation of Israel and instruct them: When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ¹¹you are to select suitable towns^s as cities of refuge to which the manslayer, who has accidentally killed a person, may flee.

¹²These cities shall be for your benefit to serve as an asylum from the avenger,^t so that the manslayer may not die until he has stood trial before the assembly.

¹³As for the towns which you are to furnish, you are to have six cities of refuge.

¹⁴You are to assign three towns on this side of the Jordan, and three in the land of Canaan, and they shall serve as cities of refuge.

¹⁵Accordingly, these six cities shall serve the people of Israel, the foreigner, and the native among them as a sanctuary to which anyone^u who has accidentally killed a person may flee.

n) By faith, for they had not yet conquered the land; comp. II Cor. 1:20.

o) The first three are not called princes as the rest are; the main idea is that these men are leaders.

p) A man who has killed someone unintentionally. These cities were a fulfillment of the promise given in Ex. 21:13.

q) See Josh. 21. r) The LORD is mindful of our capacities. s) See Deut. 19:2-10.

t) Heb.: "goel," that is, redeemer, a close relative who was to restore the injured's family integrity by paying the amount due, see Lev. 25:23-28. The blood-revenge was the payment and Christ, our kinsman Redeemer, ransomed us with His own blood [I Pet. 1:18,19].

u) So is Christ our Refuge; "whoever will may come," [John 6:37; Rom. 10:13; Rev. 22:17].

¹⁶However, if one hits another with an iron instrument^v and the victim dies, then he is a murderer; he must certainly be executed. ¹⁷Or if he strikes him with a stone large enough to cause death and he dies, the man is a murderer and must be executed without fail. ¹⁸Or, again, if he strikes him with a large piece of wood from which a person could die, and he dies, the guilty one must certainly be executed because he is a murderer. ¹⁹The avenger of blood shall himself execute the murderer; in fact, he may kill him whenever he catches up with him. ²⁰In case one shoves another in anger or, while hiding, throws something at him, thus causing him to die, ²¹or if from animosity he strikes him with his fist so that he dies, then the one who did the striking must certainly be executed, for he is a murderer.^w The avenger of blood shall kill him whenever he gets hold of him.

²²But if one should push another accidentally^x without ill will, or, without being concealed, throw something at him, ²³or without noticing him drop a stone on him which is heavy enough to kill someone, and as a result he dies — although he was not his enemy and he meant him no harm — ²⁴then the assembly shall decide between the slayer and the avenger of blood according to these regulations. ²⁵The assembly shall rescue the manslayer from the clutches of the avenger of blood and return him to his city of refuge to which he had fled. He shall then live there until the death of the high priest who has been anointed with the holy oil.^y ²⁶But if at any time the manslayer shall set foot outside the precincts of the asylum to which he has fled, ²⁷and the avenger of blood finds him outside the area of his sanctuary, then the avenger of blood may kill the manslayer without incurring guilt; ²⁸he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. After the death of the high priest, however, the individual, guilty of manslaughter, may return to his home.^z ²⁹You are to follow this statute in order to determine justice down through your generations wherever you may be living; ³⁰In case someone kills a person, the murderer must be executed when his guilt is attested by witnesses,^a but the testimony against a person by one witness shall not be sufficient to incur the death penalty. ³¹Neither are you to accept a ransom of money^b for the life of a murderer who deserves to die; he must be executed. ³²Neither are you to accept a ransom in behalf of him who has fled to his city of refuge in order to allow him to return and live at home until the death of the priest. ³³You are not to desecrate the land in which you live, since blood defiles the land. Once more, no atonement can be made to the land^c for the blood shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it. ³⁴You are not to defile the land where you reside, because I too am living in it, for I, Jehovah, am residing among the people of Israel.

Early 1406 B.C.

36 THE CLAN LEADERS OF THE family composed of the descendants of Gilead, the son of Machir^d and the grandson of Manasseh — families belonging to Joseph's descendants — appeared before Moses and the princes, the tribal leaders in the nation of Israel, ²and said, "The LORD ordered my master to have the land for inheritance assigned by lot to the Israelites. In this connection, my master was instructed to grant the inheritance of Zelophehad, our brother, to his daugh-

v) Intentionally.

w) Even if he had fled to a city of refuge, he was to be turned over to the avenger outside the city [Deut. 19:11,12]. But through the blood of Christ even intentional sins will on repentance be forgiven. x) Heb. — "suddenly."

y) Perhaps the death of the high priest — as man's representative before God and with the holy anointing making him God's representative here on earth — symbolized the expiation for the manslaughter, as Christ our High Priest is the expiation for all our sin [Rom. 3:25; I John 2:2]. z) Heb. — "land of his possession." For details, see Deut. 4:41-43; 19:1-13.

a) Two or more [Deut. 17:6; 19:15]. b) Coming to terms with the victim's relatives through a bribe. c) The earth cries for vengeance [Gen. 4:10]. The land is abused by shedding human blood upon it and demands expiation. d) See ch. 26:28-34.

ters.^e ³When they marry one of the men from the other tribes of Israel, however, their property shall be withdrawn from our father's inheritance and added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they then belong, and that being the case, it shall diminish our share of the inheritance. ⁴Besides, when the people of Israel have the jubilee,^f their property shall certainly be added to that tribe with which they have united; consequently, their property shall be withdrawn from the inheritance of our father's tribe."

⁶Concerning this, Moses instructed the Israelites as the LORD dictated,^g "What the men of Joseph's tribe have affirmed is right. ⁶Now this is the policy which the LORD has prescribed for Zelophehad's daughters: Let them marry any one they please, except that they must marry in the family of their father's tribe.^h ⁷In this way the inheritance of the Israelites shall not pass from tribe to tribe, but each of the Israelites shall retain the inheritance of his father's tribe. ⁸Thus any heiress who inherits property in any tribe of the Israelites must marry someone in the family of her father's tribe in order that each Israelite may retain possession of his father's property. ⁹An inheritance may not pass from one tribe to another, because each of Israel's tribes must retain his particular inheritance."

¹⁰Moses therefore dealt with Zelophehad's daughters exactly as the LORD had instructed him. Later the daughters of Zelophehad — ¹¹Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah — married their first cousins, ¹²and since they married into the families of the descendants of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, their property remained in their father's tribe.

¹³These are the commands and regulations which the LORD issued through Moses to the nation of Israel in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho.

e) See ch. 27:1-11.

f) At this time transferred property returned to its original owner or his heir [Lev. 25:23-28]. In this case, the only heirs would be in the husband's family.

g) Note ch. 27:5. This command is an example of the "spirit of the law" being followed and not the "letter." The Lord is fully aware of human circumstances and needs.

h) The tribe of Manasseh, and possibly limited to a particular family or clan within the tribe, so that this particular family would not be without heirs.

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY^a

February-March, 1406 B. C.

1 THESE ARE THE WORDS WHICH Moses spoke to all Israel on the other side of the Jordan, in the wilderness, in the Arabah^b opposite Suph, between Paran on the one hand and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Di-Zahab on the other. ²By the Mount Seir road it is eleven days' journey from Horeb to Kadesh-barnea.^c

³In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses addressed^d Israel in accord with all that the LORD had commanded him to say to them. ⁴After he had defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who dwelt in Ashtaroth and Edrei ⁵beyond Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law. He said, ⁶"At Horeb^e the LORD our God told us, 'You have now tarried at this mountain long enough; ⁷break camp, trek your way into the hill country of the Amorites^f and to all the land neighboring upon it; the Arabah, the highlands, the foothills, the southern plains, the seacoast—the land of the Canaanites—and Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates. ⁸See, I have put the land at your disposal; enter it and take possession of the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them and their descendants after them.'

⁹"At that time^g I announced to you, 'I am no longer able to take care of you alone. ¹⁰The LORD your God,' I said, 'has made you a multitude as the stars of heaven in number, ¹¹and may the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you yet a thousandfold and may He bless you, as He promised you. ¹²But how can I alone handle your troubles, your burdens and your court cases? ¹³Select from your tribes men of wisdom and understanding, men of experience, and I will appoint them to be your rulers.'^h ¹⁴You responded to me, and said, 'What you propose to be done is good.' ¹⁵So I took the heads of your tribes among you, men of wisdom and experience, and I made them heads over you, captains of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, and your tribal officers. ¹⁶At that time I also gave the charge to your judges,

a) Repeated Law.

b) The term Arabah or Plain is in common use in the O.T. to designate any region of the Jordan valley from the Sea of Galilee to and including the Dead Sea and the territory south of it. Our words Arab and Arabian are related to it.

c) Deuteronomy is one of the great books of the Old Testament. It expresses truths which always reflect the mind of God. Its leading thought for Israel was that she must ever remember that God is one; and that He chose her for a great mission. To be true to Him she must always be true to the Covenant which He had made with her at the beginning. Deuteronomy shows the way. Jesus knew this wonderful book. Compare Mark 12:28-30 with Deut. 6:4,5.

d) Shortly before his death, Moses delivered four addresses to the Israelites.

e) Most of the discourse, Deut. 1:6-3:29, is a review of Israel's experiences from the time they left Horeb until the death of Moses. Deut. 4:1-40 constitutes the appeal to observe the Law, to beware of idols, and to cling to evidences of God's love for His people.

f) As used here, the expression 'the hill country of the Amorites' is the whole land of promise.

g) While still at Horeb.

h) We learn from Ex. 18:14-26, that these steps were taken at Jethro's suggestion.

You will be hearing cases in dispute between your brothers, and you must judge fairly between the one and the other, whether brother or resident alien.¹ ¹⁷You must show no partiality in your decisions. You must listen to low and high alike without being afraid in the presence of any man; for judgment belongs to God. The case that proves too difficult for you, you must bring to me and I will hear it.' ¹⁸At that time I gave you orders concerning all the things you were to do.

¹⁹'As we set out from Horeb, we passed through the whole great and terrible desert, which you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the LORD our God had commanded us, and we arrived at Kadesh-barnea. ²⁰There I told you, 'You have now come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. ²¹See! The LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and possess it, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has said to you. Have no fear; be not discouraged.' ²²You then came to me, all of you, and you said, 'Let us send men ahead of us to explore the land for us and to bring back a report with regard to the road by which we shall go up, and the cities we would be entering.' ²³The suggestion seemed good to me, so I selected twelve men of you, one for each tribe. ²⁴They turned and made their way up to the hill country as far as the valley of Eshcol,^j and explored it. ²⁵Taking along in their hands some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and gave their report: 'It is a good land which the LORD our God is giving us.'^k ²⁶But you refused to go up. You rebelled against the command of the LORD your God ²⁷and kept murmuring in your tents. 'It is because the LORD hates us,' you said, 'that He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us over to the Amorites to destroy us. ²⁸Where would we be going? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, "The people are bigger and taller than we, and their cities are large and fortified up to the heavens; besides, we saw the sons of the Anakim there."¹ ²⁹So I said to you: 'Do not dread these people or stand in awe of them. ³⁰The LORD your God, who goes before you, will Himself fight for you in agreement with all He did in your behalf in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹and in the desert, where you have seen how the LORD your God Himself bore you up as a man carries his son throughout your whole journey until you reached this place.' ³²But, in spite of this statement you continued distrusting the LORD your God, ³³who went before you in your journeying to search out for you a place to encamp, in a fire by night to show you the road to take, and in a cloud by day. ³⁴So when the LORD heard your words He was indignant and swore: ³⁵Not one of these men of this evil generation will see the good land which I promised to give your fathers, ³⁶no one except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and to his sons I will give the land upon which he has set foot, because in this he has followed the LORD completely.

³⁷'The LORD was angry with me, too, on account of you, saying: Not even you shall enter there; ³⁸your attendant, Joshua the son of Nun, shall enter; encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. ³⁹Your little ones, too, who, you said, would become plunder, and your children, who do not yet know the difference between good and evil, shall go there; I will give it to them and they shall occupy it. ⁴⁰But as for the rest of you, turn around; follow the Red Sea road back into the desert.

⁴¹'Then you answered me, 'We have sinned against the LORD, we will go

i) The Hebrew word involved here is ger (pronounced gare), translated variously: sojourner, stranger, immigrant, alien. The ger was a non-Israelite resident who for the most part enjoyed equal rights under the law with his Hebrew neighbor. If poor, he was provided for, along with the Levites, the orphan and the widow, provided he was circumcised and conformed to the laws of the Hebrews.

j) Near Hebron.

k) Compare this narrative of the spies with that in Num. 13, 14. One grows conscious of the high moral and spiritual atmosphere in the Deuteronomy narrative, as is so often the case in this great book. 1) Literally "the long-necked"; they were a family of giants.

up, and we will fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' So you girded on your armor,^m each one of you, and you regarded lightly the matter of climbing into the hill country. ⁴²But the LORD said to me: Tell them not to go up and not to fight, lest you are beaten by your enemies; for I shall not be among you. ⁴³So I warned you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the LORD's command; foolishly you marched into the hills. ⁴⁴The Amorites, who occupied that hill country, came out against you; they chased you like bees and smote you all the way from Seir to Hormah. ⁴⁵You returned, and you wept before the LORD. The LORD, however, did neither hear nor listen to you, ⁴⁶so you remained at Kadesh many a day, the many days you spent there.

late 1407 B.C.

2 "WE THEN TURNED AND MOVED into the desert along the road to the Red Sea, as the LORD had told me; and for many days we circled around the hill country of Seir. ²Then the LORD said to me: ³You have now spent enough time moving about these hills; turn and head north. ⁴This you shall order the people, 'Now you will be crossing the frontiers of your brothers, the children of Esau, living in Seir, and they will be afraid of you. So be very careful; ⁵do not challenge them; for I will not be giving you any of their land, not a foot of it; for I have already assigned this hill area of Seir to Esau. ⁶You shall buy from them for money the food you eat, and you shall buy from them for money the water you drink. ⁷For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He knows about your crossing this great desert. These forty years the LORD your God has accompanied you and you have lacked nothing.'

⁸"So we passed on beyond the territory of our kinsmen, the children of Esau, who have their home in Seir, and our course led away from the Arabah road, away from Elath and Ezion-geber; and we turned in the direction of the Moab desert.

⁹"At this point the LORD told me: Do not distress the Moabites, and do not challenge them to fight, for I will not give you any of their land to possess, because I have assigned Ar to the children of Lot for their possession. ¹⁰In an earlier period the Emim lived there,ⁿ a strong, tall, numerous race, much like the Anakim; and, like the Anakim, ¹¹they too used to be regarded as Rephaim; the Moabites, however, call them Emim. ¹²In earlier days the land of Seir was occupied by the Horites, but the children of Esau dispossessed and exterminated them, taking over their territory for themselves, just as the Israelites did with the land which the LORD gave them. ¹³Get up now and cross over the brook Zered. So we crossed the brook Zered, ¹⁴and the time from the day we left Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the brook Zered was 38 years, until that whole generation of fighting men had wasted away from among your camp, as the LORD had sworn they should. ¹⁵The hand of the LORD had prevailed against them to snatch them away from the camp until they all had perished.^o ¹⁶"So it was when all the fighting men had died from among the people, ¹⁷the LORD said to me, ¹⁸Today you will be moving along the frontiers of Moab at the city of Ar; ¹⁹you will then be in the neighborhood of the children of Ammon. You are not to distress the Ammonites nor to contend with them, for I will allow you no part of Ammon's land, because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession. ²⁰This area, too, used to be reckoned as a land of the Rephaim; the Rephaim dwelt in it formerly; but the Ammonites called them Zamzummim.

Early 1406 B.C.

²¹They were a strong and numerous

m) Taken from the drowned Egyptians, Ex. 14:30.

n) Mentioned in Gen. 14:5 as defeated by the four Near Eastern kings on their march to Sodom and Gomorrah. They were a mighty, prehistoric race driven out by the Moabites.

o) See ch. 1:34, 35. Where did Israel spend the 38 wilderness years? They are told, Num. 14:25, to go into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, and Num. 33:35 locates them at Ezion-Geber, a town near the Red Sea. Kadesh-Barnea is frequently mentioned, much more north and near the promised land. Many must have roamed the desert and oases to graze their livestock.

people and tall as the Anakim; but the LORD expelled and destroyed them; so they dispossessed them and the Amorites dwelt there in their place; ²²thus had the LORD done for the children of Esau, who live in Seir, when He expelled and destroyed the Horites before them, so they took their domain in possession and still live there in their stead. ²³As for the Avvim, who were living in villages as far away as Gaza, it was the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, who exterminated them, took over their territory, and dwelt there.^p ²⁴"Now rise up,^q get on your way, and cross the Arnon River. See, I hand over to you, Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin the seizure and challenge him to battle. ²⁵This day I begin making your name a dread and terror to all nations under heaven so that wherever mention of you is heard, the peoples will tremble and shake.

²⁶"Then I sent messengers from the desert region of Kedemoth to Sihon, the king of Heshbon, with a message of peace, saying, ²⁷'Permit me to pass through your land; I will keep strictly to the highway, turning neither to the right nor to the left. ²⁸You will sell us for money the food we eat and the water we drink; only let us pass through on foot ²⁹as did the children of Esau for us in Seir and the Moabites in Ar. Do this until we cross the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God is giving us.' ³⁰But Sihon king of Heshbon was not willing to grant us passage, because the LORD your God stiffened his will and hardened his heart, to hand him over to you, as it is today.

³¹"Then the LORD said to me: See I have begun with placing Sihon and his land at your disposal; so start to possess it. ³²Then Sihon and all his people came out to attack us at Jahaz;

³³but the LORD our God handed him over to us, so that we conquered him, his sons and all his people. ³⁴We also captured all his cities at that time, and we destroyed all those in them, men, women and children; we left no survivor. ³⁵Only the cattle we kept for ourselves, along with any other booty in the captured cities. ³⁶So from Aroer, on the bank of the Arnon River, and from the city in the valley as far as Gilead, there was not a city too strong for us. Every one of them the LORD our God delivered to us. ³⁷However, at orders from the LORD, you did refrain from approaching the land of the children of Ammon,^r whether bordering on the river Jabbok or near the cities in the highlands, or wherever the LORD our God forbade us.

Jan.-Feb., 1406 B.C.

3 "WE NEXT TURNED AND MOVED ON up the road to Bashan, where Og, Bashan's king came out against us, he and all his people, to fight us at Edrei. ²Be not afraid of him, the LORD told me, for I have put him and all his people together with his land into your hands, and you must do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon. ³Thus the LORD our God also delivered to us Og king of Bashan with all his people. We defeated him utterly; not one survivor did we leave him. ⁴Besides, we captured all his cities at that time, 60 in all, not a city that we did not take from him — the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ⁵All these cities were well fortified with their high walls, gates and bars, and besides there were many unwallled villages. ⁶We wiped them out completely, just as we had done to Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying every city with its men, women and children. ⁷We did spare the livestock, however, which, with the loot of the city, we retained for ourselves as booty.

p) This part of Deuteronomy contains several archeological notices, giving information about peoples who occupied parts of the land at a time earlier than the period of the peoples whom the Hebrews found there. Moses' interest is not confined to Edom, Moab and East Jordan. He mentions Gaza and Philistine territory to the west. The Caphtorim are the Philistines, who came from Caphtor, believed to be Crete, which was settled by Greeks, but Gen. 10:13, 14 traces the Philistines to Mizraim, that is, Egypt. q) Moses keeps quoting God's words.

r) Ammon and Moab were sons of Lot, Abraham's nephew. Edom's ancestor was Esau, Jacob's older brother. These relatives the Hebrews must not fight, except to defend themselves.

⁸"So it was that at that time we sized the territory of the two kings of the Amorites on the east side of the Jordan from the river Arnon to Mount Hermon—the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, but the Amorites call it Senir—all the cities of the plateau, all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ¹¹Og king of Bashan was the last survivor remaining of the Rephaim; his bedstead was a couch made of iron, 13½ feet long and six feet wide. Is it not in Rabbah of the Ammonites?

¹²"Now of this land which we then captured, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the portion from Aroer on the river Arnon and half of Mount Gilead, including its cities. ¹³The remainder of Gilead and all Bashan—the kingdom of Og, all the region of Argob—I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh. All Bashan was once called the land of the Rephaim. ¹⁴Jair of Manasseh took over the whole region of Argob—that is, Bashan—as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites and renamed it Havvoth-jair^a after his own name, as it is to this day. ¹⁵To Machir I gave Gilead, while to the Reubenites and the Gadites I assigned the area from Gilead to the Arnon valley, establishing the middle of the valley as the boundary and including territory as far north as the river Jabbok, the frontier of the Ammonites, ¹⁷as well as the Arabah, with the Jordan as boundary, from Chinnereth to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

February-March, 1406 B.C.

¹⁸"At that time I gave you these orders, 'The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it. All you men of valor must arm yourselves and cross over as vanguard to your brothers, the Israelites. ¹⁹But your wives, your children, and your cattle—I know you have much cattle—shall remain here in the cities which I have allotted to you, ²⁰until the LORD has given your brothers peaceful possession of the land, which the LORD your God has granted them across the Jordan. After that you shall each return to the possession which I have given you.'

²¹"Then, too, I ordered Joshua, 'Your eyes have fully seen how the LORD your God has dealt with these two kings. So shall the LORD deal with all the kingdoms to which you are marching. ²²You shall not fear them, for the LORD your God will Himself do battle for you.'

²³"After that I pleaded with the LORD. ²⁴'O LORD God,' I said, 'Thou hast begun to show Thy servant Thy greatness and Thy mighty hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can perform the deeds Thou doest, or match Thy power? ²⁵O let me cross over, I pray, and see this fair land beyond the Jordan,¹ its pleasing hills, and Lebanon.' ²⁶But the LORD was indignant at me because of you and did not listen to me. That is enough, the LORD said to me, do not again speak to Me about this. ²⁷Climb to the top of Pisgah, and lift your eyes westward and northward, southward, eastward and gaze well on what you see; for you shall not cross the Jordan. ²⁸But charge Joshua, encourage him and strengthen him; for he shall cross over as leader of this people and make them inherit the land on which you will direct your gaze.' ²⁹So we remained encamped in the valley over against Beth-Peor.

4 "AND NOW, ISRAEL, PAY STRICT attention to the laws and ordinances which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live and enter and possess the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is granting you. ²You are neither to add to the word that I command you, nor to take from it; these commands which I enjoin upon you are of the LORD your ) Jair's villages.

) Granted at Christ's transfiguration [Matt. 17:3; Mark 9:4]; and Moses did not cross the Jordan or it.

) So true to life! Moses, the unique leader, had served his generation well; but now a younger man was better qualified for the conquest of Canaan. Even our Lord Jesus could say to His disciples, "It is expedient for you that I go away."

God; you must obey them.^v ³You saw with your own eyes what the LORD did regarding Baal-Peor,^w how the LORD your God purged from your midst every man who followed after the Baal of Peor, ⁴and how those of you who remained true to the LORD your God are still alive today. ⁵See! The laws and ordinances I am teaching you are those which the LORD my God commanded me, so that you should practice them in the land which you are entering to possess. ⁶So, observe and practice them; for this will show how wise and intelligent a nation you are and the people who hear about all these laws will say, 'What a great people this is, a people of wisdom and understanding!' ⁷For what great nation is there, which has gods so near as the LORD our God is to us, every time we implore Him? ⁸And what great nation is there which possesses such righteous statutes and ordinances as this whole Law, which I am now setting before you?

⁹"Still you must be on your guard and watch your step, lest you forget the things you have seen.^x Never let them fade from your memory all the days of your life but make them known to your children and to your grandchildren, ¹⁰(especially) that day at Horeb, when you stood in the presence of the LORD your God, and the LORD said to me: Assemble the people here in My presence, and I will make them hear My word, that they may learn to revere Me as long as they shall live on the earth, and that they may teach the same to their children.

¹¹"You came close and stood at the foot of the mountain, while the mountain was flaming with fire into the very heart of the heavens, which were

shrouded in darkness with thick black clouds; ¹²the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard a voice, but you caught no vision of any form; only a voice. ¹³So He made known to you in the Ten Words the covenant which He ordered you to keep, and He wrote them on two tablets of stone. ¹⁴At that same time the LORD gave me His orders to teach you these laws and ordinances,^y that you might observe them in the land you are invading to make it your own. ¹⁵Be thoroughly on guard, therefore, with profoundest gravity, for you saw no manner of form on that day when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire, ¹⁶that you may not behave corruptly and fashion you an image, the shape of any statue resembling either male or female, ¹⁷the likeness of any animal on earth, or of any bird that flies in the heavens, ¹⁸or of some creeping creature that crawls on the ground, or of any fish in the waters lower than the earth. ¹⁹Neither shall you lift up your eyes toward the heavens to see the sun or the moon or the stars, the host of the heavens, to be led astray, to bow down to them in worship, and to serve them, things which the LORD your God has rendered available to all peoples under the whole heavens.^z ²⁰But the LORD took you and brought you out from the iron furnace of Egypt to be a people all His own, as you are this day.

²¹"But the LORD was indignant with me on account of you and swore that I should not cross the Jordan into that good land which the LORD your God is giving you for a heritage; ²²for I must die in this land; I must not cross the Jordan; but you will cross over to take possession of that good land. ²³Be

v) The importance of the Law is stressed everywhere in this Book. If Israel fails to keep it, all is lost. Keeping the Law is counted on to clear the land of all false worship.

w) See Num. 25:1-5, cited here to reinforce the statement that obedience means life; for the disobedient the end is death.

x) Continuously this is stressed in Deuteronomy, because so much in Israel's world continued to lure away from the one true God. See I John 2:15,16; 5:21.

y) The covenant made at Horeb, based on the Decalogue [in Hebrew, "the Ten Words"], which God spoke directly to the people. Becoming fearful, they could bear no more, so at the LORD's command, Moses sent them to their tents; but he remained while the LORD gave him the laws [Ex. 20:22, 31:18] which the people were to observe when settled in their new home. These laws Moses delivered in the Moab plain as his third discourse [Deut. 12:26].

z) In His providential ordering of the world, He assigns the heavenly bodies to minister to all His offspring, a grace which the nations abused [cf. Rom. 1:20-25].

mindful, then, lest you forget the covenant into which the LORD your God has entered with you, and make you any image or the likeness of any thing which the LORD your God has forbidden you. ²⁴For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.^a ²⁵"When you shall have begotten children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, and in your corruptness you make you a graven image or any likeness, and you do what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God so as to provoke Him, ²⁶I call heaven and earth to bear witness against you this day, that you shall soon completely perish from the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You shall not live in it long; but you shall be cut off entirely, ²⁷the LORD scattering you among the peoples, so that few of you shall be left among the nations, whither the LORD will be leading you.^b ²⁸There you will be worshipping gods that are the works of human hands, wood and stone, things that can neither see, nor hear, nor taste, nor smell. ²⁹Then you will there seek the LORD your God, and you shall find Him, when you seek for Him with all your heart and with all your soul. ³⁰In later times, when anguish is yours and all these experiences overtake you, then you will return to the LORD your God, and you will listen to Him; ³¹for the LORD your God is a merciful God; He will not abandon you or destroy you; neither will He forget the covenant made on oath with your fathers.

³²"Ask about the days of old, before your time, from the day when God created man upon the earth; inquire from one end of the heavens to the other and see whether such great happenings as these, or anything like them, have been heard of anywhere.

³³Have any people ever heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you have heard it, and remained alive? ³⁴Or did ever a god venture to go and take to himself a nation from the midst of another nation by testings, by signs, by wonders, by wars, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with awful terrors, as the LORD your God has done for you before your very eyes in Egypt?^c ³⁵All this you were given to see in order that you might know that the LORD, He is God; there is none other besides Him. ³⁶Out of the heavens He made you hear His voice in order to discipline you, and on earth He caused you to see His mighty fire; you heard His voice from the midst of the flames. ³⁷Because He loved your fathers and chose their descendants after them, He personally brought you out of Egypt by His own mighty power, ³⁸enabling you to drive out nations greater and stronger than you, to bring you into their land and to give it to you for a heritage, as is the case today. ³⁹Know therefore and take to heart, that the LORD, He is God in the heavens above and on the earth below; there is no other.^d ⁴⁰So obey His laws and keep His commandments, which I am now enjoining upon you, so that all may go well with you and with your children after you and that you may enjoy long life in the land which the LORD your God will be allotting you forever."

⁴¹After this Moses set apart three cities east of the Jordan as places of refuge, ⁴²in order that a man who had unintentionally killed a neighbor with whom he had had no previous quarrel might flee to one of these cities and remain alive: ⁴³Bezer in the desert on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.^e

⁴⁴This is the Law that Moses set before the Israelites; ⁴⁵these are the decrees, the statutes and the ordinances, which he proclaimed to them

^a) Intolerant of the worship of nothingness [cf. Ps. 115:4-8].

^b) All the prophets thereafter told Israel that exile would be their doom, if they disobeyed without repentance; and so it eventuated.

^c) As a people Israel witnessed it, not all individually, because almost an entire generation had died in the desert, and a new generation had been born there.

^d) A remarkable declaration of pure monotheism; see, in addition, Isa. 45:5,6,14,18,21,22 and 46:9.

^e) In Israel if a man was murdered, his nearest of kin, the avenger of blood, was obliged to slay the murderer. But the killing might have been accidental; in such a case, the killer could flee to the city of refuge and escape the avenger of blood. See further Deut. 19:1-13.

when they came out of Egypt ⁴⁶and were encamped beyond the Jordan^f in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, and whom Moses and the Israelites conquered after they had left Egypt.^g ⁴⁷They made conquest of his land and of the land of Og, king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings on the other side of the Jordan to the east, ⁴⁸from Arcoer, on the banks of the Arnon, as far as Mount Sion—that is, Hermon—⁴⁹along with all the plain on the east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Plain^h below the slopes of Pisgah.

5 MOSES SUMMONED ALL ISRAEL AND saidⁱ to them: "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances which I am announcing in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to practice them, keeping ever in mind ²the covenant which the LORD our God made with us at Horeb. ³It was not with our fathers that the LORD made this covenant; it was with us, all of us alive here today. ⁴The LORD spoke to you face to face there in the mountain, from the center of the fire. ⁵You were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain to hear the LORD's words; so I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to announce to you the LORD's words. He said: ⁶I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ⁷You shall have no other gods besides Me. ⁸You shall not make for yourself an image or the likeness of anything in the heavens above, or on the earth below, or in the waters lower than the earth; ⁹you shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am God who brooks no rival, bringing home to the children the iniquities of their fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me, ¹⁰and bestowing loving kindness on thousands of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

¹¹"You shall not use the name of the LORD your God profanely; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who uses His name profanely.

¹²"Observe the Sabbath day to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. ¹³Six days you shall labor and do all your work; ¹⁴but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God; on it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your servant, nor your maid, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your animals, nor the stranger among you, in order that your servants, male and female, may rest as well as you. ¹⁵Remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD your God redeemed you, bringing you out by a strong hand and an outstretched arm. This is why the LORD your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.^j ¹⁶"Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you; that you may enjoy long life and that you may prosper in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

¹⁷You shall commit no murder.

¹⁸You shall commit no adultery.

¹⁹You shall not steal.

²⁰You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

²¹"You shall not desire your neighbor's wife.^k You shall not covet your neighbor's house, or his field, or his servant, or his maid, or his ox, or his donkey or anything belonging to your neighbor.

²²"These words the LORD spoke to you, while you were all assembled at the mountain, in a loud voice out of the flaming fire with thick clouds and

f) East of Jordan.

g) Reiteration is a rule of pedagogy which the ancients wisely practiced, for without much writing the memory must be put to continual use.

h) Plain, usually desert Arabah. This sea we now know as the Dead Sea.

i) Ch. 5-11 are Moses' second discourse, introducing ch. 12-26, the Law. For Israel, the acceptance and observance of the Law was the all-important matter, and this discourse prepares the nation to receive and obey it. It stresses as the basis for obedience—love, reverence and loyalty toward God. These chapters reveal a warmth of affection for God, rarely seen elsewhere in the Pentateuch.

j) Reasons, then, for observing the Sabbath—physical and spiritual refreshing, and remembrance of divine redemption. k) Here, the wife comes first; in Ex. 20, she comes second.

darkness. He added nothing more.¹ He then wrote the words upon two tablets of stone, and these He gave to me.²³ When you heard the voice from within the darkness, with the whole mountain aflame with fire, all your elders and tribal chiefs came to me and said: 'This day the LORD our God has revealed to us His glory and greatness, and we have heard His voice from the fire; thus we have learned that God may speak to a person and he person still live.'²⁵ But why should we die now? For surely this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God again, we shall die.²⁶ For who of all flesh has ever heard the voice of the living God speaking from within the fire, as we have done, and remained alive? ²⁷You go near and hear everything the LORD our God has to say; then come and tell us all that the LORD our God tells you, and we will listen and observe His commands.'

²⁸"The LORD heard your words, as you were speaking to me. He said to me, I listened to the words which the people spoke to you, and all they said was good; ²⁹if only they had hearts so true that they would always show Me reverence and always keep all My commandments, so that it would go well with them and with their children after them forever!

³⁰"Go, tell them to return to their tents; ³¹but you stay here with Me while I give you all the commandments, the laws, the ordinances they are to observe when they reach the land and which I am giving them to possess. ³²Thus you must be most careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you, not turning to right or left, ³³but going strictly the whole course the LORD your God has ordered you, that you may live and prosper and enjoy length of days in the land you shall possess.

6 "HERE, THEN, YOU HAVE THESE commandments, statutes and ordinances* which the LORD your God directed me to teach you. They are the laws you are to observe in the land to which you are crossing over to possess it; ²so you may revere the LORD your God by practicing all His statutes and His commandments which He lays upon you, on you and on your son and on your grandson, all the days of your life; and your days will be prolonged. ³So be attentive, Israel; be careful to practice them, that it may be well with you, and that you may be greatly increased in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

⁴"Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God is one LORD, ⁵and you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.⁶ These words with which I am now charging you shall be written on your heart;⁷ and you shall impress them deeply upon your children;⁸ you shall talk of them when you are sitting at home, while you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up;⁹ ⁸you shall bind them as a token on your hands, wear them on your forehead as a badge,⁹ and write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

¹⁰"When the LORD your God brings you into the land which He swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you great and splendid cities which you did not build; ¹¹houses filled with all kinds of goods ) In Deuteronomy, the Decalogue alone is the basis of the covenant — "He added nothing more." n) It was a common belief in Israel that if a man heard God speak to him, he would surely die. Deut. 4:33; Judg. 6:22; 13:22.

Ordinances are civil and criminal; statutes are religious and ceremonial.

) This is the great passage of the Pentateuch. It is not surprising that Jesus quoted Deuteronomy so often. God's love for Israel is mentioned in four places in it, and Israel's love for God twelve times. In the Jewish church vs. 4,5 are known as the great Shema, daily repeated in their prayers, the fundamental article of their faith, still the central tenet of monotheism.

) See Jer. 31:33.

) Through the ages and to date, neglect of this divine suggestion was, and is, a major cause of juvenile delinquency. Cf. Prov. 22:6.

) This is the O.T. conception of religious education; Israelites must personally know the Scriptures and teach them to their children in the home.

) A phylactery, discovered recently in one of the Dead Sea caves, contains these verses 4-9.

which you did not put there; cisterns dug which you did not dig; vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, but of which you will eat and be satisfied, ¹²then be on your guard lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. ¹³Revere the LORD your God; truly serve Him, and swear by His name alone. ¹⁴Run after no other gods, of the gods of the peoples around you, ¹⁵lest the anger of the LORD your God blaze out fiercely against you and He wipe you off the face of the earth; for the LORD your God who is among you is a jealous God.

¹⁶"You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested Him at Massah;" ¹⁷but you shall obey strictly the commandments of the LORD your God, as also His decrees and statutes which He has enjoined upon you. ¹⁸Seek to do all that is right and good in the LORD's sight, so that you may prosper and enter into possession of the good land which the LORD promised on oath to your fathers, ¹⁹to clear it of all who oppose you, as the LORD has spoken.

²⁰"When, in time to come, your son asks you, 'What is the meaning of these decrees, these laws and ordinances which the LORD our God has enjoined upon you?' ²¹thus shall you answer your son: 'We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD rescued us from there by a strong hand. ²²Before our eyes the LORD worked by portents and marvels, great and terrible, against Pharaoh and against his whole household, against all Egypt; ²³and the LORD brought us out from there and ensured to us an entrance here, giving us this land which He had promised on oath to our fathers. ²⁴So it was that the LORD commanded us to keep all these laws and to show reverence for the LORD our God, for our welfare so He might keep us alive as we are kept alive today. ²⁵This will make for our righteousness, provided we take care before the LORD our God to obey all His requirements as He has ordered us to do.'

7 "WHEN THE LORD YOUR GOD HAS brought you into the land which you are entering to take possession and after He has cleared it of many nations before you — the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than you — ²after the LORD your God puts them into your hands so that you overcome them, then you must devote them to utter destruction, making no treaty with them and showing them no mercy.' ³You must not intermarry with them; neither give your daughters to their sons, nor receive their daughters for your sons ⁴for they will lure your sons away from Me, and they will be worshipping other gods. Then the LORD's anger will flare out against you, and He will annihilate you quickly. ⁵This then is the way you shall deal with them: You will pull down their altars, break in pieces their dedicated pillars, cut down their shame images," and burn their idols in the fire. ⁶For you are a holy people," set apart to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you out of all the nations on the earth, to be His valued possession. ⁷It was not because you were greater in numbers than any other nation that the LORD fastened His affection upon you and chose you: for you were the least of all peoples. ⁸No, it was because the LORD loved you, and on account of His oath which He had sworn to your fathers, that He brought you out by a mighty hand and delivered you from the house of slav-

s) Ex. 17:7, also mentioned as Meribah.

t) See Deut. 2:34; 7:20; 20:17,18. Israel's gravest danger after the conquest was defection to pagan deities; one reason why, when she captured a city in Canaan, she must destroy all its inhabitants.

u) Heb. — Asherah — poles, on either side of the pagan altar, carved to resemble or portray sex organs — one with male, the other with female organs.

v) The word here translated "holy" means separate, set apart; Israel is unique among nations; she belongs to God, is His cherished possession. In later Scriptures, the moral aspect of holiness comes to the fore.

ry and from the power of Pharaoh, ing of Egypt. ⁹You should know that the LORD your God, He is the only God; the faithful God, keeping His covenant and showing loving kindness to a thousand generations of those who love Him and are obedient to His orders; ¹⁰but repaying in person those who hate Him, by destroying them; He does not delay with those who hate Him but repays them personally. ¹¹So, you shall keep His commandments and be obedient to His laws and ordinances, which I am now charging you to do.

¹²"As you show obedience to these ordinances and observe them well, the LORD your God will remember His covenant with you and will confirm His loving-kindness toward you as He swore to your fathers. ¹³He will love you, bless you, and increase your numbers. Moreover, He will bless the fruit of your body and the produce of your oil, your grain, your new wine and your oil, the increase of your herds and the young of your flocks, in the land which He promised on oath to give to your fathers." ¹⁴So you will be lessed above all nations; not a male or female among you, or among your livestock shall be barren. ¹⁵The LORD will reserve you from every sickness, and He will not inflict upon you any of those hurtful diseases* of Egypt, with which you are familiar; but He will lay them upon all who hate you. ¹⁶On your part, you shall completely annihilate the nations which the LORD your God will be putting into your hands, and you must not spare them, neither serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.

¹⁷"If you should say to yourselves: These nations are greater than I; how am I drive them out? ¹⁸do not surrender to fear. Keep in mind what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all Egypt. ¹⁹You saw those terrible tests with your own eyes, likewise the signs and wonders, the strong hand and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do as much now to all the nations of whom you are afraid. ²⁰Besides, the LORD your God will send hornets against those nations, until every survivor or any that may be in hiding from you, shall perish. ²¹Do not dread them; for the LORD your God is in your midst, a great and terrible God. ²²The LORD your God will be thrusting out these nations little by little; you shall not be able to exterminate them all at once; for wild beasts might increase too rapidly for you.

²³"But the LORD your God will hand them over to you, and He will crush them utterly, until they no longer exist. ²⁴He will set their kings before you, and you shall wipe out their names from under the heavens; not one shall be able to maintain himself before you until you have destroyed them. ²⁵As for those carved images of their gods, you must commit them all to the flames without coveting or appropriating the silver and gold upon them, lest you be snared by it, for it is an abhorrence to the LORD your God. ²⁶You shall not bring such an abomination into your house, lest you yourselves, like it, become a thing doomed. Utterly detest it and loathe it, for it is doomed.

8 "TO LIVE, O ISRAEL, TO BECOME A numerous nation, to gain entrance to the land which the LORD promised your fathers under oath, you must obey every command with which I am now charging you. ²Keep in mind the whole way over which the LORD your God has been leading you these 40 years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you, so that He might discover your true disposition and learn whether you will observe His orders or not. ³He humbled you; He let you suffer hunger; He gave you manna to eat, something neither you nor your fathers had known, to teach you that man does not live by bread alone; but that man lives on everything that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD." ⁴During those 40 years, your clothing did not

* Increase of livestock; produce of soil and family fertility are gifts from God, not from the idols, as the natives believed and told them [Hos. 2:7,8].

*) Especially any of the Ten Plagues.

*) Bodily and spiritually. If Christ, Matt. 4:4, was dependent on the Word of God for strength, how much more are we!

wear out, nor did your feet blister; ⁵thus you will heartily acknowledge that, just as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God was disciplining you, ⁶that you might learn to keep the commandments of the LORD your God, walk in His ways, and show Him all due reverence. ⁷For the LORD your God is bringing you into a rich country, a land with streams of water, where springs and lakes well up in the valleys and hills, ⁸a land of wheat and barley, of vines, fig trees and pomegranates, a land of oil-producing olive trees and of honey, ⁹a land where you may eat your bread without scarcity or any kind of want, a land whose stones produce iron and in whose hills you can mine copper. ¹⁰You shall eat and be filled and bless the LORD your God for the good land He has granted you. ¹¹Be ever on your guard not to forget the LORD your God by neglecting His ordinances, His laws and His statutes, which I am now laying before you, ¹²lest, when you have eaten and are satisfied, building your houses and dwelling in them, ¹³your flocks and herds increasing, your silver and gold multiplying, and all you possess becoming abundant, ¹⁴your heart will swell with pride, and you will forget the LORD your God^a who brought you out from Egypt, redeeming you from the house of slavery ¹⁵and guiding you across that terrible desert, with its fiery serpents, its scorpions, its parched, waterless ground, and providing water for you from the flinty rock, ¹⁶and feeding you with manna about which your fathers knew nothing. All this He did to discipline you and to test you for your eventual good. ¹⁷Beware, then, not to say in your heart, 'My own power and the strength of my own hand have brought me this wealth.' ¹⁸Instead, remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you the power to gain wealth, that He might fulfil at this time the covenant which He made with your fathers.

¹⁹However, if you do forget the LORD your God and follow after other gods, serving and worshiping them, I warn you this day that you shall certainly go down to ruin. ²⁰Like the nations which the LORD will be destroying before you, you too, shall be destroyed, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

9 "HEAR, O ISRAEL: TODAY YOU ARE to cross the Jordan and invade and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, living in large cities that are fortified to the heavens, ^{2a}a people great and tall, the Anakim. You know their kind and have heard it said; 'Who can stand before the sons of Anak?' ³Be assured, however, that the LORD is crossing before you like a consuming fire; He will destroy and subdue them in your sight, and you will be able to dispossess them and kill them off quickly, as the LORD promised you. ⁴But see to it, after the LORD your God has thrust them out, that you do not say, 'It is because of my righteousness that the LORD has brought me into possession of this land.' For the LORD your God is driving out these nations before you, because of their wickedness. ⁵It cannot at all be laid to any goodness or uprightness on your part. He will be driving them out on account of their wickedness and to establish the word which the LORD swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ⁶You must understand clearly that it is not because of any merit you may possess that the LORD your God will be granting you this good land, for you are a stiff-necked people.

⁷Bear it always in mind, and never forget how you stirred the anger of the LORD your God in the desert; indeed, from the day you came out from the land of Egypt until your arrival here, you have been rebellious against the LORD. ⁸At Horeb you so provoked the LORD that He was ready to destroy you. ⁹I had gone up the mountain to receive the stone tables, the tablets of the covenant which He had made with you; and I remained on the mountain

2) For recent discovery of ancient copper mines and smelters south of the Dead Sea, read Nelson Glueck's, "The Other Side of Jordan."

a) So occupied with the temporal as to neglect the eternal?

40 days and 40 nights without eating bread or drinking water. ¹⁰Then the LORD gave me the two stone tablets inscribed by His own hand, and on them were all the words He had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire, on the occasion of your assembly there in His presence. ¹¹He gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant. Then ¹²the LORD said to me, Arise, get down from here at once, for your people whom you brought out from Egypt, have corrupted themselves; they have turned aside in haste from the way I had set for them and have made themselves a molten image.^b ¹³I have observed this people, the LORD continued to me, and, see, they are a stiff-necked race! Do not plead for them; ¹⁴let Me alone that I may wipe them out; I will leave no trace of them under the heavens. I will make you into a nation that will be greater and stronger than they.

¹⁵"So with the two tablets of the covenant in my two hands, I went down immediately from the mountain aflame with fire. ¹⁶Then I saw it. Truly you had committed a grievous sin against the LORD your God! You had made yourselves a molten calf; as the LORD said, you had soon turned aside from the way which the LORD commanded you. ¹⁷I gripped the two tablets and flung them from me with both hands and broke them to bits before you. ¹⁸After that, as I had done before, I prostrated myself before the LORD and again fasted 40 days and 40 nights because of all the sins you committed when you did this wickedness in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger. ¹⁹For I dreaded the awful indignation and fierce anger of the LORD against you, so that He would surely destroy you. Once more, however, the LORD listened to me. ²⁰But the LORD's displeasure with Aaron was so great that He would destroy him; so, I interceded for Aaron, too, in prayer. ²¹Then that sinful object you had made — that golden calf! I seized it, and I burned it in the fire; I crushed it, ground it into dust, and scattered the dust on the stream that was flowing down the mountain.

²²"At Taberah, at Massah, as well as at Kibroth-hattaavah, you were continually provoking the LORD's indignation. ²³And when the LORD sent you out from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and take over the land I have given you; there, too, you rebelled and did not listen to the LORD's command. You did not believe Him and did not obey His voice. ²⁴In truth, you have been rebellious toward the LORD from the day I first knew you.

²⁵"Then I did again prostrate myself before the LORD 40 days and 40 nights, because the LORD had said He would destroy you. ²⁶I prayed to the LORD. I said, 'O Lord God, do not wipe out Thy people and Thy heritage whom Thou didst rescue by Thy might, whom Thou didst bring out of Egypt by a strong hand. ²⁷Remember Thy servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; regard not the stubbornness of this people; look not upon their wickedness and sin, ²⁸lest it be said by the nation from which Thou didst redeem us, "The LORD was not able to bring them into the land He promised them; for this reason, and because He hates them, He brought them out to slay them in the desert." ²⁹Yet they are Thy people, Thy special heritage, whom Thou didst bring out by Thy great strength and by Thy outstretched arm.'

10 "AT THAT TIME THE LORD SAID to me: Cut two stone tablets like the first, and come up to Me here in the mountain. Also make an ark of wood. ²I will write on the tablets the commandments that were on the first tablets which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.^c ³So I made an

b) In Ex. 32 the story of the golden calf is told more dramatically and in greater detail. Israel's paganism had an early start. Whom did the sons of Jacob marry, if not the daughters of Canaanites, except Joseph whose wife was the pagan high priest's daughter?

c) The Ark contained the stone tablets on which the Ten Commandments were inscribed. The Covenant being based on the Commandments, inspired the expression "The Ark of the Covenant," the symbol of the presence of God in the midst of His people.

ark of acacia wood, and I cut out the two stone tablets, making them like the first, and I climbed the mountain, taking them with me. ⁴Upon these, as He had done before, He wrote the Ten Commandments which the LORD had announced to you out of the fire that day on the mountain, and the LORD gave them to me. ⁵I turned then, came down, and placed the tablets in the Ark which I had prepared, and there they have remained, in keeping with the command the LORD gave me.

⁶"The Israelites set out from the wells of the children of Jaakan for Moserah, where Aaron died and was buried,* Eleazar his son succeeding him in the office of priest. ⁷From there they journeyed on to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water. ⁸Then it was that the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the Ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before Him as His ministers, and to pronounce blessings in His name, as they still do. ⁹Thus the Levites hold no property or inheritance, as the other tribesmen do; the LORD is their inheritance, as the LORD your God promised them.

¹⁰"Once more I remained on the mountain as at the first time 40 days and 40 nights, and again the LORD listened to me, and the LORD did not destroy you. ¹¹Then the LORD said to me, Arise, for you are to journey at the head of the people until they enter the land I promised their fathers to give them.

¹²"So now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to show the LORD your God due reverence, to walk in all His ways, to love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul ¹³and to keep the LORD's commandments and statutes which, for your own good, I enjoin on you this day?^d ¹⁴Behold, to the LORD your God belong the heavens and the heaven of heavens, the earth and all that is in it; ¹⁵yet the LORD showed affection for your fathers and so loved them that He chose you, their sons, above all nations, as it is today. ¹⁶So be circumcised in heart and be stiff-necked no more. ¹⁷For the LORD your God is the God of gods and the LORD of lords. He is God, great, mighty, and terrible! He shows no partiality nor can He be bribed; ¹⁸He secures justice for the orphan and the widow; He cares for the foreigner among you, giving him food and clothing. ¹⁹You, too, then, should love the foreigner. Were you not immigrants in the land of Egypt? ²⁰You must show reverence for the LORD your God; you must serve Him, cling to Him, and swear by His name. ²¹He is your praise^e and your God; He has done for you these great and marvelous things which your own eyes have witnessed. ²²Your fathers went down into Egypt, 70 souls in number, and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of the heavens in multitude.

11 "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD, therefore, and always heed His charge, His laws, His ordinances, and His commandments.^f Of the LORD your God's discipline you must be ever mindful. ²I am not now speaking to your children; they do not know; they have not seen His greatness, His mighty hand and outstretched arm. ³His signs and the deeds He performed in Egypt against Pharaoh the king of Egypt and against all that land—⁴what He did to the Egyptian army, how he made the waters of the Red Sea engulf their horses and their chariots when they followed you; how the LORD destroyed them to this day:

*Near Mt. Hor, which means mountain, by the Edom boundary, Num. 20:22-29.

d) A remarkable parallel is the great passage in Micah 6:1-8. How simple God's commands! Yet they lift the soul of him who follows them, because they come from God. From here to the end of the chapter we have one of the great messages of Deut., yes, of the O.T. How did Israel achieve such an exalted conception of God-and-man relationship, except by revelation?

e) For full significance of the expression, study Jer. 17:14.

f) Through the last half of ch. 10 and the first part of ch. 11, we catch a remarkable glimpse of Israel's conception of God and life. If modern readers find Deuteronomy wearisome because of repetition, Hebrews gloried in it; it was strength to them. We read a page, then turn to the next with little rethinking. They heard and heard the same again; then ruminated, chewed the cud, thought things through and could thus master more truth than we master with our much reading.

what He did, likewise, for you in the desert until you reached this place; now He dealt with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, Reuben's son; now in the midst of all Israel the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, households, tents, and belongings in their camp — ⁷With your own eyes you have seen all these mighty works the LORD has done. ⁸Therefore, you must keep every commandment I join on you today, that you may be strong, able to enter and take over the land ⁹and long enjoy life upon the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, that He would grant them and their offspring a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰For the land which you are entering to possess is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you could sow seed and water it with your foot^g like a vegetable garden. ¹¹No, the land you are reaching to possess is a land of hills and valleys; it depends for water upon the rains from heaven, ¹²a land over which the LORD your God watches; His eyes are upon it continually from the year's beginning to its end. ¹³And if you give heed truly to the orders with which I am charging you, to love the LORD your God and to serve Him with all your heart and your whole soul, ¹⁴then He will send rain upon your land in its season, the early and the latter rains and you will gather in your grain, your wine, and your oil; ¹⁵He will also provide grass in your fields for your cattle, and you shall eat and be filled. ¹⁶But you must be determined not to let your hearts be lured away and turned aside to serve other gods, to worship them, ¹⁷and so to bring upon you the indignation of the LORD, so that He would restrain the heavens that there be neither rain nor produce from the soil, and you perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is granting you.

¹⁸"Store up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul. Bind them as a token on your hands, and let them be as a forehead band between your eyes. ¹⁹Teach them to your children, talking about them when sitting at home and when walking on the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ²⁰Inscribe them on the door posts of your houses and on your gates ²¹so that your days and the days of your children may multiply and become as the days of heaven above the earth, the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them.

²²"For if you diligently obey all these commands which I command you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to remain loyal to Him, ²³then the LORD will drive out all these peoples from before you and you shall take possession of nations greater and stronger than you. ²⁴Every foot of ground you tread upon shall be yours. Your frontiers shall stretch from the desert to Lebanon, from the river Euphrates to the Western Sea; ²⁵not a man shall be able to stand against you, for the LORD your God will put the dread and the terror of you on all the land you walk upon, as He has promised you.

²⁶"Today I am setting before you a blessing and a curse; ²⁷a blessing if you obey the commands of the LORD your God, with which I am now charging you; ²⁸but a curse if you do not obey the commands of the LORD your God, but turn from the way I am commanding you this day and follow other gods whom you have not known.^h

²⁹And it shall be when the LORD your God has brought you into the land of which you are taking possession, you shall set the blessing upon Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

³⁰Are not the two mountains on the other side of the Jordan, west of the sunset road in the country of the Canaanites, who dwell in the plain op-

g) Israel's new land was superior to Egypt, where rain seldom falls and farmers depended on irrigation for any crops they might produce. The "foot" here was to open up small canals at points where water was wanted, to close them again by the foot. In Palestine, the spring rains came in March and April; then no rain until October and November, when the plowing began.

h) The Baals of Canaan mostly; Israel did not know them in the desert, but many learned to worship them after the conquest, with fatal consequences.

posite Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? ³¹Now you are about to cross the Jordan to take over the land which the LORD your God intends you to have; you shall seize it and live there, ³²and then you must keep all these laws and ordinances which today I am putting before you."¹

12 "THESE ARE THE LAWS¹ AND ordinances you are to observe punctually in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has appointed you to possess, all the days you live on earth. ²You shall demolish utterly all the places where the nations whom you are to dispossess worshiped their gods,^k on high mountains, on hills, and under every green tree. ³You shall tear down their altars, break in pieces their dedicated pillars, and burn in the fire their sacred trees. The carved images of their gods you shall hew down, and thus you shall abolish their very name¹ from that place. ⁴Not so shall you behave toward the LORD your God, ⁵but you shall seek out that place which the LORD your God will choose^m from all your tribes to put His name there and make it His dwelling place. ⁶There you shall go,ⁿ and there you shall bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the contributions you dedicate, your vows, your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and flocks. ⁷There you shall eat before the LORD your God and rejoice over the fruits of your labors, you and your households, as the LORD your God has blessed you. ⁸You are not to do as we are now doing, the things that seem right to each in his own eyes, ⁹for you have not yet reached the place of rest and heritage which the LORD is giving you. ¹⁰However, you will be crossing the Jordan and settling down in the land which the LORD your God is giving you, at rest from all your enemies and dwelling in security. ¹¹Then you will be seeking out the place around you where the LORD your God will choose to put His name, and there you shall bring everything that I now bid you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the dedicated contributions you will be making, and any special offering you may have vowed to the LORD. ¹²And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your sons and your daughters, your servants and your maids, and the Levite^o living in your community, since he has no portion or inheritance with you. ¹³Be sure not to present your burnt offerings at just any spot you chance upon; ¹⁴but only at the one place which the LORD shall choose in one of your tribes; there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I am commanding you to do.

¹⁵"But if in your homes you want meat, you may kill and eat as much as you want, in accord with the blessing which the LORD your God grants you; the unclean as well as the clean may eat of it, as you would of the antelope and of the deer.^p ¹⁶Only do not eat the blood; you must pour it on the ground like water. ¹⁷Then again, you must not eat at home the tithe of your grain, or of your wine, or of your oil, or of the firstlings of your herd or flock, or anything you have promised in a vow to the LORD, or any freewill offering or dedicated contribution. ¹⁸Eat these before the LORD your God in the place of His choosing, you, your son

i) Vs. 32 brings Moses' second discourse to a close.

j) Moses' third discourse is in Ch. 12-26, 28. It is the major section of the book, the Deut. Law. It introduces a revolutionary form of Israel's joint worship, henceforth to be conducted in one place only; all other shrines must be destroyed.

k) This law was not fully carried out until King Josiah's time, in 621 B.C., II Kings 22 and 23.

l) The name of the god at each place.

m) "The place which the LORD your God will choose" is the phrase regularly used in Deuteronomy for the legitimate sanctuary to which Israel shall go to worship God.

n) Before crossing the Jordan into Canaan; the permanent place for the sanctuary had not yet been selected.

o) The Levite is frequently named in Deut. as one who must be cared for on all occasions. Helping the priests and teaching were his main functions.

p) During patriarchal days with local altars, the earlier Hebrews did at times, when eating meat or drinking, offer a portion at their local altar, Gen. 31:54; After the central altar was established, those too far away from that altar were allowed to eat meat without ceremonial sacrifice.

and your daughter, your servant and your maid, and the Levite in your community. Rejoice before the LORD your God in all that your hands have undertaken.^q ¹⁹And keep constantly in mind that you must not neglect the Levite as long as you live in your land.^r ²⁰"When the LORD your God shall enlarge your territory, as He promised you, and you say, 'I want to eat meat,' you may eat as much meat as you like. ²¹And if the place where the LORD your God has chosen to put His name is too far from you, then you may slaughter any of your herd or your flock, which the LORD has provided, in the way I have instructed you and eat of it at home as much as you wish, ²²as you would an antelope or a deer in your own home; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it; ²³but make sure you do not eat the blood; for the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the flesh. ²⁴Do not eat it; pour it on the ground like water. ²⁵You must not eat it, that you may prosper, both you and your children after you, doing what is right in the sight of the LORD. ²⁶But the consecrated gifts you have and the offerings you have promised in your vows, these you shall take with you to the place of the LORD's choice ²⁷and there offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God. The blood of your sacrifice shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God; but the flesh you may eat. ²⁸Carefully heed all these requirements which I am setting before you, that it may ever go well with you and with your children after you, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

²⁹"When the LORD your God cuts off from before you the nations against whom you will be advancing to dispossess them, and you take charge and settle down in their land, ³⁰then be on your guard lest, after their destruction,

you be lured into imitating them, inquiring after their gods, saying, 'How did these nations worship their gods?' so that you may do the same. ³¹You must not thus behave toward the LORD your God; for every abomination which He hates, these peoples have done for their gods, even to the burning of their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. ³²Everything I am commanding you, you shall do; you must not add to it or take from it.

13 "IF A PROPHET ARISES AMONG you, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or wonder, ²and the sign or wonder he speaks about comes to pass, and he then says to you, 'Let us go after other gods and serve them,' gods you have never known,^s ³then do not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁴You must follow the LORD your God and revere Him, keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him and cling to Him. ⁵But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams must be executed; for he has taught you to depart from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and rescued you from the house of slavery. He taught you to draw you away from the path which the LORD your God commanded you to follow; so you must purge the evil from among you.

⁶"If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, should secretly tempt you, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' whom neither you nor your fathers have known, ⁷the gods of the peoples of other nations, near or far, from one end of the earth to the other, ⁸you must refuse him and not listen to him. Neither pity him, nor spare him, nor conceal him. ⁹You

q) The Psalms of Ascent, 120-134, show with what genuine joy Israel followed this injunction.

r) Clean and unclean, as used here, are legal terms. If a member of the family was ritually unclean, he did not eat, I Sam. 20:26. This matter of eating meat played a role down through the centuries of Judaism and to N.T. days, Rom. 14:20, 21.

s) Deuteronomy seeks above all to purge Israel of every phase of pagan worship. Ch. 13 presents typical cases: if a trusted but false prophet seeks to lure the people after false gods, or a close relative is guilty, or a whole city goes astray. The penalty is death for the individual, annihilation for the city.

must certainly put him to death, and your hand must be the first against him, then the hand of all the people. ¹⁰You must stone him to death, mindful that he has sought to lead you away from the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt from the house of slavery, ¹¹and all Israel shall hear and fear and never again commit such evil among you.

¹²"If you hear a report that in one of the cities to which the LORD your God will be assigning you to live, ¹³wicked men have arisen and have led their fellow citizens astray with the cry, 'Let us go and worship other gods,' which you have never known, ¹⁴then you shall investigate and make thorough inquiry; and if the report proves true and it is certain that this abominable thing has taken place among you, ¹⁵then you shall put the dwellers of that city to the sword, smiting it without quarter, exterminating it and all in it, cattle and people alike with the edge of the sword. ¹⁶You shall gather all the spoil into the open square and there burn everything, offering it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God; it shall remain in ruins and never be rebuilt. ¹⁷Let nothing of the things in it, doomed to destruction, stick to your hands; that the LORD may turn from His fierce anger and show you mercy, and in His mercy multiply you as He has sworn to your fathers, ¹⁸provided that you listen to the voice of the LORD your God, keeping all His commandments which I am setting before you today and doing what is right in the presence of the LORD your God.

14 "YOU ARE THE CHILDREN OF the LORD your God; ¹you shall not cut yourselves or shave your forehead for the dead; ²for you are a people dedicated to the LORD your God, and He has chosen you from all peoples on the earth to be His and His alone.

³"You shall eat nothing abominable. ⁴These are animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, ⁵the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the chamois, the antelope, and the mountain sheep. ⁶Any animal that has divided hoofs and chews the cud you may eat. ⁷But of those that chew the cud or part the hoof there are some that you may not eat: the camel, the hare, the rock badger, because they chew the cud but do not divide the hoof. They are unclean to you. ⁸The hog is unclean because it divides the hoof but does not chew the cud; of their flesh you must not eat nor may you touch their carcass.

⁹"Of the creatures that live in water, those that have fins and scales you may eat, ¹⁰but whatever does not have fins and scales is unclean to you, you shall not eat of it.

¹¹"Of all clean birds you may eat, ¹²but these you may not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the fishhawk, ¹³the buzzard, all kinds of falcon, ¹⁴all ravens, ¹⁵the ostrich, the nighthawk, and the sea gull, all kinds of hawk, ¹⁶the screech owl, the eagle owl, the water hen, ¹⁷the pelican, the carrion vulture, the cormorant, ¹⁸the stork, all kinds of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat. ¹⁹Likewise, all winged creeping things are unclean to you and may not be eaten. ²⁰All clean winged creatures, however, you may eat.

²¹"You shall not eat anything that has died a natural death. You may give it to the alien in your community, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; but you are a people dedicated to the LORD your God.

"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk."^u

²²"Every year you must tithe all your seeds' produce that comes from your field. ²³And before the LORD your God, in the place He will be choosing to put His name there, you shall eat it; the tithe of your grain, your wine and your oil, as well as the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks, that you may learn to revere the LORD your God all your days. ²⁴If the way to the LORD's sanctuary proves too long

t) Mutilation of the body and shaving the forehead were common rites of mourning for the dead in Israel's world. Some rites mentioned in this passage were practiced by Israelites at the time of Jeremiah. u) In such a procedure there would be an element of heartlessness. The ewe's milk is primarily to keep the kid alive, not to render it good eating.

for you, and you are unable to carry the tithe, because the place of the LORD your God's choice to put His name there is so far away, when the LORD your God blesses you, ²⁵then you shall exchange your tithe for money in your home town and with the money securely in hand go to the place which the LORD your God chooses, ²⁶and there purchase whatever your heart may desire, bullocks sheep, wine, strong drink, anything your appetite suggests and, rejoicing before the LORD your God, eat it, both you and your household. ²⁷Also the Levite who belongs in your community you must not neglect, for he has no property or inheritance with you.

²⁸"At the end of every three years you shall bring out the full tithe of your produce for that year and deposit it within your city; ²⁹and the Levite, since he has no property or inheritance with you, the resident immigrant, the fatherless, and the widow shall come and eat and be satisfied; so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work you undertake.

15 "AT THE END OF EVERY SEVEN years there must be a canceling of debts, ²and this shall be the way of the canceling: Every creditor shall cancel the loan he made to his neighbor or to his brother; he shall make no demand for repayment, because the LORD's release has been proclaimed.^v ³A foreigner you may press for payment, but whatever of yours was due from a brother^w you shall cancel.

⁴However, there should be no poor among you, for the LORD your God will abundantly bless you in the land. He will give you to possess as a heritage, ⁵if you listen to the LORD your God and rightly observe all these commandments which today I am enjoining upon you. ⁶When the LORD your God blesses you as He promised you, then you shall lend to many nations, but not borrow; you shall rule many nations, but they shall not rule over you.

⁷"When there is among you a poor man, a brother of yours, in one of the towns which the LORD will be granting you, you shall not harden your heart or close your hand for your poor brother, refusing him a loan; no, ⁸you shall open wide your hand for him and lend him liberally to meet his need amply.

⁹"Be on your guard not to let the base thought get the upper hand in your heart: The seventh year is approaching, the year of release, so that you turn a loveless eye on your poor brother, and you give him nothing. He will cry out to the LORD against you, and it will become sin in you. ¹⁰You shall make the loan to him freely, not heavy of heart when you give to him; for the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all you undertake. ¹¹The land will never be without its poor,^x so I command you to be openhanded towards your brother, to the needy, and to the poor in the land.

¹²"If your brother, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, he shall serve you six years, and in the seventh year you shall give him his freedom. ¹³When he leaves you, he must not go empty-handed, ¹⁴but you shall furnish him liberally with provisions from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your wine press, from that with which the LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give him. ¹⁵Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and that the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I am now laying this command upon you. ¹⁶But if he says to you; 'I do not want to leave you; I am devoted to you and your family and am faring well with you,' ¹⁷then you shall take an awl and drill it through his ear against the doorpost of your house, and he shall be your servant for all time; and for your maid you shall do the same.⁷ ¹⁸It must not be difficult for you to let your servant go free, for at half the cost of a hired workman he has served you six years; so the LORD your God will bless you in your every enterprise.

^v) In Israel loans were granted to fellow Hebrews without interest; it was charity to the needy. Every seventh year all such loans were canceled. The law of release is in Deuteronomy only. Even after the exile, in the days of Nehemiah — ch. 5 — those who required interest on money loaned to Jews, were severely rebuked as usurers. It is a custom we Christians do well to practice.

^w) An Israelite.

^x) As our LORD remarked, John 12:8; when Mary of Bethany was criticized for anointing His feet.

¹⁹"All the first-born males among your cattle and sheep you shall dedicate to the LORD your God; you shall not work the firstlings of your cattle nor shear the firstlings of your sheep. ²⁰Before the LORD you shall eat them, year by year, in the place of the LORD's choosing, you and your family. ²¹But if there is any blemish in one of them, if it is lame or blind, or shows any serious blemish at all, you must not offer it to the LORD. ²²You may eat it at home; the clean and the unclean alike may eat it, as you would the roebuck or the deer. ²³Only you must not eat the blood; it must be poured out on the ground like water.

16 "OBSERVE THE MONTH OF ABIB, celebrating the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month Abib the LORD your God brought you out from Egypt by night. ²You shall offer the Passover sacrifice from your flock or from your herd to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD will be choosing for His name to dwell there.² ³You shall not eat leavened bread with it. For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, — for you left Egypt in great haste — that you may remember the day you came out from the land of Egypt all the days of your life. ⁴For seven days leaven must not be seen anywhere within your borders, and nothing of the flesh you sacrificed on the evening of the first day may be left over till morning. ⁵You must not offer the Passover sacrifice in one of the local towns which the LORD your God will be giving you; ⁶but at the place which the LORD your God will choose as the dwelling place for His name, there you shall offer the Passover sacrifice at sundown, the time of your exodus from Egypt. ⁷You shall boil it and eat it at the place which the LORD your God will choose, and on the next morning you may start for home. ⁸For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God; on it you shall not do any work.

⁹"You shall count off seven weeks, beginning when you first thrust the sickle in the standing grain;^a ¹⁰then you must keep the feast of weeks to the LORD your God, presenting a free-will offering in proportion to the measure in which the LORD your God shall bless you; ¹¹and you shall rejoice in the presence of the LORD your God, you, your son, your daughter, your male and female servants, the Levite in your town, the immigrant too, and the fatherless and the widow among you, at the place which the LORD your God chooses to make His name dwell there. ¹²Remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and observe these statutes well.

¹³"After gathering in the produce from your threshing floor and wine press, you shall celebrate the festival of booths^b for seven days, ¹⁴and in your feast you shall rejoice, you, your son, your daughter, your male and female servants, the Levite, the immigrant, the fatherless, and the widow in your community. ¹⁵Seven days you shall keep the feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD shall choose; for the LORD your God will bless you in your harvest and in your

y) In Deuteronomy when the slave is released, he is loaded with provisions to begin the new life. This is not mentioned in Exodus. In later times, Hebrews were not enslaved by Hebrews, but down to the Exile, the law of release was often neglected, Jer. 34:8-20 and Neh. 5:1-13.

z) Ch. 16 presents the laws regulating the three annual festivals: The Passover and Unleavened Bread, The Feast of Weeks (Pentecost), The Feast of Ingathering (Tabernacles). Many passages in Exodus, Numbers and Leviticus treat these celebrations; Deuteronomy requires that they all be nationally celebrated at the central sanctuary.

a) The Feast of Weeks was a harvest festival, celebrated when the grain harvest, that lasted seven weeks, was completed. Later it was given the Greek name, Pentecost, because it came 50 days after the Passover.

b) The Feast of Booths (or Tabernacles) came after every produce had been harvested, including figs, olives and grapes.

work, and you shall have enjoyment to the full. ¹⁶Thrice a year every male among you shall appear before the LORD your God in the place of His choosing: at the feast of unleavened bread, at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of booths. No one shall appear before the LORD empty-handed; ¹⁷every one (shall give) as he is able, according to the blessing which the LORD your God bestows on you.

¹⁸"You shall appoint judges and other officials^c throughout your tribes and in all the towns which the LORD your God will be granting you, to administer proper justice for the people. ¹⁹You shall not distort justice; you must be impartial, and accept no present; for a present makes even wise men blind and subverts the cause of the innocent. ²⁰Strive for justice only, so you may live and possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

²¹"Do not plant an Asherah, any tree, beside the altar of the LORD your God that you make; ²²nor erect there a dedicated pillar, an abomination to the LORD your God.

17 "SACRIFICES TO THE LORD YOUR God must never include a member of your herd or flock in which there is a blemish or defect; for such a sacrifice would be abhorrent to the LORD your God.

²"If there is found among you in one of the towns which the LORD your God is granting you, a man or a woman who is doing evil in the sight of the LORD your God, transgressing His covenant — ³one who has sought out and served other gods^d and bowed down to them, the sun, the moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have forbidden you, ⁴and it is reported to you, then you must make searching inquiry. If the report is true and it is established that this abominable thing has been done in Israel, ⁵then you shall bring that man or that woman out to your gates and there stone that man or that woman to death. ⁶It must be on the testimony of two or more witnesses that the one condemned is executed; no one shall die on the testimony of but a single witness. ⁷The hands of the witnesses shall cast the first stone, and after them the hands of all the people. So you shall root out the evil from among you.

⁸"When a case at law arises too difficult for you to decide between one degree of bloodshed and another; one plea for right and another — one type of bodily injury and another, matters of disagreement in your town — then you must go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose ⁹and there seek out the Levitical priests and the judge^e who shall be in office in those days, and you shall inquire of them, and they will tell you of their decision; ¹⁰you must act according to the decision they announce at that place which the LORD shall choose, and you must be careful to follow their instructions to the letter. ¹¹Carry out their decision, and be sure not to depart from their verdict in any way.

¹²The man who shall act presumptuously in such cases and declines to listen to the priest ministering there before the LORD your God, or to the judge, that man shall die, and you shall clear Israel of such evil. ¹³All the people shall hear of it and fear, and never again act so recklessly.

¹⁴"When you reach the land which the LORD your God gives you, and take possession and live in it, and you say, 'We want to put a king over us like other nations all around,' ¹⁵then you may, indeed, put a king over you, whom the LORD your God shall choose. From among your own brothers you will put a king over you, not a foreigner who is not your brother. ¹⁶He shall not multiply horses for himself nor make people return to Egypt to import horses from there; for the LORD

c) Ch. 16:18 through ch. 18 presents and characterizes the officers of the theocracy: judges, king, priests, and prophets.

d) Israel's worship of false gods was the major trouble through much of her history.

e) The passing on of difficult cases began with Moses at Jethro's suggestion, Ex. 18:13-26. From early times administration of justice by both priestly and civil heads of the community seems to have prevailed. II Chron. 19:8-11 tells of the setting up of a double court by king Jehoshaphat.

said, You shall never again return over that road. ¹⁷Neither may the king multiply wives to himself, lest his heart be turned away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold.^f ¹⁸When he is established upon his throne in his kingdom, he shall write for himself in a book a copy of this law, from (the scroll kept by) the priestly Levites; ¹⁹he shall keep it near him and read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to revere the LORD his God by observing all the words of this law and these statutes and practicing them. ²⁰Thus his heart will not be exalted above his brothers, nor will he turn aside from any commandments of the Book to right or left; so that he and his sons will long remain upon the throne in Israel.

18 ¹“THE LEVITICAL PRIESTS, THE whole tribe of Levi, shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They shall eat the LORD’s offerings by fire and His fit portion; ²but among his brothers (Levi) shall have no inheritance. The LORD is his heritage, as He has promised him.^g ³When the people bring their offerings, taken from flock or herd, the due of the priests shall be the shoulder, both cheeks and the stomach. ⁴You shall give them the first of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first fleece of your sheep, ⁵for out of all your tribes the LORD your God has chosen him to be in attendance and to minister in His name, him and his sons forever.

⁶“When a Levite goes out from one of your cities anywhere in Israel, where he has temporarily been residing and out of devotion moves to the place which the LORD will be choosing, ⁷then he shall minister there in the name of the LORD his God, like all his brother Levites serving there, ⁸and all shall share like portions of available food, taking no account of what he may have received from family property.^h

⁹“When you reach the land which the LORD your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate the obnoxious ways of those nations. ¹⁰There must not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, anyone practicing divination or soothsaying, observing omens, applying sorcery, ^{11a}a charmer, a medium, a wizard, or a necromancer.ⁱ ¹²For all who do these things are offensive to the LORD; and because of these abominable practices the LORD your God will be driving out these nations from before you. ¹³You, however, must be blameless before the LORD your God. ¹⁴These nations whom you will be dispossessing listen to soothsayers and diviners; but the LORD your God has not permitted you to do so. ¹⁵He will raise up for you a prophet like me, one of your own brothers, and you shall listen to him.^j ¹⁶just as you requested of the LORD at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said: ‘I must not again hear the voice of the LORD my God, or see this great fire any longer, lest I die.’ ¹⁷And the LORD said to me: They have spoken well. ¹⁸I will raise up for them a prophet, one of their own number like you; I will put My words in his mouth, and he shall make known to them all that I command him; ¹⁹and the man who refuses to listen to the word he shall speak in My name, of that man I Myself will require it. ²⁰But if the prophet presumes to speak in My name a message which I have not commanded him to say, or shall speak in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die. ²¹And if you say in your heart, ‘How are we to know which word the LORD has not spoken?’ ²²What a prophet proclaims in the name of the LORD which is not fulfilled and does not happen, that is a message to which the LORD did not

f) Solomon should have been the pattern for the king described here, but in time he multiplied wives, introduced cavalry, and even accompanied his wives to their pagan temples.

g) In Deuteronomy there is always great concern for the Levites, whom the Israelites as worshipers of God were to support.

h) If not earned, then such supplies must have been voluntarily contributed by grateful Israelites.

i) The roster of the pagan practices listed here is factual; Israel became only too familiar with them.

j) Spoken concerning every true mouthpiece of God and supremely of the Son of God, the Messiah.

give utterance; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; have no fear of him.

19 "WHEN THE LORD YOUR GOD HAS eliminated the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you take possession, living in their cities and in their houses, ²you shall set apart three cities in the midst of the land which the LORD your God is granting to you to possess. ³You shall measure distances and divide into three districts the area which the LORD your God has you inherit, so that every man killing another may flee to them.^k ⁴In this case, the killer who flees there shall remain alive. When a man kills his neighbor against whom he bore no grudge, and the killing is unintentional; for instance, ⁵if a man and his neighbor go into the forest to cut wood, and while he swings the axe to fell a tree, the axe head of one of them flies off the handle, strikes his companion, and kills him, the man may then flee to one of those cities and live; ⁶otherwise, the avenger of blood will hunt him down in hot anger, overtake him because the way is long, and he will smite him mortally, although he was not deserving of death; for he had carried no grudge. ⁷Wherefore I command you to set apart three cities.

⁸"And if the LORD your God enlarges your boundaries, as He swore to your fathers to do, and gives you all the land He promised them, ⁹then, if you are careful to observe this whole command I am now enjoining upon you — to love the LORD your God and to walk always in His ways — then you must add three other cities to these three, ¹⁰so that innocent blood may not be shed in the land which the LORD your God gives you as your heritage, and that no blood guilt may rest upon you.^l him, and smites him mortally so that he dies, and that man flees to one of these cities, ¹²then the elders of his city must send and fetch him and deliver him to the avenger of blood, so that he dies. ¹³You shall not pity him, but purge innocent blood from Israel that it may be well with you.

¹¹"If, however, a man hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him, attacks

¹⁴"You must not move your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set in the inheritance to be yours in the land which the LORD your God gives you for your possession.

¹⁵"A single witness against a man shall not convict him of any crime or offense, in case of wrong which he may have committed; only on the testimony of two witnesses, or three, shall a charge be sustained. ¹⁶When a resentful witness arises against a man to accuse him of evil doing, ¹⁷then the two men involved in the dispute shall appear before the LORD, that is, before the priests and the judges who are then officiating, ¹⁸and the judges shall make careful inquiry. If they discover that the witness is, indeed, resentful and has accused falsely against his brother, ¹⁹then you shall do to him what he had planned to have done to his brother; and thus you shall eradicate the evil from among you. ²⁰For the rest shall hear and fear, and they shall never again be guilty of such evil among you. ²¹You must not pity him: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot!

20 "WHEN YOU GO OUT TO WAR against your enemies, and you see horses, chariots and warriors, more numerous than you, do not fear them; for the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, is with you. ²As you draw near for battle, the priest shall step forward and speak to the people. ³He shall say, 'Hear, O Israel! today you are entering battle against your enemies; let not your

k) In Israel innocent blood must be avenged, for until it was avenged, the guilt rested on the community. The nearest of kin of a murdered man was obligated to avenge the victim; he became "the avenger of blood." But killing could be accidental. In such a case, the killer could flee to one of six selected cities and find asylum. If his guilt was proven, he was taken back and surrendered to the avenger of blood. For asylum at the altar, see 1 Kings 2:28-31.

l) Executions, not involving the avenger of blood, often had to take place, if innocent blood were not to rest upon the community, but no officer of the state ever performed it. Since it was community responsibility, the people stoned the guilty to death.

hearts lack courage; do not fear; be not alarmed or terrified by them; ⁴for the LORD your God goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you the victory.' ⁵Then the officers shall say to the men, 'Is there any one among you who has built a new house and has not yet dedicated it? Let him go back home, lest he die in battle and another dedicate it.' ⁶Is there any one who has planted a vineyard but has not yet enjoyed its fruits? Let him go back home, lest he die in battle and another enjoy its fruit. ⁷And is there a man who has betrothed a wife but has not yet taken her? Let him return home, lest he die in battle and another take her.' ⁸Finally the officers shall say to their soldiers, 'Is there a man here who is afraid and weakhearted? Let him go home, lest he impart fear in other men and they likewise become fainthearted.' ⁹When the officers have thus completed their speaking, they shall appoint army captains to lead the people.

¹⁰"When you approach a city to attack it, first offer it terms of peace. ¹¹If there is peaceful response and they open its gates to you, all the people found there shall render you tribute service and shall be your subjects. ¹²However, if the city declines to make peace and proffers war, then you must lay siege to it, ¹³and the LORD your God will give it into your hands, and you shall put every male in it to the sword; ¹⁴but the women, the little ones, the livestock, and everything in the city, all its booty, you may take to yourselves as plunder and enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has granted you.

¹⁵"Such is the way you shall deal with cities that are at a considerable distance from you and do not belong to nations nearby. ¹⁶But in cities in the area which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not keep alive one that has breath; ¹⁷you must wipe them out completely: the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Periz-ites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, all of them, as the LORD your God has commanded you; ¹⁸so that they may not teach you to practice all the abominable things they do for their gods, and give you cause to sin against the LORD your God.

¹⁹"When you lay siege to a city for many days, making war against it to capture it, you shall not destroy its surrounding fruit trees by cutting them with an axe; you may eat their fruit, but you must not cut them down. Are the trees of the field people, defenders of the city, that you should lay siege to them? ²⁰Those trees, however, that you know are not fruit trees you may cut down and use to build siege works against the city that is warring against you, until it falls.

21 "IF IN THE LAND WHICH THE LORD your God gives you to possess, one is found lying murdered in the open field and it is not known who killed him, ²then your elders and judges must come out and measure the distance from the body to the neighboring cities. ³The elders of the city nearest the victim must select from the herd a heifer that has never been worked, never borne a yoke, ⁴and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer to a valley with running water, to a spot never plowed or sown, and there in the valley they shall break the heifer's neck; ⁵The priestly sons of Levi must come forward, for they have been chosen by the LORD your God to be His ministers to bless in His name and, by their decisions, to settle every dispute and every case of assault, ⁶so all the elders of the city closest to the murdered man shall wash their hands over the heifer, whose neck was broken in the valley, ⁷and they shall affirm: 'Our hands did not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it shed. ⁸O LORD, forgive Thy people Israel, whom Thou didst redeem, and leave not the charge of innocent blood in the midst of Thy people Israel, but let the guilt of blood

m) The Hebrew word used here is the same as is used in dedicating the temple — I Kings 8:63 — but this is the only mention in the O.T. of dedicating a private home. It suggests a devotional setting apart for God.

be forgiven them.ⁿ ⁹So you shall remove the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

¹⁰"When you go out to war against your foe and the LORD your God puts them into your power and you take them captive, ¹¹and you notice among the captives a beautiful woman who wins your heart and you would take her to be your wife ¹²and bring her to your home, then she must shave her head, trim her nails, ¹³and lay aside her captive's dress. After she has bewailed her father and mother a month in your house, you may go in and marry her and make her your wife. ¹⁴However, if you no longer find delight in her, you shall send her away to go where she pleases; under no circumstances may you sell her for money or enslave her, for you have humbled her.

¹⁵"If a man has two wives, of whom he dislikes one and loves the other, each of them has borne him a son, and the first-born son is by the one he dislikes, ¹⁶he shall have no power to bequeath the rights of the first-born to the son of the wife he loves in preference to his first-born, the son of the wife he does not love. ¹⁷He must acknowledge the son of the despised wife as his first-born, assigning to him a double share of all he possesses; for he is the first fruit of his powers; the birthright belongs to him.^o

¹⁸"If a man's son is stubborn and rebellious against the voice of his father and of his mother, refusing to listen to and to obey them when they discipline him, ¹⁹then his father and mother must lay hold of him and bring him to the gate of his city, to the elders of his town, and ²⁰they shall say to the elders of his city, 'This our son is stubborn and rebellious; he refuses to listen to us; he is a spendthrift and a drunkard.' ²¹Then all the men of his

city shall stone him to death. Thus you shall exterminate the evil from among you; all Israel shall hear of it and be afraid.^p

²²"When a man, who has committed a crime deserving of death, is executed and you hang him on a tree, ²³his body must not be permitted to remain on the tree over night; you must bury him the same day; for one hanged is under the curse of God, and you must not defile the land which the LORD your God gives you as your heritage.^q

22 "YOU SHALL NOT SEE THE OX OR sheep of your brother straying away and do nothing about it; you shall certainly bring it back to your brother. ²If your brother does not live in your immediate neighborhood, or if you do not know him, then you must take the ox or sheep to your own place and keep it with you until your brother looks for it; then you must restore it to him. ³So also you must do with his donkey or his garment or, indeed, with anything belonging to your brother, that may be lost and you find it; you must not disregard it. ⁴You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen by the roadside and be unconcerned about it; you will certainly help him lift it up.^{*}

⁵"A woman shall not wear men's clothing nor shall a man put on a woman's dress; for anyone doing such things is abhorrent to the LORD your God.^r ⁶"If, on the road you come upon a bird's nest in any tree or on the ground, with young birds or eggs and the mother bird sitting on her brood or on the eggs, you shall not carry off the mother with her young; ⁷you must let her go, although you may keep the young for yourself. So you may prosper and enjoy long life.

⁸"When you build a new house, you

n) For another case of the treatment when innocent blood must be expiated, see note on 19:3. The manner here cited is found in Deuteronomy only; it probably reflects a very ancient custom.

o) From very early times the first-born had special rights in Israel. Jacob gained the rights of Esau, but it cost him dearly.

p) In Israel juvenile delinquency or disregard of the fifth commandment could not be tolerated; but the penalty was not always death; see Prov. 30:17.

q) The usual method of execution was stoning, in order that each citizen might share in the responsibility. Hanging was performed, after his death; it represented an added curse of God.

*Injunction to be a good neighbor; we are our brothers' keepers.

r) This prohibition had religious significance, since pagan practices involved such exchanges.

must put a parapet around the roof, lest if someone falls to the ground, you bring bloodguilt upon your house.^s ⁹"Do not sow in your vineyard two kinds of seed, lest the whole of the produce, the seed you sow and the fruit of the vineyards, be confiscated to the sanctuary.

¹⁰"Do not plow with an ox and a donkey yoked together; ¹¹nor wear garments woven of mixed threads, wool and linen combined.^t

¹²"Make tassels of twisted threads and attach them to the four corners of the cloak you use to cover yourself.^u

¹³"If a man takes a wife and, after cohabitation, tiring of her, ¹⁴brings damaging charges against her, giving her a bad name, saying, 'I took this woman and when I approached her, I did not find in her the evidences of virginity,' ¹⁵then the girl's father and mother shall bring out the proofs of her virginity and lay them before the elders at the gate of the city, ¹⁶and the father of the girl shall declare before the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man to be his wife, and he has turned against her' ¹⁷and now brings a shameful name upon her, saying that he found my daughter to be no virgin; but these are the evidences of her virginity.' The father and the mother shall then spread the garment before the elders of the city ¹⁸and the elders of the city are to take the man and chastise him; ¹⁹and, in addition, they shall fine him a hundred silver dollars, which they are to give to the girl's father, because the man has brought an evil name upon a virgin of Israel; moreover, the girl shall remain his wife; he may not divorce her as long as he lives. ²⁰But if his charges prove to be correct and no evidence of chastity has been found in the girl, ²¹then they shall bring her out to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death; she has committed a flagrant crime in Israel, playing the harlot in her own home, and you must purge such evil from among you.

²²"When a man is surprised abed with a married woman, they shall both die, the man who lay with the woman and the woman too; you shall wipe out the evil from Israel.

²³"When a man comes upon a girl in the city, who is a virgin betrothed to another, and he lies with her, ²⁴you shall bring them both to the gate of the city and stone them to death, the girl because she did not cry out, although the city was all about her, and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. You shall purge such evil from among you. ²⁵But if the man comes upon the betrothed girl in the open field and seizes her to lie with her, then the man alone shall die. ²⁶You must do nothing to the girl, for there is no sin in her to deserve death; for it is as when a man attacks his neighbor and murders him; ²⁷the man found her in the open country; the betrothed girl cried out for help, but there was no one to hear her. ²⁸If, however, a man comes upon a girl who is a virgin and not betrothed and lays hold upon her and lies with her and they are discovered, ²⁹then the man must pay her father fifty silver dollars, and she shall become his wife, because he has dishonored her, and he shall not divorce her all his days.

³⁰"A man shall not marry his father's wife^v nor lie with her; she belongs to his father.

23 "NO ONE WHOSE TESTICLES HAVE been crushed or his male organ severed shall enter the LORD's congregation; ²neither may a bastard enter the LORD's congregation to his tenth generation.^w ³No Ammonite or Moabite^x shall enter the congregation of the LORD down to the tenth generation; ⁴because they did not meet you with bread and water on your way from

s) The flat roof was a preferred part of the house. In the summer the people lived and slept on the roof; a parapet was needed for protection. t) Man should use them as God made them. Isa. 28:25,26. u) Tassels served to remind them that they were the people of God and must keep His commandments, Num. 15:38,39. v) Not his mother.

w) Israel's religious attitudes and observances were never part-religious and part-secular. Such mutilations were probably associated with pagan practices; bodily mutilations self-induced, were abhorrent to the LORD, 14:1.

x) Throughout history there was hostility between these two nations and Israel.

Egypt, and because they hired Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor in Mesopotamia, to curse you. ⁵However, the LORD your God did not listen to Balaam,⁷ and the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing, because the LORD your God loved you. ⁶Never in all your days may you seek their peace or prosperity. ⁷The Edomite you must not detest; for he is your brother;² nor should you abhor the Egyptian, for you were once an immigrant in his country. ⁸Their children of the third generation may enter the assembly of the LORD.

⁹"When you are in camp in time of war, you must guard against every evil thing. ¹⁰If anyone becomes unclean through an emission in the night, let him go outside the camp and not come back all day, ¹¹but let him wash and return to camp at sundown.

¹²"You shall set off a place outside the camp ¹³and, when you go out to use it, you must carry a spade among your gear and dig a hole, have easement, and turn to cover the excrement. ¹⁴For the LORD your God walks among you to deliver you, to give you the victory, and your entire camp must be dedicated, so that He may see nothing indecent anywhere, so as to withdraw from you.

¹⁵"When a slave escapes from his master and takes refuge with you,^a you must not hand him back to his master. ¹⁶Let him remain among you anywhere he may choose, and you must not mistreat him.

¹⁷"No daughter in Israel, nor any son, may become a temple prostitute;^b ¹⁸nor may you bring into the house of the LORD your God the hire of a harlot or the earnings of a dog,^c for the payment of any vow; for both are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

¹⁹"You must charge no interest on a loan made to your brother, no interest on money, food, or anything on which interest might be charged. ²⁰On a loan to a foreigner, you may charge interest, but not from your brother. Charge no interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your enterprises in the land of which you are taking possession.

²¹"When you make a vow to the LORD, you shall pay it without delay; for the LORD your God will require it, and to be slow in paying it would be your sin. ²²However, if you refrain from making a vow, that is no sin. ²³Perform any solemn word your lips have spoken; keep the promise you have made to the LORD your God of your own free will and which you have personally expressed.

²⁴"When you enter the vineyard of your neighbor, you may eat all the grapes you want, but you must not put any in your vessel. ²⁵As you walk through your neighbor's grainfield, you may pluck the heads of grain in your hand, but you must not thrust a sickle into the standing grain of your neighbor.

24 "WHEN A MAN HAS MARRIED A wife and comes to dislike her, having found something improper in her, and he writes her a bill of divorce and, putting it in her hand, ²sends her from his house, and she goes off and becomes the wife of another, ³and her second husband, likewise comes to hate her and also gives her a bill of divorce and sends her away, or if the second husband dies, ⁴in such case, the man who first divorced her, may not take her again to be his wife, for she has been defiled;^d such practice is abhorrent to the LORD, and you must not bring such guilt upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you for your heritage.

⁵"When a man has just taken a wife, he shall not go out with the army to war, nor shall any active service be required of him; he shall be free at home one year to enjoy happiness with the wife he has chosen.

⁶"No person shall take a hand mill, y) For the story of Balaam see Num. 22,23,24. z) Edom's ancestor was Esau.

a) In this case the slave of a foreigner.

b) This immorality was common at pagan shrines; nor was Israel always guiltless, Amos 2:7,8.

c) The term "dog" was used of the male prostitute or catamite.

d) This is not a law of divorce; it simply defines a specific situation. Divorce was very common in Israel, as in the rest of the Semitic world. A man could divorce his wife on the slightest grounds; but a woman could not divorce her husband. Deuteronomy law seeks to limit divorce and prevent its abuse.

or the upper millstone in pledge for a debt, for it involves taking life itself in pledge.

⁷"If anyone is caught kidnapping a brother in Israel and lording it over him or selling him, that thief shall die; you shall remove such evil from among you.

⁸"In an attack of leprosy, be exceedingly concerned to do exactly as the Levitical priests instruct you to do, following the orders I have given them. ⁹Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on your way out from Egypt.^e ¹⁰"When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, do not enter his house to carry off his pledge;^f ¹¹you shall stand outdoors until the man to whom you made the loan can bring his pledge to you. ¹²If he is a poor man, do not sleep in what he gives you for security; ¹³you must return it to him by sundown so that he may sleep in his own coat. He will bless you, and it will be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.

¹⁴"Do not deal harshly with your hired man who is needy and poor, whether one of your brothers, or one of the immigrants in your community; ¹⁵pay him his daily wages before sundown, for he is in need, and his heart is set on it; lest he cry out to the LORD against you, and it become sin in you.

¹⁶"Fathers shall not be put to death for their sons, nor sons for their fathers; each shall be executed for his own crime.^g ¹⁷"Do not violate the rights of the immigrant or of the orphan, nor take a widow's dress in pledge. ¹⁸Remember that you were a slave in Egypt and that the LORD your God redeemed you; wherefore, I am laying this command upon you.

¹⁹"When you bring in your harvest and forget a sheaf in the field, do not go back for it; leave it for the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow, that the LORD your God may bless you in all your activities. ²⁰When you beat your olive trees, do not go over the branches a second time; leave what is still on the trees for the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow. ²¹When you pick grapes from your vineyard, do not get the gleanings later, for they go to the immigrant, the fatherless, and the widow. ²²Remember that you were slaves in Egypt; wherefore I am laying the command upon you to do this.

25 "WHEN A DISPUTE ARISES BETWEEN men and they take their case to court to obtain judicial decision, the judge may acquit the innocent and condemn the guilty. ²If the judge finds the guilty one deserving of stripes, he shall order him to lie down in his presence to receive the number of stripes he deserves. ³The number may be as high as 40, but no more, lest too many stripes are administered and a brother suffers gross public humiliation.^h e) Num. 12:1-16.

⁴"You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain.ⁱ

⁵"When brothers are living together and one of them dies without leaving a son, his widow must not go outside the family and marry a stranger; her husband's brother shall go in to her and shall take her to be his wife and perform the duties of a husband's brother to her. ⁶The first son born of this union shall carry the deceased brother's name, so that his line may not be blotted out from Israel.^j ⁷But if the man declines to take his brother's wife, then she shall carry her case to the elders in the gate and testify, 'My husband's brother refuses to perpetuate his

f) The pledge was something given as surety for a loan, a garment, a utensil, anything the creditor would accept. The poor could offer little choice, sometimes all a man had was the mantle or robe he slept in.

g) In earlier times the moral unit was the community or family. Many children died for the crimes of their fathers. In Israel the idea of individual responsibility for crime was taught, see also Jer. 31:29,30 and Ezek. 18:3,4.

h) This law is peculiar to Deuteronomy and reflects the general attitude of the book — the punishment to come only after trial, and in accord with sentence pronounced. Later, stripes were limited to forty less one to eliminate abuse.

i) The unmuzzled ox will go slower while feeding, but he is earning his living.

j) This law is found in Deuteronomy only, but the practice was widespread in ancient times, see Gen. 38. So that his family may not die out, and a man shall perform this duty to his deceased brother, come what may of his own rights.

brother's name in Israel and to perform the duty of a husband's brother.' ⁸The elders of his city shall then summon him and counsel with him, and if he persists in declining to marry his sister-in-law, saying, 'It is not my desire to take her,' ⁹then in the presence of the elders, his brother's wife shall go up to him, loosen his sandal from his foot, spit in his face, and give answer to him in these words, 'So shall it be done to the man who refuses to build up his brother's house.' ¹⁰And his name shall be known in Israel as 'the family of the unshod.'

¹¹"When two men are fighting and the wife of one of them rushes in to save her husband from the one who is beating him and she reaches out and seizes his assailant by the private parts, ¹²then you shall cut off her hand without compassion for her.

¹³"Do not carry about weights of different sizes, one large and one small; ¹⁴nor may you keep about the house two different measures, a large bushel and a small bushel. ¹⁵A full and just weight and a full and just measure they must be, so that you may enjoy long life in the land which the LORD your God gives you. ¹⁶For every one practicing unfairness is abominable to the LORD your God.

¹⁷"Remember what Amalek did to you when you came on your way out of Egypt, ¹⁸how without awe for God, he came against you on your journey, when you were weary and exhausted, and he cut off all who lagged behind. ¹⁹Therefore it shall be when the LORD your God has granted you rest from all your enemies in the land He gives you as your heritage, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven; you must not forget.

26 "WHEN YOU ENTER THE LAND which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and you take possession of it, making it your home, ²then select some of the first of all the fruits of the soil, what you harvest from the land which the LORD your God gives you; put them in a basket, and carry them up to the place the LORD your God will be selecting as the dwelling place of His name. ³When you reach the priest, who shall be serving at the time, you shall say: 'I here declare to the LORD my God that I have now entered the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.' ⁴The priest shall take the basket from your hand and set it before the altar of the LORD.¹

⁵"When he has done so, you shall bear witness before the LORD your God, giving this testimony, 'A wandering Aramean^m was my father. He went down into Egypt, few in number, and there he resided as an immigrant, but he became there a great, a powerful and populous nation. ⁶When the Egyptians treated us harshly, oppressing us and subjecting us to heavy bondage, ⁷we cried out to the LORD the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our cry, saw our affliction, our toil and our oppression; ⁸so the LORD brought us out from Egypt with a mighty hand, an outstretched arm, an awe-inspiring terror with signs and wonders. ⁹He conducted us to this place and gave us this land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰Now behold, I have brought the first of the fruits of the ground which Thou LORD hast bestowed upon me.' Set the basket down before the LORD your God, ¹¹bow in worship before the LORD your God, and rejoice because of all the goodness which the LORD your God has heaped upon you and your house, together with the Levite and the alien among you.

¹²"When you have finished setting apart all the tithes of your harvest in the third year, the year of tithing, and have distributed them to the Levite, the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow among you, and they have partaken of them in your towns and have enough, ¹³then you shall say before the LORD

k) Ruth 4 shows this rule practiced.

l) This chapter's three sections provide a fitting climax to the great Lawbook of Deut. 5-26. Vss. 5-11 are words of adoration and acts of thanksgiving; vss. 12-15 mean heartfelt benevolence with prayer for divine benediction; vss. 16-19 affirm the worshiper's covenant with God.

m) Or Syrian, Syria and Aram being the same country.

your God,ⁿ 'I have removed from my house the consecrated portion and have given it to the Levite, the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow, as Thou didst command me. I have transgressed none of the orders Thou hast laid upon me, nor have I forgotten them.^o ¹⁴I have not eaten of it while in mourning; I have not removed any of it while unclean, nor have I offered any for the dead; I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have behaved according to all that Thou hast enjoined upon me.^p ¹⁶Look down, O LORD, from Thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Thy people Israel and the ground Thou hast given us, a land flowing with milk and honey which Thou didst promise on oath to our fathers.'

¹⁶"This day the LORD your God commands you to observe His statutes and ordinances; so observe them with all your heart and with all your soul. ¹⁷Today you have openly accepted the word of the LORD, that He is your God and that you will walk in His ways, heed His statutes, His commandments, His ordinances, and listen to His voice. ¹⁸Today the LORD's agreement with you is that you will be His own people, as He promised and, that you shall keep all His commandments, ¹⁹then He will place you in praise, in renown, in honor, high above all the nations He has created, a people holy to the LORD your God, as He has spoken."^q

27 MOSES, WITH THE ELDERS^r OF Israel, laid this charge upon the people, "Keep all the commandments which I am today enjoining upon you. ²On the day you cross the Jordan into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, erect for you large stones, plaster them with plaster, ³and inscribe on them all the words of this Law after your crossing over, so you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD the God of your fathers promised you. ⁴When you have crossed the Jordan, you shall set up these stones as I order you to do, on Mount Ebal, and coat them with plaster. ⁵Moreover, you shall build there an altar^s to the LORD your God, an altar of stones which no iron has touched. ⁶You must build the altar of the LORD your God of undressed stones, and on it you shall offer burnt offerings to the LORD your God; ⁷you shall sacrifice peace offerings and there you shall eat and rejoice in the presence of the LORD your God. ⁸You shall write very distinctly on the stones all the words of this Law."

⁹Then Moses with the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, "Be still, Israel, and listen! This day you have become the people of the LORD your God. ¹⁰You shall obey the voice of the LORD your God and observe His commandments and His statutes which I am now enjoining upon you."

¹¹Moreover, Moses laid this charge upon the people that same day, ¹²"When you have crossed the Jordan, these (tribes) shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. ¹³And these shall stand upon Mount Ebal for the curse, Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.^t ¹⁴And the Levites shall make this proclamation to all the men of Israel in a loud voice:

¹⁵"Cursed^u be the man who makes a carved or a molten image, an abhor-

n) The recital to take place at the central sanctuary.

o) For two years the annual tithe was to be taken to the central sanctuary, there in the presence of the LORD to be enjoyed by the family, and the Levite of their community. In the third year the tithe was stored for distribution to the poor.

p) When the tithe for the poor is set apart, it becomes holy and must not be used for common purposes. q) The Law has now been given in its completeness; Israel's responsibility of keeping it is her covenant with God.

r) Upon 70 of them the Spirit had come, so they might share with Moses the guidance of the people.

s) All pagan altars, which included all Canaanite altars, must be destroyed. This altar seems to have been used for this occasion only; but it stood for a historic event, the taking of the land, as workers together with God.

t) Four sons of Leah and Rachel's two sons are represented on the mount of blessing. The four sons of the two concubines stand on the mount of cursing with Reuben, who had forfeited the blessings, and for some reason, Zebulun.

u) Very appropriately the curses are spoken first as warnings; then the blessings for the true worshippers of God.

rence to the LORD, the handiwork of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret!' And all the people shall respond, 'Amen!'

¹⁶"'Cursed be he who despises his father or his mother!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

¹⁷"'Cursed be he who removes his neighbor's landmark!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

¹⁸"'Cursed be he who misleads a blind man on the road!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

¹⁹"'Cursed be he who perverts the justice due an alien, an orphan, or a widow!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

²⁰"'Cursed be he who lies with his father's wife, because he uncovers her who belongs to his father!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

²¹"'Cursed be he who lies with any kind of animal!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

²²"'Cursed be he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

²³"'Cursed be he who lies with his mother-in-law!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

²⁴"'Cursed be he who secretly slays his neighbor!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

²⁵"'Cursed be he who accepts a bribe to murder an innocent person!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

²⁶"'Cursed be he who does not confirm the words of this Law by doing them!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'^v

28"IT SHALL BE, IF YOU WILL LISTEN carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and seek fully to carry out all His commandments which I enjoin upon you today, then the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. ²All these blessings will overtake you and rest upon you — if you obey the voice of the LORD your God:^w

³"Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.

⁴"Blessed shall be the fruit of your body and the fruit of your soil, the fruit also of your livestock, the increase of your herds, and the young of your flocks.

⁵"Blessed shall be your baskets and your kneading trough.

⁶"Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

⁷"The LORD will surrender your enemies who rise up against you to be smitten before you; one way they shall come out against you, and seven ways they shall flee before you. ⁸The LORD will command His benediction upon you in your barns, and in every activity of your hands; thus He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you. ⁹The LORD will establish you as a people dedicated to Himself, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. ¹⁰Then all the nations of the earth will see that you are called by the LORD's name, that you are His people, and they will stand in awe of you. ¹¹The LORD will grant you an abundance of good things, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your cattle, and in the produce of your soil, in the land which He has sworn to give you. ¹²The LORD will open for you His rich treasury, the heavens to give rain upon your soil in its season, blessings to rest on all your enterprises. You shall lend to many nations while you yourselves borrow from none. ¹³The LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be moving ever higher up and never lower down when you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am enjoining upon you this day, carefully performing them, ¹⁴never turning to the right or to the left, and

v) These 12 curses apply to personal conduct, rather than to national sins. The warnings are all-inclusive. Every listener is vitally concerned.

w) This chapter concludes the great Law Book, the plea to the nation to be true to God, who has redeemed her, giving her a great land where she may become a nation such as history had not known. Her future will bring showers of blessing, if she is loyal to God. If she is not, all will conspire to defeat her.

never following after other gods to worship them.^x

¹⁶"However, if you do not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, not observing and obeying all His commandments and His statutes with which I am now charging you, then all these curses shall follow you and overtake you: ¹⁶Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field. ¹⁷Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading trough. ¹⁸Cursed shall be the fruit of your body, the produce of your soil, the offspring of your cattle and the young of your flock. ¹⁹Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

²⁰"The LORD will send curses upon you, confusion and failure in every enterprise to which you put your hand, until you are destroyed and perish quickly, because of your evil-doing in which you are forsaking Me.^y ²¹The LORD will make the pestilence cleave to you until He obliterates you from the land, which you are entering to possess it. ²²The LORD will smite you with tuberculosis, with fever, with inflammation, with fiery heat, with drought, with blight and with mildew, and they shall pursue you until you perish. ²³The heavens above your head will be brass and the earth beneath you will be iron. ²⁴For rain the LORD will give your land powder and dust; from heaven above they will descend upon you until you perish.

²⁵"The LORD will cause your defeat before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them, and you shall be a horrible spectacle to all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶Your corpses shall become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there shall be none to frighten them away.

²⁷"The LORD will smite you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors, with scurvy and with incurable itch. ²⁸The LORD will strike you with madness, with blindness, and with confusion.

²⁹You shall be groping at noonday, as a blind man gropes in the dark, and you shall not prosper in your ways. You shall be oppressed and robbed continually with no one to rescue you. ³⁰You shall betroth a wife and another man shall lie with her; you shall build a house and not live in it; you shall plant a vineyard and not use its fruits; ³¹your ox shall be slain before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it; your donkey shall be seized in your presence and taken from you and not be returned; your sheep shall be given to your foes, and no one will help you. ³²Moreover, your sons and your daughters shall be handed over to another people, while you look on, and you will pine after them all the day long, powerless to do anything. ³³The produce of your soil and all that you have worked for shall be consumed by a people you do not know, and you shall be continually oppressed and trampled on. ³⁴You shall be driven mad by the sight of all you observe. ³⁵The LORD will smite you on your knees and on your legs, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head with malignant, incurable sores. ³⁶The LORD will bring you and your king, whom you will set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone, ³⁷and you shall become an object of horror, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples into whose midst the LORD will lead you.

³⁸"You shall carry much seed into the field but gather in little; for locusts will devour it. ³⁹You shall plant vineyards and cultivate them, but you shall neither drink the wine nor preserve it; for worms will devour the grapes. ⁴⁰You shall have olive trees everywhere, but you shall not anoint yourselves with the oil; for your olives will drop from your trees. ⁴¹Sons and daughters shall be born to you, but you will not retain them; for they shall go into captivity. ⁴²All your trees and your crops will be taken over by lo-

x) The blessings and the curses were first announced in ch. 11:26-28, later to be declared in a ritual service, on Mount Gerizim for the blessings, and on Mount Ebal for the curses.

y) Take note of the "Me" here; the words of Moses passing almost unobserved into those of God, as often in the Prophets; see ch. 11:14, 15; 17:3; 29:5.

custs. ⁴³The alien in your midst shall mount above you higher and higher while you go down lower and lower. ⁴⁴He shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he will be the head, and you shall be the tail. ⁴⁵All these curses shall come upon you; they shall pursue you and overtake you, and you shall be destroyed, because you refused to listen to the voice of the LORD your God; you declined to keep His commandments and His statutes which He ordered you. ⁴⁶They shall be upon you and upon your descendants for a sign and a wonder forever.

⁴⁷"Because you have not served the LORD your God with joy and a glad heart for all your rich abundance, ⁴⁸you shall, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and in want of everything, serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, and He will put a yoke of iron upon your neck until He has destroyed you. ⁴⁹The LORD will bring against you a nation from afar, from the ends of the earth, swooping down upon you like a vulture, a nation whose speech you do not understand, ⁵⁰a nation of fierce appearance, which shows neither personal regard for the old nor mercy to the young, ⁵¹which shall eat up the offspring of your cattle and the produce of your soil, and you shall perish; it will leave you nothing, neither grain, nor wine, nor oil, nor the increase of your herd, nor the young of your flock, until it has destroyed you.

⁵²"They will lay siege to all your cities until your high, fortified walls, in which you put your trust, come down all over the land; they will besiege you in every community throughout the land which the LORD your God has given you, ⁵³so that in the siege and distress with which your enemies will plague you, you will be eating the fruit of your own bosom, the flesh of your sons and daughters, whom the LORD your God has given you. ⁵⁴The most refined man among you, the one with the most kindly nature, will turn grudgingly toward his brother, toward the wife of his bosom and toward his remaining children who may be left to him, ⁵⁵so that he will give them nothing of the flesh of his children, which he will be eating; since the enemy has left him nothing at all in the siege, nothing but dire adversity with which your enemy shall plague you in every city. ⁵⁶The woman, too, who is the most tender among you, who is of such delicate nature that she would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because she is so dainty and delicate, such a one will show a grudging attitude toward the husband of her bosom, toward her son and her daughter, ⁵⁷sharing nothing with them, not even the afterbirth from her womb and her own children whom she may bear; these she will eat secretly because of her hunger, having nothing else in the time of siege and distress, wherewith your enemies will oppress you in your communities.

⁵⁸"Indeed, if you are not careful to observe all the requirements of this Law, written in this book, to revere the glorious and awesome name of the LORD your God, ⁵⁹then the LORD will bring on you and on your descendants extraordinary plagues, severe and lasting, and diseases, trying and prolonged. ⁶⁰He will bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt, so dreaded by you, and they will cling to you. ⁶¹Every sickness, too, and every pestilence not mentioned in this book of the Law, the LORD will put upon you until you are destroyed. ⁶²You shall remain few in number, you who were as the stars of heaven for multitude, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God. ⁶³As it was agreeable to the LORD to make you prosper and multiply, so it will be agreeable to the LORD to make you perish, and He will glory in your destruction. You shall be torn away from the land which you are entering to possess. ⁶⁴The LORD will scatter you among all the peoples, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone, whom neither you nor your fathers have known.^z ⁶⁵Among those nations you shall have no ease, nor shall you find a resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you a trembling heart, homesick eyes, and a languishing spirit; ⁶⁶you will sense danger night and day, your life in suspense, having no life security whatever. ⁶⁷In the morning you shall say, 'O that it were evening!' and in the evening you shall say, 'O that it were morning!' because of the dread weariness of soul which you will experience, and the spectacle before your eyes. ⁶⁸The LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt, by the way I said you would never see again, and there you shall allow yourselves to be sold to your enemies as slaves, male and female, but there will be no buyer."

z) For nearly two hundred years the later Prophets kept warning Israel of doom, if she did not turn and follow God's demands for righteousness, and worship Him alone. Doom caught up with the northern kingdom in 722 B.C., and Judah knew from 605 on what it meant to be a conquered people.

29^a SUCH ARE THE TERMS OF THE covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, besides the covenant He had made with them in Horeb. ²So Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "You have seen everything the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and all his court and to his whole kingdom; ³the great tests which your own eyes beheld, the signs and those great wonders; ⁴yet to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear.^b ⁵Through forty years I have led you in the wilderness; your clothes have not worn out upon you, nor have your sandals worn away from your feet.^c ⁶Bread you have not eaten, wine or strong drink you have not drunk, that you may know that I am the LORD your God. ⁷When you came to this place, Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we defeated them; ⁸we seized their land and gave it as their heritage to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh. ⁹Take care, then, to observe the terms of this covenant to do them, that you may prosper in all you undertake.

¹⁰"You stand today, all of you, before the LORD your God; your tribal heads, your elders, and your officers, all the men of Israel, ¹¹your children, your wives, the aliens in your camp, from your woodcutter to your water drawer, ¹²so that you may enter into the oath-sealed covenant of the LORD your God, which He is making with you now ¹³in order that He may establish you today as His people, and that He may be your God, as He promised and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ¹⁴And not with you alone, He affirms, am I making this oath-sealed covenant, ¹⁵but with those also who are not with us here today,^d as well as with those who stand with us today in the presence of the LORD our God.

¹⁶"For you know how we lived in the land of Egypt; you recall the nations through whose territory you passed on your way here; ¹⁷you saw their detestable things, their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, that were among them. ¹⁸Let there not be among you a man or a woman, a family or a tribe, whose heart is even now turning from the LORD our God to go and serve the gods of those peoples. Let there not be among you any root which could produce such poison and wormwood; ¹⁹as when a man, upon hearing the terms of this sworn covenant, congratulates himself in his heart, thinking, 'I am safe, even though I persist in my stubborn way.'^e This would mean destruction of the watered (land) and the dry. ²⁰The LORD will not agree to forgive him, but His anger and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse written in this book will cleave to him; the LORD will blot

a) Ch. 29,30 belong together and constitute the fourth discourse, a supplementary appeal to the nation not to fail now in her significant undertaking to build for herself a new world and a new life under God.

b) This verse breaks into the narrative to say that Israel lacks the spiritual insight to discern the significance of all that the LORD is doing for her.

c) Those completing the desert journey were fully as well clad and as well shod as those who started it 40 years before. What had been worn out had been liberally replaced. d) Future Israelites.

e) The covenant is not magic. Such an idolatrous course, even after entering the covenant, can only bring destruction to land and people. This is Moses' way of showing Israel how impossible it will always be for her to worship any but the LORD God.

out his name from under heaven. ²¹He will set him apart from all the tribes of Israel for evil, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law. ²²Then the next generation, your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, shall say, when they see the plagues of this country and the diseases which the LORD has inflicted upon it — ²³the whole land brimstone and salt, a burning waste, not sown, producing nothing, no vegetation coming up in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, which the LORD overturned in His anger and indignation — ²⁴indeed, all the nations will wonder and say, 'Why has the LORD done so to this land? Why this great, hot anger?' ²⁵And the answer will be, 'Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out from the land of Egypt; ²⁶they went and served other gods and bowed down to them, gods whom they had not known and whom He had not given them. ²⁷The anger of the LORD blazed out against that land, bringing upon it every curse written in the book of the law; ²⁸the LORD plucked them up from off their land in anger, in fury, and in great wrath, and flung them into another land as you see them today.'^f

²⁹The secret things belong to the LORD our God; but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may practice all the words of this law.^g

30 "IT SHALL BE WHEN YOU HAVE experienced all these things, the blessings and the curses which I have laid before you, and you recall them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God shall have driven you, ²and you return to the LORD your God and listen to His voice, according to all that I command you, both you and your children, with your whole heart and your whole soul, ³then the LORD your God will restore your fortune and have compassion on you, gathering you out from among the peoples where the LORD your God shall have scattered you. ⁴Yes, even if you are scattered to the ends of the heavens, the LORD your God will gather you and fetch you from there; ⁵and the LORD your God will bring you back to the land of your fathers so that you shall possess it,^h He will grant you prosperity and make you more numerous than your fathers were. ⁶The LORD your God will circumcise your heartⁱ and the heart of your offspring, and you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you will live. ⁷The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hated and persecuted you. ⁸But you must again obey the voice of the LORD and practice all His commandments which I now lay upon you. ⁹The LORD your God will prosper you abundantly in the work of your hands, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the produce of your soil; for the LORD will again delight in your prosperity, as He took delight in your fathers; ¹⁰if, indeed, you listen to the voice of the LORD your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, when you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

¹¹"For this command which I am enjoining upon you today is not too difficult for you; neither is it far-off. ¹²It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up for us to heaven and bring it down to make us hear it, so

f) Keep in mind that these warnings are given as the people face the Jordan to enter the promised land.
g) They and we must live by what He has taught. In this chapter, Moses adds his own appeal to what had been written in the book of the law. The experiences in Egypt and in the desert are abiding proofs of God's solicitude for His people. Each man's apostasy will bring ruin, not merely on himself, but also on the nation.

h) Israel had her choice, blessings or curses. When she chose the latter she suffered the penalty, which was exile. In the goodness of God, she will be given a second chance.

i) In Hebrew psychology the seat of thought, the intellect, was the heart. A circumcised heart was an open mind, receptive to the Spirit; it would be moved by the touch of God upon it to love Him, Ch. 10:16; Jer. 4:4; Rom. 2:29.

we may do it?' ¹³Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the seas for us and bring it to us to make us hear it, so we may do it?' ¹⁴No, the word is very near you, on your lips and in your heart in order that you may do it.¹

¹⁵"See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, ¹⁶in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and that the LORD your God may bless you in the land which you are about to possess. ¹⁷But if your heart turns away and you do not obey, but are drawn away and worship other gods and serve them, ¹⁸I announce to you now that you shall certainly perish; you shall live only briefly in the land, which after crossing the Jordan, you will make your own. ¹⁹I call heaven and earth to witness against you that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse: Therefore choose life, so that you may live, you and your children, ²⁰to love the LORD your God, to obey His voice, and to cling to Him; for that is your life and your length of days, that you may dwell upon the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

March, 1406 B.C.

31 THEN MOSES WENT AND SPOKE these words to all Israel. ²He said to them, "I am now 120 years old and am no longer able to go out and come in, and the LORD has told me, You are not to cross the Jordan. ³The LORD your God will Himself cross over before you; He will destroy the nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them; Joshua, too, will be crossing before you, as the LORD promised. ⁴The LORD will do to them as He did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their country, when He destroyed them. ⁵The LORD will hand them over to you, and you must dispose of them in agreement with the whole commandment which I have ordered you. ⁶Be strong and courageous; have no fear, nor be at all in dread on their account; for it is the LORD your God who is going with you; He will neither fail you nor forsake you."

⁷Moses then called Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land which the LORD swore to their fathers to give them; and you shall make them inherit it. ⁸The LORD is the One who goes before you, and He will be with you; He will not fail you or forsake you; be not afraid or dismayed."

⁹When Moses had written this law, he gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. ¹⁰He also gave them the command, "At the end of every seven years, in the year of release, at the feast of booths,^k ¹¹when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the sacred place which He shall choose, you must read this law in the hearing of all Israel. ¹²Call the people together, men, women, children, and the foreigner who lives in your community, that they may hear and may learn to revere the LORD your God, and be careful to practice all the words of this law; ¹³likewise that their children, who have not known it, may hear it and learn to revere the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land you will be crossing the Jordan to make your own."

¹⁴The LORD then said to Moses, Behold, the time for your death is approaching; call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him. So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting. ¹⁵In the tent the LORD appeared in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud remained by the door of the tent. ¹⁶The LORD said to Moses, Soon you will be sleeping with your fathers, and this people

j) The way of salvation is the law of God, given for Israel's redemption. It is the simple revelation of God's way for her; now she knows it and must respond to it.

k) The 15th day of the 7th month, Sept.-Oct., a thanksgiving for every harvest, including grapes and olives.

will play the harlot, following the gods of the strangers of the land among whom they are about to come; they will forsake Me, breaking the covenant I made with them. ¹⁷My anger will then blaze out against them; I will turn from them and abandon them; they will be devastated; many calamities and troubles will come upon them. In that day they will cry out and say, "Have not these afflictions come upon us because our God is no longer among us?" ¹⁸But at that time I will withdraw My face from them because of the sins they have committed in turning to other gods. ¹⁹Now, therefore, write this song, and teach it to the Israelites; put it on their lips, that the song may be a witness for Me against the Israelites. ²⁰I shall bring them into the land that flows with milk and honey, which I swore to their fathers to give them; and they will eat, and be filled and grow fat. They will turn to other gods, serve them, despise Me and abandon My covenant. ²¹Then, when all calamities and afflictions have come down on them, this song, a living reminder to their children, shall be a witness for Me against them; for I know the thoughts they are forming, even now before I bring them into the land which I promised on oath. ²²So Moses wrote this song at that time and taught it to the Israelites.

²³And He charged Joshua the son of Nun, saying, Be strong and of great courage; for you shall bring the people of Israel into the land which I swore to give them, and I will personally be with you.

²⁴When Moses had completed the writing of the words of this law in a book to its finish, ²⁵he gave this order to the Levites, the bearers of the ark of the covenant of the LORD ²⁶"Take this book of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against you. ²⁷For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are; indeed, while I am still alive with you, you are defiant toward the LORD, and how much worse it will be after my death! ²⁸Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to bear witness against them. ²⁹For I know that after my death you will deal very corruptly and abandon the way I have enjoined upon you; adversity will befall you in the days to come, when you will do wrong in the sight of the LORD, vexing Him with your handiwork."

³⁰Then Moses spoke the words of this song in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel until they were ended.

32 ¹"GIVE EAR, YE HEAVENS, AND I will speak;

let the earth listen to the words of my lips.

²May my instruction drop as the rain, my speech distill as the dew, as dew upon the young grass and showers upon the green herbs.

³For the name of the LORD I will proclaim.

Praise our God for His greatness!

⁴The Rock,^m how perfect are His works, for all His ways are just!

A God, faithful and true, fair and righteous is He!

⁵His unregenerate offspring have dealt corruptly toward Him, a twisted and crooked race.

⁶Is this your repayment to the LORD, you foolish and wisdom-lacking folk? Is He not your Father, who formed you, who created and established you?

⁷Think back on the days of old; reckon the years, generation after generation.

Ask your father that he may show you, your elders that they may tell you.

⁸When the Most High gave the nations their heritage, when He separated the sons of men, He set the boundaries of the peoples in accord with the number of the sons of Israel.

1) The entire chapter reflects Israel's genius for exalted expression in poetry.

m) The word Rock is a frequent title for God; see II Sam. 23:3, Is. 17:10, Ps. 31:3.

⁹For the portion of the LORD is His people, Jacob His allotted heritage.

¹⁰He found them in a desert land, in a howling waste of wilderness;
He encircled them and tended them
with care,

He guarded them as the apple of His eye.

¹¹As an eagle stirs up its nest, hovering over its young, spreading its wings to catch them and bearing them on its pinions,ⁿ ¹²so the LORD alone was guide to them, and no strange god was with Him.

¹³He made them ride upon the earth's high places

and they ate the fruits of the fields.

He let them suck honey from the crags and oil from flinty rocks;

¹⁴curds from the herd and milk from the flock,

rams of Bashan, too, and he-goats,
with the finest of the wheat, and you drank the foaming blood of grapes.

¹⁵Then Jeshurun grew fat and kicked,^o
— yes, you grew fat, became plump and sleek!

Then he rejected God who made him and treated with scorn the Rock of his salvation.

¹⁶They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods;

they angered Him with abominations.

¹⁷They sacrificed to demons, the no-Gods, gods who were altogether strange to
them,

new comers, lately arrived were they,
before whom your fathers had never stood in awe.

¹⁸You were unmindful of the Rock who begot you, and you forgot the God who gave you being.

¹⁹When the LORD saw it, He spurned
them,
provoked by His sons and daughters.

²⁰I will hide My face from them,
He said,

and see what their end will be;
for a perverse generation are they,
children who know nothing of loyalty.

²¹They have provoked Me to jealousy with their false gods, vexed Me with their worthlessnesses.

So I, I will stir them to jealousy with a worthless people^p and provoke them with a foolish nation.

²²For by My wrath a fire is kindled, and it blazes to the depths of the underworld;

it consumes the earth and its produce, scorching the bases of the hills.

²³I will heap calamities upon them and shoot all My arrows against them.

²⁴Wasted by famine, they shall be devoured
by burning fever and deadly pestilence.

The teeth of wild beasts I will set free against them, with the venom of creatures that crawl in the dust.

²⁵Outdoors, the sword shall bereave
them,
indoors it will be terror
for both the young man and the maid, for the babe at the breast and for the graybeard.

²⁶I might have said, I will blow them away;

I will make the memory of them to cease among mortals,

²⁷had I not suspected the taunt of the foe,

if their adversaries misconstrue it, declaring, "It was our hand that triumphed, and not the LORD who has done
all this."

²⁸For they are a nation of unsound mind,

and insight has passed them by.

²⁹If they had wisdom, they would understand this and see to discern their end.^q

³⁰How could one chase a thousand and two put ten thousand to flight

n) Moses as shepherd had watched the training of eaglets, thrust out of their nest, hurled from the sheer rock; then the mother swooping down as they struggled, bearing them up, letting them go again, to catch them; so repeatedly. So God trained Israel — and still trains us.

o) Jeshurun is a name used for Israel, with the root meaning upright — so, the upright one — but here used sarcastically.

p) A people that worships false gods.

q) Wisdom in the O.T. is spiritual insight, a man of unsound mind is a man who lacks such wisdom.

were it not that their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had delivered them up?^r

³¹For their rock is not our Rock, our foes themselves so concluding.

³²For their vine comes from the vine of Sodom^s it derives from the vineyards of Gomorrhah;

their grapes are grapes of poison,
their clusters, too, are bitter.

³³The venom of serpents is their wine, the pitiless poison of cobras.

³⁴Is it not laid up in store with Me, sealed off in My storehouse?

³⁵Mine is the vengeance and the retribution against the time when their foot shall slip.

For the day of their disaster is at hand, and their hour of doom hastens on apace.

³⁶For the LORD will vindicate His people and for His servants He will show compassion,

when He sees that their strength is gone and that both bond and free are no more.

³⁷Then He will say, Where now are their gods,
the rock in which they sought refuge,

³⁸who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings?

Let them arise to your help,
and let them be a shelter over you.

³⁹See now that it is I; I am He,
and there is no God beside Me;

I put to death, and I bring to life,
I crush, and I heal, and from My hand there is none to deliver.

⁴⁰For I lift up My hand to heaven, and swear that, as I live forever,

⁴¹I will whet My flaming sword;
My hand shall lay hold on judgment;

I will wreak vengeance on My foes and repay those who hate Me.

⁴²I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh with the blood of the slain and the captives,

from the long-haired heads of the foe.

⁴³Praise His people, O ye nations; for the blood of His servants He will avenge, inflicting retribution on His adversaries and granting mercy to His land,

His people."

⁴⁴Then Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. ⁴⁵And when Moses had finished reciting all these words to all Israel, ⁴⁶he said to them, "You must take to heart all these words wherewith I admonish you today, so that you may enjoin upon your children carefully to live up to all the words of this law.
⁴⁷For this is not a meaningless word for you; it is your life, and by this word you shall lengthen your days in the land which upon crossing the Jordan you will take in possession."

⁴⁸The LORD also said to Moses that day, ⁴⁹Ascend now this mountain of the Abarim,^t Mount Nebo, in the land of Moab, opposite Jericho, and look out over the land of Canaan, the land I am giving the children of Israel for their possession. ⁵⁰You are to die on the mountain which you ascend and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people; ⁵¹because you broke faith with Me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; for you did not revere Me among the people of Israel. ⁵²You may see the land lying before you, but you shall not enter it, the land I am giving to the people of Israel.

33 THIS THE BLESSING^u WHICH Moses, the man of God, pro-

r) So it was not the foe, but Israel's own God, who defeated them. The LORD is storing up all the evils for use against Israel.

s) The pleasures which the foes enjoy are like those of Sodom and Gomorrhah.

t) The mountain range east of the Jordan of which Mount Nebo is a peak.

u) This is one of three examples of Hebrew poetry that provide a remarkable picture of the tribes of Israel in times of vast historic and religious significance. The others are: the Song of Deborah, Judges 5, and the blessing of Jacob, Gen. 49.

nounced upon the people of Israel before his death. ²He said: "The LORD came from Sinai and dawned upon us from Seir; He shone forth out of Mount Paran from the midst of ten thousands of saints, with flames of fire at His right hand."^v ³Yes, He loves His people, and all His saints are in Thy hand. They followed in Thy steps; they accepted Thy word.

⁴"Moses commanded a law for us, a possession for the congregation of Jacob. ⁵The LORD became King in Jeshurun when the heads of the people were assembled, the tribes of Israel together.

⁶"Let Reuben live and not die out; but let his men be countable. ⁷And this regarding Judah: "Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people; let his hands suffice him: give him help against his foes."

⁸Then he said of Levi, "Grant Thy Thummim and Thy Urim" to the godly one, to Levi, whom Thou didst test at Massah, contending with him at the waters of Meribah; ⁹who said of his father and his mother 'I do not regard them'; his brothers, too, he disavowed and ignored, as well as his children. For he observes Thy word and keeps Thy covenant.^x ¹⁰He teaches Thy judgments to Jacob and Thy laws to Israel. He brings the savor of sacrifice to Thy nostrils and whole burnt offerings to Thy altar. ¹¹Bless, O LORD, his might, and accept the work of his hands. Smite the loins of those that rise against him and of those who hate him, that they appear no more."

¹²Of Benjamin he said, "He is the beloved of the LORD" and dwells beside Him securely. The LORD encircles him perpetually and makes His dwelling place between his shoulders."^z

¹³Of Joseph he said, "Blessed of the LORD be his land with the choicest gifts of heaven and from the deep that couches beneath; ¹⁴with the lavish fruits of the sun and the rich yield of the moon. ¹⁵Choice produce let there be on the ancient mountains and abundance on the everlasting hills, ¹⁶with all the gifts of the earth and its fullness, and the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush.^a Let this come on the head of Joseph, upon the crown of this prince among his brothers. ¹⁷May his firstling bullock show splendor, with horns that match those of the wild ox; with them let him thrust the peoples to the ends of the earth. Such are the myriads of Ephraim; such, too, are the thousands of Manasseh."^b

¹⁸Of Zebulun he said, "Rejoice, Zebulun, when you go abroad,^c and you, Issachar, in your tents at home. ¹⁹They invite peoples to their mountain, and there they offer sacrifices of righteousness; for they draw abundance from the seas and hidden treasures from the sands."^d

²⁰Of Gad he said, "Blessed be He who enlarges Gad!^e Like a lion he lurks and tears an arm as well as the skull. ²¹He provided the best for himself, for that was the commander's portion; he went with the chiefs of the nation and did the righteous will of the LORD; he executed His judgments for Israel."

²²Of Dan he said, "Dan is a lion's whelp that makes his leap from Bashan."²³And of Naphtali he said, "Naphtali, abounding in favor and filled with the blessing of the LORD, possess the lake and the South!"

²⁴And this regarding Asher, "Blessed among the sons be Asher; may he be the favored of his brothers and be dip-

^v) Verses 1-5 present the view of the Song of Deborah, that Israel learned to know God at Sinai. ^w) In the high priest's possession, used in finding God's will. The Levites were highly regarded as the ministers of the LORD, serving Him in every way prescribed for them. To them goes the superlative blessing.

^x) Meaning the Levite. ^y) Here Benjamin receives encouraging mention.

^z) In the land of Benjamin, the temple was located. ^a) See Ex. 3:2-4.

^b) Ephraim and Manasseh were the chief tribes of the northern kingdom, and Joshua was an Ephraimite.

^c) Zebulun growing wealthy through trade with peoples on the Mediterranean, see Gen. 49:13, and Issachar may have shared some of it.

^d) Treasures from the sand may refer to sand used in making glass.

^e) Gad was strong in war and gave great help to the other tribes in the conquest of Canaan, receiving God's blessing in return.

ping his foot in oil.^f ²⁶May your bolts be iron and bronze, and your strength be equal to your days.^g

²⁶"There is none like the God of Jeshurun,^h who rides along the heavens to your help in His majesty upon the clouds.ⁱ ²⁷The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms. It was He who drove out the enemy from before you, as He said to you, Destroy! ²⁸So Israel dwelt securely, the fountain of Jacob secluded, in a land of grain and wine, while his heaven drops dew. ²⁹Blessing is yours, O Israel! Who is like you, a people redeemed by the LORD, the shield of your help, the sword of your exaltation! Cringing, your enemies shall come to you, and you shall trample on their high places."

34 AND MOSES WENT UP FROM THE plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the LORD showed him the whole country, Gilead as far as Dan, ²all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, the whole area of Judah as far as the Western Sea, ³including the Negeb,^j the circuit of the Jordan with the plain of Jericho the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.^k ⁴Then the LORD said to him, This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, I will give it to your descendants. I have given you this view of it, but you shall not go over there.

⁵Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab in agreement with the LORD's word. ⁶And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth-peor, and to this day no man knows the location of his grave. ⁷When he died, Moses was 120 years old; his eye was not dimmed, nor had his vigor abated. ⁸The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, which completed the period of weeping in the mourning for Moses.

⁹Now Joshua, the son of Nun, was filled with the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands on him. Therefore the people listened to him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses. ¹⁰Not again has a prophet arisen in Israel equal to Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face.^l ¹¹None equaled him for all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, his whole court, and all his land, ¹²and for the mighty power and the great terror which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.

f) Asher would have abundance of olive oil in Galilee, where olives were plentiful.

g) These blessings and those of Jacob, Gen. 49:3-27, were considered in the distribution of the land among the tribes.

h) Jeshurun — Righteous one. It is an endearing term applied to Israel as a people; but used sarcastically, ch. 32:15.

i) Striking poetic expressions picturing a period of peace, prosperity and bliss in Israel, because Israel's God is great, and her faith in Him has made her great.

j) Negeb is the common Hebrew term for the south, around Beer-sheba; the name is still in use today. k) Mt. Nebo afforded a magnificent view of the land which was the object of Moses' ministries. And he did have a visit in the Promised Land with Christ at His transfiguration.

l) Moses the great, unique at birth, unique in religious history, unique in the law, unique in death, trained Joshua to take his place, so that Moses might become dispensable. So did Jesus train His disciples against His ascension. So should all useful persons train others to take their place. Success without a successor is failure.

THE BOOK OF

JOSHUA

1406 B. C.

1 NOW AFTER THE DEATH OF MOSES the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua^a son of Nun, the assistant of Moses: ²Moses My servant has died;^b so now arise, pass over this Jordan,^c you and this whole nation of Israel, to the land which I give them. ³Every place on which the sole of your foot shall tread I have given you, as I said to Moses.^d ⁴Your territory will be from the desert^e and yonder Lebanon^f as far as the great river, the river Euphrates,^g including all the land of the Hittites^h even to the great western sea.ⁱ ⁵None will hold out before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, I shall be with you. I will never fail you, and I will not forsake you. ⁶Be resolute and strong; for you will enable this people to inherit the land which I vowed^j to their fathers to give them. ⁷Only be very resolute and strong,^k to keep practicing the whole Law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not depart from it to the right or to the left, so that you may prosper everywhere you go. ⁸This book of the Law must never depart from your mouth; you must meditate on it day and night, so that you may keep living in accord with all that is written in it; for then you will make your way successful, and then you will prosper. ⁹Have I not commanded you? Be resolute and strong! Be not afraid, and be not dismayed; for the LORD your God is with you everywhere you go.

¹⁰Then Joshua ordered the officers of the people, ¹¹"Pass through the midst of the camp, and thus command the people, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, because within three^l days you will be crossing this Jordan to enter and possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you for your own.'"

¹²To the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua said, ¹³"Remember the proposal^m with which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, 'The LORD your God is settling you here. He is giving you this land.' ¹⁴Your women folk, your children, and your possessions may stay in the land, which Moses has given you on the other side of the Jordan;" but you must go over before your kinsmen, armed, with all your valiant men; and you must help them ¹⁵until

a) Joshua means the same as Jesus — Jehovah is salvation. b) The priesthood was hereditary, but the leadership of Israel was an earned office [Num. 27:15-23].

c) Descender—a swift river running from the slopes of Mt. Hermon through Lake Galilee to the Dead Sea, 1300 feet below sea level. d) They must work together with God (Deut. 11:24).

e) The Desert of Sin at the southeastern end of Canaan.

f) A mountain range forming the northern boundary of Canaan.

g) Israel's dominion did not extend to the Euphrates until the reign of David and Solomon.

h) One of the seven peoples who occupied Canaan. i) The Mediterranean. j) Gen. 15:17, 18.

k) The LORD had promised to give them this land, but they must show courage to face hardship and war and must steadfastly obey His Law. l) When the spies returned to camp after three days' hiding, the Israelites moved from Acacia to the Jordan, where they remained for three days.

m) Num. 32:20-27.

n) On the other side of the Jordan from the later viewpoint of Palestine, therefore Transjordan. There those unable to fight would enjoy safety and the produce of conquered lands.

the LORD gives them rest such as you have and they also have possession of the land which the LORD your God gives to them. Then you may return to the land which you possess, and you may occupy what Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan eastward."

¹⁶They replied to Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we shall do, and everywhere you send us we shall go. ¹⁷As we have obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses. ¹⁸Everyone who rebels against your authority and does not obey your decrees in all that you command him will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

1406 B.C.

2 THEN JOSHUA THE SON OF NUN sent two men from Acacia^o secretly to spy. "Go," he said, "survey the land, and Jericho^p in particular." So they went, and coming to the house of the harlot whose name was Rahab, they stayed there. ²But it was reported to the king^r of Jericho, "Men have come here this night from the Israelites to spy out the land." ³Then the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, "Bring out the men who came to you into your house, because they have come to spy out the whole land." ⁴Now the woman had taken the two men to hide them. "Yes, the men did come to me," she replied, "but I did not know where they came from. ⁵However, at dusk, when the gate was to be closed, they went away. I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, so you may catch up with them." ⁶She had taken them^s up to the roof and had hidden them in the flax stalks,^t which she had laid out there. ⁷Meanwhile the men pursued them along the Jordan road as far as the fords; and they closed the gate as soon as the pursuers went out after them.

⁸Before they fell asleep, she went up to them on the roof ⁹and said to them, "I know that the LORD has given you this country, that the fear of you has come upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt with terror because of you. ¹⁰For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea^u when you came out of Egypt and also what you did to the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you destroyed." ¹¹We heard it, and our courage melted away; no one is confident against you any longer, because the LORD your God is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath. ¹²So now, please swear to me by the LORD that, as I have treated you kindly, you too will show kindness to my father's house. Besides, give me a pledge of your good faith that ¹³you will spare my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all that belong to them and save us from death."

¹⁴Then the men said to her, "If you do not expose our mission, we shall treat you kindly and faithfully when the LORD gives the land to us; or may we die in your place."

¹⁵She then let them down through the window with a rope; for her house was on the side of the wall, so that she actually lived on the wall. ¹⁶She said to them, "Go into the mountains, or your pursuers will apprehend you. Remain there for three days until your pursuers return; then you may go your way."

¹⁷The men said to her, "We may be released from this oath that you made us swear ¹⁸unless, when we come into the land, you tie this piece of scarlet cord in the window by which you let us down and assemble your mother, father, brothers, and all your relatives at your house." ¹⁹Should anyone go out through the doors of your house into the street, his blood is on his own

o) Acacia trees. p) City of the moon, or fragrant place; Jericho was situated in a fertile plain.

r) The numerous kings mentioned in the Book of Joshua were local chiefs, each a vassal of one of the larger rulers. s) The spies. t) Three- or four-foot lengths of uncured flax.

u) This had occurred forty years earlier, but the report of it had been widely circulated and had left a deep impression. v) Numbers 21:21-35.

w) The blood-red cord meant life for all believers; none who joined Rahab perished in the destruction of Jericho. To some of us this is a symbol of the redemptive blood of our Saviour.

head, and we are innocent; but with regard to anyone who is with you in the house, his blood is on our head if a hand is raised against him. ²⁰But if you expose this mission of ours, we shall be released from the oath which you made us swear."

²¹"Let it be according to your terms," she replied. After she dismissed them, they left; and she fastened the scarlet cord in the window.

²²They went out and came to the mountains where they stayed for three days until their pursuers returned. Their pursuers had hunted them all along the road, but they did not discover them; so the two men started back. ²³They^x came down from the mountains and, after they crossed over, they came to Joshua son of Nun and reported all their findings to him. ²⁴They announced to Joshua, "The LORD has put the whole land in our hands, and all its inhabitants are faint-hearted before us."

1406 B. C.

3 EARLY IN THE MORNING JOSHUA got up, he and all the Israelites, and marched from Acacia to the Jordan, where they encamped before they made the crossing. ²After three days the officers passed through the camp ³and ordered the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God with the Levite priests bearing it, leave your places and follow it; ⁴so that you may know the way to go, because you have never walked this path before. But keep a distance of three thousand feet between it and yourselves; do not get nearer to it."^y

⁵Then Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves,^z because tomorrow the LORD will do marvelous things in your presence." ⁶To the priests Joshua said, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and go on ahead of the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went on ahead of the people.

⁷The LORD said to Joshua: Today I shall begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so that they may know that, as I was with Moses, I shall be with you.^a ⁸Give orders to the priests who take up the ark of the covenant, "When you come to the water at the edge of the Jordan, stand still there!"

⁹So Joshua said to the Israelites, "Come near and hear the words of the LORD your God." ¹⁰Joshua further said, "By this you shall know that the living God is among you and that He will assuredly expel for you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite. ¹¹Behold! The ark of the covenant of the LORD of the whole earth is going before you into the Jordan. ¹²Choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each tribe.^b ¹³When the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, who is LORD of the whole earth, come to rest in the water of the Jordan, the water of the Jordan will be cut off, and the water upstream will stand as a wall."

¹⁴As the people set forth from their camps to cross the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant formed the van. ¹⁵As soon as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped into the water at the edge^c — for the Jordan overflows its banks during the harvest season^d — ¹⁶the water flowing down from above stood still; it rose as a wall for a great distance as far as Adam,^e the city beside Zarethan; and the part flowing down to the sea of the Arabah,^f the Salt Sea, was completely cut off; so the people crossed opposite Jericho. ¹⁷The priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, and all Israel

x) The two spies.

y) The sanctity of the ark was thus maintained, while the people were led to realize that the LORD Himself was guiding them and overcoming the insurmountable obstacles which stood in their way. z) Ex. 19:10. a) Moses had been similarly exalted at the crossing of the Red Sea. b) See ch. 4:2-10. c) Not until their feet were above the water, ready to step down, was the water cut off. The faith of the priests was severely tested.

d) In April, when the barley harvest begins, the Jordan is at its height; none can then wade across it. The Jordan there — now Damieh — is narrowest. July, 1927, an earthquake dammed the river for 21 hours; in 1267 a fallen bank held it 16 hours.

e) Adam was about 20 miles north of the Jericho ford. f) Sea of the Plain.

passed over on dry ground, until the whole nation had completed the crossing of the Jordan.^g 1406 a. c.

4 WHEN THE WHOLE NATION HAD finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua: ²Choose twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, ³and give them this order: Take up twelve stones here in the midst of the Jordan where the priests' feet were standing; bring them with you, and place them in the camp where you spend the night. ⁴So Joshua called together the twelve men whom he had appointed from the Israelites, one man from each tribe, ⁵and said to them, "Go into the middle of the Jordan in front of the ark of the LORD your God, and each of you lift a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the Israelite tribes, ⁶so that this may be a symbol to you. Later, when your children ask you, 'What do these stones mean to you?' ⁷you will tell them, 'The waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it entered the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off, and these stones will always serve the Israelites as a memorial.'"

⁸The Israelites did as Joshua ordered; they lifted from the center of the Jordan twelve stones for the number of the Israelite tribes, as the LORD had told Joshua, and bringing them to the camp, they deposited them there. ⁹Then Joshua piled up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.¹

¹⁰The priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything had been accomplished which the LORD had ordered Joshua to say to the people, in accordance with all that Moses had ordered Joshua;¹ then the people promptly crossed over. ¹¹When all the people had completed the crossing, the ark of the LORD and the priests passed over in the sight of the people.^k ¹²The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the Israelites, as Moses had charged them. ¹³About 40,000 armed troops crossed over before the LORD for the battle on the plains of Jericho. ¹⁴On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the eyes of all Israel, and they revered him through all his life as they had revered Moses.

¹⁵The LORD said to Joshua: ¹⁶Order the priests who bear the ark of the testimony¹ to ascend from the Jordan. ¹⁷So Joshua ordered the priests, "Climb up from the Jordan." ¹⁸When the priests, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, climbed up from the middle of the Jordan and their feet stepped on dry ground, the water of the Jordan returned to its place, overflowing its banks as before.

¹⁹The people moved up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they encamped at Gilgal on the eastern edge of Jericho.^m ²⁰At Gilgal Joshua set up the twelve stones, which they had taken from the Jordan. ²¹Then he said to the Israelites, "In the future when your children ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean?' ²²inform them by saying, 'Israel crossed this Jordan on dry ground.' ²³For the LORD your God had dried up the water of the Jordan before you until you crossed, just as He did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed. ²⁴Consequently, all the nations of the earth will know that

g) As God sent a great east wind to open a wide path in the Red Sea for Israel (Ex. 14:21,22), so He could cause a great upheaval or a tremendous landslide to dam the Jordan waters. His physical miracles witness to His directing of natural forces for His definite purpose.

h) God has made children on the question plan; it is ours to answer them with God in mind. He also wants memorials provided, to remind all His children of His wondrous ways.

i) When the Book of Joshua was written, the two pillars of stones were still standing: 12 stones in Gilgal and 12 in the Jordan. The 12 stones placed in the center of the Jordan might be visible during the 10 months when the Jordan does not overflow its banks.

j) Deut. 31:7,8. k) Included were the children, the aged and infirm, even their herds and flocks, all of which was not a matter of minutes but of many hours.

l) Tables of the Law inside the ark which set forth the conditions by which the LORD pledged Himself to prosper Israel. m) The district of Jericho.

the hand of the LORD is mighty, and you will revere the LORD your God always."

1406 B. C.

5 WHEN ALL THE AMORITE KINGS west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings by the seaⁿ heard that the LORD had dried up the water of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed, their courage melted away, and they no longer had confidence against the Israelites. ²At this time the LORD said to Joshua: Make stone knives and circumcise the Israelites for the second time. ³So Joshua made stone knives and circumcised^o the Israelites at the Hill of Foreskins.

⁴Now this is the reason why Joshua circumcised all the people: the males who had come out of Egypt, all the soldiers, had died in the wilderness along the way during the migration from Egypt. ⁵Although all the people who had come out were circumcised, those born in the desert along the way during the migration from Egypt had not been circumcised.^p ⁶The Israelites traveled in the wilderness for forty years until death came to the whole nation, to the soldiers, who had come out of Egypt and had not obeyed the voice of the LORD, to whom the LORD vowed that they should not see the land which He had vowed to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

⁷So He appointed their children in their place, and these Joshua circumcised because they were uncircumcised, since they did not circumcise them along the way.^q

⁸When the whole nation had been circumcised, they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed. ⁹And the LORD said to Joshua: Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt^r from you. So the name of this place is called Gilgal^s even to this day. March, April, 1406 B. C.

¹⁰The Israelites camped at Gilgal, and on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, they observed the Passover^t on the plains of Jericho. ¹¹On the very next day after the Passover, they ate what was raised on the land, unleavened bread and parched grain. ¹²The manna ceased the day after they ate what was raised on the land; there was no more manna for the Israelites, but they subsisted on the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

¹³When Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up and saw a Man standing opposite him with a drawn sword in His hand. Joshua went up to Him and said, "Are You with us or with our enemies?"

¹⁴No, He replied, It is I; as Captain of the LORD's host^u I now have come. Then Joshua, falling prone upon the ground, prostrated himself, and said to Him, "What has my LORD to say to His servant?"

¹⁵The Captain of the LORD's host said to Joshua: Remove your shoes from your feet, because the place upon which you are standing is holy.^v And Joshua did so.

1406 B. C.

6 NOW JERICHO WAS CLOSED IN AND secured because of the Israelites; no one went out, and no one came in. ²Then the LORD^w said to Joshua: Behold, I have delivered Jericho, her king and her soldiers, into your hand. ³March around the city with all the men of war, encircling it once. Do this for six days. ⁴Seven priests shall each carry a ram's-horn trumpet before the ark. On the seventh day, go around the city seven times, while the priests blow their horns. ⁵When you hear the blare of the trumpets in a long blast on the rams' horns, let all the people

n) Mediterranean Sea. o) See Gen. 17:9-14. p) The LORD's judgment against the Israelites affected their children, too; circumcision, the symbol of the covenant relationship with the LORD, had been withheld from them.

q) See footnote (p) on vs. 5. r) The taunt of the Egyptians that the LORD was leading the Israelites into the desert to destroy them (Ex. 32:12).

s) Suggested by the Hebrew verb, to roll away. t) Forty years after the first Passover.

u) Of the angels, ready to support the Hebrew army; see II Kings 6:16,17.

v) This place was hallowed by the presence of a divine Messenger. As in Ex. 3:2-6 and in Judges 6:11,16, the Angel proves to be the LORD Himself, so here God manifested Himself, the Son of God, we have every reason to believe.

w) In the person of His Messenger of ch. 5:14,15.

give a mighty shout of joy; then the wall of the city will collapse^x so that the people may attack, each one moving straight ahead.

⁶So Joshua the son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests each carry a ram's-horn trumpet before the ark of the LORD."

⁷And to the people he said, "Advance, and march around the city; let armed men advance ahead of the ark of the LORD." ⁸When Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests who carried the seven rams' horns before the LORD^y advanced and kept blowing their horns, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

⁹The armed men were marching ahead of the priests, who were blowing the horns, and the rear guard followed the ark; they were marching and blowing their horns. ¹⁰But in commanding the people, Joshua said, "Do not shout, nor let your voices be heard, nor let a word leave your mouth, until the day in which I say to you, 'Shout!' Then shout!"

¹¹The ark of the LORD moved around the city, encircling it once; then they returned to the camp and stayed there. ¹²In the morning Joshua got up early, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. ¹³The seven priests who carried the seven rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went forward, blowing on the horns. The armed men went ahead of them, and the rear guard followed the ark of the LORD. They marched and blew their horns. ¹⁴They encircled the city once on the second day and returned to the camp.^z They did this for six days, ¹⁶Then on the seventh day they got up early at dawn and went around the city seven times, according to procedure; only on that day they marched around the city seven times. ¹⁶The seventh time around, when the priests blew their horns, Joshua said to the people, "Shout, because the LORD has given you the city!" ¹⁷The city and all that is in it are a devoted portion^a to the LORD. Only Rahab the innkeeper and all who are with her in the house will be spared, because she hid the messengers whom we sent. ¹⁸But keep yourselves from the devoted portion, lest in devoting it, you might take some part of it^b and so place the camp of Israel in the devoted portion and bring affliction upon it. ¹⁹All the silver and gold, and all the bronze and iron, are set apart for the LORD. They shall go into the treasury of the LORD."

²⁰The people shouted as the horns were blown. When the people heard the blare of the trumpets, they shouted with a loud acclaim; the walls collapsed.^c The people attacked the city, each moving in straight ahead, and they captured the city. ²¹Then with the sword they destroyed everything in the city as a devoted portion, both men and women, young and old, and oxen, sheep, and donkeys.^d ²²Joshua said to the two men who had explored the land, "Enter the innkeeper's house, and conduct her from there with all who are with her, just as you pledged to her." ²³So the young spies went in and conducted Rahab away with her father, mother, brothers, and all who were with her, her whole family, and they gave them refuge outside the camp of Israel.^e x) Excavations indicate that the walls of Jericho collapsed as though destroyed by earthquake.

²⁴They burned the city and everything in it; but they deposited the sil-

y) The ark symbolized His presence.

z) The men and boys of Jericho would doubtless shout mocking remarks from the walls at the marching men, apparently taking such useless daily exercise.

a) Retractions were imposed on all the loot of Jericho as Canaan's first fruits, not applied elsewhere (Deut. 20:10-18). What could or should not be destroyed was to be devoted to the use of the Lord. This was in keeping with the rule that the first fruits belong to the LORD (Ex. 23:19).

b) A suggested alternative reading: else you might covet and take some part of it.

c) The part of the wall in which Rahab lived must have stood firm.

d) To prevent alien elements from affecting Israel, radical measures were taken. These measures were justified on religious grounds in that the natives had proved their incorrigibility before God (Romans 1:18-32), and that they were classified according to the concept of the devoted portion - Cherem, which was that part of the increase of Israel which belonged to God, either for His exclusive use, or for complete destruction.

e) Rahab's family, being included in the forfeiture, could not at once be in contact with the Israelite camp.

ver and gold and the things of bronze and iron into the treasury of the house of the LORD.^f ²⁵Joshua spared Rahab the innkeeper, her father's household, and all who belonged to her, and she has dwelt in Israel to this day,^g because she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to explore Jericho.

²⁶"Accursed before the LORD is the man who rebuilds this city of Jericho,"^h declared Joshua at that time. "He will found it at the price of his first-born, and he will set up its gates at the cost of his young son."ⁱ ²⁷The LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

1406 B. C.

7 THE ISRAELITES, HOWEVER, SECRETLY violated the devoted portion when Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took something from it;^j so the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel.

²Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven east of Bethel, after saying to them, "Go up and explore the land." The men went up and explored Ai. ³When they returned to Joshua, they said to him, "Do not send all the people; let two or three thousand men go up and strike at Ai; do not employ the whole people up there because the people of Ai are few."^k ⁴So about 3,000 of the people went up there; but they fled from the men of Ai, ⁵who killed about 36 of them and, pursuing them from their gates to the quarries, killed more on the way down; so that the hearts of the people of Israel melted and became like water.

⁶Joshua tore his clothes, fell on his face before the ark of the LORD, and remained there until evening with the elders of Israel. They put dust on their heads. ⁷Then Joshua said, "Alas, O LORD God, why didst Thou have this people cross the Jordan and put us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? Oh, that we had been content to dwell on the other side of the Jordan! ⁸O LORD, what shall I say, after Israel has retreated from her enemies? ⁹The Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it; they will surround us and cut off our name from the land. Then what wilt Thou do for Thy great Name?"

¹⁰Rise up, the LORD said to Joshua, why have you fallen on your face?

¹¹Israel has sinned and has transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. They have even taken something from the devoted portion and stolen it. They have been deceitful and have put it with their own belongings. ¹²The Israelites will not be able to prevail against their enemies; they will retreat from them, because they have come under the law of the sacred portion. I shall not be with you any more, unless you get rid of that devoted thing, which is among you. ¹³Rise up, consecrate the people. Say to them, "Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, because the LORD God of Israel has said: A devoted thing is among you, Israel; you will not be able to prevail against your enemies, until you remove that devoted thing which is in your midst. ¹⁴In the morning you will come near by tribes. The tribe which the LORD indicates by lot will come near by clans. The clan which the LORD indicates by lot will come near by households. The household which the LORD indicates by lot will come near by its individual male members.^l ¹⁵He who is indicated by lot as having the devoted thing, shall be burned with it and with all that belongs to him, for he has violated the covenant of the LORD and has done a disgraceful thing in Israel."

f) Jericho, the first city taken in Canaan, came under the law of the first fruits; it must be dedicated to God.

g) When the Book of Joshua was written, Rahab's descendants had been admitted into the nation. She became an ancestress of Jesus (Matthew 1:5).

h) The refortification of Jericho was forbidden, but its resettlement took place in accordance with Joshua's allotment to Benjamin (ch. 18:21).

i) See I Kings 16:34 for a fulfillment of this curse.

j) All Israel becomes guilty because of Achan's sin. This illustrates the concept of collective relationship, which is basic to Paul's understanding of the atonement.

k) This was a fatal underestimate; see ch. 10:2.

l) Thus locating individuals by family relationships, as we do by state, town, street, and house number.

¹⁶Joshua arose early in the morning and had Israel come near by tribes. The tribe of Judah was indicated by lot. ¹⁷Then he convened the clans of Judah, and by lot He indicated the Zerahite clan. Next he convened the Zerahite clan by its male members, and Zabdi was indicated by lot. ¹⁸Finally, he convened his household by its individual male members, and the lot fell upon Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah. ¹⁹Joshua said to Achan, "My son, ascribe glory to the LORD God of Israel, and offer praise to Him. Then tell me what you have done; do not conceal anything from me."

²⁰"Truly I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel," Achan answered Joshua, "and this is what I have done. ²¹When I saw a beautiful robe from Shinar^m among the spoils, together with 200 silver dollars and a bar of gold worth 500 dollars, I coveted them and took them. They are buried in the ground in my tent with the money underneath."

²²Joshua dispatched couriers, who ran to Achan's tent. The robe was there, buried in his tent with the money beneath it. ²³They took them from the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the Israelites, and they set them down before the LORD. ²⁴Joshua then took Achan the son of Zerah with the silver, the robe, the bar of gold, his sons, daughters, cattle, donkeys and sheep, his tent, and all that belonged to him, and, together with all Israel, he brought them to the valley of Achor.

²⁵"Why did you bring calamity upon us?" said Joshua. "May the LORD bring calamity upon you today." Then all Israel stoned them and cremated them.ⁿ

²⁶They piled a large heap of stones^o upon them, which is there to this day; and the LORD ceased being angry. Consequently the name of this place is called the Valley of Achor^p to this day.

m) Hebrew name for Babylonia.

n) Since Deut. 24:16 prohibits the execution of children for their father's sin, Achan's children must have been with him in, or agreeable to, his wrongdoing.

o) Such memorials still mark the graves of criminals in the east. p) Valley of trouble.

q) Bethel was about a three hours' journey west of Ai.

r) Joshua led his main force into the valley within sight of the city, and there they spent the night.

1406 B. C.

8 THE LORD SAID TO JOSHUA: Neither fear nor be distressed! Take all the soldiers with you. Arise, and attack Ai. See how I have put into your hands the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his territory. ²You will do to Ai and her king as you did to Jericho and her king. However, you may take her loot and her cattle for yourselves. Now put an ambush behind the city.

³Joshua and all the soldiers arose to attack Ai. Joshua selected 30,000 valiant fighters, whom he sent forth at night. ⁴In giving them orders, he said, "You are going to ambush the city from behind. Be not too far from the city, and all of you be ready. ⁵I and all the people with me will approach the city, and when the Ai-ites come out to engage us as before, we shall flee from them. ⁶They will come after us until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, 'They are fleeing from us as before.' When we flee from them, ⁷you in the ambush will rise up and take the city; the LORD your God has put it in your hands. ⁸When you have taken the city, set it on fire. Do what the LORD says; observe that I have given you the orders."

⁹When Joshua sent them away, they went to the place of ambush, waiting west of Ai between Bethel and Ai.^q

Joshua spent that night with the troops, and ¹⁰he got up early in the morning. When he had mustered the troops, he and the elders of Israel led them toward Ai. ¹¹When all the soldiers who went with him drew near the city, they came within sight of it, but camped north of it where a valley lay between them and Ai. ¹²Now Joshua had taken 5,000 men and had appointed them to wait in ambush between Bethel and Ai, west of the city. ¹³So the people were in this position, the main camp lying north of the city while the ambush lay west of it. But that night Joshua passed through the center of the valley.^r quickly aroused the men of the city, and he and all the people went out to meet Israel in battle at an indicated place near the plain; but he did not know that there was an ambush behind the city. ¹⁵When Joshua and all Israel were attacked by them, they fled toward the desert, ¹⁶and all the forces of Ai joined in pursuit of them; but as they pursued Joshua, they were being drawn away from the city. ¹⁷Therefore, no troops remained in Ai or in Bethel^s who did not go after Israel; they left the city open and they pursued her.

¹⁴When the king of Ai saw this, he

¹⁸Then the LORD said to Joshua: Hold out the spear in your hand toward Ai; for I have put it in your hands. So Joshua held out the spear in his hand^t toward the city. ¹⁹Those lying in ambush arose quickly from their place and ran when he stretched out his hand; and when they came to Ai, they captured it and quickly set it on fire. ²⁰When the men of Ai looked back, the smoke from the city was going up into the sky, and there was no place for them to scatter for refuge when those, who had been fleeing, turned against their pursuers. ²¹When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and that smoke went up from it, they turned and attacked the men of Ai. ²²Meanwhile the others came out of the city to engage them, so they were trapped in the middle of Israel between the troops on one side and those on the other side; and they fought until none were left, and none had escaped. ²³However, they captured the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

²⁴When Israel had slain all the inhabitants of Ai on the field in the desert where they had pursued them, all Israel returned to Ai and wielded the sword against it. ²⁵All who fell in battle that day numbered 12,000 men and women, the whole population of Ai. ²⁶Joshua did not lower his hand with which he held out his spear, until they had destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷But the cattle and spoils of this city Israel took for herself, according to the order of the LORD, which He had issued to Joshua. ²⁸So Joshua burned Ai and made it an everlasting heap of destruction, as it is to this day; ²⁹and he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening.^u At sunset,^v Joshua gave the order, and they took his corpse from the tree, threw it down by the gate of the city, and raised a large pile of stones over it, which remains until this day.

³⁰Then Joshua built an altar for the LORD God of Israel at Mount Ebal,^w ³¹as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites, as it is written in the book of the Law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones, which no iron tool had touched.^x They made an offering to the LORD upon it and performed the sacrifice of thanksgiving. ³²There he wrote on stones^y before the Israelites a copy of the Law of Moses which he had written. ³³All Israel with its elders, officers, and judges were standing on either side of the ark in front of the Levitical priests who carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, immigrants^z as well as the native-born, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half in front of Mount Ebal,^a as Moses the servant of the LORD had previously commanded that the people of Israel should be blessed.

³⁴Afterwards he read all the words of the Law, both the blessings and the curses, according to all that was written in the book of the Law. ³⁵There was nothing of all that Moses had commanded^b which Joshua did not read before the whole assembly of Israel, including the women, the children, and the foreigners who went with them.

1406-1405 B.C.

9 WHEN ALL THE KINGS WEST OF the Jordan learned of this, those in

s) Probably by treaty Bethel was an ally of Ai and stood by in the event of another attack by Israel. It was conquered with Ai.

t) A prearranged signal relayed to the men waiting in ambush.

u) After he had been killed (ch. 10:26). v) Deut. 21:22, 23.

w) See Deut. 27:12 ff. x) Ex. 20:25; Deut. 27:5. y) On stones prescribed in Deut. 27:2-8.

z) An evangelic note in the Old Testament, non-Israelites included in the covenant privileges. They could merge completely with the Israelites, if they would accept the God of Israel as their God. a) The Israelites could travel from Ai to this place in two days.

b) Deut. 27:11-28:10. Israel was a people of closely knit families, their households sharing their instructions and interests.

the mountains, on the sea plain, and all along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea as far as Lebanon, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, ²were united to fight against Joshua and the Israelites for their common cause.^c ³The inhabitants of Gibeon^d also heard what Joshua did to Jericho and Ai, ⁴and they too proceeded with a stratagem. Certain ones went forth as delegates; they loaded old sacks on their donkeys and old wineskins, tattered and mended. ⁵The sandals on their feet were worn and patched; the garments they had on were threadbare, and their food was dry and crumbled. ⁶They came to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the Israelites, "We have come from a distant land; now therefore make a treaty with us."^e

⁷The Israelites replied to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live nearby, so how can we make a treaty with you?"^f

⁸"We are your servants,"^g they said to Joshua.

Then Joshua asked them, "Who are you, and where did you come from?"

⁹"Your servants have come from a very distant land on account of the fame of the LORD your God," they replied to him, "for we have learned of His record and of all that He did in Egypt ¹⁰and of all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroath. ¹¹So our elders and all the inhabitants of our land said to us, 'Take provisions for the journey with you; go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; now therefore make a treaty with us."'"

¹²"This is our bread. It was warm when we provided ourselves with it at our homes on the day we set out to come to you; but now, see how dry and crumbly it is! ¹³These wineskins were new when we filled them; see how they are torn! Our clothes and sandals are worn out because our journey has been so very far."

¹⁴The men handled some of their provisions; but they did not consult the LORD.^h ¹⁵So Joshua made peace with them; he made a treaty to spare them,ⁱ and the chiefs of the congregation swore an oath to them. ¹⁶Three days after they had made the treaty with them, they learned that they were their neighbors, who lived in their vicinity. ¹⁷Then the Israelites broke camp and came to their cities on the third day. Their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim. ¹⁸However, the Israelites did not attack them, for the chiefs of the congregation had sworn an oath to them in the name of the LORD God of Israel.^j But the whole congregation murmured against the leaders. ¹⁹Then all the chiefs said to the whole gathering, "We have sworn an oath to them by the LORD God of Israel; so now we may not touch them. ²⁰This is what we shall do to them. We shall spare them, lest wrath be upon us on account of the oath which we swore to them." ²¹So the officers said to them, "Let them live." They became woodcutters and water carriers for the whole community, as the officers had told them.

²²Joshua summoned them and said to them, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We live very far away from you,' though you dwell in our neighborhood? ²³Henceforth you will be accursed because you will never be released from servitude; you will be woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."^k ²⁴They replied to Joshua, "It has been made perfectly clear to your servants that the LORD your God ordered Moses His servant to give you the whole land and that you should destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you. We

c) For their mutual defense. d) One of the major cities of central Palestine, inhabited by Hivites.

e) Israel was permitted to make treaties with nations located outside of Canaan (Deut. 20:10-18).

f) To safeguard them from idolatry, the Israelites were not permitted to affiliate with the other nations in Canaan (Deut. 7:1-5). g) Oriental fashion, to ingratiate themselves with the Israelites.

h) By using the Urim and Thummim (Ex. 28:30; Num. 27:21).

i) The alliance between Israel and Gibeon agreed that Israel would not attack Gibeon but would defend it (cf. ch. 10:6,7).

j) Although the Gibeonites obtained this oath by deception, the leaders of Israel would not trifle with an oath made in His Name.

k) To protect themselves from their idolatrous influences, Joshua made the Gibeonites serve in the worship of God. Thus Israel was never adversely affected by the Gibeonites.

were terrified for our lives on account of you, so we did this thing. ²⁵Now see, we are in your hands. Do whatever seems good and just in your sight to do to us."

²⁶He treated them accordingly and saved them from the hands of the Israelites, so that they did not kill them. ²⁷So on that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the community and for the altar of the LORD to this day at whatever place He might choose.¹

1406-1405 B. C.

10 WHEN ADONIZEDEK,^m THE KING of Jerusalem,ⁿ heard that Joshua had captured Ai and had destroyed it, that he had done to Ai and her king as he had done to Jericho and her king and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made an agreement with Israel and were already with them, ²he was very fearful because Gibeon was a city as one of the royal cities,^o larger than Ai, and all its men were valiant fighters. ³Therefore, Adonizedek, the king of Jerusalem, sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, ⁴"Come over and help me; let us attack Gibeon because she has made an agreement with Joshua and the Israelites." ⁵So the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, together with all of their troops, joined forces and moved up, making camp at Gibeon. Then they fought against it.

⁶The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal. "Do not forsake your servants," they said. "Come to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites who inhabit the mountains have united against us."⁴ ⁷So Joshua went up from Gilgal together with all his soldiers and valiant warriors. ⁸Now the LORD said to Joshua: Be not afraid of them because I have delivered them into your hand; no one will stand before you.⁵

⁹Joshua caught them by surprise by marching all night from Gilgal,⁶ ¹⁰and the LORD threw them into panic before Israel and thus administered a sound defeat to them at Gibeon; then pursuing them down the slope of Beth-horon⁷ they engaged them at Azekah and at Makkedah. ¹¹As they fled from Israel down the slope of Beth-horon to Azekah, the LORD cast large stones upon them from the sky, and they died. More died from the hailstones than the Israelites killed with the sword.

¹²Now Joshua spoke to the LORD on the day that He delivered up the Amorites to the Israelites; and he said before the eyes of Israel,

"O sun, wait in Gibeon!

Wait in the valley of Ajalon, O moon!"⁸

¹³The sun waited and the moon stood still, while a nation took vengeance on its enemies. Is it not written in the book of Jasher,⁹

"The sun stood still in the midst of the sky

And did not hasten to set for a whole day?"¹⁰

¹⁴There was not another day like that before or after it, when the LORD responded to a man's voice, because the LORD was fighting for Israel.

¹⁵Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal; ¹⁶but these five kings fled, hiding themselves in the cave at Makkedah. ¹⁷However, the information came to Joshua, "The

1) The LORD indicated to Israel where they were to erect altars for His worship. The Gibeonites helped rebuild the walls of Jerusalem after the exile (Neh. 7:25). At Gibeon David erected a tabernacle (1 Chron. 21:29). Solomon received a message from God in a dream at Gibeon (1 Kings 3: 5-15; 9:2).

m) "Lord of righteousness." n) "City of peace." o) No king was in residence there (ch. 9:11).

q) See note on ch. 9:15.

r) This was the most formidable alliance that Israel had yet encountered in Canaan.

s) The distance was more than twenty miles and uphill all the way.

t) Upper and lower Beth-horon were separated by a slope of more than two miles, descending 700 feet.

u) From Joshua's position, west of Gibeon in the early morning, the sun would have been in the east over Gibeon and the moon in the west over the valley of Ajalon.

v) A compilation in poetic form of the heroic deeds of Israel's notable leaders.

w) There is no question about the omnipotence and authority of God at whose command the earth, rotating at a speed of 1000 miles per hour, would immediately stand still; but there is a question about the significance of having this quoted from The Book of Jasher, a book of poetry in which marvelous achievements were sung with oriental exultation.

five kings who hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah have been found." ¹⁸"Roll large boulders to the mouth of the cave," said Joshua, "and station men by it to guard them. ¹⁹Do not stand there yourselves; pursue your enemies; cut off their rear; do not let them enter their cities; for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand." ²⁰When Joshua and the Israelites had finished slaughtering them in a huge battle in which they wiped them out — only those who fled had escaped from them by entering the fortified cities — ²¹all the people returned peacefully to Joshua at the camp in Makkedah; and no one dared to say a word against any of the Israelites.

²²Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring me these five kings out of it." ²³They did so, bringing to him these five kings from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. ²⁴When these kings had been brought to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the officers of the armed forces who had accompanied him, "Come up, and put your feet on the necks of these kings." They went up and put their feet upon their necks.^x ²⁵Then Joshua said to them, "Be not afraid or dismayed! Be resolute and strong, for so the LORD will treat all your enemies with whom you go to war." ²⁶Afterward, Joshua struck the captives and slew them, then hung their bodies on five trees, where they were suspended until evening. ²⁷At sundown, Joshua issued the order, so they took their bodies down from the trees and threw them in the cave where they had hidden themselves. Over the mouth of the cave they put large boulders, which remain there until this day.

²⁸That same day Joshua captured Makkedah, and, ravaging it and the king with the sword, he destroyed both of them together with all the inhabitants, none of whom were spared. He treated the king of Makkedah as he had treated the king of Jericho.

²⁹Then together with all Israel, Joshua passed from Makkedah to Libnah, which he attacked. ³⁰The LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel. Joshua ravaged it and all its inhabitants with the sword; none of them were spared. He treated the king as he had treated the king of Jericho. ³¹Then together with all Israel, Joshua passed from Libnah to Lachish. After making camp there, he attacked it, ³²and the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel. Joshua captured it on the second day^y and wielded the sword against it and all its inhabitants just as he did to Libnah. ³³Then Horam king of Gezer^z came to help Lachish; but Joshua fought against him and his troops until he had not a man left. ³⁴Joshua together with all Israel moved from Lachish to Eglon. After making camp there, he attacked it. ³⁵On that same day, he captured it and wielded the sword against it. He destroyed all the inhabitants that day, as he had done with Lachish. ³⁶Joshua together with all Israel moved from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it. ³⁷When they captured it, they ravaged it with the sword, its king, its suburbs and all their inhabitants, sparing no one, as they had done to Eglon. They destroyed it and all its inhabitants.

1405-1404 B. C.(a)

³⁸Then Joshua, together with all Israel turned back to Debir and attacked it. ³⁹When they had captured the city, its king, and all its suburbs, they wielded the sword against them, destroying all its inhabitants; they spared no one. They treated Debir and its king as they had Hebron and Libnah and their kings.

⁴⁰Joshua conquered the whole country, the mountains, the southland,^b the sea plain, the foothills, and all their kings. He spared no one but destroyed every breathing creature, as the LORD God of Israel had ordered.^c ⁴¹From

t) An eastern custom, demonstrating complete dominance.

y) Lachish was the best fortified city in the Amorite league.

z) Apparently Joshua never conquered Gezer; for it remained a Canaanite stronghold long after his time (ch. 16:10; Judg. 1:29).

a) The datings between 1406 and 1400 are approximate; but definitely in that period.

b) The Negeb. c) When man works harmoniously with God, there is no limit to his achievements.

Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, Joshua overcame them and from the entire territory of Goshen^d to Gibeon. ⁴²He captured all these kings and their lands in one campaign, for the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. ⁴³Then Joshua together with all Israel returned to their camp at Gilgal.

1404-1403 B. C.

11 WHEN JABIN KING OF HAZOR heard these things, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph, ²and to the kings in the mountains to the north, in the desert south of Chinneroth, on the sea plain, and in the uplands of Dor to the west — ³the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, and Jebusites in the mountains, and the Hivites at the base of Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. ⁴They came forth in mass with all their troops, as numerous as the sand on the seashore, with an immense number of horses and chariots.^e ⁵When all these kings had made an agreement, they came and camped together by the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

⁶Be not afraid of them,^f the LORD said to Joshua. For tomorrow at this time I shall deliver them all, slain, to Israel; you must hamstring their horses^g and burn their chariots. ⁷Then Joshua with all the soldiers came upon them by surprise at the waters of Merom and attacked them. ⁸When the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, they defeated them and pursued them as far as the greater Sidon,^h Misrephoth-maim,ⁱ and the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they kept on killing them until none were left. ⁹Joshua treated them as the LORD had said; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

¹⁰Then Joshua turned back, captured Hazor,^j and slew its king with the sword; for Hazor had been the head of all these kingdoms. ¹¹He destroyed every living being in it with the sword, no breathing creature survived, and he burned Hazor. ¹²When Joshua had captured all the cities of these kings and the kings themselves, he ravaged them with the sword as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded. ¹³However, Israel did not burn any city which stood upon a hill,^k except Hazor, which alone Joshua burned. ¹⁴The Israelites took all the spoils of these cities together with the livestock, but they massacred every person with the sword until they had annihilated them; they did not spare a soul. ¹⁵What the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, Moses commanded Joshua; and Joshua carried it out without deviating in any respect from all that the LORD had commanded Moses. ¹⁶Joshua took this whole land:^l the mountains, all the southland, the whole land of Goshen, the sea plain, the desert, the mountains of Israel and its plains ¹⁷from Mount Halak,^m which stands opposite Seir, as far as Baalgadⁿ in the valley of Lebanon at the base of Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and put them to death.

¹⁸Joshua made war against these kings for a long time.^o ¹⁹There was not a city which made a peace treaty with the Israelites, except the Hivites living in Gibeon. They took them all in war, ²⁰because their determination to wage war with Israel came from the LORD, in order that Israel might destroy them without showing mercy; then they

d) A city in the hill country of Judah.

e) Josephus' figures may be exaggerated, but he tells of 300,000 infantry, 10,000 cavalry, and 20,000 war chariots (Antiquities V 1:12). The Israelites had only infantry.

f) This army was larger than that of the five Amorite kings, which Israel had conquered in the south.

g) By cutting their leg tendons, the horses would no longer be fit for military service. Israel must not develop cavalry (Deut. 17:16; II Samuel 8:4), lest they should trust in horses for their help, rather than in God (Isa. 31: 1, 3).

h) Sidon on the coast north of Tyre, a metropolis of Phoenicia.

i) Literally, "Burnings by the sea"; probably the site of smelting pits or salt basins.

j) Hazor was later recaptured by the Canaanites (Judg. 4:1-3).

k) Cities built on mounds formed by the ruins of earlier cities could be securely fortified because of their elevation. Joshua did not destroy them, because they were excellent sites for Israelite settlement. l) See ch. 10:41.

m) "Bare mountain." n) The site of a shrine for Gad, the god of fortune.

o) Altogether seven years.

might be annihilated, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

²¹At that time, Joshua went forth and annihilated the Anakim^p throughout the mountain regions, including Hebron, Debir, Anab, and all the mountain country of Judah and Israel.^q He destroyed them along with their cities. ²²There were no Anakim left in the land of the Israelites, except those who remained in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

²³Joshua took over the whole land, in accordance with all the LORD had said to Moses. Then Joshua granted it for a permanent possession to Israel, to each tribe its share;^r and the land had rest from war.^s

1406 B. C.

12 THESE ARE THE KINGS OF THE land on the east side of the Jordan^t whom the Israelites had defeated and whose land they acquired from the Arnon valley to Mount Hermon, including all the desert to the east: ²Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, whose dominion extended from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon valley and the middle of the valley over the half of Gilead which reaches to the Jabbok valley, the border of the Ammonites, ³including the desert to the Sea of Chinneroth eastward and to the Arabah or Salt Sea eastward toward Beth-jeshimoth and southward to the slopes of Pisgah; ⁴the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the surviving Rephaim,^u who inhabited Ashtaroth and Edrei, ⁵whose dominion extended from Mount Hermon, Salecah, and all Bashan to the Geshurite and Maacathite border and over the half of Gilead, which reaches to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. ⁶When Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites had defeated them, Moses, the servant of the LORD,^v granted this territory to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

⁷These are the kings of the land on the west side of the Jordan, whom Joshua and the Israelites defeated, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which stands opposite Seir.^w (To the tribes of Israel, to each according to its share, Joshua granted this land, ⁸the mountains, the maritime plain, the desert, the foothills, the wilderness, and the southland, all of which had been inhabited by the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites): ⁹the king of Jericho, the king of Ai which is near Bethel, ¹⁰the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, ¹¹the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, ¹²the king of Eglon, the king of Gezer, ¹³the king of Debir, the king of Geder, ¹⁴the king of Hormah, the king of Arad, ¹⁵the king of Libnah, the king of Adullam, ¹⁶the king of Makkedah, the king of Bethel, ¹⁷the king of Tappuah, the king of Hopher, ¹⁸the king of Aphek, the king of Lasharon, ¹⁹the king of Madon, the king of Hazor, ²⁰the king of Shimron-meron, the king of Achshaph, ²¹the king of Taanach, the king of Megiddo, ²²the king of Kedesh, the king of Jokneam in Carmel, ²³the king of Dor in the uplands of Dor, the king of Goyim in Gilgal,^x ²⁴the king of Tirzah: thirty-one kings in all.

1399 B. C.

13 WHEN JOSHUA HAD BECOME OLD with the passing of years, the LORD said to him: You have grown old with the passing of years, and still

p) These were the giants feared by Moses' spies (Num. 13:33).

q) Later Hebron and Debir were recaptured by the Anakim. Caleb finally conquered them (ch. 15:14).

r) As determined by lot (Num. 34:13).

s) Although large scale conflict ended, local resistance continued for a long time. However, Joshua accomplished what the LORD had commanded; the domination of the nations in Palestine was ended and that of the Israelites had begun. It remained for each tribe individually to exterminate the remaining elements of resistance (Ex. 23:28-33).

t) Transjordan. u) Men of unusually large stature, who were an aboriginal race of Palestine and of the country east of Jordan. Despite their formidable size, they were often victims of conquest (Gen. 14:5; Deut. 2:10-12, 20:23).

v) A phrase often repeated, for only as God's servant could Moses lead to victory.

w) From north to south.

x) This Gilgal is not to be identified with either the Gilgal near Jericho or the one near Bethel. It was probably located south of Carmel, 42 miles north of Jerusalem.

much land remains to be taken. ²The land remaining is the whole territory of the Philistines and all that the Geshurites,³ which is considered Canaanite,² from Shihor^a next to Egypt north to the region of Ekron. There are five Philistine principalities,^b the Gazite, the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, and the Ekronite, besides the Avvim^c to the south. Then there is all the land of the Canaanites from Mearah, which belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek near the border of the Amorites,^d and the land of the Gebalites,^e and all Lebanon eastward from Baalgad at the base of Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.^f ⁶All those who live in the mountains from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, that is, all the Sidonians, I will drive out for the sake of the Israelites; allot it to Israel now, as I have commanded you. ⁷Distribute^g this land for a permanent possession to the nine tribes and to the half tribe of Manasseh.

⁸With the other half tribe of Manasseh the Reubenites and Gadites had received their portion which Moses granted them on the eastern side of the Jordan, because Moses the servant of the Lord had already granted it to them. ⁹It extended from Aroer, on the edge of the Arnon valley, and the city near the center of the valley, across the whole plain between Medeba and Dibon, ¹⁰including all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the Ammonites, ¹¹and Gilead and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites and all Mount Hermon, all Bashan to Salekah; ¹²all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei and was one of the surviving Rephaim.

Moses had defeated and driven out these peoples, ¹³but the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites nor the Maacathites; so Geshur and Maacath live in the midst of Israel to this day.

¹⁴Only to the tribe of Levi he did not grant a heritage; the sacrifices to the Lord God of Israel were their portion, as He had told them.^h ¹⁵Moses had made a grant to the tribe of the Reubenites by families. ¹⁶To them went the territory from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon valley, and the city in the center of the valley, across the whole plain beyond Medeba ¹⁷to Heshbon, with all the cities on the plain: Dibon, Bamoth-baal, Beth-baalmeon, ¹⁸Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mepha-ath, ¹⁹Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth-shahar on the hill which is in the valley, ²⁰Bethpeor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Bethjesimoth — ²¹all the cities of the plateau, and the whole kingdom of Sihonⁱ king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated together with the commanders of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the vassals of Sihon, who lived in the land. ²²The Israelites also slew with the sword Balaam the diviner, son of Beor, among those who were killed by them.^j ²³The boundary of the Reubenites was the Jordan. All this was the heritage of the Reubenites for their families, including both the cities and their suburbs.

²⁴Moses had made an assignment to the tribe of Gad, to the Gadites for their families. ²⁵Their territory included Jazer, all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is opposite Rabbah, ²⁶from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the

y) A small tribe in the desert near the Egyptian border.

z) Although this area was currently held by the Philistines, it was originally Canaanite territory and thus part of Israel's domain.

a) Shihor usually refers to the Nile, but here it applies to the brook of Egypt.

b) Philistia was a confederacy of five city-states.

c) The Avvim were a pre-Canaanite people who had survived the Philistine conquest of western Palestine. d) Apparently some Amorite people had settled north of Palestine, while their nation dwelt east of the Jordan. e) Gebal is the ancient Byblus.

f) The northern domain of the Canaanites extended north of Sidon to Aphek on the coastal plain and to the entrance of Hamath, located on the river Orontes in the Lebanon valley. The gorge between Lebanon and Hermon is believed to be the entrance of Hamath.

g) Although the conquest of Canaan was not yet complete, the distribution of the land gave the Israelites a sense of success which might spur them on as tribes to finish their task.

h) Num. 18. i) That is, the whole southern portion of the kingdom of Sihon. See vs. 27.

j) Num. 31:8.

boundary of Debir; ²⁷and in the valley^k Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan and its area up to the end of the Sea of Chinnereth^l on the eastern side of the Jordan. ²⁸This became the heritage of the Gadites for their families, both the cities and their suburbs.

²⁹Moses had also made an assignment to the half tribe of Manasseh for its own families.^m ³⁰Their territory extended from Mahanaim over all Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and included all the tent dwellings of Jair which are in Bashan, being sixty settlements. ³¹Half of Gilead, Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities in the kingdom of Og in Bashan, went to the descendants of Machir the son of Manasseh, to half of the Machirites for their families. ³²These were the allocations that Moses made on the plains of Moab across the Jordan, east of Jericho. ³³But Moses did not grant a heritage to the tribe of Levi, because, as he told them, the LORD God of Israel is their heritage.

1399 B.C.

14 THESE ARE THE HERITAGES which the Israelites received in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the paternal heads of the tribes of Israelⁿ allotted to them ²by the lot of heritage, as the LORD had ordered by the ministry of Moses for the nine and a half tribes. ³For Moses had granted the heritage of the two and a half tribes east of the Jordan; but he had not granted to the Levites a heritage among them ⁴because the descendants of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, accounted for two tribes.^o Therefore they did not grant an allotment in the land to the Levites, except cities to live in and their pasture lands for their herds and flocks. ⁵The Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses, when they distributed the land.

⁶Certain ones from Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite^p said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses, the man of God, concerning you and me, at Kadesh-barnea.^q ⁷I was forty years of age when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back a report to him according to my convictions. ⁸My kinsmen who went up with me disheartened the people, but I followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly. ⁹On that day Moses said under oath, 'The land on which your feet have walked will be a heritage for you and for your descendants forever, because you have followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.'^r ¹⁰Now the LORD has sustained me, as He said, these forty-five years,^s since the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel was traveling in the desert. Today I am eighty-five years old. ¹¹Yet I am still as strong as I was the day when Moses sent me out; I am as strong now as I was then, for war, and for going and coming.^t ¹²So, give me this mountain region, as the LORD said that day. Although you heard that day that the Anakim were there and their cities were fortified with stone, we hope that the LORD will be with me, and I shall oust them, as the LORD said."

¹³Joshua then blessed Caleb the son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron for a heritage. ¹⁴So it came about that Hebron has been the heritage of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite until this day; it was because he followed the LORD God of Israel wholeheartedly. ¹⁵Hebron was formerly the city of

k) The Jordan valley. l) Lake of Galilee.

m) Lots were cast by tribes at Moses' direction (Num. 26:55, 56).

n) Num. 34:16-29. o) Compare ch. 18:1-7.

p) Kenaz is an Edomite tribe. Caleb is associated with Judah [Num. 13:6; 34:19] because the Kenizzite and Judahite strains were blended by marriage. But cf. I Chron. 2:4, 5, 18, 19; 4:13-15.

q) Num. 13 and 14; Deut. 1:34-38.

r) As a spy, Caleb had in 1444 B.C. visited the Anakim (Deut. 1:28). Then Moses promised him the region he had visited (Deut. 1:36).

s) 45 years after 1444 B.C. brings this date to 1399 B.C.

t) We have here no "Thus says the LORD," but expression of strong and healthy feeling. God had marvelously preserved Caleb.

Arba, named after one who had been great among the Anakim. Then the land had rest from war.

1399 B. C.

15 THE PORTION THAT WENT TO the tribe of Judah for their families extended to the border of Edom in the wilderness of Zin in the Negeb on the southern end. ²Their southern boundary^u ran from the edge of the Salt Sea at the south bay ³southward to the slopes of Scorpion Pass, then through Zin south of Kadesh-barnea, curving back to Karka through Hezron and Addar, ⁴then past Azmon, and along the brook of Egypt out to the sea. This will be your southern border. ⁵Their eastern border was the Salt Sea to the mouth of the Jordan. Their boundary on the north runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan ⁶up to Beth-hoglah, then north of Beth-arabah up to the stone of Bohan^v son of Reuben, ⁷on to Debir in the valley of Achor, then turning north to Gilgal^w opposite the slopes of Adummim which are on the south side of the valley. Further the border passes along to the waters of En-shemesh and ends at En-rogel. ⁸Then the border runs up the valley of the son of Hinnom to the south side of the Jebusites, which is Jerusalem, up to the top of the mountain which faces the valley of Hinnom,^x on the west, at the edge of the valley of Rephaim to the north. ⁹Then the border curves around from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, then on to the cities of Mount Ephron where it curves around Baalah, which is Kiriath-jearim. ¹⁰Then the border turns westward from Baalah to Mount Seir,^y running past the north side of Mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, and on down to Beth-she-mesh, then through Timnah ¹¹to the north side of Ekron around Shikkeron past Mount Baalah on to Jabneel and out to the sea. ¹²The western border is the shore line of the Great Sea. This is the border of the tribe of Judah surrounding the territory belonging to their families.

¹³According to the LORD's instruction to Joshua, he gave Caleb son of Jephunneh an allotment among the Judahites, namely the City of Arba, the father of Anak, which is now Hebron. ¹⁴So Caleb^z ousted from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the offspring of Anak. ¹⁵From there he went to the inhabitants of Debir. The name of Debir was formerly Kiriath-sepher.

¹⁶"To whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it," announced Caleb, "I will give Achsah my daughter for a wife." ¹⁷Othniel, a Kenizzite and relative^a of Caleb, captured it; so he gave him Achsah his daughter for a wife. ¹⁸Upon her arrival, she persuaded him to ask for a field from her father. And when she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What is your desire?"

¹⁹"Give me a blessing," she said, "and since you have given me dry southland, give me water springs, too." So he gave her the upper and lower springs.

²⁰This is the heritage of the tribe of Judah^b for their families. ²¹The cities of the Judah tribe from the frontier on the border of Edom on the south were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, ²²Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, ²³Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, ²⁴Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, ²⁵Hazor-hadattah, Keriath-hezron, which is Hazor, ²⁶Amam, Shema, Moladah, ²⁷Hazar-gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-pelet, ²⁸Hazar-shual, Beer-sheba, Biziothiah, ²⁹Baalath, Iim, Ezem, ³⁰Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah, ³¹Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, u) The southern border of Judah was identical with the southern border of Canaan (Num. 34:1-5). v) An unidentified site which commemorated a hero from the tribe of Reuben.

w) Not the Gilgal which was the site of Israel's first camp in Canaan (ch. 4:19). It is the Geliath of ch. 18:17.

x) Later, human sacrifice was practiced in this valley in the worship of Moloch (II Kings 23:10; II Chron. 28:3; 33:6; Jer. 7:31). The Hebrew "Ge-Hinnom" became the Greek "Gehenna," the place of eternal torment (Matthew 5:29, 30). y) Not the Mount Seir in Edom.

z) Joshua had previously exterminated the Anakim and destroyed their cities (ch. 11:21-23).

a) According to Judges 1:13, Othniel was a son of Caleb's younger half brother.

b) Judah's territory included four distinct regions: the Negeb in the south, the maritime plain in the west, the mountainous central area, and the desert in the east.

³²Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon. In all there were twenty-nine^c cities with their suburbs.

³³On the sea plain, Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, ³⁴Zanoah, Engannim, Tappuah, Enam, ³⁵Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, ³⁶Sharaim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities and their suburbs.

³⁷Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-gad, ³⁸Dilean, Mizpeh, Joktheel, ³⁹Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, ⁴⁰Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish, ⁴¹Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah—sixteen cities and their suburbs.

⁴²Libnah, Ether, Ashan, ⁴³Iphtah, Asnah, Nezi, ⁴⁴Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah—nine cities and their suburbs.

⁴⁵Ekrone with its villages and suburbs; ⁴⁶all the towns between Ekron and the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod with their suburbs.

⁴⁷Ashdod with its villages and suburbs, Gaza with its hamlets and suburbs, as far as the brook of Egypt and the coast of the Great Sea.

⁴⁸In the mountains, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, ⁴⁹Dannah, Kiriath-sannah, which is Debir, ⁵⁰Anab, Eshtemoah, Anim, ⁵¹Goshen, Holon, and Giloh—eleven cities and their suburbs.

⁵²Arab, Dumah, Eshan, ⁵³Janum, Beth-tappuah, Aphekah, ⁵⁴Humtah, Kiriath-arba, which is Hebron, and Zior—nine cities and their suburbs.

⁵⁵Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, ⁵⁶Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, ⁵⁷Kain, Gibeah, and Timmah—ten cities and their suburbs.

⁵⁸Halhul, Beth-zur, Gedor, ⁵⁹Maarath, Beth-anoth, and Eltekon—six cities with their suburbs.

⁶⁰Kiriath-baal, which is Kiriath-jearim, and Rabbah^d—two cities and their suburbs.

⁶¹In the desert, Beth-arabah, Mid-din, Secacah, ⁶²Nibshan, the City of Salt, and Engedi—six cities and their suburbs.

⁶³However, Judah was not able to expel the Jebusites who inhabit Jerusalem, so they live with Judah in Jerusalem to this day.^e

1399-1398 B. C.

16 THEN THE LOT OF THE DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH came up. (Its border runs) from the Jordan opposite Jericho^f to the waters of Jericho in the east and through the desert^g from Jericho to Beth-el in the mountains. ²From Beth-el (Luz)^h it runs on to the territory of the Archites at Ataroth ³and westward down to the territory of the Japhletites, on to the territory of lower Beth-horon, to Gezer, and it ends at the sea.ⁱ

⁴Manasseh and Ephraim, the descendants of Joseph, received a heritage. ⁵This is the territory of the Ephraimites, which belongs to their families. The border of their heritage runs from Ataroth-addar on the east to Upper Beth-horon^j ⁶and on out to the sea. Michmethath is on the north. Then on the east the border curves round to Taanathshiloh, and eastward to Janoah, ⁷then down from Janoah past Ataroth^k to Naarah, and after touching at Jericho,^l it goes out to the Jordan.

⁸The border runs from Tappuah west along the river Kanah and out to the sea. This is the heritage of the tribe of the Ephraimites for their families.

⁹There are also the separate cities located within the heritage of the Manassites, which belong to the Ephraimites, all these cities and their suburbs.

g) In the following passage, the differences between the number of cities listed and the totals cited are due to inclusion or exclusion of suburbs or hamlets.

h) The location of Rabbah is unknown, but it is not to be identified with the Rabbah of ch. 13:25.

i) Although Jerusalem was located in the territory of Benjamin (ch. 18:28), Judah conquered and burned it after Joshua's death (Judg. 1:8). But apparently the Jebusites rebuilt it, because later the Benjamites were unable to oust them (Judg. 1:21). Jerusalem was not finally conquered by the Israelites until the time of David (II Samuel 5:6-10). f) Jericho itself was not included

j) The desert of Beth-aven east of Beth-el.

k) The name of Beth-el was formerly Luz (Gen. 28:19; Josh. 18:13; Judg. 1:23).

l) The Mediterranean.

m) In describing the southern border of the tribes of Joseph, upper Beth-horon is mentioned in vs. 5 and lower Beth-horon in vs. 3. These places were closely situated.

n) Not the Ataroth mentioned in vss. 2, 5. 1) Specifically, at the waters of Jericho. See vs. 1.

¹⁰However they did not expel the Canaanites living in Gezer;^m so to this day the Canaanites live in the midst of Ephraim; but they have become bond servants.

1399-1398 B. C.^r

17 THEN THERE WAS THE LOT FOR the tribe of Manasseh, because he was the first-born of Joseph. To Machir, the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war, Gilead and Bashan had been allotted; ²also for the families of the rest of the Manassites, namely, the Abiezrites,ⁿ Helekites, Asrielites, Shechemites, Hephherites, and Shemidaite — these were the families of the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph.

³Zelophehad the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh,^o had no sons but only daughters. These were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ⁴They met with Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the officers, and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our kinsmen."^p So they gave them an inheritance among their father's kinsmen as the LORD said. ⁶Thus there turned out to be ten portions of Manasseh, besides the territory of Gilead and Bashan on the other side of the Jordan, ⁶because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the other Manassites.

⁷The border of Manasseh runs from Asher to Michmethath, which lies east of Shechem; then it goes southward to the inhabitants of En-Tappuah. ⁸The territory of Tappuah belongs to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belongs to the Ephraimites. ⁹The border runs down the river

Kanah and to the south of it. The cities here, among the cities of Manasseh, belong to Ephraim. Then the border runs along the north side of the river and ends at the sea. ¹⁰The south side belongs to Ephraim, the north side to Manasseh, and the sea is their border. They extend to Asher in the north and to Issachar in the east. ¹¹In Issachar and Asher, Manasseh owns Beth-shean with its villages, Ibleam with its villages, the inhabitants of Dor^q with its villages, the inhabitants of En-dor with its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach with its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with its villages — the third city is Naphath. ¹²The Manassites could not take possession of these cities because the Canaanites were determined to live in this territory. ¹³Although the Israelites were strong enough to make the Canaanites servants, they could not expel them completely.

¹⁴The Josephites said to Joshua, "Why did you give us an inheritance consisting of one lot — one portion — seeing that we have such a large population because the LORD has thus far blessed us?"

¹⁵"If you have such a large population," replied Joshua, "go up to the forest and clear a place for yourselves in the region of the Perizzites and Rephaim, since the mountains of Ephraim are not sufficient for you."

¹⁶"The mountains are not sufficient for us," said the Josephites, "but all the Canaanites who live in the lowlands, both in Beth-shean and its villages and in the valley of Jezreel, have iron chariots."^s ¹⁷Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, "You have a large population and great strength. You shall not have only one portion." ¹⁸The mountain country will be yours. Although it is forest, you

m) Gezer was conquered by the king of Egypt, who gave it to Solomon as a dowry (I Kings 9:16).

n) Gideon's clan (Judg. 6:11, 24).

o) Joshua's conquest of Palestine occurred around 1400 B.C. About 350 years must have elapsed between the lifetimes of Manasseh and Zelophehad's daughters. It is therefore notable that Zelophehad's genealogy is in accord with the estimated chronology of current archeologists.

p) Num. 27:1-11; 36:5-13.

q) Dor is specifically identified as Naphath-dor, near the west coast, 9 miles north of later Caesarea.

r) Again the datings are approximate; but we know that further conquests and distributions took place between 1400 and 1395 B.C., and much effort was involved.

s) The chariots were wooden and plated with iron.

t) Joshua encourages them to make full use of what they were given; he does not give them an additional allotment.

will clear it, and it will be yours in its entirety, because you will expel the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and are strong."

1398-1397 B.C.

18 THE WHOLE ISRAELITE CONgregation assembled at Shiloh^u where they set up the tabernacle;^v for the region that lay about them had been conquered. ²There remained seven tribes among the Israelites to whom their inheritance had not been distributed. ³So Joshua said to the Israelites, "How long will you fail to go out and take possession of the land, which the LORD God of your fathers has given you? ⁴Select three men from each tribe,^w and I shall commission them to go throughout the land to make a description of it^x to determine their inheritance. Then they will return to me. ⁵They will divide it into seven portions. Judah's boundaries remain in the south and the territory of the house of Joseph in the north.^y ⁶Make a description of the land in seven portions, and bring it to me. I shall cast lots for you here, in accordance with the decree of the LORD your God. ⁷There is no portion for the Levites among you because the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance.^z Gad, Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance which Moses, the servant of the LORD, granted them on the east side of the Jordan."

⁸When the men stepped forward to go, Joshua charged them to make a description of the land. "Go throughout the land, and make a description of it. Then return to me here, and I shall cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh." ⁹The men departed and traveled throughout the land, recording a description of it with regard to its cities and the seven portions. Afterward they returned to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh. ¹⁰When Joshua cast lots for them at Shiloh before the LORD, he distributed the land to the Israelites, according to their divisions.

¹¹The lot for the families of the Benjamin tribe came up. Their allotted territory lies between the Judahites and the Josephites. ¹²On the north side, their border runs up from the Jordan to the northern slope of Jericho, then westward into the mountains, and it ends at the desert of Bethaven. ¹³From there it runs toward Luz, which is Beth-el, to its southern slope, where it descends past Ataroth-adar to the mountain which is south of Lower Beth-horon. ¹⁴Then the border veers and curves westward south of the mountain, which faces Beth-horon on the south. It ends at Kiriath-baal, which is Kiriath-yearim, a Judahite city. This is the western side. ¹⁵The southern side runs from the edge of Kiriath-yearim where the border goes westward to the spring of the Waters of Nephthoah. ¹⁶Then it descends to the base of the mountain by the valley of Ben-Hinnom,^a which is north of the valley of Rephaim. It continues down the valley of Hinnom to the southern slope of the Jebusites, and on down to En-rogel. ¹⁷Then veering northward, it goes to En-shemesh and to Geliloth opposite the rise of Adummim, then down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, ¹⁸where it passes on to the slope facing the Arabah on the north. It then descends to the Arabah, ¹⁹where it passes on to the northern slope of Beth-hoglah and ends at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan. This is the southern border, ²⁰and the Jordan forms its border on the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the Benjamites with its borders enclosing their families.

u) The tabernacle had been standing at Gilgal. Shiloh was a strategic site in the hill country for defensibility, and central for all the tribes.

v) Israel was more than a nation; it was a religious congregation. Its national shrine was the tent where the people met with God (Ex. 29:42-46). w) From the seven remaining tribes.

x) Arability, water, timber, and terrain were the features noted in the description; so that equitable distribution of the land might be made.

y) Allotments made to Judah and the house of Joseph in the south and north respectively were not to be altered.

z) The Levites were thus scattered throughout Israel to minister to the religious life of all the people.

a) A place near Jerusalem where in idolatrous times children were offered to Moloch (II Chron. 28:3; 33:6). Josiah destroyed it (II Kings 23:10).

²¹The cities which belong to the Benjamites for their families are Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz, ²²Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Beth-el,^b ²³Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, ²⁴Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, and Geba — twelve cities with their suburbs. ²⁵Gibeon, Ramah, Beer-oth, ²⁶Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, ²⁷Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, ²⁸Zela, Haeleph, the Jebusite (which is Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath-jearim^b — fourteen cities and their suburbs. This is the inheritance of the Benjamites according to their families.

1397-1396 B.C.

19 THE SECOND LOT CAME UP FOR Simeon, for the tribe of the Simeonites, for their families. Their inheritance lay inside the heritage of the Judahites.^c ²Included in their heritage are Beer-sheba, Sheba, Moladah, ³Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem, ⁴Eltolad, Beth-ul, Hormah, ⁵Ziklag, Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susah, ⁶Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuh-en — fourteen cities with their suburbs. ⁷Ain Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan — four cities with their suburbs; ⁸and also all the villages around these cities as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the southland. This is the heritage of the tribe of Simeon for its families.

⁹The heritage of the Simeonites was part of the Judahite portion. Since the allotment of the Judahites was too large for them, the Simeonites received their inheritance inside the heritage of Judah.

¹⁰The third lot came up for the Zebulunites, for their families. The territory of their heritage goes as far as Sarid.^d

¹¹Their border goes up westward to Mareal and touches at both Dabbeseth and the river which is by Jokneam. ¹²From Sarid it turns eastward toward the sunrise to the region of Chisloth-tabor ¹³where it goes on to Daberath, then up to Japhia. It moves on from there eastward toward the sunrise to Gath-hepther and Eth-kazin, then on to Rimmon where it veers to Neah. ¹⁴The border then turns northward to Hannathon and ends at the valley of Iphtahel. ¹⁵Included are Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem^e — twelve cities with their suburbs. ¹⁶This is the inheritance of the Zebulunites for their families — these cities with their suburbs.

¹⁷The fourth lot came up for Issachar, for the Issacharites for their families. ¹⁸Their territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem, ¹⁹Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, ²⁰Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, ²¹Remeth, Engannim, Enhad-dah, and Beth-pazzez. ²²Their border also touches at Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh and ends at the Jordan — sixteen cities with their suburbs. ²³This is the inheritance of the tribe of the Issacharites for their families — the cities with their suburbs.

²⁴The fifth lot came up for the Asherite tribe for their families. ²⁵Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Bet-en, Achshaph, ²⁶Alammelech, Amad, and Mishal. In the west it takes in Carmel and Shihor-libnath. ²⁷It turns eastward to Beth-dagon and reaches to Zebulun along the valley of Iphtah-el northward to Beth-emek and Neiel. Then it goes further north to Kabul. ²⁸Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, and as far as Greater Sidon, ²⁹where it turns to Ramah and on to the fortified city of Tyre,^f then it turns to Hosah and ends at the sea. Included are Mahalab, Achzib, ³⁰Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob — twenty-two cities with their suburbs. ³¹This is the inheritance of the Asherite tribe for its families—these cities with their suburbs.

³²The sixth lot came up for the Naphtalites for their families. ³³Their border runs from Heleph, from the oak in Za-anannim, through Adami-nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, ending at the Jordan. ³⁴Then the border turns

b) Comp. Josh. 15:6, 61, where Beth-arabah is given to Judah; Josh. 18:13, where Beth-el is given to Benjamin; and Josh. 15:60; 18:14, where Kiriath-jearim is given to Judah, each a town on a boundary line that made them partly located in one tribe and partly in another tribe.

c) Simeon lost its identity when Israel divided into two kingdoms. The southern kingdom included Benjamin mostly and Judah, into which Simeon had been merged, and most of Levi. Compare Gen. 49:7.

d) Although not included in the territory of Zebulun, Sarid, whose exact location is not yet known, was a central point on Zebulun's southern border. The course of the border westward and eastward from Sarid is described in vss. 11 and 12, respectively.

e) Modern Beit-Lahm, 7 miles northwest of Nazareth. f) Not the famous Phoenician Tyre.

westward to Aznoth-tabor, going from there to Hukkok. It touches Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west, and Judah^g at the Jordan in the east. ³⁵The fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, ³⁶Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, ³⁷Kedesh, Edrei, Enhazor, ³⁸Yiron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh^h — nineteen cities with their suburbs. ³⁹This is the inheritance of the Naphtalite tribe for their families — the cities with their suburbs.

⁴⁰The seventh lot came up for the Danite tribe for their families. ⁴¹The territoryⁱ of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshta-ol, Ir-shemesh, ⁴²Sha-alabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, ⁴³Elon, Timnah, Ekron, ⁴⁴Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, ⁴⁵Jehud, Bene-berak, Gath-rimmon, ⁴⁶and Me-jarkon and Rakkon, with the territory by Joppa. ⁴⁷When the territory of the Danites was lost to them, they went up and fought against Lesh-chem. They captured it and ravaged it with the sword; they took possession of it and lived in it, calling Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan, their ancestor. ⁴⁸This is the inheritance of the tribe of the Danites for their families—these cities with their suburbs.

⁴⁹When they had determined the inheritance of the land by territories, the Israelites granted to Joshua the son of Nun an inheritance amongst theirs. ⁵⁰In accordance with the command of the LORD, they granted him the city he requested, namely, Timnath-serah in the mountains of Ephraim. He built up the city and lived in it.

⁵¹These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the ruling elders granted by lot to the tribes of the Israelites in Shiloh before the LORD, at the entrance of the meeting tent. Thus they completed the allocation of the land.

1396 B. C.

20 THE LORD SAID TO JOSHUA: ²Say to the Israelites, "Establish the cities of refuge, concerning which I spoke to you through Moses,¹ ³so that the manslayer who has killed a person accidentally, without premeditation, may resort there. These will be your refuge from the blood avenger. ⁴Should one resort to one of these cities and, standing at the gate of the city, declare his case at a hearing of the elders of the city, they shall receive him into the city among themselves to give him refuge, and he will live with them. ⁵Even though the blood avenger comes after him, they shall not deliver the manslayer over to him; because he killed his neighbor without premeditation and without hating him beforehand. ⁶He may live in this city until they both appear before the assembly for the trial and until the death of the one who is high priest at the time. Then the manslayer may return to his own city and his own home, even to the city from which he fled."

⁷They set apart Kedesh^k in Galilee in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kiriat-arba (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Judah. ⁸Across the Jordan east of Jericho, they provided Bezer on the desert plateau from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.¹

⁹These were the appointed cities for every Israelite and for the alien staying

g) Judah here does not refer to the tribe of Judah but probably to Havvoth-jair, 60 cities in Gilead east of the Jordan. These cities were possessed by Jair, a Manassite on his grandmother's side — hence his inheritance with Manasseh — but a Judahite on his grandfather's side, and lineage normally followed the male line. For this reason Havvoth-jair may have been also known as Judah (Deut. 3:14; 1 Kings 4:13; 1 Chron. 2:3-5,21,22).

h) Not the Beth-shemesh in Issachar (vs. 22), from which the Canaanites were not expelled (Judg. 1:33).

i) Some of the northern cities of Judah and the southern cities of Ephraim were ceded to Dan. Even so it was inadequate for their number, so that half of them migrated northeastward, forming the Dan territory (Judg. 18).

j) Num. 35:9-34; Deut. 19:1-13. Justice was thus assured to the accidental homicide, and the community was protected from the wanton murderer. This procedure replaced the custom, according to which the manslayer resorted to an altar of the LORD (Ex. 21:12-14; 1 Kings 1:50-53; 2:28-34). The most primitive method of dealing with a criminal was unrelenting revenge (Gen. 4:14, 15). k) Judge Barak's home town (Judg. 4:6).

l) One city in each of the north, central, and south zones on both sides of the Jordan was selected (Deut. 4:41-43).

among them; so that anyone who had killed a person accidentally might flee there and not be put to death by the hand of the blood avenger until he had appeared before the assembly.

1396 B. C.

21 THE CHIEF ELDERS OF THE Levites appeared before Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief elders of the tribes of Israel. ²This was in Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

"The LORD gave a command^m through Moses," they said to them, "to grant us cities to live in and their pastures for our herds."ⁿ ³So, in accordance with the instruction of the LORD, the Israelites granted these cities and their pastures to the Levites out of their own inheritances.

⁴The lot for the Kohathite families^o came up. It comprised thirteen cities from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, for the Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest. ⁵Ten cities from the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and the half tribe of Manasseh went up by lot to the rest of the Kohathite families. ⁶Thirteen cities from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, went by lot to the Gershonite families. ⁷To the Merarite families went twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. ⁸The Israelites granted to the Levites these cities and their pastures by lot, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

⁹From the tribes of the Judahites and Simeonites, they granted these cities specified by name. ¹⁰They were for the Aaronites from the Kohathite branch of the Levites, because the first lot was theirs. ¹¹They granted them Kiriath-arba — (Arba was) the father of Anak — with its surrounding pastures. It is now called Hebron^p and is in the mountains of Judah. ¹²However, they had granted the fields of the city and its suburbs to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his property. ¹³To the descendants of Aaron the priest, they granted the city of refuge for the manslayer, Hebron with its pastures, Libnah with its pastures, ¹⁴Jattir with its pastures, Eshtemoa with its pastures, ¹⁵Holon with its pastures, Debir with its pastures, ¹⁶Ain with its pastures, Juttah with its pastures, and Bethshemesh with its pastures — nine cities from these two tribes. ¹⁷From the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pastures, Geba with its pastures, ¹⁸Anathoth^q with its pastures, and Almon with its pastures — four cities. ¹⁹The total number of cities with their pastures for the descendants of Aaron the priest was thirteen.

²⁰Then cities from the tribe of Ephraim were allotted to the Kohathite branch of the Levites for the remaining Kohathites. ²¹They granted to them the city of refuge for the manslayer, Shechem with its pastures in the mountains of Ephraim, Gezer with its pastures, ²²Kibzaim with its pastures, and Beth-horon with its pastures — four cities.

²³From the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its pastures, Gibbethon with its pastures, ²⁴Aijalon with its pastures, and Gath-rimmon with its pastures — four cities. ²⁵From the half tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its pastures, and Gath-rimmon^r with its pastures — two cities. ²⁶There was a total of ten cities with their pastures for the other Kohathite families.

²⁷To the Gershonite branch of the Levites went the city of refuge for the manslayer, Golan with its pastures in Bashan and Be-eshterah with its pastures, from the half tribe of Manasseh — two cities. ²⁸From the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its pastures, Daberrath with its pastures, ²⁹Jarmuth with its pastures, and En-gannim with its pastures — four cities. ³⁰From the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its pastures, Abdon with its pastures, ³¹Helkath with its

^m) Num. 35:1-8.

ⁿ) The Levites did not occupy these cities exclusively, but only such living quarters as they required. ^o) For the genealogy of Levi, see Ex. 6:16-25.

^p) "Union" — probably because four villages were consolidated. Mamre was one of them. They were about 20 miles south of Jerusalem. ^q) Famous as Jeremiah's birthplace.

^r) Gath-rimmon was a city in Dan (vs. 24). Ibleam may have stood here originally. See Bileam (1 Chron. 6:70).

pastures, and Rehob with its pastures — four cities. ³²From the tribe of Naphtali, the city of refuge for the manslayer, Kedesh in Galilee with its pastures, Hammoth-dor with its pastures, and Kartan with its pastures — three cities. ³³The total cities of the Gershonites for their families were thirteen and included their pastures.

³⁴To the remaining Levites, the Merarite branch, they granted from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pastures, Kartah with its pastures, ³⁵Dimnah with its pastures and Nahalal with its pastures — four cities. ³⁶From the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its pastures, Jahazah with its pastures, ³⁷Kedemoth with its pastures, and Mepha-ath with its pastures — four cities.^a ³⁸From the tribe of Gad, the city of refuge for the manslayer, Ramoth in Gilead with its pastures, Mahanaim with its pastures, ³⁹Heshbon with its pastures, and Jazer with its pastures — four cities in all. ⁴⁰All these cities were for the Merarites, the remaining branch of the Levites, by their families. Their allotment was comprised of twelve cities.

⁴¹All the Levite cities were within the holdings of the Israelites and numbered forty-eight cities with their pastures. ⁴²These are the cities, each city with its surrounding pastures. So it was with all these cities.

⁴³The Lord gave Israel the whole land which He promised their fathers to give them. They took possession of it and lived in it. ⁴⁴The Lord gave them peace on every side, according to all that He had promised their ancestors. None of their enemies could withstand them, because the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hands. ⁴⁵Of all the good promises which the Lord had made to the house of Israel, not one failed; they were all fulfilled.^t

1399 B. C.

22 JOSHUA SUMMONED THE REUBENITES, THE GADITES, AND THE half tribe of Manasseh, ²and said to them, "You have observed all that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, and you have obeyed me in all that I have ordered you. ³You have not forsaken your kinsmen, though it has been a long time, even to this day, and you have obediently kept the commandment of the Lord your God. ⁴Now the Lord your God has given peace to your kinsmen, as He had promised them; so depart now, and go to your own tents^u in the land that you possess, which Moses the servant of the Lord granted you on the other side of the Jordan. ⁵Only be very careful to obey the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you. Love the Lord your God; walk in all His ways; observe His commandments; cling to Him and be steadfast with your whole heart and soul." ⁶After blessing them, Joshua discharged them, and they went to their tents.^v ⁷Moses had made a grant to half the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan; so Joshua made a grant to the other half among their kinsmen on the west side of the Jordan. Joshua also sent them^v to their tents when he had blessed them.

⁸"When you return to your tents," he said to them, "with your great wealth and very many cattle, with silver and gold, bronze and iron, and countless garments, share the spoils of your enemies with your kinsmen."

⁹The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh departed from the Israelites in Shiloh in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, the land which belonged to them; for they had taken possession of it, according to the Lord's command through Moses. ¹⁰When they came to the district of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh built an altar there near the Jordan, a large altar to draw attention.

^a) Vss. 36, 37 are similar to I Chronicles 6:63, 64.

^t) Although Canaanites still remained in the land, their strength was so diminished that they would have been powerless to defend themselves against complete extermination, had this been Israel's concerted purpose. ^u) Their permanent homes east of the Jordan.

^v) The Manassites of Bashan.

¹¹The Israelites were told, "The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the land of Canaan in the district of the Jordan on the side of the Israelites."

¹²When the Israelites heard this, their whole congregation assembled at Shiloh, to march against them in war.

¹³Then the Israelites sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest into the land of Gilead to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

¹⁴Ten men accompanied him, one from each ruling house in every tribe in Israel, and each was the chief of his house, ruling over the tribes of Israel.

¹⁵When they came to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead, they said to them,

¹⁶"The whole congregation of the LORD inquires, 'Why have you committed this transgression against the God of Israel, turning away from the LORD now, by building an altar' in rebellion against Him? ¹⁷Have we not had enough of the sin of Peor, from which we have not yet rid ourselves and because of which a plague fell upon the congregation of the LORD,^y ¹⁸that today you have turned away from the LORD? Since you have rebelled against the LORD today, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.^z ¹⁹Now if the land of your possession is unclean,^a cross over to the land which the LORD possesses, where His tabernacle stands, and take possession among us. But neither rebel against the LORD nor against us, by building any altar for yourselves, besides the altar of the LORD our God. ²⁰Did not Achan^b the son of Zerah commit a transgression against the devoted portion, so that anger fell upon the whole congregation of Israel? That man did not die alone because of his wickedness."^c

²¹In reply, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh

said to the tribal leaders of Israel, ²²"The Mighty One, God the LORD, the Mighty One, God the LORD, Himself understands, and may Israel itself understand. Do not spare us today, if in rebellion or transgression against the LORD ²³we built the altar to turn away from the LORD. If it was to put burnt offerings and food offerings upon it and to perform the sacrifices of thanksgiving upon it, may the LORD Himself bring retribution. ²⁴It was because of concern that we did this. 'Hereafter,' we said, 'your descendants may say to ours, "What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?' ²⁵The LORD made the Jordan a boundary between you, the Reubenites and the Gadites, and ourselves. You have no portion with the LORD."^c Thus your descendants might make our descendants cease revering the LORD. ²⁶So we said, "Let us build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, ²⁷but for a testimony between you and us, and between our descendants after us, for the perpetual performance of the service of the LORD in His presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and thank offerings; so your descendants will not say to ours hereafter, 'You have no portion in the LORD.'" ²⁸So we said, "If it ever occurs, that they say this to us or to our descendants hereafter, then we shall reply, 'See the design of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though neither for burnt offering nor sacrifice. It is a testimony between ourselves and you.'" ²⁹Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away from Him this day by building an altar for burnt offerings, food offerings, and sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God, which is in front of His tabernacle."^c ³⁰Phinehas the priest, the leaders of the congregation and the chiefs of the tribes of Israel which were with him, heard the words which the Reubenites,

w) Each of the nine and a half western tribes was represented by a delegate.

x) The building of this second altar would have violated the law of Deut. 12:1-14, had it been for sacrifices. It should have been called a monument.

y) Num. 25:1-9. The moral and spiritual effects of that incident still infected Israel and were the cause of chronic defection throughout its history.

z) The concept of collective responsibility for individual failure greatly influenced the religious thought of Israel and of the New Testament church.

a) All lands not sanctified by the manifest Presence of God were considered unclean. b) Ch. 7. c) At this time the official altar stood at Shiloh (ch. 18:1).

the Gadites, and the Manassites spoke, and they seemed reasonable to them. ³¹So Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the Manassites, "Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this transgression against the LORD. Consequently, you have spared the Israelites from the hand of the LORD."

³²Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites in the land of Gilead to the Israelites in the land of Canaan; and they gave them a report on the matter. ³³It seemed reasonable to the Israelites; so they praised God and did not order the troops to march against them to destroy the land, in which the Reubenites and the Gadites lived.

³⁴The Reubenites and the Gadites named the altar: "A witness between us that the LORD is God."^d

1395 B. C.

23 AFTER A LONG TIME, THE LORD gave Israel peace with all their enemies in the surrounding area. Joshua was old and ripe with age, ²so he summoned^e all Israel, its elders, chiefs, judges, and officers,^f and said to them, "I am old and ripe with age. ³You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these nations in your behalf, for the LORD your God is the One who has fought for you. ⁴Besides all the nations which I have cut down from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west, I have allotted to you those nations remaining within the inheritances which belong to your tribes.^g ⁵The LORD your God Himself will push them back and expel them for you, and you may take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you. ⁶Be very resolute in observing and practicing every precept in the book of the Law of Moses. Do not turn from it to the right or left.

⁷"Do not associate with those nations which are still among you; neither take thought of the names of their gods, nor swear by them, and do not serve them or pay homage to them, ⁸but cling to the LORD your God as you have until this day.^h ⁹The LORD has thrust great and powerful nations out of your way, and to this day none withstands you. ¹⁰One of you put a thousand to flight because the LORD your God Himself fought for you, as He has promised. ¹¹Be very careful to love the LORD your God, ¹²for if you turn away and join with the rest of these nations which are still among you, intermarrying with them and associating together, ¹³be very sure that the LORD your God will not continue to drive back these nations in your behalf. They will become a trap and a snare to you, a whip in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good country which the LORD your God gave you.

¹⁴"Today I am going the way of all the earth; and you know with all your hearts and souls that not one of all the good promises which the LORD your God made to you has failed. They all came to pass for you; not one of them has failed. ¹⁵But just as every good promise which the LORD your God made to you has come to pass for you, so He will carry out every warning upon you until He has destroyed you from this good land which He has given you. ¹⁶Should you break the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, to follow and serve other gods and to pay homage to them, the LORD will burn with anger against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land which He gave you."ⁱ

1394 B. C.

24 JOSHUA CALLED TOGETHER ALL the tribes of Israel at Shechem.^j When he had summoned the elders of

d) This altar of testimony is not mentioned elsewhere in the Bible. It had been built west of the Jordan and near it; see vs. 11.

e) Joshua summoned the officials either to Timnath-serah, where he resided (ch. 19:50), or to Shiloh, where the tabernacle stood.

f) All those summoned were elders; some were tribal leaders, some were judges, and some were civil officials. g) Ch. 13:2-6. h) National faithfulness is specially in view.

i) Lev. 26:14-26; Deut. 28:15-68; 29:16-28.

j) Shechem was a historic site. Here the LORD first promised Canaan to Abram (Gen. 12:6, 7); here Jacob destroyed the idols which his retinue brought from Mesopotamia (Gen. 35:2-5); here the Law of Moses was officially put in force in the land of Canaan (ch. 8:30-35).

Israel, the chiefs, the judges, and the officers, they stood before God,² and Joshua addressed the people: "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Long ago your ancestors lived beyond the river.^k Terah was the father of Abraham and Nahor;^l but they served other gods.³ So I took your ancestor Abraham from beyond the river and led him through the whole land of Canaan,^m and I multiplied his offspring by giving him Isaac.ⁿ Then to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau.^o I gave Esau the mountains of Seir to possess,^p but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.^q Then I sent Moses and Aaron and brought a plague upon Egypt, with what I did among them;^r afterwards I brought you out.^s When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, you came to the sea,^t and the Egyptians chased your fathers in chariots and on horseback to the Red Sea.^u You cried out to the LORD, and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians. Then He caused the sea to cover them and drown them.^v Your own eyes saw what I did to Egypt. Thereafter you lived in the desert for a long time,^w until I brought you to the land of the Amorites, living across the Jordan. When they fought against you, I delivered them up to you, and you took possession of their land, as I destroyed them for you.^x

⁹"When Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, rose up and fought^y against Israel, he sent for Balaam son of Beor to put you under a curse.¹⁰ But when I would not listen to Balaam, he blessed you, and I delivered you from his hand.^x Then you crossed the Jordan, and when you came to Jericho, the inhabitants of Jericho, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites fought against you.

But I delivered them into your hands.¹² I sent the wasp ahead of you, and it drove out before you the two kings of the Amorites without your sword or bow.^y I gave you a land for which you have not labored; you have settled in cities which you have not built; and you eat of orchards and olive trees which you have not planted.

¹⁴"Now then, revere the LORD, and serve Him in sincerity and truth. Reject the gods which your ancestors served beyond the river and in Egypt,^z and serve the LORD.¹⁵ However, if it seems wrong in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose today whom you will serve — whether the gods whom your fathers served beyond the river or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. Nevertheless, I and my house, we shall serve the LORD.¹⁶

¹⁶The people replied, "May it never be that we shall forsake the LORD to serve other gods; ¹⁷because it was the LORD our God Himself who brought us and our ancestors from the land of Egypt, the place of bondage, and because He performed these great miracles before our eyes, protecting us throughout our whole journey, from all the peoples through whom we passed. ¹⁸Furthermore, the LORD drove out before us the Amorites and all the peoples, the men of the land. We, too, shall serve the LORD, for He is our God."

¹⁹Then Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to serve the LORD, for God is holy;^b He is an ardent God^c and will indulge neither your rebellions nor your sins. ²⁰If you forsake the LORD and serve other gods, He will turn away and punish you and destroy you, despite the fact that He has been good to you." ²¹"Not so," the people replied to Joshua, "for we will serve the LORD."

k) The Euphrates.

l) Terah had three sons (Gen. 11:27), but only Abraham and Nahor are mentioned here because they were the ancestors of Israel—Nahor as grandfather of Rebekah (Gen. 22:20-23), and great-grandfather of Rachel and Leah, the patriarchs of Israel (Gen. 29:10, 16). m) Gen. 13:17. n) Gen. 21:1-3. o) Gen. 25:21-26. p) Gen. 36:6-8. q) Gen. 46. r) Ex. 7:14-12:36.

s) Ex. 14:1. t) Literally 'sea of sedge,' because of its profuseness of seaweeds. u) Ex. 14:5-31. v) Num. 21:21-35. w) Num. 22:6, 11. Compare Deut. 2:9; Judg. 11:25. x) Num. 22:24. y) The wasp was the dreadful power of God that defeated Sihon and Og (Compare Ex. 23:27-30). z) Lev. 17:7; Ezek. 20:7; 23:3, 8.

a) Worship begins at home. There Joshua himself was priest at the family altar.

b) By this Joshua implies that the requirements for serving the LORD are definite and inflexible.

c) Ex. 20:5.

²²"You yourselves are witnesses that you have chosen to serve the LORD," said Joshua to the people. "We are witnesses," they replied.

²³"Now then, turn away from the other gods, which are around you,^d and give your hearts to the LORD God of Israel." ²⁴So the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and obey His voice."

²⁵On that day Joshua made a covenant with the people, and he laid down statutes and decrees for them in Shechem. ²⁶He wrote these precepts in the book of the Law of God, and, taking a large stone, he set it up there beneath the oak tree which was sacred to the LORD.^e ²⁷Then Joshua said to all the people, "This stone shall be with us for a testimony; for it has heard all the messages of the LORD, which He has spoken to us. It will be with you for a testimony, lest you deny your God." ²⁸Then Joshua dismissed the people, each to his own heritage.

²⁹After these events, Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died. He was a hundred and ten years of age.^f ³⁰They buried him in the grounds of his inheritance, in Timnath-serah, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

³¹Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and of the elders who lived after him and who knew everything that the LORD had done for Israel.^g ³²They buried the bones of Joseph,^h which the Israelites brought from Egypt, at Shechem, in a portion of the field which Jacob had bought for about 200 dollars from the descendants of Hamor, who was the father of Shechem.ⁱ Now it was the inheritance for the descendants of Joseph.

³³Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him on the hill that was given to his son Phinehas in the mountains of Ephraim.

d) The gods of the heathen natives still living in Canaan. Ch. 24:31 implies that they were not practicing idolatry during the administration of Joshua. e) See note on vs. 1. f) As no date of his birth is given, nor is there any indication of his age on any previous occasion of which we have a date, we do not know in what year he died, as we know it of Caleb. His blessing Caleb suggests that he was older than Caleb (ch. 14:13). g) Moses, to render himself dispensable, had trained Joshua to be his successor; but Joshua and the elders were so busy conquering the Canaanites, they failed to raise a generation to take their place as worshipers and servants of God. h) Gen. 50:24, 25; Ex. 13:19. i) Gen. 33:19.

THE BOOK OF

JUDGES

1394-1390 B.C.

1 AFTER THE DEATH OF JOSHUA, IT came about that the Israelites inquired of the LORD, "Who of us shall march first to fight the Canaanites?" 2The LORD said: Judah shall go up. See, I have delivered the land into his hand.^a 3Then Judah said to Simeon, his brother, "Come up with me into my allotment, so that we may fight the Canaanites together; then I will march with you into your allotment." So Simeon went with him. 4Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. At Bezek they defeated the enemy, who suffered ten thousand casualties; 5for they met Adoni-bezek at Bezek,^b fought him, and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites. 6Adoni-bezek tried to escape, but after pursuit they caught him and severed his thumbs and his big toes. 7Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off gleaned leftovers under my table; as I have done, so God has requited me." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

8The men of Judah also attacked Jerusalem, and upon capturing the city, they destroyed it with the sword and burned it. 9Afterward the Judahites went down and fought the Canaanites living in the hill country, in the south, and in the lowland. 10Then Judah marched against the Canaanites at Hebron. (Prior to this time Hebron was called Kiriath-arba).^c In the ensuing battle they defeated Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi.^d 11Then they marched against Debir, which had been called Kiriath-sepher.^e 12Caleb said, "Whoever attacks and captures Kiriath-sepher, him I will give my daughter Achsah in marriage." 13Now Othniel, the son of Caleb's younger brother Kenaz, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage. 14When she came to him, she persuaded him to ask her father for a field.^f As she alighted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What do you want?" 15She said to him, "Give me a wedding present. You have given me the dry land of the south; give me with it also water springs." Then Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

16The descendants of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, left the city of palm trees,^g joined the children of Judah in the wilderness of Judah, south of Arad, and lived among the people there.^h 17Judah went with Simeon, his brother, and they defeated and utterly destroyed all the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath. They therefore named the place Hormah.ⁱ 18Judah also took Gaza, Ashkelon, Ekron, and the communities surrounding these towns.

19The LORD was with Judah; so he took possession of the hill country, but he was unable to expel the inhabitants

a) They would consult by means of the Urim and Thummim [Num. 27:21, etc.].

b) Located in Ephraim's territory. c) City of Arba, the father of Anak. d) Sons of the giant Anak.

e) City of the book; a library may have been there. f) Or, the field, indicating a choice field.

g) Jericho. h) Among the Amalekites [I Sam. 15:6]. i) Destruction.

of the valley because they had iron chariots. ²⁰Hebron they gave to Caleb, as Moses had said, and he drove out the three sons of Anak.

²¹Benjamin failed to drive out the Jebusite dwellers in Jerusalem; so that the Jebusites live with the Benjamites in Jerusalem to this day.^j ²²The family of Joseph went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. ²³When the house of Joseph sent men to spy on Bethel, which before this was called Luz, ²⁴the spies saw a man come out of the city, and they said to him, "Show us, please, the entrance to the city, and we will deal kindly with you."

²⁵When he showed them the entrance to the city, they destroyed the city with the sword; ²⁶but the man and all his family were permitted to move into the land of the Hittites, where he built the city of Luz, so called to this day.

²⁷Manasseh did not expel the people of Beth-shean and its suburbs, nor of Taanach and its suburbs, nor the people of Dor and its suburbs, nor those of Ibleam and its suburbs, nor those of Megiddo and its suburbs; for the Canaanites were determined to live in that land. ²⁸After Israel became strong and established, the Canaanites were permitted to stay in the land, but they were compelled to pay tribute.^k

²⁹Ephraim, too, failed to expel the Canaanites but permitted them to live among his people in Gezer. ³⁰Neither did Zebulun expel the people of Kitron and the people of Nahalol; these Canaanites were allowed to live among them in the land as tribute-paying subjects. ³¹Asher did not expel the Acco people, either, or the people of Sidon, of Ahlab, of Achzib, of Helbah, of Aphik, or of Rehob. ³²The Canaanites were allowed to stay in the land, and the Asherites lived among them.^l

³³Neither did Naphtali expel the natives of Beth-shemesh nor of Beth-anath; he lived among the native Canaanites. However, the natives of Beth-

shemesh and of Beth-anath became their tribute-paying subjects. ³⁴The Danites, too, were unable to possess the valley and were driven into the hills by the Amorites. ³⁵Even though the Amorites were determined to dwell in Har-heres,^m in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, the Joseph tribe suppressed them, so that finally the Amorites were forced to pay tribute. ³⁶The border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Scorpion Pass, from Selaⁿ on and upward.

2 THE ANGEL^o OF THE LORD CAME up from Gilgal to Bochim and said: I moved you up out of Egypt, and I have brought you into the land which I promised your fathers by oath, and I said: I will not break My covenant with you through eternity. ²But you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of the land; their altars you are to break down. But you have not listened to My voice. What is this you have done? ³Wherefore I also say to you: I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be your adversaries, and their gods shall be a snare to you. ⁴When the Angel of the LORD had spoken these words to all the Israelites, the people lifted up their voices and wept. ⁵So they named that place Bochim; and there they sacrificed to the LORD.

⁶When Joshua had dismissed the Israelites, every one went away, each to possess his inheritance. ⁷The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD, which He had done for Israel. ⁸Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died when he was 110 years old. ⁹They buried him within the borders of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, which lies in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

¹⁰When that generation were gathered to their fathers,^p there arose an-

j) David expelled them [II Sam. 5:7ff]. k) Or were made to serve.

l) To let Canaanites live among them, continuing their pagan ways, was contrary to divine orders; "lived among them" suggests a pagan majority; it proved ruinous.

m) Mount Heres. n) The rock; possibly the cliff city of Petra in Edom.

o) He speaks as God, or in His Name. We like to think of Him as the Son of God.

p) Or, joined their fathers in death.

other generation which neither knew the LORD, nor the work which He had done for Israel. ¹¹The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; they served the Baals.^q ¹²Having forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, they ran after other gods, the gods of the surrounding peoples, and worshiped them; thus they angered the LORD. ¹³When they turned their face away from the LORD, to serve the Baals and the Ashtaroth,^r ¹⁴the anger of the LORD was kindled against the Israelites, and He handed them over to plunderers, who plundered them; He surrendered them to their enemies around them, so that they could no longer defend themselves. ¹⁵Wherever they went, the LORD's hand was against them for punishment, as the LORD had spoken and as the LORD had sworn to them. They were in great distress.

¹⁶Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, who saved them from those who plundered them. ¹⁷However, they did not listen to their judges but went astray in seeking and worshiping other gods; they turned from the way of their fathers, who had walked after the LORD and obeyed His commands, but they failed to do so. ¹⁸Each time when the LORD gave them a judge, the LORD was with the judge and saved them from the power of their enemies throughout the judge's life. The LORD showed compassion for the people because of their groaning over the oppression that crushed them. ¹⁹But at the judge's death, they would turn back^s and behave worse than did their fathers, in serving and worshiping other gods. They would forego none of their habitual practices or their stubborn ways.

²⁰When the LORD's indignation was kindled against Israel, He said: Because this nation has violated the covenant into which I entered with their fathers and they have not heeded My voice, ²¹I also will no longer expel from their presence the nations which Joshua left when he died, ²²to test Israel through them and to see whether or not they would hold to the LORD's way and walk in it as their fathers did. ²³So the LORD permitted those nations to remain; He did not destroy them at once nor deliver them into the power of Joshua.

3 THESE ARE THE NATIONS WHICH the LORD left, to test by them the Israelites who had not known^t any of the wars in Canaan; ²so that the generations of the Israelites who had experienced no wars might become versed in the arts of war: ³the five princes of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, Sidonians, and Hivites who occupied Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon to the entrance of Hamath. ⁴These nations were left to test Israel to see if they would obey the commands which the LORD had commanded their fathers through the ministry of Moses. ⁵So the Israelites lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; ⁶they took their daughters to themselves for wives, and they gave their own daughters to their sons and served their gods. ⁷The Israelites did what was evil in the LORD's sight and forgot the LORD their God; they served the Baals and the Ashtaroth. ⁸Then the LORD's indignation was kindled against Israel, and He gave them over into the power of Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia, whom the Israelites served for eight years.

⁹When the Israelites cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a savior^u for the Israelites, who delivered them, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. ¹⁰The Spirit of the LORD came upon him; he judged Israel and went out to battle. The LORD handed Cushan-rishathaim king of Aram^v over to

q) The nature gods of the Canaanites. Baal means master, owner, lord.

r) Ashtaroth is plural of Ashtoreth, the Phoenician goddess Astarte, "the abomination of the Sidonians" [1 Kings 11:5, 33].

s) Even under a righteous judge, the nation practiced heathen worship; at the death of a judge, they became more intensely idolatrous. Even outward appearance of Jehovah worship was then abandoned. t) Those who had not engaged in the wars. u) Deliverer. v) Mesopotamia.

him. ¹¹The land enjoyed peace for forty years; then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

1341-1323 B.C.

¹²Again the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel because of their apostasy in the sight of the LORD. ¹³He confederated with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, advanced, defeated Israel and captured the palm city.^w ¹⁴For eighteen years the Israelites served Eglon king of Moab.

1323-1243 B.C.

¹⁵But when the Israelites cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a left-handed Benjamite, by whom the Israelites usually sent their taxes to Eglon king of Moab. ¹⁶Ehud made for himself a two-edged sword, a foot and a half long, girded it under his clothes upon his right thigh. ¹⁷He then presented the taxes to Eglon king of Moab, a very fat man. ¹⁸When he had presented the taxes, he dismissed the people who had carried them. ¹⁹But at the Gilgal quarries he himself turned back and said, "I have a secret message, O king." He ordered, "Silence." All his attendants then withdrew, ²⁰and Ehud approached King Eglon, who was sitting alone in the cool upper room, which he had made for himself. Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." As the king arose from his seat, ²¹Ehud reached out his left hand, drew his sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into the king's belly, ²²so that the hilt followed the blade, and the fat closed upon the hilt; he did not withdraw the sword from the belly, and the contents burst out. ²³Then Ehud went out the back way, shut the doors of the upper room, and locked them.

²⁴After he had left,^{*} the king's attendants came and noticed that the doors of the upper room were locked; so they said, "Surely he is relaxing in the cool room." ²⁵They waited until they were embarrassed, and still the doors of the upper room did not open; therefore they took the key, opened them, and found their master lying dead on the floor. ²⁶While the attendants were hesitating, Ehud escaped to Seirah by way of the quarries. ²⁷Going through the hill country of Ephraim, he blew his trumpet, and the Israelites joined him down from the highlands with him as their leader. ²⁸He said to them, "Follow me, for the LORD has delivered your enemies, the Moabites, into your hands." They followed him and seized the fords of the Jordan, opposite the Moabites, and permitted no one to pass over. ²⁹At that time they killed 10,000 Moabites, all healthy and vigorous men; not a man escaped. ³⁰Thus was Moab subdued that day by the forces of Israel, and the land had peace eighty years.

³¹After him came Shamgar⁷ the son of Anath, who killed 600 Philistines with an oxgoad; he also saved Israel.

4 AFTER EHUD DIED, THE ISRAELITES again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, ²and the LORD handed them over to Jabin² king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The captain of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-goiim.^a ³The Israelites cried to the LORD; for he had 900 iron chariots, and he oppressed the Israelites mightily for twenty years.

⁴Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, judged Israel at that time. ⁵She would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, where the Israelites came to her for judgment. ⁶She sent for Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-Naphtali, and said to him, "Has not the LORD God of Israel commanded: Go to Mount Tabor, and take with you 10,000 men of Naphtali and of the Zebulun tribe? ⁷I will direct Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude to the brook

y) Jericho. x) Probably through a little used passageway.

y) Shamgar seems to have followed Ehud during the latter part of the 80 years' period, so that his period is to be reckoned within those 80 years.

z) In Joshua 11:1 and Judges 4:23, 24, Jabin is named king of the Canaanites; like "Pharaoh," it seems to be a title rather than a name.

a) "Harosheth"—carving; "goiim"—Gentiles; a place noted for carving.

Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand."^b

⁸Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you refuse to go with me, I will not go."

⁹She said, "I will certainly go with you; but the journey on which you are going will not be to your honor, for the LORD will deliver Sisera into the hand of a woman." Then Deborah arose and went back with Barak to Kedesh, ¹⁰and Barak ordered Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, where 10,000 men followed him; and Deborah went with him.

¹¹Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, the father-in-law of Moses, and he had pitched his tent as far as the oak of Zaanannim, which is near Kedesh. ¹²They informed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor; ¹³so Sisera gathered his 900 iron chariots and all his allies from Harosheth-goiim to the brook Kishon.

¹⁴Deborah said to Barak, "Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with his ten thousand men. ¹⁵The LORD^c confused Sisera and all his chariots and all his soldiers before Barak with the edge of the sword, and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled on foot. ¹⁶But Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth-goiim, and all the troops of Sisera were slain by the edge of the sword, so that not one was left. ¹⁷Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

¹⁸Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Come in, my master, turn in with me; have no fear." He entered her tent, and she covered him with a blanket. ¹⁹He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty!" So she opened a bottle^d of milk and gave him a drink, then covered him again. ²⁰He said to her, "Stand in the door of the tent, and if any one comes making inquiry of you and says, 'Is there any man here?' you shall say, 'No!'" ²¹But Jael, Heber's wife, took a tent peg and a hammer in her hands, approached him softly, and drove the peg into his temple, so that it pierced through into the ground, and he died without awakening from his deep sleep. ²²And look, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man you are seeking."^e He entered into her tent and saw Sisera dead with the tent peg through his temple. ²³Thus God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the Israelites, ²⁴and the hand of the Israelites pressed ever heavier on Jabin king of Canaan, until they destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.^f

1223-1183 B.C.

5 THAT DAY DEBORAH AND BARAK the son of Abinoam sang this song: ²"For the leaders taking the lead in Israel, for the people offering themselves willingly, praise the LORD! ³Hear, O kings; give ear, O princes.^g I will sing to the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel.

⁴"LORD, when Thou didst go forth out of Seir, when Thou didst march out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, the heavens also dropped; yes, the clouds dropped water. ⁵The mountains quaked at the presence of the LORD, even yonder Sinai, at the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel.

⁶"In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were deserted; travelers walked the byways. ⁷The rulers ceased in Israel, they ceased until I, Deborah, arose, arose a mother in Israel.^h ⁸They chose new gods, and war was in the gates. Was there seen a shield or a spear among 40,000 in Israel?

⁹"My heart is toward the governors:

b) God is ever in control of the godly and of the ungodly.

c) The LORD, not Barak or Deborah, did the confounding, in spite of iron chariots.

d) The skin of a goat. e) Jael obeyed Israel's God rather than custom.

f) A far northern part of Canaan. g) She addresses all rulers of the earth.

h) Her sons and daughters were the godly of Israel, whom she spiritually and politically nurtured.

of Israel; you who offered yourselves willingly among the people. Praise the LORD! ¹⁰You who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets, and you who walk by the way, tell of it. ¹¹To the measures of musicians in the places of drawing water, they shall rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts of His rulers in Israel. Then the people of the LORD went down to the gates.

¹²"Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, utter a song! Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, you son of Abinoam! ¹³Then He set the remnant to rule the nobles; He made the LORD's people rule for me as heroes. ¹⁴Those of Ephraim moved into the valley; after you, Benjamin, among your people. Out of Machir came down governors and out of Zebulun they who carry the marshal's staff. ¹⁵The princes of Issachar were with Deborah; as was Issachar, so was Barak. Into the valley they rushed forth at his heels.

"Among the divisions of Reuben there were great deliberations. ¹⁶Why did you stay among the sheepfolds, listening to pipings for the flocks? Among the divisions of Reuben there were great deliberations of heart. ¹⁷Gilead remained beyond the Jordan. And Dan, why did he remain by the ships? Asher dwelt at the seashore, and by its bays he remained. ¹⁸Zebulun is a people that risked their lives unto death; so also Naphtali upon the high places of the field.

¹⁹"The kings came, they fought; the kings of Canaan fought in Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; money they did not obtain. ²⁰From heaven the stars fought; in their courses they fought against Sisera. ²¹The brook Kishon swept them away, that ancient brook, the brook Kishon. March on, my soul, with strength! ²²Then the horses' hoofs stamped by reason of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

²³"Curse Meroz, says the Angel of the LORD, curse bitterly its inhabitants; because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD as heroes. ²⁴Blessed above women shall Jael be, the wife of Heber the Kenite; above women in the tent shall she be blessed! ²⁵Water he asked; milk she gave him. In a lordly bowl she brought him cream. ²⁶Her hand she put to the tent peg and her right hand to the workman's hammer; she hammered Sisera; she smashed his head; yes, she pierced and struck through his temple. ²⁷At her feet he sank, he fell, he lay; at her feet he sank, he fell. Where he sank, there he fell down dead.

²⁸"Through the window she looked out; she peered, the mother of Sisera. Through her lattice she called, 'Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why tarry the wheels of his chariots?' ²⁹The wisest of her ladies answered her; in fact, she returned answer to herself, ³⁰'Are they not finding, are they not dividing booty? A girl or two for every man; some loot of dyed garments for Sisera, of dyed garments embroidered, two dyed garments embroidered for the neck of the spoiler?' ³¹So, LORD, let all Thy enemies perish. But they who love Him are as the sun rising in his strength." And the land had peace forty years.

1183-1176 B.C.

6 THE ISRAELITES DID WHAT WAS evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian¹ for seven years. ²The rule of the Midianites was so oppressive that the Israelites made living quarters in mountain caves and forts because of the Midianites.

³When the Israelites had sown their fields, the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the natives of the East would come up and attack them. ⁴They¹ encamped in the land and ruined the produce of the soil as far as Gaza, so that nothing edible, no sheep, no ox, or donkey remained for the Israelites. ⁵They came in crowds thick as grasshoppers, with their cattle, their camels, and their tents to destroy the land; ⁶so that the Israelites were impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD. ⁷And so it

i) Israel's persistent enemy, although descended from Abraham by Keturah.

j) These people were habitual marauders.

was, when the Israelites cried to the LORD because of the Midianites, ⁸the LORD sent them a prophet^k with this message, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I brought you up from Egypt, and I brought you forth out of the house of bondage; ⁹I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you; I drove them out from before you, and I gave you their land. ¹⁰I said to you, I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But you have not listened to My voice."

¹¹Then the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak in Ophra,^l which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press^m to hide it from the Midianites. ¹²When the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, He said to him: The LORD is with you, you mighty hero!

¹³Gideon said to Him, "My master, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His wondrous works, which our fathers recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up out of Egypt?' But now the LORD has rejected us; He has delivered us into the hand of the Midianites." ¹⁴Then the LORDⁿ turned toward him and said: Go in this your strength and save Israel from the hand of the Midianites; have not I sent you? ¹⁵He said to Him, "O LORD, with what shall I save Israel, considering that my family ranks lowest in Manasseh and I am the youngest in my father's house?" ¹⁶The LORD answered him: I am with you, and you shall destroy the Midianites one and all.^o ¹⁷Then he said to Him, "If I have found favor in Thy sight, then show me a sign that it is Thou who talkest with me. ¹⁸Do not leave here, please, till I come back, bring out my gift, and lay it before Thee." And He said: I will stay until you come back.

¹⁹Then Gideon went in and prepared a kid and unleavened cakes from a bushel of meal; the meat he put in a basket, the broth he put in a pot, and he brought it out to Him under the oak and placed it before Him. ²⁰But the Angel of the LORD said to him: Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. This he did. ²¹Then the Angel of the LORD held out the end of the staff in His hand, touched the meat and the unleavened cakes, and fire went up out of the rock that consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. Then the Angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.

²²When Gideon realized that He was the Angel of the LORD, Gideon said, "Alas, O LORD God! For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face."^p ²³But the LORD said to him: Peace to you! Have no fear; you shall not die. ²⁴Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and he called it Adonai-shalom,^q and to this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

²⁵That night the LORD said to him: Take your father's bullock, the second bullock, the seven year old; tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, cut down the shame images^r beside it; ²⁶build an altar to the LORD your God upon the top of this stronghold; arrange it properly; take the chosen bullock, and offer it as a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the shame images which you shall cut down. ²⁷Then Gideon took ten of his men servants and did as the LORD had instructed him; but as he feared his father's household and the men of the city, he did not do it during the day; he did it at night.

²⁸When the townsmen got up early next morning, the altar of Baal was broken down, the shame images beside

k) Probably Phinehas, the high priest. l) A village in the half tribe of Manasseh, west of Jordan.

m) The wine press was dug to a level lower than the surrounding ground.

n) As at the burning bush near Sinai, the Angel of the LORD is identical with the LORD. We believe He is the Son of God. o) A figure of speech signifying total destruction.

p) Gideon's distress of mind, here indicated, is due to imperfect information concerning God.

q) The LORD is peace. r) A stump on each side of the Baal altar, one with the secret parts of a woman and the other of a man carved on it; by it the Baal worshipers committed lewdness in the name of religion. Temple prostitution was a sacred part of Baal ritual.

it cut down, and the second bullock had been offered upon the newly built altar. ²⁹They said one to another, "Who has committed this deed?" Upon inquiring and questioning, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash has committed this deed." ³⁰The townsmen then said to Joash, "Bring your son out-drods that he may die; because he has broken down Baal's altar and has cut down the shame images beside it." ³¹Joash said to all who stood facing him, "Will you strive for Baal? Will you champion his cause? Whoever takes up for him shall be put to death this morning; if he is a god, let him strive for himself because someone has broken down his altar." ³²So they named him Jerubbaal^a that day, saying, "Let Baal strive against him," because he had broken down his altar.

³³Now all the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the natives of the East drew together; they passed over and camped in the Valley of Jezreel. ³⁴Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon;^c he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called up to follow him. ³⁵He sent messengers throughout Manasseh too, and they joined him. He also sent messengers to Asher, to Zebulun, and to Naphtali, and they came up to join them.

³⁶Gideon then said to God, "If Thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as Thou hast said, ³⁷look, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; and if there is dew on the fleece only and the surrounding ground is dry, then I will know that Thou wilt save Israel by my hand, even as Thou hast spoken." ³⁸And it was so. When he got up early next morning, he pressed the fleece together and wrung a bowlful of water out of it. ³⁹Then Gideon said to God, "Let not Thine anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once; let me make another test, I pray Thee, once more with the fleece; let it alone be dry, and let there be dew upon all the ground around it." ⁴⁰And God did so that night; for the fleece was dry, and all the surrounding ground was wet with dew.^u

7 THEN JERUBBAAL,^v THAT IS GIDEON, and all the people with him arose early and camped near Enharod.^w The camp of Midian was in the valley, north of Gibeath-moreh. ²And the LORD said to Gideon: There are too many people with you for Me to surrender the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel should become boastful and say: "Our own hand has saved us." ³Now therefore announce in the hearing of the people, "Whoever is afraid and trembling may leave Mount Gilead at once." Then 22,000 men went back, while 10,000 remained. ⁴The LORD said to Gideon: There are still too many people; bring them down to the water's edge, and there I will test them for you. It shall be that he of whom I say: This one shall go with you, shall go with you, and he of whom I say: This one shall not go with you, shall not go. ⁵So he brought the people down to the water's edge; and the LORD said to Gideon: Separate every one who laps^x water with his tongue, as a dog laps, from every one who bends down upon his knees to drink. ⁶There were 300 men who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, but all the rest of the people bent down upon their knees to drink water. ⁷The LORD said to Gideon: By the 300 men that lapped I will save you; I will deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, each to his tent. ⁸He took provisions and trumpets from the people and sent the rest of the men of Israel away each to his tent, retaining only the 300 men.

Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley, ⁹and that night the LORD said to him: Get up, invade the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand. ¹⁰But if you are afraid to invade it, go down to the camp with your servant Purah. ¹¹There you will hear what they are saying, and after that you will have the courage to go down against the camp. Then he went down with his servant Purah to the very edge of the camp where the sentries were standing.

^a) Meaning - against Baal. ^t) He was filled with supernatural courage and wisdom.

^u) How infinitely patient God is with us! ^v) Now Gideon's surname; cf. 8:35.

^w) Fountain, or well of, Harod. ^x) The lapping ones were more alert; while they dipped water to their mouths with cupped hands, they could scan the horizon for enemies.

¹²Now the Midianites, the Amalekites, and all the natives of the East were camping along the valley, thick as grasshoppers, and their camels were as numerous as the sand on the seashore. ¹³Just as Gideon came near, a guard was telling his comrade a dream: "See! I dreamed that a loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the camp of Midian and bounced so hard against the tent that it collapsed." ¹⁴His comrade responded, "That is nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has delivered Midian and the whole camp into his hand."^y ¹⁵When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship and returned to the camp of Israel. He said, "Up! for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand." ¹⁶He divided the 300 men² into three companies and gave trumpets and empty pitchers, with torches inside, to each of them. ¹⁷He told them, "Watch me, and do as I do. When I reach the edge of the camp and blow my trumpet, see that you do as I do; ¹⁸when I and all my men blow our trumpets, you, too, must blow your trumpets all around the camp and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

¹⁹When Gideon and the 100 men with him came to the edge of the camp, the middle watch had just been posted. They blew the trumpets and smashed the pitchers that were in their hands. ²⁰The three companies blew the trumpets, smashed the pitchers, held the torches in their left hands and in their right hand trumpets to be blown, and they shouted, "The sword of the LORD and of Gideon." ²¹Then every man stood in his place around the camp, and all the men in camp ran, crying out as they fled.

²²When the 300 trumpets were blown, the LORD set every man fighting the man next to him throughout the camp,^a and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah^b near Zererah and as far as the border of Abel-meholah^c near Tabbath. ²³The men of Israel were then called up out of Naphtali, out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, to pursue the Midianites. ²⁴Gideon also sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, announcing, "Come down against the Midianites, and seize the waters fronting them as far as Beth-barah^d and the Jordan." Then all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they seized the waters as far as Beth-barah and also the Jordan. ²⁵They captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock Oreb, and Zeeb was killed in the wine press of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

8 THEN THE MEN OF EPHRAIM SAID to him, "What kind of treatment is this — not calling us when you went to fight against Midian?" They accused him severely, ²but he answered them. "What have I done in comparison with you? Are not the leftover grapes of Ephraim better than the entire crop of Abiezer? ³God has delivered the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, into your hand; so what was I able to do as compared to you?"^e And their anger was abated when he had said that.

⁴When Gideon came to the Jordan, he and his 300 men passed over, weary but continuing their pursuit. ⁵He said to the men of Succoth, "Give, I beg of you, loaves of bread to the people that follow me, for they are exhausted. I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian." ⁶But the princes of Succoth said, "Are the persons of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands, that we should give your men bread?" ⁷Gideon answered, "When the LORD delivers Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thrash your

y) Both the dream and interpretation were inspired by God to increase the confidence of Gideon.

z) Even in working miracles God uses natural means.

a) Complete confusion prevailed in the darkness. At night all swords, of enemy and of friend, look alike. b) The house of the acacia tree. c) The meadow of dancing.

d) House of the ford, probably the Beth-abarah where John baptized.

e) A soft answer turns away wrath [Prov. 15:1].

naked bodies with the thorns and briars of the wilderness." ⁸From there he went up to Penuel and spoke to them in like manner; and the men of Penuel answered him as had the men of Succoth. ⁹He said to the men of Penuel, "When I return safe and sound, I will break down this tower."

¹⁰Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army of about 15,000 men, all that were left of the natives of the East; for the slain numbered 120,000 swordsmen. ¹¹So Gideon went up by the Bedouins' route to the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and he smote the army while they were resting. ¹²Zebah and Zalmunna fled, but he pursued and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the entire army. ¹³Then Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by the Heres Pass. ¹⁴He captured one of the young men of Succoth, whom he interviewed and who jotted down for him the names of the princes and the elders of Succoth, 77 men. ¹⁵He then went to the dwellers of Succoth and said, "Take a look at Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the persons of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands, that we should give bread to your tired men?'" ¹⁶Then he took the elders of the city and with the thorns and briars of the wilderness he taught the men of Succoth a lesson. ¹⁷He also broke down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

¹⁸To Zebah and Zalmunna he said, "Who were the men whom you killed at Tabor?" They replied, "As you are, so were they. They were like you, each as the son of a king in stature." ¹⁹He said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As surely as the LORD lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you." ²⁰He then said to Jether, his first-born, "Stand up and kill them." But the youth did not draw his sword; he was afraid, for he was still only a lad. ²¹Zebah and Zalmunna said, "You stand up and fell us; for as the man, so is his power." Gideon arose, killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescents^a which were on the necks of their camels.

²²The men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, you and then your son and then your son's son; for you have saved us from the rule of Midian." ²³But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you; ²⁴but rather I will request that every man give me the earrings of the captives." (They had golden earrings because the men had been Ishmaelites). ²⁵They answered, "We will gladly give them," and when they spread a garment, every man cast the earrings from their captives into it. ²⁶The weight of the golden earrings he had requested was equal to about 17,000 dollars in gold, besides the crescents, the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian; also the chains that were around the necks of the camels. ²⁷Then Gideon made an ephod of it and put it in the city of Ophrah; and all Israel venerated it, so that it became a snare to Gideon and his family.^b ²⁸Thus was Midian subdued at the hands of Israel, and they never raised their heads again. The land had peace for forty years, during the lifetime of Gideon.

1136 B.C.

²⁹Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.

³⁰Gideon had seventy sons, who were his own offspring through his many wives. ³¹His concubine in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. ³²Then Gideon the son of Joash died at a ripe old age, and he was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

³³As soon as Gideon was dead, the Israelites again turned to the Baals, and they made Baal-berith^c their god. ³⁴The Israelites had no regard for the LORD their God, who had delivered

f) Or, while they were making camp.

g) Moon images or pictures are still Arabian emblems in the Moslem faith.

h) The Urim and Thummim, attached to the breastplate of the high priest, was consulted to learn the will of God. This ephod, handled by lesser men, became an object of worship.

i) Heb.: LORD of a covenant. Sometimes spoken of as El-berith, the god of a covenant, thus prostituting the sacred covenant relationship between God and Israel.

them from the hands of their enemies; ³⁵neither did they show kindness to the family of Jerubbaal in return for all the good he had rendered in behalf of Israel.

1136-1133 B.C.

9 ABIMELECH THE SON OF JERUBBAAL went to Shechem to his mother's relatives and said to the household of his mother's father, ¹"Speak to the men of Shechem, and say to them, Which is better for you, to have seventy sons of Jerubbaal rule over you or to have one man rule over you?" Also remember that I am your own bone and flesh." ³So his mother's brothers^k spoke these words to the men of Shechem in his behalf, and they were inclined to favor Abimelech; for they said, "He is our kinsman." ⁴Then they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal-berith, and with them Abimelech hired lightheaded and foolhardy men who followed him. ⁵He went to his father's house at Ophrah and slew his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, upon one stone;¹ but Jotham, the youngest, escaped by hiding himself. ⁶Then all the men of Shechem and of Beth-millo got together by the oak at the Shechem monument and proclaimed Abimelech king.

⁷When it was told Jotham, he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim. There he raised his voice and shouted to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, so that God may listen to you."^m ⁸Once the trees went out to anoint a king over them, and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!' ⁹But the olive tree said to them, 'Shall I give up my rich oil, with which God and men are honored, to solicit the trees for my promotion?' ¹⁰Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and reign over us!' ¹¹But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I give up my good sweet fruit, to solicit the trees for my promotion?' ¹²The trees then said to the vine, 'Come, reign over us!' ¹³But the vine said to them, 'Should I give up my wine, which cheers God and me to solicit the trees for my promotion? ¹⁴Then all the trees said to the bramble,ⁿ 'Come and reign over us!' ¹⁵But the bramble said to the trees, 'If you in sincerity anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shadow; but if not, then let fire come out of the brambles, and let it destroy the cedars of Lebanon.'

¹⁶"So now, if you have acted in sincerity and truth in making Abimelech king, and if you have behaved with fairness toward Jerubbaal and his household in accordance with his merit — ¹⁷seeing that my father fought for you and risked his life and delivered you from the power of Midian, ¹⁸where you have rebelled this day against my father's house; you have killed seven of my father's sons upon one stone and you have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother — ¹⁹if you have acted in good faith with Jerubbaal and his family this day, then you may rejoice in Abimelech and let him also rejoice with you. ²⁰But if not, then may fire burst forth from Abimelech, and let it destroy the men of Shechem and of Beth-millo, and may fire burst forth from the men of Shechem and of Beth-millo, and let it destroy Abimelech." ²¹Jotham escaped and fled to Beer; there he lived because he feared Abimelech his brother. ²²And Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

²³Then God sent an evil spirit to divide Abimelech from the men of Shechem, and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech ²⁴so that retributive justice might come upon Abimelech for murdering the seventy sons of Jerubbaal and upon the men of Shechem^o who had supported Abimelech in murdering his brother. ²⁵The men of Shechem set up ambushes against him^p on the mountain top roads, robbing all who passed that way, and it was reported to Abimelech.

²⁶Meanwhile Gaal son of Ebed came

j) There were other mothers in it, with children of the same father. k) Mostly half brothers.

l) A demagogue incited mass murder. m) One of the few Old Testament parables.

n) Abimelech was that bramble, the worst of Gideon's sons.

o) They were ingrates and got what they deserved. p) The men of Shechem intended to harm Abimelech.

with his kinsmen to reside in Shechem, and the men of Shechem put their trust in him. ²⁷They went out to the field, gathered grapes, trod them out,^q and feasted in the house of their god where they ate and drank and cursed Abimelech. ²⁸Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his lieutenant? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?" ²⁹Oh, that this people were under my rule! Then I would remove Abimelech." And he said to Abimelech, "Increase your army, and come out."^r

³⁰When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, he became very angry. ³¹He sent messengers to Abimelech in Tormah,^s saying, "Observe, Gaal the son of Ebed and his kinsmen have come to Shechem, and they are turning the city against you. ³²Now therefore, get up, you and the people with you, and lie concealed in the field. ³³Rise early in the morning, and as soon as the sun is up, make a sudden attack against the city. When he and his people come out against you, do with them as you shall have opportunity." ³⁴So Abimelech and all the people with him arose during the night and ambushed Shechem in four companies. ³⁵When Gaal the son of Ebed came out and stood in the entrance of the city gate, Abimelech and the people with him arose from their hiding place. ³⁶And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountain." Zebul answered him, "It is the shadow of the mountains that looks to you like men."^t

³⁷When Gaal said again, "See, people are coming down the middle of the mountain, and one company is coming from the direction of the fortune-tellers' oak," ³⁸Zebul said to him, "Where is now your boast, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Are these not the people you despised? Go out now, and fight them." ³⁹So Gaal went out before the men of Shechem and fought Abimelech. ⁴⁰But Abimelech chased him, so that he fled, leaving many wounded, up to the entrance of the gate.

⁴¹Abimelech stayed at Arumah, but Zebul drove Gaal and his kinsmen away, so that they could not live in Shechem. ⁴²The next day the people went out into the field, and when it was told Abimelech, ⁴³he divided his men into three companies and laid an ambush in the field. When he noticed that the people were coming out of the city, he rose up against them and shattered them. ⁴⁴Then Abimelech and the company with him rushed forward and occupied the entrance of the city gate, while the other two companies attacked all those in the field and slew them. ⁴⁵Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and when he had captured it, he killed the people in it and destroyed the city; after which he sowed it with salt.^u ⁴⁶Hearing of it, all the men in the tower of Shechem entered the vault of the El-berith temple, ⁴⁷and word came to Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered there. ⁴⁸So Abimelech and all the people with him climbed Mount Zalmon, where Abimelech took hold of an axe, cut down a bough from a tree and, laying it on his shoulders, said to his men, "Hurry up; do what you have seen me do!" ⁴⁹All the people likewise cut down each his bough and, following Abimelech, placed them around the tower and set them on fire, so that all those in the tower, about a thousand men and women, perished. ⁵⁰Then Abimelech went to Thebez and captured it; ⁵¹but there was a strong tower in the center of the city, and to it the men and women fled, shut themselves up, and climbed to the tower's top.

q) In the wine press. r) Gaal tried to bluff and was not ready to back it up.

s) A height near Shechem; Abimelech once lived there.

t) Gaal knew too little about warfare to fight successfully; he overreached, which meant death or wounds for many.

u) Made the land sterile and unfit for use; symbolic of utter ruin when strewn on the surface of a conquered and wrecked city.

⁵²Abimelech reached the tower and attacked it. As he pressed on toward the door to set it on fire, ⁵³a woman dropped an upper millstone on his head and broke his skull. ⁵⁴Instantly he called to his armor-bearer and told him, "Draw your sword and kill me, so they may not say of me, 'A woman slew him.'" And his armor-bearer stabbed him, so that he died. ⁵⁵When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they left each for his home. ⁵⁶Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he committed toward his father in murdering his seventy brothers. ⁵⁷All the wickedness of the men of Shechem, God turned back upon their heads, so that the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal was fulfilled upon them.^v

1133-1110 B.C.

10 AFTER ABIMELECH, TOLA THE son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, who lived in the hill country of Ephraim near Shamir,^w stood up to defend Israel, ²and he judged Israel 23 years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

1110-1088 B.C.

³After the death of Tola, Jair^x the Gileadite judged Israel 22 years. ⁴He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkey colts, and they possessed thirty cities, called to this day Havvoth-jair,^y in the land of Gilead. ⁵When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

1088-1070 B.C.

⁶Then the Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD by serving the Baalim^z and the Ashtaroth,^a the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines. They deserted the LORD and did not serve Him. ⁷The LORD's indignation was kindled against Israel, and

He gave them over into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites;^b and at their hands Israel was oppressed and trampled upon that year.^c For eighteen years the Israelites beyond Jordan in the land of the Amorites in Gilead were oppressed. ⁹Then the Ammonites crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sorely distressed.

¹⁰The Israelites then cried to the LORD, "We have sinned against Thee, in that we have forsaken our God and have served the Baalim." ¹¹The LORD answered the Israelites: Did I not save you from the Egyptians, from the Amorites, from the Ammonites, and from the Philistines? ¹²The Sidonians too, and the Amalekites and the Moabites did oppress you; you cried to Me, and I saved you from their power; ¹³yet you have forsaken Me and have served other gods; wherefore I will save you no more.^d ¹⁴Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress.

¹⁵The Israelites said to the LORD, "We have sinned; do Thou to us whatever seems good in Thine eyes; only deliver us, we pray Thee this day."

¹⁶They put away the strange gods from among them, and they served the LORD, and His soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

¹⁷The Ammonites mustered their forces and encamped in Gilead^e while the Israelites assembled and encamped in Mizpeh.^f ¹⁸Then the people and all the princes of Gilead said one to another, "Who will begin to fight against the Ammonites? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."^g

11 NOW JEPHTHAH THE GILEADITE was a brave hero, but he was

v) The Ruler of mankind is fair; He pays offenders back in their own coin.

w) A more central part of the country; a more convenient place for a judge to reside.

x) The first judge to come from: east of Jordan. y) Meaning, Jair's villages. Ten communities within the city limits of Jair. z) The plural of Baal.

a) Used in connection with the plural of Baal, a general designation for the female divinities of the Canaanites. b) The Philistines to the west; the Ammonites to the east.

c) The year Jair died. He judged rather than fought.

d) There would be no deliverance without repentance. e) Gilead was located east of Jordan.

f) Heb. — a high place or watch tower, located in Gilead, east of the Jordan, possibly Ramoth-gilead. Jephthah settled there after his victory over the Ammonites.

g) It is not accurate to think of each judge as following another judge who is mentioned earlier; rarely if ever did any judge rule over the whole nation. Eli died 1070 B.C., after 40-years' judgeship during which Jair ruled 22 years, Jephthah 6, Izabab 7, Elon 10, Abdon 8, and Samson 20, obviously much of it simultaneously.

the son of a paramour,^h and Gilead had fathered Jephthah. ²Gilead's wife gave birth to sons, who, when they grew up, expelled Jephthah, saying to him, "You shall not share in the inheritance of our father's estate, for you are the son of another woman." ³So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob,ⁱ where renegades lined up with him, who joined him in banditry.

⁴In time the Ammonites made war against Israel, ⁵and when the Ammonites moved up against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. ⁶They said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, so we may fight against the Ammonites."^j ⁷But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and drive me out of my father's house? Why do you now come to me, when you are in distress?" ⁸Then the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is the reason we have turned to you, so accompany us; fight against the Ammonites, and be chief over us and over all the inhabitants of Gilead." ⁹Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back with you to fight the Ammonites and the LORD delivers them into my hand, shall I really be your chief?" ¹⁰The elders of Gilead answered Jephthah, "The LORD be witness between us^k that we will do as you say."

¹¹Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead; the people made him chief and commander over them, and Jephthah repeated all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh. ¹²Jephthah then sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites to ask, "What do you have against me, that you are making war against my country?" ¹³The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Israel took away my land when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; so I request of you to restore the places peaceably."^l ¹⁴Jephthah again sent the king of the Ammonites messengers, ¹⁵who told him, "Thus says Jephthah, 'Israel took away neither the land of Moab nor the land of the Ammonites; ¹⁶but they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the desert to the Red Sea and arrived at Kadesh. ¹⁷Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, "Let me pass, I beg of you, through your land"; but the king of Edom refused. To the king of Moab, too, he sent request, but he would not consent; so the Israelites remained in Kadesh. ¹⁸Later they journeyed through the desert, going around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, until they came to the east side of the land of Moab, and when they arrived on the other side of the Arnon they pitched their camp, being careful not to cross into Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. ¹⁹Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and said, "Let us, please, pass through your land to our destination"; but ²⁰Sihon did not trust Israel, nor did he permit Israel to pass through his country. Instead Sihon mustered his people, encamped at Jahaz and fought against Israel.

²¹"Then the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hands of Israel, so that they were defeated, and Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites and its inhabitants. ²²They possessed all the land of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness to the Jordan. ²³Now that the LORD God of Israel has driven out the Amorites from before His people Israel, are you to occupy the territory? ²⁴Truly, that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess, that you may occupy; but we will possess whatever the LORD our God clears out from before us. ²⁵Are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever

h) The Hebrew word "zonah" could be translated: "keeper of an inn"; thus it is understood by the Targum of Jonathan. She certainly was not the prostitute type we usually think of; else the son would not have been brought up by his father. i) A town near Syria.

j) In their desperate poverty of reliable leaders they sought Jephthah.

k) Indicates the seriousness of their promise, as we might take an oath by placing a hand on a Bible. l) See Num. 21:21-35.

fight against them? ²⁶While Israel dwelled in Heshbon and its towns, in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities on either side of the Arnon for 300 years, why did you not recover them within that time? ²⁷I therefore have committed no wrong against you, but you are doing me wrong by making war on me. May the LORD, the Judge, decide this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites."

²⁸But the king of the Ammonites did not listen to the entreaty of Jephthah. ²⁹Then the Spirit of the LORD^m came upon Jephthah, so that he marched through Gilead and Manasseh; through Mizpeh in Gilead he marched on to the Ammonites.

1092-1086 B.C.

³⁰Jephthah made a vow to the LORD. He said, "If Thou wilt deliver the Ammonites into my hand, ³¹then whateverⁿ comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in victory from the Ammonites, shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering."^o ³²Jephthah then marched into the land of the Ammonites to engage them in war, and the LORD delivered them into his hand. ³³He routed them with heavy casualties from Aroer^p as far as the vicinity of Minnith, through twenty cities, and as far as Abel-cheramim.^q Thus were the Ammonites subdued by Israel.

³⁴Then Jephthah came to Mizpeh to his house. And, see, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and dances. She was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter. ³⁵As soon as he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You are bending me low; you are plunging me into calamity; for I have made a vow to the LORD, and I cannot repudiate it." ³⁶She answered him, "My father, you have made a vow to the LORD; do to me according to that which you have vowed to the LORD, for as much as the LORD brought retribution for you upon your enemies, the Ammonites. ³⁷But let me have the privilege of going to the mountains for two months that I may bewail my virginity, I and my companions." ³⁸He said, "Go," and he let her go for two months. She left with her companions to bewail her virginity upon the mountains. ³⁹So at the end of two months she returned to her father, and he did with her according to the vow^r which he had made; she has not mated with a man. Thus it became a custom in Israel ⁴⁰for the maidens to go annually to lament^a the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

1092-1086 B.C.

12 THE MEN OF EPHRAIM MOBILIZED, marched to Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites and did not summon us to go with you? We will burn down your house over your head." ²Jephthah answered them, "I and my people had serious conflict with the Ammonites; and when I called to you for help, you refused to come and deliver us out of their hand. ³When I saw that you refused to help us, I took my life in my hands.^t I marched against the Ammonites, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you marched to fight against me?"

⁴Jephthah then called up all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim. The Gileadites defeated the Ephraimites, because they had said, "You are

m) Jephthah was thus equipped with wisdom, courage, and needful direction to conduct a successful war.

n) The Hebrew word asher may be rendered either "whoever" or "whatever." "Whatever" seems more in keeping with the spirit of the text.

o) It is assumed that if an object suitable for burnt offering appeared, it would be so offered; if not, it could be dedicated to, and used of, God some other way. Had an unclean animal appeared, it would not have been offered as a burnt sacrifice. Human sacrifices were contrary to the law of God; those were pagan practices. p) A village near the Arnon river. q) Meadow vineyard.

r) He consecrated and devoted her to God in a way consistent with his promise.

s) She remained a virgin, whose life was dedicated to God and she bewailed her virginity. Her girl friends went annually to her retreat, probably going along with her. Nowhere does it say that Jephthah's daughter was committed to the flames.

t) He assumed the responsibility and danger of going to war. cf. I Sam. 19:5.

Ephraimite fugitives,^u you Gileadites in between Ephraim and Manasseh.”

⁵The Gileadites then seized the fords of the Jordan that faced Ephraim, and when an Ephraimite escapee said, “Let me cross over,” the Gileadites would say to him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” If he said, “No,” ⁶they would say to him, “Then say Shibboleth.” If he could not pronounce it right and said “Sibboleth” instead, they would arrest him and execute him at the fords of the Jordan. Thus there fell at that time 42,000 Ephraimites. ⁷Jephthah the Gileadite judged Israel six years; then he died and was buried in one of the Gilead cities.

1086-1079 B.C.

⁸After Jephthah, Ibzan of Bethlehem^v judged Israel. ⁹He had thirty sons and thirty daughters, whom he gave in marriage outside his clan, and he brought in thirty daughters from outside for his sons. Ibzan judged Israel seven years; ¹⁰then he died and was buried in Bethlehem.

¹¹After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel ten years. ¹²Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

1078-1070 B.C.

¹³After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite^w judged Israel. ¹⁴He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy saddled donkeys. He judged Israel eight years. ¹⁵And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.^x

1110-1070 B.C.

13 ONCE MORE THE ISRAELITES DID evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.^y

²Now a certain man by the name of Manoah, of the tribe of Dan, lived in Zorah.^z His wife was barren and childless, ³but the Angel of the LORD^a appeared to her, and said: See, you have been barren and childless, but you will conceive and bear a son. ⁴See that you do not partake of wine or strong drink or any unclean food, ⁵for you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor shall touch his head, for he shall be a Nazarite^b to God from conception. He will begin to rescue^c Israel out of the hands of the Philistines.

⁶The woman went and told her husband, “A Man of God appeared to me, who had the appearance of the Angel of God, very awe-inspiring. I did not ask Him where He came from, and He did not tell me His name. ⁷He said to me: ‘See, you have been barren and childless, but now you will conceive and bear a son. You must not partake of wine or strong drink or any unclean food, for he shall be a Nazarite from the time of conception until his death.’”

⁸Then Manoah petitioned the LORD. He said, “Hear me, O LORD! Send the Man of God again to us, that He may instruct us and tell us what we shall do for the child that is to be born.”

⁹God answered the prayer of Manoah, so that the Angel of God came again to the woman, while she was sitting in the field, her husband not being with her. ¹⁰So the woman ran hurriedly to her husband and said, “Look, the Man who appeared to me the other day has returned.” ¹¹So Manoah got up, followed his wife, and on reaching the Man, inquired, “Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?” The Man said: I am! ¹²Then Manoah said, “When what You said comes true, what shall be the lad’s way of life and his activities?” ¹³The Angel of the LORD said to Manoah: The woman must carry out all my instructions.

¹⁴She must not eat anything made

u) The Gileadites belonged to the tribe of Manasseh. The Ephraimites reproached them as a remnant who fled from their own people and were not fit to be called the brothers of Ephraim and Manasseh, but draft dodgers or military deserters.

v) Not of Bethlehem in Judah, but near Mount Carmel.

w) Abdon was a native of Pirathon, a town in the Mount of the Amalekites, within the Ephraim territory.

x) Either some Amalekites lived there or a memorial was erected there related to Amalek.

y) After Shamgar [ch. 3:31], the Philistines observed peace for a season, but now God commissions them to punish wayward Israel.

z) A town in Judah later given to Dan.

a) This is evidently the One who appeared to Moses, Joshua, Gideon, etc., and none other than the Son of God.

b) The Nazarite demanded a strict, separated life.

c) Samson began the deliverance from the Philistines; it was completed in the days of David.

from grapes, nor any unclean thing, nor shall she drink wine or strong drink; all this she must observe. ¹⁵Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, "Please, stay with us; we will kill a kid for You." ¹⁶But the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah: Even though I stay with you, I will not eat of your bread. If you want to, you may offer a burnt offering to the LORD. Manoah did not know that the Man was the Angel of the LORD.

¹⁷Then Manoah asked the Angel of the LORD, "What is Your name^d so that we may pay homage to You when Your message comes true?" ¹⁸The Angel of the LORD said: Why do you ask My name, seeing it is Wonderful?^e ¹⁹Then Manoah offered a kid with a meal offering upon the rock to the LORD, and the Angel did wondrously;^f Manoah and his wife looked on as the offering was consumed. ²⁰When the flame went up from the altar toward heaven, the Angel of the LORD ascended in the altar flame. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they threw themselves prone on the ground. ²¹But the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah understood that He was the Angel of the LORD.

²²Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die because we have looked upon God."^g ²³But his wife said, "If the LORD intended to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a meal offering from our hands; neither would He have permitted us to see all this or to hear such things as these."

²⁴The woman bore a son and called his name Samson.^h The child grew up, and the LORD blessed him. ²⁵The Spirit of the LORD began to move him in Mahaneh-dan,ⁱ between Zorah and Eshtaol.

1095 B.C.?

14 SAMSON WENT DOWN TO TIMNAH^j and noticed a woman at Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines. ²When he returned home, he said to his father and mother, "I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines. Now get me her for a wife." ³But his father and mother replied to him, "Is there no woman at all among the girls of our own people or kinsmen, that you must seek a wife among the uncircumcised Philistines?"^k Samson answered his father, "Get her for me; for she pleases me well." ⁴His father and mother did not know that this was the LORD's leading, that He intended an occasion for a quarrel with the Philistines; for at that time the Philistines dominated Israel.

⁵Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah, and when he came to the vineyards of Timnah, a young lion came roaring against him. ⁶Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he tore him apart as one might tear apart a kid of the goats, although he had nothing in his hand.^l But he told neither his father nor his mother what he had done. ⁷Then he went down and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well.^m ⁸When he went back later on his way to marry her,ⁿ he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion, and there was a swarm of bees inside the lion's body; it was filled with honey. ⁹He dipped some of it out with his hands

d) Jacob asked [Gen. 32:29ff.].

e) This word comes from the Hebrew word pele meaning, it is "Wonderful." It is of interest to note that the Messianic prophecy in Isa. 9:6 uses the same word pele to designate Christ the Messiah. It suggests that the Angel is our Lord Christ.

f) The Angel stayed in character; He being Wonderful, performed wondrous things.

g) It was believed that if any man saw God or His Angel, death would ensue. So Gideon thought [ch. 6:22ff.; see also Exod. 33:20 and Deut. 5:26].

h) This name comes from the Hebrew word Shimshon, which is derived from the root-word Shamash, meaning "to serve." Samson was God's man, prepared from infancy for a great mission. He had his faults and his limited ability, but God used him. i) Camp of Dan.

j) A town near the Israel-Philistine frontier; first assigned to Judah, later given to Dan. See Josh. 19:43.

k) Mixed marriages were forbidden. See Exod. 34:16, Deut. 7:3. This marriage, however, was a link in the circumstance of Israel's liberation.

l) Samson's might was divinely imparted, in agreement with his being a Nazarite.

m) Samson proposed to the girl, and they became engaged.

n) About one year later Samson went to marry the girl; sufficient time had elapsed for nature and the bees to do their work.

and ate it as he went along. Then he joined his father and mother and gave them to eat of what was left; but he did not tell them that he had dipped the honey out of the lion's carcass.

¹⁰His father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there, as was the custom among the young men.

¹¹When they met him, they provided thirty companions^a to be with him,

¹²to whom Samson said, "Let me propound a riddle to you;^b if you can solve it before the end of the seven-days' feast and find it out, I will give you thirty linen tunics^c and thirty festal garments." ¹³But if you cannot answer me, then you must give me thirty linen tunics and thirty festal garments." They said to him, "Propound your riddle, so we may hear it."

¹⁴Then he told them, "Out of the eater came something to eat, and out of the strong came something sweet." But for three days they could not solve the riddle.

¹⁵On the seventh day they said to Samson's wife, "Persuade your husband to solve the riddle for us, or we will burn up you and your father's house. Did you call us here to impoverish us?"

¹⁶So Samson's wife wept on his shoulder^d and said, "You evidently hate me; you do not love me; for you have not confided to me the answer of the riddle you propounded to my people." He said to her, "I have not told my father or mother, so should I tell you?" ¹⁷She wept on his shoulder through the days of the feast; and on the seventh day he told her, because she kept pressing him. Then she told the answer to her people; ¹⁸and on the seventh day before the sun went down, the men of the city said to him, "What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger than a lion?" He said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle."

¹⁹Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily. He went down to Ashkelon^e and killed thirty men, took their tunics and their robes, and gave them to the men who had solved the riddle. Then, very angry, he went up to his father's house. ²⁰And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.^f

1095-1075 B.C.

15 SHORTLY THEREAFTER, DURING the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, taking along a kid.^g He said, "I will go to my wife in her bridal room." But her father refused to let him go in, ²saying, "I thought you hated your wife; so I gave her to your rival. Is not her younger sister better looking than she? Let her be your wife instead." ³Then Samson said to them, "This time I shall be blameless when I harm the Philistines." ⁴So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes,^h tied them together tail to tail, took torches, and put a torch between each pair of tails. ⁵Then he set fire to the torches and turned the foxes loose in the grainfields of the Philistines, so that the shocks, the standing grain, and the olive groves were burned.

⁶When the Philistines said, "Who did this?" they replied, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his rival." The Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.ⁱ ⁷Samson then told them, "When such is your behavior, I certainly will be avenged of you, and after that I will quit." ⁸So he struck them, hip and thigh, slaughtering many. After that he went to live in the cleft of the Etam rock.^j o) Children of the bride chamber and friends of the bridegroom [Matt. 9:15].

⁹The Philistines then went up, pitched their tents, and spread themselves in Judah near Lehi. ¹⁰And the men of Judah said, "Why are you about to attack us?" They answered,

p) A form of amusement at a wedding feast.

q) This tunic was under the robe; tunic and robe formed a complete suit.

r) She had no real love for Samson; hers were "crocodile tears."

s) A city on the coast, north of Gaza.

t) The true character of Samson's wife is here revealed. Being unequally yoked together is indeed dangerous [II Cor. 6:14, 15].

u) A token of reconciliation.

v) Samson may also have employed others and have taken days in catching such a large number.

w) Probably to appease Samson and to soften his anger. x) A fortified stronghold.

1095-1075 B.C.

"We are come up to bind Samson and to treat him as he treated us." ¹¹Then three thousand men of Judah^y went down to the cleft of the rock near Etam and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines have dominion over us? What is this that you have done to us?" He answered them, "I am doing to them as they did to me." ¹²They told him, "We have come to bind you and to deliver you into the hands of the Philistines." Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you yourselves will not set upon me."^z ¹³They assured him, "No, we will not kill you, but we will bind you securely and deliver you into their hands." Then they bound him with two new ropes and brought him away from the rock.

¹⁴When he came to Lehi^a and the Philistines shouted against him, the Spirit of the LORD came rushing upon him, and the ropes around his arms became as flax that had been burned with fire; they dropped from his hands. ¹⁵Samson found a fresh^b jawbone of a donkey, and taking it in hand, he killed a thousand men. ¹⁶Then Samson said, "With the jawbone of a donkey, piles upon piles, with the jawbone of a donkey, I have killed a thousand men."^c

¹⁷When he was through speaking, he threw the jawbone out of his hand and called the place Ramath-lehi.^d

¹⁸Then, growing very thirsty, he called out to the LORD, "Thou hast given this great deliverance by the hand of Thy servant, and now must I die of thirst, or be captured by the uncircumcised?"

¹⁹Then God caused a fissure in a hollow place in Lehi; water came out of it: he drank and his spirit revived, wherefore he called the place En-hakkore,^e and so it is in Lehi to this day.

²⁰Samson judged Israel twenty years during the Philistine period.

16 AS SAMSON WENT TO GAZA AND noticed a prostitute, he went in to her. ²When the Gazites were told that Samson had come to town, they surrounded him and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They kept quiet all night, saying to themselves, "As soon as daylight comes, we will kill him." ³Samson slept until midnight, then got up, took hold of the doors of the city gate, and the two doorposts, tore them away with the bolt, laid them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill opposite Hebron.

⁴Later he fell in love with a woman by the name of Delilah,^f who lived in the valley of Sorek.^g ⁵The Philistine princes came to her and said, "Induce him to tell you what the secret of his great strength is and in what way we may overpower him and tie him; then we will each give you 1,100 pieces of silver."^h ⁶So Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me, please, wherein lies the secret of your great strength, and how you can be bound to render you helpless." ⁷Samson replied, "If they bind me with seven fresh, wood fiber cords not yet dried, then I shall become weak and be like any other man."

⁸The princes then brought her seven fiber cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. ⁹Having men hidden in her room, she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you. Samson!" But he snapped the cords as a strand of rope snaps when it is exposed to fire. So they did not discover the secret of his strength.

¹⁰Delilah said to Samson, "You have deceived me; you have lied to me; but tell me now, please, with what you can be bound." ¹¹He said to her, "If they bind me tightly with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall be-

y) Even his own kinsmen feared Samson, taking 3,000 men to win over one fellow Hebrew.

z) Samson did not desire to kill his own countrymen. a) Probably the Philistine "Alcatraz."

b) A jawbone subjected to the elements becomes brittle and fragile. This one was fresh and strong, still reinforced by the cohesive sinews and cartilage.

c) A triumphal song popular with the Hebrews. See Exod. 15:1-21.

d) Heb. - The high place of the jawbone, located a few miles northwest of Bethlehem.

e) Heb. - Fountain of him who called upon God in prayer.

f) Whether Delilah became Samson's mistress or just a girl friend, she did not love him.

g) A city on the border between Dan and the Philistines.

h) About $1,000.00 from each of five Philistine princes. Samson was their "public enemy, No. 1."

come weak and be as any other man."¹² So Delilah took new ropes, bound him with them, and said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" Men were waiting in an inside room. But he snapped the ropes from his arms like a thread.

¹³ Then Delilah said to Samson, "Up to now you have fooled me and told me lies; do tell me wherewith you can be bound." He said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web."¹⁴ So she fastened it with a pin and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" He awakened out of his sleep and tore away the pin of the loom with the web. ¹⁵ Then she told him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when you do not confide in me? These three times you have deceived me and have not told me wherein the secret of your strength lies." ¹⁶ So it came about after she nagged him daily and kept urging him without stopping until his soul was wearied to death, ¹⁷ that he opened to her his whole heart.¹ He said to her, "No razor has touched my head, for I have been a Nazarite of God from my mother's womb; if I were shaved, I would lose my strength and become weak and be like other men."¹⁸ When Delilah saw that he had opened his heart to her, she summoned the Philistine princes, saying, "Come up at once, for this time he has opened his heart to me." Then the Philistine princes came up to her with the money in their hand. ¹⁹ She let him sleep upon her knees and called a man to shave off the seven locks of his head. So she began to control him, for his strength left him. ²⁰ Then she exclaimed, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" He awoke out of his sleep and said, "I will go out as at other times and shake myself free." He did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

²¹ The Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes,¹ took him down to Gaza, bound him in bronze chains, and put him to grinding in the prison. ²² However, the hair of his head began to grow again from the time when it was shaved off.²³

1073 B.C.

²³ The princes of the Philistines got together to offer a special sacrifice to Dagon, their god, and to celebrate. They said, "Our god has delivered Samson, our enemy, into our hand." ²⁴ When the people saw him, they praised their god and said, "Our god has delivered our enemy into our hand. He was a destroyer of our country and the murderer of many of us." ²⁵ It came about when they were in high spirits, that they said, "Call Samson to amuse us." Samson was brought from the prison, and he amused them. When they stationed him between the pillars, ²⁶ Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, "Let me free, so I can feel the pillars on which the house is supported and lean against them."

²⁷ Now the house was full of men and women; all the Philistine princes were there, and there were about 3,000 men and women on the roof, looking down while Samson made sport. ²⁸ Then Samson called out to the LORD and said, "O LORD God, remember me, I pray Thee; do strengthen me only this once, O God,² that I may at once wreak vengeance upon the Philistines for both my eyes." ²⁹ Samson took hold of the two central columns on which the building rested, one with his right hand and the other with his left; ³⁰ and he said, "Let me die with the Philistines." Then with all his might he bent himself, and the building caved in upon the princes and upon all the people that were in it; so these he killed in dying numbered more than those he killed while he lived.

i) The "web" was the cloth in the loom which Delilah was weaving. The "pin" was the object with which the braided locks were fastened to the "web." She probably wove his hair into the cloth.

j) Samson becomes a traitor to himself and to his God.

k) The secret of his strength lay in his Nazarite vow and not in his long hair, as such. By destroying the symbol, his hair, he abrogated his vow to God, and God in turn abandoned him. See Num. 6:5; Judg. 13:5. l) Blinding was a permanent preventive against visible temptations.

m) Samson probably repented of his folly and renewed his Nazarite vow; consequently his physical strength was restored.

n) Notwithstanding his foolishness and poor judgment, Samson demonstrated his faith in God. He is numbered among the heroes of faith in Hebrews 11:32.

³¹His brothers and all his relatives came down, took him away with them, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol^p in his father Manoa's tomb. He had judged Israel for twenty years.

About 1350 B.C.

17 A MAN NAMED MICAH, WHO lived in the highlands of Ephraim, ²said to his mother, "The 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse in my hearing, that money is in my possession; I took it." His mother said, "Blessed of the LORD shall my son be." ³When he restored the 1,100 pieces of silver to his mother, she said, "I truly dedicate the silver from my hand to the LORD in behalf of my son, so that he may make a molten and an engraved image; so, I return it to you."

⁴After he had restored the money to his mother, she took 200 pieces of silver and gave them to the silversmith, who made them into a molten and an engraved image^q for Micah's house.

⁵This man Micah had a shrine for Deity.^r He made an ephod^s and teraphim^t and consecrated one of his sons to be his priest. ⁶In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what, to his view, seemed right.

⁷A young man, a Levite^u of the tribe of Judah, from Bethlehem in Judah, lived there. ⁸The man had left Bethlehem in Judah to find a position,^v and when in his travels he came to the highlands of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, he settled down. ⁹Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?" To this he replied, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah; I have come to live where I may secure a position." ¹⁰Micah said to him, "Stay with me! Be to me a father and a priest, and I will annually pay you ten pieces of silver and give you a suit of clothes and your room and board." ¹¹To this proposal the Levite agreed; he lived with the man, and the young man was as one of his sons. ¹²Micah then consecrated the Levite,^w and he lived in Micah's house. ¹³Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will bless me, since I have a Levite as my priest."

About 1350 B.C.

18 IN THOSE DAYS THERE WAS NO king in Israel, and at that time the Danites looked for an inheritance in which to settle, since until then their inheritance had not been allotted to them among the tribes of Israel.^x ²So the Danites sent five courageous men from their tribe at Zorah and Eshtaol to spy out the land and to explore it. They said to them, "Go and explore the land." They arrived at the highlands of Ephraim, where they lodged in the house of Micah. ³When they neared the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite,^y and turning to him they said, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place, and what have you here?" ⁴He answered them, "Thus and so has Micah done for me; he has hired me, and I have become his priest." ⁵Then they said to him, "Inquire of God,^z we beg of you, so that we may know whether the mission on which we are going will be a success." The priest said to them, ⁶"Go in peace, the journey you are making is pleasing to the LORD."^a ⁷Then the five men left, came to Laish, and observed how the natives lived, quiet and secure^b after the manner of the Sidonians.^c There was no ruler in the land who might in any wise embarrass them. They lived

p) There [ch. 13:25] the Spirit had first empowered him while still young.

q) Used as aids in local worship.

r) Heb. — Elohim, an intensive plural noun emphasizing the richness of God's Majesty.

s) Part of the equipment of the sanctuary, possibly an instrument of divination.

t) Images of household gods.

u) Probably of the tribe of Judah by his mother and of the tribe of Levi by his father.

v) Where he might be employed in his Levitical office.

w) This Levite was inaugurated in an office to which only a high priest could ordain a priest.

x) Dan was among the seven tribes not included in the first allotment [Josh. 18:2].

y) His voice was not that of a native Ephraimite. Cf. ch. 12:6.

z) Since the name Elohim is used for God, they meant the true God and not a heathen deity.

a) The use of the name Jehovah [translated LORD] aimed to suggest that Micah and the Levite worshiped the true God. This designation is never applied but to Him.

b) The Sidonians lived in fortified cities and enjoyed relative peace and security.

c) Probably the people in Laish were colonists from Sidon.

a great distance from the Sidonians,^d and they had no dealings with anyone.

⁸When the spies returned to their tribe at Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers said to them, "What is your report?" ⁹They answered, "Arise, and let us possess the land; for we have seen it, and it is very good. Will you sit still? Do not delay. Enter the land, and possess it at once." ¹⁰When you go, you will come upon a people whose land offers room in all directions and who are living complacently secure; but God has given it to you, and it will be a place where you shall have no want for anything on earth."

¹¹Six hundred men of the Danite clans from Zorah and Eshtaol then armed themselves with weapons of war and went out. ¹²They pitched their camp in Judah near Kiriath-jearim;^e so this place is called Mahaneh-dan^f until this day; it is behind Kiriath-jearim. ¹³From there they traveled to the highlands of Ephraim until they came to Micah's house. ¹⁴Then the five men, who had gone to spy out and search the country of Laish, said to their fellow tribesmen, "Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, teraphim,^g and an engraved and a molten image? So decide what you are to do."

¹⁵They then turned aside and went to the house of Micah, where the young Levite lived and inquired after his health. ¹⁶The 600 Danites, who were armed with weapons of war, stood near the entrance of the gate ¹⁷while the spies went inside and took the engraved image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image.

The priest was standing by the entrance of the gate with the 600 men that were armed with weapons of war, ¹⁸while these went into Micah's house and took the engraved image, ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image. The priest said to them, "What are you doing?" ¹⁹They answered, "Be still; put your hand over your mouth. Go with us, and be to us a father and a priest; is it better for you to be priest in the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?" ²⁰Then the priest felt gladhearted.^h He took the ephod, the teraphim, and the engraved image, and went among the people. ²¹Putting the children, the cattle, and the goods in front of them,ⁱ they turned and moved on.

²²When they had gone some distance from Micah's house, the neighbors of Micah assembled in a group and overtook the Danites. ²³They called to the Danites, who turned their faces and said to Micah, "What ails you, that you follow us with such a large crowd?" ²⁴He replied, "You have taken my god,^j which I made; also the priest, and have gone on your way; now what have I left? How can you say to me, 'What ails you?'" ²⁵The Danites told him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest some of the embittered men in our midst knock you down and kill you and your household."^k ²⁶The Danites then went their way; and when Micah saw that he was outnumbered, he went back home. ²⁷Thus they took what Micah had made and the priest who had served him.

When they reached the quiet and secure people of Laish,^l they attacked them with their weapons of war and burned the city. ²⁸No one delivered them, for they lived to themselves in the valley near Beth-rehob,^m and Sidon was a great distance away. They rebuilt the city, lived in it, ²⁹and named the new city Danⁿ after their ancestor Dan, who had been born to Israel. But

d) Laish was located near the foot of the Lebanon range near the source of the Jordan River.

e) Heb. — Cities of woods. f) Heb. — Camp of Dan. Ch. 13:25 suggests that this camp was in existence during the days of Samson; so the events in chaps. 17 to 21 occurred prior to Samson's judgeship. g) See ch. 17:5.

h) The priest was glad to get a call to a larger parish; but neither they nor he had a right to those articles.

i) Sent ahead so that the rear could be protected against attack.

j) A paraphrase might read, "You have taken the symbols which I made of my god."

k) The attitude here is far from divine teaching.

l) Living in a fortified city in an isolated place, they felt no need for posting guard.

m) Heb. — House of a street, a town in northern Palestine inhabited by Syrians.

n) Located at the northern extremity of Israel's possession. "From Dan to Beersheba" means "from the northern to the southern extremity."

previously the city's name was Laish.

³⁰The Danites set up the engraved image^o in their midst, and Jonathan^p the son of Gershom, the son of Moses,^q and his two sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the captivity of the land. ³¹They used the engraved image, which Micah had made, as long as God's house was located in Shiloh. 1360 B.C.

19 IN THOSE DAYS WHEN THERE was no king in Israel, a certain Levite, living as an outsider in the highlands of Ephraim, took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah. ²His concubine played him false^r and moved back to her father's house in Bethlehem of Judah for four months. ³Then her husband arose, and, taking his servant and a pair of donkeys, he went to the concubine's house to speak endearing words to her, so as to win her back. When she introduced him to her father, he was overjoyed to meet him.^s ⁴His father-in-law, the damsel's father, detained him; so he remained with him three days. They ate and drank and spent the nights there.

⁵On the fourth day they got up early in the morning to leave; but the damsel's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh yourself with a bite of bread, and afterward you may go." ⁶So they sat down and ate and drank together. Then the girl's father said to the man, "Be content to stay all night, I beg of you, and let your heart be merry."^t ⁷When the man rose to go, his father-in-law urged him so strongly that he stayed another night. ⁸On the morning of the fifth day he arose early to leave, but the damsel's father said, "Refresh yourself, I beg of you, and stay until evening," so they ate another meal together. ⁹When the man got up to leave with his concubine and servant, the damsel's father said, "Look, the day is drawing to a close; please stay all night. Rest here tonight, so that you may be refreshed, and in the morning you can rise early for your journey home."

¹⁰But the man would not stay that night; he got up and went on his way toward Jebus^u (which is Jerusalem) with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine.

¹¹When they arrived at Jebus about sunset, the servant said to his master, "Please, let us turn aside here and lodge in the city of the Jebusites."^v ¹²His master replied, "We will not turn aside into this city of foreigners, for they do not belong to Israel; but we will move on to Gibeah."^w ¹³He further said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near one of the places ahead and spend the night, either in Gibeah or in Ramah."^x ¹⁴As they continued their journey, the sun went down at Gibeah, a town of Benjamin.

¹⁵They turned aside into Gibeah to lodge and sat down in the town square; but nobody took them along home with him for the night. ¹⁶Then at eventide, see, an old man, also from the highlands of Ephraim, but then living in Gibeah, came from his work in the field. The natives of the place were Benjamites. ¹⁷Looking up, he saw the traveler in the town square, and the old man said, "Where are you going, and from where have you come?" ¹⁸He answered him, "We are traveling from Bethlehem in Judah to the highlands of Ephraim, which is my home. I am returning from a visit to Bethlehem in Judah and am now on my way to the house of the LORD," but no one has offered to take us in for the night. ¹⁹We have ample straw and fodder for our donkeys and plenty of bread and wine for me, for your handmaid, and for the young man who accompanies your servant; there is no shortage of anything." ²⁰Then the old man said, "Peace to you! Let me take care of all your wants," but do not stay in the street." ²¹So he took him into his

o) They erected a formal place of worship where the priest could officiate.

p) Jonathan was the young Levite, descendant of Gershom, son of Moses.

q) The name Manasseh, correctly translated here in the KJV, is a modification of the name Moses.

r) Deserting her bed and board was sometimes reason for the designation "harlot," as the Hebrew here intimates.

s) The girl's father was anxious to bring about a reconciliation.

t) A town of the Jebusites, first known as Salem [Gen. 14:18], later as Jerusalem.

u) A town north of Jebus near Mount Ephraim. v) A town near Gibeah. w) At Shiloh.

x) Oriental hospitality; the guest may keep his provisions for the rest of the journey.

house, gave fodder to the donkeys, and, after washing their feet, they ate and drank.

²²While they were enjoying themselves, certain perverted men of the city surrounded the house and, pounding on the door, called out to the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who entered your house, that we may rape him."

²³Then the master of the house went out to them and said, "No, my brothers, do not commit such a wicked act, I beg of you. Now that this man is my guest, do not commit this shameful crime. ²⁴I will bring out my virgin daughter and his concubine; ravish them, and do as you please with them, but commit no such wanton crime on this man."^y ²⁵The men, however, would not listen to him; so the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them.^z They raped her and abused her all night until morning, and at daybreak they let her go. ²⁶When morning dawned, she fell down at the entrance of the house^a where her master lodged and lay there until daylight. ²⁷When her master got up in the morning, opened the doors of the house, and stepped out to go on his way, he found his concubine at the entrance of the house with her hands upon the threshold. ²⁸He said to her, "Arise, let us be on our way"; but there was no answer. He then placed her on the donkey and started on his way home. ²⁹When he arrived home, he drew his knife, and, taking hold of his concubine, he cut her up, limb by limb, into twelve pieces and distributed her throughout the borders of Israel.^b ³⁰Then every one who saw it said, "Nothing like this has ever happened or been seen since the day when the Israelites came up out of the land of Egypt. Think it over, take counsel, and speak up."^c

1360 B.C.?

20 THEN ALL THE ISRAELITES from Dan to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, mustered, and the congregation was assembled as one man before the LORD at Mizpeh.^d ²There the leaders of the whole nation, all the tribes of Israel, 400,000 infantrymen with swords, presented themselves in the congregation of God's people. ³The Benjamites heard that the Israelites were on their way to Mizpah. The Israelites said, "Tell us how this wickedness came about."^e ⁴Then the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered, "I came with my concubine to Gibeah, a town of Benjamin, to lodge; ⁵but during the night the men of Gibeah, with evil intentions toward me, surrounded the house, planning to kill me; but they raped my concubine, so that she died. ⁶I then took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the tribes of Israel; for they committed a lewd and wanton deed in Israel. ⁷Sons of Israel, now that you are all here, express your mind and counsel!"

⁸Then all the people stood up as one man^f and said, "None of us will go to his tent, none of us will return home. ⁹This we will do to Gibeah: we will march against it by lot. ¹⁰We will take ten men of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, a hundred of every thousand and a thousand out of every ten thousand to supply food for the army, so that when they reach there, they may suitably deal with Gibeah in Benjamin for all the lewdness they have committed in Israel." ¹¹So all the men of Israel united against the city as one man.

¹²The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the entire tribe of Benjamin, announcing, "What wickedness is this that has occurred among you? ¹³Now deliver into our hands the per-

y) Though surprising to us, to the host this seemed the lesser of two evils; see Gen. 19:8, Lot's daughters. z) The man forced his concubine to go out, thereby saving his own body.

a) Indicates the extensive abuse heaped upon her.

b) The crime was so abominable that the people would not believe it, had they not seen evidence.

c) A dramatic way of arousing the people to action. d) Or, Ramoth-Gilead.

e) They wanted the details.

f) Unanimity of purpose was evidenced.

verted fellows in Gibeah, so that we may put them to death and thus remove this crime from Israel." But the Benjamites would not listen to the demands of their fellow Israelites.¹³ ¹⁴Instead, the Benjamites gathered from the other cities to Gibeah to march in battle against the Israelites. ¹⁵On that day the Benjamites of the other cities were counted, 26,000 swordsmen besides 700 chosen men of Gibeah. ¹⁶Among all these there were 700 left-handed sharpshooters who could sling a stone at a hair without missing.

¹⁷The men of Israel were also counted, 400,000 swordsmen besides the Benjamites, mighty men of war, ¹⁸who marched to Bethel^h to inquire of God, "Who shall first engage the Benjamites in battle?" The LORD answered: Judah shall go first.¹ ¹⁹So the Israelites arose early in the morning to arrange their battle lines against Gibeah, ²⁰upon which the men of Israel marched out to fight Benjamin, arraying themselves in battle against those of Gibeah.

²¹Then the Benjamites marched out of Gibeah and made 22,000 Israelites to die on that day. ²²But the Israelites closed ranks and arrayed themselves for battle in the same place where they fought the first day. ²³The Israelites also wept before the LORD until evening, inquiring of the LORD, "Shall we again engage our kinsmen, the Benjamites in battle?"² The LORD answered: Attack them!

²⁴So the Israelites advanced against the Benjamites on the second day, ²⁵and the Benjamites marched out of Gibeah the second day and made 18,000 of Israel's swordsmen to die. ²⁶Then all the Israelites, the entire army, went to Bethel and wept. They sat there before the LORD, fasted until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to the LORD.³ ²⁷The Israelites then inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there at that time ²⁸and Phinehas¹ the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, "Shall we again engage our kinsmen, the Benjamites, in battle, or shall we cease?" The LORD said: Attack them; for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.

²⁹So on the third day the Israelites set men in ambush^m all around Gibeah; ³⁰and the Israelites engaged the Benjamites and arranged themselves in battle formation against Gibeah, as at previous times. ³¹The Benjamites marched out to meet the army, and they were drawn away from the city. They began to do battle by killing about thirty Israelites along the highways, one of which led to Bethel and the other across the field to Gibeah. ³²The Benjamites said, "They are being killed as on the first day." But the Israelites said, "Let us draw them away from the city into the highways by running away."ⁿ ³³Then the main army of the Israelites arose and arrayed themselves for battle at Baal-tamar,^o while the Israelites in ambush rushed out of their places in Maareh-geba.^p ³⁴When the 10,000 chosen men of Israel neared Gibeah, the battle raged furiously; but those of Benjamin were not aware of the impending danger. ³⁵The LORD routed the Benjamites before Israel, so that the Israelites killed 25,100 Benjamite swordsmen that day.

³⁶The Benjamites realized that they were beaten. While the Israelites yielded ground to the Benjamites, because they had confidence in the men whom they had placed in ambush near Gibeah, ³⁷the men in ambush rushed upon Gibeah and put the whole city to the sword. ³⁸Now the Israelites had agreed

g) Indicates the extent of their depravity.

h) Heb. — House of God. i) But God did not promise immediate victory.

j) Apparently the Israelites trusted in their army and the goodness of their cause, and did not make God a part of the venture. All Israel stood in need of chastisement. God used their enemy for this purpose.

k) Real humility is now evidenced. God responds by giving them victory.

l) If this is the same Phinehas as in Numbers 25, then these events occurred hardly a century after the death of Joshua.

m) They now use prudent caution and military strategy.

n) The men in ambush were to enter the city following the exit of Benjamin's main army.

o) Heb. — Baal of the palm tree. p) Treeless desert near Geba.

upon a signal with the men in ambush, that when they made a great cloud of smoke rise into the air, ³⁹the Israelites should make an about-face in the battle. After the Benjamites attacked and killed about thirty Israelites, they had thought, "They are completely routed as in the first battle." ⁴⁰But then the signal started to rise in a column of smoke. The Benjamites looked back and saw that the whole city was going up in flames. ⁴¹Then the Israelites turned around, and the Benjamites were overcome with fear. When they saw that disaster had overtaken them, ⁴²they turned their backs upon the Israelites and fled into the desert; but the battle hemmed them in; those coming from the city cut them down between them. ⁴³They surrounded Benjamin, chased him without stopping and trampled on him opposite Gibeah toward the east, ⁴⁴so that 18,000 men, all warriors, fell. ⁴⁵Some turned and fled toward the desert near the Rimmon rock, ⁴⁶5,000 were gleaned on the highways, and they followed close after them as far as Gidom, killing 2,000 of them. ⁴⁷Altogether 25,000 swordsmen from the ranks of the Benjamites were killed that day, all of them men of valor. ⁴⁸But 600 men escaped into the desert near the rock of Rimmon, and there they lived for four months. ⁴⁹The men of Israel turned back against the Benjamites and exterminated all the people and the cattle they encountered; and they set on fire all the cities they entered.

1358 B.C.

21 NOW THE MEN OF ISRAEL HAD sworn at Mizpah, "None of us shall marry his daughter to a Benjamite." ²But as the people went to Bethel and remained there in the presence of God until evening, they raised their voices and wept aloud, ³exclaiming, "Why, O LORD, God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that one of the tribes of Israel is now missing?" ⁴Early next morning the people arose, built an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. ⁵The Israelites said, "Who among all the tribes of Israel did not come out to the assembly?" For an oath had been taken concerning those who did not come out to the congregation at Mizpah, saying, "He shall be put to death."

⁶The Israelites felt grieved about the Benjamites. They said, "Today one of our tribes is eliminated from Israel. ⁷How shall we provide wives for those who are left, seeing we have sworn by the LORD not to give them our daughters for wives?" ⁸Then they said, "Which one of the tribes of Israel did not come to the congregation before the LORD in Mizpah?" And it showed that none had come to the assembly from Jabesh-gilead; ⁹for when they checked up on the people that were mustered, not a man from Jabesh-gilead had been present.

¹⁰Then the congregation sent warriors there with orders, "Go and execute the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead, including the women and children. ¹¹This is what you are to do: kill all the men, also the women who have lain with men." ¹²They found 400 young virgins among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead, who had not lain with a man; these they brought into the camp at Shiloh, located in the land of Canaan. ¹³Then the whole congregation sent word to the Benjamites living at the Rimmon rock, proclaiming amnesty to them. ¹⁴The Benjamites returned, and they gave them the women that had been saved alive in Jabesh-gilead; but even so there were not enough for them. ¹⁵The people felt grieved concerning the Benjamites, because the LORD had made a gap among the tribes of Israel.

¹⁶Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for those who are left without wives, since all the Benjamite women were killed?" ¹⁷They added, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that no tribe shall be blotted out from Israel; ¹⁸but we cannot give

q) A fortified, rocky stronghold.

r) Their hasty action resulted in repentance. s) Indicating their contrition.

t) Or, dry Gilead, probably located in an arid spot.

u) The vow in vs. 5 is carried out. The town revived, and King Saul of Benjamin delivered it from overwhelming Ammonites [I Sam. 11:1-11].

v) A change of heart calls for restitution.

them our daughters for wives." For the Israelites had sworn, "Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin." ¹⁹So they said, "A feast of the LORD is held annually in Shiloh, north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that runs from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."

²⁰They instructed the Benjamites, "Go, hide in the vineyards, ²¹and wait; when the daughters of Shiloh come to take part in the dances, you may come out of the vineyards; each of you catch his wife from among the daughters of Shiloh, and you go to the land of Benjamin. ²²If their fathers or brothers come out and complain, we will say to them, 'Forgive them graciously, because we did not provide all of them with a wife in battle, nor did you give them any, because you would have been doing wrong.'"

²³Then the Benjamites did as had been suggested; they took wives according to their own number from the dancers, whom they carried away. When they returned to their own inheritance, they built the cities and settled down.

²⁴Then the Israelites departed, every man as related to his own tribe and family to occupy his inheritance. ²⁵In those days there was no king in Israel; every person did what seemed right in his own eyes.^w

w) See Prov. 14:12. Without a leader the nation became involved in apostasy and social injustices.

THE BOOK OF

RUTH

Around 1100 B.C.

1 IN THE DAYS WHEN THE JUDGES governed^a there was a famine in the land, and a man migrated with his wife and his two sons from Bethlehem in Judah to live for a while in the land of Moab.^b ²The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name Naomi, and the names of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion,^c Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the land of Moab and remained there. ³But Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; so she was left with her two sons, ⁴who married Moabite women, the one named Orpah and the other Ruth. For about ten years they had lived there ⁵when both Mahlon and Chilion died so that the woman was bereft of her two sons and of her husband. ⁶Then, when she learned in the land of Moab that the LORD had visited His people in giving them food, she got ready to return with her two daughters-in-law from Moab.

⁷With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had lived, but on the way to the land of Judah,^d ⁸Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "You go back, each of you to her mother's home! May the LORD treat you as kindly as you have treated me and those who have died. ⁹The LORD grant that you may find rest, each in her husband's home." She then kissed them, but they raised their voices and wept. ¹⁰They told her, "We are certainly going back with you to your people." ¹¹But Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters! Why should you go with me? Do I have any more sons within me, who could become your husbands? ¹²Go back, my daughters; go your way; I am too old to marry again. And even if I thought there was hope, if I were with a husband tonight, if I should bear sons, ¹³would you wait until they are grown up, while you are kept from having a husband? No, my daughters, it is harder for me than for you that the LORD's hand is stretched out against me." ¹⁴Then they renewed their audible weeping, and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law; but Ruth clung closely to her.

¹⁵Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; you return after her." ¹⁶But Ruth replied, "Do not urge me to desert you by turning away from you; because wherever you go, there I will go; wherever you lodge I will lodge. Your people are my people, and your God is my God;^e ¹⁷Wherever you die I will die, and there I shall be

a) Jesse, Obed and Boaz were David's ancestors [ch. 4:19], so these events dated around 1100 B.C.
b) Moab and Ammon were sons of Lot; the language of their descendants was similar to that of the Hebrews.

c) Elimelech - my God is King; Naomi - pleasant; Mahlon - sickly; Chilion - wasting away; Ruth - good-looking; Orpah - neck or mane; Ephrathah - fruitful; Bethlehem - bread-house.

d) Probably on the south bank of the Arnon River, the boundary between Moab and Reuben.

e) Ruth could extend her trust in and love for Naomi to trust in and love for God.

buried. Thus^f may God do to me and worse if anything but death separates you and me."

¹⁸When Naomi saw her determination to accompany her, she said no more. ¹⁹They both walked on until they came to Bethlehem. But on their arrival, the whole town was stirred because of them. The women said, "Is this Naomi?" ²⁰But she answered, "Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara,^g for the Almighty has dealt bitterly with me. ²¹Amplly supplied^h I left this place; but destitute the LORD has made me return. Why then call me Naomi, since the LORD has witnessed against me and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

²²Naomi and Ruth, the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, who had come with her from the land of Moab, arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

2 THERE WAS A CLOSE RELATIVE OF Naomi's husband, a prominent and wealthy man of Elimelech's family, whose name was Boaz.ⁱ ²Now Ruth, the Moabitess, said to Naomi, "Please, let me go into the field and glean heads of grain behind someone who is kind to me." She said to her, "Yes, go, my daughter." ³So she reached the field and gleaned behind the harvesters; and she happened to get into a field that belonged to Boaz, the near relative of Elimelech. ⁴Then, look! There came Boaz from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters with, "The LORD be with you!" to which they responded, "The LORD bless you!" ⁵Boaz then asked his foreman of the harvesters, "Who is that young woman?" ⁶The foreman replied, "That is the young woman from Moab who came back with Naomi. ⁷She said, 'Please, let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the harvesters.' So she came and has been busy from early morning until now, except for a little rest in the booth."

⁸Boaz then said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter!^k Do not glean in any other field; do not leave here at all; keep near my women workers. ⁹Keep track of the field in which they are harvesting, and follow them up. Have I not given the young men strict orders not to annoy you? And when you feel thirsty, go to the water jars and drink from what the workmen have drawn." ¹⁰She fell on her face, bowed deeply to the ground, and said to him, "Why do you show me the favor of noticing me,^l an outsider?" ¹¹Boaz replied to her, "It has been fully told me how much you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of her husband; also how you have left your father and mother and the land of your birth to identify yourself with a people you did not know before. ¹²May the LORD reward your kindness; may a full reward be yours from the LORD God of Israel under whose wings you have come to shelter." ¹³Upon which she said, "Even though I am not equal to any one of your maid servants, you have spoken so kindly to me, sir, that you have given me courage. What you say touches your servant girl's heart."^m

¹⁴When it was time to eat, Boaz said to her, "Come this way; eat from the bread and dip your bit in the vinegar." So she sat among the harvestmen, and he served her roasted heads of grain. She ate all she wanted and had some leftovers.ⁿ ¹⁵When she got up to glean, Boaz ordered his young men, "Let her glean right among the sheaves; be not hard on her; ¹⁶rather drop some heads for her on purpose, and let them lie there so that she can gather them; do not reprimand her."

¹⁷Until evening she gleaned in the field; then beat out what she had gathered—about a bushel of barley, ¹⁸which she took up and went into the city. When her mother-in-law saw how much she had gleaned and when she

f) A motion of the hand indicated the possibly fatal results.

g) Mara—bitter; Miriam, Maria, Mary, myrrh, all have the same stem.

h) Husband, sons, sheep and cattle when leaving; none of these on returning.

i) Boaz probably means strength, cf. I Kings 7:21 and II Chron. 3:17.

j) Friendly feelings when both employer and employee relate life to God.

k) Boaz must have been older than Ruth. l) Literally—eying me.

m) Heart was answering to heart.

n) Which she saved to share that evening with Naomi whom she had learned to love and who had led her to God.

showed the leftovers after she had eaten enough, ¹⁹her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed is the man who took notice of you." She then told her mother-in-law, "The name of the man for whom I worked today is Boaz." ²⁰Naomi then told her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not withdrawn His kindness from the living or the dead." Naomi further said to her, "The man is a near relative of ours, one of our redeemers."^o

²¹Ruth, the Moabite, said, "Beside, he told me, 'Join my harvestmen until they are through with my entire crop.'" ²²Naomi assured Ruth, her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, for you to go out with my maidservants, so you will not be molested in another field." ²³Ruth therefore joined the women workers of Boaz to glean until the barley and the wheat harvests were in, and she lived with her mother-in-law.

3 NAOMI, HER MOTHER-IN-LAW, then said to her, "My daughter, should I not look for a resting place for you so that you may prosper? ²Is not Boaz, with whose women you worked, our relative? See here! Tonight he winnows the barley on the threshing floor; ³so, you take a bath, anoint yourself, get dressed up and go down to the threshing floor; but let him not see you until he is through eating and drinking. ⁴When he lies down, watch carefully the exact spot where he lies down; then you slip in, raise the foot covering and lie down. He will let you know what to do next."

⁵She replied to her, "Everything you suggest to me I will do."

⁶So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything exactly as her mother-in-law had instructed her.

⁷When Boaz had eaten and drunk and felt happy of heart, he went to lie down at the edge of the grain pile.

Quietly she moved near, turned up his foot covering and lay down. ⁸At midnight this happened: The man awoke startled, turned around and, look, there was a woman lying at his feet. ⁹He asked, "Who are you?" She answered, "I am Ruth, your servant girl. Spread your covering^p over your servant girl, for you are a near kinsman." ¹⁰He said, "May you be blessed of the LORD, my daughter. This your later kindness is lovelier than any previous one; for you have gone after no young men, whether poor or rich. ¹¹Now then, my daughter, feel at ease; everything you suggest I will do for you, for everybody in town knows that you are a virtuous woman. ¹²It is true, I am a near kinsman; but there is one nearer kin than I. ¹³Remain here overnight and tomorrow morning, if he wants to redeem you, well and good, let him redeem you; but if he is not inclined to redeem you, as truly as the LORD lives, I will redeem you. You lie down until morning."

¹⁴So until morning she lay at his feet, then got up before people could recognize each other; for he said, "Let it not be known that a woman came to the threshing floor."^q ¹⁵He further said, "Hand me the shawl you wore and open it up." She opened it up, and he measured out six pecks of barley with which he loaded her, and she went into town.

¹⁶On her return, Naomi asked her, "How did you make out, my daughter?" She told everything the man had done, ¹⁷adding, "These six pecks of barley he gave me because, he said, 'Do not go to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'" ¹⁸"Wait quietly, my daughter," she rejoined, "until you learn how the affair turns out; for that man will not stop without completing the matter today."

4 BOAZ MEANWHILE HAD GONE UP to the gate and had taken a seat, when, look, the redeemer whom Boaz

^o) By Mosaic law [Lev. 25:25], a near kinsman should buy what had been sold because of poverty, so as to keep it in the family.

^p) The first meaning of the word is — wing or protective covering.

^q) Boaz wisely protected his reputation; he avoided gossip.

had mentioned came by! So he said, "Hello, you there! Come over here and sit down." He came and sat down. ²He then took ten men of the city's elders and said, "Take a seat here," and they sat down. ³He then said to the closest relative, "Naomi, who has come back from the land of Moab, is selling the tract of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech; ⁴so I thought I should let you know about it with the suggestion that you buy it in the presence of those who sit here and of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, redeem it; but if not, so declare to me so that I am assured, for there is nobody to redeem it except you, with myself next." He said, "I will redeem it." ⁵But Boaz added, "On the day on which you purchase the field from Naomi, you are also acquiring Ruth, the Moabitess, the widow of the one who died, to perpetuate the name of the dead in his inheritance." ⁶The next in kin then said, "I cannot redeem it for myself; for that would ruin my own inheritance; you redeem my right for yourself, for I cannot redeem it."

⁷In times past it was customary in Israel in order to validate redemptive and exchange transactions, that one dealer pulled off his sandal and gave it to the other; it was a way of confirming the deal. ⁸The next of kin, therefore, took off his sandal and said to Boaz, "You buy it for yourself." ⁹Boaz then addressed the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses that I today have bought from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech, to Chilion and to Mahlon; ¹⁰and besides, I acquire as my wife Ruth, the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, so as to revive the name of the dead for his estate; then the name of the dead shall not be lost from among his brothers and from the gate of his home town. You are witnesses today." ¹¹All the people in the gate and the elders said, "We are witnesses." ¹²May the LORD make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, who jointly built up the house of Israel. Build well in Ephrathah and earn fame in Bethlehem. ¹³May your house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the offspring which the LORD will grant from this woman."

¹³Boaz then took Ruth, and she became his wife. When he cohabited with her, the LORD granted her conception, and she gave birth to a son. ¹⁴The women said to Naomi, "Praised be the LORD, who did not leave you this time without a family; may his name grow famous in Israel. ¹⁵He will rejuvenate you and support you in your old age, because your daughter-in-law, who loves you, has given him birth; she who means more to you than seven sons."

¹⁶Naomi took the baby, laid it in her lap, and took care of it. ¹⁷The neighbor women named it. They said, "A son is born to Naomi," and called him Obed.^a He is the father of Jesse, David's father.

¹⁸This is the Pharez genealogy:¹ Pharez got Hezron; ¹⁹Hezron got Ram; Ram got Amminadab; ²⁰Amminadab got Nahshon; Nahshon got Salmon; ²¹Salmon got Boaz; Boaz got Obed; Obed got Jesse, and Jesse got David.

r) Still nothing put down in writing. s) Warshiper.

t) One reason why the book of Ruth was written is to show King David's lineage and background. The atmosphere suggests a sense of divine Presence in life's daily affairs, such as is but rarely shown in the book of Judges, of which this forms an appendix. Although the events are not dated, they must have occurred about 90 years before David's birth. Because it pictures a harvest scene, the book was read sometimes at Persecost, the harvest festival.

SAMUEL

About 1100 B.C.

1 AT RAMAH OF THE ZOPHITES^a IN the Ephraim hill country, there lived a certain man by the name of Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. ²He had two wives, one called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. ³Annually this man went up from his town to Shiloh to worship the LORD of hosts and to bring Him offerings. The priests of the LORD there were Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli.

⁴On his offering-day Elkanah gave his wife Peninnah and all her sons and daughters a portion each; ⁵but to Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah although the LORD had closed her womb. ⁶Her rival, however, provoked her mercilessly to make her irritable, because the LORD had closed her womb.^b ⁷This happened year after year. Every time they went up to the house of the LORD, she annoyed her so that she cried and did not eat. ⁸But Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why cry and why not eat; why so downhearted? Do I not mean more to you than ten sons?"

⁹Eventually, after their eating and drinking at Shiloh, Hannah arose. Eli the priest was seated on a bench near the doorpost of the LORD's temple.

¹⁰Out of a sorrowful soul she prayed to the LORD and cried bitterly. ¹¹She then made a vow. She said, "O LORD of hosts, if Thou wilt actually look at Thy handmaid's trouble, wilt think of me and not forget Thy handmaid, and wilt grant Thy handmaid a son, then I will give him to the LORD all his life, and no razor shall come upon his head."

¹²As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli noticed her mouth; for ¹³Hannah was speaking in her heart; her lips moved, but no voice could be heard, so that Eli thought that she was drunk. ¹⁴So Eli said to her, "How long will you behave as one intoxicated? Get rid of your wine." ¹⁵But Hannah replied, "No, my master, I am a deeply grieved woman. I have drunk no wine or liquor, but I have poured out my soul before the LORD. ¹⁶Do not consider your maid a good-for-nothing; for I have spoken all the while under stress of provocation and distress."

¹⁷Eli then responded, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel will grant you what you have prayed of Him." ¹⁸She said, "May your maid find favor with you." So the woman went her way; she ate and her face showed no more sadness.

¹⁹Next morning they got up early, worshiped before the LORD, and went back to their Ramah home. Elkanah went in to his wife Hannah; the LORD remembered her ²⁰and in due time, a) The Zophites were Levites through Zuph. This Ramah is probably the one between Bethel and Bethlehem, near which Rachel died [Gen. 35:16-19].

b) Biblical evidence shows no peace and happiness in bigamy or polygamy.

after conception, Hannah gave birth to a son whom she named Samuel, because "I have asked him of the LORD."^c ²¹Elkanah, the husband, went up with his whole household to offer the annual sacrifice to the LORD and also his pledge. ²²But Hannah did not go up because, she told her husband, "When the boy is weaned, then I will take him and he will appear before the LORD and stay there for always." ²³Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Do whatever seems best to you. Stay home until you have weaned him, and may the LORD confirm His word." So his wife remained at home and nursed the boy until she weaned him.

²⁴When she had weaned him, she took him — still very young — with her; also a three-year-old bullock, a bushel of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the LORD's house at Shiloh. ²⁵After the bullock had been slain, she took the lad to Eli ²⁶and said, "Please, sir, as you live, sir, I am the woman who stood near you here in prayer before the LORD. ²⁷For this lad I prayed, and the LORD has granted me what I prayed Him for; ²⁸I have therefore handed him back to the LORD; as long as he lives he is returned to the LORD." And there he^d worshiped before the LORD.

2 HANNAH PRAYED AND SAID, "IN the LORD my heart is joyful; in the LORD my strength is heightened. Against my enemies my mouth is freely opened because of my enjoyment of Thy deliverance. ²None is holy as the LORD; for none exists without Thee; no rock^e is equal to our God.

³"Quit talking so boastfully; no more taunts from your mouth; for the LORD is a knowing God; by Him actions are estimated.^f ⁴The bows of the mighty are broken; but the tottering are girded with strength. ⁵Those once full, hired out for food; while those who suffered hunger are now at ease. The barren gives birth to seven, while the mother of many children is losing out.

⁶"The LORD kills, and He causes life; He brings down to the grave, and He makes alive. ⁷The LORD impoverishes, and He makes rich; He demotes, and He promotes. ⁸He lifts the poor out of the dust and raises the beggar from the dump to have him seated with the leaders, to have him obtain a seat of honor; for the earth's pillars are the LORD's; He set the world upon them. ⁹He guards the footsteps of His worshipers; but the godless perish in darkness because no human power renders one mighty. ¹⁰Those who oppose the LORD shall be broken; from heaven He thunders upon them. The LORD judges the earth from end to end; He supplies the king with power; He enhances the might of His anointed."

¹¹Elkanah then went home to Ramah, but the lad was in the LORD's service under direction of Eli the priest.

¹²However, the sons of Eli were sons of Belial;^g they showed no regard for the LORD, ¹³nor for the proper dues of the priests from the people. Every time a person offered a sacrifice, while the meat was boiling, the priest's boy came with a three-pronged fork in his hand, ¹⁴which he thrust into the pot or kettle or basin and all that the hook brought up the priest took for himself, and thus they ate at Shiloh all the Israelites who came there. ¹⁵Even before they burned the fat as incense, the priest's boy would come and tell the person who brought the offering, "Give the priest roast beef; he will accept no boiled meat from you, only raw." ¹⁶If the man replied, "Have the fat burned first as incense, then take for yourself as much as you want," he would retort, "No, you give it to me now, or I will take it by force." ¹⁷So monstrous was the sin of the young men in the presence of the LORD that the people came to scorn the LORD's sacrifices.

c) Samuel means — name of God. d) The boy, a Levite, stayed there to help the priests, as Levites were commissioned to render service. Though quite young, he was no babe and had learned personally to worship. e) No foundation on which to stand securely.

f) A universal principle of which Peninnah's taunts had made Hannah personally aware.

g) Belial stands for worthlessness. In II Cor. 2:15 the contrast is to the worthiness of Christ.

¹⁸Meanwhile the lad Samuel, clad in a linen vestment, was ministering before the LORD. ¹⁹Regularly his mother used to make for him his little suit, which from year to year she brought as she went with her husband to bring the annual offering. ²⁰Eli would then bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, "The LORD give you by this woman offspring in the place of the one you have returned to the LORD." They would then go back home. ²¹And the LORD visited Hannah; she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters; while the lad Samuel grew up in the LORD's presence.

²²Now Eli was very old, and when he heard everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they cohabited with the women who served at the entrance of the meeting tent, ²³he said to them, "Why do you behave this way? I hear all the people talk about your misconduct. ²⁴This will not do, my sons; for what I hear is not a good report. You lead the LORD's people to transgress. ²⁵When one person sins against another, the judges^h will do him justice; but when a person sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" But they would not listen to their father's warning; so the LORD was inclined to slay them. ²⁶And all the while young Samuel increased in stature and in favor with the LORD and with men.ⁱ

²⁷A man of God^j came to Eli and said to him, "This is the LORD's message: How clearly I revealed Myself to your father's house when in Egypt they were subject to the house of Pharaoh! ²⁸And him^k I selected out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, to wear the ephod in My presence, and to your father's house I have donated all the burnt offerings of the Israelites. ²⁹Why do you trample on My sacrifices and My offerings which I have prescribed, and honor your sons above Me, fattening yourselves on the best of My people Israel's meat offerings? ³⁰Therefore hear the word of the LORD God of Israel: I have definitely said that your family and the family of your fathers should walk before Me forever; but now the LORD says:^l Be it far from Me; for they who honor Me I will honor; but they who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed. ³¹Take note! The days are impending when I shall break down your dominance and that of your father's house until not an old man remains in your whole family. ³²In My house you will witness shortage among all the blessings I will give to Israel; not an old man shall live in your household forever. ³³But the single person, whom I shall not cut off from My altar, is to ruin your sight and to wear out your life; all those who grow up in your family shall die at maturity. ³⁴Let what is to befall your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, be a sign to you; they shall both die on the same day, ³⁵and I will appoint Me a faithful priest, who acts in accord with My mind and My Spirit. For him I will build a lasting house, and he shall walk before My anointed^m forever. ³⁶Whoever of your family still remains shall bow down to him for a mite of money and a piece of bread and shall say, 'Do, I beg of you, appoint me to some priestly service so I may have a bite to eat.'"

3 YOUNG SAMUEL WAS IN THE LORD's ministry under Eli's direction. In those days a word from the LORD was rare, and a vision was infrequent. ²But one day it happened. Eli was lying down in his accustomed place. His eyesight was getting dim, so he could not see clearly any more. ³The lamp of God was still burning,

h) Elohim, literally, gods — but usually "God"; also may mean "judge" or "judges" in the O.T. and is so quoted by our LORD [John 10:35]. As Elohim has not occurred in this book, but Yahweh (Jehovah) for the Supreme Being, "the judges" seems the best translation here.

i) Luke, in writing his ch. 2:52, seems to have this lingering in his memory.

j) An unnamed, unfamed prophet. Many of his kind must have witnessed for God among His people, besides those whose messages have come to us.

k) Levi, under judgment of being scattered among Israel; but the judgment changed to blessing upon evidence of obedience [Ex. 32:25-29].

l) One of the many "ifs" of God. The fatalist will find no confirmation from sacred history.

m) Usually the king.

and Samuel had retired in the tent of the LORD where God's ark was. ⁴Then the LORD called Samuel, who said, "Here I am," ⁵and ran to Eli. He said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. ⁶Once more the LORD called: Samuel! And Samuel arose and ran to Eli, saying, "Here I am, for you certainly called me." But he said, "No, I did not call you, my son; lie down again."

⁷Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD; never yet had a word from the LORD been revealed to him. ⁸So when for the third time the LORD called Samuel, he got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; unquestionably you called me." Then it dawned on Eli that the LORD was calling the lad. ⁹So Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down again, and when He calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for Thy servant is listening.'" Samuel went and lay down in his usual place. ¹⁰Then the LORD came, took His stand, and called as at previous times: Samuel! Samuel! Samuel said, "Speak, for Thy servant is listening." ¹¹The LORD said to Samuel: Take note! I am about to do something in Israel that will tingle both ears of all who hear it. ¹²In that day I will carry out from start to finish against Eli everything I have said about his family. ¹³You tell him that I will execute justice over his family forever, because he knew that his sons were bringing a curse upon themselves, and he failed to discipline them. ¹⁴I have therefore sworn to the Eli family that the iniquity of Eli's household shall never be paid for, either by sacrifice or by offering.

¹⁵Until morning Samuel kept to his couch; then he opened the doors of the LORD's house, afraid to tell the vision to Eli. ¹⁶But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!" He said, "Here am I." ¹⁷Eli then asked, "What is the message He spoke to you? Do not hide it from me. God do so to you and worseⁿ if you hide from me one syllable of all the words He told you." ¹⁸Then Samuel told him everything; he kept nothing from him. And he said, "He is the LORD; may He do what seems good in His sight."

¹⁹Thus Samuel matured, and the LORD was with him; He let not one of His words fall to the ground. ²⁰And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba came to understand that Samuel was commissioned as the LORD's prophet. ²¹Once more at Shiloh the LORD appeared again, for there He revealed Himself to Samuel through the divine message.

1090 B.C.

4 SAMUEL'S MESSAGE REACHED ALL Israel. ¹Israel went out to fight the Philistines and camped at Eben-ezer while the Philistines camped at Aphek. ²The Philistines drew up in battle line against Israel, and when the fight became general, Israel was beaten as they faced the Philistines, who killed in the open field about four thousand men.

³As the troops went back to camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD allowed us to be defeated by the Philistines today? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh, so that He will come among us and will deliver us from the power of our enemies."^r ⁴So the people sent word to Shiloh, and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, throned above the cherubim,^s and accompanying the ark of God's covenant were both sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas. ⁵As soon as the ark of the LORD's covenant reached the camp, all Israel raised so mighty a shout that the earth resounded.

⁶When the Philistines heard the

n) Much of God's previous revelation, as we have it, had been conveyed to young Samuel, but none as direct as was then about to be given.

o) Eli had spoken to his sons about their wickedness but had not disciplined them. We Christian parents must deal lovingly and firmly with our children when their behavior is contrary to Christ's will and teaching.

p) Some hand motion seems to have been made, intimating harm to neck or head.

q) This sentence belongs to the previous chapter. Of course, the sacred writers were not responsible for divisions into chapters and verses.

r) They tried to force God into their service, a popular practice of modern cults, whose gods are the forces of the universe.

s) Cherubim is the Hebrew plural of cherub, of whom two were imaged above the mercy seat, facing one another.

shouting, they said, "What is the meaning of such loud shouting in the Hebrew camp?" And when they learned that the ark of the LORD had arrived there, ⁷the Philistines were afraid. They said, "The gods have come into the camp. Alas for us! Such a thing has never happened before. ⁸Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who smote Egypt with every plague and devastation. ⁹Philistines, take courage and be men, so you will not be slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Act the men you are and fight." ¹⁰Then the Philistines did fight, and Israel was defeated; ¹¹they fled each for himself to his tent. The carnage was terrible; of Israel's infantry thirty thousand fell; ¹²the ark of the LORD was captured, too; and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

¹²A Benjamite broke ranks and ran to Shiloh that same day, his clothes torn and earth upon his head. ¹³When he arrived, Eli was sitting^u by the road in expectation, for he was deeply moved about the ark of God. As the man entered town and told the news, there was an outcry all over town. ¹⁴Eli heard the din of the lamentation and asked, "What sort of tumult is this?" The man hurried to Eli and told him. ¹⁵Eli was ninety-eight years old; his eyes stood fixed so that he could not see. ¹⁶The man told Eli, "I come from the battle; today I fled from the army." He asked, "What happened, my son?" ¹⁷The messenger answered, "Israel was routed when fronting the Philistines; the people have suffered a disastrous defeat; both your sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are slain, and the ark of God is captured."^v gate, broke his neck and died; for he was an aged man and heavy. For forty years he had judged Israel.

¹⁸When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell back from his seat by the

¹⁹When his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, who was pregnant and about to become a mother, heard the report that the ark of God had been captured, that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she collapsed and gave birth, for the birth-pains came upon her. ²⁰While she lay dying, the woman who attended her said, "Have no fear; for you gave birth to a son." But she did not reply and paid no attention ²¹but named the child Ichabod,^w saying, "Gone is the glory from Israel." Because the ark of God was taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband, ²²she said, "Gone is the glory from Israel, because the ark of God is taken."

5 THE PHILISTINES HAD CAPTURED the ark of God and had moved it from Eben-ezer to Ashdod, ²where the Philistines brought the ark of God into the temple of Dagon and placed it near Dagon. ³Early next morning when the Ashdodites got up, look! Dagon had fallen face down to the floor in front of the ark of the LORD; so they took hold of Dagon and set him back in his place. ⁴But when they got up the following morning, not only was Dagon lying face down on the floor before the ark of the LORD, but Dagon's head and both his hands lay severed on the threshold; only Dagon's trunk was left him.^x ⁵For this reason to this day the priests of Dagon and all who enter the Dagon temple keep from stepping on Dagon's threshold at Ashdod.

⁶The LORD's hand lay heavy on the Ashdodites. He punished them with hemorrhoids,^y both at Ashdod and in its suburbs, ⁷so that when the men of

t) No commander is mentioned. Eli was too old, his sons too unreliable. Had an outstanding leader come to the fore, his name would have been given.

u) Eli is never mentioned except as occupying a seat or lying down. No activities of his are recorded, only that he was priest, judge, and father.

v) God will not be coerced. As God He is LORD of all and only voluntarily does He serve all.
w) Departed glory. x) The form of the Dagon image was a human head with shoulders, arms and the whole upper part as of man, but the lower portions from the hips down may have been the form of a fish, a merman, in honor of the sea.

y) "Swellings" is the Hebrew word, which may mean boils, tumors, or piles. Consulted surgeons consider hemorrhoids or piles most likely.

Ashdod realized the situation, they said, "The ark of Israel's God must not remain among us, because His hand is severe against us and against our god Dagon." ⁸So they called all the Philistine princes and said, "What are we to do with the ark of the God of Israel?" The answer was, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be moved around to Gath." So they conveyed the ark of Israel's God around there; ⁹but after they had taken it there the LORD's hand was against the city, with resultant panic. He touched the citizens, young and old, so that hemorrhoids broke out among them. ¹⁰They sent the ark of God to Ekron, but as soon as the ark of God reached there the Ekronites cried out, "They have brought us the ark of the God of Israel to kill us and our people!" ¹¹They, therefore, called all the Philistine princes together and said, "Send the ark of Israel's God away; let it go back to its place and not kill us and our people," for a fatal fear had gripped the whole city; God's hand lay heavy there. ¹²Those who did not die were plagued with hemorrhoids, so that the city's lamentation went up to heaven.²

6 AFTER THE ARK OF THE LORD HAD remained in the Philistines' territory for seven months, ²the Philistines summoned the priests and the diviners and asked, "What should we do with the LORD's ark? Inform us in what way we should send it back where it belongs." ³They answered, "When you return the ark of Israel's God, do not send it empty; but forward an atoning offering. You will then be healed and will find out why His hand does not turn from you."

⁴They asked, "What satisfaction should we offer Him?" To this they replied, "According to the number of Philistine town princes, five gold hemorrhoids and five gold mice, because the same plague struck everyone, including your town princes. ⁶Make, therefore, images of your swellings and images of the mice^a that are ruining the land, and give glory to the God of Israel; possibly He will remove the pressure of His heavy hand from you, from your gods, and from your land. ⁶Why harden your hearts as the Egyptians^b and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? Did they not let them go when He had made them feel His power, and they went out? ⁷Now then, take hold and construct a new cart, and get two fresh cows that have never been yoked; hitch those cows to the cart but keep their calves home from them.^c ⁸Then take the ark of the LORD, place it on the cart, put the gold articles for atonement in a box next to the ark; then send it on its way. ⁹Watch carefully! If it goes up the road to its own territory, toward Bethshemesh,^d then it is He who brought this serious catastrophe upon us; but if not, then it was not His hand that struck us; it happened by chance."

¹⁰The men did so. They took two fresh cows, hitched them to a cart, and kept their calves at home. ¹¹They placed the ark of the LORD on the cart; also the box containing the gold mice and the images of their swellings. ¹²The cows went straight up the highway to Bethshemesh, lowing as they went, but going right on and turning neither right nor left, with the Philistine princes following them as far as the Bethshemesh boundary line.

¹³The Bethshemesh people were busy harvesting their wheat in the valley and, as they looked up, they saw the ark. How glad they were to see it! ¹⁴The cart came as far as the field of Joshua, the Bethshemite, and there it stopped. An immense stone was lying there; so they split the wood

2) When in the cry there is some thought of the LORD of heaven and earth, there is assurance of divine response.

a) Mice have thus far not been mentioned, but shortly we learn they were plaguing the people. b) The plagues of Egypt were four centuries in the past, but those acts of God were still remembered among neighboring nations.

c) It would be difficult to drive the best-trained cows straight on a road when their calves have just been taken from them. So, when these animals, though lowing for their calves, moved steadily eastward, the princes felt convinced of divine supervision.

d) Bethshemesh means sun-house. Before the Hebrews took possession, the Canaanites had maintained a temple for the sun in that place.

of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. ¹⁶The Levites had unloaded the ark of the LORD and the box next to it that contained the golden jewels and had deposited them upon the great stone. That day the men of Bethshemesh offered to the LORD burnt offerings and other sacrifices.

¹⁶When the five princes of the Philistines had taken notice, they returned to Ekron that same day. ¹⁷And these are the five golden swellings which the Philistine princes presented to the LORD for atoning — one each for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron; ¹⁸also the golden mice, according to the number of all Philistine towns that belonged to the five town princes, both walled cities and open villages. The great stone in the field of Joshua, the Bethshemite, on which they rested the ark of the LORD, bears witness till our day.

¹⁹But of the Bethshemite men He slew some because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He slew seventy of the people, fifty to the thousand, and the people mourned because the LORD had slain so many of them. ²⁰The men of Bethshemesh said, "Who can exist in the presence of the LORD, this holy God? To whom shall He go from here?" ²¹So they sent messengers to the Kiriath-jearim residents to say, "The Philistines have brought the ark of the LORD back. Come down and move it up to you!"

1070 B.C.

7 THE MEN OF KIRIATH-JEARIM came, carried with them the ark of the LORD, and brought it to Abinadab's home on the hill; his son Eleazar^e they set apart to care for the ark of the LORD. ²During the twenty-year period while the ark remained in Kiriath-jearim, the whole house of Israel was seriously seeking the LORD.^f ³Then Samuel told the whole house of Israel, "If you wholeheartedly turn to the LORD, then remove the strange gods from you, including the Ashtaroth, and center your worship on the LORD; serve Him alone. Then He will deliver you from the Philistines' power."

⁴The children of Israel then got rid of the Baals and Astarte and served the LORD exclusively. ⁵So Samuel announced, "Assemble all Israel at Mizpah,^g and I will pray the LORD on your behalf." ⁶Gathered at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before the LORD;^h they also observed a day of fasting. Then and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." And at Mizpah Samuel judged the people.

⁷When the Philistines learned that Israel was gathered at Mizpah, the Philistine princes marched against Israel; and the Israelites, hearing of it, were in fear of the Philistines. ⁸They said to Samuel, "Do not cease calling on the LORD our God for us, so He may deliver us from the Philistines' dominance." ⁹Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it whole as a burnt offering to the LORD; and when Samuel called on the LORD for Israel, the LORD answered him.

¹⁰While Samuel was occupied with offering the burnt offering and the Philistines were closing in to attack Israel, just then the LORD thundered mightily against the Philistines and confused them, so that they suffered defeat before Israel. ¹¹The troops of Israel marched out of Mizpah, pursued the Philistines, and beat them down, as far as below Bathcar. ¹²Samuel then took a stone, which he set up between Mizpah and Shen, and named it Eben-ezer;ⁱ he said, "Thus far the LORD has helped us."

¹³The Philistines were thus humbled, and they no longer crossed Israel's boundaries; throughout the period of Samuel the LORD's hand was against the Philistines. ¹⁴The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were returned to Israel from Ekron to Gath, and their bordering terri-

e) Apparently not a descendant of Aaron. f) The ark remained much more than twenty years; but Samuel seems to have begun his judgeship of Israel that twentieth year, probably at the age of thirty, like Jesus and John the Baptist.

g) Not the Mizpah in Gilead where Jacob and Laban met, but in Benjamin, not far from Ramah, Samuel's home town. h) In line with their fasting, they did not drink it. i) Stone of help.

stories Israel rescued from Philistine control.¹ There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁶Samuel served as Israel's circuit judge all his life. ¹⁶He made the rounds annually to include Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, holding court at these centers for Israel; ¹⁷then he returned to his Ramah home, where he served as Israel's judge and where he built an altar to the LORD.⁶

8 WHEN SAMUEL WAS AGING, HE APPOINTED his sons as judges over Israel, ²the older named Joel and the second Abiah; they judged at Beer-sheba. ³But his sons' conduct was not like his; they turned aside for money; they accepted presents; they twisted justice.¹ ⁴All the elders of Israel, therefore, got together and called on Samuel at Ramah. ⁵They told him, "Look here, you are aging and your sons do not behave as you did. Appoint a king over us to be our judge like all the nations."

⁶Their saying, "Give us a king to judge us," was disgusting to Samuel, and he prayed to the LORD. ⁷The LORD said to Samuel: Whatever they tell you, listen to the people; for they have not rejected you, but Me they have rejected to be King over them.^m ⁸From the day when I brought them out of Egypt till now they have acted this way, forsaking Me and serving other gods; they are now behaving similarly against you. ⁹Now then, you listen to them; but solemnly warn them and point out to them the ways of the king who shall reign over them.

¹⁰Samuel told the whole message of the LORD to the people who had asked him for a king. ¹¹He said, "This will be the procedure of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons and employ them for his chariots and as his horsemen; they shall run in front of his chariots. ¹²He will appoint some for himself in command of thousands and of hundreds; others to cultivate his acres and to harvest his crops; also to construct his weapons and his chariot equipment. ¹³Your daughters he will require for perfumers, for cooks, and for bakers. ¹⁴Besides he will take your choicest fields, your vineyards, and your olive yards and give them to his attendants. ¹⁵He will, besides, take a tenth of your grain crop and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his servants. ¹⁶Your male and female servants he will take from you and your choicest young men; also your donkeys and employ them for his business. ¹⁷He will appropriate a tenth of your flocks, too, and you yourselves will become his servants. ¹⁸By that time you will cry out about the king you chose; but that day the LORD will not answer you."

¹⁹The people, however, declined to listen to Samuel. They said, "No, there must be a king over us, ²⁰so we may be like all the other nations; our king will give us justice; he will lead us on and conduct our wars." ²¹Samuel heard all the people's words and rehearsed them in the LORD's presence. ²²The LORD told Samuel: Listen to their voice; place a king over them. So Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Every man go to his own city!"

9 THERE WAS A MAN OF BENJAMIN whose name was Kish son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a man of influence. ²He had a son named Saul, young and well built, none more handsome among the Israelites, his head and shoulders higher than all the people.ⁿ

³Now some donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, had strayed. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take along one of the servants and go in search of the don-

j) Philistia was only about fifty miles long and fifteen miles wide. There was no reason why the Hebrews should ever be subject to it, except for degrading practices on the part of Israel in Baal worship, and personal bravery on the part of the Philistines.

k) Obviously, northern Israel received but occasional service from Samuel, if at all. Until David's reign north and south had little sense of unity.

l) It was not wholesome for Samuel's sons that the father was often absent from home; so busy helping others to go straight, his own offspring was neglected.

m) The people had reason to ask for a new judge as upright as was Samuel; but instead they asked for a king "like all the nations," as if God were not their King.

n) Exactly what the people were looking for — physical strength and attractive appearance.

keys." ⁴Then they passed through the Ephraim highlands and the Shalisha district but did not find them; the Shaalim country too but they were not there; the Benjamites' territory and found nothing. ⁵On reaching the Zuph district, ⁶Saul said to his servant companion, "Come on, let us go back, lest my father quit thinking of the donkeys and worry about us."

⁶He replied, "See here! There is a man of God in this town, a highly respected man; everything he says always comes true. Let us go there at once; perhaps he can inform us in the errand we are on." ⁷Saul said to his servant, "But if we go, what can we give the man? The bread in our bag is used up, and we have no present to offer the man of God. What have we?" ⁸Once more the servant furnished Saul with an answer. He said, "Look! I have a silver quarter with me; ⁹you give it to the man of God, so he may rightly direct us on our errand." ⁹In Israel, when people went to inquire from God, they used to say, "Come, let us go to the seer"; for the prophet of today used to be called a seer. ¹⁰So Saul said to his servant, "A good idea; come on, let us go," and they entered the town where the man of God lived.

¹¹As they were climbing the steep road into town, they met girls going out to draw water and asked them, "Is the seer here?" ¹²They replied to them, "Yes, there he is ahead of you, just come into town, for today the people are having a sacrificial meal on the high place. ¹³You will find ^a him as soon as you get into town, before he goes up for the meal, for the people will not eat until he is there because he pronounces the blessing on the sacrifice, after which those invited will eat." Now then, go up, for you will meet him in a moment." ¹⁴So they went up to town and as they came to the gate house, ^a Samuel was coming out toward them to go up the hill.

¹⁵Now on the day before Saul arrived, the LORD had revealed to Samuel: ¹⁶Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him to be prince over My people Israel. He will deliver My people from the power of the Philistines; for I have paid attention to My people as their cry has come through to Me. ¹⁷So when Samuel looked at Saul, the LORD assured him: This is the man I mentioned to you, the one who is to rule over My people.

¹⁸Saul stepped up to Samuel in the center of the gate house and said, "Tell me, please, where the seer's house is!" ¹⁹Samuel answered Saul, "I am the seer. Go ahead of me up the hill; you will be my dinner guest today, and early in the morning I will let you go. I will clear up for you everything you are concerned about;" ²⁰as for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not worry about them; they are found. But to whom belongs everything desirable in Israel? Is it not to you and to your father's house?"

²¹Saul, however, responded, "Am I not a Benjamite, of one of the smallest tribes in Israel?" And is not my family of least importance among Benjamin's families? Why do you speak this way to me?" ²²But Samuel took along Saul and his servant, brought them into the dining hall and seated them in the chief place among the guests, about thirty men. ²³Samuel told the cook, "Serve the portion I gave you, which I told you to reserve." ²⁴So the cook brought out the shank and what pertains to it and placed it before Saul. Samuel said, "See, you are being served what was set aside for you! Eat; even before I invited the people, it was reserved for

o) Just south of the Benjamite boundaries, with Ramah as its main town.

p) Obviously not a slave; the silver on him must have been earned and saved.

q) That is, meet him personally; they seem to have caught sight of him.

r) Those supplying the animals for sacrifice reserved the right to invite participants at the semi-public meal.

s) There was more to the entrance to the city than the gate. The elders could meet there, so there would be seats provided, thus gaining some features of a house.

t) The Spirit could inform him then and there; often a dream pictured the facts to God's messenger. u) The tribe of Benjamin had deservedly been punished, so as to leave but 600 men alive, during the latter half of the period of the Judges [Judg. 20,21].

you until the appointed time." Thus did Saul eat that day with Samuel. ²⁶Then they came down from the high place, and he conversed with Saul on the roof.^v ²⁶They arose at early dawn. Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Up, and I will start you on your way." So Saul got up and together they went out, he and Samuel. ²⁷As they reached the city limits, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us," and he went on, "but you stand still here, and I will acquaint you with God's message."

10 THEN SAMUEL TOOK A FLASK of oil, poured it upon his head and kissed him. He said, "Has not the LORD anointed you to be prince over His possessions? ²When today you have left me, you will meet two men near Rachel's tomb on the Benjamin boundary at Zelzah. They will tell you, 'The donkeys you searched for are found; your father has ceased thinking about the matter of donkeys; his concern is about you. He says, "What shall I do about my son?"' ³As you go on and get near the Tabor Oak, three men will meet you on their way to God at Bethel, one carrying three kids, another three loaves of bread, and a third a bottle of wine. ⁴They will greet you as friends and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from them. ⁵After that you will come to the hill of God, where the Philistine garrison is stationed. On entering the town you will meet a group of prophets coming down the hill, before them lyre, tambourine, flute, and harp, and prophesying with ecstasy. ⁶Then the Spirit of the LORD will grip you, and you will share their ecstatic prophesying; you will become a different person. ⁷As you experience these signs, do as the occasion requires, for God is with you. ⁸Go in advance of me to Gilgal and, take note, I will come down to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings! Wait for me seven days until I join you and let you know what you are to do."

⁹This then happened: As he turned around to leave Samuel, God changed his heart.^w All the signs mentioned came true that day. ¹⁰As they reached the hill, see, a group of prophets met him; the Spirit of God took hold of him, and he prophesied along with them.^x ¹¹All his old acquaintances, who saw him prophesying along with the prophets, remarked to one another, "What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul, too, among the prophets?" ¹²A man from the neighborhood responded, "But who is their father?"^y So it became a saying, "Saul among the prophets."

¹³When he had finished prophesying, he went to Gibeah. ¹⁴Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where did you go?" He replied, "In search of the donkeys, and when we realized they were lost, we went to Samuel." ¹⁵Saul's uncle then said, "Do tell me what Samuel said to you." ¹⁶Saul told his uncle, "He informed us at once that the donkeys had been found"; but that Samuel had mentioned the kingdom, he did not tell him.

1050 B.C.

¹⁷Samuel called together all Israel to the LORD at Mizpah, and ¹⁸he told the Israelites, "Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel: I have led Israel up from Egypt; I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and from the control of all the kingdoms that oppressed you, ¹⁹and yet today you reject your God who personally saved you from all your calamities and your miseries; and you say, 'No, but appoint a king over us.' Now then, take your stand before the LORD by your tribes and clans."

²⁰Samuel then had all the tribes of Israel come forward,^z and the tribe of

v) The Septuagint adds here, "They spread for Saul the couch on the roof and he fell asleep," a custom so obvious it needed no recounting in the original; but likely a mat was used, not a couch or bed.

w) Our word "mind" we owe to the Greeks; the Hebrew word for "heart" comes nearest to it as the thinking power.

x) To "pro-phesy" is to "speak" or "sing for." These young men, led by music, sang to God's praise, and Saul joined in their singing.

y) This was so unusual a behavior for worldly Saul that "Saul among the prophets" equalled a worldling getting religion.

z) To take one lot each out of twelve; then one lot for a Benjamin family.

Benjamin was taken. ²¹He then had the tribe of Benjamin draw near by its families, and the Matri family was taken. Finally Saul the son of Kish was taken; but when they looked for him, he could not be found. ²²So they inquired further of the LORD, "Has the man come here?" The LORD answered: He is hiding himself among the baggage. ²³So they ran and brought him out from there, and as he stood among the people, it showed that he was head and shoulders taller than any of the people. ²⁴Samuel said to the whole nation, "Do you see whom the LORD has chosen? There is none his equal among all the people." Then all the people gave a mighty shout, "Long live the king!"

²⁵Samuel also described to the people the ways of the kingdom and wrote it in a book, which he deposited before the LORD.^a Then Samuel dismissed the people, each to his own home. ²⁶Saul, too, went home to Gibeah, and the brave men whose hearts God had touched went with him. ²⁷But some sons of Belial said, "How is this man going to save us?" They despised him and brought him no presents. But he kept still.

1050 B.C.

11 NAHASH THE AMMONITE^b CAME up and laid siege to Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh-gilead told Nahash, "Make a treaty with us, and we will submit to you." ²But Nahash the Ammonite replied to them, "I will make a treaty with you on this condition, that I gouge out the right eye of each of you, thereby bringing disgrace on all Israel." ³The Jabesh elders replied, "Allow us seven days, and we will send messengers throughout all Israel's territory; then, if none comes to our aid, we shall come out to you."

⁴When the messengers reached Gibeah,^c Saul's town, and reported their tidings, so that all the people could hear, the people all wept audibly. ⁵Saul, coming out of the field behind the oxen, said, "What is amiss with the people, that they are weeping?" They told him what the Jabesh men had said, and ⁶when Saul heard the tidings, the Spirit of God took hold of him. His anger was deeply roused. ⁷He took a yoke of oxen, cut them up into pieces, and sent them by messengers over the whole stretch of Israel with the warning, "Whoever does not march behind Saul and behind Samuel, this will happen to his oxen."

A terror from the LORD fell upon all the people; they rallied as one man. ⁸At Bezek he mustered them; there were 300,000 Israelites and 30,000 of Judah.^d ⁹They instructed the messengers who had come, "Assure the men of Jabesh-gilead, 'Tomorrow when the sun grows hot there will be deliverance for you.'"^e The messengers went and informed the Jabesh men, who felt cheered. ¹⁰The men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Tomorrow we surrender to you, and you can do what you like with us."^e

¹¹Next morning Saul arranged the troops into three divisions. At break of day they burst into the camp and struck down the Ammonites until the day was hot; the survivors they scattered till no two remained together. ¹²Then the people said to Samuel, "Who said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring those men, so we may execute them." ¹³But Saul remarked, "On this day none shall be punished; for the LORD has worked salvation in Israel."

¹⁴Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and there confirm the kingship." ¹⁵So all the people went to Gilgal, and there at Gilgal they declared Saul king in the presence of the LORD. They sacrificed peace offerings

a) Within or near the Holy of Holies where the ark of the covenant had stood.

b) Ammon was Lot's younger son. The Ammonites had settled east of Jordan between the Arnon and Jabkok rivers before Israel, still led by Moses, dispossessed them.

c) The Hebrew word for hill or height is gibeah. In the foregoing story of Saul, it is difficult to distinguish between gibeah as any hill and Gibeah, Saul's native town.

d) Too clear a distinction was constantly drawn between Israel south of Jerusalem and the northern tribes. Their greatest unity came when, under Davidic leadership, all the tribes worshiped in Jerusalem. e) War and deceit have always been twin brothers.

there before the LORD, and there Saul and the men of Israel enjoyed themselves immensely.

12 SAMUEL SAID TO ALL ISRAEL, "Take note! I have listened to your voice in everything you mentioned to me, and I have placed a king over you. ²Now then, note the king walking before you, while I am old and gray, and see, my sons are with you.¹ From childhood I have led a public life till this very day. ³Here I am; witness against me in the presence of the LORD and of His anointed. Whose cattle have I taken? Whose donkey have I seized? Whom have I abused? Whom have I wronged? From whom have I accepted a present to blind my eyes? I will restore it to you."

⁴They said, "You have not mistreated us; you have not wronged us, and you have received no present from anyone." ⁵He said, "The LORD is witness among you today, and His anointed is witness that you have found nothing in my possession."⁶ They confirmed, "He is witness."

⁶Samuel then said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and who led your fathers out of the land of Egypt. ⁷Now then, stand at attention, so that as judge I may set before you in the LORD's presence all the righteous acts which the LORD has done for you and your fathers. ⁸When Jacob had gone to Egypt and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and located them in this place. ⁹But they forgot the LORD their God, and He sold them into the hand of Sisera, the Hazor commander, and into the hand of the Philistines and of the Moabite king, who fought against them. ¹⁰Then they cried to the LORD. They said, 'We have sinned, for we have deserted the LORD and have served the Baals and the Astartes. But save us now from the power of our enemies and we will serve Thee!" ¹¹Then the LORD sent Jerubbaal,^b Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you from the power of the enemies all around, so that you lived in safety. ¹²However, when you saw that Nahash, the Ammonite king, came up against you, you told me, 'No, a king must reign over us,' although the LORD your God was your King. ¹³Now then, look at the king you have chosen, whom you wanted. See, the LORD has set a king over you. ¹⁴If you serve the LORD, heed His voice, and rebel not against the LORD, then you as well as the king who shall rule over you shall follow the LORD, your God; ¹⁵but in case you do not listen to the LORD's voice but rebel against the LORD, then the LORD's hand will be against you as it was against your fathers.

¹⁶"Now then, stand at attention, and see this great wonder, which the LORD will do before your eyes! ¹⁷Is not this the wheat harvest season? I shall call upon the LORD, and He will produce thunder and rain.¹ Understand, therefore, and see how great an evil you have committed in the LORD's sight by asking for a king."

¹⁸So Samuel called on the LORD, and the LORD produced thunder and rain that day; and all the people were in awe of the LORD and of Samuel. ¹⁹They all said to Samuel, "Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so we may not die, because in addition to all our sins, we have wickedly asked for a king." ²⁰Samuel assured all the people, "Be not in terror! You have indeed committed all this evil, but do not turn away from the LORD any longer. Worship the LORD with your whole heart; ²¹go not astray after useless idols who can neither benefit nor save you but are mere nothings. ²²For the LORD will not push away His people in consideration of His great name because the LORD is minded to make you His own peculiar people. ²³As for me, far be it from me that I should sin

f) The father still esteemed his sons more highly than did the people.

g) Of course, nothing that he had not honestly earned. h) Gideon, whom his father renamed Jerub-baal — against Baal.

i) As in many far western states, no rain or thunder is expected in harvest time. As in all physical miracles, God directed natural forces for a particular purpose.

against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but I will instruct you in the good and upright way. ²⁴Be sure to revere the LORD and to serve Him faithfully with your whole heart; for consider what marvels He has wrought among you. ²⁵But if you persist in doing evil, then both you and your king will be set aside."

13 BY THIS TIME SAUL HAD reigned for one year.¹ When Saul had been king over Israel two years, ²he selected three thousand men of Israel, of which two thousand were with Saul at Michmash and at the Bethel heights, while one thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. But the rest of the people he dismissed, each to his home.

³Now Jonathan overpowered the Philistine garrison at Geba.^k And the Philistine people got the report of it. Then Saul had the trumpet blown throughout the entire country; for he said, "The Hebrews must learn what has happened." ⁴And all Israel heard the tidings, "Saul has beaten the Philistine garrison, and Israel has become odious to the Philistines." The people were then summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

⁵The Philistines, too, were drafted to fight Israel, thirty thousand chariots, six thousand cavalry, and infantry as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They moved up and camped at Michmash, east of Bethaven. ⁶When the men of Israel saw that they were being hedged in (for the troops were threatened),¹ the people hid themselves in caves, in thickets, among rocks, in caverns, and in pits, ⁷while some Hebrews crossed the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul, however, was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him, trembling.

⁸For seven days, the time set by Samuel, he waited; but when Samuel did not come to Gilgal and the troops were deserting him, ⁹Saul said, "Bring me the burnt sacrifice and the peace offerings." Then he offered the burnt offering, and ¹⁰scarcely was he through sacrificing the burnt offering when Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet and greet him, ¹¹but Samuel asked, "What have you done?" Saul replied, "When I saw that the people were deserting me and you did not come at the agreed time, while the Philistines were camping at Michmash, ¹²I thought, Now the Philistines will swoop down on me at Gilgal, and I have not prayed for the LORD's favor; so I forced myself to offer a burnt sacrifice."

¹³Samuel told Saul, "You have acted foolishly; you have not observed the instruction of the LORD your God, which He charged you; else the LORD would have established your kingship over Israel for ever. ¹⁴Now, however, your kingship will not last. The LORD has sought out for Himself a man in harmony with Him, whom the LORD has appointed to be His people's prince because you have not obeyed what the LORD commanded you." ¹⁵Samuel then arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin; but Saul mustered the troops still with him, about six hundred.

¹⁶Saul, his son Jonathan, and the troops with them camped at Geba in Benjamin, and the Philistines camped at Michmash. ¹⁷From the Philistine camp raiders went out in three details; one detail took the road to Ophrah in the Shual district;^m ¹⁸another detail turned the way to Beth-horon;ⁿ and the third took the hill road that overlooks the Zeboim valley toward the desert.^o

j) The Heb. has here: "Saul was . . . years old when he began to reign, and he reigned . . . and two years over Israel!"

k) Not to be confused with Gibeah, although located in Benjamin very close to the borders of Judah. It is distinguished as a priest town [Josh. 18:24]. A village by the name still exists six miles n.e. of Jerusalem, two miles s.w. of Michmash.

l) In numbers the Philistines could not match the Hebrews, but they were less peacefully inclined, were greatly superior in equipment, and were united.

m) Northward from Michmash. n) Still more north and westward, close to the Benjamin-Ephraim boundaries, where a mountain pass gave occasion for numerous battles.

o) East of Michmash where hills overlook the Jordan valley.

¹⁹No blacksmith was to be found in all the land of Israel; for the Philistines had said, "Else the Hebrews might fashion swords or spears for themselves."^p ²⁰So all the Israelites had to go down to the Philistines each one to sharpen his plow point, his coulter, his ax, or his sickle. ²¹The charge for plow point or coulter was a quarter; for ax or sickle or sharpening goads, about a dime. ²²On the day of battle, therefore, there was neither sword nor spear among all the troops captained by Saul and Jonathan; only Saul and Jonathan were armed. ²³And a Philistine army post had occupied the Michmash mountain pass.

14 ONE DAY JONATHAN SAUL'S SON said to his young armorbearer, "Come on, let us cross over to the Philistine garrison on yonder side." But he did not tell his father. ²Saul was sitting under the pomegranate tree by the threshing floor on the outskirts of Gibeah and about six hundred men were with him, ³also Ahijah son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, priest of the LORD at Shiloh, who wore the ephod. The people, too, were unaware of Jonathan's leaving.

⁴Now between the passes by which Jonathan tried to cross over to the Philistine post, there was on either side a sharp crag, the one called Bozez and the other Seneh.^q ⁵The one stood out northward in front of Michmash, the other southward in front of Geba. ⁶Jonathan said to his young armorbearer, "Come on, let us cross over to the army post of these uncircumcised; perhaps the LORD will work through us; for the LORD is never held back to work either through many or through few."^r ⁷His armor-bearer told him, "Do whatever you have in mind; go ahead; I am with you heart and soul."

⁸Then Jonathan said, "Look! We will cross over to those men and show ourselves to them. ⁹If they say to us, 'Stay there until we reach you,' then we will stay where we are and not climb up to them. ¹⁰But if they say, 'Come up to us,' then we will climb up; for then the LORD has put them in our power. This shall be our sign."^s ¹¹When they both showed themselves to the Philistine post, the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews have come out of the holes in which they have been hiding." ¹²And to Jonathan and his armor-bearer, the men of the post called out, "You climb up to us and we will teach you something." Then Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "You climb behind me; for the LORD has handed them over to Israel." ¹³Jonathan then climbed up hand and foot with his armor-bearer behind him. The Philistines were felled by Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed them after him.^t ¹⁴This first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor-bearer wrought, numbered about twenty men, covering about a yoke of oxen's half acre.^u ¹⁵Then panic struck the army post in the field and among the men; the garrison and the raiders grew panicky; the earth also quaked so that it became a terror from God.

¹⁶When Saul's outposts at Gibeah of Benjamin noticed it — the many moving back and forth — ¹⁷Saul told the people with him, "Inspect and find out who of ours has gone." They made inspection and discovered that Jonathan and his armor-bearer were missing. ¹⁸Then Saul told Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here";^v for the ark of God

p) Disarming their neighbors, the Philistines could readily control them and, through their garrisons, they could continually demand and secure tribute. Occupied and satellite countries in Europe had and have similar humiliations.

q) Between these two rocks, General Allenby sent a few valiant men who thus surprised and defeated the Turkish garrison in World War I. r) This last clause should be every Christian's motto; it is such a union of faith and practice.

s) Jonathan showed uncommonly good judgment; the Philistines showed lack of watchfulness, so the two could surprise the post.

t) In this battle all Hebrew fighters had to arm themselves with the weapons of fallen Philistines and so they did, beginning with Jonathan's armor-bearer.

u) As much land as might be plowed with a yoke of oxen in a day.

v) Saul was particularly anxious for divine counsel which might be furnished with aid of the priest's ephod.

was at that time among the Israelites. ¹⁹However, while Saul was talking to the priest, the commotion in the Philistine camp grew worse and worse. So Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

²⁰Then Saul and all the men with him rallied for battle and on reaching the battle line, look, the enemy were putting each other to the sword! The confusion was terrible. ²¹Besides, the Hebrews, who had been drafted by the Philistines and had come up with their troops, now joined the Israelites around Saul and Jonathan. ²²Also, as soon as the men of Israel who had been hiding in the Ephraim highlands learned that the Philistines were being put to flight, they, too, pursued them hotly in battle.^w ²³Thus did the LORD deliver Israel that day, and the battle lengthened out to beyond Beth-aven.

²⁴In the crisis of Israel's troops that day, Saul had put the people on oath, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats food until evening before I am avenged on my enemies." Therefore none of the people tasted food. ²⁵When the troops entered a forest with honey on the ground, ²⁶although the combs were dripping, nobody put his hand to his mouth because they feared the oath. ²⁷But Jonathan had not heard his father putting the troops under oath, so he stuck out the stick he had in his hand and dipped the end in the honey. Then when he put his hand to his mouth, his eyes brightened. ²⁸But one of the men remarked, "Your father definitely put the troops under oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who takes food today.'" However the people felt exhausted.

²⁹Jonathan responded, "My father has disturbed the country. Just see how refreshed I am because of this little bit of honey. ³⁰How much greater would the slaughter of the Philistines have been if the troops had freely eaten today of the enemies' supplies!" ³¹But although the troops were lacking energy, they beat the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon.^x ³²Then the men threw themselves on the loot. They seized sheep, cattle, and calves, butchered them on the ground and ate them, blood and all.^y

³³Then Saul was told, "Take note! The people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood." He said, "You are sinning. Turn at once a great stone my way."^z ³⁴Saul added, "Disperse among the troops and tell them, 'Everyone must bring me his cattle or sheep and butcher and eat it here; but do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.'" So that night every man of the troops brought the animal he had on hand and slaughtered it there. ³⁵And Saul built an altar to the LORD — the first altar he built to the LORD.

³⁶Then Saul proposed, "Let us keep on pursuing the Philistines tonight, plunder them until dawn, and not leave a man of them alive." They responded, "Do as you think best." But the priest said, "Let us at this point draw near to God." ³⁷Saul, therefore, inquired of God, "Shall I pursue the Philistines? Wilt Thou deliver them in Israel's hand?" But God did not answer him that day.^a ³⁸Then Saul said, "Come near, all you chiefs of the people; investigate and discover whose is the guilt on this occasion. ³⁹For, as the LORD lives who delivered Israel, even if the guilt rests with my son Jonathan, he must die." But not one of all the people answered him.

⁴⁰Saul then told all Israel, "You stand on one side and I and my son Jonathan on the other side," to which the people replied, "Do as you think best." ⁴¹Saul prayed unto the LORD, "O LORD God of Israel, give a perfect

w) Like star dust swirling around a nucleus, thus forming a new star or a constellation, so people will gather around one person with initiative and a promising plan.

x) Remembered [Josh. 10:12], as quoted from Hebrew poetry. It was located about 13 mi. n.w. of Jerusalem. y) God's command to Noah, with His reason for it [Gen. 9:4-6], applied to the Hebrews and was reiterated by the Church [Acts 15:20,29].

z) May mean that Saul, representing the troops, accepted the sin as his own; or that the butchering would be on the stone. a) Impulsive Saul had rashly laid an oath of fasting on the people. Ignorantly Jonathan failed to live up to it. The oath made this a matter immediately related to God; hence divine silence when His counsel is desired.

lot!" Then Saul and Jonathan were indicted, and the people were freed. ⁴²Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan," and Jonathan was taken. ⁴³Saul then said to Jonathan, "Tell me, what have you done?" And Jonathan told him, "I tasted a drop of honey from the tip of the staff I had in my hand. Here I am, ready to die."

⁴⁴Saul announced, "God do so to me and more, Jonathan, but you certainly must die." ⁴⁵The troops, however, said to Saul, "Jonathan die, who won this great victory for Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not a hair of his head shall fall to the earth, for with God's help he has achieved this today." Thus the people delivered Jonathan so that he did not die. ⁴⁶Saul then returned from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went where they belonged.

⁴⁷When Saul had gained the kingship over Israel, he fought enemies in every direction: Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines; and wherever he turned he conquered. ⁴⁸He worked mighty deeds; he defeated the Amalekites, and he saved Israel from the control of their plunderers.

⁴⁹The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishui, and Malchishua,^b and of his two daughters the older was named Merab and the younger Michal. ⁵⁰The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, daughter of Ahimaaz. His general's name was Abner son of Ner, Saul's uncle. ⁵¹Kish, the father of Saul, and Ner, the father of Abner, were the sons of Abiel. ⁵²Throughout Saul's life there was heavy fighting against the Philistines; so whenever Saul noticed any brave and athletic man, he personally drafted him.^c

15 SAMUEL SAID TO SAUL, "THE LORD sent me to anoint you king over His people Israel; listen therefore to the LORD's message. ²The LORD of hosts says: I have in mind what Amalek did to Israel; how he waylaid him when he came up from Egypt. ³Now then, you go and strike down Amalek; destroy all he has; spare none. Slay man and woman, child and infant, cattle and sheep, camel and donkey."

⁴So Saul called up the people and mustered them at Telaim,^d two hundred thousand infantry, with ten thousand men from Judah. ⁵When Saul approached the Amalek capital he made an ambush in the valley ⁶and sent word to the Kenites,^e "Move out; separate yourselves from the Amalekites, so I may not destroy you together with them; for you treated all Israel kindly when they came out of Egypt." So the Kenites moved away from among the Amalekites.

⁷Saul struck down Amalek from Havilah to the Shur approach east of Egypt. ⁸He captured Agag, the Amalek king, alive; but he doomed all the people to complete destruction with the sword. ⁹However, Saul and the people spared Agag; also the choicest sheep and cattle and the fattest lambs — everything of high value they did not doom to destruction; only the lesser quality cattle and the worthless they utterly destroyed.

¹⁰Then came the LORD's message to Samuel: ¹¹I am grieved ever to have made Saul king; for he has quit following Me and has not carried out My orders. Samuel was so deeply moved,^f he cried to the LORD all night; ¹²and early in the morning he went to meet Saul. It was told Samuel, "Saul came to Carmel where he erected for himself a monument; then he turned and left; he went down to Gilgal."

¹³Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, "The LORD bless you. I have carried out the LORD's command."

b) A younger son was Ishbosheth, whom Abner made king after Saul and these three sons had fallen in battle. c) Much like the Prussian kings, especially "Old Fritz," with their seven-foot grenadiers. d) Little lambs — likely a pasture valley. Again Judah, including the Simeon tribe, mentioned separately.

e) Hobab, a Kenite, had helped Moses in his leadership from Sinai to Canaan. He was a brother-in-law of Moses [Num. 10:29].

f) Few disappointments hurt as deeply as a life which was once headed in the right direction but finally goes wrong.

¹⁴But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of sheep and lowing of cattle that I hear?" ¹⁵Saul replied, "They have brought them along from the Amalekites; the people have spared the best of sheep and cattle to bring an offering to the LORD your God,^g but the rest we have destroyed."

¹⁶Samuel then said to Saul, "Wait, and I will relate to you what the LORD told me last night." He said to him, "Say it!" ¹⁷Samuel went on, "When you were little in your own sight, did you not become a prince of Israel's tribes, and has not the LORD anointed you to be king over Israel? ¹⁸The LORD sent you out under orders. He said: Go and destroy the evildoers, the Amalekites; fight them until you have exterminated them. ¹⁹Why then, did you not listen to the LORD's voice, but flung yourself on the loot and did evil in the LORD's sight?"

²⁰Saul answered Samuel, "I did listen to the LORD's voice and went the way the LORD sent me. I brought along Agag, the Amalekite king, and I have doomed the Amalekites to destruction; ²¹but the people took of the choicest sheep and cattle, the best that was doomed, to bring sacrifices to the LORD your God^g at Gilgal."

²²Samuel then said, "Does the LORD delight as much in burnt offerings and in sacrifices as in obeying the LORD's voice? See! Obedience is better than sacrifice and to listen than the fat of rams.^h ²³For rebellion is as the sin of fortunetelling and stubbornness as wickedness and idol worship. Because you have rejected the LORD's word, He has rejected you from being king."

²⁴Saul replied to Samuel, "I have sinned; I have transgressed the LORD's command and your order because I was afraid of the people and listened to them. ²⁵Now then, pardon my sin; go back with me, and I will worship the LORD." ²⁶But Samuel told Saul, "I will not return with you; because you have rejected the LORD's word, therefore the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

²⁷As Samuel turned around to leave, Saul seized the border of his robe, which tore off. ²⁸So Samuel said to him, "Today the LORD has torn the kingship of Israel away from you and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you, ²⁹and the Everlasting of Israel does not lie or repent; for He is not a man to change His mind." ³⁰"I have sinned," he said, "but please do me the honors before the elders of my people and before Israel; then will I worship the LORD your God." ³¹So Samuel did return behind Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

³²Samuel said, "Present me here Agag, the Amalekite king. And cheerfully Agag approached him, remarking, "Surely, the bitterness of death is past." ³³"As your sword has made women childless," said Samuel, "so shall your mother be childless among the women." Then Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. ³⁴Samuel then went to Ramah, and Saul went home to Gibeah of Saul. ³⁵Samuel did not see Saul again before he died; but he grieved over Saul. It was grief to God that he had appointed Saul king over Israel.ⁱ

16 THE LORD SAID TO SAMUEL: How long will you grieve over Saul since I have renounced him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I am sending you to Jesse, the Bethlehemite, for I have selected a king among his sons. ²Samuel answered, "But how can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me." The LORD said: Take with you a heifer and say, "I have come to sacrifice to the LORD." ³Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice; I will suggest to you what next to do; you will anoint for Me whom I point out to you.

⁴Samuel did what the LORD had said. But when he came to Bethlehem,

g) Not "my God," for he knew he had grown disloyal to Jehovah.

h) Our LORD heard these words quoted to Him [Mark 12:33], by a scribe.

i) There are "ifs" with God in His dealings with man, because He made man in His likeness, with the possibility of going against Him; but God made no mistake. First the people and then Saul made the mistake.

the town's elders met him, trembling from fear, and asked, "Does your coming mean peace?" ⁵He answered, "Peace! I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves, so you may share this sacrifice with me." He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. ⁶As they came in, he looked at Eliab and thought, "Surely, the LORD's anointed is before Him." ⁷But the LORD said to Samuel: Pay no attention to his looks or to his splendid height, for I have passed him by. It is not what man sees; for man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart.¹

⁸Jesse then called Abinadab and had him pass by Samuel; but he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." ⁹Jesse next had Shammah walk by him, but he said, "This one, too, the LORD has not chosen." ¹⁰Eventually Jesse had seven of his sons walk before Samuel, but Samuel told Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen them."

¹¹When Samuel asked Jesse, "Are these all your sons?" he replied, "There is still the youngest; you see, he is tending the sheep." Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and get him; for we shall not sit down until he is here."

¹²So he sent and got him. He had a ruddy complexion, sparkling eyes, and a handsome appearance. The LORD said: Stand up and anoint him, for this is he. ¹³So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him among his brothers. The Spirit of the LORD took hold of David from then on. Samuel then got up and went to Ramah.

¹⁴But the LORD's Spirit departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him.^k ¹⁵Saul's servants then told Saul, "You know that an evil spirit from God is frightening you. ¹⁶Tell your personal attendants to look for someone who is skillful in playing the harp; then when the evil spirit from God takes hold of you, he will play the instrument, and it shall be well with you."

¹⁷Saul said to his attendants, "Be on the lookout for a good musician, and bring him to me." ¹⁸One of the attendants spoke up, "I saw a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who plays excellently; he is a good fighter, of sound judgment, well built, and the LORD is with him."¹ ¹⁹Saul then sent messengers to Jesse with this request,^m "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep." ²⁰Jesse loaded a donkey with ten loaves of bread, a skin of wine, and a kid, and sent them to Saul by his son David. ²¹Thus David came to Saul and became his valet. Saul appreciated him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer. ²²Saul therefore sent word to Jesse, "Let David stay in my service; he has won my favor." ²³And whenever the evil spirit from God came on Saul, David would take his harp and play; it eased Saul; he felt better, and the evil spirit would leave him.ⁿ

17 THE PHILISTINES MUSTERED their forces for war and came together at Socoh, which belongs to Judah; they camped at Ephes-dammim between Socoh and Azekah. ²Saul and Israel's troops mustered and camped in the Elah^o valley and drew up in battle formation against the Philistines. ³The Philistines occupied one mountainside and Israel the other, with the valley between them.

⁴A champion named Goliath, of Gath, came forward from the Philistine army, over nine feet tall, ⁵wearing a bronze helmet and armed with a bronze coat of mail that weighed two hundred pounds, ⁶bronze leggings on both legs, and carrying a bronze javelin on his shoulder. ⁷His spear shaft was the size of a weaver's beam, and the head of his iron spear weighed twenty-five pounds. His armor-bearer went ahead of him.

⁸He stood and shouted to Israel's

j) God had provided David with royal possibilities, and he under adverse circumstances had applied them.

k) Evil spirits, disobedient as they are to God, remain subject to God, unable to molest without divine permission. Saul, by forsaking God, had opened the door for Satan and his demons.

l) Obviously no longer a boy, as so often pictured.

m) Which, coming from a king, was an order, as Samuel had foretold.

n) Read Robert Browning's "Saul" and, if at all possible, see Rembrandt's "David before Saul" at the Maurits Art Gallery in The Hague. o) Oakdale, in our language.

battle lines, "Why draw up in battle formation? Am I not a Philistine and you Saul's slaves? Choose a man to represent you, and let him challenge me. ⁹If he is able to fight and kill me, then we shall be your slaves; but if I beat and kill him, then you will be our slaves and serve us. ¹⁰I defy the ranks of Israel today," so the Philistine went on, "to furnish me a man, so we can fight each other." ¹¹And as Saul and all Israel heard the Philistine's challenge, they were alarmed and in great fear.^p ¹²Now David was the son of the Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse and he had eight sons, and in Saul's time he was up in years. ¹³His eldest sons had followed Saul to war; those three sons were Eliab the first-born, Abinadab next and Shammah third. ¹⁴David was the youngest, and the three eldest were behind Saul. ¹⁵David went back and forth from Saul to Bethlehem to tend his father's sheep.

¹⁶For forty days, morning and evening, the Philistine champion came forward and took his position. ¹⁷Now Jesse told his son David, "Take your brothers a bushel of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread, and take them quickly to your brothers at the camp; ¹⁸also hand these ten cheeses to their colonel.^q See how your brothers are faring, and bring back some reminder from them. ¹⁹Saul, they, and all of Israel's troops are in Elah valley in conflict with the Philistines."

²⁰Early in the morning David got up, left the sheep with a herdsman, packed as Jesse had instructed him, and was off. He reached the encampment as the army was moving up for military formation and the battle cry was sounded. ²¹Israel and the Philistines were drawing up their battle lines, army against army. ²²David left his pack behind in care of the commissary and hurried toward the ranks. Once there, he asked his brothers about their welfare.

²³While he was talking with them the champion Goliath, the Philistine of Gath, came out from the ranks of the Philistine troops and repeated the daily challenge, which David heard. ²⁴As the men of Israel saw him, they all ran from the man in terror. ²⁵They said, "Did you see this man who is coming this way? He comes forward to defy Israel. The king will richly reward the one who slays him; he will give him his daughter and exempt^r his father's family in Israel."

²⁶David asked the men who were standing near him, "What shall be done to the man who kills that Philistine and removes the shame from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, to defy the armies of the living God?" ²⁷The people repeated to him the same statement, "Thus they will treat the man who kills him."

²⁸When Eliab, his oldest brother, heard him conversing with the men, his anger grew hot against David^s and he said, "Why really did you come here? With whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I am aware of your impudence and your ugly heart. You came to watch the fighting."

²⁹David responded, "What have I done wrong by asking a question?" ³⁰He then turned from him to another, put the same question, and the people gave the same answer as those before.

³¹David's words were noted and were repeated to Saul, who sent for him. ³²David said to Saul, "Let no one lose courage on his account; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." ³³Saul told David, "You will not be able to tackle this Philistine for combat, for you are still young, and he is a warrior from his youth up." ³⁴David, however, answered Saul, "Your servant has been tending sheep for his father; and when a lion came or a bear to seize a sheep from the

p) Saul knew and Israel knew that the nearest match to put against Goliath was their tallest, strongest man, the king.

q) Teachers of history might well study these martial records of 3,000 years ago, near in time to Homer's facts and fancies. r) Exemption from such burdens as taxes and involuntary services which the common man must meet. It amounted to being raised to nobility.

s) It had not been easy for David's older brothers to see him chosen in preference to themselves; for Eliab, the oldest, this seemed especially humiliating.

flock, ³⁵I got after him, struck him, and rescued the sheep from his jaws. In case he turned on me, I caught him by his chin whiskers, wounded, and killed him.^t ³⁶Your servant has slain the lion as well as the bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine will go their way, since he has defied the drawn up army of the living God.” ³⁷Then David added, “The LORD, who rescued me from the paws of lion and bear, He will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine.”^u

Saul told David, “You go, and the LORD be with you.” ³⁸Then Saul dressed David in his own suit; he put a bronze helmet on his head and armed him in a coat of mail. ³⁹Over the coat David girded on his sword, and thus he tried walking, for he had never tested them. David then told Saul, “I cannot freely move in these, for I have never tried them.” So David got rid of them ⁴⁰and with staff in hand selected five smooth stones from the brook, put them in the bag he had with him, the shepherd's food bag, held the sling in his hand, and thus went out to meet the Philistine.^v

⁴¹The Philistine moved toward David, gradually nearer, his armor-bearer ahead of him. ⁴²When the Philistine laid eyes on David, he took a good look at him and disdained him because he was young, ruddy, and handsome. ⁴³“Am I a dog,” the Philistine said to David, “that you come at me with sticks?” And he cursed him by his gods. ⁴⁴The Philistine further said to David, “If you come at me, I will feed your body to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field.”

⁴⁵David answered the Philistine, “You are meeting me with sword and spear and javelin, but I meet you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. ⁴⁶Today the LORD will hand you over to me, and I will slay you and cut off your head. Today I will feed the corpses of the Philistine army to the birds of heaven and to the beasts of the field, so that the whole earth may know there is a God in Israel. ⁴⁷This whole gathering, too, shall know that the LORD does not save through sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD's, and He will hand you over to us.”

⁴⁸As the Philistine readied himself to attack and kept coming closer to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the line to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹He put his hand in the bag, took out a stone, slung it, and hit the Philistine's forehead, so that the stone drilled into his forehead, and he fell face down to the ground. ⁵⁰Thus did David conquer the Philistine with sling and stone; he struck the Philistine and killed him without a sword in his hand. ⁵¹But David ran, stood over the Philistine, drew his sword from its sheath and dispatched him, cutting off his head with it.^w And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead they took to flight.

⁵²The troops of Israel and Judah sprang up with a war cry and chased the Philistines as far as Gath and to the gates of Ekron, with the wounded of the Philistines lying along the Shaaraim road all the way to Gath and Ekron. ⁵³The Israelites then turned from pursuing the Philistines and plundered their camp. ⁵⁴But David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem,^x and his armor he laid in his tent.

⁵⁵When Saul watched David going out to fight against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the army commander, “Abner, whose son is this youth?”^y Abner replied, “As you live, O king, I do not know.” ⁵⁶The king said, “Find out whose son the young man is.”

t) David seems to have followed Samson's example [Judges 14:6], tearing the animal's jaws apart.

u) It is well that David acknowledged God's help, which alone could see him through against Goliath. v) David knew how to sling a smooth stone; he did not yet know how to fight in armor. We, too, may be capable along certain lines and utterly useless for other activities.

w) Probably the smooth gravelstone, piercing Goliath's skull, knocked him unconscious; but David dispatched him before the giant came to.

x) David could deposit it in Jerusalem, held by Benjamin, except the Zion which was held by the Jebusites. y) David as his musician and armor-bearer had interested Saul, but as his prospective son-in-law the king grew anxious to know more about his family — how well a scion of it might fit into the court life.

⁶⁷So when David came back from slaying the Philistine, Abner engaged David and took him to Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand. ⁶⁸Saul asked him, "Young man, whose son are you?" To this David replied, "I am a son of Jesse of Bethlehem."

18 BY THE TIME DAVID WAS through talking with Saul, Jonathan's soul was in unison with David's soul; Jonathan loved him as himself. ²On that same day Saul retained him and did not let him return to his father's home. ³Because he loved him, Jonathan made a covenant with David; ⁴he stripped himself of the robe he had on and gave it to David; also his armor with sword, bow, and belt. ⁵David went out wherever Saul sent him and enjoyed success, so that Saul put him in charge of troops; he was in favor with the people and with Saul's servants.

⁶Something happened, however, on their return trip from David's slaying of the Philistine. The women came out from all the Israelite towns to meet King Saul, singing and dancing to tambourines, and making joy with cymbals. ⁷As they danced, the women sang responsively, "Saul has slain his thousands and David his ten thousands."^a ⁸This made Saul very angry. The refrain disgusted him; he said to himself, "They ascribe to David ten thousands and to me only thousands; what more for him but the kingdom!" ⁹From that day on Saul kept an envious eye on David.

¹⁰Next day an evil spirit from God took hold of Saul so that he raved inside his house, while David as usual played the harp. In his hand Saul had a spear ¹¹which he threw, intending to pin David to the wall; but twice David escaped from his presence. ¹²Saul was afraid of David because the LORD was with him and had departed from Saul. ¹³Saul therefore removed him from his presence and made him colonel of a regiment; so that his going in and out became public, ¹⁴and he behaved wisely in all his enterprises. The LORD was with him.

¹⁵When Saul noticed how capable he was, he dreaded him, ¹⁶while all Israel and Judah prized David highly because as a leader he went in and out before them. ¹⁷Saul said to David, "Here is Merab, my older daughter, whom I will give you for a wife;^b only, serve me bravely and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "Let not my hand, but the Philistines', be against him." ¹⁸But David said to Saul, "Who am I and what is my family in Israel that I should be the king's son-in-law?" ¹⁹Yet, when the time arrived for Merab, Saul's daughter, to be given to David, she married Adriel the Meholahite.

²⁰But Saul's daughter Michal fell in love with David and when Saul was told of it, he was pleased; ²¹for he thought, "I will give her to him and let her be his undoing; let the Philistines put him down." But to David he said, "You can now be my son-in-law with the second one." ²²At the same time Saul instructed his attendants, "Have a private chat with David and tell him, 'The king favors you and all his attendants love you; why not be the king's son-in-law?'" ²³Saul's attendants conveyed Saul's suggestions to David, but he said, "Do you consider it trifling to become the king's son-in-law, poor and insignificant as I am?"

²⁴Saul's attendants reported to him what David had said, ²⁵to which Saul replied, "You tell David, 'The king wants no dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king's enemies.'" Saul intended to have David fall by the hand of the Philistines. ²⁶His attendants repeated the statement to David, who then agreed to become the king's son-in-law. Before the fixed time ²⁷David got up and went out with his men, slew two hundred Philistines,^c

z) He furnished the promising recruit with the choicest military equipment.

a) The singers displayed more zeal than judgment; it required a better man than Saul to take that without retaliating. b) Saul had promised her to Goliath's slayer, whoever he might be.

c) This was multiplied murder, definitely contrary to divine law, unless it was part of the Hebrew war of liberation from the Philistines.

brought back their foreskins, and presented the whole number to the king, so as to become his son-in-law; upon which Saul gave him his daughter Michal to be his wife.^d ²⁸When Saul fully realized that the LORD was with David and that Michal, Saul's daughter loved him, ²⁹Saul feared David more than ever, and he remained David's enemy for life. ³⁰But each time the Philistines went on the warpath and made sallies, David achieved more success than all Saul's captains, so that his name grew famous.

19 SAUL SUGGESTED TO HIS SON Jonathan and to all his attendants to bring about David's death. But Saul's son Jonathan prized David highly, ²so he warned David, "Saul, my father, is intending your death; be on guard tomorrow morning; go in hiding in some secret spot. ³I will go out in the field where you are, stand beside my father, talk about you, and let you know how matters stand." ⁴Jonathan then spoke well of David to his father. He said, "Let not the king wrong his servant David, for he has not wronged you; on the contrary, he has behaved admirably toward you. ⁵He risked his life to slay the Philistine, and the LORD worked out a great deliverance for Israel, which you were glad to see. Why then be guilty of innocent blood by killing David without due cause?"

⁶Saul listened to what Jonathan said and made oath, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."^e ⁷Then Jonathan called to David and repeated to him the whole conversation; he took David back to Saul, and David served him as before. ⁸When war broke out afresh, David went out and fought the Philistines, defeating them with such heavy losses that they fled before him.^f ⁹Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul while he sat in his house with a spear in his hand. As David was playing the strings with his hand, ¹⁰Saul tried to pin him to the wall; but David dodged away from Saul so that he hit the wall with the spear, and that night David escaped.

¹¹Saul sent messengers to David's house to guard it and to kill him in the morning; but Michal, his wife, informed him, "Unless you save your life tonight, you will be killed tomorrow." ¹²So Michal lowered David from the window; then he fled away and escaped. ¹³Michal took an image,^g laid it on the bed, adjusted a goats' hair pillow at the head and covered it with a garment. ¹⁴Saul sent messengers to take David, but she said, "He is sick." ¹⁵Saul sent the messengers back to call on David, with orders, "Bring him to me on his bed, so I may dispatch him." ¹⁶But when the messengers went in, there in bed was the image, with the goats' hair pillow at the head. ¹⁷Saul said to Michal, "Why did you deceive me so and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" Michal replied to Saul, "He threatened me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?'"^h

¹⁸After David had escaped by flight, he called on Samuel at Ramah and told him everything; then he left there with Samuel, and they settled at Naioth. ¹⁹Saul, upon getting a message, "Take note! David lives at Naioth in Ramah," ²⁰sent police to arrest David; but when they saw a group of prophets, moved by the Spirit and led by Samuel, the Spirit of God came upon Saul's officers until they prophesied.ⁱ ²¹Hearing of it, Saul sent a second detachment; but they, too, became inspired. Once more Saul sent officers and they prophesied. ²²Then he himself went to Ramah and, arriving at the great well of Sechu, he inquired, "Where are Samuel and David?" They said, "At Naioth near Ramah." ²³So he took the road to Naioth by Ramah, and of him also the Spirit of God took hold. He prophesied as he went until he reached Naioth by Ramah; ²⁴he stripped off his

d) David had no right to marry more than this one wife while she lived, and his later lawbreaking brought him much trouble, personally and as a family man.

e) Saul meant what he said when he was at his best, but failed to hold to his noblest impulses.

f) Jealousy and envy were Saul's worst traits; he could not endure David's successes.

g) A man-sized image with a manlike face, the image suggests an idol. h) Which was certainly untrue. i) Once more music and inspiring singing proved catching and helped hearts to turn to God and to yield to His holy influences.

clothes too and kept prophesying in Samuel's presence, like the rest.^j All day and all that night he lay there stripped. For this reason they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

20 DAVID THEN HURRIED AWAY from Naioth by Ramah, came to Jonathan and said, "What have I done? What is my misdemeanor? How have I wronged your father, that he is out for my life?"^k He answered him, "Not at all; you shall not die. You see, my father does nothing great or small without confiding it to me; why should he hide this affair from me? It is not so!"^l David, however, asserted with an oath, "Your father knows perfectly well that you favor me; so he says, 'Jonathan had better not know this; it would distress him'; but as the LORD lives and you live, there is but one step between me and death."^m ⁿJonathan asked David, "What do you want? I will do it for you."^o To which David replied, "See here! It's new moon tomorrow, and I should not fail to sit at the king's table. If you will excuse me, I will remain hidden in the field till the day after at evening.^p In case your father misses me, tell him, 'David urged me strongly for leave to go at once to his Bethlehem town because there the whole family observes its annual sacrifice.'^q If he says, 'Very well,' then your servant is safe; but if he grows very angry, then be sure he has definitely decided on evil.^r Now then, treat your servant kindly, for you have entered into a covenant of the LORD with your servant; but if there is guilt on my part, you yourself dispatch me. Why hand me over to your father?"

^sJonathan replied, "By no means. If I knew for certain that my father had definitely decided to treat you evilly, would I not let you know?"^t Upon which David asked Jonathan, "Who will inform me in case your father answers you roughly?"^u Jonathan responded, "Come on, let us go out in the field." And they went out together into the field.^v Then Jonathan told David, "The LORD God of Israel be witness! I shall sound my father about this time tomorrow or the third day, and if the situation looks promising and he feels cordial toward you, shall I not send word to inform you?"^w So may the LORD repay Jonathan and worse, if my father has set his mind to harm you, if I do not let you know so that you can leave in peace; and may the LORD be with you as He has been with my father."^x Not merely during my life will you show me the LORD's graciousness, but also if I die.^y Never withdraw your kindness from my family, not even when the LORD wipes every one of David's adversaries from the face of the earth."

^zJonathan made this covenant with the house of David: The LORD shall require it from David's adversaries.^{aa} Jonathan also took oath afresh from David, because of his love for him, for he loved him as himself.^{ab} Jonathan then told him, "New moon tomorrow; you will be missed, for your place will remain vacant;^{ac} but on the third day be sure to come down and return to the spot where you hid on that eventful day; sit down by the stone pile.^{ad} I will shoot three arrows alongside it as if aiming at a mark.^{ae} Then I will charge the lad, 'Go and find the arrows.' If I say expressly to the lad, 'Look! The arrows are this way; get them,' then come, for all is safe for you; as the LORD lives, there is no trouble.^{af} But if I say to the youth, 'Look! The arrows are beyond you,' then be on your way, for the LORD is letting you go.^{ag} And as to our mutual pledge, mind you, the LORD is our Mediator forever."

^{ah}David did hide in the field. At the new moon the king sat at the table to eat food.^{ai} He sat at the king's ac-

j) Stripped probably means minus his robe but still in his tunic. Thus he enjoyed the leadership of Samuel, but did not personally converse with him.

k) The Psalms of David are rich in relating life to a wise and gracious God, who is also righteous, because his life was so rich in experience.

l) A made-up story to test Saul.

m) Jonathan had accepted the anointing of David.

customed place near the wall, with Jonathan standing and Abner sitting beside the king; but David's place was vacant. ²⁶That day Saul never said a word, for he thought, "Something happened to him; he is not purified; no, he is not purified." ²⁷But when on the day after the new moon David's place was still vacant, Saul asked his son Jonathan, "Why has not the son of Jesse come to dinner either yesterday or today?" ²⁸Jonathan replied, "David begged of me for leave to go to Bethlehem. ²⁹He said, 'Please let me go, for our family is observing a sacrifice in town and my brother charged me to be there; be so kind as to let me go and visit my brothers.' This is the reason he did not come to the royal table."

³⁰Then Saul's anger burned hotly against Jonathan. He said to him, "You son of a rebellious, undisciplined woman,ⁿ do I not know that you made choice of Jesse's son to your own dishonor and to the shame of your mother's exposure? ³¹It is certain that so long as the son of Jesse walks the earth, neither you nor your kingship will be secure. You therefore send for him and have him brought to me, for he is doomed to die." ³²Jonathan answered Saul his father, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" ³³Then Saul threw his spear at him to kill him. From this Jonathan knew that his father had fully determined to kill David. ³⁴In hot anger, therefore, Jonathan left the table and ate nothing the second day of the new moon; for he grieved on account of his father's shameful behavior toward David.

³⁵Next morning Jonathan went into the field at the time prearranged with David, and a small boy came along. ³⁶He told the boy, "Run; find the arrows I shoot," and as the lad began to run, he shot an arrow over him. ³⁷When the boy reached the spot where Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan called after him, "Is not the arrow beyond you?" ³⁸He then shouted after the lad, "Be quick! Hurry! Don't delay!" So Jonathan's boy picked up the arrows and came to his master, ³⁹without sensing what it was all about; only Jonathan and David knew. ⁴⁰Jonathan handed his equipment to his boy and told him, "Go and take them to town."

⁴¹As soon as the lad was gone, David came from beside the stone pile and threw himself prone on the ground before Jonathan, bowing down three times.^o They kissed each other and wept together until David got control of himself. ⁴²Then Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace! Since we have sworn to each other in the LORD's name, the LORD will be Mediator between me and you; also between my descendants and yours forever." David then arose and left, while Jonathan entered the town.

21 DAVID WENT TO NOB TO Ahimelech the priest. Frightened,^p Ahimelech met David and asked him, "Why are you alone and nobody with you?" ²David told Ahimelech the priest, "The king has commissioned me with a task about which he said, 'Nobody must know about the affair on which I am sending you and which I have committed to you. I have sent the young men to a definite meeting place.' ³Now then, what have you on hand? Let me have five loaves, or as much as you have."

⁴The priest answered David, "I have no ordinary bread on hand, but there is consecrated bread, if only the young men have kept away from women."

⁵David told the priest, "Rest assured, women have been kept from us as usual when I am on the march; the young men's kits have been consecrated. Although this is a secular mission, the kits will render it set apart."

⁶The priest then gave him the consecrated bread; for there was only the

n) Like "a son of Belial." This may be only a form of extreme disapproval. It is also possible that his wife, Ahinoam, sided with Jonathan to be fair toward David and had tried to persuade Saul in that direction. o) Grateful for Jonathan's loyalty at great risk.

p) The priest had much reason to fear. David's falsehoods proved fatal to Ahimelech, and to the whole community.

showbread, which was regularly removed from the LORD's presence so as to be replaced by fresh bread on the same day.^q ⁷That same day one of Saul's servants was there, detained before the LORD. His name was Doeg, an Edomite, chief of Saul's herdsmen.

⁸David asked Ahimelech, "Do you not have a spear or sword available? For I had no chance to take along my sword or any other weapon because the king's business required haste." ⁹The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine is here, whom you slew in the Elah valley; it lies wrapped behind the ephod. If you care to take it, go ahead; there is nothing else here." David said, "There's nothing like it; let me have it."

¹⁰That day David, in fear of Saul, took flight and went to Achish the king of Gath. ¹¹But the attendants of Achish told him, "Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not in dance measures sing the responses, 'Saul has killed his thousands and David his ten thousands?'" ¹²David took these remarks to heart and grew dreadfully afraid of Achish the king of Gath, ¹³so that he pretended in their presence to be demented, needing control like a madman. He scribbled on the gate doors and let his saliva run down his beard.^r ¹⁴Achish told his attendants, "Take a look at the man, how demented he is! Why do you bring him to me?" ¹⁵Am I short of madmen, that you brought me this one to rave around me? Should such a fellow be my guest?"

22 DAVID GOT AWAY FROM THERE and escaped to the cave of Adullam, and when his brothers and all his father's family heard of it, they joined him there. ²Besides, there gathered around him all those in difficulties, those in debt, those with grievances; and he became their leader.^s About four hundred men joined him.

³From there David went to Mizpeh in Moab and said to the Moabite king, "Please allow my father and mother to come and live among you until I know what God will do for me."^t ⁴He then brought them under the care of Moab's king with whom they stayed during the entire period of David's remaining in the stronghold.^u ⁵However, the prophet Gad told David, "Do not remain in Mizpeh; move out to the Judah country." So David moved to the Hereth woods.

⁶Saul heard of it, for David and his band had been detected. Saul was sitting, spear in hand, under the Gibeah oak tree on the high place, with all his attendants standing around him; ⁷and Saul said to them, "Listen, you Benjamites!" Do you imagine that the son of Jesse will give every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he appoint all of you chiefs of thousands and of hundreds, ⁸so that all of you have conspired against me and none informed me when my son made a covenant with Jesse's son? Nobody has enough sympathy with me to let me know how my son has incited my servant against me to lie in ambush, as is the case today."

⁹Doeg the Edomite, who stood with Saul's attendants, answered, "I saw Jesse's son come to Nob to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, ¹⁰who consulted the LORD for him and supplied him with provisions, even gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine." ¹¹Upon this the king sent Ahimelech son of Ahitub a summons, including his whole family and the priests at Nob, all of whom came to the king. ¹²Saul said, "Attention, you son of Ahitub!" He replied, "Present, your majesty!" ¹³Then Saul asked him, "Why have you conspired with Jesse's son against me by giving him food and a sword and by consult-

q) This showbread, or "bread of the Presence," twelve loaves placed on the table in the holy place, was changed each Sabbath to be eaten by the priests in the holy place [Ex. 25:30; Lev. 24:5-9]. r) David's faith could hardly be at lower ebb.

s) Most of David's heroes came from these misfits, awakened by a true leader.

t) As descendants of Ruth the Moabitess, they were cordially received.

u) Stronghold and Mizpeh can be identical. v) Saul had greatly favored his own tribe in distributing desirable offices: the party-spoils policy is not of recent origin.

ing God for him, so that he has rebelled against me and is now waylaying me?"^w ¹⁴Ahimelech answered the king, "And who among all your servants is as loyal as David, the king's son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard and honored in your house? ¹⁵Was this the first time I consulted God for him? Not at all. Let not the king accuse his servant and my whole family of anything; for your servant knew nothing whatever of all this, not the least."

¹⁶But the king said, "Ahimelech, you must certainly die, you and your whole family." ¹⁷The king then ordered the guards who stood by him, "About face! Execute the LORD's priests because they too side with David, and although they knew he was a fugitive, they never informed me." But the king's men would not lift their hands to dispatch the priests of the LORD. ¹⁸The king then ordered Doeg, "About face! Dispatch the priests!" Doeg the Edomite turned around and dispatched the priests; he slew eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.^x ¹⁹He also put Nob, the town of the priests, to the sword, massacring men, women, children, and babes on the breast; cattle, donkeys, and sheep.

²⁰Abiathar, one of Ahimelech's sons, grandson of Ahitub, escaped and fled to David. ²¹When Abiathar related to David how Saul had slain the LORD's priests, ²²David said to Abiathar, "I knew very well that day, since Doeg the Edomite was there that he would unquestionably report it to Saul. I am the occasion of death for your entire family. ²³You stay with me; have no fear, for whoever is after your life is after mine. With me you are perfectly safe."

23 THEY TOLD DAVID, "TAKE note! The Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are robbing their threshing floors."^y ²So David asked the LORD, "Shall I march and defeat these Philistines?" The LORD answered David: March out, defeat the Philistines, and save Keilah. ³But David's men argued, "See here! We live in fear here in Judah; how much worse, then, if we move to Keilah and face the Philistines." ⁴David, therefore, inquired of the LORD once more and the LORD answered: March out; move down to Keilah, for I will put the Philistines in your power. ⁵Then David and his men marched to Keilah and fought the Philistines; they brought away their cattle and inflicted heavy losses on them. In this way David delivered the dwellers of Keilah.

⁶When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he brought the ephod with him. ⁷And when it was told Saul that David had moved inside Keilah, he said, "God has handed him over to me, for he has shut himself in by entering a town with gates and bars." ⁸So Saul summoned all the people for war, to march on Keilah and to besiege David and his men.

⁹David found out that Saul was planning evil against him and ordered Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here." ¹⁰David then prayed, "LORD God of Israel, Thy servant has heard with certainty that Saul plans to march to Keilah to destroy the town on my account. ¹¹Will the men of Keilah surrender me to him? Will Saul come down, as Thy servant has heard? LORD God of Israel, I plead with Thee, let Thy servant know." The LORD said: He will come down. ¹²David then asked, "Will the men of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?" The LORD said: They will hand you over.^z ¹³David and his men, about six hundred, then left Keilah and roamed wherever they could go. And when Saul was told that David had escaped

w) David never rose against Saul; he fled from him for his own life.

x) Ephod means "covering" and here applies to the linen garment each priest wore when in service. The high priest's ephod was more like a vest on which precious stones, inlaid in a square of cloth, were worn and which could be used for consulting with the LORD.

y) They looted the harvest and the granaries. z) From a human standpoint they acted prudently; for a siege by the Hebrews would likely be worse than that of the Philistines from whom they had been delivered by David. And God would have allowed Saul to enter the city. Here is another of God's "ifs." David remained free only by leaving there.

from Keilah, he abandoned the trip.^a ¹⁴David stayed in desert strongholds and remained in the mountainous parts of the Ziph desert. Day in and day out Saul kept hunting for him, but God did not hand him over into his power.

¹⁵David learned how Saul was on the march to take his life; David was then in the Ziph^b desert at Horesh.

¹⁶Jonathan, Saul's son, went to David in the woods and strengthened his trust in God. ¹⁷He told him, "Have no fear, for the hand of Saul my father will not reach you. You will be Israel's king, and I will be next to you. My father Saul knows this too well." ¹⁸The two then made a covenant in the LORD's presence. David remained in the Horesh woods, and Jonathan went back home.

¹⁹However, some Ziphites went to Saul at Gibeah and told him, "Is not David hiding among us in the Horesh mountain strongholds on the Hachilah hill in the south part of the desert?"

²⁰Now, if you care to come down, O king, we will undertake to hand him over to your majesty." ²¹Saul replied, "The LORD bless you for having sympathy with me. ²²You go ahead and find out for sure where his haunt is located and who has seen him there; for I am told he behaves very shrewdly.

²³Try to find all his hiding places; then come back to me with trustworthy information, and I will go with you. If he is anywhere in the land, I will trace him among all the thousands of Judah."^c ²⁴So they started for Ziph ahead of Saul; while David and his men were in the Maon plain in the southern part of the desert.

²⁵When Saul and his men went hunting David, he learned of it, so he moved down to the rock in the Maon plain and stayed there. Saul heard of it and followed David in the Maon plain, ²⁶Saul moving on one side of the ridge and David with his men on the other side. David did his level best to get away from Saul, but Saul and his men were at the point of encircling and capturing David and his men, ²⁷when a messenger brought Saul the news, "Hurry back, for the Philistines have invaded the country." ²⁸Saul then gave up pursuing David and marched against the Philistines. That place therefore is named Escape Rock.^d ²⁹David moved out from there and housed in the Engedi strongholds.

24 WHEN SAUL HAD RETURNED from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "Observe! David is in the Engedi desert." ²Saul then mustered three thousand choice men from all Israel and went in search of David at the Wild-Goats' Rocks. ³On the way he came to the sheepfolds, where Saul entered a cave to cover his feet,^e but David and his men were sitting in the cave's recesses. ⁴David's men remarked to him, "This is the day in which the LORD said to you, 'Now I put your enemy in your power; do to him what you wish.'"

Unobserved, David got up and cut off the tail end of Saul's robe, ⁵after which his heart smote him for having cut off a piece of Saul's robe. ⁶He said to his men, "May the LORD keep me from doing such a thing to my master, the anointed of the LORD, to raise my hand against him who is the LORD's anointed." ⁷And with these words David restrained his men; he would not let them rise against Saul.

Meanwhile Saul had arisen and had left the cave and gone on his way. ⁸David then moved out of the cave and called after Saul, "Your majesty the king!" Saul looked around, and David bowed deeply, his face touching the ground. ⁹David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to people's words,^f who say 'David schemes evil against you?' ¹⁰Just look! This very day your eyes see how in the cave the LORD put you in my power. They talked about kill-

a) Not all pursuit, but that particular trip. b) There is today a Zif four miles s.e. of Hebron, very hilly and thickly wooded. Horesh means dense wood or thickets.

c) An expression used again by Micah in his Messianic prophecy [ch. 5:2].

d) Selaham-Mahleloth. e) Answer the call of nature. f) It has always been difficult for a king to get at the truth, because no one is supposed to point out his mistakes; presumably he makes none.

ing you, but I spared you. I said, 'I will not lift my hand against my master for he is the LORD's anointed.' ¹¹Take a look, my father, and see your coat-tail in my hand. I cut off the tail end of your robe without killing you; so you know that I have no evil or rebellion in mind; that I have done nothing against you, while you intend to take my life. ¹²May the LORD judge between me and you, and may the LORD grant justice regarding you; but my hand shall not be against you. ¹³As the old-time proverb has it, 'From the wicked comes forth wickedness,' but my hand shall not be against you. ¹⁴After whom, really, is the king of Israel? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? A lone flea? ¹⁵May the LORD, therefore, be judge and decide between me and you; may He take notice, be my Advocate, do me justice, and rightfully acquit me from your hand."

¹⁶When David had finished speaking to Saul, Saul asked, "Is this your voice, my son David?" Saul then raised his voice and wept. ¹⁷He told David, "You are fairer than I am; for you treated me well, and I have treated you meanly. ¹⁸Today you have shown your benevolent spirit toward me, not killing me when the LORD committed me into your hand. ¹⁹When one surprises his enemy, will he let him go unharmed? May the LORD be good to you for your dealings with me today. ²⁰Now then, I know for certain that you will be king and that the kingship over Israel will be enduring under your direction. ²¹So, make oath to me by the LORD that you will not destroy my descendants nor wipe out my name from my father's family." ²²David swore this to Saul, and Saul went home; but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25 SAMUEL DIED, AND ALL ISRAEL gathered to lament over him. They buried him at his Ramah home; but David got out and moved to the Paran desert.

²There lived a man at Maon whose business was at Carmel,^g a very rich man, who owned three thousand sheep and one thousand goats. He was at Carmel attending to the sheepshearing. ³The man's name was Nabal and his wife's name Abigail. The woman was intelligent and good-looking, but the man's behavior was rough and uncouth. He was a Calebite.^h

⁴When David in the desert heard that Nabal was shearing his sheep, ⁵he sent ten young men, whom David commissioned, "Go to Carmel and call on Nabal. Inquire in my name after his welfare, ⁶and tell him, 'Greeting! Peace to you! Peace to your home! Peace to all you possess!' ⁷I hear that you are having shearers. Now, your shepherds were with us and we never molested them, neither have they missed anything all the time they were at Carmel. ⁸Ask your men, and they will confirm it. Will you therefore favor these young men, as we have come on a feast day? Give your servants and your servant David anything you have on hand."

⁹When David's young men arrived, they repeated to Nabal in David's name this entire message, and waited. ¹⁰But Nabal inveighed against David's servants, "Who is David, and who is Jesse's son? There are many servants nowadays running away from their master. ¹¹Shall I then take my food, my wine and the meat I have butchered for my own shearers, and give it to persons from I do not know where?"

¹²David's men faced about, went back, and told him everything that had occurred; ¹³upon which David ordered his troop: "Every man gird on his sword!" So they all girded on their sword, David himself included; then about four hundred men marched behind David while two hundred remained with the supplies. ¹⁴But one of the young men had told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "You should know that David sent messengers from the desert to greet our master, but he scoffed at them. ¹⁵Yet those men were most kind to us; they did not molest us, and we

g) This was not the Carmel ridge noted for Elijah's daring faith; but a village in Judah about seven miles s.e. of Hebron. Its ruins are still called Karmul.

h) A descendant of Caleb, the companion of Joshua.

never missed a thing all the time we were in the fields and had contact with them. ¹⁶They formed a wall around us night and day as long as we pastured the sheep in their neighborhood.¹

¹⁷Now then, consider well what you are to do, because disaster has been decided on for our master and for his entire household; and he is such a son of Belial that nobody can talk to him."

¹⁸Abigail then hurriedly took 200 loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five roasted sheep, two bushels of roasted grain, 100 raisin cakes and 200 fig-cakes, packed them on donkeys, ¹⁹and ordered her servants, "You move on ahead of me; I will follow." But she did not inform Nabal, her husband.

²⁰Seated on her donkey she was coming down a mountain pass when David and his men came down, too, meeting her; so she faced them. ²¹Now David had said, "So, our protecting this fellow's belongings in the desert so that he missed nothing, proved all useless; he is returning evil for good. ²²May God do so to David's enemies and worse if, of all he has, I leave a single male alive by morning." ²³But when Abigail saw David, she quickly dismounted from her donkey, fell on her face before David, bowed to the ground, ²⁴fell at his feet, and said, "On me, sir, falls the blame! Allow your maid, please, to address you, and listen to your servant girl's words. ²⁵Let my master pay no attention, I beg of you, to this worthless man Nabal,¹ for as his name, so is the man. He is named Nabal; he is a fool. But I, your maid, did not see the men my master sent. ²⁶So then, sir, as the LORD lives and as you live, when the LORD has restrained you from bloodshed and from taking the law in your own hands, may your enemies and all who plan against my master fare like Nabal.

²⁷"This present which your hand-maid brings her master, may it be given the young men who are enlisted with my master. ²⁸Please, pardon your maid's conduct,^k for the LORD shall certainly set up for my master a lasting dynasty, because my master is fighting the LORD's battles, and no evil is found in you all your life. ²⁹Should anyone undertake to persecute you and to seek your life, then my master's soul will be wrapped in the bundle of life with the LORD your God; but the soul of your enemy He shall fling out as from the hollow of a sling. ³⁰And when the LORD has fulfilled all His good promises to my master and has appointed you prince over Israel, ³¹then your heart will suffer from no self-accusation for my master's shedding blood without cause and for taking the law in his own hand. And when the LORD has prospered my master, then remember your servant girl."

³²David responded to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, ³³who sent you today to meet me. Blessed be your good judgment, and blessed be you for restraining me today from the guilt of bloodshed and from taking the law in my own hands. ³⁴For as surely as the LORD God of Israel lives, who kept me from hurting you, if you had not hurriedly met me, not a male around Nabal would have been left alive by break of day." ³⁵David then accepted from her what she had brought and told her, "Go back home in peace. Observe! I have listened to your voice, and personally I like you."

³⁶But when Abigail reached Nabal, he was banqueting in his house like a king. Nabal was in a happy mood and very drunk; so she did not tell him any particulars until morning. ³⁷Next morning, however, when Nabal's spree was over, his wife told him everything, and his heart gave out within him; he became like stone. ³⁸In about ten days the LORD brought on a stroke, and he died.

³⁹When David learned that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has executed justice for

i) Men who form a band and live in caves need nourishment, which must be earned, asked, or plundered. David and his men had formed an exception by actually deserving considerable support.

j) Nabal means foolish, or wicked.

k) Coming forward without her husband and speaking against him was hardly accepted etiquette, and she was a woman of uncommon ability and judgment.

Nabal's insult to me and who has kept His servant from wrongdoing. The LORD has caused Nabal's wickedness to come down on his own head." Then David sent messengers to converse with Abigail about taking her to be his wife. ⁴⁰As David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they informed her, "David has sent us to you in order to take you for his wife." ⁴¹She stood up, bowed her face toward the earth, and said, "Yes, your maid will be a servant girl to wash the feet of my master's servants." ⁴²Then Abigail quickly arose, mounted a donkey and, accompanied by five maids, was on her way. She followed David's messengers and became his wife.

⁴³David had also taken Ahinoam of Jezreel; so both became his wives.^m ⁴⁴But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, of Gallim.

26 THE ZIPHITES WENT TO SAUL at Gibeah and said to him, "Do you know that David is hiding in the Hachilah hill facing the desert?" ²Then Saul took the road down to the Ziph desert and with him three thousand shock troops of Israel to hunt David in the Ziph desert. ³Saul camped on the Hachilah hill, facing the desert near the road, while David stayed in the desert. When David saw that Saul was following him into the desert, ⁴he sent out spies and learned that Saul was indeed coming on. ⁵David then moved up and approached Saul's encampment. He observed the location where Saul lodged with his general, Abner son of Ner—Saul lying inside the wagon barricade and the troops camped around him.

⁶David turned to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai, Joab's brother and son of Zeruiahⁿ and asked, "Who will go down with me to Saul's camp?" Abishai said, "I will go with you." ⁷So David and Abishai invaded the camp by night; and there inside the barricade lay Saul asleep, his spear stuck in the ground by his head, with Abner and the soldiery lying around him. ⁸Abishai said to David, "Today God has put your enemy in your hand; now please, let me nail him to the ground with his spear; just one stab, no need of a second one for him." ⁹But David told Abishai, "Do not murder him; for who can with innocence assault the LORD's anointed?" ¹⁰He added, "As the LORD lives, unquestionably the LORD will smite him; he will die either as his time comes, or he will go to battle and be wiped out. ¹¹May the LORD keep me from lifting my hand against the LORD's anointed. Now then, take the spear at his head and the water jug, and let us get away." ¹²So David took the spear and the jug from near Saul's head, and they were off. No one noticed or knew a thing; they were all asleep, for a sound sleep from the LORD had overpowered them.

David's Bigamy; He Spares Saul Again

¹³As soon as David had crossed over, he took his stand on top of the hill at a good distance with plenty of space between them; ¹⁴and David called out to the troops and to Abner son of Ner, "Abner, will you not respond?" Abner replied, "Who are you, calling to the king?" ¹⁵David then twitted Abner, "What a hero you are! Who in Israel is your equal? Why then have you not guarded your master, the king? For one of the people came to murder the king, your master. ¹⁶What you did is not commendable. As the LORD lives, you are children of death,^o because you have not guarded your master, the LORD's anointed. Take a look, where the king's spear and the water jug are, that stood by the king's head!"

¹⁷Saul recognized David's voice and called, "Is that your voice, my son David?" David replied, "Yes, my master, the king." ¹⁸He said further, "Why does my master pursue me? What have

^m) Saul's second daughter, Michal, had been given David for his slaying Goliath; but Saul, when pursuing David, gave her to another man. Later, David demanded her back [II Sam. 3:14]; but she had lost her affection for him [II Sam. 6:16], and died childless [vs. 23].

ⁿ) Zeruiah was David's sister, but not Jesse's daughter; David's mother had been the widow of Nahash [II Sam. 17:25]; Zeruiah was the mother of Joab, nephew of David, but about the same age. ^o) You deserve death.

I done? Of what crime am I guilty? ¹⁹Will my master, the king, please listen to your servant's plea: If the LORD has set you against me, then an offering might be acceptable; but if children of men are doing so, then they are cursed before the LORD, because this very day they are exiling me from fellowship with the LORD's heritage. They say, 'Get out; serve other gods.' ²⁰Now, therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth far from the presence of the LORD. The king is on the move to find a lone flea, as they hunt a partridge on the mountains."

²¹Saul answered, "I have sinned; come back, my son David. I will not harm you; for today you held my life precious. I have acted the fool; I have gravely erred."^p ²²David responded, "Here is the spear, O king; let one of the young men come over and get it. ²³The LORD will reward each person's fairness and loyalty; for the LORD handed you over to me today, and I would not lift my hand against the LORD's anointed. ²⁴Take note! As your life today was held precious by me, so may my life be precious in the LORD's sight, and may He save me out of every difficulty."

²⁵Saul said to David, "Blessed are you, my son David; you will succeed in whatever you undertake." David then went his way, and Saul went back home.

27 DAVID SAID TO HIMSELF, "ANY day now I may fall into Saul's hands. I had better seek refuge in the Philistine country; then Saul will give up hunting for me everywhere in all Israel, and I shall escape from his grip." ²Then David and the six hundred men with him moved out to Achish son of Maach, king of Gath;^q ³David and his men lived with Achish at Gath, each with his household, David with his two wives, Ahinoam, the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁴And when Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he did not hunt for him any more.

⁵David said to Achish, "If you feel friendly toward me, allow me space in one of your country towns for residence; why should your servant dwell with you in the royal city?" ⁶So Achish assigned him Ziklag; for which reason Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day. ⁷The duration of David's stay in the Philistine country was a year and four months.

⁸David would march out with his troop and raid the Geshurites,^r the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those were from of old the inhabitants of the land toward Shur and on to the Egypt country. ⁹Every time David conquered a region, he left not a man or woman alive; he took the sheep, the cattle, the camels, the donkeys, and went back to Achish.^s ¹⁰When Achish inquired, "Where have you raided this time?" David would reply, "Against the southern portion of Judah," or "Against the southern part of the Jerahmeelites," or "Against the southland of the Kenites." ¹¹David let neither man nor woman live to be brought to Gath, because he reasoned, "They may betray us and say, 'David behaved this way.'" As long as he remained on Philistine territory this was his custom. ¹²Achish, however, trusted David, reasoning, "He has doubtless brought himself into bad repute with his people, with Israel; he will remain permanently in my service."

28 ABOUT THAT TIME THE PHILISTINES mustered their armies to engage in a campaign against Israel. Achish told David, "You and your men, mind you, are to march with me in the army."^t ²David answered Achish, "Splendid! You will discover what your servant is able to do." To this Achish responded, "Then I will appoint you my lifelong bodyguard."

^p Saul at the moment meant every word he spoke; but David wisely did not place himself under his power; Saul was too fickle.

^q The same Achish of his previous flight. He survived David by at least three years [I Kings 2:39]. In the title to Ps. 34 he is called Abimelech, a title designating royalty, like that of Egypt's Pharaohs. ^r Geshur means bridge. These were probably a colony from Geshur, between the Hermon and Bashan mountains.

^s Bringing tribute from the loot. But he lied and covered up with murder. ^t David could never have done that. Instead, his contingent was the kind that could have turned the battle into an Israelite victory.

³At Samuel's death all Israel had made lamentation over him and had buried him in his Ramah home town. And Saul had driven the mediums and the fortunetellers out of the country.

⁴The Philistines mustered and made camp at Shunem;^u while Saul mustered all Israel and made camp at Gilboa. ⁵At the sight of the Philistine encampment Saul felt afraid; his mind was shaken. ⁶He inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him either by dreams or through Urim^v or through prophets. ⁷Then Saul told his attendants, "Find me a woman who contacts spirits, so I may go and consult her." His courtiers replied, "There is a medium at Endor." ⁸Saul then disguised himself, changed his clothes, and with two men went to the woman by night. When they arrived, he said, "Will you inquire for me as a medium and bring up the one I shall mention to you?" ⁹But the woman answered him, "You know what Saul has done, how he has eliminated mediums and fortunetellers from the land. Why then are you setting a snare for my life, to cause my death?" ¹⁰Saul then swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, this affair will bring no guilt on you." ¹¹So the woman asked, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring me up Samuel."

¹²When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed and said to Saul, "Why did you deceive me? You yourself are Saul!" ¹³But the king spoke to her, "Have no fear. What do you see?" The woman answered Saul, "I see a god-like form rising from the earth."^w ¹⁴He then asked her, "Of what appearance is he?" She said, "An old man wrapped in a robe." Saul then understood that it was Samuel. He knelt with his face turned to the earth and bowed down.

¹⁵Samuel then spoke to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me to bring me up?" Saul said, "I am in great distress. The Philistines are fighting me, and God has left me; He does not answer me any more, either through prophets or by dreams. I have therefore called you to let me know what I should do."

¹⁶Samuel said, "Why consult me when the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary?" ¹⁷The LORD has done what He announced through me; the LORD has torn the kingship from you and has given it to your neighbor, to David. ¹⁸Because you did not listen to the LORD's voice and failed to execute His burning indignation upon Amalek, therefore the LORD has thus treated you today, ¹⁹and along with you the LORD will also hand Israel over to the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me, and the LORD shall deliver the army of Israel into the Philistines' power."

²⁰Then and there Saul fell full length to the ground, terrified by Samuel's message. One reason why his strength had left him was that for a day and a night he had eaten nothing.

²¹So when the woman stepped up to Saul and saw that he was in distress, she said to him, "Your maid has obeyed your orders, and I have endangered my life to do what you told me. ²²Now, please, do as your maid suggests; I will serve you a bite of bread so you may eat and have strength to travel." ²³He refused, however, and said, "I will not eat." But when his attendants, as well as the woman, kept urging him, he yielded to them; he got up from the floor and sat on the couch. ²⁴Hurriedly the woman butchered the fatted calf she had in the house, took flour, which she kneaded and baked to make unleavened cakes. ²⁵This she served Saul and his men and they ate; then that same night they got up and left.

u) Made familiar through "the Shunamite" who entertained Elisha (II Kings 4:25).

v) Urim and Thummim - lights and perfection - were placed in the high priest's breastplate, belonging to the ephod, and worn over the heart as he went before the LORD. On twelve precious stones the names of the twelve tribes were engraved. The godly wearer obtained divine guidance for affairs of state.

w) The fact that necromancy was forbidden suggests that it had been practiced. In Israel it meant departure from God [Lev. 19:31]. The Endor medium was probably a Canaanite.

x) Septuagint [Greek] translation - "and is with your adversary." Saul had become God's adversary.

29 THE PHILISTINES CONSOLIDATED all their forces at Aphek, while the Israelites camped at the Jezreel fountain.^y ²When the Philistine city princes were marching along by companies and regiments, and David and his men formed the rear with Achish, ³the Philistine commanders remarked, "What about these Hebrews?" Achish answered the Philistine commanders, "That, you should know, is David, a subject of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me now for over a year, and to date I have found nothing wrong with him from the time he came over."

⁴But the Philistine commanders were angry at Achish and told him, "You dismiss this man; let him go back to the place you have assigned him. Let him not join us in the battle, lest in the fighting he turn against us. How could he more readily gain favor with his master than with the heads of our soldiers? ⁵Is not this the same David of whom they sang in their responsive dances, 'Saul has slain his thousands and David his ten thousands'?" ⁶Achish then called David and told him, "As the LORD lives, you are an honest man; and it would please me to have you in the army marching out and coming back with me, for since you came to me until now I have found no wrong in you. But the trouble is, the town princes have no use for you. ⁷So you better withdraw peacefully without antagonizing the Philistine princes."

⁸David argued with Achish, saying, "What have I done? What fault can you find with your servant from the day I came into your service until now, so that I may not go along to battle against the enemies of my lord the king? ⁹Achish answered David, "I know it; you are as pleasing to me as an angel of God; but the Philistine commanders have said, 'He must not march to war along with us!' ¹⁰Now then, get up early in the morning with your master's servants^z who have come with you, and with break of day as soon as it is light take your leave." ¹¹So David and his men got up early in the morning to leave to go back to the Philistine country while the Philistines moved toward Jezreel.

30 WHEN ON THE THIRD DAY David and his men arrived at Ziklag, the Amalekites had invaded the southland including Ziklag which they had burned; ²and they had captured the women and all who were in it without killing any, and had moved on with them. ³So when David came to the town with his men, they found it burned and their wives, their sons and their daughters taken captive. ⁴Then David and the people with him raised their voices and wept until they could weep no more. ⁵Both wives of David, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of the Carmelite Nabal, had been captured too.

⁶David was in a serious predicament; some men talked of stoning him;^a for all the people were in an ugly mood, each on account of his sons and daughters. But David laid hold on the LORD his God. ⁷He said to the priest Abiathar, "Please bring me the ephod." And Abiathar brought David the ephod. ⁸Then David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue these bandits? Shall I overtake them?" He answered him: Go after them, and you will surely overtake and free the captives. ⁹So David and the six hundred men with him marched till they reached the Besor brook; ¹⁰there two hundred men, too exhausted to cross the brook, remained, while four hundred continued the pursuit with David.

¹¹They found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David. They gave him bread, which he ate; they let him drink water; ¹²they gave him a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, he revived; for he had eaten or drunk nothing for three days and three nights. ¹³Then

y) That fountain is still active. The Jezreel valley, later known as the plain of Esdraelon, has been the battlefield for many nations. Gideon had there routed the Amalekites and the Midianites.

z) A broad hint that they really belonged with Saul and his army.

a) As had been Moses' experience (Ex. 17:4); so human to center the blame on someone within reach.

David asked him, "Who are your people, and where do you come from?" He replied, "I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite. My master left me behind because I got sick three days ago. ¹⁴We raided the south section of the Cherethites,^b the Judah country, and the south land of Caleb; we also set fire to Ziklag."

¹⁵David asked him, "Could you lead us to those bandits?" He said, "Swear to me before God that you will neither kill me nor hand me over to my master, and I will lead you to the band."

¹⁶He led them there and, see, they were lying spread out all over the place, eating, drinking, and celebrating over the enormous plunder they had taken from the countries of Philistia and Judah! ¹⁷From twilight until next day's evening David slaughtered them, and none of them escaped, except four hundred young men who mounted camels and sped away. ¹⁸David recovered all that the Amalekites had captured, freeing also his two wives. ¹⁹They lost practically nothing, small or great, sons or daughters, or booty — nothing of what the band had plundered; David brought it all back. ²⁰Besides, David captured all the sheep and cattle, which the men drove ahead of the caravan, saying, "This is David's prize."

²¹When David came near the two hundred men, who had been too exhausted to follow him, so that he left them behind at the Besor brook, they came out to meet him and all those with him; and when David reached them, he inquired after their welfare. ²²Then the evil and worthless characters^c among those who had accompanied David started to argue, "Because they did not go with us, we shall give them nothing of the plunder we recovered, except each one's wife and children. Let them take these and be gone."

²³David, however, said, "My brothers, this is not the way to handle what the LORD gave us; He preserved us and delivered the invaders to us. ²⁴Who should listen to you on this score? The share of him who stays with the baggage shall be equal to the share of him who marches to battle." ²⁵And so it has been ever since that day. He made it a rule and a statute for Israel to the present.^d

²⁶After David got back to Ziklag, he sent a share of the loot to the elders of Judah with the message, "Here is a present for you of the prize from the LORD's enemies," — ²⁷to those at Bethuel, to those in Ramoth in the south-land, to those at Jattir, ²⁸to those at Aroer, to those in Siphmoth, to those at Eshtemoa, ²⁹to those in Rachal, to those of the Jerahmeelite and Kenite towns, ³⁰to those in Hormah, to those in Borashan, to those in Ether, ³¹to those in Hebron and to all the places where David and his men used to gather.^e

31 MEANWHILE, THE PHILISTINES were fighting Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines; the slain fell on Mount Gilboa. ²The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons; they slew Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.^f ³Against Saul himself the battle went heavily; the bowmen made him their target, so that he was badly wounded by the archers.

⁴Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword, and run me through, so that these uncircumcised may not come to run me through and have their sport with me." But his armor-bearer refused, repelled by the horror of it. Saul then took his sword and threw himself upon it. ⁵And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too, fell on his sword and died with him. ⁶So then, Saul, his three sons, his armor-bearer, and all his men died together on the same day.

⁷When the men of Israel at the other end of the valley and the people

b) Mentioned among David's bodyguard [II Sam. 8:18].

c) Sons of Belial. d) It was a fair ruling and therefore won the day, with fair characters in the majority. e) A "thank-you" for past favors and a suggestion for future action; David rightly aimed for kingship. f) Philistine officers must have so ordered their archers.

on the other side of Jordan observed that the Israelite troops had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. Then the Philistines came and occupied them.

⁸Next day, when the Philistines came to strip the fallen, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹They severed his head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers to broadcast the news all over Philistia in the temples of their idols and among the people. ¹⁰His armor they deposited in the Astarte temple, and his body they fastened to the Bethshan wall.

¹¹But when the dwellers of Jabesh-gilead learned what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all the warriors got up, walked all night, and took the bodies of Saul and his sons from the Bethshan wall^b and, on reaching Jabesh, they cremated them. ¹³But their bones they took and buried under the Jabesh oak. They then fasted seven days.

b) The men of Jabesh matched the heroism of Saul, who had delivered them from the Ammonites [ch. 11].

THE SECOND BOOK OF

SAMUEL^a

1 AFTER THE DEATH OF SAUL, WHEN David had returned from slaughtering the Amalekites, he stayed in Ziklag two days. ²Then on the third day, a man arrived who had been with Saul in the army; his clothes were torn, and he had dust on his head.^b When he came to David, he bowed to the ground and prostrated himself before him. ³David said to him, "From where have you come?"

"I have escaped from Saul's army," he replied. ⁴David then asked him, "How have things gone there? Please, tell me." His reply was, "The men gave up the battle and fled; not only have many fallen but Saul, too, is dead, with Jonathan his son."

⁵Then David asked the young man who was bringing this information, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan have died?" ⁶"I happened to be on Mt. Gilboa," the young informer went on, "and there was Saul, leaning on his spear. The enemy's chariots and cavalry were moving in on him. ⁷Just then he looked around, saw me, and called out to me. I said, 'Here I am.' ⁸He asked me, 'Who are you?' I told him, 'An Amalekite.' ⁹Then he said, 'Come over here, stand and kill me; because even though I am still alive, weakness has seized me.' ¹⁰So I stood by him and killed him, because I knew, since he had fallen, that his life was over. Then I took the crown which was on his head and a bracelet which he had on his arm, and I have brought them here to my ruler."^c ¹¹But David took hold of his clothes and tore them, as did all the men who were with him. ¹²Further, they mourned, wept, and fasted until evening over Saul and his son Jonathan and the LORD's people, the community of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

¹³Then David asked the young man who had brought the report, "Where are you from?" He said, "I am the son of a resident alien, an Amalekite."

¹⁴David then replied, "How is it you felt no compunction against raising your hand to destroy the anointed of the LORD?" ¹⁵And with that, David gave orders to one of his young men, "Approach! Strike him down!" He struck him so that he died, ¹⁶even as David pronounced on him the sentence, "Your blood is on your own head, because your mouth has condemned you by saying, 'I killed the anointed of the LORD!'"^d

¹⁷Then David lamented over Saul and his son Jonathan with the following elegy, ¹⁸and he gave orders that this "Song of the Bow"^e be taught to

a) II Samuel is by the same prophetic author as I Samuel, the two originally forming one book.
b) These were signs of deep mourning. See vs. 11.

c) The Amalekite's story differs from the scriptural record of Saul's death, I Samuel 31:3-5. He seems simply to have discovered and plundered Saul's body and then told his tale to David, hoping for reward.

d) The name comes from vs. 22. In Hebrew the dirge is not in the strict lamentation meter of three beats followed by two, but the second lines of the verses do generally fall one beat short of the first, thus expressing incompleteness and grief.

the people of Judah. Note! It is written in the Book of the Upright.^e ¹⁹Thy honor, O Israel, is dead upon thy high places;

How are the mighty fallen!

²⁰Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Ashkelon;

lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,

lest the daughters of the uncircumcised glory.

²¹Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew nor rain upon you, neither fields of offerings:
For there the shield of the mighty was defiled,

the shield of Saul, the anointed no more.

²²From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty,
the bow of Jonathan turned not back, nor did the sword of Saul return unsated.

²³Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely, in life and death they were not divided;

they were swifter than eagles,
they were stronger than lions.

²⁴Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,

who clothed you in scarlet and with delights,

who put ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

²⁵How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle!

Jonathan was slain in thy high places.

²⁶I am grieving for thee, my brother Jonathan:

very pleasant hast thou been unto me:

thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.^f

²⁷How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war destroyed!

1010 B.C.

2 AFTER THIS, DAVID ASKED THE LORD, "Should I go up to one of the cities of Judah?" The LORD's answer was, Go! David then inquired, "To which should I go up?" To Hebron, was the response. ²So David went up there with his two wives, Ahinoam from Jezreel, and Abigail, widow of Nabal of Carmel. ³His men who were with him David brought up, too, each with his family, and they settled in the towns around Hebron. ⁴Then the men of Judah^g came and anointed David there as king over the house of Judah.

Further, when David was told, "The men of Jabesh Gilead have buried Saul," ⁵the king sent messengers to the men of that city with the wish, "May you be blessed by the LORD because of this act of faithfulness toward your leader Saul, giving him decent burial!" ⁶Now may the LORD deal faithfully and truly with you! So I will deal with you because of what you have done. ⁷Moreover, keep heart, and prove worthy citizens; because, though your ruler Saul is dead, the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

⁸But Abner son of Ner, the general of Saul's army, took Ish-bosheth,^h Saul's son, and brought him over to Mahanaim, ⁹where they made him kingⁱ over Gilead, the people of Ashur, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and all Israel. ¹⁰Ish-bosheth the son of Saul became king over Israel at the age of forty and reigned two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David. ¹¹The time David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah amounted to seven years and six months.

¹²Now Abner son of Ner, with the troops of Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, advanced from Mahanaim toward Gib-

e) Hebrew: The Book of the Jashar. A lost collection of hero songs that grew over a long period of Israel's history. Joshua 10:12-13 is an earlier quotation from it.

f) Jonathan stands among the noblest Bible characters, unselfish and loyal, apparently in line for the throne, but willing to take second place for David. g) This included the tribe of Simeon.

h) Hebrew: man of shame. His original name was Esh-baal [I Chron. 8:33; 9:39], "man of Baal." Saul probably did not have the idol Baal in mind when naming his son, but the Hebrew word baal: master, the name then meaning "man of the Master," referring to God, or to the king.

i) As a close relative of Saul [I Sam. 14:50], Abner had no desire to see the kingship leave his family.

eon; ¹³but Joab son of Zeruiah,¹ with David's followers, went out and encountered them by the reservoir of Gibeon. Coming together, they halted by the reservoir, one force on one side and the other on the other side of the reservoir. ¹⁴Abner then made the proposition to Joab, "If this seems satisfactory, have the young men get up for a contest before us."^k Joab agreed, "Let them stand up."

¹⁵So a number that were selected got up and went across: twelve for Benjamin, for Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of David's men. ¹⁶Each man caught hold of his opponent's head, stabbing his sword into his side, consequently all of them fell; so the place was called, "Field of the Sword-Edges," in Gibeon. ¹⁷That day there followed a most severe battle, in which Abner and the men of Israel went down in defeat before the soldiers of David.

¹⁸Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel; and Asahel was a fast runner, like a deer in the field. ¹⁹Asahel pursued straight after Abner, swerving neither to the right nor to the left. ²⁰Abner looked back and questioned, "Is that you, Asahel?" "It is," came the reply. ²¹"Then turn off to your right or left," said Abner. "Get your captive from one of the young men; strip him for your plunder!" But Asahel would not turn back. ²²Again Abner spoke to him, "Get away from me! Why should I strike you to the ground? How could I hold up my face to your brother Joab?" ²³But Asahel would not be diverted, and Abner gave him a back-thrust in the abdomen¹ with the butt end of his spear.^m The spear came out at his back and he fell there, dying in his tracks. Thus everyone who came to the place where Asahel had fallen dead, stood still.

²⁴Joab, too, and Abishai pursued after Abner, and by sunset they had reached the hill of Ammah, which is in front of Giah on the road to the desert of Gibeon. ²⁵Meanwhile, the men of Benjamin had rallied behind Abner, re-formed, and taken up a position on top of a hill. ²⁶Abner called out to Joab, "Is the sword going to keep on consuming us forever? Do you not know that in the long run this will only produce bitterness? How long will it be before you tell the people to stop chasing their own brothers?"

²⁷"As God lives," came Joab's reply, "Had you but spoken sooner, the people would have withdrawn, every man from his brother, this morning!" ²⁸So Joab sounded the trumpet and the people halted, gave up the pursuit of Israel, and no longer continued the battle. ²⁹Abner and his men marched all that night through the Jordan Valley, crossed the Jordan, went on through all of Bithron, and arrived at Mahanaim. ³⁰Joab, after turning back from Abner, mustered all the people. Of David's troops there were only nineteen missing, and Asahel; ³¹but the men of David had so struck Benjamin and the forces of Abner that three hundred and sixty of them had died. ³²So they lifted up Asahel and buried him in his father's grave in Bethlehem; and Joab and his command, by marching all that night, reached Hebron as day was breaking.

1003 B.C.

3 THE WAR BETWEEN THE HOUSES of Saul and of David was long drawn out; but David became progressively stronger and Saul's house weaker and weaker. ²In Hebron David had these sons: his oldest was Amnon, by Ahinoam of Jezreel; ³second came Chileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; ⁴fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; fifth Shephatiah the son of Abital; ⁵and sixth, Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

⁶During the war between the houses of Saul and of David, Abner was

j) Zeruiah was David's half sister [I Chron. 2:16], apparently by the marriage of his mother to one Nahash [II Sam. 17:25], prior to her having become the wife of Jesse, David's father. Joab was thus David's half nephew.

k) Abner looked for a decision from single combat by champions, thus avoiding much bloodshed. Cf. Goliath's offer [I Sam. 17:8-9]. l) Heb.: under the fifth rib.

m) Probably pointed, somewhat similar to a bayonet, so as to be stuck in the ground, as was Saul's spear [I Sam. 26:7].

strengthening his own position within Saul's group. ⁷Now Saul had a concubineⁿ named Rizpah, daughter of Aiah; and Ish-bosheth accused Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"^o ⁸Abner became infuriated at the charge of Ish-bosheth and exclaimed, "Am I a dog's head, to lick the palm of Judah? Here I work faithfully for the house of Saul your father, for his brothers, and for his friends; I have not allowed you to fall into David's hands, and today you have brought up a misstep with a woman against me! ⁹May God get even with Abner and worse, if I do not do for David what the LORD swore to him, ¹⁰to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and set up David's throne over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beer-sheba!"

¹¹Ish-bosheth could not answer him a word because he was afraid of him. ¹²Then Abner sent messengers to David to represent him and to say, "Whose is the land?" and, "Come, make your agreement with me, and my hand will be with you to turn all Israel over to you."^p

¹³The reply came, "Good; I will make an agreement with you. But there is one matter on which I insist; you are not to see my face without first bringing me Saul's daughter Michal, when you appear for a meeting." ¹⁴David then sent messengers to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, demanding, "Give me my wife, Michal, to whom I became engaged at the price of a hundred Philistines' foreskins."

¹⁵So Ish-bosheth sent and had her taken from her husband, Paltiel^q the son of Laish. ¹⁶But her husband accompanied her as far as Bahurim, weeping as he went along behind.

Then came Abner's order, "Go back!" And back he went.

¹⁷Now Abner had consulted with the elders of Israel, "In times past you were looking for David to be king over you; ¹⁸now carry it through. For the LORD has said about David, 'By the hand of David My servant I will rescue My people Israel out of the power of the Philistines and from the power of all their enemies.'" ¹⁹Abner himself had also addressed the people of Benjamin. Then Abner came to tell David personally at Hebron all that Israel and the house of Benjamin^r wanted to do.

²⁰When Abner met David at Hebron, he had twenty men with him, and David prepared a dinner for Abner and the men with him. ²¹Abner declared to David, "I will get up and go and bring all Israel here to my master the king."^s Then they can make the contract with you, so you can reign over all that your heart desires." David dismissed Abner, and he went in peace.

²²At that point the troops of David under Joab, came in from a raid, bringing with them a huge amount of plunder. Abner was no longer with David at Hebron, since the king had sent him away, and he had left peaceably. ²³But when Joab and his whole command arrived, the news reached Joab, "Abner the son of Ner has been to the king who sent him away; and he has gone in peace."

²⁴Joab called on the king and exclaimed, "What have you done? See! Abner has called on you. Why have you sent him off and let him get away? ²⁵You know Abner the son of Ner. He came to deceive you, to learn your comings and goings, to know everything you are doing!"

²⁶When Joab left David's presence,

n) A concubine was more than a mere mistress; for she was a member of the household, had the rights of a married woman, took her position by an official ceremony of appointment, and could even be called a "wife," though in a secondary sense [Exod. 21:8-10; Deut. 21:11-13]. Concubines were generally gotten by purchase or as captives and, unlike a true wife, could be "divorced" at will, but then only to be released, not sold as a slave [Gen. 16:2-3; 21:10; Exod. 21:7,8,11; Deut. 21:10-14; Mal. 2:14-16].

o) Possession of the court women indicated royal power. Cf. Absalom with David's concubines [ch. 16:21-22]; Adonijah with Abishag [I Kings 2:21-22]; and David's insistence on the return of Michal [vs. 13].

p) Abner here demonstrates an unprincipled willingness to support whatever party best advanced his own interests. See also 2:8-9; 3:6. David's prompt cooperation was to be expected, since he had been divinely anointed for the throne. q) In I Sam. 25:44 his name has the shorter form, Palti. r) Benjamin, as the tribe of Saul's family, was particularly concerned.

s) Almost certainly, Abner would have become commander of all the forces.

he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the pit of Sirah; but David was unaware of what he did. ²⁷When Abner had come back to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate, as if to talk privately to him; but there, in revenge for the blood of his brother Asahel, he stabbed him fatally in the abdomen.

²⁸After it had happened, when David heard of it, the king exclaimed, "I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner. ²⁹Let it act as a boomerang on the head of Joab and on all his father's house. May the house of Joab always have someone with running sores, a leper, a man with a crutch, a victim of the sword, or someone starving!"^t ³⁰So Joab, along with his brother Abishai, murdered Abner because he had killed Asahel, their brother, in the battle at Gibeon. ³¹But David ordered Joab and all the people with him, "Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth! Mourn before Abner!" King David himself walked behind the bier. ³²Thus they buried Abner in Hebron; and at the grave the king wept aloud, as did all the people. ³³Then the king lamented over Abner:

"Must Abner die as a fool dies?

Your hands never had to be bound,
Your feet were never held in fetters.
As one does fall before the wicked so you have fallen."

Again, all Israel wept over him. ³⁵Moreover, when all the people urged David to eat food while it was still day, David swore with an oath, "God do so to me" if I taste food or anything else before the sun goes down!" ³⁶All the people took note and approved, even as everything the king did met with popular approval. ³⁷Thus in that day all the people, and indeed all Israel, recognized that the death of Abner the son of Ner had not been of the king's doing.

³⁸The king also told his attendants, "Do you not know that a prince, a great man, has fallen this day in Israel?" ³⁹As for me, I stand powerless today, even though anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too harsh for me; may the LORD repay in kind the man who does wrong."

1003 B.C.

4 WHEN SAUL'S SON, ISH-BOSHETH, heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost heart, and all Israel fell into confusion. ²Now there were two military commanders of his, one named Baanah and the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth who was a Benjaminite. For Beeroth is counted as a part of Benjamin, ³but its people withdrew to Gittaim and live there as foreign residents up to the present. ⁴It might also be noted that Saul's son, Jonathan, had a son with crippled feet. He was five years old when the report came from Jezreel about Saul and Jonathan,^v at which time his nurse snatched him up and fled. But in her hurry to get away he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.^w

⁵So the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, Rechab and Baanah, came and approached Ish-bosheth's house in the hot part of the day, while he was lying down for his noonday rest. ⁶Here they came to the center of the house, apparently to take out wheat; but they struck him in the abdomen. Then Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped. ⁷They had entered the house while he was lying on his couch in the room where he rested and they had both stabbed and killed him and then cut off his head. They took the head and traveled by the way of the Jordan Valley all night. ⁸Thus they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, saying to the king, "See the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, that man who was your enemy and who tried to get your life! But this day the LORD has given our sovereign the

t) David pronounced a curse on his general and on Joab's immediate family; for Joab's brother had been slain in battle and had been warned by Abner. Obviously Joab wanted Abner out of his way. u) Probably making a motion toward his throat or head.

v) Their death at the battle of Mt. Gilboa.

w) Hebrew: one who scatters shame. His original name seems to have been Merib-baal [I Chron. 8:34; 9:40], "hero of Baal," or, "a warrior is Baal."

king vengeance on Saul and on his descendants!"

⁹But David's answer to Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, was, "As the LORD lives, who has saved me out of every trouble, ¹⁰when that informer told me, 'Look, Saul is dead!' and thought he was bringing me good news, he was seized and executed by me in Ziklag, that fellow who hoped I would give him a reward for his news. ¹¹What do you think is going to happen when criminals murder a good man lying on his couch in his own house? Would I not here and now require his blood at your hands and eliminate you from the earth?" ¹²With that, David gave the word to his attendants, who killed them and cut off their hands and feet. These they hung up beside the Hebron reservoir; but the head of Ish-bosheth they took and buried in Abner's grave at Hebron.

1003 B.C.

5 THEN ALL THE TRIBES OF ISRAEL came to David at Hebron with the statement, "Here we are, your bone and your flesh. ²Besides, in times past when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought her in. The LORD also told you: You are the man who is to be the shepherd for My people, for Israel, and you shall be sovereign over Israel."

³So when all the elders, who led Israel, had come to Hebron to the king, and when King David in the presence of the LORD had made a compact with them at Hebron, they anointed David king over Israel. ⁴David was thirty years old at the commencement of his reign, and he was king a total of forty years. ⁵In Hebron he had reigned over Judah seven years and six months and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

⁶The king and his troops then marched on Jerusalem against the people of Jebus, the natives of the territory. They, however, announced to David, "You shall not get in here; the blind and the lame can turn you back!" assuming, "David cannot gain access here."^x ⁷But David did capture the fortress of Zion, which now is the City of David. ⁸On that day David had given orders, "Whoever would strike down the men of Jebus, let him reach them by way of the water tunnel,^y even these 'lame' and 'blind' whom the soul of David hates!" From this comes the saying, "The blind and the lame cannot get into the house."

⁹So David occupied the fortress and called it, "The City of David." He also did construction work around it from Millo^z and in the interior. ¹⁰David's power kept increasing; the LORD, the God of armies, was with him. ¹¹Hiram king of Tyre sent David messengers and then logs of cedar, with men skilled in carpentry and in stonemasonry for walls, who built David a palace.^a ¹²Thus David recognized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and exalted his kingdom for the sake of Israel, His own people.

¹³From Jerusalem, however, after his move from Hebron, David took more concubines and wives;^b and more sons and daughters were born to David. ¹⁴These are the names^c of the sons born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ¹⁵Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, ¹⁶Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

¹⁷When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they advanced in full force to attack him; but David was informed and went down into his stronghold.^d ¹⁸The Philistines came and spread out in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁹Then David asked

x) The mountain position of the fortress on Zion made it almost impregnable. This fact and its strategic, central location between northern Israel and southern Judah — also its neutral nature — made it an ideal site for David's proposed capital.

y) A concealed passageway cut down through the rock under the city. z) One of the fortifications.

a) In all fairness the world should render much service to the church.

b) Prohibited by law [Deut. 17:17].

c) This list of names appears with two additions and with minor variants in I Chron. 3:5-8 and 14:4-7.

d) The Cave of Adullam [23:13,14], for one goes "up" into Jerusalem. This attack must have come shortly after his anointment as king of all Israel, even before the capture of Zion.

the LORD, "Should I go up against the Philistines? Wilt Thou give them over into my hands?"

The LORD replied to David, "Go up, for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hands." ²⁰So David entered Baalperazim, and as he struck them down there, he exclaimed, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me like a breakthrough of water!" Therefore he named that place Baal-perazim.^e ²¹There they^f even abandoned their idols, and David and his troops carried them off.^g ²²But the Philistines resumed the offensive and spread out in the valley of Rephaim. ²³When David made inquiry of the LORD, He said: Do not go up; circle them to the rear, and come in on them by the front of the balsam trees. ²⁴It shall be that when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, at that instant you shall take the decisive action; for then the LORD will have gone out before you to overwhelm the Philistine army. ²⁵David did as the LORD had ordered him; and he struck down the Philistines from Geba^h to where one enters Gezer.

6 AGAIN DAVID ASSEMBLED ALL THE chosen men of Israel, 30,000. ²And David and all the people who were with him took up the march to Baale of Judahⁱ to bring up from there the ark of God, over which is pronounced the name, the very name of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned between the cherubim. ³They transported it on a new cart, moving it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Moreover, Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the cart with the ark of God, ⁴moving it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Ahio was walking in front of the ark. ⁵Meanwhile, David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the LORD with all kinds of instruments made of cypress wood and with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets, and cymbals. ⁶But when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out toward God's ark and caught hold of it, because the oxen had slipped. ⁷Then the LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and God struck him on the spot for his sacrilege; so he died there beside the ark of God.^j ⁸David was deeply moved at the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; he called that place Perez-uzzah,^k a name kept to the present day. ⁹In his fear at that time toward the LORD, he exclaimed, "How can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?" ¹⁰So David was unwilling to move the LORD's ark into the city of David to be with him, but redirected it to the house of Obed-edom, who had come from Gath. ¹¹The ark of the LORD stayed in the house of Obed-edom of Gath for three months, and the LORD prospered Obed-edom^l along with all his household.

¹²When the report was brought to King David, "The LORD has prospered the household of Obed-edom and all he has because of the ark of God," David again took action and with rejoicing brought God's ark from the house of Obed-edom up to the city of David.^m ¹³As soon as those who were carrying the ark had advanced six steps, he sacrificed an ox and an offering

e) Master of the breakthroughs. f) The Philistines.

g) And burned them [I Chron. 14:12], as required by the law [Deut. 7:5,25].

h) Gibeon [I Chron. 14:16; Isa. 28:21].

i) Known also as Baalah and Kiriath-jearim [I Chron. 13:6], where the ark had stayed in the house of Abinadab [though see I Sam. 14:18] for almost a century, following its capture by the Philistines at the first battle of Eben-ezer and its subsequent return [I Sam. 7:1].

j) Such severity served the purpose of emphasizing for all future generations the necessity of reverence and conforming obedience toward God's sacred objects. Two transgressions combined to produce the situation: (1) The ark should never have been mounted on a cart but carried by hand [Num. 4:15]; (2) The ark itself, to be carried on staves, should not be touched even by its authorized carriers, the priests — on pain of death [Num. 4:15]. Uzzah's intentions were good and his eternal salvation was not involved. k) "The outbreak of Uzzah."

l) A Levite of the family of Korah in the clan of Kohath [I Chron. 26:1,4], and so meeting the requirement for a caretaker of the ark.

m) For this occasion Psalm 24 seems to have been written and set to music. It illustrates Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and His being welcomed in our hearts.

of a fatling ¹⁴and continued dancing before the LORD with all his might. He was wearing a white linen ephod.ⁿ ¹⁵David and the whole nation of Israel were bringing up the LORD's ark with shouting and the sound of rams' horns. ¹⁶But as the ark of the LORD made its entrance into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looking down through a window, saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.

¹⁷So they brought in the ark of the LORD, and when they had put it in its place inside the tent which David had pitched for it, the king offered burnt offerings and peace offerings in the presence of the LORD. ¹⁸And when David had finished the sacrifice of burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. ¹⁹Furthermore, he made an allotment to all the people, to the whole population of Israel, both men and women: a ring-shaped loaf of bread, a package of dates, and a cake of raisins to each person. After this the people returned to their respective homes, ²⁰and David went back to bless his household.

But Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet David with the remark, "How glorious the king of Israel looked today, uncovering himself this day to be ogled by the female servants of his followers, as some worthless fellow would strip himself!" ²¹David replied to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me in preference to your father and in preference to his whole house; He confirmed me as leader over Israel, the people of the LORD, and I intend to show my joy before the LORD. ²²I will even be more dishonored than this; I am willing to be humbled in my own eyes; though with those servant girls about whom you talk, with them I will still be held in honor." ²³Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.^o

7 AFTER THE KING HAD COME TO live in his palace and the LORD had given him rest on every side from his enemies,^p ²he said to Nathan the prophet, "See here! I am living in a cedar palace while the ark of God resides within tent curtains." ³Nathan replied to the king, "Go ahead with whatever you have in mind and do it, because the LORD is with you."^q ⁴But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: ⁵Go, tell My servant David, The LORD has spoken thus: Are you the one who is to build Me a temple for My residence?^r ⁶From the time I brought the nation of Israel out of Egypt up to the present, I have lived in no house; I have been traveling about in a tent for a dwelling. ⁷Yet at any point in My journeying with the whole nation of Israel, did I ever say a word to any one of the tribes of Israel, to whom I committed the leadership of My people Israel, to the effect, Why have you not built Me a cedar temple? ⁸But now this is what you are to say to My servant David, The LORD of hosts has thus spoken:

I personally took you from the pasture, from following the flock, to be leader over My people, over Israel. ⁹I have been with you in all that you have undertaken; I have eliminated all your enemies from before you; also I will make for you a great name equal in reputation to that of the great men on earth. ¹⁰I will moreover establish a place for My people Israel and plant them so that they shall inhabit their own land with no more disturbance and no more continued oppression by the unrighteous as at the first,^s ¹¹from the time when I appointed judges over My people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies. Now the LORD informs you that He is building a house for you.^t ¹²When your days are over and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up your posterity after you, produced from your own body; and I

n) Hebrew ephod. Possibly such a cape as the boy Samuel wore [I Sam. 2:18].

o) To the oriental woman, the severest possible punishment.

p) This chapter should chronologically come after ch. 8. The two are closely paralleled by I Chron. 17:18.

q) This statement was based on Nathan's personal judgment, not on divine revelation.

r) David had been disqualified because of his warfare [I Chron. 22:8; 28:3]. s) In Egypt.

t) A dynasty, culminating in the birth of the Messiah.

will confirm his sovereignty. ¹³He, then, will build a house for My name,^u and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever; ¹⁴so I will be for him a Father, and he shall be to Me a son.^v But when your son does what is wrong, I will correct him with a rod as men must be corrected and with the strokes that come on the sons of Adam, ¹⁵though My mercy shall not leave him as it left Saul, whom I removed before you. ¹⁶Thus your house and your kingdom shall stand firm before Me forever. Your throne is eternally established. ¹⁷In accordance with all these words and all this vision, Nathan delivered the message to David.

¹⁸Then King David, after he had come in,^w remained in the LORD's presence and prayed, "Who am I, LORD God, and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me to this point?" ¹⁹Then, as though this were still a little thing in Thine eyes, O LORD God, Thou hast spoken also of the house of Thy servant in the far distant future. Is such treatment the standard for men, O LORD God? ²⁰What can David say further in speaking with Thee, since Thou knowest what Thy servant is like, O LORD God! ²¹It is for the sake of Thy promises and in accordance with Thy decree that Thou hast wrought all these astounding things in informing Thy servant. ²²Surely, Thou art great, O LORD God; for there is none like Thee; nor is there any God apart from Thyself, according to all that has come to our ears.

²³"Who, moreover, is like Thy people, like Israel, a nation unique upon the earth, whom God went to redeem to be a people for Himself and so enhanced His own name, doing for them great things and terrible, for Thy land before Thy people whom Thou didst redeem for Thyself from Egypt, and from nations and their gods?" ²⁴Yes, Thou hast established for Thyself Thy people Israel to be Thine own people forever, and Thou, O LORD, Thou hast become their God.^x ²⁵Now, O LORD God, confirm for eternity what Thou hast spoken about Thy servant and his house. Do according to Thy pledge ²⁶that Thy name may be forever great, as they say, 'The LORD of Hosts, He is God over Israel'; when the house of Thy servant David shall be established before Thee. ²⁷For Thou, LORD of hosts, God of Israel, Thou hast revealed to Thy servant, 'A house' I will build for you'; accordingly, Thy servant has found courage to pray to Thee this prayer. ²⁸Surely, O LORD God, Thou art God; Thy words are truth, and Thou hast promised this good thing to Thy servant. ²⁹Now may it please Thee to bless the house of Thy servant, that it may continue forever before Thee; because Thou, O LORD God, hast spoken, and because of Thy blessing the house of Thy servant shall indeed be eternally blessed."

1002 to 995 B.C.

8 IN PROCESS OF TIME DAVID OVERcame the Philistines and humbled them, seizing the bridle of their mother city^z from Philistine control. ²He struck down Moab; he made them lie on the ground and measured them with a line, designating two parts for death, but one other full part to be spared alive.^a So Moab became David's, as a subject people paying tribute. ³David also defeated Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when the latter attempted to restore his power at the Euphrates River.^b ⁴David took captive 1,000 of his chariots, 700 cavalry and

u) Done by Solomon [I Kings 5:5].

v) Referring finally to Jesus Christ, the promised Descendant of David [Luke 1:32,33], who as God's Son occupies the eternal throne [Heb. 1:5]; see also Ps. 2:7; Acts 13:33; and Heb. 5:5. I Chron. 22:10, which seems to apply these words to Solomon, appears to be simply quoting the entire passage as context, since II Sam. 7:13 and the last part of vs. 14 do in fact refer to Solomon and could not apply to Christ. w) To the tent sanctuary he had erected [6:17].

x) These last words are the central promise of the Testaments [Gen. 17:7; Exod. 6:7; and Rev. 21:3]. y) Not a building, like the "house" David wished to build for God, but a dynasty.

z) Gath, I Chron. 18:1, then chief among their five main cities.

a) In this way their fighting men were divided mathematically into three parts, two of the groups being then ruthlessly butchered. Such behavior was the main reason why David must not build the temple; he was "a man of blood."

b) See 10:16-18, the second defeat of the Syrians; the verses of this chapter summarize the full account in 10:6-19. Aram reached further east than Syria; but what we know as Syria was Aram's western territory.

20,000 infantry, and he hamstrung all his chariot horses, reserving only enough for 100 chariots. ⁵Then when Syrian Damascus came to the aid of Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 of the men of Syria and went on to station garrisons in the city. ⁶So Syria became David's as a subject people paying tribute. The LORD gave David the victory everywhere he went. ⁷David, moreover, took the golden shields which had been carried by Hadadezer's officers and brought them to Jerusalem ⁸and from Bethah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David exacted an immense amount of bronze.^c ⁹When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had overcome all the forces of Hadadezer, ¹⁰he sent his son Joram to King David to greet him and to extend congratulations over the battle in which he had beaten Hadadezer, because Hadadezer had repeatedly been at war with Toi. With him were sent articles of silver, gold, and bronze, ¹¹which King David proceeded to devote to the LORD, along with the silver and gold which he had consecrated from all the countries he had subdued, ¹²from Edom, Moab, the people of Ammon, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the booty of Hadadezer the son of Hehob king of Zobah.

¹³David, moreover, earned a name for himself at his return from striking down eighteen thousand^d troops of Edom in the Valley of Salt. ¹⁴He then posted garrisons in Edom, stationing them throughout the country, so that all the Edomites became subject to David. Surely the LORD gave David the victory wherever he went. ¹⁵So David reigned over all Israel, executing justice and maintaining the right for all his people. ¹⁶Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the armed forces; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

¹⁷Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was secretary; ¹⁸Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were assisting chiefs.^e

9 DAVID MADE INQUIRY, "IS THERE still anyone left of the house of Saul to whom I may show kindness for Jonathan's sake?" ²Now Saul's family had a steward named Ziba, whom they summoned to David. The king addressed him, "Are you Ziba?" "At your service," was his reply. ³The king went on, "Is there not yet some member of Saul's house to whom I may show God's kindness?"^f Ziba told the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan, with lame feet."^g ⁴"Where is he?" asked the king. To this Ziba replied, "You will find him at the house of Machir the son of Ammiel in Lo-debar." ⁵So King David sent to bring him from Lo-debar out of the house of Machir son of Ammiel.

⁶When Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, came to David, he prostrated himself, falling on his face; but David said to him, "Mephibosheth!" He answered, "Here is your servant." ⁷David told him, "Have no fear, for I will show you sincere kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. Moreover, I am restoring to you all the land of your grandfather Saul; and you on your part may regularly eat food at my table." ⁸Again he prostrated himself, exclaiming, "What is your servant that you have regarded such a dead dog as myself?" ⁹Then the king called Saul's steward, Ziba, with the orders, "All that belonged to Saul and his family I have given to your master's grandson; ¹⁰work the land for him, you and your sons and servants, and bring in the produce, so that the heir of your master may have food

c) This was used by Solomon in building the temple [I Chron. 18:8]. Note other accumulations of David for the temple [I Chron. 22:2-5, 14, 15].

d) The title to Ps. 60, which mentions Joab, the brother and superior of Abishai as the general, says 12,000 were slain. Compare I Chron. 18:12.

e) Parallel passage [I Chron. 18:17] "and the sons of David were chiefs at the side of the king," which means, helping him.

f) David had sworn to Jonathan before God to care for his family [I Sam. 20:14-17]; see also 23:18; but Mephibosheth did not know that and feared revenge. g) See 4:4 and note.

to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, shall eat food regularly at my table." Ziba had fifteen sons, along with twenty servants; ¹¹and he responded to the king, "Your servant will do all that my master the king commands his servant." So Mephibosheth ate at David's table as one of the king's sons. ¹²Mephibosheth, by this time, had a little son named Mica. Thus all those that made up the household of Ziba became servants of Mephibosheth; ¹³Mephibosheth himself, however, lived in Jerusalem because he was dining regularly at the king's table.^h He was lame in both feet.

About 995 B.C.

10 IN THE COURSE OF EVENTS THE king of the Ammonites died,ⁱ and his son Hanun succeeded him on the throne. ²David announced, "I will show friendship to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father did to me."^j David therefore sent by his attendants to console him about his father. But when David's embassy arrived in the land of the Ammonites, ³that nation's officials advised their ruler Hanun, "Do you think it is to honor your father that he has sent you comforters? Is it not rather to get the lay of the city and to spy in it, so he can overthrow it, that David has sent his servants to you?" ⁴So Hanun took David's attendants, shaved off half their beards, cut off their robes halfway, just below the belt, and dismissed them. ⁵When it was told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly humiliated. The king directed them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow out; then you can come back."

⁶When the Ammonites realized how seriously they had antagonized David against themselves, they sent and enlisted as mercenary troops twenty thousand Syrian infantry of Beth-rehob and of Zobah, also a thousand under the king of Maacah, and twelve thousand from the men of Tob. ⁷David heard about it and dispatched Joab with the entire army, the mighty men. ⁸The people of Ammon came out and drew up ranks for the conflict at the entrance of the gate,^k while Syrians of Zobah and Rehob, together with the men of Tob and Maacah, were posted separately in the field. ⁹But Joab, upon his discovery that the battle front was against him both in front and in the rear, picked a force out of all the men selected in Israel and spread them out to engage the Syrians; ¹⁰the rest of the troops he assigned to the command of his brother Abishai to form for battle against the Ammonites. ¹¹"If the Syrians prove too strong for me," he said, "you are to be my support; but if the Ammonites prove too strong for you, then I will come to your defense. ¹²Keep up your courage, and let us show strength for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God! Then let the LORD do what is good in His sight!"^l ¹³So Joab and his forces took up the attack against the Syrians and routed them. ¹⁴The Ammonites, too, when they saw the Syrians in flight, ran before Abishai and took refuge in the city. Then Joab broke off the campaign against the Ammonites and returned to Jerusalem.^m ¹⁵But when the Syrians sensed their defeat at the hands of Israel they drew together, ¹⁶and Hadadezer sent and summoned the Arameans that were beyond the riverⁿ to assemble at Helam. Shobach, general of Hadadezer's army, was made commander. ¹⁷David, on being informed, mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan and advanced on Helam. The Syrians drew up in array to engage David and joined battle against him. ¹⁸Again Syria was routed before Israel, and David destroyed of Syria seven hundred chariots and forty thousand cavalry.^o He struck down

^h) To have a no-kin cripple daily at a royal palace was something unheard of.

ⁱ) Chs. 10-12, except for David's crime with Bathsheba, are paralleled by I Chron. 19-20:3.

^j) This could hardly be the same Nahash with whom Saul had fought fifty-five years before (I Sam. 11), but may have been a son, who probably helped David against Saul.

^k) Of their capital city Rabbah; comp. 11:1. ^l) Combination of faith and works.

^m) Too late in the year to undertake a siege; see 11:1.

ⁿ) East of the Euphrates, beyond the regular bounds of Syria.

^o) Perhaps read better with I Chron. 19:18, "7,000 chariotry and 40,000 infantry."

Shobach, the commander of their forces, so that he died there. ¹⁹As a result, all the kings under Hadadezer, when they saw that they were overwhelmed before Israel, made peace with Israel and became subject to them. Syria feared to send further aid to the people of Ammon.

11 THE FOLLOWING YEAR, AT THE time when kings march forth,^p David sent out his officers under Joab with all Israel to devastate the Ammonites. They proceeded to lay siege to Rabbah, but David stayed in Jerusalem.^q ²Then one evening David got up from his couch and walked about on the roof of the royal palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing, and she was exceptionally beautiful. ³David sent to make inquiry about the woman and received the reply, "Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hittite?"^r ⁴David ordered messengers to get her, and when she had come to him, he lay with her — she had purified herself from her uncleanness.^s Then she went back to her house.

⁵The woman conceived and informed David, sending the message, "I am with child." ⁶David's move was to communicate with Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." Joab accordingly sent Uriah to David. ⁷When Uriah reached him, David asked about the success of Joab, the troops, and the fighting. ⁸after which he said, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet."^t Uriah indeed went out of the royal palace, with a present from the king following him; ⁹but he lay down at the entrance to the king's house with all his commander's officers and would not go down to his own home. ¹⁰When David was informed, "Uriah did not go down to his house," he asked him,

"Have you not come in from a journey? Why did you not go down to your home?" ¹¹But Uriah replied to David, "The ark^u and Israel and Judah are staying in makeshift shelters, and my superior, Joab, and his officers are camping in the open field. Should I, then, go to my house to eat and drink and be with my wife? I swear by your life, by the life of your soul, I shall do no such thing!" ¹²David answered Uriah, "Stay here today too, and tomorrow I will send you off." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next. ¹³David called him to eat and drink in his presence and got him drunk; but in the evening he still went out to lie on his couch with his commander's officers and refrained from going down to his house. ¹⁴So it came about that David next morning wrote a message to Joab, sending it by the hand of Uriah. ¹⁵The message he had written was, "Put Uriah in the front line of the heaviest fighting; then withdraw from behind him so that he will be struck down and killed."

¹⁶The result was that Joab, as he was besieging the city, stationed Uriah in the position where he knew the enemy was in force. ¹⁷Then when the men of the city attacked and joined battle with Joab, there fell some of the troops of David's followers; and among the dead was Uriah the Hittite.^v ¹⁸Joab subsequently sent and reported to David on the full events of the fighting. ¹⁹He instructed the messenger, "When you finish telling the king all about the matters of the war, ²⁰if the king gets angry and asks you, 'Why did you draw so near the city to fight? Didn't you know how they would shoot from the wall?' ²¹Who was it struck down Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth?"^w Was it not a woman who threw an upper millstone on him

p) Spring, after the rainy season. q) Premature retirement; he belonged with his warriors.

r) In 23:39, one of the "Thirty," David's distinguished soldiers.

s) Of menstruation [Lev. 15:19]. Polygamy, prohibited also to kings [Deut. 17:17], seems to have deadened David's moral sense. His crime is inexcusable and was at first punishable with death [Lev. 20:10], though God later relaxed the penalty because of the hardness of men's hearts [Matt. 19:8]. t) That is, rest, and spend the night with his wife, to cover up David's crime.

u) Apparently carried in battle; note 15:24-25 and I Sam. 4:3.

v) Joab thus joined David in his treachery, and David lost his true leadership.

w) Abimelech's father, Gideon [Judg. 9:50-54]. He was given the name Jerubbaal [Judg. 6:32]. But here a form of the Hebrew word for shame, bosheth, is substituted for the name of the shameful idol, Baal; see 2:8, footnote.

from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?—then tell him, ‘Your servant, Uriah the Hittite, he too is dead.’”

²²The messenger made the trip, came in and informed David about all for which Joab had sent him. ²³The messenger explained to David, “The men indeed got the advantage over us; they attacked us in the field, and when we had them backed right up to the entrance of the gate, ²⁴then the archers shot from the wall at your servants. Some of the king’s soldiers died; and your servant, Uriah the Hittite, he too is dead.” ²⁵David told the messenger, “Tell Joab, ‘Do not let this affair worry you; the sword consumes now this way, now that; press your attack against the city more strongly and overthrow it.’ And so encourage him.”

²⁶When Uriah’s wife heard that her husband Uriah had died, she made lamentation over her master. ²⁷But after the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his own house, where she became his wife and bore him a son. But what David had done was wrong in the sight of the LORD.^x

About 993 B.C.

12 ¹TO DAVID THEN THE LORD SENT Nathan, who came and told him this story: “There were two men in a certain city, one of whom was rich and the other poor. ²The rich man had flocks and herds in great numbers; ³but the poor man had nothing at all except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nurtured, so that it grew up with him, along with his children. It ate its part of his little food, drank out of his cup, and lay down in his arms; it was like a daughter to him. ⁴Then a traveler came to the rich man who, unwilling to take an animal out of his own flock or herd for the use of his traveling guest, took the poor man’s lamb to prepare for his visitor.” ⁵David’s anger was greatly aroused against the man. He said to Nathan, “As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die! ⁶He must also make that ewe lamb good four times over,^y because of this thing he has done and because he has shown no pity!”

⁷Nathan then said to David, “You are the man!^z Here is what the LORD God of Israel has pronounced: I Myself anointed you as king over Israel. It was I who rescued you out of the hand of Saul ⁸and turned over your master’s household to you, even delivering the wives of your former sovereign into your power. I transferred to you the nation of Israel and of Judah, and if that were not enough, I would advance you in many more ways. ⁹Why have you despised the LORD’s commandment by doing what is wrong in His sight? Uriah the Hittite you have struck down with the sword, and his wife you have taken to be your wife; you murdered him by the sword of the Ammonites. ¹⁰So now, because you despised Me and stole the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be yours, the sword shall not turn away from your household. ¹¹Specifically, the LORD has declared: Observe now, I am raising up trouble against you from within your own family; I am going to take your wives from before your eyes and give them to your associate, who will use your wives as concubines with this sun shining on it. ¹²As for you, you have acted in secret; but I will have this done with all Israel looking on, in broad daylight.” ¹³David confessed before Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.”^a Accordingly Nathan assured David, “The LORD on His part has taken away your sin; you will not die.^b ¹⁴Nevertheless, because you have provided by this action such an opportunity for the enemies of the LORD to ridicule, the son born to you must surely die.”^c

x) David had invited temptation. With much to eat and to drink and no great task, he experienced “the destruction that wastes at noonday.” y) So the law in Exod. 22:1.

z) Usually what we object to most in others is our own chief weakness; it is a mirror of our lives; therefore we notice it so readily in others.

a) Compare Ps. 51, David’s great confession to God at this time, and Ps. 32, in which he describes his feelings of guilt before confession and his joy at pardon.

b) God is a forgiving Father, in the O.T. as well as in the New.

c) Although forgiven, the sinner has to suffer discipline.

¹⁶After Nathan had returned to his house, the LORD struck with sickness the boy whom Uriah's wife had borne to David. ¹⁶David appealed to God for the child; moreover, David began to fast; he went in and lay all night on the ground.^d ¹⁷The older men of his household tried to raise him up from the ground; but he would not, nor would he eat any food with them. ¹⁸Finally, on the seventh day the boy died; but David's attendants were afraid to tell him the child was dead, because they reasoned, "See here! If we spoke to him while the child was alive and he paid no attention to what we said, how may he harm himself if we tell him the child has met death?" ¹⁹But David caught sight of his attendants whispering together, realized that the boy had died, and asked them point-blank, "Is the child dead?" They replied, "He is dead."

²⁰Then David got up from the ground, washed, anointed himself, changed his clothes, went into the LORD's house and bowed in worship. Re-entering his palace, he made it known that they should serve him food, which he proceeded to eat. ²¹His attendants inquired of him, "What does this mean that you have done? For the living child you fasted and wept, but once the child was dead, you arose and took food!" ²²His reply was, "As long as the child was living, I did fast and weep, because I said, 'Who knows but the LORD may grant me mercy and let the child live?'" ²³But now he is dead, and what would be the point of my fasting? Could I bring him back again? No, I shall go to him; but he will not come back to me."^e ²⁴David, moreover, consoled his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her. Thus she bore him a son whom he named Solomon.^f The LORD loved him ²⁵and sent word by the prophet Nathan, who named him Jedidiah,^g for the LORD's sake.

²⁶Meanwhile, Joab had fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and had taken possession of the capital city. ²⁷At the same time Joab had dispatched messengers to David with the report, "I have fought against Rabbah and taken the part of the city by the water. ²⁸But now muster the rest of the troops and deploy against the city to complete its capture, so that I personally may not receive its surrender and have it called by my name." ²⁹David accordingly mustered all the forces, marched to Rabbah, fought against it, and completed its capture. ³⁰From the head of Maltam he took away the crown, the weight of which was ninety-two pounds^h in gold, plus a precious stone, and it was placed on David's own head. He also carried off the plunder of the city in great quantity; ³¹and the people that were in it he brought out and put to labor with saws and iron picks and axes, forcing them to keep working at the brick-molds. This he did to all the cities of the Ammonites, after which David and his whole army returned to Jerusalem.

About 990 B.C.

13 AFTER THIS, IT DEVELOPED that David's son Amnon fell in love with a beautiful sister of David's son Absalom, whose name was Tamar.¹ ²Amnon felt so frustrated about his sister Tamar that it made him ill, because she was a virgin, and it seemed to Amnon impossible to get in touch with her. ³But Amnon had a friend named Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, and Jonadab was a shrewd person. ⁴He observed to him, "Why this wasting away morning after morning, you king's son; would you

d) There seems to have been no floor.

e) A comforting truth for all believing parents who have lost children, revealing such faith in O.T. times.

f) I Chron. 3:5 shows that Solomon was the fourth son of David and Bathsheba; two sons and at least three years must have separated the birth of the child that died from that of Solomon.

g) Beloved of Jehovah.

h) Troy weight; Hebrew: one talent, or about 75 lb. avoirdupois. The crown could not have been worn by a man, Maltam being the leading Ammonite idol [Zeph. 1:5]. The name was also spelled Milcom [I Kings 11:5,33].

i) This depraved passion of David's oldest son for his half sister follows in the wake of David's own immoralities. Jonadab's "you king's son" [vs. 4], suggested that Amnon might take liberties similar to his father's.

not tell me?" Amnon confessed to him, "It is Tamar, sister of my brother Absalom; I am in love with her!" ⁵Jonadab went on to suggest to him, "Lie down on your couch, and make out that you are sick. Your father will come to see you; then say to him, 'Oh please, let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat. Have her fix the meal before my eyes, so that I may be able to see what I eat from her hand!'"

⁶Amnon, accordingly, lay down and pretended illness. When the king came to see him, Amnon repeated to him, "Oh please, let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes before my eyes; then I may be able to eat from her hand!" ⁷David sent to the palace to Tamar,¹ with the instructions, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house and prepare food for him." ⁸So Tamar came to the house of her brother Amnon, where he was lying, took the dough, kneaded it, made cakes before his eyes, and baked them. ⁹But when she took the pan and served them up before him, he refused to eat. Instead, Amnon demanded, "Every man out of my presence!" So they all withdrew.

¹⁰Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom so I may eat from your hand." Tamar accordingly took the cakes she had made and brought them into the bedroom to her brother Amnon. ¹¹But when she offered them to him to eat, he took hold of her and ordered her, "Come in, my sister, lie with me!" ¹²She pleaded with him, "Oh no, my brother, do not force me; for this sort of thing must not be done in Israel! Not this disgraceful act!" ¹³As for me, where could I get rid of my shame? And you, on your part, would you become like one of that immoral pack in Israel? Just speak to the king now, because he would not refuse my becoming yours." ¹⁴But he would not listen to her words; he was stronger than she and forced her, lying with her.

¹⁵Then at once Amnon's feelings turned to bitterest hatred; indeed, the hatred with which he hated her surpassed the love with which he had loved her.^k Amnon dismissed her, "Get up, and get out!" ¹⁶She cried to him, "Surely you would not be the cause of such a wrong, more terrible even than the other you have done to me, to drive me away!" But he would not listen to her ¹⁷and called the attendant who waited on him, "Come, get this woman outside, out of my sight; and lock the door behind her!"

¹⁸Now she had on a long-sleeved dress that reached to the feet, because that was the sort of robe the virgin daughters of the king were accustomed to wear. And his attendant drove her outside, bolting the door after her. ¹⁹Tamar sprinkled ashes on her head, tore the seams of the full-length dress she was wearing, placed her hand on her head,¹ and went wailing on her way.

²⁰Her brother Absalom talked with her, "Was it your brother Amnon who was with you? Now, my sister, calm yourself; he is your brother; do not take this deed so much to heart!" But Tamar remained a desolate woman in her brother Absalom's house. ²¹When King David heard of all these things, he was furious; ²²but Absalom exchanged not a word with Amnon, either bad or good; for Absalom lived in hatred of Amnon because of the way he had forced his sister Tamar.

²³Two full years later, when Absalom had sheepshearers^m at Baal-hazor near Ephraim, it came about that Absalom issued an invitation to all the king's sons. ²⁴He came in before the king with the request, "See now! Your servant has some men shearing sheep; may the king and his attendants be pleased to come with your servant." ²⁵David replied to Absalom, "I am sorry, my son; but if we all came it would be too great a burden on you." Even when he pressed him, the king

j) David of all men should have seen through the scheme, but his sin had deadened his discernment.

k) There had been no love, but only animal desire; hence the repulsive feeling when that desire had been satisfied. 1) Signs of deep mourning [Esther 4:1; Jer. 2:37].

m) A tirae for keeping festivals [I Sam. 25:2,8].

would not go, though he did wish him well. ²⁶So Absalom went on to suggest, "If you cannot, at least let my brother Amnon come with us." The king questioned him, "And why should he go with you?" ²⁷But when Absalom insisted, he sent Amnon with him, together with all the king's sons.

²⁸Absalom proceeded to issue instructions to his servants, "Keep watch now as Amnon's heart gets merry with wine and when I tell you, 'Strike down Amnon,' then kill him. Be not afraid; am I not the one who gives you the orders? Have courage; be brave!" ²⁹Absalom's servants did to him as Absalom had ordered, at which all the king's sons got up, mounted their mules, and fled.ⁿ

³⁰While they were still on the way, the report reached David, "Absalom has struck down all the sons of the king; not one is left!" ³¹The king arose, tore his clothes, and fell prostrate to the ground, with all his attendants standing around with their garments similarly rent. ³²Then Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, spoke up, "Let not my sovereign suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons; because it is Amnon alone who is dead. Judging from Absalom's looks, this has been planned from the day he forced his sister Tamar. ³³Now let there not weigh upon the heart of my master the king any such thought as, 'All the sons of the king have perished'; because it is really Amnon alone who is dead."

³⁴Then, as Absalom was getting away, the young man who was on watch looked up and saw a large company approaching from the way of the mountain side behind him. ³⁵Jonadab explained to the king, "See, the king's sons have arrived; it was as your servant said." ³⁶He had barely finished his speaking when the king's sons arrived. They raised their voices in weeping; the king too, with all his attendants, wept most loudly. ³⁷Absalom, meanwhile, made good his escape and came to Talmai son of Ammihur, the king of Geshur.^o David kept mourning over his son day after day; ³⁸but Absalom, having fled and having reached Geshur, stayed there for three years. ³⁹Then King David's heart longed for Absalom, for in time he had reconciled himself to the death of Amnon.

14 JOAB THE SON OF ZERUAH knew that the king's heart went out toward Absalom. ²So Joab sent to Tekoa and from that place he summoned a certain wise woman. He requested of her, "Come, play the part of a mourner; dress yourself now in mourning clothes; do not anoint yourself with oil, but be like a woman who has been many days in mourning over someone dead. ³Then appear before the king and address him as follows," and Joab put the words into her mouth. ⁴So the Tekoa woman came in before the king. After she had bowed with her face to the ground and prostrated herself, she presented her message, "Save me, O king!" ⁵The king asked her, "What is your trouble?" "Alas, I am a widow," she said. "My husband is dead ⁶and your maidservant had two sons. But the two fought each other in the field; there was nobody to separate them, and one of them struck the other down and killed him. ⁷Now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, demanding, 'Hand over the man who struck down his own brother, so we can execute him for the life of the brother he murdered'; — and at the same time destroy the heir. They would even put out my one burning coal that is left, so as to leave my husband neither name nor heir on the face of the earth!"

⁸The king assured the woman, "Go back to your house, and I will give orders on your behalf." ⁹But the Tekoa woman persisted with the king, "On me be the guilt and on my father's house, my master and king, while the

n) Incest, then murder. As David had ruined a home, so was his home ruined — the law of retribution. o) His maternal grandfather [3:3].

king and his throne stand innocent."^p ¹⁰The king replied, "Whoever raises a question with you, bring him to me, and he will not give you any more trouble!" ¹¹Still she continued, "Oh, let the king invoke the LORD your God so that the avenger of blood^q may not add to the slaughter and so they will not destroy my son." "As the LORD lives," he then said, "not a hair of your son shall fall to the ground."

¹²Upon this, the woman said, "I pray you then, allow your maidservant to mention a matter to my master the king." "Talk on," he agreed. ¹³"Why is it," asked the woman, "that you have considered such a thing as you have against the people of God? In the king's pronouncing this judgment just now, he becomes one who condemns himself, because the king does not bring back his own who has been driven away. ¹⁴For we all must die and are then like water spilled on the earth which cannot be recovered. God, however, does not sweep away life, but rather takes measures so as not to keep the banished away from Himself."

¹⁵So now, my coming to present this case to the king my master was because the people made me afraid; and your maidservant resolved, 'I am going to speak to the king. Perhaps the king will perform his servant's request.' ¹⁶Surely the king will agree to rescue his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy both myself and my son from God's inheritance.^s ¹⁷So your maidservant has requested, 'Please, may the decision of my master the king be one that sets the situation at ease; because as the Angel of God,^t so is my master the king, to discern right and wrong.' The LORD your God be with you."

¹⁸Then the king answered the woman, "Please do not hide from me what I am going to ask you." The woman replied, "Oh, let my master the king speak!" ¹⁹The king went on, "Is the hand of Joab behind you in all this?"^u The woman therefore confessed, "As sure as your life, O my master and king, one cannot turn to either the right or the left from exactly what my master the king has said! For it was your servant Joab who gave me the orders; he is the one who put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant. ²⁰It was to place the matter in a different light that your servant Joab did this thing, but my master has perception like the wisdom of the Angel of God, so as to know everything on the earth!"

²¹David told Joab, "Look here! I have decided for this thing. So go and bring the young man Absalom back!" ²²Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself, and was profuse in his gratitude toward the king. "Today," Joab said, "your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, O my master and king, because the king has granted his servant's request." ²³Then Joab arose, went to Geshur, and brought back Absalom to Jerusalem. ²⁴Still, the king directed, "Let him turn aside into his house; he is not to see my face."^v

Absalom, accordingly, lived at his own house and did not come into the king's presence. ²⁵Throughout Israel there was not a man so much to be praised for his looks as was Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was not a defect in him. ²⁶When he cut his hair, which he did at the end of every year because it became too heavy for him

p) A pardon from David for an unpremeditated crime would not have been sufficient to urge the king as reason why he should forgive Absalom. She therefore induced David to grant a pardon against a more serious guilt and to confirm it by invoking God in an oath. She thus left him no valid excuse for not similarly receiving Absalom back.

q) A close relative, who might take the punishing into his own hands [Num. 35:16-21].

r) That is, "If you do not seek Absalom soon, you may never be able to. Compare how God seeks wandering men." The woman then reverts to her original story. s) Israel; see I Sam. 26:19.

t) Israel's infallible guide [Exod. 23:20-21]. The Angel of God is more than an ordinary angel. Though distinct from God the Father, He is yet possessed of the attributes of deity and is identified with God, Christ pre-incarnate. Compare Gen. 16:7-13; Exod. 3:2-5.

u) It would therefore appear that Joab had made other efforts on Absalom's behalf; though why, we are not told.

v) Halfway forgiveness is worse than no forgiveness [vs. 32]. This must have contributed to Absalom's later rebellion.

and he had to cut it, the hair of his head weighed over three pounds^w according to the royal standard. ²⁷There were born to Absalom three sons^x and one daughter, named Tamar, who became a woman of beautiful appearance.

²⁸After he had lived in Jerusalem two full years without seeing the king's face, ²⁹Absalom summoned Joab to send him to the king; but Joab would not come to him. He sent a second time, but still the general would not come. ³⁰Therefore Absalom ordered his servants, "Look at Joab's field that adjoins mine, the one there with his barley; go and set fire to it!" So Absalom's servants set the field on fire. ³¹Joab leaped to his feet, and when he had come to Absalom at his house, he protested to him, "Why have your servants set fire to my field?" ³²Absalom answered Joab, "Now look! I sent to you with the message, 'Come here; so I can send you to the king to ask, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there!"' Now therefore, let me go into the presence of the king, and if there is something wrong with me, let him put me to death!" ³³Then Joab went in and told the king, who summoned Absalom. Absalom came to the king and prostrated himself in his presence on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

983-979 B.C.

15 AFTER THIS ABSALOM APPOINTED for himself a chariot and horses and fifty men to run before him.^y ²Moreover, Absalom would get up early and stand by the entrance to the gate,^z and whenever a man had a suit to come before the king for judgment, Absalom would call out to him, "From what city are you?" He would answer, "Your servant is from such and such of the tribes of Israel." ³Absalom would tell him, "See, your claims are good and right; but you have nobody from the king to hear you." ⁴Absalom would go on to say, "Oh, if only I were set up as judge in the land! Then any man with a case or a judgment could come to me, and I would see that he got justice!" ⁵Furthermore, whenever a man approached to prostrate himself before him, he would extend his hand, lift him up, and kiss him. ⁶Absalom acted like this for all the Israelites who were coming to the king for judgment, and so he stole away the loyalty of the men of Israel.

⁷And so it was at the end of four years that Absalom said to the king, "Let me go, I beg of you, to perform my vow which I promised the LORD in Hebron. ⁸For your servant made a vow while I was living at Geshur in Syria, 'If the LORD will restore, will surely restore me to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.'"^a ⁹The king gave him permission, "Go in peace." So he left and went to Hebron.

¹⁰Absalom proceeded to place agitators throughout the tribes of Israel, bearing the message, "When you hear the sound of the trumpet, then say, 'Absalom has become king in Hebron!'" ¹¹With Absalom, however, there went two hundred men from Jerusalem who had been invited and accompanied him innocently, knowing nothing of the plot. ¹²At the time of his offering the sacrifices, Absalom also summoned Ahithophel of Giloh, David's counselor,^b from Giloh, his city. Thus the conspiracy spread and the people with Absalom kept increasing.

¹³When a messenger brought David word, saying, "The allegiance of the men of Israel has been transferred to Absalom," ¹⁴David ordered all his followers who were in Jerusalem with him, "Get up! We must flee or none of us shall escape from Absalom! Hurry and leave, lest he make speed and

w) Hebrew: 200 shekels.

x) The sons are not named, for they died before reaching maturity [18:18].

y) Signs of assuming royal power [I Sam. 8:11]. Weakness on the part of David is indicated by his failure to check his son. z) Where judicial cases were decided [Deut. 21:19; 22:15].

a) A hypocritical lie.

b) Both Ahithophel and his opponent, Hushai, had been members of David's "cabinet" [I Chron. 27:33]. Possibly Ahithophel's turning against David was because he was Bathsheba's grandfather; see 11:3 and 23:34.

overtake us, force disaster upon us, and cut down the city with the edge of the sword!" ¹⁵The king's servants then responded to their ruler, "Whatever my master the king decides, we are at your service." ¹⁶So the king departed, with all his household following him, though he left behind ten concubines to keep the palace.

¹⁷But as the king and all the people that were at his heels left, they paused at the last house. ¹⁸While all his attendants were passing along beside him, and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites,^c and all the six hundred Gittites who had followed him from Gath^d were marching in advance of the king, ¹⁹the king asked Ittai of Gath,^e "What are you doing, coming with us? Go back, and be with the king because you are a foreigner; indeed, you are an exile from your own land. ²⁰Your coming was but as yesterday and should I today force you to wander with us, when I am moving, who knows where? Return and take back your fellow countrymen. Kindness and faithfulness be with you!" ²¹But Ittai answered the king, "As the LORD lives and as surely as my master the king lives, wherever my master the king is, whether for death or for life, there shall your servant be!" ²²So David replied to Ittai, "Go, then; pass on!" Thus Ittai of Gath marched along with all his men, together with the children who were with him. ²³While all the people were passing by, the entire countryside was loudly weeping; and when the king crossed over the brook Kidron, all the people crossed too, in the direction of the desert.^f

²⁴Then see! Zadok and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of God's covenant. They had set down the ark and Abiathar had come up, until the people had all finished crossing over from the city. ²⁵But the king instructed Zadok, "Return God's ark to the city. If I find favor in the LORD's eyes, He will restore me and have me see both it and its shrine; ²⁶if, on the other hand, He says this: I have no pleasure in you, then here I am, and He can do with me whatever seems best to Him." ²⁷The king continued to Zadok, "Do you understand? Go back in peace to the city; but let your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan be with you, these two sons of you two. ²⁸See! I am going to be waiting at the desert fords^g until word comes from you bringing me information." ²⁹So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there. ³⁰David, meanwhile, was climbing the Mount of Olives, making the ascent weeping, with his head covered and walking barefoot.^h Each man of all the people with him likewise covered his head and went up weeping as he climbed.

³¹Then someone brought David the announcement, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David petitioned, "LORD, I pray Thee, turn Ahithophel's advice into foolishness." ³²Besides, when David reached the summit, where God was worshiped, there came to meet him Hushai the Archite, with his coat torn and earth on his head.ⁱ ³³David said to him, "If you keep on with me, you will become a burden to me."^j ³⁴But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I am willing to become your servant, O king; once I was your father's servant, now I am yours,' then you may be able to frustrate the advice of Ahithophel for me. ³⁵Will not the priests Zadok and Abiathar be there with you? In this way, anything you hear from the royal

c) See 8:18, note.

d) Originally, the 600 men that had made up David's outlaw band and fled with him to the Philistine city of Gath to escape Saul (I Sam. 27:2), and then continued with him in Ziklag, Hebron, and Jerusalem (I Sam. 30:1; II Sam. 2:3; 5:6). Now, 30 years later, there must have been changes in personnel; but "the 600 Gittites" maintained itself as a specially honored unit of faithful veterans.

e) From the high command assigned him in 18:2, he seems to have been an experienced Philistine general.

f) The road eastward from Jerusalem toward Jericho, through the northern end of the wilderness of Judah; see Luke 10:30. g) Of the Jordan; see 17:16.

h) All signs of mourning (Esther 6:12; Ezek. 24:17). i) Compare 1:2.

j) Perhaps because he was too old.

palace you can tell Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ³⁶You see, they have their two sons there with them, Ahimaaz of Zadok and Jonathan of Abiathar, and by their hands you can send me any word you hear." ³⁷So Hushai, David's confidant,^k came into the city at about the time Absalom was entering Jerusalem.

16 WHEN DAVID HAD GONE A SHORT distance beyond the summit, there to meet him was Mephibosheth's steward, Ziba, with a pair of saddled donkeys, loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred pieces of summer fruit, and a skin of wine. ²"What do you plan with these?" the king asked Ziba. Ziba replied, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and fruit for the attendants to eat, and the wine to serve as drink for those who faint in the desert." ³"But where," asked the king, "is the son of your master?" ¹Ziba answered the king, "Ha, he is staying in Jerusalem, because he said, 'Today the people of Israel will restore to me the royal power of my father.'" ⁴The king, in return, told Ziba, "Well then, all that Mephibosheth had is now yours."^m "I prostrate myself before you, O my master and king," said Ziba. "Let me find favor in your eyes!"

⁵When King David came to Bahurim, there was a man named Shimei the son of Gera, who belonged to the family of Saul's house, coming out of that place, shouting curses as he came. ⁶He also pelted David and all the king's servants with stones though all the people, including all the heroes, were at the king's right hand and his left. ⁷In his cursing, Shimei said, "Get out, get out, you bloody criminal, you worthless scoundrel! ⁸The LORD has brought back on your head all the blood of the house of Saul, whose place as king you took. The LORD has given the kingship over into the hands of your son Absalom. Look at you now in your calamity! For you are a man guilty of blood!"ⁿ ⁹Zeruiah's son Abishai said to the king, "Why is this dead dog cursing my master the king? Let me go over and cut off his head!" ¹⁰But the king replied, "What do you and I have in common, oh, you sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, and it is the LORD who has told him, Curse David, who can question, 'Why have you done this?'" ¹¹David went on to tell his servants, including Abishai, "See, if my son, who came from my own body, tries to take my life, how much more this man of Benjamin?"^o Let him alone to shout his curses, because the LORD has told him to! ¹²Perhaps the LORD will consider my misery and render me good instead of the curse that falls on me this day." ¹³So David and his men went down the road, while Shimei was moving along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went, casting stones at him, and throwing dirt. ¹⁴The king, with all the people that accompanied him, arrived^p exhausted, and got refreshment there.

¹⁵Meanwhile Absalom entered Jerusalem with all the people, the men of Israel. And Ahithophel was with him. ¹⁶As soon as Hushai the Archite, David's confidant, reached Absalom, he called out to him, "Long live the king! Long live the king!" ¹⁷"Is this the loyalty you have toward your friend?" Absalom asked Hushai, "Why haven't you gone along with your confidant?" ¹⁸Hushai replied to Absalom, "Oh, no! Because it is the man chosen by the LORD, by this people and by all the men of Israel, whom I prefer; I will stay with him!" ¹⁹Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should it not be before his son's face? As I performed service

k) This had been his cabinet post with David [I Chron. 27:33].

l) Mephibosheth, the grandson of Ziba's former master, Saul, through Jonathan.

m) Too hasty a decision, for it later appears that Ziba was lying and that Mephibosheth's loyalty to David never wavered [19:24-28].

n) Referring to the seven descendants of Saul whom David had allowed to be killed by the Gibeonites at the time of the famine [21:1-9]. o) The tribe of Saul, whom David had replaced.

p) At the fords of the Jordan [15:28]. This flight through the wilderness of Judah is the setting of Psalms 3 and 63 by David.

before your father, so I will be in your presence!"

²⁰Then Absalom turned to Ahithophel, "All of you, give your counsel. What are we to do?" ²¹Ahithophel answered Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines whom he left to keep the palace. Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself detestable to your father and the hands of all those on your side will be strengthened." ²²So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and there in the sight of all Israel, Absalom went in to his father's concubines.^q ²³Ahithophel's judgment, which he gave as counsel in those days, was as if a man inquired of the word of God; so it was with every recommendation of Ahithophel, both with David and with Absalom.

About 979 B.C.

17 ¹AHITHOPHEL NEXT RECOMMENDED to Absalom, "Let me now select twelve thousand troops that I may set out and pursue David this very night. ²In this way I can overtake him while he is exhausted and still without resources and throw him into a panic, so that all the men with him will run. Then I can strike down the king as he is left alone ³and restore the entire nation to you.^r The one man you are after means the return of all; thus the whole nation will be at peace."^s ⁴The plan seemed good to Absalom, as well as to all the elders of Israel. ⁵But Absalom said, "Call, if you will, Hushai the Archite, too. Let us also hear what he has to say." ⁶When Hushai appeared before Absalom, Absalom told him, "Ahithophel has advised this way. Now, shall we do what he said? If not, you speak up, too!" ⁷Hushai replied to Absalom, "This time the plan recommended by Ahithophel is not wise." ⁸Hushai went on, "You know your father and his troops; they are fine soldiers, besides being embittered in their minds like a bear that has been robbed of her cubs in the open. Furthermore, your father is an experienced fighter; he is not going to stop with the people for the night. ⁹See! Even now he has taken refuge in some hole or in one of the various places; and it will happen when some of our men fall in the first attack, that whoever hears the report will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the forces that follow Absalom.' ¹⁰Then even the powerful man with a lion's heart will completely melt away; for all Israel knows that your father is a great soldier and that those with him are men of power. ¹¹So I recommend that you muster all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba around you,^t troops as numerous as the sand by the sea, and you lead the march into battle in person. ¹²Then if we come upon him in one of the places where he may be found, we will spread over him like the dew falling on the ground; and there will be left of him and of all the men with him not a one! ¹³If, on the other hand, he withdraws into a city, all Israel will bring up cables to that city; and we will drag it down into the valley until there will not be found even a pebble there!"

¹⁴Absalom and all the men of Israel decided, "The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than that of Ahithophel."^u For the LORD had decreed the overthrow of Ahithophel's good counsel, so that the LORD might bring ruin to Absalom.

¹⁵Hushai informed Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel in such and such a way, and then I gave my recommendation of so and so. ¹⁶Now therefore, send quickly and give David the warning. 'Do not spend this night at the desert fords, but be sure to cross over, or it may mean the destruction of the king and all the people with him.'"^v ¹⁷Now Jonathan and Ahi-

q) The punishment Nathan had predicted for David [12:11-12]. It demonstrated the assumption by Absalom of the royal power [see note on 3:7], made reconciliation with David impossible, and so forced the people to take sides; it also was divinely forbidden.

r) The Septuagint adds "as a bride returns to her husband."

s) Had this plan been carried out, David's cause would have been utterly lost; but God works in human minds to work out His program.

t) The northern and southern limits of Palestine respectively.

u) David's prayer [15:31] was answered.

maaz were waiting at En-rogel; for a servant girl would go out and give them the messages with which they were to go and inform King David, because they must not be seen entering the city. ¹⁸But a boy observed them and reported it to Absalom; so they both traveled rapidly and got to the house of a man in Bahurim who had a well in his courtyard; and down into it they went. ¹⁹His wife took a covering and spread it over the well's mouth, then spread grain on it, which prevented discovery. ²⁰Absalom's officers came to the woman at the house and demanded, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" She told them, "They crossed the water brook." They went to look, but when they found nothing, they had to return to Jerusalem.

²¹After they had gone, the two came up from the well, traveled on, and brought the information to King David.* They told David, "Get up, cross the water quickly, because Ahithophel has advised in such and such a way against you!" ²²So David and all the people with him arose and crossed the Jordan, until by daybreak there was not one who had failed to get across the Jordan.

²³When Ahithophel saw that his recommendation had not been followed, he saddled his donkey, got up and went to his house in his own city, made arrangements for his household, and strangled himself.* So he died, and they buried him in his father's tomb.

²⁴Now David reached Mahanaim, and Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel accompanying him. ²⁵Absalom had appointed Amasa in Joab's place over the army. Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite,^y who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, who was the sister of Joab's mother Zeruiah. ²⁶So Israel and Absalom made camp in the land of Gilead.

²⁷As David, meanwhile, entered Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash, from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo-debar,^z and Barzillai of Gilead from Rogelim, ²⁸brought bedding, basins, pottery, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, parched lentils, ²⁹honey, curdled milk, flocks, and calves of the herd, for David and the people with him to eat. They had concluded, "The people will have gotten hungry, tired, and thirsty in the desert."^a 18 DAVID PROCEEDED TO ORGANIZE the forces that were with him and appointed over them commanders of units of a thousand and a hundred. ²He had the army advance, one third under the command of Joab, another third under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and the final third under the command of Ittai of Gath. But when the king informed his men, "I am surely going out with you myself," ³the people insisted, "You shall not go out! For if we are put to flight, they will not be concerned about us; even if half of us die, our fate will not matter. But you are worth ten thousand of us. So now, it will be better for you to be in position to send us support from the city." ⁴The king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." Then the king took his post beside the gate while all the troops marched out by hundreds and by thousands.^b ⁵But the king ordered Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, with Absalom." All the people heard it too, when the king gave his order about Absalom to all the officers.

⁶The troops took to the field to en-

w) The detail of this incident has led to the suggestion that Ahimaaz may be the author of I Samuel and II Samuel.

x) He realized that the delay, which enabled David to consolidate his forces, would prove fatal for Absalom's cause.

y) As in I Chron. 2:17, "Jether the Ishmaelite." Amasa was thus Joab's cousin; their mothers were half sisters of David. z) The early protector of Mephibosheth [9:4].

a) Psalms 61 and 62 may have this period of David's flight into Transjordan as their setting.

b) Absalom's delay must have given David opportunity to summon many of his loyal troops from frontier and other duty.

gage Israel, and the battle was joined in the woods of Ephraim. ⁷At that place the forces of Israel were overthrown before the servants of David and the slaughter there that day was heavy, amounting to twenty thousand men. ⁸The battle, moreover, spread over the face of the whole country there, and the wooded terrain that day caused more destruction among the people than did the sword.

⁹Now Absalom was confronted unexpectedly by the servants of David. He had been riding his mule; but the mule had passed under a network of branches of a large tree, so that his head was caught in the tree and he was suspended between heaven and earth, while the mule on which he had been mounted trotted on. ¹⁰A certain man saw it and informed Joab, saying, "Look here! I have seen Absalom hanging on a tree!" ¹¹Joab replied to his informant, "You have really seen him? Then why did you not strike him down to the ground on the spot? It would have been up to me to reward you with ten pieces of silver and a belt!" ¹²"But if I were to hold in my palms a thousand pieces of silver," the man answered Joab, "I could not lift my hand against the son of the king; because in our hearing the king commanded you, Abishai, and Ittai to the effect, 'For my sake be sure to protect the young man Absalom.' ¹³Or again, could I have acted treacherously against his life, when there is nothing that lies hidden from the king? And you yourself would have left me to my fate." ¹⁴"I must not waste time with you this way," said Joab and, taking three darts in his hand, he drove them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the center of the tree. ¹⁵Then ten young aides, who carried Joab's armor, gathered around and struck Absalom to death.

¹⁶Joab then sounded the trumpet and the troops, thus held in check by Joab, turned back from pursuing Israel. ¹⁷They took Absalom and threw him into the big pit that was in the woods, on which they heaped a very large pile of stones,^d while all Israel ran, each man for his own tent. ¹⁸Now Absalom during his lifetime had already taken and set up for himself the pillar in the king's valley; for he had said, "I have no son to preserve my name." So he called the pillar after his own name, and to this day it is known as Absalom's monument.

¹⁹Ahimaaz the son of Zadok pleaded, "Let me run and bring the king the good news, that the LORD has executed judgment for him from the hands of his enemies!" ²⁰But Joab told him, "You are not the man for the news this day. You can bear the news some other time but not today, because the king's son is dead." ²¹Then Joab turned to a man from Cush, "Go, tell the king what you have seen!" The Cushite prostrated himself before Joab and ran off. ²²But Ahimaaz the son of Zadok kept pleading with Joab and asked again, "Come what may, please let me run, too, after the Cushite!" Joab asked, "Why do you want to run, my son? There is no news to bring you reward." ²³"Whatever be the case, only let me run!" "Run then," agreed Joab; and away ran Ahimaaz by the Jordan Valley road and passed the man from Cush.

²⁴Now David was sitting between the two gates,^e while the sentinel had gone up to the roof of the gateway by the wall. The latter lifted up his eyes, looked, and saw a runner coming alone. ²⁵The sentinel called out to inform the king and the king said, "If he is by himself, he must have news to tell!" He kept getting closer. ²⁶But then the sentinel saw another runner coming and he called out to the gatekeeper, "Look, here too, comes a single runner!" "He also must be bringing news," the king said. ²⁷The sentinel announced, "Now I can see the way the first man runs; it is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." "A good man, he," said the king. "He is coming with a good report." ²⁸Ahimaaz called out, greeting the king,

c) His luxurious locks were caught in its branches, or his head caught in a fork of the tree.
d) This was the inglorious end of the man who put his own lust for power ahead of the law of God; comp. Achan [Josh. 7:26]. e) The inner and outer gates of Mahanaim in Transjordan.

"All is well!" and prostrated himself to the king with his face to the ground. "Blessed be the LORD your God," he went on, "who has delivered up the men that lifted their hands against my master the king!" ²⁹David queried, "But is there safety for the young man, for Absalom?" To this Ahimaaz replied, "When Joab, the king's servant, dispatched me, your servant, I saw a great tumult but I did not know what it was about."^f ³⁰"Turn aside then and take your post here," the king indicated. So he faced about and stood still.

³¹Just then, in came the man of Cush, with the message, "Hear the good news, O my master the king! For the LORD has executed judgment for you today from the hands of all those that rose up against you." ³²"But," asked the king of the Cushite, "is there safety for the young man, for Absalom?" The man of Cush replied, "May the enemies of my master the king, and all that rise up in revolt to harm you, be like that young man!" ³³The king was deeply moved. He went up to the open room on the roof of the gateway and wept, lamenting as he went, "O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I myself had died instead of you! O Absalom! My son, my son!"^g

About 979 B.C.

19 THE INFORMATION WAS BROUGHT to Joab, "See, the king is weeping and lamenting over Absalom." ²For all the people, too, the day's victory was turned to sorrow because they heard it said that day, "The king is in grief over his son." ³The troops re-entered the city furtively that day, like people stealing away, who have been shamed by being routed in battle. ⁴The king meanwhile wrapped up his face and cried aloud, "O my son Absalom! O Absalom! My son, my son!" ⁵But Joab broke in on the king in the house, exclaiming, "You have today covered with shame the faces of all your men who have just now saved your life, the lives of your sons and your daughters, your wives, and your concubines, ⁶by cherishing those who hate you and hating those who love you! You have made it clear this day that officers and men mean nothing to you, because now I know that, if Absalom were alive and all of us today were dead, it would be acceptable in your eyes! ⁷Come on, therefore, get up and go out; speak heartily to your men! For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, tonight there will not be a man left with you! This will turn out to be more disastrous for you than all the troubles you have experienced from your youth till now!"

⁸So the king got up and took his seat in the gate, and when they told all the troops, "Look, the king is sitting in the gate!" they all came before the king.

Now Israel had run, every man for his tent. ⁹And all the people were blaming each other throughout the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king saved us from the power of our enemies. He rescued us from the hand of the Philistines. But now he has fled the country on account of Absalom. ¹⁰Yet Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now why do you hesitate about bringing the king back?" ¹¹David, accordingly, sent to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, suggesting, "Ask the elders of Judah, 'Why are you so backward about restoring the king to his palace, when the invitations of all Israel have come to the king at his house?' ¹²You are my brothers, my very bone and flesh, so why should you be the last to bring back the king?"^h ¹³Then assure Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? So do God to me and more, if you do not become army commander in my presence instead of Joab from now on!'" ¹⁴So he swayed the hearts of all the members of Judah as if they had been one man; and they sent word to the king, "Come back, both you and all

f) Not an acceptable messenger.

g) David knew that his sin had started this train of calamities.

h) The reason was that they had taken a leading part in Absalom's revolt in their chief city, Hebron.

i) Compromise to win over Absalom's followers; also retaliation against Joab for having opposed David's weakness toward Absalom.

your servants!"

¹⁵So the king moved homeward. When he had gotten as far as the Jordan, Judah turned out to Gilgal to go and meet the monarch and escort him across the Jordan. ¹⁶Then Shimei son of Gera of Benjamin, who was from Bahurim, hurried to come with the men of Judah to meet King David, ¹⁷accompanied by a thousand men of Benjamin and by Ziba, Saul's family steward, with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants.^j They rushed into the Jordan before the king, ¹⁸and they kept crossing the ford to bring over the king's household and to do whatever he thought good.

Shimei the son of Gera fell before the king as he was about to make the Jordan crossing, ¹⁹ imploring him, "O my master, do not hold me guilty! Do not retain in your memory the perverse way your servant acted the time my master the king left Jerusalem, that the king should keep it in mind! ²⁰For your servant acknowledges how I have sinned. See, I have come today as the first of all the house of Joseph^k to come down to greet my master the king!"

²¹Abishai son of Zeruiah interjected, "Is not Shimei to be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?" ²²But David replied, "What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? Truly you are today playing the opponent to me! Should anyone be put to death today in Israel? Do I not recognize that I am this day king over Israel?" ²³Then to Shimei the king declared, "You shall not die!" And the king confirmed it with an oath.^l

²⁴Next to come down and meet the king was Mephibosheth, the grandson of Saul. He had neither cared for his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes^m from the time of the king's departure up to the day of his safe return. ²⁵But as at Jerusalem he came to meet the monarch, the king asked him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?" ²⁶"O my master and king," he replied, "my steward deceived me! You see, your servant said, 'I will surely have a donkey saddled for me to ride and go with the king,' because your servant is lame. ²⁷But he" has slandered your servant to my master the king. Still, my master the king is like an angel of God,^o so do what seems good in your eyes. ²⁸For the whole house of my father were nothing but men condemnable to death before my master the king, yet you set your servant among those who eat at your table. Now what further right do I have, or how could I appeal for anything more to the king?" ²⁹The king remarked to him, "Why talk any longer? I have decided, 'You and Ziba are to divide the land!'"^p ³⁰Then Mephibosheth answered the king, "Let him take it all, so long as my master the king has come in safety to his palace!"

³¹Now Barzillai of Gilead had come down from Rogelim and had accompanied the king to the Jordan to escort him over the Jordan, ³²though Barzillai was quite old, being eighty. He was also the one who had sent the king provisions during his stay in Mahanaim, because he was very well-to-do. ³³The king made Barzillai the offer, "You accompany me across, and let me maintain you with me in Jerusalem." ³⁴But Barzillai replied to the king, "How many days are left to the years of my life that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? ³⁵I am now eighty years old; could I distinguish good from bad, or could your servant appreciate what I might eat and drink, or could I enjoy listening any more to singing men and women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my master the king? ³⁶Your servant will simply cross the Jordan with the king. Why should the king compensate me with such a reward?"

j) See 9:10.

k) He counts his tribe of Benjamin as part of northern Israel [comp. vs. 11], under the leadership of the Joseph tribes Ephraim and Manasseh, differing from Judah in the south.

l) David had not really forgiven Shimei [comp. I Kings 2:8-9]; and Shimei's "repentance" seems to have been a matter of expediency.

m) Signs of mourning [Ezek. 24:17]. n) The retainer, Ziba [16:1-4].

o) To see the truth. Comp. 14:17 and the accompanying footnote.

p) David thus partly retracted his award of the property to Ziba in 16:4; but he did not fully restore the original arrangement of 9:9.

³⁷I beg of you, let your servant return to die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham,^a if he may go over with my master the king; and for him do whatever you think best."

³⁸"Chimham shall indeed go over with me," promised the king, "and I will do the things for him which you think best. Everything you choose for me to do for you, I will do."

³⁹After all the people had crossed the Jordan and the king had passed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned home.

⁴⁰The king moved on to Gilgal, accompanied by Chimham; while all the people of Judah, as well as half the people of Israel, conducted the king across.

⁴¹But soon all the men of Israel were coming to the king with the complaint, "Why is it that our brothers, the men of Judah, have monopolized you, bringing the king and his household across the Jordan, and all David's men with him?" ⁴²"Because the king is related to us," was the retort of all the men of Judah to the men of Israel. "Why should you be put out about this? Have we gotten fat at the king's expense, or has there been any favoritism toward us?" ⁴³Then the men of Israel argued back against those of Judah, "We have ten shares in the king,^b so we have a greater part in David than you have! Why now have you despised us? Was not our business first to bring us back our king?" What the men of Judah said, however, was more violent than the charges of the men of Israel.

About 979 B.C.

20 NOW THERE HAPPENED TO BE there a worthless fellow named Sheba the son of Bichri, of Benjamin, who blew the trumpet, saying, "In David we'll have no more part; in Jesse's last son, not a share! Depart, Israel's men, to your tents!"^c ²As a result all the men of Israel withdrew from David to follow Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah kept following their king, from the Jordan all the way to Jerusalem. ³When David entered his Jerusalem palace, the king took the ten concubines whom he had left behind to keep the palace and placed them in a house of confinement. He maintained them but did not go in to them; they were kept separated until the day of their death as in life-long widowhood.

⁴The king then ordered Amasa, "Summon me the men of Judah within three days and report here in person."

⁵Amasa went to assemble Judah, but he delayed beyond the time specified to him.^d ⁶David therefore told Abishai, "Sheba, son of Bichri is becoming more dangerous to us now than was Absalom. You take your master's men and pursue the man before he will have occupied fortified cities and eludes our observation!" ⁷So out with him marched the troops of Joab, the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, advancing from Jerusalem in pursuit of Sheba the son of Bichri. ⁸When they had arrived at the big stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa caught up and met them. Now Joab was dressed in his military coat with a belt over it, to which a sword in its sheath was fastened at his waist. But as he approached, the sword fell out. ⁹Joab addressed Amasa, "Is all well with you, my brother?" And Joab took hold of Amasa's beard with his right hand as if to kiss him. ¹⁰Amasa, however, did not notice the sword in Joab's hand, with which he struck him under the fifth rib, so that his intestines poured out on the ground. There was no second blow; he died.^e

Joab and his brother Abishai re-

q) One of the sons of Barzillai [I Kings 2:7].

r) David had not shown partiality toward his own tribe of Judah as Saul had shown to Benjamin [I Sam. 22:7].

s) That is, ten of the twelve tribes were counted in northern Israel. Disunity and jealousy had marked the tribal relations before [Judg. 12:1-6], and later split the kingdom [I Kings 12:16-17].

t) Meaning, each man independent in his own home.

u) Judah may have hesitated to respond to this former officer of Absalom, with whom David was trying to replace Joab.

v) This was the second rival commander whom Joab eliminated by treachery [I Kings 2:5]; comp. Abner's death [II Sam. 3:27].

sumed the pursuit of Sheba the son of Bichri. ¹¹But one of Joab's attendants was posted over the body to call out, "Whoever favors Joab, whoever is for David, follow Joab!" ¹²Amasa, meanwhile, lay wallowing in his blood in the center of the highway. The man saw that the people were standing still, so he pulled Amasa off the highway into the field and threw a garment over him, having noticed how everyone coming up to him was standing still. ¹³Once he was moved off the highway, all the troops marched on after Joab to chase Sheba the son of Bichri. ¹⁴He had marched toward Abel of Beth-maacah, passing through all the tribes of Israel along with all the Berites,^x who had gathered and had joined him. ¹⁵But they^y came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah, raising up a mound against the city until it stood even with the fortifications while all the troops under Joab were battering to break down the wall. ¹⁶But then a wise^z woman shouted from the city, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab now, 'Come here, so I can speak with you!'" ¹⁷When Joab got near her, the woman called, "Are you Joab?" "I am," came the reply. She said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant!" "I am listening," he assured her. ¹⁸So she addressed him, "In times past they used to say, 'Let them be sure to ask at Abel!'"^a And so a matter was settled. ¹⁹Now here am I, of a peaceful and a loyal people in Israel; but you, on your part, are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the LORD's inheritance?" ²⁰Joab answered, "Far be it from me, far be it, to swallow up and to destroy.

²¹Such is not the case! But there is a man from the hill country of Ephraim,^b Sheba son of Bichri by name, who has lifted his hand against the king, against David. Give him up, only this one man, and I will withdraw from the city!" The woman answered Joab, "Look! His head will be thrown to you over the wall." ²²The woman then, in her wise way, went to all the citizens, who proceeded to cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and to throw it out to Joab. He then sounded the trumpet, so that the troops dispersed from the city, each man to his own tent, and Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king. ²³Joab, it should be noted, was over all Israel's armed forces; Benaiah son of Jehoiada commanded the Cherethites and the Pelethites; ²⁴Adoram was in charge of the labor gangs; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud, was recorder; ²⁵Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ²⁶Ira, too, from Jair, was chief assistant to David.^c

About 990 B.C.

21 IN THE DAYS OF DAVID THERE was a famine, year after year for three years.^d When David sought the LORD's presence, the LORD told him: It is because of Saul and his bloody house, for having put the people of Gibeon to death. ²So the king called in the people of Gibeon to speak with them. Now the Gibeonites were not a part of the nation of Israel, but of the survivors of the Amorites with whom the nation of Israel had pledged with an oath; but Saul, in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah, had tried to destroy them.^e ³David said to the men of Gibeon, "What am I to do in your behalf? By what means can I

w) To the troops brought up by Amasa.

x) A branch of the tribe of Asher [Num. 26:44], in the far north of Palestine.

y) Those with Joab.

z) "The wise" were a special group in Israel. Jeremiah 18:18 lists the three classes by which God guided His people: the wise man, with his "counsel"; the priest, who had "the law"; and the prophet, with "the word."

a) This itself appears to have been an early proverb, of the type with which the wise gave counsel. b) This area extended into Sheba's tribe of Benjamin [I Sam. 1:1].

c) The title cohen, usually given to priests, is also applied to David's sons [ch. 8:18]. See I Chron. 27:25-34 for further listings of David's ministers.

d) The exact date is not given; but it must have been after the coming of Mephibosheth to be with David in 995 B.C. [vs. 7]. Moreover, the deaths of vs. 8-9 seem to have been the subject of Shimei's cursing of David [16:7-8, which would put the famine before Absalom's revolt].

e) This event is not elsewhere described in Scripture but it violated the treaty of peace made by Joshua with the Hivites [the more general name of "Amorites" is here used, comp. Gen. 15:16] of Gibeon almost 400 years before [Josh 9]. Famines and other natural calamities may be caused by sin [Deut. 11:17].

atone for this, so you will invoke prosperity for the LORD's inheritance?"

⁴"We are not concerned with silver or gold in the matter of Saul and his family," the Gibeonites answered him, "nor do we have the right to put a man to death in Israel." "What do you say I should do for you?" he asked. ⁵They said to the king, "As for the man who destroyed us, who planned to exterminate us from having a place in all the territory of Israel, ⁶let seven of his sons be handed over to us, to expose their broken corpses to the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, this chosen one of the LORD!" "I will hand them over," agreed the king. ⁷Then, although the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the LORD's oath between them, between David and Saul's son Jonathan, ⁸the king did take Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she had borne to Saul, and the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of Barzillai from Meholah, ⁹and gave them up into the hands of the men of Gibeon, who exposed their broken corpses on the hill in the presence of the LORD. The seven fell at one time, being put to death in the first days of reaping, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

¹⁰Rizpah the daughter of Aiah then took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until rain came pouring down from heaven on the bodies; ¹by day she let no bird of the air alight on them and by night no animal of the field. ¹¹When David was informed of what Rizpah, daughter of Aiah and concubine of Saul, had done, ¹²he went and got the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the plaza of Beth-shan where the Philistines had fastened them up at the time they overcame Saul on Gilboa. ¹³David brought up from there the bones of Saul and those of his son Jonathan, and they gathered up the bones of the men who had been exposed; ¹⁴then they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in Zela in the land of Benjamin, in the grave of Kish his father. When they had done all that the king commanded, God afterward answered the prayers for the land.

1005 to 995 B.C.

¹⁵At a time when the Philistines again made war against Israel, ^kDavid together with his men went down and engaged the Philistines; but David became exhausted. ¹⁶Ishbi-benob, who was among the descendants of Raphah ¹and whose spear weighed over twelve pounds, ^mwas there too with new armor belted on, and he threatened to destroy David. ¹⁷But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his rescue; he attacked the Philistine and killed him. It was then that David's men adjured him, "You must no longer go out with us to battle, that you may not put out the lamp of Israel!" ¹⁸Later on there was war again with the Philistines at Gob; then it was that Sibbecai, ⁿfrom Hushah, struck down Saph, who also was among the descendants of Raphah. ¹⁹Another battle took place with the Philistines in Gob; and Elhanan the

f) A punishment sometimes prescribed for the worst criminals [Num. 25:4]. Sons of Saul were executed for their father's sin; but see Num. 35:33; Deut. 24:16. g) 1 Sam. 20:12-17.

h) For Rizpah, see 3:7; for Merab, which is the reading of the more correct manuscripts, see 1 Sam. 18:19.

i) Deut. 21:22-23 notes that bodies were not to remain hanging overnight; but in this case they were left until the rains ended the famine.

j) From the wall, beside which the public assembly place was located [1 Sam. 31:8-13]. Comp. II Chron. 32:6.

k) These events therefore follow the first Philistine wars, described in 5:17-25, but precede the God-given rest from foreign armies granted David by about 995 B.C. [7:1]. They may be associated with the campaigns noted in 8:1, which ended with David's capturing Gath.

l) The Rephaim were an ancient people [Gen. 14:5], noted for their size but, except for Og's kingdom in Bashan, they had died out by the time of Moses [Deut. 3:11].

m) Hebrew: 300 shekels or a little under ½ oz. each; the metal weight probably refers to the head of the spear only.

n) One of the "thirty" heroes [I Chron. 11:29] and commander of the eighth corps of David's army [I Chron. 27:11].

son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite overcame Beth-Hal-Lahmi with Goliath^o of Gath, whose spear had a staff like a weaver's bar.^p ²⁰Once more there was war in Gath, this time involving a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in all; he too was born of Raphah. ²¹But when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of David's brother Shimei struck him down. ²²These four were born to Raphah in Gath, but they fell at the hands of David and his men.

22 DAVID SPOKE THE WORDS OF this song to the LORD at the time when the LORD delivered him out of the power of all his enemies,^q including the power of Saul. ²He said: The LORD is my Rock, and my Fortress, insuring deliverance for me, ³the God of my rock, whom I trust, my Shield, saving Horn,^r and my Fort;
my Refuge, and Savior from harm.
⁴I call on my praiseworthy LORD, and I shall be saved from my foes!
⁵When breakers have swept me toward death and floods of the wicked dismayed, ⁶when cords of the grave closed me in and snares holding death blocked my way, ⁷in anguish I cried to the LORD, and unto my God I appealed.
My voice from His temple^s He heard;
my shouts carried into His ears.
⁸The earth then did tremble and quake, and heaven's foundations did shake;
they reeled back and forth at His wrath.
⁹The smoke from His nostrils arose, and fire from His mouth did consume;

David's Victory Song — Glory to God

live coals issued from Him in flame!
¹⁰He bent down the heavens to descend;
thick darkness was under His feet.
¹¹He rode on a cherub^t and flew, appearing on wings of the wind.
¹²The dark He placed round Him as tents, with masses of water and clouds.
¹³Yet brightness before Him so seared that burning coals burst into flame.
¹⁴From heaven the LORD thundered forth;
the Most High did utter His voice.
¹⁵His arrow-shots scattered the foe, with lightning He put them to flight.
¹⁶The sea channels came into view, the world's deep foundations lay bare,
because of rebuke by the LORD,
by blasts from the breath of His nostrils.
¹⁷He reached; from on high I was grasped;
He drew me from waters that swelled.
¹⁸He saved from an enemy strong,
from haters more mighty than I, ¹⁹who blocked me when I was distressed;
yet I found the LORD my support.
²⁰He brought me out into the clear;
He saved, for His favor is mine!
²¹The LORD deals with me as I'm righteous, rewarding, as my hands stay pure; ²²because I have kept the LORD's pathway, not straying in sin from my God.
²³His judgments were looming before me;
His statutes — I left not their path.
²⁴Integrity marks me before Him;

o) This phrase seems originally to have read, "Lahmi the brother of Goliath," [I Chron. 20:5].

p) Heavy to hold the threads taut. See I Sam. 17:7.

q) This song therefore goes with ch. 7; see vs. 1, written shortly after Nathan's Messianic promise to David; comp. vs. 51 with 7:16. The king subsequently made slight changes in it, so it would be better adapted to public use and included it as Ps. 18 of the Psalter.

r) The source of strength and defense, as in horned animals, comp. I Sam. 2:1.

s) As in Ps. 11:4, meaning "heaven," for note the description of His descent from it like a storm in vss. 8-17. Such a manifestation of God took place in a storm at Mt. Sinai [Exod. 19:16-20] and was taken up in the later poetry; comp. Deut. 33:2, Judg. 5:2-5, etc., though here it is symbolical for God's deliverance of David by less spectacular means.

t) Cherubim are angelic beings, appearing in human form but also having wings [Ezek. 1:5; comp. 10:1]. God's "riding upon" one may have been taken from the fact of His glory appearing between the cherubim on the ark. [See 6:2; Exod. 25:20-21].

I have guarded my doings from guilt.^u 25 The LORD thus rewarded my rightness
as pureness was mine in His eyes.
26 With merciful men Thou art gracious with upright men endlessly so.
27 With pure men, Thou showest Thy purity;
the twisted are twisted to Thee!
28 So Thou the afflicted dost save, marking down, yes, demoting the proud.
29 For Thou now, O LORD, art my Lamp;
the LORD turns my darkness to light.
30 By Thee, I can charge through a troop, vault over a wall by my God.
31 This God, how complete is His way;
the word of the LORD, tried and true!
He is a shield to all them that trust in Him.
32 For who is a God, save the LORD, and who is a rock, save our God?
33 This God is my Tower and Strength;
He levels for me His good way.
34 He places my feet like the deer and stands me erect on the hills.
35 He teaches my hands to make war, my arms to draw bows made of bronze.
36 Thou grantest me Thy saving shield;
Thy gentleness has made me great.
37 Thou stretchest my stride on the ground
on ankles that never grow weak.
38 My foes I pursue and destroy;
I turn not till they are consumed!
39 I waste them and crush them until they rise not, but fall 'neath my feet!
40 Thou bindest on me strength for war, dost under me challengers bend;
41 To me Thou dost make foes turn tail;
my haters I bring to an end!
42 They look and there is none to save.
The LORD? But He answers them not!

43 I sift them like dust of the earth, like street mud I trample them down!
44 While saved from domestic complaints, of nations Thou keepest me chief,
and people unknown do my tasks.
45 Those foreign come cringing to me, at hearsay obeying my will.
46 The foreigners shrink in despair and, trembling, surrender their forts.
47 The LORD lives, and blessed be my Rock!
Exalt God, my sure Rock of salvation,
48 the God who avenges my cause and under me nations subdues, 49 conducting me free from my foes!
From rivals Thou liftest me up,
from ruthless men rescuest me.
50 I therefore will praise Thee, O LORD,
'twixt nations, and sing to Thy name.
51 God heightens success for His king and with His anointed keeps faith, with David and offspring for aye.

970 B.C.

23 THESE, THEN, ARE THE LAST words of David:^v
The statement of Jesse's son David, the word of the man who was raised on high,
anointed of the God of Jacob,
and noted as Israel's sweet psalmist:
2 The Spirit of the LORD spoke this through me,
and His word was on my tongue.
3 He said — it was Israel's God did the speaking,
it was Israel's Rock who revealed it to me:
A ruler who is righteous shall rise over men, who holds His dominion through reverence for God.
4 He will be like the morning light at sunrise, of a morning that breaks without clouds,
when grass springs from earth by sunshine after rain.

u) David did not claim to be perfect, or beyond sin; but he consistently sought God's will in His life, a fact not true of his enemies [I Sam. 26:23-24], but confirmed for David by God Himself [I Kings 14:8].

v) More than just a farewell, this song, like the final blessing of Jacob [Gen. 49], is an inspired prophecy of the Messiah to come and of the saving covenant of which He would be the Mediator. In form, David's song seems patterned on the similarly prophetic last message of Balaam [Num. 24:15-24].

⁵For is not my house so established with God?

Eternal the covenant He settled with me;

in every respect it is ordered and sealed.^w

It is all my salvation, though all His decreeing, for will He not cause it^x to send forth a Branch?^y ⁶The worthless shall all be like castaway thorn trees,

for one is not able to take them in hand.

⁷Whenever a man attempts even to touch them

He is furnished with iron or the shaft of a spear.

They shall with a fire be consumed where they dwell.^z

1003 B.C.

⁸These are the names of David's mighty men:^a Josheb-basshebeth, a man of Tachemon,^b known also as Adino of Ezen, chief of the military leaders. He stood up against eight hundred, whom he laid low at one time.

⁹After him, Eleazar the son of Dodai, a descendant of Ahoah, next among the three heroes, the men who were with David when they defied the Philistines. The enemy had mustered there for battle, and the Israelites had retreated upward; ¹⁰but he himself advanced and struck down the Philistines until his hand was exhausted and stuck to his sword. So on that day the LORD won a great victory, and the people rallied behind him only to take booty. ¹¹After him was Shammah the son of Agee of Harar. The Philistines had mustered into a combat group at a particular part of the field that was full of lentils; the people had broken and run before the Philistines, ¹²but he took up a position in the middle of that section, recovered it, and struck down the Philistines; so again the LORD won a great victory.

¹³Now three of the thirty^c leaders had gone down at harvest time to join David in the cave of Adullam, during the camping of Philistines in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴At that time David was in the stronghold, but an outpost of the Philistines occupied Bethlehem. ¹⁵Then David felt a longing and said, "If only someone could get me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem there by the gate." ¹⁶So the three heroes broke into the Philistine camp, drew water out of the well by the gate of Bethlehem, took it, and carried it to David. But he would not drink any; he poured it out as an offering to the LORD ¹⁷with the exclamation, "Be it far from me, LORD, to do such a thing! Could I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?" He would not, accordingly, drink any. This was what the three heroes did.^d ¹⁸Then there was Abishai, Joab's brother and son of Zeruiah, chief of the thirty, who wielded his spear to lay low three hundred men, and he gained a reputation along with the three; ¹⁹in fact, he was honored over the three by being made their superior^e though he was not actually considered with them. ²⁰Also Benaiah^f son of Jehoiada, who was the son of a worthy man of great accomplishments from Kabzeel. He was the one who struck down the two ariels^g of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the

w) The contingency of faithlessness in David's descendants had been provided for by God, without invalidating the general covenantal promise of salvation in the final Messianic seed of David [7:12-16]. x) David's family of descendants.

y) A term which became a standard designation for the Messiah; comp. Isa. 11:1; Jer. 23:5; and Zech. 3:8. z) In this same way, Christ describes the final punishment of the wicked [Matt. 13:30].

a) This list belongs to the time of David's accession over all Israel; see I Chron. 11:10-47, where it appears with variants in spelling, etc., and with sixteen additions at the end.

b) More correctly, "Jashobeam, son of a man of Iachmon" [I Chron. 11:11]; see also I Chron. 27:2 and 32, in which chapter the names of twelve of the heroes, including his, appear in the list of the commanders of the twelve corps of David's armed forces.

c) The initial number in this "legion of honor"? Actually 37, including the outstanding three and the two commanders, are here listed [vs. 39], perhaps because of subsequent additions to the original group. d) Which three heroes is not specified.

e) He had commanded with Joab against Abner [2:24] and later led divisions in the wars against the Ammonites [10:10], against Absalom [18:2], and against Sheba [20:6]. His heroism with David in Saul's camp is recorded in I Sam. 26:6. f) Commander of the professional Cherethites and Pelethites, that made up David's guard [8:18; 20:23], and Solomon's leading general [I Kings 4:4]. g) "Lions of God," probably a general term for heroes.

middle of the pit on a snowy day, ²¹and he destroyed an Egyptian of towering build, who had a spear in his hand; but he went at him with a club, snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. ²²These were things done by Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He too gained a reputation along with the three heroes; ²³but, though he was more honored than the thirty, he did not come up to the three. David appointed him over his guard.

²⁴Then came Asahel,^h Joab's brother and a member of the thirty; Elhanan son of Dodo, of Bethlehem; ²⁵Shammah and Elikai, both from Harod; ²⁶Helez from Beth-pelet; Ira son of Ikesh, from Tekoa; ²⁷Abiezer from Anathoth; Mebunnai from Hushah; ²⁸Zalmon, a descendant of Ahoah; Maharai, ²⁹and Heleb son of Baanah, both from Netophah; Ittai son of Ribai, from Gibeath of the people of Benjamin; ³⁰Benaiah; Hiddai from the valleys of Gaash; ³¹Abi-albon the Arbathite; Azmaveth from Bahurim; ³²Eliabha from Shaalbon; Bene-jashen; Jonathan son of ³³Shammah and Ahiam son of Sharar, both from Harar; ³⁴Eliphelet son of Ahasbai, the son of the man from Maacah; Eliam son of Ahithophelⁱ of Giloh; ³⁵Hesro from Carmel; Paarai from Arab; ³⁶Igal son of Nathan, from Zobah; Bani from Gad; ³⁷Zekek from Ammon; Naharai from Beeroth, who was armor-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah; ³⁸Ira and Gareb, both descendants of Jether; ³⁹and Uriah the Hittite,^j making a total of thirty-seven.

About 975 B.C.

24 BUT THE LORD'S ANGER WAS again inflamed against Israel,^k and one aroused David against them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah. ²The king proceeded to give orders to Joab, the commander of the army, who was present with him, "Make a survey now among all the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba and register the people, so that I may know the population figure." ³Joab tried to reason with the king, "May the LORD your God multiply the people a hundred times over what they are now, for the eyes of my master the king to see; but why should my master the king be pleased to do this thing?" ⁴The king's word, however, prevailed against Joab and the officers of the army; so Joab and the army officers went out from the presence of the king to register the people Israel.

⁵Having crossed the Jordan, they set up camp at Arero, south of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and then moved on to Jazer. ⁶Next they came to Gilead and the land of Tahtim-hodshi, then to Dan-jaan and so around to Sidon. ⁷They proceeded to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites, coming out finally in the south of Judah at Beer-sheba. ⁸Thus when they had surveyed the whole land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. ⁹Joab then turned over to the king the figures for the census of the people: Israel numbered eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.^m ¹⁰But after he had taken the census of the people, David's conscience accused him, and David confessed to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. Now, LORD, I pray Thee, take away the wrong of Thy servant, for I have indeed played the fool." ¹¹When David got up in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer: ¹²Go, tell David, This is what the LORD has decreed: I offer you three things;

h) Killed when pursuing Abner in David's war against Ish-bosheth [2:18-23].

i) David's counselor, who deserted to Absalom [15:12f.]. j) The husband of Bathsheba.

k) The former instance was the famine described in ch. 21, about 990 B.C. Israel's sin in this case seems to be their participation in the successive revolts of Absalom and Sheba against David, the LORD's anointed. The parallel record in I Chron. 21 adds that Satan was used by God to accomplish His purpose. Comp. Job 1:6-12 and I Kings 22:20-22.

l) There was nothing inherently wrong in a census, but in this case David was looking to the armed strength of his people [note vs. 9] rather than maintaining his faith in the promises of God. Compare I Chron. 27:23.

m) I Chron. 21:5 notes that the total for Israel of men who drew the sword was 1,100,000 and that the figure for Judah was 470,000.

choose one of them for Me to do to you. ¹³So Gad came to David with the information and presented him with this, "Shall there come sevenⁿ years of famine to you on your land, or three months of fleeing before your enemies with them pursuing you, or three days of a fatal malady in your land? Now consider, and decide what answer I am to return to Him who sent me."

¹⁴David replied to Gad, "I am in deep distress; let us fall, I pray, into the hands of the LORD, because His mercies are great; but into the hands of man may I not fall." ¹⁵So the LORD sent a fatal malady upon Israel from the morning until assembly time;^o and from Dan to Beer-sheba there died seventy thousand men of the people. ¹⁶But when the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD felt grief regarding the calamity and gave orders to the angel who was bringing the destruction among the people: Enough! Relax your hand now! This was when the LORD's angel was by the threshing floor of Araunah^p the Jebusite.

¹⁷When David saw the angel striking the people down, he appealed to the LORD, "See, I am the one who has sinned; it is I who have acted wrongly. But these, the flock,^q what have they done? Let Thy hand, I pray, be against me and my father's house!" ¹⁸On that day, Gad came to David and told him, "Go up, and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." ¹⁹So David, following Gad's word, went up as the LORD had commanded.

²⁰When Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over to him, he went out and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king. ²¹Araunah then inquired, "For what reason has my master the king come to his servant?" "To purchase the threshing floor from you," David replied; "so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the fatal malady may be restrained from continuing on the people." ²²"Oh, but let my master the king," Araunah remonstrated with David, "take and offer up whatever seems good in his eyes! See the cattle^r for the burnt offering and the threshing sledges and cattle equipment for the wood. ²³All this, O king, Araunah is giving to the king." Araunah then added to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you favorably."

²⁴"No," the king answered Araunah; "I will certainly buy it from you at a price; I will not offer the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing!"^s So David bought the threshing floor and the cattle for about fifty silver dollars.^t ²⁵Then David built an altar there to the LORD and offered up burnt offerings and offerings of peace. So the LORD answered the prayers for the land, and the fatal malady was removed from Israel.

n) Certain Greek texts here have "three years," which seems to be the original and correct reading, not simply because of the "three years" in I Chron. 21:12, but also because of the parallel threats of "three months" and "three days."

o) Probably that of the regular evening sacrifice [Exod. 29:39]. p) In Chron., Ornan.

q) Scripture frequently compares leader and people to shepherd and sheep; see 5:2 and Ps. 23.

r) Used to pull the wooden threshing sledges over the grain.

s) So God expects the Christian to yield Him at a cost the best in his life, not just what involves no sacrifice. t) 1¼ lb. in silver, troy weight; Hebrew: 50 shekels. I Chron. 21:25 mentions a greater amount, paid for the whole area.

THE FIRST BOOK OF

KINGS

1 WHEN KING DAVID WAS OLD AND advanced in years, he could not keep warm, although they wrapped him in covers. ²So his servants said to him, "Let them seek for my master the king a young virgin who shall wait upon the king and be his nurse. When she lies in your bosom, my master the king will get warm." ³Therefore they searched all the territory of Israel for a beautiful young woman. Finally they found Abishag the Shunammite, whom they brought to the king. ⁴The girl was very beautiful and she became the king's nurse and served him; however, the king did not cohabit with her. 970 B.C.

⁵About that time, Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." He provided for himself a chariot and horsemen, with fifty men running before him.^a ⁶His father had never repressed him by asking, "Why do you do so and so?" Moreover, he also had a very fine physique and was born next after Absalom. ⁷So he consulted with Joab the son of Zeruah and with Abiathar the priest, for they were supporters of Adonijah. ⁸But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and David's mighty men were not on Adonijah's side.

⁹When Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and well-fed cattle near the Slippery Stone at En-rogel, he invited all his brothers, the sons of the king, and all the Judean officers of the king. ¹⁰But Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the magnates, and Solomon he did not invite.

¹¹Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king and David our lord does not know it? ¹²Now, then, let me give you advice, that you may preserve your life and the life of your son Solomon. ¹³Go at once to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my master O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, "Solomon your son shall be king after me and shall occupy my throne?" Why then has Adonijah become king?' ¹⁴Then while you are still there speaking with the king, I will follow you in and support your words."^b ¹⁵Then Bathsheba went in to the king, into his own apartment, for the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was caring for him. ¹⁶When Bathsheba fell upon her knees and paid homage to the king, the king asked, "What do you wish?" ¹⁷She replied, "My master, you swore to your maidservant by the LORD your God, 'Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall occupy my throne.' ¹⁸And see, now Adonijah has become king, and you, my master, O king, do not know about it. ¹⁹He has sacrificed oxen, well-fed cattle, and sheep in

a) As Absalom had done. Adonijah was David's fourth son. With Amnon and Absalom dead, and Chileab not ambitious, his chances looked promising.

b) Ideally Israel remained a theocracy, in which the leading prophet and the high priest could, and should, exercise much authority.

abundance, and he has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the general of the army; but your servant Solomon he did not invite. ²⁰Now my master, O king, all Israel is looking to you to inform them as to who is to occupy the throne of my master the king after him. ²¹As it is, when my master the king lies with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be considered as criminals."

²²While she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. ²³They informed the king, "Here is Nathan the prophet!" When he came before the king, he bowed to the king with his face to the ground, ²⁴and said, "My master, O king, did you say, 'Adonijah shall be king after me and shall occupy my throne?' ²⁵For he went down today and sacrificed oxen, well-fed cattle, and sheep in abundance, and invited all the sons of the king, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. Even now they are eating and drinking before him and shouting, 'Long live King Adonijah!' ²⁶But me, your servant, Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Solomon your servant, he did not invite. ²⁷Has this thing been done by my master the king and you have not informed your servants as to who shall occupy the throne of my master the king after him?"

²⁸Then King David responded, "Call Bathsheba for me." When she came and stood before the king, ²⁹the king swore and affirmed, "By the life of the LORD who has redeemed me from all adversity, ³⁰since I have sworn to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall occupy my throne in my place'; I will perform it this very day." ³¹Then Bathsheba fell upon her knees with her face to the ground and paid homage to the king, saying, "May my master King David live forever."^c iada." When they came into the presence of the king, ³³the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your master, and see to it that Solomon my son rides upon my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon."^d ³⁴There let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel; then sound the trumpet and shout, 'Long live King Solomon!' ³⁵Then come up again after him, so that he may enter and occupy my throne; he shall be king in my place, for I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah."

³²King David said further, "Call for me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jeho-

³⁶Benaiah the son of Jehoiada replied, "So be it! May the LORD, the God of my master the king, so decree! ³⁷As the LORD was with my master the king, so may He be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my master King David." ³⁸Accordingly, Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went out and made Solomon ride upon King David's mule and brought him to Gihon, ³⁹where Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they sounded the trumpet and all the people shouted, "Long live King Solomon!" ⁴⁰And all the people followed him, playing flutes and rejoicing so much that the earth was split^e by their noise.

⁴¹Adonijah and all his guests heard it just as they had finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why the sound of the city in tumult?" ⁴²While he was yet speaking, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came in. Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a man of standing and surely bring good news." ⁴³But Jonathan replied to Adonijah, "No, for our master King David has made Solomon king, ⁴⁴and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and Pelethites, and they made him ride upon the king's mule. ⁴⁵And Zadok

c) David and Bathsheba seem to have drifted away from each other.

d) A spring less than ½ mile from Jerusalem, that supplied water for the city.

e) An earth-splitting noise.

the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; they have come up from there rejoicing so that the city is in tumult. That was the noise you heard. ⁴⁶Besides, Solomon has occupied the throne of the kingdom ⁴⁷and the servants of the king have already gone to compliment our master King David, saying, 'May God make Solomon more renowned than you and magnify his throne above yours.' Then the king did homage upon his bed^f and exclaimed, ⁴⁸'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has provided an occupant for my throne while I can still see it with my own eyes.'

⁴⁹All Adonijah's guests were afraid, arose, and went each one his way, ⁵⁰while Adonijah himself was so fearful of Solomon that he too arose and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.^g ⁵¹Solomon then received this report: "Look, Adonijah is so fearful of King Solomon that he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear now that he will not kill his servant with the sword.'"

⁵²Solomon replied, "If he proves worthy, not one of his hairs shall fall to the ground; but if evil be found in him, he shall die." ⁵³So King Solomon sent and brought him down from the altar. When he came, he did homage to King Solomon. King Solomon said to him, "Go home."

970 B.C.

2 WHEN THE TIME OF DAVID'S death came near, he advised his son Solomon: ²"I am about to die. You must be strong and behave as a man. ³You must observe the charge of the LORD your God, by walking in His ways, by observing His statutes, commands, judgments, and testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, so that you may succeed in everything you do and in everything to which you may turn; ⁴and that the LORD may confirm the word which He spoke to me: If your sons watch their steps, so as to walk before Me devotedly, with their whole heart and soul, there shall never be wanting for you a man upon the throne of Israel.

⁵"You also know how Joab the son of Zeruiah^h treated me and how he struck the two captains of the Israelite army, Abner the son of Ner and Amasa the son of Jether, and murdered them, thus shedding the blood of war in time of peace and putting the blood of war on the girdle about his loins and in the shoes on his feet. ⁶Now you must act wisely and not permit his gray head to go down to the grave peacefully. ⁷But to the sons of Barzilai the Gileadite you must be kind and let them be with those who eat at your table, for so they assisted me when I had to flee from Absalom your brother. ⁸Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, is also with you. He cursed me violently at the time I came to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, 'I will not kill you with the sword.' ⁹So do not hold him innocent, for you are a wise man and know how to handle him; you must bring down his gray head in blood to the grave."

¹⁰Then David slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. ¹¹David was king of Israel for forty years; in Hebron he was king for seven years, and in Jerusalem he was king for thirty-three years. ¹²Solomon then occupied the throne of his father David and his kingdom was firmly established.

¹³When Adonijah the son of Hagith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, she said, "Is your coming peaceful?" He replied, "Peaceful," ¹⁴and continued, "May I have a word with you?" "Speak," she responded. ¹⁵He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel expected me to be king.ⁱ But now the

f) His death must have been near.

g) For law of asylum, see Ex. 21:13f.; and places of refuge Deut. 19:1-13. The horns were the most sacred part of the altar.

h) Retribution was in order for those who had misbehaved, and a purge was needed of those who were not loyal to Solomon.

i) A statement not in agreement with fact and Bathsheba must have known that, but she never displayed much moral stamina.

kingdom has gone to my brother because the LORD gave it to him. ¹⁶Accordingly I have but one request of you; do not refuse me." She said to him, "Go on." He went on, ¹⁷"Intercede please with King Solomon for he will not refuse you — that he give me Abishag, the Shunammite, as a wife."

¹⁸Bathsheba answered, "Very well, I will speak to the king on your behalf." ¹⁹So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him in behalf of Adonijah.

The king rose to meet her and bowed to her. Then he sat down on his throne while another throne was provided for the mother of the king who sat at his right. ²⁰She said, "I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me." "Ask me, for I will not refuse you," replied the king. ²¹She went on, "Permit Abishag the Shunammite to become the wife of Adonijah your brother." ²²King Solomon responded to his mother, "Why do you ask for Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask also the kingdom for him! For my brother is older than I and Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Zeruiah are for him."^j ²³Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, "So may God do to me and even more, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against himself. ²⁴Now, then, as the LORD lives, who has confirmed me and made me to sit upon the throne of David my father and who has made me a house, as He promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today." ²⁵Thus King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, who struck him so that he died. ²⁶To Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to your property at Anathoth. You deserve to die, but I will not now put you to death because you bore the ark of the LORD God before my father David and because you endured all the afflictions my father suffered." ²⁷Solomon also removed Abiathar from the priesthood of the LORD, to confirm the word of the LORD spoken concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

²⁸When the report reached Joab — for Joab had supported Adonijah, though he had not supported Absalom — Joab fled to the tabernacle^k of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar. ²⁹When King Solomon was informed that Joab had fled to the tabernacle of the LORD and was there at the altar, Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down." ³⁰So Benaiah went to the tent of the LORD and said to him, "Thus has the king said, 'Come forth.'" He replied, "No; here I shall die." Then Benaiah brought word to the king, "Thus Joab spoke and thus he replied to me." ³¹The king responded, "Do as he said. Strike him down and bury him, so that you may remove from me and from the house of my father the blood which Joab shed without cause. ³²The LORD will cause his bloody deeds to return upon his own head because he struck down two men more righteous and noble than he and murdered them without my father David knowing about it: Abner the son of Ner, the captain of the army of Israel and Amasa the son of Jether, the captain of the army of Judah."

³³Now may their blood return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his descendants forever, and may the peace of the LORD be forever on David, his descendants, his house, and his throne." ³⁴So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck him down and slew him. And he was buried in his own house in the desert. ³⁵Then the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in charge of the army in his place; and Zadok the priest he appointed to take the place of Abiathar.

³⁶Next the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Build for yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but you must not go away anywhere; ³⁷for the day you go out and cross the brook Kidron, be assured that you shall certainly die; your blood shall be on your own head." ³⁸Shimei replied to the king, "The offer is good. Your servant will do as my master the king has ordered." So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

^j) Because of Abishag's relation to David, she could now be married only to a king.

^k) The temple not yet being built.

^l) Joab had murdered both men to keep the generalship for himself. Contrary to David's explicit orders, he had also slain Absalom.

³⁹It happened three years later that two of Shimei's servants ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. When Shimei was informed, "Your servants are in Gath," ⁴⁰he arose, saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to look for his servants. So Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. ⁴¹When Solomon was informed that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned, ⁴²the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn you thus, 'Be assured that on the day you depart or go anywhere, you shall certainly die? And you said to me, 'The offer is good; I have heard it.' ⁴³Now why did you not keep the oath of the LORD and the command which I laid upon you?" ⁴⁴The king said further to Shimei, "You are aware of all the evil which you knowingly did to David my father; may the LORD return your wickedness upon your own head; ⁴⁵but may King Solomon be blessed and the throne of David established before the LORD forever." ⁴⁶Then the king gave orders to Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, who went out and struck him down so that he died.^m So the kingdom was firmly established by the hand of Solomon.

3 SOLOMON ENTERED INTO A MARRIAGE alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt, took the daughter of Pharaoh, and brought her to David's city until he could finish the construction of his house, the house of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem. ²But the people sacrificed on the high places because no house had yet been built for the name of the LORD. ³Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father; only he continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places. ⁴The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there — for it was a great high place; a thousand burnt offerings Solomon offered upon that altar. ⁵At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said: Ask what I shall give you.

⁶Solomon replied, "Thou wert very kind to Thy servant David my father, when he walked before Thee in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with Thee. Thou hast kept for him this great kindness by providing for him a son to occupy his throne this day. ⁷Now, O LORD my God, Thou hast made Thy servant king in place of David my father though I am a mere ladⁿ and do not know how to go out or come in. ⁸Thy servant is in the midst of Thy people whom Thou hast chosen, a great people which cannot be numbered or counted for multitude. ⁹So give Thy servant an observant mind to judge Thy people rightly and to distinguish between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Thine?"

¹⁰The request which Solomon made was pleasing in the sight of the LORD. ¹¹God said to him: Because you have made this request and have not requested for yourself long life, or riches, or the life of your enemies, but have requested for yourself understanding to recognize justice, ¹²I have done according to your word; I have given you a wise and perceptive mind, so that there has been no one before like you nor shall one like you arise after you. ¹³Moreover, that which you did not request I have given you, both riches and honor, so that throughout your days there shall be no king like you.^o ¹⁴If you walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commands, as David your father did, I will extend your days.

¹⁵When Solomon awoke, see, it was a dream! Then he came to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD and offered burnt offerings,

m) Benaiah—The LORD has built—a Levite, was among David's famous heroes. He killed a lion single-handed and with only a staff took a spear away from an Egyptian giant and killed him. He had captured David's bodyguard, at whose head he had escorted Solomon to his throne and now he was made commander-in-chief. n) I.e., in comparison with David.

e) Possessed of God-given wisdom, he should be able to handle wealth to God's glory.

made peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

¹⁶Then two women of ill repute^p came to the king and stood before him.

¹⁷The one woman said, "Oh, my master, I and this woman live in the same house, and I had a child while with her in the house. ¹⁸The third day after I had my child, this woman also had a child. We were together, and no one else was with us in the house; it was just we two in the house. ¹⁹The son of this woman died at night because she lay on it; ²⁰so she got up in the middle of the night, took my son from my side and, while your maid-servant was sleeping, laid him in her bosom and placed her dead son in my bosom. ²¹In the morning when I arose to nurse my son, look, he was dead! But when I could look at him closely in the morning, see, he was not my son whom I had borne."

²²The other woman retorted, "Not so; my son is the living one and yours is the dead one." But the first woman affirmed, "Untrue; your son is the dead one and mine the living one." So they argued before the king. ²³The king remarked, "This woman asserts, 'This living one is my son; your son is dead'; and that one replies, 'Not so; yours is the dead son and mine the living son.'"

²⁴Then he ordered, "Get me a sword." When they brought the sword before the king, ²⁵the king said, "Cut the living child in two and give half to the one and half to the other." ²⁶Then the woman whose was the living son said to the king — for her motherly compassion went out to her son — "Oh, my master, give her the living child; only do not kill him." But the other woman retorted, "He shall be neither mine nor yours! Cut him in two!" ²⁷The king replied, "Give the first woman the living child — you must not kill him — for she is his mother."^q ²⁸When all Israel heard about the decision the king had rendered, they respected the king because they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

4 KING SOLOMON WAS KING OVER all Israel. ²These were his leading men: Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest;^r ³Elihoreph and Abijah the sons of Shisha were scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder; ⁴Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was in charge of the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; ⁵Azariah the son of Nathan was in charge of the officials; Zabud the son of Nathan was a priest and a friend of the king; ⁶Ahishar was in charge of the house; and Adoniram the son of Abda was in charge of conscript labor.

⁷Solomon also had twelve overseers in charge of all Israel,^s who supplied food for the king and his household, each one supplying food for one month in the year. ⁸These are their names: the son of Hur, in Mount Ephraim; ⁹the son of Deker, in Makaz, in Shaalbim, in Bethshemesh, and in Elonbeth-hanan; ¹⁰the son of Heshed, in Aruboth (he had Socoh and all the territory of Hephher); ¹¹the son of Abinadab, in all the highlands of Dor (Taphath, Solomon's daughter, was his wife);^t ¹²Baana the son of Ahilud in Taanach, Megiddo, and in all Bethshean beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Bethshean to Abel-Meholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam; ¹³the son of Geber, in Ramoth-Gilead (he had the tent villages of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead and the territory of Argob which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars); ¹⁴Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim; ¹⁵Ahimaaaz, in Naphtali and he married Basemath, Solomon's daughter. ¹⁶Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth; ¹⁷Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar; ¹⁸Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin; ¹⁹Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the

p) We would consider them "promiscuous." Rarely do modern prostitutes bear children.

q) Such a judgment indicates more than knowledge; it reveals feeling, intelligence and insight into a mother's heart. r) The high priest. s) Obviously one for each tribe.

t) Solomon was hardly past 20 when he took the throne. This statement probably names Abinadab's son as Taphath's future husband. She is mentioned only here.

Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and one overseer was in the land.^u ²⁰Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea; they ate, drank and enjoyed life.^v

²¹Solomon was ruler over all the kingdoms from the River^w to the land of the Philistines, to the border of Egypt. They paid tribute and served Solomon as long as he lived. ²²Solomon's food supply for one day consisted of 195 bushels of fine flour, 390 bushels of meal, ²³10 fat cattle, 20 pasture-fed cattle, 100 sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened fowls. ²⁴For he had dominion over everything on this side of the River, from Tiphseh to Gaza, and over all the kings this side of the River; and he was at peace on all sides, ²⁵so that Judah and Israel lived in security — each under his own vine and under his own fig tree — from Dan to Beer-sheba, so long as Solomon lived.

²⁶Solomon also had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots and 12,000 horsemen.^x ²⁷Those overseers, each in his month, supplied food for King Solomon and all who came to the table of King Solomon; they did not overlook a thing. ²⁸They brought barley and straw to the appointed place for the horses and the camels, each according to his allotment.

²⁹God gave Solomon wisdom, very deep understanding, and range of mind as broad as the sand on the seashore, ³⁰so that the wisdom of Solomon was superior to the wisdom of the Easterners and to all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹He was wiser than all other men, than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Chalcol, and Darda sons of Mahol;^y and his fame spread to all the surrounding nations. ³²He also was the originator of 3,000 proverbs and the author of 1,005 songs. ³³He discoursed on trees, from the cedar of Lebanon to the hyssop which grows out of the city wall, and he talked on beasts, birds, reptiles, and fish.^z ³⁴People from every nation, whose kings had heard about his wisdom, came to listen to the wisdom of Solomon.

5 WHEN HIRAM KING OF TYRE heard that they had anointed Solomon king in place of his father, he sent his servants to Solomon, because he had always been friendly with David. ²Then Solomon sent this message to Hiram, ³"You know that David my father was unable to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which occupied him until the LORD put them^a under the soles of his feet. ⁴But now the LORD my God has given me rest all around; there is neither adversary nor opposition. ⁵So I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD revealed to David my father, saying: Your son, whom I am putting on the throne after you, he shall build the house for My name. ⁶Now then, give the order that cedars from Lebanon be cut for me; my servants shall work with your servants, and I will pay your servants whatever wages you ask, for you know that there is not a single person among us who can cut timber like the Sidonians."

⁷When Hiram received the message of Solomon, he was greatly delighted and said, "Blessed be the LORD today who has given to David a wise son to have charge of this great people." ⁸Hiram then sent this message to Solomon, "I have received your communication to me. I am ready to comply with your request for cedar and cypress lumber. ⁹My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea, where I shall have them made into floats to be conveyed by sea to the place you designate where I will have them taken apart so that you can take them up.

u) In charge of all the officials.

v) Not intimating that the people thought of nothing else, but that, enjoying divine blessing, they were happy and content. w) So II Chr. 9:26, the Euphrates.

x) A dangerous accumulation [Deut. 17:16].

y) Ethan composed Ps. 89; Heman composed Ps. 88. They, with Chalcol and Darda, also Zimri, are mentioned in I Chron. 2:6, as five famous brothers of the tribe of Judah.

z) His writings required much thought and experience, and his discourses became possible as he grew intimate with people and with nature. Solomon heartily applied God's endowments.

a) His enemies.

You may pay me by supplying food for my household." ¹⁰So Hiram gave Solomon all the cedar and cypress wood he wanted. ¹¹And Solomon gave Hiram 20,000 sacks of wheat for food for his household and 20,000 barrels^a of pure oil. This was what Solomon gave to Hiram annually. ¹²The LORD gave Solomon wisdom as He had promised him, and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, for both of them had agreed to a treaty.

¹³Then King Solomon raised a battalion of conscript laborers from all Israel. It consisted of 30,000 men: 1410,000 a month he sent by turns to Lebanon; one month they worked in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram had charge of the conscript laborers. ¹⁵Solomon also had 70,000 transporters and 80,000 stonemasons in the mountains. ¹⁶Besides Solomon's chief overseers, who had charge of the work, there were 3,300 foremen directing the people who did the work. ¹⁷The king gave orders that large, costly stones be quarried to lay the foundation of the house with squared stone. ¹⁸Thus the builders of Solomon, the builders of Hiram, and the Gebalites^b quarried the stone and prepared both timber and stone for the construction of the house.

April-May 966 B.C.

6 IN THE 480TH YEAR AFTER THE children of Israel left the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv^c (which is the second month), he built the house of the LORD. ²The house which King Solomon built for the LORD was 90 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 45 feet high. ³The porch in front of the temple itself was 30 feet long, as was the width of the house, and its width was 15 feet in front of the house. ⁴He made windows with narrow frameworks for the house. ⁵Against the wall of the house he built side rooms all around — all around the walls both of the temple and the inner room^d and he made cells all around. ⁶The lowest side rooms were 7½ feet wide, the middle 9 feet wide, and the third 10½ feet wide, for he made recesses all around the outside of the house so that (the girders) should not be laid in the walls of the house.

⁷The house was built of stones dressed at the quarry; there was no sound of hammer, chisel, or any other iron tool while the house was being built. ⁸The door of the lowest side rooms was on the right side of the house and by winding steps one could go up to the middle side chambers and from the middle to the third. ⁹So he built the house and completed it; he paneled the house, beams, and pillars, with cedar. ¹⁰He made the side rooms of the house 7½ feet high, and they were fastened to the house with cedar lumber.

¹¹The word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying: ¹²About this house which you are building, if you walk in My statutes, carry out My judgments, and observe all My commandments, I will fulfill My promise concerning you which I made to David your father. ¹³And I will abide with the children of Israel and will never leave My people Israel.

¹⁴So Solomon brought the house to completion. ¹⁵The inside walls of the house he covered with cedar boards from the floor to the rafters of the ceiling — he overlaid the inside with wood and covered the floor of the house with cypress boards. ¹⁶At the back of the house he enclosed a space of about 30 feet with cedar boards from the floor to the rafters and made for himself inside the house an inner room, a sanctuary. ¹⁷The house, the part of the temple before it,^e was 60 feet long. ¹⁸The cedar covering the inside of the house was decorated with designs of rosebuds and open flowers; only the cedar, and no stone, was visible. ¹⁹He then prepared a sanctuary in the innermost part of the house for the

a) Following the Septuagint.

b) From Gebal, 13 miles north of Beirut, on the coast, the present Byblos.

c) Corresponding approximately to May, when he began to build.

d) The Holy of Holies, second room of the sanctuary.

e) The first room of the sanctuary, usually called "the holy place."

ark of the covenant of the LORD. ²⁰In front of the sanctuary, which was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 30 feet high and which he overlaid with solid gold, he made^f an altar of cedar. ²¹So Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with solid gold and put golden chains across in front of the sanctuary which he also overlaid with gold. ²²He completely overlaid the whole house with gold, as well as the entire altar of the sanctuary.

²³For the sanctuary^g he made two cherubim of olivewood, 15 feet high; ²⁴each wing of the one cherub was 7½ feet long, so that the distance from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other wing was 15 feet. ²⁵The other cherub also was 15 feet — both cherubim were of the same size and shape. ²⁶The height of one cherub was 15 feet, as was that of the other. ²⁷He put the cherubim in the inner room of the house, the wings of the cherubim being spread out so that the wing of one touched one wall and the wing of the other touched the other wall, while their wings touched each other in the center of the house. ²⁸The cherubim he also overlaid with gold.

²⁹The inside and outside walls of the house he decorated with engraved figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, ³⁰and the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. ³¹For the entrance of the holy place he made double doors of olivewood, the lintel and the doorposts forming five sides and angles. ³²Both doors of olivewood he decorated with cherubic figures, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; the cherubim and palm trees he overlaid with beaten gold. ³³Then he made square doorposts of olivewood for the entrance to the temple, ³⁴and two doors of cypress wood, the two leaves of the one door folded, as did those of the other door. ³⁵He decorated them with

cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers and overlaid them with gold, evenly spread over the engraved work. ³⁶The inner court he constructed with three courses of dressed stones and one course of cedar beams. ³⁷The foundation of the house of the LORD was laid in the fourth year,^h in the month of Ziv, ³⁸and in the eleventh year, in Bul, the eighth month, the house was completed in every detail according to plan.ⁱ So he built it in seven years.

7 BUT IT TOOK SOLOMON 13 YEARS to complete the building of his own house.^j His house, constructed of Lebanese lumber, was 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high, and rested upon four rows of cedar pillars with cedar rafters upon the pillars. ³It was covered with cedar above the rafters upon the 45 pillars, 15 to a row. ⁴There were three rows of window frames, with window facing window for the three rows; ⁵and all the doors and windows had square frames, window over against window for the three rows. ⁶He made a vestibule of pillars, 75 feet long and 45 feet wide with a porch in front of them and pillars and cornice in front. ⁷He constructed a throne porch, a porch of judgment, where he might pronounce decisions,^k and it was panelled with cedar from floor to roof. ⁸The house in which he was to live was in a court other than that of the porch of judgment but of the same workmanship; he also made a house like this porch for Pharaoh's daughter whom Solomon had married.

⁹All these buildings were constructed, from the foundation to the coping and from the outside to the great court, of expensive stones, cut according to measure and sawed on both sides. ¹⁰Even the foundation was made of expensive stones, large stones, stones of 15 feet and stones of 12 feet. ¹¹Above them lay expensive stones, cut

f) The altar for incense, outside the veil of the Holy of Holies and thus standing in the holy place, but belonging to the Holy of Holies.

g) The Holy of Holies; the cherubim above the mercy seat of the ark of the covenant.

h) Of Solomon's reign.

i) A reproduction but not a replica of the tabernacle. Essentially similar form and furniture but the framework of larger dimensions. j) Fewer workers or more elaborate construction.

k) The king was final judge, the "Supreme Court."

according to measure, in addition to cedar. ¹²The great court had three courses of dressed stone and a series of cedar rafters just as the inner court of the house of the LORD and the porch of the house.

¹³Then King Solomon had Hiram brought from Tyre.¹ ¹⁴He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali; his father had been a Tyrian bronze worker. He was intelligent, talented, and skilled in all types of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all his work. ¹⁵He cast two bronze pillars; the one was 27 feet high with a circumference of 18 feet and the other like it. ¹⁶Then he made two capitals of molten bronze for the top of the pillars, each 7½ feet high; ¹⁷also trelliswork designs — festoons and chainwork — for the capitals on top of the pillars, seven for each capital. ¹⁸Besides, he made the pomegranates,^m two rows around the one trelliswork to cover the capitals on top of the pillars; he made the same for the other capital. ¹⁹The capitals on top of the pillars in the porch were of lily design, six feet. ²⁰Moreover, the capitals on the two pillars above the adjacent circular projection on the trelliswork side had 200 pomegranates in rows around both capitals. ²¹Then he set up the pillars at the porch of the temple; when he set up the right pillar he called it Jachin,ⁿ and when he had set up the left pillar he called it Boaz.^o ²²On top of the pillars was a lily design. And so work on the pillars was finished.

²³Next he made the molten sea, which was 15 feet from brim to brim, perfectly round, 7½ feet high and 45 feet in circumference. ²⁴Rosebud decorations under the brim surrounding it extended around it, ten in a cubit,^p two rows of the rosebud decorations having been cast in the metal. ²⁵It rested on twelve oxen, three facing northward, three facing westward, three facing southward, and three facing eastward; the sea was mounted upon them, their back parts being turned inward. ²⁶It was four inches thick; its brim was made like that of a goblet, like a lily blossom, and its capacity was 18,000 gallons. ²⁷Then he made ten bronze bases; each base was six feet long, six feet wide, and four and a half feet high.

²⁸This is the way the bases were constructed; they had borders; there were borders between the frames ²⁹and on the borders between the bases were lions, oxen, and cherubim, and on the frames the same; above and below the lions and oxen were punchwork rosettes. ³⁰Each base had four bronze wheels and bronze axles and the four corners had supports; the supports under the eaves were of cast metal with rosettes on the side of each. ³¹Its mouth inside the supports and up was a foot and a half; it was round like the work of a pedestal for two and a half feet. Also upon its mouth were engravings and its borders were square, not round. ³²The four wheels were under the borders, while the stays of the wheels were on the base. The height of a wheel was about two feet. ³³The wheels were made like chariot wheels; their stays, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast. ³⁴There were four supports running to the far corners of each base, the support being part of the base. ³⁵At the top of the base was a round object nine inches high and on the top of the base its stays, the borders being part of the base. ³⁶On the plain spaces of the stays and upon the borders, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees and around the space still left rosettes. ³⁷He made the ten bases in the same way; they were all identical in cast, size, and shape. ³⁸He made ten bronze lavers, each with a capacity of 360 gallons and each measuring six feet; one laver was placed on each of the ten bases. ³⁹He then placed five of the bases on the right side of the house and five on the left side, and the sea he placed on the right side of the house to the east, facing the south.

1) Not to be confused with King Hiram. His mother was a Hebrew.

m) Imitations in stone as those on the high priest's robe were of cloth.

n) "He establishes." o) "In Him is strength." p) A foot and a half.

⁴⁰Hiram also made the lavers, the shovels, and the bowls. So Hiram finished all the work which he did for King Solomon for the house of the LORD: ⁴¹the two pillars, the two bowl-like capitals on top of both pillars, the two trellisworks covering the two bowl-like capitals on top of the pillars, ⁴²the 400 pomegranates for the two trellisworks, two rows of pomegranates for each trelliswork, to cover both bowl-like capitals on top of the pillars, ⁴³the ten bases, and the ten lavers upon the bases, ⁴⁴and the one sea and the twelve oxen under the sea. ⁴⁵The pots, the shovels, and the basins, and all these articles which Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were made of polished bronze. ⁴⁶He cast them in the clay molds in the Jordan district between Succoth and Zarethan.

⁴⁷Solomon left (unweighed) all the articles; the weight of the bronze could not be ascertained because it was past counting. ⁴⁸So Solomon made all the articles for the LORD's house; the altar was made of gold and so was the table of showbread.

⁴⁹The lampstands,^a five to the right and five to the left of the sanctuary, were made of solid gold; the blossoms, the lights, and the tongs also were made of gold. ⁵⁰The goblets, the snuffers, the bowls, the pans, the censers were made of pure gold; the hinges of the doors of the inside house, the Holy of Holies, and those of the doors of the house, the temple, were also made of gold. ⁵¹When all the work which King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was finished, he brought the dedicated things of David his father — the gold, the silver, and other articles — and deposited them in the treasures of the LORD's house.

⁵⁵⁹ B.C.

8 THEN SOLOMON BROUGHT TOGETHER the elders of Israel — all the heads of the tribes, all the princes of the clans of the children of Israel — to King Solomon at Jerusalem, to transfer the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion. ²All the men of Israel came together to King Solomon for the feast in the month of Ethanim which is the seventh month.^r ³All the elders of Israel came and the priests took up the ark. ⁴So they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting and all the sacred articles in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up. ⁵King Solomon and the whole congregation of Israel, assembled to him for the occasion, were with him in front of the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, so many they could not be numbered or counted. ⁶The priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place in the sanctuary of the house, in the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cherubim; ⁷for the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark and formed a canopy over the ark with its carrying poles. ⁸The carrying poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the holy place in front of the sanctuary, though they could not be seen from the outside.^s They are there to this day. ⁹Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰When the priests emerged from the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD, ¹¹so that the priests were unable to keep on ministering to the LORD because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the LORD's house.

¹²Solomon said, "The LORD said: He dwells in a heavy cloud. ¹³I have indeed built a lofty abode for Thee; a house for Thee to dwell in forever."

¹⁴Then Solomon turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, while the whole congregation of Israel stood. ¹⁵He said, "Blessed be the

q) Mention of candlesticks in a Bible translation is unfortunate; there were no candles in Bible times and had there been, they would have been useless for God's house because oil in a bowl supplied the fuel for illumination, conveyed from the central bowl with wicks through golden pipes. r) Corresponding to October, in the rainy season.

s) They came through from the Holy of Holies, under the veil.

LORD God of Israel, who with His own mouth spoke to my father David and with His own hand has fulfilled it, saying: ¹⁶At the time I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I did not choose a city in any of the tribes of Israel where a house for My name should be built, but I chose David to have charge of My people Israel.¹⁷ When David my father was minded to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel, ¹⁸the LORD said to David my father: Although you were minded to build a house for My name — and you did well to be so minded — ¹⁹indeed you shall not build the house; but your son who comes from your loins shall build the house for My name. ²⁰Now the LORD has fulfilled the promise which He made; I have been elevated in the place of David my father and occupy the throne of Israel, as the LORD said. So I have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel, ²¹and I have made here a place for the ark wherein is the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers when He brought them up out of the land of Egypt."

²²Solomon stood in front of the altar of the LORD before the whole congregation of Israel and, spreading out his hands toward heaven, ²³said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like Thee in heaven above or in the earth beneath, who loyally observes the covenant with Thy servants when they walk before Thee with perfect devotion. ²⁴Thou hast kept Thy promise to David my father; with Thy mouth Thou hast spoken, and with Thy hand Thou hast fulfilled as it appears today. ²⁵Now, O LORD, God of Israel, fulfill for Thy servant David my father what Thou didst promise him saying: You shall never lack before Me an occupant for the throne of Israel, provided, indeed, that your sons pay attention to their ways so as to walk before Me as you did. ²⁶Now, therefore, O God of Israel, confirm Thy word which Thou gavest to Thy servant David my father.

²⁷"But can God really dwell upon the earth? Behold, the heavens cannot contain Thee, how much less this house which I have constructed."

²⁸Listen now, to the prayer and supplication of Thy servant, O LORD God, so that Thou mayest be responsive to the cry and prayer which Thy servant is uttering today in Thy presence; ²⁹that Thine eyes may be open night and day toward this house concerning which Thou hast said: My name shall be there, to hear the prayer Thy servant is offering toward this house. ³⁰Give ear, therefore, to the supplication of Thy servant and of Thy people Israel, which they are making toward this place, and when Thou hearest it in Thy dwelling place in heaven, give ear and forgive.

³¹"When a man wrongs his neighbor, is made to swear an oath, and comes and swears before Thine altar in this house, ³²then hear Thou in heaven and act to judge Thy servants; sentencing the wrongdoer so as to punish him for his wrong and acquitting the righteous because of his innocence.

³³"When Thy people Israel are routed before the enemy because they have sinned against Thee and they return to Thee, confess Thy name, pray, and implore Thy favor in this house. ³⁴then hear Thou in heaven, forgive the sin of Thy people Israel, and allow them to return to the land which Thou gavest to their fathers.

³⁵"When heaven is sealed up so that it does not rain because they have sinned against Thee, and they pray toward this place, confess Thy name, and turn from their sin when Thou dost discipline them, ³⁶then hear Thou in heaven, forgive the sin of Thy servants, Thy people Israel — for Thou art instructing them in the good way which they are to go — and send rain upon the land which Thou gavest Thy people as an inheritance.

t) God prefers that we voluntarily honor Him.

u) The thought of God's omnipresence, of His infinity is not new. That He does make His presence felt where His people gather remains a never-ending wonder. Also that He so willingly dwells with a worshipping household.

37"When there is a famine in the land, when there is pestilence, when there is blight, mildew, locust, or grasshopper; when their enemy besieges them in any of their cities; when there is any plague or disease, ³⁸and any prayer or supplication is made by any one of all Thy people Israel who recognizes what his trouble is and stretches out his hands toward this place, ³⁹then hear Thou in heaven, Thy dwelling place, forgive, and act to reward each one, whose mind Thou knowest, in accordance with his conduct — for Thou alone knowest the mind of all men — ⁴⁰in order that they may revere Thee all the days that they live in the land which Thou gavest our fathers."

⁴¹"The foreigner" too, who is not one of Thy people Israel, but comes from a faraway land for Thy name's sake — ⁴²for they will hear of Thy great name, Thy mighty hand, and Thine outstretched arm — when he shall come to pray at this house, ⁴³hear Thou in heaven Thy dwelling place and do everything the foreigner requests of Thee, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Thy name, revere Thee as Thy people Israel do, and know that Thou hast accepted this house which I have built.

⁴⁴"Whenever Thy people go out to fight their enemy, wherever Thou mayest send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city Thou hast chosen and the house I built to Thy name, ⁴⁵then hear Thou in heaven their prayer and supplication and support their cause. ⁴⁶When they sin against Thee — for there is no one who does not sin — and in Thy wrath Thou dost abandon them to the enemy, so that their captors take them away as prisoners into a foreign land, near or far, ⁴⁷and then they think it over in the land where they have been taken as prisoners, repent, and implore Thy favor in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned, done wrong, and transgressed,' ⁴⁸repenting with all their heart and soul in the land of their captors, where they took them, and pray to Thee toward their land which Thou gavest their fathers, the city Thou hast chosen and the house which I have built to Thy name, ⁴⁹then hear Thou their prayer and supplication in heaven, Thy dwelling place, support their cause, ⁵⁰forgive all the transgressions of Thy people who have sinned and transgressed against Thee, and grant them compassion before their captors so that they may show mercy toward them — ⁵¹for they are Thy people, Thy heritage, whom Thou hast brought out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace.

⁵²"May Thine eyes^x be open to the supplication of Thy servant and to the supplication of Thy people Israel so as to listen to them whenever they call to Thee. ⁵³For Thou didst set them apart from all the peoples of the earth as Thy heritage, as Thou didst say through Moses Thy servant when Thou didst bring our fathers from Egypt, O LORD GOD."

⁵⁴When Solomon had finished all this prayer and supplication, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven, ⁵⁵and, standing, he blessed the whole congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, ⁵⁶"Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to His people Israel in accordance with His word; not a single detail of His good words spoken through Moses His servant has failed. ⁵⁷May the LORD our God be with us as He was with our fathers; may He neither forsake us nor abandon us, ⁵⁸but turn our hearts toward Himself, that we may walk in His ways and observe His commandments, His statutes, and judgments which He prescribed for our fathers. ⁵⁹May these words of mine with which I have prayed before the LORD be near to the LORD our God, night and day, to maintain the cause of His servant and of His people Israel in accordance with

v) Solomon is a true leader in prayer for he expresses the hopes and the needs of his people. As a nation is worshiping with him, this is a national prayer.

w) Not only the stranger living in the land, but also the one coming from afar to worship. A considerate prayer has to become missionary; it includes outsiders.

x) Gk. ears.

daily needs, ⁶⁰so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God, for there is no other.^y ⁶¹May you too be of one mind with the LORD our God so as to walk in His statutes and keep His commandments as today."

⁶²Then the king together with all Israel offered sacrifices to the LORD. ⁶³Solomon offered in peace offerings to the LORD 22,000 cattle^z and 120,000 of the flocks, when the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. ⁶⁴At that time the king had set apart the center of the court before the house of the LORD where he offered the burnt offering, the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offering, because the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offering, the meal offering and the fat of the peace offering.

⁶⁵So Solomon together with all Israel (a great congregation assembled from the Hamath pass to the Brook of Egypt) held a feast before the LORD our God^a for seven days and seven more days. ⁶⁶On the eighth day,^b when he dismissed them, they blessed the king. Then they went to their tents^c rejoicing and happy over all the goodness of the LORD to David His servant and Israel His people.

9 WHEN SOLOMON HAD COMPLETED the building of the house of the LORD and the palace of the king, and all the other things Solomon had wanted to construct, ²the LORD appeared to Solomon again as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³The LORD said to him: I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built by placing My name there forever; My eyes and My heart shall be there continually. ⁴As for you, if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, with absolute integrity of heart, doing everything I command you, and keeping My statutes and judgments, ⁵then I will make secure the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised David your father, saying: There shall never fail you an occupant for the throne of Israel.

⁶If, however, you or your sons turn away from Me and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have placed before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them, ⁷then I will cut off Israel from the land I gave them, and the house I consecrated to My name I will put out of My sight; Israel will become a proverb and a byword among all the peoples. ⁸This house shall become a ruin,^d and every one passing by shall whistle in astonishment and exclaim, "Why has the LORD so treated this land and this house?" ⁹And they will reply, "Because they forsook the LORD their God who brought their fathers from the land of Egypt; they embraced other gods and worshiped and served them; that is why the LORD brought all this misfortune upon them."^e

950 B.C.

¹⁰At the end of twenty years, during which time Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the house of the king, ¹¹since Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber, and with as much gold as he wanted, King Solomon transferred twenty cities in Galilee to Hiram.^f ¹²When Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities Solomon had transferred to him, he was displeased with them ¹³and complained, "What kind of towns are these which you have given me, my brother?" So

y) Beginning with the call of Abraham [Gen. 12:3], invariably God makes clear that He purposes those whom He blesses to be a blessing.

z) Oxen as we think of them are mutilated animals; therefore not acceptable for sacrifice.

a) Solomon succeeded in sharing with his people a sense of godly fellowship, so they were of one mind toward God and toward one another. They could think and speak of "our God."

b) The day after the second week.

c) Then, to their homes. And they returned there a different, a better people, for whom worshiping God had grown more natural and satisfying. No wonder they "blessed the king."

d) See Mic. 3:12 and Jer. 26:18.

e) God never ceases instruction, because we never learn more than we need. The Bible is a textbook that requires continued, repeated reading and rethinking.

f) Illegally, delivering Hebrews to pagans, contrary to God's program.

they call them the territory of Cabul^g to this day. ¹⁴Hiram had paid the king 3,500,000 dollars in gold for them.^h

¹⁵Now this is the way King Solomon conscripted the labor corps to build the house of the LORD, his house, the Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer — ¹⁶Pharaoh king of Egypt had come up and captured Gezer, burned it down, and killed the Canaanite population of the city; then he gave it as a dowry to his daughter, the wife of Solomon. ¹⁷So Solomon built Gezer, Lower Beth-horon, ¹⁸Baalath, Tamar in the desert land, ¹⁹all of Solomon's store-cities, the chariot-cities, the house-cities and whatever other structures he desired in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his dominion. ²⁰Solomon conscripted his labor corps, as they do now, from all the people who survived from the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites who were not Israelites — ²¹they were the descendants of those whom the Israelites were unable to exterminate. ²²But Solomon never made slaves of Israelites; they were his warriors, his courtiers, his officers, his captains, his chariot officers, and his cavalry officers. ²³These were the chief officials who supervised Solomon's work — 550 of them — who directed the people who did the work.

²⁴As soon as Pharaoh's daughter had come up from David's city to her house, which he had built for her, he built the Millo.ⁱ

²⁵Three times annually Solomon used to offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar he had made for the LORD; he also used to burn incense with it before the LORD. So he finished the house.

²⁶King Solomon also built a fleet at Ezion-geber near Eloth^k on the shore of the Red Sea in the land of Edom. ²⁷Hiram sent his servants, skilled sailors who knew the sea, to man the fleet with the servants of Solomon. ²⁸They went to Ophir where they procured 12,350,000 dollars worth of gold and brought it to King Solomon.

10 WHEN THE QUEEN OF SHEBA heard about the fame of Solomon in relation to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with perplexing questions. ²She came to Jerusalem with an immense train of camels bearing spices, piles of gold and precious stones. As soon as she came to Solomon, she disclosed to him everything that was on her mind. ³Solomon, in turn, answered all her questions. Nothing was obscure to the king which he could not explain to her.

⁴When the queen of Sheba^l grew fully aware of all the wisdom of Solomon, the house he had built, ⁵the food of his table, the seating of his courtiers, the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he used to offer in the house of the LORD, she was breathless. ⁶She said to the king, "The report about your understanding and wisdom that I heard in my land was true; ⁷I did not believe it until I came and my own eyes saw it. Truly the half has not been told me; your wisdom and wealth exceed the report I heard. ⁸Fortunate are your men; fortunate these courtiers of yours who are continually present with you, hearing your wisdom. ⁹Blessed be the LORD your God who was pleased to give you the throne of Israel. Because the LORD loved Israel eternally, He made you king to rule justly and righteously." ¹⁰Then she presented to the king 3,500,000 dollars in gold, a huge quantity of spices and precious stones — never again did such an amount of spices come in as that which the queen of Sheba presented to King Solomon.

¹¹The ships of Hiram that transported gold from Ophir also brought a very great quantity of almu^m wood^m

g) Unproductive land.

h) What he had contributed toward Solomon's buildings. i) Uninhabited country.

j) A fortress connected with Jerusalem, probably to control the remaining Jebusites; also to protect the city against outside enemies. k) Meaning terebinth; now Aqabah.

l) A southwestern Arabian people, possibly descended from Abraham through Jokshan, by Keturah [Gen. 25:1-3].

m) Called almu wood [II Chron. 9:10]; resembling fig tree wood but whiter and more shiny; also fragrant enough for incense.

and precious stones.¹² The king used the almag wood to make pillars for the house of the LORD and the house of the king, and lyres and harps for the singers—such almag wood has not come in nor been seen to this day.¹³ In return, King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she wanted or asked for, aside from what he gave her from the royal bounty.¹⁴ Then she, together with her courtiers, returned to her country.

¹⁴Solomon received about 20,000,000 dollars in gold annually¹⁵ besides what came in from mercantile taxes and the profits from trade with the Arabian kings and the governors of the land.¹⁶ Solomon also made 200 bucklers of hammered gold, each buckler containing 6000 dollars worth of gold,¹⁷ and 300 shields of hammered gold, each shield containing 1800 dollars worth of gold. The king put them into the house of the forest of Lebanon.

¹⁸The king made a large ivory throne which he overlaid with pure gold.¹⁹ The throne had six steps, and on the top rear of the throne was a rounded head; on each side of the seat were arms and beside them stood two lions.²⁰ Twelve lions stood there, one on either end of each of the six steps. Nothing like it was made in any other kingdom.²¹ All of King Solomon's drinking utensils were made of gold, and all the utensils of the house of the forest of Lebanon were made of solid gold; none were made of silver because silver was not considered of value in the days of Solomon.²² For the king's Tarshish fleet was in partnership with Hiram's fleet; once every three years the Tarshish fleet brought gold, silver, ivory, apes, and baboons.

²³So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom.²⁴ The whole world consulted Solomon to benefit from the wisdom with which God had endowed him.²⁵ They brought, each one, his tribute—utensils of silver, vessels of gold, robes, spices, horses, and mules—a fixed amount each year.²⁶ Solomon also acquired chariots and horses so that he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses quartered in chariot-cities or in Jerusalem with the king.²⁷ The king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem and cedar as plentiful as sycamore trees in the Shephelah.²⁸ Solomon's horses came from Egypt and Cilicia;^{*} the royal merchants brought [them] from Cilicia at the prevailing price—²⁹an Egyptian chariot for 400 dollars in silver and a horse for 100 dollars—and so they delivered them by their hand[†] to all the Hittite and Syrian kings.

11 KING SOLOMON LOVED, IN ADDITION to the daughter of Pharaoh, many foreign women, Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women,² from the nations concerning which the LORD had warned the Israelites: You must not cohabit with them, nor they with you, for they will certainly turn your hearts to their gods. Solomon held fast to them in love.³ He had 700 official wives and 300 concubines who perverted his mind.⁴ When Solomon became old, his wives turned his heart to other gods, so that his heart was no longer true to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been.⁵ Solomon was submissive to Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and to Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites.⁶ So Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD and was not true to the LORD as David his father had been.⁷ Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom,⁸ the abomination of the Ammonites, on the mountain in front of Jerusalem.⁸ Thus Solomon provided for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

⁹The LORD was angry with Solomon, because his mind turned against the LORD God of Israel who had ap-

n) Oriental fashion, the recipient of gifts should do somewhat better in return.

o) These tributes came from peoples whom David had conquered.

p) Which was divinely forbidden [Deut. 17:16]. q) The foothills of Judah, westward.

r) Solomon's backsliding evidences the difference between intelligence and devotion. His head and his heart did not fully harmonize. s) See II Kings 23:13.

*) The Hebrew has "from Egypt and Keveh," the latter being interpreted as Cilicia.

†) i.e., by their agency.

peared to him twice, ¹⁰and had instructed him specifically about this thing, that he must not submit to other gods. But he did not observe the LORD's instruction. ¹¹The LORD said to Solomon: Because you did this and have not observed My covenant and My statutes which I commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant. ¹²However, I will not do it as long as you live for your father David's sake; I will tear it away from the hand of your son. ¹³Moreover, I will not tear away the whole kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for my servant David's sake and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen.^t ¹⁴Then the LORD confronted Solomon with an opponent, Hadad the Edomite, who was a member of the royal family of Edom. ¹⁵It happened when David was busy with Edom, and Joab the captain of the army had gone to bury the dead and cut down every male in Edom — ¹⁶for Joab and all Israel stayed there for six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom — ¹⁷that Hadad, who was just a small boy, together with some Edomite servants of his father's, fled to Egypt. ¹⁸They went from Midian to Paran and, taking with them some men from Paran, they came to Egypt to the Pharaoh of Egypt, who gave him a house, ordered provisions for him, and gave him land. ¹⁹Hadad became a favorite with the Pharaoh, so that he gave him his sister-in-law, the sister of Tahpenes the queen, as wife. ²⁰The sister of Tahpenes bore Genubath, his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. Genubath remained in the house of Pharaoh with Pharaoh's sons. ²¹When Hadad heard in Egypt that David had been laid to rest with his fathers and that Joab, the captain of the army, was dead, he said to Pharaoh, "Let me go to my country." ²²Pharaoh replied, "What are you in need of that you want to leave and go to your country?" "Nothing," he affirmed, "just let me go."

²³God confronted him with another opponent,^u Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer, king of Zobah. ²⁴He then associated to himself some men, so that he became the leader of a group of raiders who, when David would kill them, went to Damascus. He remained there and became king in Damascus. ²⁵He was Israel's opponent throughout the lifetime of Solomon — doing harm as Hadad did — and he loathed Israel when he was king in Edom.

²⁶Then there was Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite from Zeredah (whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow), a servant of Solomon who rebelled against the king. ²⁷This is how he rebelled against the king. Solomon built the Millo and closed the breaks in the city of David his father. ²⁸Jeroboam was a very able man, and when Solomon saw how energetic the young man was, he made him overseer of all the conscript labor of the house of Joseph. ²⁹One time as Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met him and turned him aside. He had on a new robe, and when the two of them were in the field alone, ³⁰Ahijah took the new robe he had on, tore it into twelve pieces, ³¹and said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces yourself, for thus says the LORD God of Israel: I am tearing the kingdom out of the hands of Solomon, and I will give you the ten tribes (³²but he shall retain one tribe^v for my servant David's sake and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I selected from all the tribes of Israel), ³³because he has forsaken Me, worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and has not followed My instructions to do what is right in My sight and to keep My statutes and My judgments as David his father did.

t) Children of a godly home start and continue life at a great advantage, their training and the remembrance of them before the throne of grace by their parents, which is infinitely enhanced where they cooperate.

u) Although even the appointed man had no idea that God's hand was in it, nevertheless Rezon was His agent and so was Jeroboam. v) Always including most of the Simeon tribe with Judah.

³⁴Yet I will not take the whole kingdom from him; I will make him prince throughout his lifetime for My servant David's sake, whom I chose and who observed My commandments and My statutes. ³⁵But I will take the kingdom from his son's hand and give it to you, that is, ten tribes of it. ³⁶To his son I will give one tribe in order that there may be a Davidic light before Me continually in Jerusalem, the city where I Myself chose to put My name. ³⁷And I will make you king over all that you desire—you shall be king over Israel. ³⁸If you obey what I command you, follow My instructions, and do what is right in My sight, observing My statutes and My commandments as David My servant did, I will be with you and establish your dynasty firmly as I did David's. I will give you Israel. ³⁹Because of this I will humble David's descendants, though not permanently."

⁴⁰When Solomon attempted to kill Jeroboam,^w he escaped to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, where he remained until the death of Solomon. ⁴¹The rest of the acts of Solomon, everything he did and his wisdom, are they not recorded in the book of the acts of Solomon? ⁴²Solomon was king in Jerusalem, over all Israel, for a period of forty years. ⁴³So Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father, and Rehoboam his son became king in his place. 930 B.C.

12 REHOBAM WENT TO SHECHEM where all Israel came to make him king.^x ²Now Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about it (for he was still in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon), ³and they sent for him. When Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel arrived, they addressed Rehoboam, saying, ⁴"Your father made our yoke unbearable. Now lighten the unbearable service of your father and the heavy yoke he laid upon us, and we will serve you." ⁵He responded,

"Give me three more days; then return to me."

When the people left, ⁶Rehoboam conferred with the elders who had stood by Solomon when he was still alive, saying, "How would you advise me to reply to the people?" ⁷They advised him, "If you will be a servant to this people now and serve them and reply to them with kind words, they will always be your servants." ⁸But he rejected the advice which the elders gave him. Then he conferred with the young men who grew up with him and who stood by him. ⁹"What do you advise us to say to this people who petitioned me, 'Make lighter the yoke your father laid upon us?'" ¹⁰The young men who grew up with him replied, "Thus you must say to this people who petitioned you, 'Your father made heavy our yoke; do make it lighter for us'; you must say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.'" ¹¹Now my father has laid upon you a heavy yoke; I will add to your yoke. My father flogged you with whips; I will flog you with scorpions."

¹²Jeroboam and all the people came back on the third day to Rehoboam as the king had directed, saying, "Return to me on the third day." ¹³The king spoke harshly to the people, disregarding the advice given him by the elders. ¹⁴He spoke to them as the young men had advised, "My father made heavy your yoke; I will add to your yoke. My father flogged you with whips; I will flog you with scorpions." ¹⁵So the king paid no attention to the people; for this turn of events was from the LORD so that His word spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat might be established.^z ¹⁶When all Israel saw that the king paid no attention to them, the people sent back this message to the king: "What share have we in David? We have no heritage in Jesse's son. To your tents, O Israel! Look now after

w) There is no evidence that Jeroboam had rebelled against Solomon when he fled to Egypt. Obviously, Solomon learned of God's choice and tried to prevent its execution. His loyalty to God had dwindled.

x) The odds seemed in favor of his being crowned, but he managed to turn them against himself. y) There is untold value in experience, especially because normally it softens personal attitudes.

z) Ahijah had spoken because such was God's program.

your own house, O David!" So Israel went to their tents.

¹⁷Rehoboam continued to be king over the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah.^a ¹⁸When King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of conscript labor, all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam managed to escape in his chariot to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day. ²⁰When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they requested him to come to the assembly where they made him king over all Israel. Only one tribe, that of Judah, continued with the house of David.

²¹As soon as Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he assembled the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin with 180,000 picked soldiers to force the house of Israel to return the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. ²²Then the word of God came to Shemaiah, a man of God, saying: ²³Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to the whole house of Judah, Benjamin, and the rest of the people, ²⁴Thus says the LORD: You must not go up to fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Let each one of you go home, for I am causing this affair. Then they listened to the word of the LORD and went back home according to the word of the LORD.

²⁵Jeroboam fortified Shechem in Mount Ephraim where he lived. In addition he fortified Penuel. ²⁶Jeroboam said to himself, "Now the kingdom will revert to the house of David; ²⁷if this people go to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, their hearts will be turned to their master Rehoboam king of Judah, so that they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah."^b ²⁸After counseling over it, the king made two golden calves and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; here are your gods, O Israel, who have brought you out of Egypt."^c ²⁹So he set up the one at Bethel and the other at Dan. ³⁰This matter occasioned sin; for the people went before the one as far as Dan. ³¹He also constructed shrines at high places and ordained priests from the rank and file of the people who were not Levites. ³²Jeroboam set a festival for the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the one celebrated in Judah, at which time he offered sacrifices upon the altar to the calves he had made at Bethel. Moreover, he installed the priests of the high places at Bethel. ³³He offered sacrifices upon the altar he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month—a date set by himself.^d He made it a festival for the Israelites and offered sacrifices upon the altar and burned incense.

13 WHILE JEROBOAM WAS STANDING by the altar burning incense, a man of God came from Judah to Bethel at the LORD's direction. ²At the LORD's direction he spoke against the altar, saying, "O altar, altar, thus says the LORD: A child by the name of Josiah born to the house of David shall sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and human bones they shall burn upon you."^e ³Then he offered a sign, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has given: The altar shall be split and the ashes upon it poured out."^e ⁴When the king heard the message, which the man of God delivered against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" But the hand he stretched out against him became paralyzed,^f so that he was unable to pull it back. ⁵Also the altar was split and the ashes on the altar poured out, in accordance with the sign which the man of God had offered at the LORD's direction.

a) Much of the tribe of Simeon was included; also more than half of Benjamin and most of the priests and Levites.

b) Their worship at the temple had served to make Israel a united nation. Jeroboam was clever, but not wise. Idolatry is essentially selfish and not social-minded. The ten tribes lost their solidarity.

c) The very words used near Mt. Sinai, when in the absence of Moses the people worshiped the golden calf [Ex. 32:4], a dishonoring of God which was plainly forbidden and severely punished.

d) A counterfeit religion from start to finish.

e) Our infinitely patient God is willing to prove His veracity with a sign. f) Heb., "withered."

⁶The king begged the man of God, "Plead with the LORD your God and pray on my behalf, that my hand may be restored." So the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the hand of the king was restored to its former condition.⁶ ⁷The king then said to the man of God, "Come to my house with me, take some refreshment, and I will reward you." ⁸But the man of God said to the king, "Though you gave me half of your house, I would not go with you, nor eat bread or drink water in this place. ⁹For I was directed by the word of the LORD: You must neither eat bread nor drink water nor return the way you came!" ¹⁰So he went by another way and did not return on the road by which he came to Bethel.

¹¹Now an old prophet was living at Bethel, whose sons came and recounted to him all the man of God did that day in Bethel; everything he said to the king they related to their father. ¹²Their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons had seen the way the man of God who had come from Judah went. ¹³Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me!" When they had saddled the donkey for him, he rode away on it, ¹⁴following the man of God, whom he found sitting under the oak. He said, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" He replied, "I am." ¹⁵"Come with me to my house," said he, "and eat bread." ¹⁶But he replied, "I cannot return and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place, ¹⁷for the LORD's direction to me was: You must not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came."

¹⁸He said to him, "I too am a prophet like you. An angel said to me at the LORD's direction, 'Bring him back with you to your house that he may eat bread and drink water.'" He lied to him.^h ¹⁹So he went back with him and ate bread at his house and drank water. ²⁰While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who brought him back, ²¹and he called out to the man of God, who came from Judah, "Thus says the LORD: Because you rebelled against the word of the LORD and did not observe the commandment which the LORD your God gave you, ²²but went back, ate bread, and drank water in the place where I told you not to eat bread or drink water, your corpse will never come to the grave of your fathers."ⁱ ²³After he ate bread and drank, he saddled the donkey for the prophet he had brought back. ²⁴Then he left, but a lion met him on the road and killed him—his corpse was lying on the road, the donkey and the lion standing beside it.^j ²⁵Travellers saw the corpse lying on the road and the lion standing beside the corpse; they came and reported it in the city where the old prophet lived.

²⁶When the prophet, who had caused him to turn from the way, heard it, he said, "That is the man of God who rebelled against the word of the LORD; so the LORD gave him to the lion, who has torn and killed him in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke to him." ²⁷He said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me," and they saddled it. ²⁸He then went and found his corpse lying along the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse. The lion had not devoured the corpse nor torn the donkey. ²⁹The prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it upon the donkey, and brought it back to the city of the old prophet for proper burial. ³⁰He laid his corpse to rest in his own grave and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother." ³¹After he had buried him, he said to his sons, "When I am dead, bury me in the grave occupied by the man of God: lay my remains to rest beside his;^k ³²For the message which the man of God delivered at the LORD's direction

g) Even where punishment is deserved and administered, God is ready to heal.

h) God never contradicts Himself, though we may misunderstand Him.

i) Our own personal conviction, not another's, must control our actions.

j) All God's creatures are His servants and at His command.

k) This prophet resembles those lying spirits of ch. 22:22-28—also under God's control.

against the altar at Bethel and all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria will surely be fulfilled."

³³Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way after this experience but continued to select priests for the high places from the rank and file of the people, ordaining whomever he wished to be priests of the high places. ³⁴Persistence in this became sin to the house of Jeroboam, leading to its annihilation and destruction from the earth.¹

14 AT THAT TIME ABIJAH, JEROBOAM'S son, fell ill. ²Jeroboam said to his wife, "Arise now, disguise yourself, so that no one may know you are Jeroboam's wife,^m and go to Shiloh where Ahijah the prophet lives—the one who announced that I would be king over this people. ³Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey and go to him; he will tell you how the lad will fare."

⁴The wife of Jeroboam did so; she arose, went to Shiloh, and arrived at the house of Ahijah. Since Ahijah could not see—his eyes were dimmed by age—⁵the LORD informed Ahijah: The wife of Jeroboam is coming to seek an oracle from you because of the condition of her son, who is ill. Thus and so you must say to her, for when she comes she will pretend to be another woman.

⁶When Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she was coming in the door, he said, "Come in, O wife of Jeroboam! Why do you pretend to be another woman? I have been sent to give you bad news. ⁷Go! Tell Jeroboam, Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Because I exalted you from the midst of this people, made you a leader of My people Israel, ⁸tore away the kingdom from the house of David and gave it to you, and you were not like My servant David, who observed My commandments, who followed Me with his whole heart, doing only what was right in My sight, ⁹but you did worse than all those before you, went after and made for yourself other gods, molten images, to irritate Me, and turned your back on Me; ¹⁰therefore I will bring calamity on the house of Jeroboam; I will divest Jeroboam of male children, both bond and free in Israel, and I will sweep away the house of Jeroboam as refuse is swept away completely. ¹¹Jeroboam's dead in the city the dogs shall eat; the dead in the fields the birds of heaven shall devour. So the LORD has spoken. ¹²Now get up and go home! While your feet are approaching the city, the child will die. ¹³All Israel shall bewail him and bury him, because he will be the only one of Jeroboam's house to have a grave; for some good is found in him alone of Jeroboam's house toward the LORD God of Israel.ⁿ ¹⁴The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁵Today and from now on the LORD will beat Israel like a reed whipped by the waters; He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers and disperse them to the other side of the River,^o because they angered the LORD by making their Asherim. ¹⁶He will give up Israel because of the sins committed by Jeroboam, by which he led Israel to sin."

¹⁷Then Jeroboam's wife rose and departed for Tirzah; and when she arrived at the threshold of the house, the child died. ¹⁸When they buried him, all Israel mourned for him in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by His servant Ahijah the prophet. ¹⁹The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, his wars and his reign, are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. ²⁰Jeroboam was king for a period of twenty-two years, after which he slept with his fathers and Nadab his son was king in his place.

²¹Meanwhile Rehoboam, Solomon's son, was king over Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king and he was king for seven-

1) As man's spirit is the most vital factor in his make-up, so the education of man's inner self is his most vital training. The spiritual leaders of northern Israel did not represent God and could not contribute to spiritual growth.

m) He was a godless hypocrite; he did not want his people to know that in trouble he needed God. n) For those of us who mourn the loss of a child, this incident is worth remembering. God may be saving the loved one from a troublous life and therefore called him, or her, home early.

o) The Euphrates.

teen years over Jerusalem, the city which the LORD selected from all the tribes of Israel as a place for His name. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

²²Judah, too, did evil in the sight of the LORD, exciting His ardent anger far more than their fathers did by the sins they committed. ²³They also made for themselves high places, pillars, and Asherim, symbols on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree, ²⁴and male prostitutes were found in the land; they followed all the abominations of the peoples which the LORD dispossessed for the Israelites.

²⁵During the fifth year of Rehoboam's reign, Shishak king of Egypt made an attack on Jerusalem, ²⁶taking the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the house of the king; he took everything. He also took away the golden shields that Solomon had made.^p ²⁷King Rehoboam made substitute shields of bronze and delivered them to the captains of the guard who watched the entrance to the king's house. ²⁸As often as the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards took them up; afterwards they returned them to the guard chamber.

²⁹The rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ³⁰There was continuous war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. ³¹So Rehoboam slept with his fathers with whom he was buried in David's city. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess and his son Abijam became king in his place.

913 B.C.

15 IN THE EIGHTEENTH YEAR OF the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam was king over Judah. ²He was king in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. ³He, too, was guilty of all the sins committed by his father before him; his mind was not at one with the LORD his God as the mind of David his father had been. ⁴Yet for David's sake, the LORD his God gave him a lamp^t in Jerusalem, to elevate his son after him and to preserve Jerusalem. ⁵For David did what was right in the sight of the LORD, not turning away from anything. He commanded all the days of his life, except in the affair with Uriah the Hittite. ⁶There was continuous war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. ⁷The rest of the acts of Abijam and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. ⁸So Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in David's city and Asa his son was king in his place.

910 B.C.

⁹Asa began to reign as king of Judah in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel. ¹⁰He was king in Jerusalem for forty-one years; his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.^q ¹¹Asa did what was right in the sight of the LORD as David his father had done. ¹²He drove out the male prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols which his fathers had made. ¹³He also removed Maacah his mother from her position as queen mother, because she had made a detestable image to Asherah; Asa cut down her lewd image and burned it in the Kidron valley. ¹⁴Though the high places were not removed, yet his heart was at one with the LORD as long as he lived. ¹⁵He brought to the house of the LORD the dedicated objects of his father and those which he himself dedicated—silver, gold, and utensils.

¹⁶There was lifelong war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel. ¹⁷Baasha king of Israel proceeded against Judah by strengthening Ramah so that no one could go out to, or come in from, Asa king of Judah. ¹⁸So Asa took all the silver and gold remaining in the treasuries of the LORD's house and in the treasuries of the king's house and put it into the hands of his servants. Then King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon, son of Hezion, king of Syria, who resided at Damascus, with

p) God is the supreme disciplinarian. His children need correction and in loving-kindness He applies it. How do we respond? t) Represents a light or a witness.

q) That is, Absalom, whose mother too was named Maacah [II Sam. 3:3], Asa's grandmother; he must have had a better mother.

this request: ¹⁹"There is a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father; now I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. So go, cancel your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he may go away from me." ²⁰Ben-hadad responded favorably to King Asa's request. He sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel and captured Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-Maacah, all of Chinneroth and all the territory of Naphtali.^r ²¹When Baasha heard about it, he left off building Ramah and went back to Tirzah. ²²Then King Asa conscripted all Judah—no one was exempt—to remove the stones and timber with which Baasha had strengthened Ramah. King Asa strengthened Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah with them. ²³The rest of the acts of Asa, all the great things he did and the cities he built, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Yet, in his old age he was diseased in his feet. ²⁴Asa slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Jehoshaphat his son became king in his place.

910 B.C.

²⁵Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa's reign in Judah and was king for two years. ²⁶He did evil in the sight of the LORD, going the way of his father, in the sin into which he had led Israel. ²⁷Baasha son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him, and Baasha killed him at Gibbethon among the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa's reign in Judah and became king in his place. ²⁹When he became king, he killed the whole house of Jeroboam; not one soul belonging to Jeroboam did he spare or fail to destroy, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite,^s ³⁰be-cause of the sin which Jeroboam committed and in which he led Israel to sin and because of his provocation of the LORD God of Israel.

909 B.C.

³¹The rest of the acts of Nadab together with all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ³²There was continual war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel. ³³In the third year of Asa's reign in Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began his twenty-four years' reign over all Israel at Tirzah. ³⁴He did evil in the sight of the LORD, going the way of Jeroboam in the sin into which he had led Israel.

16 THEN THE WORD OF THE LORD concerning Baasha was revealed to Jehu the son of Hanani: ²Despite the fact that I raised you^u out of the dust and made you a leader of My people Israel, you walked in the way of Jeroboam and made My people Israel sin, angering Me by their sins. ³I will completely destroy Baasha and his house; I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴The dogs shall consume those of Baasha's house who die in the city, and the birds of heaven shall devour those who die in the field. ⁵The rest of the acts of Baasha, his works and achievements, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁶Then Baasha slept with his fathers and was buried at Tirzah, and his son Elah became king in his place. ⁷So the word of the LORD delivered to Baasha and his house by Jehu son of Hanani was fulfilled because of all the evil he did in the sight of the LORD, angering Him by the work of his hands and doing just as the house of Jeroboam had done, despite the fact that he^v overthrew it.^v

886 B.C.

⁸In the twenty-sixth year of Asa's reign in Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began his two-year reign over Israel at

r) Which strengthened Syria against north and south Israel and rendered the two kingdoms of Israel weaker. It was a crippling move.

s) Revolutions and assassinations galore; and why not, when God is left out of the picture? Yet even in their wickedness, those godless leaders were led to carry out God's national program.

u) Baasha. v) The house of Jeroboam. Used of God to punish it for its sin; then walking the same road to destruction.

Tirzah. ⁹His servant Zimri, the captain of half of his chariotry, conspired against him while he was intoxicated at the house of Arza, overseer of the palace at Tirzah. ¹⁰Zimri came, struck him down and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign in Judah, and became king in his place. ¹¹When he became king and occupied the throne, he struck down the entire house of Baasha, leaving him no male, either of his family or of his friends. ¹²So Zimri destroyed the entire house of Baasha in accordance with the word of the LORD delivered to Baasha by Jehu the prophet, ¹³because of all the sins which Baasha and Elah his son had committed and by which they led Israel to sin, angering the LORD God of Israel with their vain idols. ¹⁴The rest of the acts of Elah and all his deeds, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 885 B.C.

¹⁵In the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign in Judah, Zimri was king for seven days in Tirzah. Meanwhile the people were engaged in a campaign against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. ¹⁶When the people engaged in the campaign heard that Zimri had conspired and had struck down the king, all Israel made Omri, captain of the army, king over Israel that very day there in the camp.^x ¹⁷Then Omri together with all Israel returned from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah. ¹⁸When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he went to the citadel of the king's palace, set fire to the king's palace around him and so died, ¹⁹because of the sins which he committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD by walking in the way of Jeroboam and in the sin whereby he led Israel to sin. ²⁰The rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

²¹Then the Israelite nation was divided; half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath and made him king; the other half followed Omri.

²²But the people who followed Omri prevailed over those who followed Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri became king. ²³In the thirty-first year of Asa's reign in Judah, Omri began his twelve-year reign over Israel, reigning from Tirzah for six years. ²⁴He purchased the hill of Samaria from Shemer for 4,250 dollars in silver and built on the hill; he named the city he built Samaria, after Shemer the owner of the hill. ²⁵Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, behaving worse than all who had been before him. ²⁶He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in the sin by which he had led Israel to sin, angering the LORD God of Israel by their vain idols. ²⁷The rest of the acts of Omri, his works and achievements, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁸Then Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab became king in his place. 874 B.C.

²⁹Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa's reign in Judah, and Ahab son of Omri was king over Israel at Samaria for twenty-two years. ³⁰Now Ahab son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more so than all who were before him. ³¹As if his following in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat had seemed trifling, he married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians and then went on to serve and worship Baal. ³²He erected an altar to Baal in the temple for Baal which he built at Samaria. ³³Ahab also made an Asherah^y and so continued to anger the LORD God of Israel more than all the kings of Israel before him had done.

³⁴In his time Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho; he laid its foundation at the cost of Abiram, his first-born son, and set its gates at the cost of Segub, his youngest son, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.^z

^x) Not the elders, as had been divinely arranged, but the soldiery undertook to represent the people.
^y) A shame image, such as Gideon destroyed at God's command—a tree stump on one side of the altar, carved to portray the secret parts of a woman, and a tree stump on the other side of the altar portraying a man's secret parts. ^z) Josh. 6:26.

17 THEN ELIJAH THE TISHBITE, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab,^a "As sure as the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there will be neither dew nor rain in these years except by my word." ²The word of the LORD came to Elijah: ³Go away from here, turn eastward and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, east of the Jordan. ⁴You may drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to supply you with food there. ⁵So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; he went and stayed by the brook Cherith, east of the Jordan, ⁶where the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening and where he drank from the brook.

⁷After a time, however, the brook dried up because there was no rain in the land. ⁸Then the word of the LORD came to him: ⁹Rise, go to Zarephath in Sidon and stay there, for I have commanded a widow there to supply you with food. ¹⁰So he rose and went to Zarephath.

When he arrived at the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks. He called and said to her, "Get me a little water in the jar to drink." ¹¹When she went to get it, he called to her again and said, "Bring along for me a little bread, too." ¹²She replied, "As sure as the LORD your God lives, I have nothing^b except a handful of flour in the jar and a little oil in the jug, and I was just gathering a few sticks to prepare it for me and my son to eat—then we must die."

¹³Elijah said to her, "Have no fear! Go, and do as you have said. But make me first a little loaf from it, and bring it to me, then make one for yourself and your son." ¹⁴For thus has the LORD God of Israel said: The jar of flour shall not be empty nor shall the jug of oil give out until the day when the LORD provides rain for the land."

¹⁵Then she went and did as Elijah told her. So she, he, and her household ate for a long time.^c ¹⁶The jar of flour was never empty nor did the jug of oil give out, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken through Elijah.

¹⁷Afterwards the son of the woman who was mistress of the house became ill; his illness was so severe that no breath was left in him. ¹⁸So she said to Elijah, "O man of God, what is there between me and you?" ¹⁹Have you come to recall to me my sin and to kill my son?" ²⁰Elijah answered, "Give me your son." Then he took him from her lap, carried him to the upper room, where he stayed, and laid him on his bed. ²¹He prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, hast Thou brought misfortune also upon the widow with whom I am staying, by slaying her son?" ²²Stretching himself over the child three times,^e he prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, let now the life of this child return to him."

²³The LORD heard the prayer of Elijah; the life of the child returned to him, and he lived again. ²⁴Then Elijah took up the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house. When he gave him to his mother, Elijah said, "Look! your son is alive." ²⁵The woman said to Elijah, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD coming from your lips is true."

18 MANY DAYS LATER, IN THE third year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah: Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain upon the land.^f ²So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine was so severe in Samaria ³that Ahab called Obadiah the steward of his house—Obadiah revered the LORD ⁴so much that when Jezebel cut down the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave and provided them with bread and water^g—⁵and Ahab said to

a) At least as unexpected to Ahab as to one who reads this for the first time.

b) Not to be fed at a wealthy home, but where starvation threatened.

c) Like Rahab of Jericho she had faith in God and acted on it [Josh. 2:11].

d) The very words which Jesus spoke to His mother at Cana of Galilee [John 2:4].

e) God's life-giving power and Elijah's personal contact were needed.

f) Upon Elijah's prayer [Jas. 5:17, 18].

g) Obadiah was one of the 7,000 faithful with whom Elijah failed to reckon [ch. 19:18].

Obadiah, "Come, let us go about the land and look for all the springs and all the brooks; perhaps we may find pasture to keep alive horses and mules and not be deprived of the cattle." ⁶So they divided the land between them, to go about in it; Ahab went one way by himself while Obadiah went another way by himself.

⁷As Obadiah was going his way, Elijah met him; and when he recognized him, he fell on his face and said, "Is that you, my master Elijah?"

⁸He answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your master, 'Elijah is here.'" ⁹He said, "Wherein have I sinned that you want to give your servant into Ahab's hands to kill me?" ¹⁰As sure as the LORD your God lives, there is not a nation or kingdom where my master has not sent, searching for you. When they said, 'He is not here,' he made the kingdom or nation swear that it found no trace of you. ¹¹And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, Elijah is here.'

¹²As soon as I leave you, the Spirit of the LORD will bear you away to a place unknown to me, so that when I inform Ahab and he then fails to find a trace of you, he will kill me — though I, your servant, have revered the LORD from my youth. ¹³Have you not been informed about what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid the prophets of the LORD, a hundred in number, by fifties in a cave and provided bread and water for them?" ¹⁴And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, Elijah is here'; he will kill me." ¹⁵Elijah said, "As sure as the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, today I will show myself to him." ¹⁶Then Obadiah went to inform Ahab, and Ahab came to meet Elijah.

¹⁷When Ahab caught sight of Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is it you, O troubler of Israel?" ¹⁸He retorted, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house, by forsaking the commandments of the LORD and going after the Baals. ¹⁹Now send for and assemble to me all Israel at Mount Carmel together with the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

²⁰Ahab then sent to all Israel and assembled the prophets at Mount Carmel.

²¹Elijah came near to all the people and said, "How long will you lean to both sides? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if it is Baal, follow him." The people said nothing to him. ²²So Elijah said to the people, "I alone remain as a prophet of the LORD, while the prophets of Baal number 450 men. ²³Let them provide two bullocks for us; then let them select one of the bullocks, cut it up, lay it on the wood, but set no fire to it. I, too, will prepare one of the bullocks, put it on the wood, but set no fire to it. ²⁴You must call upon the name of your god, and I will call upon the name of the LORD. The God who responds with fire is the true God." All the people answered, "The plan is excellent."

²⁵Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Select one of the bullocks for yourselves and prepare it first—for you are many—and then call upon the name of your god; but you must set no fire to it." ²⁶So they took the bullock he gave them, prepared it, and called upon the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us!"; but there was no sound or response. They hopped about the altar they had made. ²⁷About noon Elijah began to taunt them, "Shout louder, for he is a god; he is in conversation or he has gone out; he is on a trip; or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened." ²⁸So they shouted more loudly and cut themselves with swords and lances, as they were accustomed to do, until the blood ran out over them. ²⁹After noon they continued to rave until the time for the evening sacrifice; but there was no sound, no answer, no recognition.

³⁰Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come here to me." When the people drew near, he repaired the LORD's ruined altar. ³¹Elijah took twelve stones, corresponding to the number of the tribes of the children of Jacob to

h) Obadiah had risked his life to save the lives of his fellow worshippers.

j) God's representative could give orders to the king, who felt he had to obey because God was in it.

j) Ruined by Jezebel or by the people's neglect.

whom the word of the LORD came, saying: Your name shall be Israel. ³²He erected an altar with the stones to the name of the LORD. He dug a trench around the altar big enough to hold two bushels of seed.^k ³³Next he arranged the wood, cut up the bullock, and laid it on the wood. ³⁴Then he said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it over the sacrifice and over the wood." He said, "Do it again," and they did it again. He said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time; ³⁵so that the water ran all around the altar and the trench was full of water, too.

³⁶At the time for the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came up and said, "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, today let it be known that Thou art God in Israel, that I am Thy servant, and that I have done all this in accordance with Thy word. ³⁷Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may see that Thou, O LORD, art God and that Thou hast turned their hearts back again."^l ³⁸Then fire from the LORD came down and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones, and the dust; it even licked up the water in the trench.

³⁹When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and shouted, "The LORD, He is God! the LORD, He is God!" ⁴⁰Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal; do not permit one of them to escape." So they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon where he slaughtered them.^m ⁴¹Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up! Eat and drink, for there is the sound of a downpour of rain." ⁴²So Ahab got up to eat and to drink, while Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent over toward the earth, put his hands between his knees, ⁴³and said to his servant, "Get up now; look toward the sea." He got up, looked, and said, "There is nothing at all." He said seven times.ⁿ "Go back." ⁴⁴The seventh time he said, "There is a small cloud, the size of a man's hand, coming up out of the sea." He said, "Be gone. Tell Ahab, 'Hitch up and go down so that the rain does not detain you.'" ⁴⁵Before long the heavens darkened with clouds and wind, and a heavy rain fell, while Ahab drove toward Jezreel. ⁴⁶The hand of the LORD was with Elijah so that, with loins girded, he outran Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19 WHEN AHAB REPORTED TO JEZEBEL everything Elijah had done and about his killing all the prophets with the sword, ²Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "As certainly as you are Elijah and I am Jezebel—may the gods do so to me and even more—by this time tomorrow I will make your life as the life of one of them." ³And he was afraid, and he arose and ran for his life, coming to Beer-sheba in Judah where he left his servant.^o ⁴He went on into the desert a day's journey. There he sat down under a broom bush and prayed that he might die,^p saying, "Enough now, LORD; take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers."

⁵When he lay down, he fell asleep under a broom bush; and see, an angel touched him and said, "Arise and eat." ⁶When he looked, there was a cake baked on hot stones and a jug of water at his head. He ate and drank and lay down again. ⁷The angel of the LORD came again and touched him, saying, "Arise and eat, or the journey will be too much for you." ⁸So he arose, ate and drank, and on the strength of that meal he traveled forty days and forty nights, as far as Horeb, the mountain of God. ⁹When he arrived there, he lodged in a cave.

Presently the word of the LORD came to him: What are you doing here, Elijah? ¹⁰He replied, "I have been most zealous for the LORD God of hosts; the Israelites have forsaken Thy covenant, Thy altars they have wrecked, ^k) Cannot mean two bushels altogether; probably means the width of the trench all around the altar, an ample yard or so. ^l) No claim to personal power; it all rested with God.

^m) Not the N. T. way; but those false prophets deserved it; they had killed many a servant of God and had led the people away from God.

ⁿ) An example of persistent prayer, such as our Lord teaches [Luke 11: 5-10; 18:1-8].

^o) It would have been foolish to let Jezebel kill him. ^p) This prayer too was heard.

Thy prophets they have slain with the sword, until I alone am left, and they are attempting to take my life."^q

¹¹He said: Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD. The LORD passed by. A strong, powerful wind tore off portions of the mountain and dashed rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. An earthquake followed the wind, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. ¹²Following the earthquake there was fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire came the sound of a light whisper. ¹³When Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his coat, went out, and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then a voice came to him: What are you doing here, Elijah? ¹⁴He replied, "I have been most zealous for the LORD God of hosts; the Israelites have forsaken Thy covenant; Thy altars they have wrecked; Thy prophets they have slain with the sword, until I alone am left, and they are trying to take my life."

¹⁵The LORD said to him: Go back by the desert road to Damascus and, when you arrive, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria; ¹⁶anoint Jehu son of Nimshi to be king over Israel; ^r also anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abelmeholah to be prophet in your place. ¹⁷Whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and whoever escapes the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. ¹⁸However, I will spare 7,000 in Israel, none of whose knees have bowed to Baal and none of whose lips have kissed him.^s

¹⁹So he went away and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve teams ahead of him—he was with the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his mantle upon him. ²⁰Then he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, saying, "Let me first kiss my father and mother; then I will follow you." He replied, "Go back; what have I done to you?"^t ²¹When he returned, he took the team of oxen and sacrificed them, using the yokes of the oxen to boil their flesh, and gave to the people to eat. Afterwards he arose, followed Elijah, and became his servant.

857-6 B.C.

20 BENHADAD KING OF SYRIA MUSTERED his army—thirty-two kings were allied with him—and his cavalry and chariots; then he moved against Samaria, besieging and fighting against it. ²He also sent messengers into the city to Ahab, king of Israel, and said to him, "Benhadad says, ³Your silver and your gold belong to me; your choicest wives and children, too, are mine."^u ⁴The king of Israel responded, "As you say, my master, O king, yours am I and all I have."^v ⁵When the messengers returned, they said, "Benhadad says, 'I sent to you requesting your silver and your gold, your wives and your children, ⁶but about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you; they will plunder your home and the houses of your servants, laying hold of everything dear to you and taking it.'"

⁷The king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said, "Just observe and see how this fellow is trying to make trouble! When he demanded my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, I did not refuse him."⁸ All the elders and all the people replied, "Pay no attention to him, do not give in."⁹ He answered the messengers of Benhadad, "Tell my master, the king, that I will agree fully to the first request; but this thing I cannot do." So the messengers brought back to him the report. ¹⁰Benhadad sent him word, "So may the gods do to me and even more, if there is sufficient dust in Samaria to provide each of my followers with a handful."¹¹ The king of Israel answered, "Tell him; Let not the man who girds on his armor boast like the man who lays it down."^v

¹²When Benhadad heard this, he

q) Elijah's great failure was not to secure a helper for this great task; Elisha, the less vigorous man, accomplished more by co-operation.

r) God's sovereignty not over Israel alone, for He is King of kings.

s) We err when we compute the number of believers, as Jesus tells us [Matt 8:11; Luke 13:29].

t) A bit puzzling for the great prophet to anoint a successor from behind the plow.

u) A cowardly and unwarranted submission, unfair to family and subjects.

v) Though from the lips of a godless man, this sentence deserves memorizing, for starting and accomplishing are two different matters.

and the kings were drinking in their tents. He said to his servants, "Attack!" and they attacked the city. ¹³Then a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and said, "The LORD says: Do you see this vast army? I am giving it into your hand today that you may know that I am the LORD." ¹⁴"By whom?" asked Ahab. He replied, "The LORD says: By the young men of the provincial chiefs."^w He said, "Who shall attack?" He replied, "You." ¹⁵So he assembled young men of the provincial chiefs who numbered 232; behind them he assembled all the people—all the Israelites—to the number of 7,000.^x ¹⁶They went out at noon while Benhadad and the kings—32 kings were allied with him—were drinking themselves drunk in their tents. ¹⁷The young men of the provincial chiefs went out first and when they informed Benhadad, saying, "Men are coming out of Samaria," ¹⁸he replied, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive and if they have come out for war, take them alive." ¹⁹These came out from the city, the young men of the provincial chiefs and the army behind them. ²⁰Each one killed his man until the Syrians fled with Israel pursuing them. Benhadad king of Syria escaped on his horse; so did the cavalry; ²¹but the king of Israel went out and destroyed the horses and chariots and inflicted great slaughter upon the Syrians.

²²The prophet came up to the king of Israel, saying, "Go, prepare yourself; consider what you are going to do; for this time next year the king of Syria will come up against you." ²³And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are mountain gods, and hence they have had the upper hand against us; so let us fight them on the plain, where we shall certainly have the upper hand against them." ²⁴Do this too: Remove each king from his command and in their place put captains, ²⁵and assemble an army the same size as the one lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we shall fight them on the plains where we will certainly have the upper hand against them." He listened to their plan and followed it.

²⁶At the same time the following year, Benhadad mustered the Syrians and went up to Aphek to fight Israel. ²⁷The Israelites also mustered, gathered provisions, and went to meet them. The Israelites encamped in front of them like two little flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the country. ²⁸Again the man of God came to the king of Israel, saying, "Thus speaks the LORD: Because the Syrians say that the LORD is a mountain god and that he is not a valley god, I am giving this vast army into your hand, that you may know that I am God." ²⁹They remained encamped opposite each other for seven days; but on the seventh day battle was joined, and the Israelites killed 100,000 Syrian foot soldiers in a single day. ³⁰The rest fled to the city of Aphek where the wall fell on 27,000 of those who remained. Benhadad also fled to the city where he concealed himself in an inner room. ³¹His servants said to him, "We have heard that the kings of Israel are merciful kings; let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes about our heads and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life." ³²So they put sackcloth on their loins and ropes on their heads and came to the king of Israel, saying, "Your servant Benhadad pleads, 'Spare my life.'" He said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother." ³³The men considered this an omen and, quickly catching his word, said, "Benhadad is your brother." He said, "Go, bring him." When Benhadad came out to him, he took him up into his chariot, ³⁴and he^y said, "The cities my father captured from your father I will return, and you may establish trading posts for yourself in Damascus as my father did in Samaria." "With this agreement I will let you go," said he.^z So he made an agreement with him and let him go.

³⁵Then one of the members of the prophetic guild said to another, at the LORD's request, "Strike me now." But

w) For aggressive action, youth can have greatest success. x) The 7,000 whom God had mentioned? y) Benhadad. z) Ahab.

when the man refused to strike him, ³⁶he said to him, "Because you did not listen to the command of the LORD, when you leave me a lion will kill you."^a When he left him, the lion met him and killed him. ³⁷Meeting another man, he said, "Strike me now." So the man struck him so hard that he wounded him. ³⁸The prophet then disguised himself with a headband over his eyes and went to await the king at the roadside. ³⁹When the king passed by, he called to the king, "When your servant went out into the heaviest part of the battle, suddenly a man turned and brought another man to me, saying, 'Guard this fellow; if he should happen to get away, your life shall be for his or you will be fined 2,000 dollars in silver.'"⁴⁰But while your servant was attending to things here and there, he disappeared." The king of Israel answered him, "That is your sentence; you have given it yourself."^b ⁴¹Then he quickly removed the bandage from over his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. ⁴²The prophet said to him, "The LORD says: Because you permitted the man I destined for destruction to get away, your life shall be for his life and your people for his people." ⁴³The king of Israel went home to Samaria embittered and angry.^c

21 AFTER THESE THINGS THIS HAPPENED: Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard at Jezreel adjoining the palace of Ahab, king at Samaria.^d ²Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your vineyard so I may make for myself a vegetable garden, for it adjoins my house. I will give you a better vineyard for it, or, if you like, I will reimburse you for it with cash."^e ³Naboth responded, "The LORD forbid that I should ever give you my patrimonial inheritance."^f

⁴Ahab came home embittered and angry because of the answer Naboth the Jezreelite gave him, saying, "I will not give you my patrimonial inheritance."^g

He went to bed, turned away his face and refused to eat. ⁵When Jezebel his wife entered and said to him, "How is it that you are so embittered and refuse to eat bread?" ⁶he answered her, "When I said to Naboth the Jezreelite, 'Sell me your vineyard, or, if you like, I will give you another vineyard for it,' he replied, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

⁷Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you not exercise the kingship over Israel? Rise, eat, and be of good cheer; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."⁸Then she wrote a letter in Ahab's name, stamped it with his seal, and sent the letter to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city. ⁹In the letter she wrote, "Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the people; ¹⁰seat two men, unprincipled men, near him, and have them testify, 'You cursed God and the king,' and then take him out and stone him to death."

¹¹The men of his city, the elders and nobles who lived there, did as Jezebel requested them, as written in the letter she sent them.¹²They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people. ¹³The two scoundrels came and sat near him. The rascals testified against Naboth before the people, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him out of the city and stoned him till he died. ¹⁴Then they sent word to Jezebel, "Naboth has been stoned to death."

¹⁵When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, "Rise, take over the vineyard, for Naboth the Jezreelite, who refused to sell it to you for cash, is no longer alive; he is dead."¹⁶As soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he arose, went down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, and claimed it.

¹⁷Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: ¹⁸Rise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel in Samaria; he is in Naboth's vineyard

a) It must have been reasonably clear to him that such was God's instruction.

b) Are we ever so busy with this and that that His interests become secondary?

c) But not repentant and submissive to God. d) At times living in his Jezreel palace.

e) Inherited property was the Israelite's last token of free citizenship.

f) Self-centeredness and happiness do not go hand in hand.

g) The people's leaders as cowardly and morally corrupt as their king and queen.

whither he has gone to claim it. ¹⁹Tell him, the LORD says: Have you murdered and claimed? Tell him, The LORD says: In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth shall the dogs lick up your own blood.^h ²⁰"Have you found me, O my enemy?" retorted Ahab to Elijah. He said, "I have found you; because you have committed yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD, ²¹I will bring calamity upon you; I will sweep you away altogether, and I will cut off from Ahab all male children without exception in Israel.ⁱ ²²I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam, son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha, son of Ahijah, because you irritated Me and made Israel sin. ²³Also concerning Jezebel the LORD said: The dogs shall devour Jezebel in the valley of Jezreel. ²⁴The dogs shall devour Ahab's dead in the city, and the birds of heaven shall consume those in the field."

²⁵Truly there never was a man like Ahab who committed himself to evil in the sight of the LORD, seduced by Jezebel his wife. ²⁶He acted most wickedly when he went after idols, doing everything the Amorites, whom the LORD dispossessed before the Israelites, did.

²⁷When Ahab heard those words he tore his garments, put on sackcloth, fasted, slept in sackcloth, and went about sadly.^j ²⁸Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah: ²⁹Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring on the calamity in his lifetime; in the lifetime of his son, I will bring the calamity upon his house.

22 FOR THREE YEARS THERE WAS no war between Syria and Israel. ²However, in the third year,^k Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to the king of Israel. ³At that time the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us? Yet we are putting forth no effort to take it from the grasp of the Syrian king." ⁴So he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you join me in attacking Ramoth-gilead?" "I am with you; my men are as your men, my horses as your horses," replied Jehoshaphat to the king of Israel.

⁵Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Inquire first what is the LORD's will." ⁶The king of Israel then assembled the prophets, about 400 in number, and inquired of them, "Shall I go and attack Ramoth-gilead, or shall I let it alone?" They replied, "Go, for the LORD will hand it over to the king."

⁷But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not some other prophet of the LORD around here, that we may inquire of him?"^l

⁸The king of Israel replied to Jehoshaphat, "There is one other fellow through whom we may seek advice from the LORD, but I hate him, because he never prophesies good to me, but trouble;^m he is Micaiah son of Imlah." "Speak not so, O king!" replied Jehoshaphat. ⁹Then the king of Israel summoned a eunuch and requested him to bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once. ¹⁰While the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, officially robed, were sitting each on his throne at the threshing floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria with all the prophets prophesying before them, ¹¹Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made iron horns for himself and said, "The LORD says: With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are annihilated." ¹²So all the prophets prophesied this way: "Go against Ramoth-gilead and prosper; for the LORD will hand it over to the king."

¹³The messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look now, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king; let your word agree with theirs; speak favorably." ¹⁴Micaiah replied, "As surely as the LORD lives, I will say whatever the LORD tells me to say." ¹⁵When he came to the king, the king said to him, ^h) God is the Judge and Ruler yet. ⁱ) Elijah speaks as God's mouthpiece.

^j) With a merciful God there is forgiveness for the worst of sinners, glory be to Him.

^k) The third year of peace. ^l) This seems an afterthought when his promise had been made.

^m) Because repeatedly Ahab deserved divine chastisement.

"Micaiah, shall we attack Ramoth-gilead or shall we let it alone?" He replied, "Go and prosper, for the LORD will hand it over to the king." ¹⁶Then the king said to him, "How many times must I adjure you to speak nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?" ¹⁷He answered, "I saw all Israel scattered over the mountains, as sheep without a shepherd;" and the LORD said: These have no masters; let each one return in peace. ¹⁸Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he never prophesies good for me, but trouble?"

¹⁹"Therefore," heⁿ said, "Listen to the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD seated upon His throne with all the host of heaven standing beside Him on His right and on His left. ²⁰The LORD said: Who will trick Ahab to go up and suffer defeat at Ramoth-gilead? One said this while another said that. ²¹Finally one spirit came out and, standing before the LORD, said, 'I will trick him.' ²²The LORD said to him: How? He said, 'I will be a spirit of deception speaking through all his prophets,' and He replied: You will successfully trick him; go out and do so." ²³Now truly the LORD has permitted a spirit of deception to speak through all these prophets of yours; the LORD has planned calamity for you."

²⁴Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up and struck Micaiah on the cheek, saying, "How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak with you?" ²⁵Micaiah replied, "You will see on the day you seek refuge in an inner room." ²⁶The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah back to Amon, the mayor of the city, and to Joash, the king's son, ²⁷and tell them, 'The king gives command, "Put this fellow into prison and feed him short prison rations until I return in peace."'" ²⁸"If you do return in peace," said Micaiah, "the LORD has not spoken through me." He went on, "Listen, all you peoples."

²⁹Nevertheless the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah attacked Ramoth-gilead. ³⁰The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will go to battle disguised; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel went to battle disguised. ³¹Now the king of Syria had given orders to his 32 chariot captains, "Do not bother to attack anyone, old or young, except the king of Israel." ³²When the chariot captains caught sight of Jehoshaphat, they said, "Surely he is the king of Israel." Just as they turned to attack him, Jehoshaphat shouted. ³³When the chariot captains saw he was not the king of Israel, they ceased pursuing him.

853 B.C.

³⁴A soldier drew his bow without specific aim^o and struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate. He called to his charioteer, "Turn around and take me out of the battle for I am critically wounded." ³⁵But as the battle raged on that day the king, propped up in his chariot, continued to confront the Syrians. At evening when he died, the blood from his wound ran out onto the floor of the chariot. ³⁶At sunset a cry was passed along through the camp, "Every man to his city; every man to his country! ³⁷The king is dead."

Then they came to Samaria and buried the king in Samaria.^r ³⁸They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria where the prostitutes washed themselves, while the dogs licked his blood, in accordance with the word of the LORD. ³⁹The rest of the acts of Ahab, his works, the ivory house he constructed, all the cities he built, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁴⁰So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

852 B.C.

⁴¹Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab's reign in Israel. ⁴²Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem

n) Something in Micaiah's voice or motions, also the unexpected nature of the message, made Ahab suspect that it was not from the LORD. o) Micaiah.

p) A rare Biblical lifting of the heaven's veil and rather different from our usual thinking. See also Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7.

q) But not without divine purpose.

r) Although it is not mentioned here, the battle was lost, according to vs. 17.

for twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah, daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³He walked in all the ways of Asa his father, not swerving from it, in doing what was right in the sight of the LORD. Only he failed to remove the high places; the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places.^s ⁴⁴Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.^t ⁴⁵The rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, his heroic achievements and his wars, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

⁴⁶The rest of the male prostitutes, remaining from the days of his father, he cleaned out of the land. ⁴⁷There was no king in Edom, so a deputy of King ⁴⁸Jehoshaphat constructed a Tarshish^u fleet to carry gold from Ophir. However, it never set sail because the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber.

⁴⁹At that time Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants sail with your servants." But Jehoshaphat would not consent. ⁵⁰Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and his son Jehoram became king in his place.

853 B.C.

⁵¹Ahaziah son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat's reign in Judah and was king over Israel two years. ⁵²He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father, in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. ⁵³He served and worshiped Baal and thus angered the LORD God of Israel, just as his father had done.

s) This always meant less interest in temple worship and often yielding to pagan Canaanitish customs. t) And married his son and successor to Athaliah, the wicked daughter of Ahab and Jezebel. u) Seaworthy ships.

THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS

852 B.C.

1 AND MOAB REBELLED AGAINST ISRAEL after the death of Ahab.

²Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room at Samaria and became ill. So he sent messengers, requesting them to go and inquire of Baal-zebub^a of Ekron, whether he would recover from his injury.

³Meanwhile an angel of the LORD spoke to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise and go to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria. Say to them, Is there no God in Israel that you must go and consult Baal-zebub of Ekron? ⁴Therefore, thus says the LORD: You will never leave the bed upon which you lie. You will certainly die!" Then Elijah went.

⁵When the messengers returned to him, he said to them, "Why have you come back?" ⁶They replied, "A man came up to meet us, saying, 'Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, Thus says the LORD: Is there no God in Israel that you must send and consult Baal-zebub, god of Ekron? Therefore you will never leave the bed upon which you lie. You will certainly die!'"

⁷Then he inquired of them, "What was the man like who came up to meet you and told you these things?"

⁸They replied, "He was a hairy man with a leather girdle bound around his loins." "That was Elijah the Tishbite," he said.

⁹Thereupon he sent a captain with his company of fifty to him.^b When he came up to him—for he was sitting on the top of a hill—he shouted, "Man of God, the king has commanded, 'Come down.'" ¹⁰In response Elijah said to the captain of the fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire descend from heaven and burn up you and your fifty" And fire descended from heaven and burned up him and his fifty.

¹¹Then the king sent another captain with his company of fifty to him. He too shouted, "Man of God, thus has the king commanded, 'Come down at once.'" ¹²In response Elijah said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire descend from heaven and burn up you and your fifty." And the fire of God descended from heaven and burned up him and his fifty.

¹³So he sent a third captain with a company of fifty. When the third captain and the fifty arrived, he fell on his knees before Elijah and begged for mercy. "Man of God," he said, "respect my life and that of these fifty servants of yours." ¹⁴See, fire came down from heaven and burned up the two former captains of fifty together with their fifty. Respect now my life."

¹⁵The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him. Be not afraid of him." Then he arose and went down with him to the king. ¹⁶He said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Be-

a) The name meaning, "lord of flies," and such a god should be able to bring health. The name is identical with Beelzebub in the N.T. and equivalent to "Satan," prince of demons [Matt. 10:25; 12:24].

b) Not to plead for mercy, for there was no repentance; but to arrest and punish God's prophet.

cause you sent messengers to consult Baal-zebub, god of Ekron—was it because there is no God in Israel to consult as to His word?—you shall never arise from the bed upon which you are lying. You shall certainly die.”

¹⁷So he died in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by Elijah, and Jehoram became king in his place in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, because he had no son.^c ¹⁸The rest of the acts of Ahaziah and what he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2 WHEN THE LORD WAS ABOUT TO take up Elijah into heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha left Gilgal. ²Elijah appealed to Elisha, “Stay on here, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not leave you.” So they went on to Bethel.^d ³The band of prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha, saying, “Are you aware that today the LORD is going to take away your master who goes before you?” “I know it,” he said, “be still.”

⁴Again Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay on here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” “As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not leave you,” he replied as they continued to Jericho. ⁵The group of prophets at Jericho approached Elisha, saying, “Are you aware that today the LORD is going to take your master who goes before you?” “I know it,” he said, “be still.”^e ⁶Once more Elijah said to him, “Stay on here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” “As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not leave you,” he said, as they both went on. ⁷Fifty men of the group of prophets came and stood some distance from them while both of them stood by the Jordan.

⁸Then Elijah took his coat, folded it and struck the water, which parted, so that both of them crossed on dry ground.

⁹When they crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I am to do for you before I am taken away from you.” Elisha replied, “Let a double share of your spirit be upon me.”^f ¹⁰He said, “You have made a difficult request, but if you see me taken from you, it shall be granted to you; if not, it will not be so.”

¹¹As they were walking along and talking, look! A chariot and horses of fire separated the two of them and Elijah ascended to heaven in a whirlwind. ¹²When Elisha saw it, he cried, “My father, my father, the chariots and horsemen of Israel!”^g When he could no longer see him, he took hold of his clothes and tore them in two. ¹³Then he took up Elijah’s coat which had fallen off and, returning, stood on the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴He took Elijah’s coat which had fallen off and struck the water, saying, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” As he struck the water again, it parted and Elisha crossed over.

¹⁵When the group of prophets saw him from the other side, they said, “The spirit of Elijah remains with Elisha.” So they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him. ¹⁶They said to him, “With your servants are fifty strong men; let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him on some mountain or in some valley.” But he replied, “You must not send them.” ¹⁷However they pressed him until he relented and permitted them to send them. So they sent fifty men, who looked three days for him but could not find him.^h ¹⁸They returned while he waited at Jericho. He said to them, “Did I not tell you, ‘Do not go?’”

¹⁹The men of the city said to Elisha, “The location of the city is excellent, as my master can see, but the water is bad and it makes the land sterile.” ²⁰He said, “Get me a new pan and put salt in it.” So they brought it

c) Ahaziah dying without a male heir, his brother Jehoram, another son of Ahab, succeeded him.

d) Elisha knew his time had come to stand on his own feet, yet not to leave his master alone.

e) The Holy Spirit was working in those young men and showed them truth hidden from others.

f) A humble and effective prayer. Elisha felt the need of power for his prophetic task.

g) Men of Elijah’s type are the defensive and offensive forces of their people.

h) Many lessons they must learn for themselves. And Elisha could yield when no moral question was involved.

to him. ²¹Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt in it, saying, "Thus has the LORD said: I have purified this water so that death and miscarriage shall no longer come from it." ²²And the water has remained pure to this day, in accordance with the word spoken by Elisha.

²³When he left there for Bethel, and was on the way, some youths came out of the city and poked fun at him, saying, "Go up, baldy; go up, baldy!" ²⁴As he turned around and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the forest and tore up forty-two of the boys. ²⁵From there he went to Mount Carmel and later returned to Samaria.

852 B.C.

3 JEHOAM BECAME KING OVER ISRAEL at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he was king for twelve years. ²He too did evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and mother; for he removed the pillar of Baal which his father had erected. ³Only he clung to the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin, and he did not turn away from it.^k

⁴Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep raiser who was required to deliver regularly to the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams. ⁵After the death of Ahab, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶At that time King Jehoram left Samaria to mobilize all Israel. ⁷Moreover, he directed this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you join me in war against Moab?" He replied, "I will go; I am as you, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." ⁸"Which way shall we go?" he inquired. "The way of the Edom desert," he answered.

⁹So the king of Israel set out with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the pack animals following them. ¹⁰"Alas!" exclaimed the king of Israel, "the LORD has called together these three kings to give them into the hand of the king of Moab."¹¹ Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet here through whom we may inquire from the LORD?" One of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah, is here." ¹²Jehoshaphat said, "He has the word of the LORD." So the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.^m ¹³Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Why do you come to me? Go to the prophets of your father and mother." The king of Israel replied, "No! The LORD has called together these three kings to give them into the hand of the king of Moab." ¹⁴Elisha said, "By the life of the LORD of hosts, whom I serve, if it were not for my regard for Jehoshaphat king of Judah,ⁿ I would neither look at you nor take notice of you. ¹⁵Bring me a minstrel." While the minstrel played, the hand of the LORD came upon him,^o ¹⁶so that he called out, "Thus says the LORD: Dig ditches in this dry valley; ¹⁷for thus says the LORD: Though you will see neither wind nor rain, that valley shall be full of water so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink. ¹⁸And this is not enough in the sight of the LORD, for He will also give Moab into your hand." ¹⁹You shall capture every fortified city and every choice city, every fruit tree you shall cut down, all springs of water you shall stop up, and every good piece of land you shall ruin with stones." ²⁰And at the time of sacrifice the next morning, water came flowing from the di-

i) He who created the elements is able to eliminate those hurtful and to bring in those wholesome

j) This is not the N.T. spirit. Christ did not come to destroy. However these youngsters were mocking God when they mocked Elijah's ascension; their lives would not have been constructive.

k) No king of northern Israel dared let his people worship at the Jerusalem temple; yet they thought of no substitute except idols.

l) He had no idea of the relationship between God and His worshippers.

m) The three kings had to eat humble pie to learn God's will with them.

n) Through the ages the true worshippers of God have been what Jesus called, "the salt of the earth."

o) Sweet, spiritual music to begin a church service may prepare the heart to meet with God.

p) God's mercies are not sparse; they are bountiful.

rection of Edom until the land was filled with water.

²¹When all Moab heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were old enough to gird themselves, or older, were called to arms and stationed at the frontier.

²²Rising early in the morning, when the sun shone upon the water, the Moabites saw the water before them red as blood. ²³So they said, "This is blood. The kings have attacked and slain one another. Now, to the spoil, O Moab!"

²⁴When they came to the camp of Israel, Israel arose and struck down the Moabites until they fled before them; they pursued the Moabites and struck them down. ²⁵They destroyed their cities; each one threw a stone on every piece of good land until it was filled; all the springs of water they stopped up, every fruit tree they cut down, until only the stones of Kirharseth were left, and the slingers even surrounded and attacked it. ²⁶When the king of Moab saw that he was losing the battle, he, with seven hundred swordsmen, tried to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed. ²⁷Then he took his first-born son, who would have been king in his place, and offered him up as a sacrifice on the wall. Great indignation came upon Israel, so that they withdrew from him and returned to their land.^q

4 THE WIFE OF ONE OF THE SONS OF the prophets appealed to Elisha, "Your servant, my husband, is dead; and you know that your servant revered the LORD; but now the creditor has come to take my two sons to be his slaves." ²"What can I do for you? Tell me," said Elisha, "what do you have in the house?" She replied, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house, except a small jar of oil." ³He said, "Go, borrow vessels at large from all your neighbors, empty vessels, and get not a few. ⁴Then enter, shut the door behind yourself and your sons, and pour into all these vessels, putting aside each one that has been filled." ⁵She left him and shut the door behind herself and her two sons; they brought the vessels to her as she poured. ⁶When the vessels were filled, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." He replied, "There is none left." Then the oil ceased flowing.^r ⁷So she went and informed the man of God, who said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay your debts; you and your sons can live on the remainder."

⁸One day Elisha went over to Shunem where lived a prominent woman, who persuaded him to stay for lunch. After that, as often as he passed that way, he would turn in there to eat a bite. ⁹She said to her husband, "Truly the man who so frequently passes this way is a holy man of God. ¹⁰Let us make an upstairs guest chamber, put in a bed for him, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so that whenever he comes to us, he may rest there."

¹¹One day as he came by, he stopped to rest in the roof room. While lying there, ¹²he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her and she stood before him, ¹³he said to him, "Tell her now, 'Look, since you have exercised all this painstaking care for us, what can be done for you? Shall some request for you be made to the king or to the captain of the army?'" She replied, "I live among my own people."^s ¹⁴But he said, "What then can be done for her?" Gehazi answered, "Indeed, she has no son, and her husband is an old man."^t ¹⁵He said, "Call her." So he called her, and she stood at the door. ¹⁶He said, "Next season about this time you shall embrace a son." "No, my master, O man of God, do not delude your maidservant," she exclaimed. ¹⁷But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son the next season about the time Elisha had told her.

¹⁸One day when the child had grown, he went out with his father to the harvesters. ¹⁹He complained to

q) A horrible deed; but are we perfectly willing to see our children decide for full time Christian service, even abroad? r) God is more ready to supply than we are to receive from Him.

s) I.e. My people will take care of me, should I need anything.

t) She was not present when Elisha and Gehazi further conversed.

his father, "My head! My head!"^u He said to the servant, "Carry him to his mother." ²⁰So he took him up and brought him to his mother. He sat on her lap until noon and then died.

²¹She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door behind her, and went out. ²²Then she called her husband and said, "Send me now one of the servants and one of the donkeys; for I want to hasten to the man of God and return." ²³He said, "Why do you want to go to him today? It is neither the new moon nor the Sabbath!" She replied, "It shall be well."

²⁴So she saddled the donkey and gave orders to her servant, "Go on quickly, and do not slow down until I tell you." ²⁵She went on until she came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. As soon as the man of God saw her approaching, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Look, there is the Shunammite!" ²⁶Run now to meet her and ask her, 'Are you well? Is your husband well? Is the child well?'" She answered, "It is well."^v ²⁷When she came to the man of God at the mountain, she embraced his feet. Gehazi came up to push her away; but the man of God said, "Let her alone, for she is in deep anxiety which the LORD has concealed from me; He has not told me." ²⁸"Did I ask my master for a son?" she sobbed. "Did I not say, 'Do not give me false hope?'" ²⁹Then he said to Gehazi, "Gird your loins; take my staff in your hand, and go—if you meet anyone, do not greet him and if anyone greets you, do not respond—and place my staff on the face of the child."^w ³⁰The child's mother said, "As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not return without you." So he arose and went with her.

³¹Gehazi had preceded them and had placed the staff upon the face of the child. When there was neither sound nor movement, he returned to meet him and told him, "The child has not awakened." ³²When Elisha came to the house, see, the child was dead, lying on his couch. ³³So he entered and, when he had shut the door against both of them, he prayed to the LORD. ³⁴Then he went up and lay upon the child with his mouth upon the child's mouth, his eyes upon the child's eyes, and his hands upon the child's hands. When he had so stretched himself out upon him, the child's body grew warm. ³⁵Getting up, he walked back and forth in the house. When he stretched himself upon him again, the child sneezed seven times and then opened his eyes. ³⁶Summoning Gehazi, he said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. When she arrived, he said, "Take up your son." ³⁷So she came in, fell down at his feet, and prostrated herself on the ground. Then she took up her son and went out.^x

³⁸When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. As the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Put on the big kettle, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets." ³⁹So one of them went out to the field to gather herbs. He found a wild vine from which he gathered his lap full of wild gourds. He cut up the herbs into the kettle, not knowing what they were. ⁴⁰Then he^y poured it out for the men to eat. But when they ate of the herbs, they cried out, "There is death in the kettle, O man of God!"; for they could not eat it. ⁴¹He said, "Bring here some flour," and when he had thrown it into the kettle, he said, "Pour it out for the people, that they may eat." And there was nothing harmful in the kettle.^z

⁴²There came a man from Baal-shalisha, bringing food of the first fruits to the man of God, twenty barley loaves and fresh fruit in his bread

u) He must have suffered a sunstroke.

v) This is all she cared to say to Gehazi; for Elisha she reserved much more.

w) She knew and Elisha knew that no staff could suffice; it required the warmth of the personal touch, as new life in Christ still requires.

x) A guest room to which Christian workers are welcomed can still be a source of blessing to the family and especially to the growing children.

y) Elisha. z) Christian elements must counteract unholy things and may turn the hurtful into helpful things.

bag. He said, "Give it to the people that they may eat." ⁴³His servant replied, "How can I set this before 100 men?" But he insisted, "Give it to the people that they may eat; for the LORD has said: They shall eat and have leftovers." ⁴⁴So he set it before them. When they had eaten, some was left over as the LORD had said.^a

5 NAAMAN THE CAPTAIN OF THE army of the king of Syria was an important official in the sight of his master and was highly esteemed because the LORD had brought victory to Syria through him. He was an outstanding man, but he was a leper. ²Now the Syrians on one of their raiding expeditions had taken captive from the land of Israel a little girl who served Naaman's wife. ³She said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would drive out^b his leprosy." ⁴So he^c went to his master and told him, "Thus and so has the girl from the land of Israel spoken."^d

⁵The king of Syria replied, "Then go; and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went, taking along with him 20,000 dollars in silver, 60,000 dollars in gold, and ten suits of clothes. ⁶He handed this letter to the king of Israel, "With this letter I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may drive out his leprosy." ⁷After the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes, saying, "Am I God who can kill or restore to life, that this fellow has sent a man to me to drive out his leprosy? Just consider, and see how he is trying to stir up trouble with me!"^e

⁸When Elisha, the man of God, heard that the king of Israel had torn his garments, he sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Why have you torn your garments? Let him come to me, and know that there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot and stood at the door of Elisha's house. ¹⁰And Elisha sent a messenger to him with these instructions, "Go, wash seven times in the Jordan, and your body shall be well and clean again." ¹¹But Naaman went away angry, saying, "I thought he would come out, stand and call upon the name of the LORD his God and, waving his hand over the place, drive out the leprosy." ¹²Are not the Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not have washed in them and been made clean?" So he turned away in anger. ¹³Then his servants approached him and said, "My father, if the prophet had instructed you to do something spectacular, would you not have done it? But he simply said, 'Wash and be clean.'" ¹⁴So he went down and dipped himself into the Jordan seven times, in accordance with the word of the man of God. His body was made well like that of a little child, and he was clean.^f

¹⁵Then he and all his company returned to the man of God. When he arrived and stood before him, he said, "Now I know there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Accept now a gift from your servant." ¹⁶"As sure as the LORD lives before whom I stand, I will not accept it," he replied. Even though he pressed him to accept it, he refused.^g ¹⁷Then Naaman said, "If not, may your servant be given a mule-team load of earth; for your servant will never again offer burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods except the LORD.^h ¹⁸May the LORD forgive your servant in this matter: when my master enters the house of Rimmon to worship there, supported by my hand, and I have to bow myself down in the house of Rimmon; when I have to bow myself down thus in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant in this matter." ¹⁹He said to him, "Go in peace."

a) Prophetic of Christ's feeding the 5000; symbolic of the overflowing riches of divine grace.

b) Probably from an Akkadian root meaning 'to exorcise.' c) Naaman went to the Syrian king.

d) If a captive little girl can thus effectively testify, what cannot we witness?

e) It never occurred to the king to send Naaman to God's servant.

f) His heart became childlike before his body was thus renewed.

g) Christian workers need apply sound judgment regarding proffered gifts from other than Christian givers. h) Soil to build on it an altar to Jehovah God.

When he had travelled some distance, ²⁰Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, "Look! My master has not taken anything which this Syrian, Naaman, brought with him. As sure as the LORD lives, I will run after him and accept something from him." ²¹So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he came down out of his chariot to meet him, saying, "Is all well?" ²²"All is well," he replied. "My master sent me with this message, 'Two young men from Mount Ephraim, sons of the prophets, have just come to me. Let me have 2,000 dollars in silver and two suits of clothes for them.'"ⁱ ²³Naaman said, "Please accept 4,000." He pressed him and tied up 4,000 dollars in silver in two bags, and two suits of clothes, which he gave to two of his servants who carried them before him.^j ²⁴When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand and deposited them in his house. Then he sent the men away and they left.

²⁵When he entered to wait on his master, Elisha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" "Your servant has been nowhere," he replied. ²⁶He said to him, "Did I not in thought go with you when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Was it a time to accept money and to take suits, olive groves, vineyards, flocks, herds, male and female servants?" ²⁷Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will fasten upon you and your descendants forever." Then he left his presence, a leper, white as snow.

850 B.C.

6 AT THAT TIME THE SONS OF THE prophets said to Elisha,^k "The place we are living in here with you is too small for us. ²Let us go to the Jordan and each of us take from there a log and construct for ourselves there a place to live." He said, "Go ahead." ³Then one of them said, "Please go with your servants." "I will go along," he replied. ⁴So he went with them, and when they came to the Jordan they cut down trees. ⁵While one of them was felling a tree, his axhead fell into the water. "Alas, my master, it was borrowed!" he exclaimed. ⁶"Where did it fall?" inquired the man of God. When he pointed out the place to him, he cut off a twig, cast it in there, and made the axhead float. ⁷He said, "Take it up." So he reached out his hand and took it.

⁸When the king of Syria was at war with Israel, he counseled with his servants, "At such and such a place shall be my camp." ⁹The man of God, however, informed the king of Israel, "See that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there." ¹⁰Then the king of Israel sent to the place about which the man of God had informed him. So heⁿ warned him, and he kept clear more than once or twice.

¹¹The mind of the king of Syria was quite disturbed about it. He called his servants and inquired of them, "Can you tell me who among us informs the king of Israel?" ¹²One of his servants replied, "There is none, my master, O king. It is Elisha the prophet; for he tells the king of Israel what you say in your bedroom." ¹³He commanded, "Go, find out where he is, so I may send and arrest him." He was told, "See, he is in Dothan."ⁿ ¹⁴Then he sent there horses, chariots, and a powerful army. They arrived by night and surrounded the city.

¹⁵When the servant of the man of God got up early in the morning and went out, look, the army, together with horses and chariots, were all around the city. His servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we

i) Both Elisha and his servant seem to have depended on gifts for a living. This chance for a liberal contribution proved too alluring for Gehazi; but to get it he must go contrary to his master's principles, and he must lie. j) Before Gehazi.

k) Elisha worked with young worshippers, as Elijah does not seem to have worked. Samuel's School of the Prophets is the first mention of such a group.

m) Elisha warned the king of Israel.

n) About ten miles north of Samaria city. There Joseph had found his ten brothers, was cast in a pit, and sold down to Egypt.

do?"^o ¹⁶"Be not afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them," he replied. ¹⁷Then Elisha prayed, "O LORD, open his eyes that he may see!"^p The LORD opened the eyes of his servant and when he looked, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha.

¹⁸As the Syrians came against him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, "Inflict this people with sudden blindness." So He inflicted them with sudden blindness in accordance with the word of Elisha.

¹⁹Then Elisha said to them, "This is neither the way nor the city. Come with me, and I will take you to the man you seek." So he brought them to Samaria.^q ²⁰When they arrived at Samaria, Elisha said, "O LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." The LORD opened their eyes and when they looked, see, they were in the center of Samaria!

²¹When he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, "Shall I cut them down, shall I cut them down, my father?" ²²"You must not cut them down," he replied. "Would you cut down those whom you have not taken captive with your sword or your bow? Set before them food and water, so they may eat and drink and then return to their master." ²³He then made a great feast for them. They ate and drank and afterward he sent them away and they went to their master.^r The raiding bands of Syrians never again returned to the land of Israel.

²⁴Later, however, Ben-hadad the king of Syria mustered all his army, went up, and besieged Samaria. ²⁵Such a severe famine resulted from their siege that a donkey's head brought fifty dollars in silver and a pint of dove's leavings brought three dollars in silver. ²⁶As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman called out to him, "Help, my master, O king."

²⁷He replied, "If the LORD will not help you, how can I help you? Can I help you from the threshing floor or from the wine press?" ²⁸The king said to her,^s "What is the matter with you?" "This woman," she replied, "said to me, 'Give your son that we may eat him today and we shall eat my son tomorrow.'"^t ²⁹So we boiled my son and ate him; and when I said to her the next day, 'Give your son that we may eat him,' she hid her son."^u ³⁰When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes—for he was passing by on the wall—and the people saw the sackcloth next to his body. ³¹He said, "May God do so to me and even more, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains standing on his shoulders today."^v ³²While Elisha and the elders were sitting together in his home, he^w sent a man from his presence. But before the messenger arrived, he^x said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take off my head?"^y See here, when the messenger arrives, shut the door and keep him back with the door; for is not the sound of his master's footsteps behind him?" ³³While he was still talking with them, the messenger came down to him and he^x said, "This evil is from the LORD. Why should I wait any longer for the LORD?"

7 "LISTEN TO THE WORD OF THE LORD," replied Elisha. "Thus says the LORD: About this time tomorrow a peck of fine meal may be purchased at the gate of Samaria for a dollar and two pecks of barley for a dollar."^z ²The royal official^y who supported the king, replied to the man of God, "If the LORD should open windows in heaven, could this happen?" "You shall indeed see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it," said he.^z

³Now there were four lepers at the

o) Not seldom we have similar fears, because the visible naturally impresses us to the exclusion of the invisible.

p) He did not pray for heavenly hosts to come; they were there, but the servant had not been aware of them. Jesus [Matt. 18:10] and Paul [I Cor. 11:10] suggest their abiding presence.

q) Where he lived and where they were well treated. r) This was the Jesus way and it worked. s) He had gone on, but turned when she continued crying.

t) No repentance, but vengeance in his heart. u) The king. v) Elisha.

w) There was constant communication between Elisha and God.

x) The messenger was not admitted; the king arrived and expressed his disgust.

y) Not the messenger but the high official on whom the king leaned. z) Elisha.

entrance of the gate of Samaria. They said one to another. "Why are we sitting here until we die? ⁴If we say, 'Let us go into the city,' famine is there, and if we remain here we shall die. Now come, let us desert to the Syrian camp; if they spare us, we shall live; if they kill us, we shall just die." ⁵So at twilight they got up to advance to the Syrian camp. When they arrived at the Syrian camp, look, not a man was there! ⁶For the LORD had caused the Syrian camp to hear the sound of chariots and of horses and of a great army,^a so that they said one to another, "The king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to come against us." ⁷So they arose and fled at twilight, leaving behind their tents, their horses, their donkeys, and the camp, just as it was; they fled for their lives.

⁸When the lepers came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent and ate and drank and took from there some silver, gold, and garments, and went and hid them. Afterward they returned and went into another tent and took some things from there and went and hid them. ⁹Finally they said one to another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news;^b if we keep quiet and wait until morning light, punishment will befall us. Come, let us go and inform the household of the king." ¹⁰They came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, informing them, "We went to the Syrian camp, but not a man was there nor the sound of anyone; only horses and donkeys were tied there and their tents just as they were." ¹¹Then the gatekeepers shouted and told it to the king's household inside. ¹²The king arose in the night and said to his servants, "Let me tell you what the Syrians have done for us; they know that we are hungry, so they have left the camp and hidden themselves in the field thinking, 'When they go out of the city, we will seize them alive and enter the city.'"^c ¹³One of his servants suggested, "Let some men take five of the horses that are left here; if they survive, they will be like the whole multitude of Israel left here; but if they fall into a trap, they will be like the whole multitude of Israel which has perished. So let us send and see."^d ¹⁴They then took two chariots with horses and the king sent them after the Syrian army with instructions to go and see. ¹⁵They followed them as far as the Jordan and look, all along the way were scattered clothes and supplies which the Syrians had thrown away in their hurried flight! When the messengers returned, they told the king.

¹⁶Then the people went out and plundered the Syrian camp. So in accordance with the word of the LORD, a peck of fine meal was offered for a dollar and two pecks of barley for a dollar. ¹⁷Now the king had put the officer, who had supported the king, in charge of the gate; but the people trampled him at the gate so that he died as the man of God had said to the king when he came down to him. ¹⁸Thus the statement of the man of God to the king, about two pecks of barley for a dollar and a peck of fine meal for a dollar this time tomorrow at the gate of Samaria, was fulfilled. ¹⁹Also to the royal official who had replied to the man of God, "If the LORD should open windows in heaven, could it be so?" and to whom he said, "Look! You shall see it with your eyes but shall not eat of it," ²⁰it happened so; for the people trampled him at the gate, so that he died.

8 AT THAT TIME ELISHA SAID TO THE woman whose son he had restored to life, "You and your household leave and stay where you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will last for seven years."^e ²So the woman arose and did as the man of God advised; she and her household went and stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years. ³At the end

a) Sounds at the Creator's bidding, causing a panic.

b) Repeatedly our situation; we must be material and spiritual sharers.

c) The king had heard Elisha's promise but did not believe it.

d) A smart suggestion, worthy of a courtier; but not born from faith.

e) Elisha was a polite guest; he kept in touch with his hosts of seven years, when the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, she went to lay claim before the king to her house and her field. ⁴The king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, at the time. ⁵"Tell me," said he, "all the great things Elisha has done." ⁶While he was telling the king how he restored the dead to life, the woman whose son he had restored to life was coming to appeal to the king for her house and her field. Then Gehazi said, "My master, O king! this is the woman and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life."

⁶When the king inquired of the woman, she told him about it. Then the king provided an official for her, saying, "Return all her property together with all its produce from the time she left the land until now."

⁷Afterward Elisha went to Damascus. Ben-hadad king of Syria was ill and when he was informed, "The man of God has come here," ⁸the king said to Hazeal, "Take in your hand a gift, go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD through him whether I shall recover from this illness." ⁹So Hazeal went to meet him with a gift in hand—all sorts of valuable things from Damascus, forty camel loads—and when he entered and stood before him, he said, "Your son Ben-hadad king of Syria has sent me to you with this message, 'Shall I recover from this illness?'" ¹⁰Elisha said to him, "Go, tell him, 'You will surely recover.'" However the LORD has shown me that he shall surely die." ¹¹And he looked at him fixedly until he was ashamed. ¹²Then the man of God wept. ¹²Hazeal said to him, "Why do you weep, my master?" He answered, "Because I know the calamity you will bring upon Israel; their fortresses you will burn with fire, their young men you will kill with the sword; their little children you will dash in pieces, and their pregnant women you will rip open." ¹³"What! Is your servant a dog that he should do this terrible thing?" remarked Hazeal. "The LORD has shown me that you are to be king of Syria," said Elisha. ¹⁴Then he left Elisha and returned to his master, who asked him, "What did Elisha tell you?" "He told me you will assuredly recover," he said. ¹⁵The next day he took a coverlet, dipped it in water and spread it over his face so that he died. Then Hazeal became king in his place.

848 B.C.

¹⁶In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah became king. ¹⁷He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem for eight years. ¹⁸He walked in the way of the kings of Israel as the house of Ahab had done, for he had married a daughter of Ahab; he did evil in the sight of the LORD. ¹⁹However, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David His servant, because He had promised to make him and his sons a perpetual light.

²⁰In his time Edom rebelled against the authority of Judah and provided a king for themselves. ²¹Joram^k with all his chariots then crossed over to Zair where he arose at night and destroyed the Edomites around him together with their chariot officers. But the people fled to their tents. ²²Edom has, however, continued in rebellion against the authority of Judah to this day. Libnah also rebelled at that time.

²³The rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁴So Joram slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

²⁵In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah. ²⁶Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he

f) Gehazi is called the prophet's servant; so, this almost certainly happened before his leprosy.

g) Some non-Hebrews were more anxious to hear God's messages than were the Hebrews.

h) Spoken ironically, as did Micaiah [I Kings 22:15].

i) Hazeal grew ashamed. Elisha knew what crime Hazeal would commit to gain the throne and how he would then behave.

j) Jehoshaphat's affiliation with Ahab had many evil consequences and his daughter-in-law Athaliah was among the worst.

k) Jehoram—"Jehovah is high"—which the name Joram also means. The two names are interchanged, vss. 21-24 relating to the king of Judah.

became king, and he remained king for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, daughter of Omri king of Israel.¹ ²⁷He walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as the house of Ahab had done; for he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab. ²⁸He accompanied Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead, where the Syrians wounded Joram. ²⁹So Joram the king returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted upon him at Ramah where he warred with Hazael king of Syria. At that time Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram son of Ahab at Jezreel where he lay sick. ^{841 B.C.}

9 ELISHA SUMMONED ONE OF THE sons of the prophets and said to him, "Gird your loins, take this vial of oil in your hand and proceed to Ramoth-gilead. ²When you arrive there, look for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi;^m as you enter, tell him to get up from among his brothers, and bring him to an inner room. ³Then take the vial of oil and pour it upon his head and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: I have anointed you king over Israel.' Then open the door and leave at once; do not dally."

⁴The young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. ⁵When he arrived, the officers of the army were in conference. He said, "Captain, I have a message for you!" "For which of us all?" said Jehu. "For you, captain," he replied. ⁶So he arose and went into the house, where he poured the oil upon his head and said to him, "Thus has the LORD God of Israel spoken: I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD^o over Israel. ⁷You are to overthrow the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the LORD shed by Jezebel. ⁸The whole house of Ahab shall be destroyed; I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond and free, in Israel, ⁹and I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.^p ¹⁰The dogs shall devour Jezebel in the district of Jezreel, and none shall bury her." Then he opened the door and fled.

¹¹When Jehu came out to the servants of his master, one of them said to him, "Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?" "You know the man and his talk," he answered. ¹²"Lies, but tell us," they retorted. He said, "Thus and so he told me, saying, 'Thus has the LORD said: I have anointed you king over Israel.'" ¹³They then took each one quickly his garment and spread it under him on the bare steps, sounded the trumpet, and shouted, "Jehu is king."^q ¹⁴Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Joram and all Israel had garrisoned Ramoth-gilead against Hazael king of Syria. ¹⁵But Jehoram the king^r had returned to recuperate at Jezreel from the wound which the Syrians inflicted upon him when he warred against Hazael king of Syria. "If that is your mind," said Jehu, "let no one slip away from the city to bring news of it to Jezreel." ¹⁶Then Jehu mounted a chariot and drove toward Jezreel, where Joram was lying and whither Ahaziah king of Judah had come to see Joram.

¹⁷When the watchman, standing on the tower at Jezreel, caught sight of Jehu's company approaching, he said, "I see a company." Jehoram said, "Get a horseman, and send him out to meet them with the greeting, 'Is all well?'" ¹⁸So the horseman went out to meet him and said, "Thus has the king said. 'Is all well?'" "What have you to do with well-being?" replied Jehu. "Swing around behind me." The watchman re-

1) We would call Omri her grandfather and Ahab her father. She was too exactly like her mother Jezebel. m) To distinguish him from Jehoshaphat the son of king Asa.

n) The young prophet.

o) God still owned them as His people and offered them a good chance to change their ways.

p) The Omri dynasty had been adequately warned.

q) An odd combination of neglect of and deference toward God's message.

r) That is, Joram the king of Israel.

ported, "The messenger has reached them, but he has not turned back."

¹⁹He sent a second horseman who came up to them and said, "Thus has the king said, 'Is all well?'" "What have you to do with well-being?" replied Jehu. "Swing around behind me." ²⁰The watchman again reported, "He reached them, but he has not turned back. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu, for he always drives like a madman."^s ²¹Jehoram said, "Get ready," and they hitched up his chariot. Then Jehoram the king of Israel drove off with Ahaziah king of Judah, each in his own chariot and went out to meet Jehu. They met him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²²When Jehoram caught sight of Jehu, he said, "Is all well, Jehu?" "How can there be well-being when the harlotries and seductions of Jezebel your mother are so numerous," he replied. ²³Jehoram turned around and fled, calling to Ahaziah, "Treason, Ahaziah!" ²⁴Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Jehoram between the shoulders. The arrow went through his heart, and he slumped in his chariot. ²⁵Jehu said to Bidkar his lieutenant, "Take him up, and cast him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite; for recall how, when I and you were riding together behind his father Ahab, the LORD uttered this oracle against him: ²⁶As certainly as I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and his sons, I will repay you on this property, says the LORD. Take him up now, and throw him on the property, according to the word of the LORD."

²⁷When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw that, he fled by the way of Bethhaggan. Jehu followed him and said, "Shoot him, too."^u So they shot him in his chariot at the upward slope of Gur near Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo where he died. ²⁸His servants took him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave with his fathers in the city of David.

²⁹Ahaziah became king of Judah in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab.

³⁰When Jezebel heard Jehu entering Jezreel, she painted her eyes,^v adorned her head, and looked out of the window. ³¹When Jehu arrived at the gate, she said, "Is all well, O Zimri, murderer of your master?"^x ³²Lifting up his face toward the window, he said, "Who is with me? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked out at him. ³³He said, "Push her out," and they pushed her out. Some of her blood bespattered the wall and the horses as they trampled her down.

³⁴After they had entered, they ate and drank. Then he said, "Attend now to this accursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter." ³⁵When they went to bury her, they found nothing of her except her skull, her feet, and the palms of her hands. ³⁶So they returned and told him. He said, "This is the word of the LORD spoken by his servant Elijah the Tishbite: In the district of Jezreel shall the dogs devour Jezebel's flesh, ³⁷and Jezebel's corpse shall be as dung upon the field in the district of Jezreel, so that they cannot say, This is Jezebel."

10 AHAB HAD SEVENTY SONS IN Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters which he sent to Samaria to the officials of Jezreel, the elders and the custodians of Ahab's children, as follows: ²"Now when you receive this letter, since you have charge of your master's sons, his chariots, his horses, his fortified cities and equipment, ³select the best and most capable of your master's sons and place him on the throne of his father, that they may contend for the house of your master." ⁴But trembling in great fear, they^y said, "Two kings could not stand before him, and

^s) Which shows him up as impulsive, aggressive, and merciless.

^t) Jehu proved himself an excellent marksman, to hit when his chariot was moving.

^u) This was going beyond divine orders.

^v) A common practice. ^w) Determined to die as she had lived, proudly and in high style—a plan Jehu did not allow her to carry through.

^x) Zimri had assassinated Elah king of Israel [I Kings 16: 8-20], had reigned for one week, and had then been murdered.

^y) Those were the cowardly elders—with some change of personnel—who had, at Jezebel's bidding, falsely accused and stoned Naboth to death.

how then could we stand?"⁵ So the manager of the palace and the city manager, together with the elders and custodians, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and we will obey all your orders to us; we will not make anyone king. Do whatever seems right to you!"⁶ Then he wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are for me and ready to listen to me, take the heads of your master's sons and appear before me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time."^a The sons of the king to the number of seventy persons were with the magnates of the city who were responsible for their upbringing.⁷ When the letter reached them, they took the sons of the king and killed the seventy of them. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.⁸ When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the sons of the king," he said, "Put them in two piles at the entrance of the gate until morning."⁹ In the morning, he went out, stood up, and said to all the people, "You are blameless. I conspired against my master and killed him; but who killed all these?"¹⁰ Know then, that not a syllable of the word of the LORD which He spoke against the house of Ahab shall remain unfulfilled; the LORD has done what He announced through Elijah His servant."^b ¹¹ So Jehu killed all those who remained of the house of Ahab at Jezreel—all his prominent men, his acquaintances, and his priests until there was not a single survivor.

¹² Next he started out for Samaria. On the way, at Beth-eked of the Shepherds, ¹³ he met the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. "Who are you?" he asked. "We are the relatives of Ahaziah," they replied. "We have come down to visit the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."¹⁴ "Take them alive," said he. So they took them alive and killed them at the pit of Beth-eked; he spared not one of them.^c ¹⁵ Leaving there, he fell in with Jehonadab son of Rechab, who was coming to meet him. He saluted him and said to him, "Is your heart as loyal to mine as my heart is to yours?" "It is," said Jehonadab. "If it is, give me your hand," [said Jehu]. He gave him his hand and [Jehu] took him up to him in his chariot. ¹⁶ He said further, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD."^d Then he made him ride in his chariot. ¹⁷ When he arrived at Samaria, he killed all the survivors of Ahab in Samaria—he exterminated them^e completely, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken through Elijah.

¹⁸ Then Jehu summoned all the people and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much."^f ¹⁹ Now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let not one be missing, for I am preparing a great sacrifice for Baal. Every one who is missing shall forfeit his life." Jehu did this deceptively in order to destroy the servants of Baal. ²⁰ Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal." So they called it. ²¹ Jehu notified all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came—not a single one failed to come. They assembled at the house of Baal until the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other. ²² He said to the man in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out the vestments for the servants of Baal." So he brought out the vestments for them.

²³ When Jehu and Jehonadab son of Rechab entered the house of Baal, he said, "Investigate and see that there are no servants of the LORD here with you but only the servants of Baal."^g ²⁴ So they^h came to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. In the meantime Jehu had stationed eighty of his men on the outside, to whom he said, "The one who permits any of the men whom I give into your hands to escape shall pay for it with his life."

²⁵ When he had finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the bodyguard and officers, "Enter and kill them, z) Jehu knew the grade of character he was dealing with—putty in his hands.

a) So that all Israel might know the Omri dynasty was ended.

b) Killing was his familiar occupation; this time he could do it "to the glory of God."

c) Again he went beyond divine orders, which had confined him to northern Israel and Ahab's house. d) Jehonadab was a steadier and truer servant of God—a temperate man.

e) The house of Ahab. f) A trick too frequently applied in Europe during Inquisition days.

g) Jehonadab knew the true worshipers better than did Jehu. h) The Baal priests.

let not one of them get away." They killed them with the sword. The bodyguard and the officers threw them out and went into the inner part of the house of Baal. ²⁶They also brought out the pillarⁱ of the house of Baal and burned it. ²⁷They broke down the pillar of Baal and wrecked the house of Baal and made it a latrine until this day.

²⁸Though Jehu thus eradicated Baal from Israel, ²⁹he did not remove the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, the golden calves at Bethel and at Dan. ³⁰The LORD said to Jehu: Inasmuch as you did well to put into practice what is right in My sight and carried out everything I planned against the house of Ahab, four generations of your sons shall sit upon the throne of Israel.^j ³¹But Jehu was not careful to observe the Law of the LORD God of Israel with his whole heart, because he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam who led Israel to sin.^k

³²At that time the LORD began to trim off Israel. Hazael defeated them throughout all the territory of Israel ³³from the Jordan eastward, throughout all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer which is in the valley of the Arnon, throughout all Gilead and Bashan.^l

814 B.C.

³⁴The rest of the acts of Jehu and everything he did and his mighty power, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ³⁵So Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him at Samaria. Jehoahaz his son became king in his place. ³⁶Jehu was king over Israel at Samaria for twenty-eight years.

841 B.C.

11 WHEN ATHALIAH MOTHER OF Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring; ²but Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram and sister of Ahaziah,^m took Joash son of Ahaziah and abducted him from among the sons of the king about to be killed, placing him and his nurse in a storeroom where they concealed him from Athaliah so that he was not killed. ³He remained with her in hiding for six years, while Athaliah was ruler over the land.

⁴In the seventh year Jehoiada had the centurions of the bodyguard and escort brought to him in the house of the LORD, made an agreement with them, to which he bound them by oath in the house of the LORD, and then showed them the son of the king.ⁿ ⁵He gave them these orders, "This is what you are to do: A third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath shall guard the king's house; ⁶another third at the gate Sur and the final third at the gate behind the bodyguard; ⁷you shall guard the temple alternately. ⁸Two detachments of all of you, who go off duty on the Sabbath shall guard the house of the LORD for the king; ⁹you shall surround the king solidly, each with his weapons in his hand — any one intruding into the ranks shall be killed — and be with the king at all times."

⁹The centurions carried out the orders of Jehoiada the priest; each one took his men who came on duty on the Sabbath with those who went off duty on the Sabbath and came to Jehoiada the priest, ¹⁰who presented to the centurions the spears and shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the LORD's house. ¹¹The bodyguard stood, each with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, about the altar and the house, around the king.^o ¹²Then he brought in the king's son, placed upon him the crown, and handed him the testimony.^p So they made him king and anointed him. They clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

¹³When Athaliah heard the noise of the bodyguard and the people, she came to the people in the house of the LORD. ¹⁴She glanced around, and look, there was the king standing by the pillar ac-

i) For Baal worship the Canaanites had pillars, which the Israelites were to overthrow, and were forbidden to erect for their own worship [Deut. 16:22].

j) God goes as far with His grace to us as we allow Him.

k) The worship of the golden calves and absence from the temple.

l) One reason for Hazael's anointment.

m) But not a daughter of Athaliah. n) No loyalty to dictatorial, pagan Athaliah.

o) A well-studied plan perfectly executed.

p) The Mt. Sinai Law, to be again the law of the land.

cordova to custom—the officers and trumpeters being with the king—and the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding the trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, “Conspiracy! Conspiracy!” ¹⁵Then Jehoiada the priest ordered the centurions, the officers of the army, “Bring her out^a between the ranks and whoever comes out with her, you kill with the sword.” For the priest said, “Do not kill her in the house of the LORD.” ¹⁶So they took hold of her, and she came out by the horses’ entrance to the house of the king, where they killed her.

¹⁷Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people that they should be the LORD’s people, and also between the king and the people. ¹⁸All the people of the land went to the house of Baal and broke it down; its altars and its images they wrecked completely, and they killed Mattan the priest^r of Baal before its altars. The priest^r set overseers over the house of the LORD. ¹⁹He also took the centurions of the bodyguard and of all the people, and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, passing through the gate of the Royal Guards to the house of the king, where he ascended the throne of the kings. ²⁰All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was peaceful after they had killed Athaliah with the sword in the house of the king. ²¹Joash was seven years old when he became king.

835 B.C.

12 JEHOASH^b BECAME KING IN Jehu’s seventh year, and he was king for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zibiah from Beersheba. ²Throughout his life Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD, because Jehoiada the priest continued to instruct him. ³Only he did not remove the high places; the people continued to offer sacrifices and to burn incense at the high places.

⁴Jehoash said to the priests, “All the money of the sacred offerings which is brought into the house of the LORD, both the money levied according to each man’s valuation and the money from the voluntary offerings which may be brought to the LORD’s house,^c ⁵let the priests receive for themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the damage of the house wherever there is damage.”^d ⁶But up to the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had not made any repair of the damage of the house.^e ⁷So King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and said to them, “Why have you not repaired the damage of the house? Now do not take any more money from your supporters, for you must give it to repair the damage of the house.”^w ⁸The priests agreed not to take any more money from the people nor to repair the damage of the house.

⁹Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole through its lid, and placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the house of the LORD. The priests who served as doorkeepers put in it all the money brought to the house of the LORD. ¹⁰When they found sufficient money in the chest, the royal secretary and the high priest would come up, make it into ingots and evaluate the money found in the house of the LORD. ¹¹Then they placed the money that had been weighed out into the hands of the workmen who had charge of the house of the LORD, who paid it to the carpenters and builders working on the house of the LORD ¹²and to the masons and stonecutters; in addition, they paid for timber and dressed stone to repair the damage of the house of the LORD and everything else spent to restore the house. ¹³But silver goblets, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any articles of silver, were not made with the money brought to the house of the LORD,^x ¹⁴because they gave it to the

q) Heb., “from within.”

r) The high priest Jehoiada, who initiated this renewed covenant between the king, the people and Jehovah. s) Joash and Jehoash are the same person.

t) There were two types of monetary offering, assessed and voluntary.

u) God’s house must be kept in repair and beautiful.

v) Giving orders is not enough. King and priest should have seen to the executions of those orders. w) It looks as if donations for repairs had been used for their own living expenses—sorely needed when so many worshipped idols.

x) What had been donated for repairs must be used for nothing else.

workmen who restored the house of the LORD with it. ¹⁶They required no accounting from the men into whose hands they had placed money for the workmen because they dealt honestly. ¹⁶The money from the guilt offerings and the sin offerings was not brought to the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

¹⁷At that time Hazael king of Syria went up and made war against Gath and captured it. And when Hazael turned his face to go up against Jerusalem, ¹⁸Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred treasures which Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Judah had dedicated, together with his own sacred treasures and all the gold deposited in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the house of the king and sent them to Hazael king of Syria, so that he might leave Jerusalem.^y ¹⁹The rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁰His servants arose, contrived a plot, and killed Joash in Beth Millo on the road leading down to Silla.^z ²¹Joazar son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer, his servants, killed him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, while Amaziah his son became king in his place.

814 B.C.

13 IN THE TWENTY-THIRD YEAR OF Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel at Samaria; he was king for seventeen years. ²He did evil in the sight of the LORD and continued in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin; he did not turn away from them. ³The anger of the LORD was stirred against Israel so that He incessantly delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria and into the hand of Ben-hadad son of Hazael. ⁴But Jehoahaz prayed for the LORD's favor, and the LORD listened to him because he saw how the king of Syria kept oppressing Israel.^a ⁵So the LORD delivered Israel and freed them from the hand of Syria. Then the Israelites lived in their homes as before. ⁶Only they did not turn away from the sin of the house of Jeroboam, who led Israel to sin; they continued in it, while the shame-images, too, remained standing in Samaria. ⁷There remained to Jehoahaz a force of only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and 10,000 foot soldiers; for the king of Syria had reduced them and made them like dust at threshing. ⁸The rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did, together with his might, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁹So Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him at Samaria; and his son Joash^b became king in his place.

798 B.C.

¹⁰In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel at Samaria, and he was king for sixteen years. ¹¹He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and he did not turn away from the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin; he continued in it. ¹²The rest of the acts of Joash^c and all that he did, together with his might and how he warred against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ¹³So Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam^d occupied his throne. Joash was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴Elisha was confined at the time with the illness of which he was to die. Joash king of Israel went down to see him and wept in his presence, sobbing, "My father, my father! the chariots and the horsemen of Israel!"^e ¹⁵Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows"; so he took a bow and arrows. ¹⁶Then he said to the king of Israel, "Take hold of the bow." He took hold of the bow, and Elisha put his hands on the hands of the king, ¹⁷saying, "Open the window toward the east." When he had opened it, Elisha said, "Shoot!" and he shot. He exclaimed, "The arrow of victory! The arrow of victory over Syria! You shall utterly defeat Syria at Aphek."

y) No mention of counselors to the king; Jehoiaada seems to have retained much control.

z) Because he had paid the blackmail money? Or because no part in the government was accorded them? a) For once God's aim in chastising, to turn hearts toward Him, met some response.

b) Also called Jehoash. c) The same person as Jehoash. d) Jeroboam II.

e) What Elisha had cried out to Elijah and true of both; true of God's servants. They are THE strength of the nation.

¹⁸Then he said, "Take the arrows"; and he took them. "Strike the ground with them," he said to the king of Israel. So he struck it three times and then stopped.^f ¹⁹The man of God, displeased with him, said, "You should have struck it five or six times, for then you would have kept on striking down Syria to its utter destruction. But you shall strike down Syria only three times."

²⁰When Elisha died, they buried him. Bands of Moabites used to come into the land every spring. ²¹Once when they were burying a man, they saw such a band and hastily threw the man into Elisha's grave. As soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and rose to his feet.

²²Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. ²³But the LORD was gracious to them, had mercy upon them, and turned to them for the sake of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; He did not want to destroy them, nor had He cast them from His presence until now.

²⁴When Hazael king of Syria died, Ben-hadad his son became king in his place. ²⁵Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz retook the cities from Ben-hadad son of Hazael, which the latter had taken in the war with Jehoahaz his father; three times Joash defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

796 B.C.

14 IN THE SECOND YEAR OF JOASH son of Joahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah. He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. ³He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, but not so well as David his father; he did as Joash his father had done. ⁴The high places were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense at the high places.^h

⁵As soon as he had a firm hold on the kingdom, he put to death those of his servants who had killed the king, his father.ⁱ ⁶However, he did not put to death the children of the murderers, because it stands written in the book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not be put to death for children nor shall children be put to death for fathers; each person shall be put to death for his own sins."^j

⁷In the Valley of Salt he killed 10,000 Edomites and took Sela in battle. He renamed it Joktheel,^k its name to this day. ⁸At that time Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, with this message, "Come on, let us encounter one another."^l ⁹Jehoash king of Israel sent this reply to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon this request: 'Give your daughter as a wife for my son'; but a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the bramble."¹⁰Because you have utterly defeated Edom, your heart has made you proud. Enjoy your glory! Go home! Why should you stir up trouble, so that you and Judah fall together?" ¹¹But Amaziah refused to listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up, and they encountered one another in battle, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which belonged to Judah. ¹²Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled each one to his home.^m

¹³After Jehoash king of Israel had captured Amaziah king of Judah, son of Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, at Bethshemesh, he went to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim gate to the corner, a distance of 600 feet.ⁿ ¹⁴When he had taken all the gold, all the silver, and all the vessels found in the house of the LORD

f) Elisha had given him orders which he had accepted, so he should not have stopped until so told by Elisha.

h) One wonders to whom they sacrificed; however, even if to God, His revealed will demanded priestly sacrifice at His one sanctuary.

i) His father's slaying seems to have been undeserved; the perpetrators were punished fairly.

j) Cf. Deut. 24:16; Jer. 31:30; Ezek. 18:4,20.

k) Best known as Petra; its Bible name seems to mean, "Subjection to God."

l) No reason is given for Amaziah's challenge to battle; it was a costly mistake.

m) With his army dispersed, Amaziah and his people were at the mercy of Jehoash.

n) A rather useless procedure, except to teach Judah to behave itself.

and in the treasuries of the king's house, together with the hostages,^o he returned to Samaria.

¹⁵The rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, his might and how he warred with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ¹⁶So Jehoash slept with his fathers and was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel; then his son Jeroboam became king in his place.

¹⁷Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel. ¹⁸The rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ¹⁹When they conspired against him at Jerusalem, he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish where they killed him.^p ²⁰They brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. ²¹Then all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ²²He built Elath and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

791 B.C.

²³In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, became king at Samaria; he reigned for forty-one years. ²⁴He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. ²⁵He restored the territory of Israel from the entrance at Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah,^q in accordance with the word of the LORD God of Israel, spoken through his servant Jonah^r son of Amittai, the prophet, from Gath-hepher. ²⁶The LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; none remained, either bond or free; there was no helper for Israel. ²⁷But the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under the heaven; indeed He delivered them through the hand of Jeroboam son of Joash.

²⁸The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, all that he did, his might, how he made war, and how he restored Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, to Israel, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁹So Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel, and his son Zechariah became king in his place.

790 B.C.

15 IN THE TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah^s son of Amaziah, king of Judah, became king. ²He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. ³He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that Amaziah his father did. ⁴Only the high places were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and to burn incense at the high places.

⁵The LORD struck the king so that he was a leper until the day of his death.^t He lived in a separate house while Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging^u the people of the land. ⁶The rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁷So Azariah slept with his fathers and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; then his son Jotham became king in his place.

753 B.C.

⁸In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam was king over Israel at Samaria for six months. ⁹He did evil in the sight of the LORD as his fathers had done; he did not turn away from the ^o) This is the only mention in the Bible of the term "hostages," repeated in II Chron. 25:24.

^p) The repeated example of the Northern kingdom seems to have influenced Judah.

^q) While Assyria was beginning invasions into Syria, northern Israel enjoyed peace and prosperity; but this also meant that it would be next to feel Assyria's heavy hand.

^r) The prophet of the book named for him.

^s) Usually called Uzziah. For 12 years Jeroboam II must have hindered his free reign over Judah, for his father Amaziah survived Joash of Israel 15 years (ch. 14:17).

^t) The reason is given in II Chron. 26:16-20. ^u) Term probably indicates regency.

sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin.^v ¹⁰Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against him, cut him down at Ibleam, killed him, and became king in his place. ¹¹The rest of the acts of Zechariah, see, they are told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. ¹²That was in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken to Jehu: Four generations of your sons shall occupy the throne of Israel.^w And it was so.

¹³Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; he was king at Samaria for a month. ¹⁴At that time Menahem son of Gadi^x came up from Tirzah to Samaria, where he cut down Shallum son of Jabesh, killed him, and became king in his place. ¹⁵The rest of the acts of Shallum and the conspiracy which he raised, see, they are told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.^y

752 B.C.

¹⁶Then Menahem destroyed Tiphshah,^z all who were in it, and all the surrounding territory from Tirzah on; if a city refused to open, he razed it and ripped open all its pregnant women.

¹⁷In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel; and he reigned for ten years. ¹⁸He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not throughout his reign turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. ¹⁹When Pul king of Assyria came into the land, Menahem gave Pul 2,000,000 dollars in silver to gain his support for himself in holding the kingdom. ²⁰Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the powerful men of wealth to pay the king of Assyria, assessing each man fifty shekels of silver. So the king of Assyria returned and did not remain there in the land.

²¹The rest of the acts of Menahem and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²²So Menahem slept with his fathers and Pekahiah his son became king in his place.

742 B.C.

²³Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah; and he reigned for two years. ²⁴He too did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. ²⁵Pekah son of Remaliah, his official, with fifty men of the Gileadites, conspired against him, cut him down at Samaria in the citadel of the king's house with Argob and Arieah—killed him, and became king in his place. ²⁶The rest of the acts of Pekahiah and all that he did, see, they are recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

752 B.C.

²⁷In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel at Samaria, and he reigned for twenty years.^a ²⁸He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. ²⁹In the time of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria^b came and took Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried off their inhabitants to Assyria.

732 B.C.

³⁰Then Hoshea son of Elah raised a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah, cut him down, killed him, and became king in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah. ³¹The rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, see, they are recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

751 B.C.

³²In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, became king. ³³He was twenty-five years old when he became king and continued as king

v) Without exception those kings considered political control more important than obedience to and worship of God, a mistake the Communists are making in our time.

w) Ch. 10:30. x) Of the tribe of Gad.

y) No anointing is mentioned in the case of these ephemeral kings.

z) In the extreme north of Ephraim.

a) Beginning his reign in Gilead, it seems, in 752 B.C.

b) The books of Chronicles have much more to tell about the kings of Judah than do the books of Kings.

in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.^c ³⁴He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with all that Uzziah his father had done. ³⁵However, they did not remove the high places; the people still offered sacrifices and burnt incense at the high places. He constructed the upper gate of the LORD's house. ³⁶The rest of the acts of Jotham, what he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?^d ³⁷In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.^e ³⁸So Jotham slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Ahaz his son reigned in his place. 743 B.C.

16 IN THE SEVENTEENTH YEAR OF Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham, king of Judah, became king. ²Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God as David his father had done. ³He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, even making his son pass through fire, in accordance with the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed from before the children of Israel. ⁴He sacrificed and burned incense at the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to war against Jerusalem. They besieged Ahaz but could not subdue him. ⁶At that time Rezin king of Syria regained Elath for Edom, clearing the Jews completely out of Elath. So the Edomites came back to Elath and live there to this day.

⁷Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel who are marching against me." ⁸Ahaz took the silver and gold deposited in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.^f ⁹The king of Assyria listened to him. The king of Assyria went up to Damascus, seized it, exiled its inhabitants to Kir, and killed Rezin.

¹⁰Then King Ahaz went to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria at Damascus where he saw the altar that was at Damascus. King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest a model of the altar together with detailed plans for its construction. ¹¹So Urijah the priest built the altar. In accordance with the plans which King Ahaz sent from Damascus, Urijah the priest made the altar before King Ahaz's return from Damascus. ¹²When the king returned from Damascus, he inspected the altar. The king then approached and went up to the altar,^g ¹³where he offered his burnt offering and his meal offering. He also poured out his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings against the altar.^h ¹⁴The bronze altar before the LORD he removed from the front of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.ⁱ ¹⁵King Ahaz gave these instructions to Urijah the priest: "Upon the great altar^j you must offer the morning burnt offering, the evening meal offering, the king's burnt offering and meal offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land, together with their meal offering and their drink offering, and sprinkle against it the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. The bronze altar, however, must be reserved for me to inquire by." ¹⁶And Urijah the priest did as King Ahaz had ordered.

¹⁷King Ahaz cut off the rims of the

c) The three Zadoks whose ministries are described were priests; this Zadok very likely was one of them. His daughter Jerusha gave the grandson a good start.

d) In numerous instances kings of Judah served first as assistants to their predecessors, as acting kings, to be crowned after the aging king's death.

e) Neither king was consciously carrying out the will of God.

f) Ahaz failed to see that the weakening of Assyria would bring Assyria that much sooner upon Judah; for with Israel it served as a buttress against Assyria.

g) His new altar. For an exceptional occasion [I Kings 8:62], Solomon offered on the temple altar, but when Uzziah did so, he was punished. Ahaz made the priests use the newly made altar, but expected supernatural information by means of the divinely dedicated altar.

bases and removed the laver from off them; he also took down the sea from the bronze oxen which supported it and put it on a base made of stones. ¹⁸The Sabbath covering,^h which they had constructed in the temple house, and the king's entrance from the outside, he turned around in the house of the LORD because of the king of Assyria. ¹⁹The rest of the acts of Ahaz, what he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁰So Ahaz slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

17 IN THE TWELFTH YEAR OF AHAZ king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king in Samaria and reigned over Israel for nine years. ²He did evil in the sight of the LORD, only not like the kings of Israel before him.

³When Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him, Hoshea became his servant and paid tribute to him; ⁴but when the king of Assyria found that Hoshea was plotting rebellion against him — for he sent messengers to So king of Egypt and no longer paid tribute regularly to the king of Assyria — the king of Assyria arrested and imprisoned him. ⁵The king of Assyria then marched through the whole land, came against Samaria, and laid it under siege for three years. ⁶The king of Assyria captured Samaria in the ninth year of Hoshea and exiled Israel to Assyria, where he settled them in Halah, in Habor, on the river Gozan, and in the Median cities.ⁱ

722 B.C.

⁷This came about because the children of Israel sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshiped other gods ⁸and observed the customs of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the children of Israel, and the customs of the kings of Israel whom they had appointed. ⁹The children of Israel also did things secretly, which were not right, against the LORD their God. They erected high places for themselves in all their cities from watchman's tower to fortified city. ¹⁰They set up for themselves pillars and shame images on every high hill and under every green tree. ¹¹They burnt incense there at the high places as the nations did whom the LORD had removed before them; they did evil things to provoke the LORD, ¹²and they worshiped idols concerning which the LORD had warned: You must not do this thing.

¹³Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah through every prophet and every seer: Turn from your evil ways and observe My commands and My statutes in accordance with the whole law which I commanded your fathers and which I delivered to you through My servants the prophets. ¹⁴But they refused to listen; they were as stubborn as their fathers had been, who did not remain faithful to the LORD their God. ¹⁵They rejected His statutes, His covenant which He made with their fathers, and the testimonies He gave them. They went after emptiness and became empty, and followed the nations surrounding them about whom the LORD commanded them not to do as they did. ¹⁶They forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, made for themselves molten images — two calves — and a shame image, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served Baal. ¹⁷They made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire;^k they practiced fortune-telling and enchantment, and they sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him. ¹⁸So the LORD became deeply angered and put them out of His sight; the tribe of Judah alone remained.

¹⁹Neither did Judah observe the commandments of the LORD their God; they followed the practices which Israel had adopted. ²⁰The LORD, therefore, rejected all the children of Israel, ^h) A passage providing protection for those attending services, it seems.

ⁱ) In spite of prophetic warning, the Hebrews would turn to Egypt for help against the empires to the east.

^j) This marks the end of northern Israel as a nation.

^k) A fanatical and God-dishonoring dedication of their children to the heathen idol Molech.

afflicted them, and handed them over to plunderers until He could put them out of His sight.

²¹For Israel split off from the house of David and made Jeroboam son of Nebat king; Jeroboam lured Israel away from following the LORD and made them to commit a great sin. ²²The children of Israel walked in all the sins which Jeroboam committed; they did not turn away from them ²³until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, as He said He would do through all His servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their land to Assyria where they remain to this day.

²⁴The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, from Cuthah, from Avva, from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of Israel; they took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities. ²⁵When they first came to live there, they did not revere the LORD, but the LORD sent lions among them which killed some of them. ²⁶They informed the king of Assyria, "The nations which you have exiled and made to dwell in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of the land who sent lions among them and killed some of them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land." ²⁷Then the king of Assyria gave this order: "Take back there one of the priests whom you exiled from there, that he may go and live there and teach them the law of the god of the land." ²⁸So one of the priests, exiled from Samaria, came to live at Bethel, and he taught them how to worship the LORD. ²⁹But each nation continued to make its own gods and set them up in the sanctuary of the high places which the people of Samaria had built, each nation in the cities where they lived. ³⁰The men of Babylon made¹ Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, ³¹the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak their god; the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adramme-lech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³²They also worshiped the LORD and appointed for themselves from their own people high-place priests to sacrifice for them in the sanctuaries of the high places.^m ³³So they worshiped the LORD and at the same time served their gods, according to the custom of the nations from among whom they had been exiled.

³⁴To this very day they follow their former practices. They do not worship the LORD, nor do they follow the statutes and judgments in accordance with the law and commandment which the LORD gave to the children of Jacob, whose name He changed to Israel, ³⁵with whom the LORD had made a covenant and whom He gave command: You must not revere other gods nor worship them nor serve them nor offer sacrifices to them; ³⁶but you must revere the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with mighty power and with an outstretched arm; you must worship Him and offer sacrifices to Him, ³⁷and throughout life observe carefully the statutes, the judgments, the instruction, and the commandment, which He wrote down for you. You must never revere other gods. ³⁸You must never forget the covenant I made with you; you must never revere other gods, ³⁹but you must revere the LORD your God, for He it was who delivered you from the hand of all your enemies.ⁿ ⁴⁰Nevertheless they would not listen but followed their former practices. ⁴¹These nations revered the LORD but also served their graven images. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.^o

725 B.C.

18 IN THE THIRD YEAR OF HOSHEA son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign. ²He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah.

³He did what was right in the sight

1) They made images, each of the gods he worshiped.

m) Instead of choosing between God and idols, they thought it safer to pay some attention to both, thereby dishonoring God. n) Throughout the Bible, repetitions serve to emphasize great truths.

o) To these religious hybrids the name Samaritans was given by the Jews, for their capital Samaria.

of the LORD as David his father had done. ⁴He removed the high places, broke down the pillars, cut off the shame images, and crushed the bronze serpent which Moses had made; for up to this time the children of Israel continued to burn incense to it; it was called Nehushtan.^p ⁵He trusted in the LORD God of Israel — there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, after or before his time. ⁶He clung to the LORD and did not turn away from Him; he observed the commandments which the LORD gave Moses. ⁷The LORD was with him and made him succeed in every venture. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. ⁸He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its suburbs, from watchman's tower to fortified city.

⁹In the fourth year of King Hezekiah — that was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel — Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and laid it under siege, ¹⁰capturing it at the end of three years. In the sixth year of Hezekiah — that was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel — Samaria was captured. ¹¹The king of Assyria exiled Israel to Assyria; he placed them in Halah, in Habor, the river Gozan, and in the Median cities.^q ¹²It was because they refused to listen to the voice of the LORD their God and transgressed His covenant — everything that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened to it nor practiced it.

¹³In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ¹⁴Hezekiah king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish, "I have done wrong.^r Withdraw from me; I will bear whatever you prescribe for me." Then the king of Assyria demanded of Hezekiah king of Judah 600,000 dollars in silver and 900,000 dollars in gold. ¹⁵Hezekiah gave him all the money deposited in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house. ¹⁶At that time Hezekiah cut up the doors of the sanctuary of the LORD and the doorposts which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid and gave them to the king of Assyria. ¹⁷The king of Assyria sent the field marshal, the chief treasurer, and the chief of staff, with a large force from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. So they went up and arrived at Jerusalem; they stood at the aqueduct of the upper pool, which is on the road to the fuller's field. ¹⁸When they called to the king, Eliakim son of Hilkiah, overseer of the house, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, went out to him.

¹⁹The chief of staff said to them, "Tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria:^s What confidence is this in which you trust? ²⁰You think mere lip service is advice and strength enough for war! Now in whom do you have confidence, that you have rebelled against me? ²¹Now indeed, you are placing your trust in the support of this broken reed, in Egypt; if anyone were to brace himself against it, it would run into his palm and pierce it. So is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all who trust in him. ²²If you should say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' was it not Hezekiah who removed His high places and His altars and gave orders to Judah and Jerusalem, 'Before this altar at Jerusalem you must worship'? ²³Now take a wager with my master, the king of Assyria: I will indeed give you 2,000 horses if you are able to furnish riders for them. ²⁴How then can you drive away one of the least of my master's servants, when you depend on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ²⁵Have I now come up against this place to destroy it without the LORD's consent? The LORD said to me: Go up against this land and destroy it.'"

²⁶Eliakim, son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah requested of the chief of staff, "Speak now to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the Judean tongue with-

p) "Only a piece of brass," they said when they destroyed it.

q) This was the second, more complete exile of northern Israel.

r) To have expected help from Egypt.

s) No title included for Judah's king, but hyperbolic titles for the emperor.

t) The orator was wrong there. To God's honor, Hezekiah had destroyed the Canaanite high places and altars, used by idolatrous Jews. Such defamation was the Assyrians' undoing.

in hearing distance of the people on the wall."

²⁷The chief of staff replied to them, "Has my master sent me to say these things to your master and to you and not to the men sitting on the wall, destined along with you to eat their own excrement and to drink their own urine?" ²⁸Then the chief of staff stood up and called with a loud voice in the Judean language. He said, "Listen to the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. ²⁹Thus says the king: 'Do not allow Hezekiah to deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you from my hand. ³⁰Do not permit Hezekiah to make you have confidence in the LORD with the promise, "Surely the LORD will deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." ³¹Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus has the king of Assyria said, 'Make peace with me, come out to me, for then each one may eat of his own vine and his own fig-tree and drink water from his own well, ³²until I come and take you to a land like yours, a land of grain and wine, a land of food and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey where you may live and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah when he wants to seduce you with his, "The LORD will deliver us." ³³Has indeed anyone of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?' ³⁴Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Did they deliver Samaria from my hand? ³⁵Who of all the gods of the lands have delivered their land from my hand that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?'"

³⁶The people remained silent and spoke not a word in reply to him; for the king had given orders, "Do not reply to him." ³⁷Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the overseer of the house, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came in to Hezekiah, tearing their garments; they told him the words of the chief of staff.

19 WHEN KING HEZEKIAH HEARD it, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and went to the LORD's house. ²Moreover, he sent Eliakim the manager of the house, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, who had also put on sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³They said to him, "Thus has Hezekiah said:

A day of distress and reproach,

And of dishonor is today,

For children have come to birth

But there is not strength to give birth.

⁴Perhaps the LORD your God* will listen to all the words of the chief of staff, whom the king of Assyria, his master, sent to ridicule the living God, and have a reply for the words which the LORD your God has heard. Pray then, for the remnant that is left."

⁵So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, and ⁶Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Thus has the LORD said: Be not troubled because of the words you have heard, whereby the servants of the king of Assyria have taunted Me. ⁷Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that when he hears a rumor, he will return to his land; I will overthrow him with the sword in his own land.'"

⁸When the chief of staff returned, he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had left Lachish. ⁹After hearing the news about Tirhakah king of Ethiopia — "He has come out to fight with you" — he sent the messengers back to Hezekiah with this message: ¹⁰"Tell Hezekiah king of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you have confidence deceive you with the promise: Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹You have indeed heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, completely destroying them; and are you going to be spared? ¹²Have the gods of the nations, which my fathers destroyed, delivered them — Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, the citizens of Eden in Tel-assar?

u) This blasphemy God avenged in His own time.

v) The answer is, "None," but the questioner did not know God.

w) They should have contacted God's prophet much earlier.

x) Why "your God"? Why not "our God"? Were they not on intimate terms with God?

¹³Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"

¹⁴Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, and when he had read it, he brought it up to the house of the LORD. There Hezekiah spread it out before the LORD. ¹⁵Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD: "O LORD God of Israel, seated over the cherubim,^y Thou alone art God of all the kingdoms of the earth; Thou hast made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁶Incline Thine ear, O LORD, and listen; open Thine eyes and look; and listen to the words of Sennacherib who has sent to insult the living God. ¹⁷Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands¹⁸ and have cast their gods into the fire; yet they were not gods but merely the product of human hands, wood and stone — and they destroyed them. ¹⁹Now, O LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that Thou, LORD, alone art God."

²⁰Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah, "Thus has the LORD God of Israel said: I have heard your prayer to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria. ²¹This is what the LORD has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and scorned you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head over you. ²²Whom have you reproached and taunted, against whom raised your voice and scornfully lifted up your eyes? against the Holy One of Israel? ²³By your messengers you reproached the LORD and said, 'With the multitudes of my chariots I scaled the highest mountains, the remotest parts of Lebanon; I cut down its tallest cedars, its choicest fir trees, I came to its remotest lodge, its cultivated forest. ²⁴I dug a well and drank strange waters, I wiped dry with the soles of My feet all the canals of the Nile.' ²⁵Have you not heard long ago that I did it? From days of yore formed it; now I bring it to pass, — that you turn to rubbish heaps fortified cities, ²⁶with their citizens impatient, terrified and confounded. They were as field plants, as shoots of green grass, like root growth scorched before it comes up. ²⁷Your abode, your goings and comings I know... and you raging against Me. ²⁸Because you raged against Me and your insolence has come to My ears, I will put My hook in your nose, My bridle on your lips, and I will send you back the way by which you came.

²⁹"This shall be the sign for you: the first year you shall eat aftergrowth the second year re-growth, but the third year sow and reap, plant vine yards, and eat their fruit.^z ³⁰The survivors of the house of Judah who are left shall again take root downward and bear fruit upwards;^a ³¹for from Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant and from Mount Zion survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.^b y) Referring to God's special presence above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim above the ark of the covenant.

³²"Therefore, thus has the LORD spoken concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come up to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor appear before it with a shield, nor throw up a mound against it. ³³He shall return the same way he came; he shall not come up against this city, says the LORD. ³⁴For I will defend this city to spare it for My sake and that of David my servant."

³⁵That night the messenger of the LORD went forth and killed 185,000 in the Assyrian camp. When men arose early in the morning, look, those were all dead bodies!^c ³⁶So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. ³⁷And as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons cut him down with the sword; they escaped to the land of Ararat. And his son Esar-haddon became king in his place.

z) No harvest that year, for the Assyrians took it; nor a chance to put in next year's crop. But next year's autumn, they will be able to put in the crop for the third year.

a) They shall enjoy natural growth and productivity as God's children.

b) God zealous for His lukewarm people.

c) By what calamity we are not told, for we need not know. We know that God does not forget or neglect His own.

713 B.C.

20 AT THAT TIME HEZEKIAH BECAME mortally ill. Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you will die; you will not recover." ²Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD: ³"Remember now, I pray Thee, O LORD, how I walked before Thee faithfully and wholeheartedly and did what was pleasing in Thy sight." Hezekiah wept very bitterly.

⁴Before Isaiah had left the courtyard, the word of the LORD came to him: ⁵Return and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, Thus has the LORD God of David your father said: I have heard your prayer and have seen your tears; look, I am going to heal you. On the third day you will go up to the house of the LORD. ⁶I will have fifteen years added to your life, and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city for My sake and for that of David My servant. ⁷Isaiah said, "Take a fig cake." So they took it and applied it to the boil, and he recovered.

⁸Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?" ⁹And Isaiah replied, "This shall be the LORD's sign for you, that the LORD will do what He said: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps or recede ten steps?" ¹⁰Hezekiah said, "It is easy for the shadow to extend ten steps; no, let the shadow recede ten steps." ¹¹Then Isaiah the prophet called upon the LORD who made the shadow recede ten steps by which it had gone down on the steps of Ahaz.

¹²At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent a letter and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah was ill. ¹³Hezekiah received them^c and showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the aromatic oil, his armory, and everything deposited in his treasuries; there was not a thing in the house or in all his kingdom which Hezekiah did not show them.^e ¹⁴When Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, he inquired of him, "What did these men say and from where have they come to you?" "They came from a distant land, from Babylon," replied Hezekiah. ¹⁵"What did they see in your house?" he continued. Hezekiah answered, "They saw everything in my house. There is not a thing in my treasuries that I did not show them."

¹⁶"Listen to the word of the LORD," said Isaiah to Hezekiah: ¹⁷The time is coming when everything in your house, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, shall be carried away to Babylon; not a thing shall be left, says the LORD. ¹⁸Some of your own sons, your very offspring, shall be taken away to become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

¹⁹Hezekiah replied to Isaiah, "Good is the word of the LORD which you have declared."^h For he thought, "Is it not so, if there is peace and security in my time?"

²⁰The rest of the acts of Hezekiah, all his might and how he made the pool and aqueduct to bring water into the city, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²¹So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and his son Manasseh became king in his place.

696 B.C.

21 MANASSEH WAS TWELVE YEARS old when he became king,ⁱ and he continued to reign at Jerusalem for fifty-five years. His mother's name was Hephzibah. ²He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with the abominations of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the children of Israel. ³He restored again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; he built altars for Baal; he made a shame image, as Ahab king of

d) A very different way from Ahab, when refused the vineyard he wanted [I Kings 21:4].

e) What infinite patience, dealing with a doubting believer! Facing such an attitude, what would we say or do? f) Those who brought the letter and present.

g) Apparently not humbly; not with a word of gratitude toward God.

h) He took the rebuke as a trusting and loyal child.

i) Too young for his task without a reliable leader. The high priest or another godly officer should have been assigned for his tutor. Had Hezekiah been too busy with the affairs of state to prepare his son?

Israel had done, and he worshiped and served all the host of heaven. ⁴He built altars in the house of the LORD when the LORD had said, In Jerusalem I will put My name. ⁵He also built altars for all the host of heaven in both courts of the house of the LORD. ⁶He made his son to pass through the fire; he practiced soothsaying and fortune-telling, and he provided necromancers and wizards. He did even worse in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

⁷He put the graven image of the shame goddess he had made into the very house about which the LORD had said to David and Solomon his son: In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have selected out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever. ⁸Never again will I make the feet of Israel wander from the land I gave to their fathers, if only they will observe to do in accordance with all I commanded them and in accordance with the law that Moses My servant commanded them. ⁹But they would not listen; Manasseh misled them to do more evil than the nations which the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.^j ¹⁰So the LORD spoke through His servants the prophets: ¹¹Because Manasseh has done these detestable things, has done more wickedly than all the Amorites did before him, and has made Judah to sin with his disgusting idols, ¹²therefore thus has the LORD God of Israel said: Behold, I will bring such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah that both ears of those who hear it will ring. ¹³I will stretch out over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the plummet of Ahab's house; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish — he wipes it as he turns it upside down. ¹⁴I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance, handing them over to their enemies; they shall be plunder and prey for their enemies, ¹⁵because they did evil in My sight and angered Me from the time their fathers came out of Egypt until now.

¹⁶Manasseh also spilled very much innocent blood until he had filled Jerusalem from end to end, in addition to the sin whereby he led Judah to sin, to do evil in the sight of the LORD.

¹⁷The rest of the acts of Manasseh, all that he did and the sin he committed, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?^k ¹⁸So Manasseh slept with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza; and his son Amon became king in his place.

641 B.C.

¹⁹Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰He did evil in the sight of the LORD as Manasseh his father had done. ²¹He walked in every way his father walked, served the disgusting idols his father served, and worshiped them.^l ²²He deserted the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD. ²³Amon's servants conspired against him and killed the king in his house. ²⁴Then the people of the land cut down all those who conspired against King Amon; the people of the land also made his son Josiah king in his place.

²⁵The rest of the acts of Amon and what he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁶So they buried him in his grave in the garden of Uzza; and his son Josiah became king in his place.

639 B.C.

22 JOSIAH WAS EIGHT YEARS OLD when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years; his mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah from Bozkath. ²He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, walking in all the way of David his father, turning neither to the right nor to the left.^m

³In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the scribe, to

j) Manasseh burdened himself and his people with sins unmeasured and unmentionable. Neither he nor his people had to commit those sins; they remained free to choose between good and evil. k) II Chron. 33:10-13 tells of his imprisonment and conversion.

l) Manasseh's repentance must have been known to Amon at 22; but he preferred the wicked way and got what he deserved sooner than he expected.

m) Why these splendid sons of wicked fathers and these wicked sons of splendid fathers, unless there was a vast difference between their mothers!

the house of the LORD, saying, ⁴"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, and let him melt down the silver that has come to the house of the LORD and that the doorkeepers have collected from the people; ⁵put it in the hands of the workmen who are in charge of the house of the LORD, and let them pay it over to the workmen in the house of the LORD to repair the damage of the house, ⁶to the carpenters, builders and masons, and for the purchase of timber and cut stone to restore the house."ⁿ ⁷Only they must not be required to give an account of the money placed in their hands, because they deal honestly."

⁸Then Hilkiah the high priest informed Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan who read it. ⁹So Shaphan the scribe went to the king and reported on the matter to the king as follows, "Your servants have paid out the money deposited in the house and put it into the hands of the workmen who are in charge of the house of the LORD." ¹⁰Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book," and Shaphan read the book before the king.

¹¹When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes.^o ¹²The king gave Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, these orders: ¹³"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people, for all Judah about the words of this book that has been discovered; for great is the LORD's indignation stirred up against us because our fathers did not listen to the words of this book, to carry out everything written therein concerning us."

¹⁴So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess,^p the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (she lived in the second quarter of Jerusalem) and conferred with her. ¹⁵She said to them, "Thus has the LORD God of Israel said: Tell the man who sent you to Me, ¹⁶Thus has the LORD said, Behold, I will bring evil against this place and its inhabitants in accordance with all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. ¹⁷Because they have deserted Me and have burned incense to other gods to provoke Me with all the works of their hands, My indignation has been stirred up against this place and shall not subside.

¹⁸"And to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, say, Thus has the LORD God of Israel said: About the words which you have heard, ¹⁹because your heart was penitent and you have humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I said concerning this place and its inhabitants, that they shall become a curse, and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I too have heard you, says the LORD. ²⁰Therefore observe! I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace;^q your eyes shall not look upon all the evil I will bring upon this place." Then they reported back to the king.

23 THE KING SUMMONED TO HIMSELF all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ²Then the king went up to the LORD's house; with him went all the men of Judah, all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the prophets, and all the people, young and old; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant discovered in the house of the LORD. ³The king standing beside the pillar made the covenant before the LORD to follow the LORD, to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with his whole heart and soul, and to uphold the words of this covenant written in this book; and all the people agreed to the covenant.^r

⁴The king gave orders to Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of second rank,^a and the doorkeepers, to remove from the

n) Reverence and love for God will normally extend to His house of worship.

o) Failure to keep priest and people versed in God's revelation of Himself and of His will had resulted in the fearful degradation of Israel, north and south.

p) Only here this great woman is mentioned, like Deborah, a mother in Israel. Be assured, she stood not alone in her sublime faith.

q) An assurance which God is ever ready to give to the repentant sinner.

r) What had reached him, must be broadcast for everyone. s) Next to the high priest.

temple of the LORD all the vessels made for Baal, for the shame images, and for all the host of heaven; he burned them outside Jerusalem in the Kidron terraces, and their ashes he transported to Bethel.^t ⁶He deposed the priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense at the high places in the cities of Judah and around Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the signs of Zodiac, and to all the host of heaven. ⁶He removed the shame image from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem to the valley of the Kidron, where he burned it, ground it to dust, and cast its dust upon the graves of the common people. ⁷He tore down the houses of the male prostitutes in the area of the house of the LORD where the women wove robes for the shame image. ⁸He brought out all the priests from the cities of Judah, defiled^u the high places where the priests burned incense, from Geba^v to Beersheba; and he tore down the high places of the gates at the entrance to the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on the left side as one enters the city gate. ⁹Now the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD at Jerusalem, but they ate the unleavened bread among their brothers.^w ¹⁰He also defiled the Topheth in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, so that no one could again make his son or daughter pass through the fire for Molech. ¹¹He removed the horses which the kings of Judah had presented to the sun at the entrance of the LORD's house by the cell of Nathan-melech the eunuch, which was in the precincts; the sun chariots he burned with fire. ¹²The king also tore down the altars on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, made by the kings of Judah, and the altars constructed by Manasseh in the two courtyards of the LORD's house. He broke them up there and scattered their dust about the valley of the Kidron. ¹³Besides, the king defiled the high places in front of Jerusalem to the right of the mount of destruction, which Solomon king of Israel built for Ashtarte the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. ¹⁴He broke down the pillars, cut off the shame images, and filled their place with men's bones.

¹⁵He also tore down the altar at Bethel, the high place, which Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin, had erected — that altar and the high place — crushing its stones, stamping it to dust, and burning the shame images. ¹⁶When Josiah turned, he caught sight of the graves there on the mountain; he sent and took the bones from the graves and burned them upon the altar which he then defiled, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed who had announced these things.^x ¹⁷He said, "What is that monument I see?" The men of the city replied, "It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and announced these things you have done to the altar at Bethel."^y ¹⁸He said, "Let him be; let no one disturb his bones." So they left his bones alone with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

¹⁹He also removed the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the LORD; he did to them what he had done to everything at Bethel. ²⁰He sacrificed all the priests of the high places there upon the altars, burned human bones upon them, and then returned to Jerusalem.

²¹The king issued these orders to all the people, "Celebrate a Passover to the LORD your God as prescribed in the book of this covenant."^z ²²There was no Passover like this one since the

t) Reformation starts usually with destruction of the wrong.

u) The method of defiling is not stated here, but we know there was desecration so as to eliminate further use. v) The northernmost point in Benjamin.

w) Aaronic priests, it seems, allowed to associate with those employed at the temple, but not to serve there.

x) Given in I Kings 13:1,2, and much of the whole chapter. Burning bones was considered improper by accepted standards.

y) Bethel lay in Benjamin, with Ephraim just beyond its boundaries. Josiah went farther north with reformatory methods.

z) Wisely and mercifully God ordained memorial festivals to make it easier for His people to practice worship and service all through life.

time of the judges who judged Israel or in all the time of the kings of Judah. ²³This Passover to the LORD was celebrated at Jerusalem in the eighteenth year of King Josiah.

²⁴Josiah also exterminated the necromancers, the wizards, the teraphim,^a the disgusting idols, and all the abominations that appeared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, to carry out the words of the Law, written in the book which Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of the LORD. ²⁵There was no king before him who so turned to the LORD with all his heart, all his soul, and all his strength^b in accordance with the whole law of Moses; and none like him arose afterward.

²⁶However, the LORD did not turn from his great anger which had been aroused against Judah for all the provocations whereby Manasseh had angered Him. ²⁷The LORD said: I will remove Judah from My sight as I removed Israel, and I will reject this My chosen city, even Jerusalem and the house concerning which I said, My name shall be there.

²⁸The rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

²⁹In his time Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, went up against the king of Assyria at the Euphrates river and when King Josiah came out to meet him, Necho killed him^c at Meggido when he saw him. ³⁰Dead in a chariot his servants carried him from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his grave. The people of the land then took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

608 B.C.

³¹Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³²He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all his fathers had done. ³³Pharaoh Necho imprisoned him at Riblah^d in the land of Hamath, that he might no longer be king at Jerusalem and laid a fine on the land of 200,000 dollars in silver and 30,000 dollars in gold. ³⁴Then Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father,^e but changed his name to Jehoiakim. Jehoahaz he took with him to Egypt, where he died. ³⁵Jehoiakim paid the silver and gold to Pharaoh. He assessed the land to pay the money in accordance with the demand of Pharaoh; from each one according to his assessment, he exacted the silver and gold of the people of the land to pay Pharaoh Necho.

³⁶Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old, when he became king, and he was king for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷He did evil in the sight of the LORD as all his fathers had done.

24 IN HIS TIME NEBUCHADREZZAR king of Babylon^f came up, and he became his servant for three years, after which he turned and rebelled against him. ²The LORD also sent against him bands of Chaldeans, bands of Syrians, bands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites; He sent them against Judah to destroy it, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by His servants the prophets. ³That was indeed the command of the LORD against Judah to remove it from His sight because of the sin of Manasseh, according to everything he did. ⁴Also because of the innocent blood which he shed; he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was unwilling to pardon him.^g

597 B.C.

⁵The rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁶So Jehoiakim slept

a) Household gods, as shown in Rachel's behavior [Gen. 31:30-34].

b) The very words given in the family worship suggestions of Deut. 6:4-9, with following verses.

c) Josiah risked his life so uselessly after so splendid a reign.

d) Far north on the Orontes river. e) Egypt was in control.

f) Babylonia had conquered Assyria and had taken over its empire. Nebuchadrezzar is correct.

g) Manasseh had personally repented and had found mercy [II Chron. 33:12,13]; but that did not remove the evil he had done.

with his fathers, and his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

⁷The king of Egypt did not again leave his country; for the king of Babylon had taken everything that belonged to the king of Egypt from the brook of Egypt to the Euphrates river.^h

597 B.C.

⁸Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he continued as king in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹He did evil in the sight of the LORD as his father had done.ⁱ

¹⁰At that time the servants of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem,^j and the city underwent a siege. ¹¹Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and while his servants were besieging it, ¹²Jehoiachin king of Judah surrendered to the king of Babylon, himself, his mother, his officers, and eunuchs. The king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³He took out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD and all the treasures of the king's house and stripped off the gold from all the vessels which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had foretold: ¹⁴He carried away all Jerusalem, with all its officials and its men of standing, to the number of 10,000 exiles, and all the craftsmen and smiths, so that none except the poorest of the people of the land were left.^k

¹⁵He took Jehoiachin to Babylon as an exile; he also took away into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon the king's mother, the king's wives, his eunuchs, and the leading men of the land. ¹⁶The king of Babylon also brought to Babylon into exile all the men of valor to the number of 7,000 and 1,000 craftsmen and smiths, all mighty men trained to fight.

¹⁷The king of Babylon made Mataniah, his uncle,^l king in his place, but changed his name to Zedekiah.

597 B.C.

¹⁸Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹He did evil in the sight of the LORD as Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰The LORD's anger against Jerusalem and Judah was aroused to the point where He cast them out of His presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

586 B.C.

25 IN THE NINTH YEAR OF HIS reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem with his whole army; he encamped against it and constructed a siege-wall around it. ²The city continued under siege into the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.^m ³On the ninth day of the fourth monthⁿ when the famine had become so severe that no more food remained for the people of the land, ⁴a break-through was made in the city. The king and all the soldiers fled^o by night by way of the gate between the double wall near the king's garden, though the Chaldeans still surrounded the city; he took the road toward the Arabah.^p ⁵The Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook him in the steppes of Jericho while his own army was scattered from him. ⁶They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who pronounced sentence upon him. ⁷He killed Zedekiah's sons before his eyes; then blinded Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with chains, and brought him to Babylon.^q

⁸On the seventh day of the fifth month in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,

h) Egypt's power went down as Babylonia grew mightier.

i) These kings were poor historians; the past taught them nothing constructively.

j) Although he was unaware of it, he came in God's service.

k) Daniel, still a lad, was among those first exiles.

l) Uncle to Jehoiachin and a son of Josiah.

m) With God's temple among them, the Jews could not conceive of the city's fall.

n) Cf. Jer. 39:2 and 52:6.

o) Parallels in Jer. 39:4 and 52:7. Read Jer. 39 and 40 relative to these critical events.

p) The depression of Jordan and Dead Sea, the Arabah.

q) A cruelty that went beyond the physical, leaving the victim with that final view to last through life.

Nebuzaradan, the chief officer and servant of the king, arrived at Jerusalem. ⁹He burned the house of the LORD and the house of the king together with all the houses of Jerusalem — every important building he burned with fire. ¹⁰The whole Chaldean army under the chief officer razed the wall around Jerusalem, ¹¹and Nebuzaradan the chief officer carried away into exile the rest of the people who remained in the city, the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon and the rest of the multitude. ¹²But the chief officer permitted the poorest of the land to remain as vine-dressers and farmers.^r

¹³The Chaldeans broke up the bronze pillars in the house of the LORD, the bases, and the bronze sea in the house of the LORD and transported their bronze to Babylon. ¹⁴They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the bowls, and all the bronze vessels used in the service. ¹⁵The chief officer also took along the censers and basins, those of gold as gold and those of silver as silver.^s ¹⁶As for the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD — the weight of bronze of all these articles was incalculable. ¹⁷The height of one pillar was twenty-seven feet; its capital was bronze and four and a half feet high with a network of pomegranates around it, all of bronze; the second pillar was like it and had a similar network.

¹⁸The chief officer took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second in rank, and the three doorkeepers.^t ¹⁹From the city he took an official, the one who was in command of the soldiers, five men of the daily companions of the king who were in the city, the registrar of the captain of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were in the city. ²⁰Nebuzaradan the chief officer took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²¹The king of Babylon cut them down and killed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So he exiled Judah from its land.

582 B.C.

²²As for the people who remained in the land of Judah, those left by Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, he appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan,^u governor over them. ²³When the officers of the army and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah son of the Maachathite, and their men. ²⁴Gedaliah swore to them and their men, "Do not fear the Chaldean officials; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you."

²⁵In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of royal offspring, came with ten of his men and killed Gedaliah and the Jews and Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.^v ²⁶Then all the people, old and young, and the officers of the army arose and went to Egypt because they feared the Chaldeans.

²⁷In the thirty-seventh year, on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, Evil-merodach king of Babylon liberated Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. ²⁸He spoke kindly to him and placed his seat above those of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ²⁹He^w exchanged his prison clothes and ate with him regularly as long as he lived,^x ³⁰and a continual allowance was granted him by the king, a portion for each day, so long as he lived.

r) No pagans were brought into southern Palestine to colonize it. Jews retained the farms and villages. s) Smelted down.

t) These five men were taken from the temple, all priests.

u) Shaphan had been King Josiah's secretary. To him the Law Book had been handed when found in the temple and after reading it, he had taken it to King Josiah [Ch. 22:8-13].

v) As a member of the royal family he considered his rights stronger than those of Gedaliah, forgetting that no rights were left him. w) I.e., Jehoiachin.

x) Evil-merodach reigned only two years; he was assassinated by his brother-in-law in 560 B.C.

FIRST BOOK OF CHRONICLES^a

1 ADAM, SETH, ENOSH, ²KENAN, MAHALALEL, JARED, ³ENOCH, METHUSELAH, LAMECH, ⁴NOAH, SHEM, HAM, and JAPHETH.

⁵Japheth had these sons:^b Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. ⁶Gomer was father of Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah; ⁷while Javan had Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

⁸Ham had these sons: ⁹Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. Cush had Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. ¹⁰Cush was the father of Nimrod, who began to be a powerful man on the earth. ¹¹Mizraim was the father of Ludim, Anamin, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, ¹²Pathrusim, Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines), and the Caphtorites. ¹³Canaan was father of Sidon, his first-born, and Heth, ¹⁴and the Jebusite, Amorite, Girgashite, ¹⁵Hivite, Arkite, Sinite, ¹⁶Arvadite, Zemarite, and Hamathite.

¹⁷Shem had these sons: Elam, Asshur, Arphachshad, Lud, Aram, Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech. ¹⁸Arphachshad had Shelah, who had Eber, ¹⁹who had two sons: one called Peleg,^c because it was during his days that the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. ²⁰Joktan had Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, ²¹Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²²Ebal, Abimael, Sheba, ²³Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

²⁴Shem, Arphachshad, Shelah, ²⁵Eber, Peleg, Reu, ²⁶Serug, Nahor, Terah, ²⁷and Abram, who is Abraham.^d

Abraham Born 2166 B.C.

²⁸Abraham had these sons: Isaac and Ishmael. ²⁹These are their genealogical registers: Ishmael's first-born was Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam. ³⁰Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, ³¹Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah, who are the sons of Ishmael. ³²Abraham's later wife, Keturah, gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah; the sons of Jokshan being Sheba and Dedan, ³³and those of Midian: Ephah, Ephraim, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah. ³⁴As for Isaac, whose father was Abraham, his sons were Esau and Israel.

³⁵Esau had these sons:^e Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. ³⁶Eliphaz was father of Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, and Kenaz, Timna,^f and Amalek. ³⁷Reuel had Nahath, Zerah,

a) Hebrew, The Words [Affairs] of the Days. I Chronicles are not to be confused with the lost chronicles of Israel mentioned in I and II Kings. Chronicles was written after Kings, being compiled after the return of the Jews from the Babylonian exile, II Chron. 36:21-23 in the priestly and legal spirit of Ezra.

b) Vss. 5-23 reproduce the table of Gen. 10, with but minor differences of spelling.

c) "Division," probably referring to the confusion of languages at Babel [Gen. 11:1-9].

d) The change of his name is described in Gen. 17:5.

e) Vss. 35-54 summarize the table of Gen. 36, with minor differences of spelling.

f) Timna was not a son of Eliphaz, but his mistress and a daughter of Seir [vs. 39]. She bore Amalek [Gen. 36:12]; and her name was attached to a district in Edom [vs. 51].

Shammah, and Mizzah. ³⁸Seir had these sons:^g Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. ³⁹Lotan, whose sister was Timna, got Hori and Homam; ⁴⁰while from Shobal came Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam; from Zibeon: Aiah and Anah; ⁴¹from Anah: Dishon; from Dishon: Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran; ⁴²from Ezer: Bilhan, Zaazan, and Jaakan; and from Dishon: Uz and Aran.

To 1406 B.C.

⁴³The kings who ruled in the land of Edom, before Israel had a reigning king, are: Bela the son of Beor, whose city was called Dinhabah. ⁴⁴After Bela's death, there succeeded to the throne Jobab the son of Zerah from Bozrah; ⁴⁵after Jobab's death, Husham from the land of the people of Teman reigned in his stead. After Husham's death, Hadad [I] ⁴⁶son of Bcdad, who defeated Midian in the open territory of Moab, reigned in his stead; his city was called Avith. ⁴⁷After Hadad's death, Salmah from Masrekah reigned in his stead. ⁴⁸When Salmah died, Shaul from Rehoboth by the River^h reigned in his stead. ⁴⁹When Shaul died, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor ⁵⁰reigned in his stead. After Baal-hanan's death, Hadad [II] succeeded him, whose city was called Pai, and the name of whose wife was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, who was the daughter of Mezahab; ⁵¹Hadad also died.ⁱ The chiefs of Edom were: the chief of Timna, of Aliah, of Jetheth, ⁵²of Oholibamah, of Elah, of Pinon, ⁵³of Kenaz, of Teman, of Mibzar, ⁵⁴of Magdiel, and of Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

Israel (Jacob) Born 2006 B.C.

THESE ARE THE SONS OF ISRAEL:
2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Is-sachar, Zebulun, ²Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

³Judah had these sons: Er, Onan, and Shelah, the three who were born by Shua's daughter, the Canaanite woman. Now Er, Judah's first-born, was an evil man before the Lord, who put him to death. ⁴But Tamar, Judah's daughter-in-law, bore to Judah Perez and Zerah; so all the sons of Judah totaled five.^j ⁵Perez had Hezron and Hamul; ⁶while from Zerah came Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara, a total of five.^k ⁷Carmi was father of Achan, the man who incriminated Israel by violating the consecrated things;^l ⁸and from Ethan came Azariah.

⁹Hezron had these sons: Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.^m ¹⁰Then the line of descendants went: Ram, Amminadab, Nashon (the leader of the tribe of Judah),ⁿ ¹¹Salma, ¹²Boaz, Obed, and Jesse. ¹³Jesse's sons were, in order: Eliab, Abinadab, Shimea, ¹⁴Nethanel, Raddai, ¹⁵Ozem,^o and David. ¹⁶Their sisters^p were Zeruiah and Abigail; the three sons of Zeruiah being Abishai, Joab, and Asahel; ¹⁷the son of Abigail, Amasa.^q His father was Jether of Ishmael.

¹⁸Caleb also, the son of Hezron, had children by Azubah his wife of Jerioth, and these were her sons — Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon. ¹⁹But Azubah died, and Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur. ²⁰Hur was the father of Uri, and Uri the father of Bezaleel.^r

²¹Hezron, later in life, in fact at sixty, went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he had married, and she gave birth to Segub. ²²Segub was the father of Jair, to whom belonged twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. ²³But Geshur and

g) Seir was of the Horites [Gen. 36:20], rock-dwellers, an important ancient people, some of whom had settled in Edom before the arrival of Esau [Deut. 2:12,22]. h) Euphrates.

i) His death is not mentioned in the corresponding section of the Pentateuch [Gen. 36:39], probably because he was a contemporary of Moses.

j) See Gen. 38 for details on Judah and Tamar.

k) These five later descendants are mentioned because of their importance: Zimri, who produced the Carmi of the next verse is called Zabdi in Josh. 7:1; the other four "Ezrabites" [Zerah] were famous for wisdom [I Kings 4:31] and composed Ps. 88-89, but are not to be confused with Ethan and Heman, musicians of David, who were from Levi [I Chron. 15:17].

l) At Jericho [Josh. 7], where the name is Achan.

m) Caleb in vss. 18 and 42, not to be confused with Caleb the faithful spy [4:15], who came 300 years later. n) At the time of the Exodus [Num. 1:7; 2:3; 7:12].

o) A seventh son [I Sam. 16:10; 17:12], is not named. David was the 8th son.

p) Half-sisters, apparently, by a different father [II Sam. 17:25].

q) These sons were all famous soldiers under David. See II Sam. 3,10,20. Abigail was Amasa's mother. r) The chief craftsman in building the tabernacle [Ex. 31:1-2].

Aram captured the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath and its surrounding districts, a total of sixty cities.^a All these were the descendants of Machir the father of Gilead.²⁴ After the death of Hezron in Caleb-Ephrathah, Hezron's widow Abijah bore Caleb Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

²⁵Jerahmeel, the oldest son of Hezron, had these sons: Ram his first-born, Bunah, Oren, and Ozem, by Ahijah.²⁶ Jerahmeel had another wife, named Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.²⁷ Ram, the oldest son of Jerahmeel, had Maaz, Jamin, and Eker;²⁸ while from Onan came Shammai and Jada. Shammai produced Nadab and Abishur.²⁹ The wife of Abishur was named Abihail, who bore him Ahban and Molid;³⁰ and the sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim. Seled left no offspring;³¹ but Appaim's sons were Ishi the father of Sheshan, the father of Ahlai.³² Shammai's brother, Jada, had Jether and Jonathan; and, while Jether died without children,³³ Jonathan's sons were Peleth and Zaza. These were the descendants of Jerahmeel.³⁴ Sheshan had no sons, only daughters; but he did have an Egyptian slave Jarha,³⁵ to whom he gave his daughter as a wife;^t she bore him Attai.³⁶ So the line of descendants went: Attai, Nathan, Zabab, ³⁷Ephlal, Obed, ³⁸Jehu, ³⁹Azariah, Helez, ⁴⁰Eleasah, Sismai, Shallum, ⁴¹Jekamiah, and Elishama.

⁴²Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, had these sons: Mesha, his first-born, was the father of Ziph; and Mareshah^u also was father of Hebron.⁴³ Hebron had Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.⁴⁴ Shema had Raham, the father of Jorkeam; while from Rekem came Shammai, ⁴⁵the father of Maon, who was the father of Beth-zur.⁴⁶ Furthermore, Caleb's concubine^v Ephah, gave birth to Haran, Moza, and Gazez — Haran fathered Gazez. ⁴⁷Jahdai^w was the father of Regem, Jothan, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph. ⁴⁸Caleb's concubine Maacah gave birth to Sheber and Tirhanah, ⁴⁹Shaaph the father of Madmannah, and Sheva the father of Machbenah and Gibeaz. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah^x. ⁵⁰More descendants of Caleb are these sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephrathah:^y Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim, ⁵¹Salma the father of Beth-lehem, and Hareph the father of Beth-gader. ⁵²Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim also had descendants:^z Haroeh, half of the Menuhoth, ⁵³and the families of Kiriath-jearim, which consisted of the people of Jether, Puah, Shuman, and Mishra, from which went out the people of Zorah and Eshtaul. ⁵⁴Salma was the father of Beth-lehem, the people of Netophah, Ataroth-beth-joaab, the other half of Manahath, and Zor; ⁵⁵and the families of the scribes that lived at Jabez, who consisted of the people of Tira, Shimea, and Sucah, and who were Kenites descended from Hammath the father of the house of Rechab.^a David's Reign, 1010-970 B.C.

3 DAVID HAD THESE SONS BORN IN Hebron: the first-born was Amnon, by Ahinoam of Jezreel; second, Daniel,^b by Abigail of Carmel; ²third, Absalom, the son of Maacah daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; fourth, Adonijah, the son of Haggith; ³fifth, Shephatiah, by Abital; and sixth, Ithream, by his wife Eglah. ⁴Six were born to him in Hebron, where David reigned seven years and six months. He also reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem, ⁵where these were born: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, four sons by Bath-shua,^c the daughter of Ammiel; ⁶and Ibhaz, Elishama, Eliphelet, ⁷Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁸Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphe-

s) See Num. 32:41-42; Deut. 3:14. t) Probably Ahlai of vs. 31. u) A variant from Mesha^a

v) See note on II Sam. 3:7. w) Jahdai's exact relationship to the preceding has been lost.

x) Actually a distant descendant of this Caleb, son of Hezron, and immediate daughter of Caleb, the faithful spy, son of Jephunneh. She is famous as the bride of Othniel, given him because of his conquest of Debir [Josh. 15:15-19; Judg. 1:11-15]. y) Vs. 19.

z) Apparently Reaiah in 4:2. The title "father" seems here to be given to founders of towns and cities.

a) Kenites of the family of Hobab, the brother-in-law of Moses, became incorporated by marriage or adoption into the tribe of Judah [Judg. 1:16]. [Jeh]onadab, a later descendant of Rechab, was noted as a reformer, who kept his family from alcohol and in a primitive life to prevent corruption [II Kings 10:15-28; Jer. 35]. b) In II Sam. 3:3 called Chileab.

c) Elsewhere called Bath-sheba. This list of names appears with minor variants in ch. 14:4-7 and II Sam. 5:14-16.

let, nine others. ⁹This is the list of David's sons, not counting sons of concubines. And Tamar was their sister.^d

Solomon to Ezra, 970-558 B.C.

¹⁰The line of succession then went from father to son as follows: Solomon, Rehoboam, Abijah, Asa, Jehoshaphat, ¹¹Joram, Ahaziah, Joash, ¹²Amaziah, Azariah, Jotham, ¹³Ahaz, Hezekiah, Manasseh, ¹⁴Amon, and Josiah. ¹⁵Josiah's sons were Johanan, the first-born; second, Jehoiaikim; third, Zedekiah; and fourth, Shallum.^e ¹⁶Jehoiaikim's son was Jeconiah,^f whose son was Zedekiah. ¹⁷The sons of Jeconiah as a prisoner were: Shealtiel,^g ¹⁸Malchiram, Pedaiiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah; ¹⁹Pedaiiah became father of Zerubbabel^h and Shimei. Zerubbabel had Meshullam, Hananiah, their sister Shelomith, and five others. ²⁰Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushabhesd. ²¹The sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, whose son was Rephaiah; his son Arnan; his son, Obadiah, and his son Shecaniah.ⁱ ²²Shecaniah's son being Shemaiah. Shemaiah had six sons, including Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat. ²³Neariah had three sons: Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam. ²⁴Elioenai had seven sons: Hodaviah, Elias-hib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani.

4 JUDAH HAD THESE SONS: PEREZ, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

²Shobal's son Reaiah was the father of Jahath, from whom came Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of Zorah.^j ³These were the sons of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, Idbash, their sister whose name was Hazzeleponi, ⁴Penuel, who was an ancestor of Gedor,^k and Ezer, ancestor of Hushah. These were descendants of Hur, the first-born son of Ephrathah and father of Bethlehem. ⁵Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah. ⁶Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hephher, Temeni, and Haahashtari, the sons of Naarah; ⁷while the sons of Helah were Zereth, Izhar, and Ethnan.

⁸Koz^l was the ancestor of Anub, Zobeab, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum. ⁹Now Jabez was more distinguished than his brothers; his mother had called his name Jabez with the statement, "I gave birth to him in pain."^m ¹⁰Jabez appealed to the God of Israel, saying, "Wilt Thou grant me a true blessing and extend my boundaries; let Thy hand be with me, and keep calamity from me so that no pain assails me," and God brought about what he had requested.

¹¹Chelub, the brother of Shuhah, was father of Mehir, who had Eshton. ¹²Eshton was the father of Bethrapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah, the ancestor of the city of Nahash. These are the men of Recah. ¹³Kenaz had as descendants Othnielⁿ and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath and Meonothai ¹⁴and Meonothai had Ophrah; while Seraiah had Joab, the ancestor of those in the Valley of Engravers, for they did engraving. ¹⁵Caleb, too,^o the son of Jephunneh, had sons: Iru, Elah, and Naam; the sons of Elah including Kenaz. ¹⁶Jehallelel's sons were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel; ¹⁷and Ezra's sons were Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon. Then Bithiah, a Pharaoh's daughter whom Mered had married, gave birth to Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah, an ancestor of Eshtemoa, ¹⁸and his Jewish wife bore Jered, Heber, and

d) Raped by Amnon and avenged by Absalom [II Sam. 13].

e) Also called Jehoahaz [II Kings 23; II Chron. 36; compare Jer. 22:11]. He was in fact older than Zedekiah [II Kings 24:18], but had an inferior length of reign.

f) Also called Coniah [Jer. 22:24, 28; 37:1], and Jehoiachin [II Kings 24:8, 12; II Chron. 36:9].

g) Perhaps simply a legal son, for Luke 3:27 notes him to have been the son of Neri.

h) Zerubbabel is reckoned as a son of Pedaiiah's brother Shealtiel [Ezra 3:2; Hag. 1:1,12; Matt. 1:12; Luke 3:27], perhaps by the marriage ruling of Deut. 25:5-10. He was a leader in the return of the Jews to Palestine after the exile, 538 B.C. [Ezra 2:2; 3:2], and heir to David's throne.

i) The exact connection of these four with Jeconiah does not appear; if brothers, the fifth generation would again bring the line to the time of Ezra and the compilation of Chronicles.

j) Vs. 2 is thus a supplement to 2:52-53; as are vss. 3-4 to 2:51 and vss. 5-7 to 2:24.

k) As was also Jered in vs. 18.

l) The exact connections of Koz, Jabez [vs. 9], Chelub [vs. 11], Kenaz [vs. 13], Meonothai [vs. 14], Jehallelel [vs. 16], Ezra [vs. 17], Hodiah, [vs. 19], and Shimon and Ishi [vs. 20], with the family of Hezron, are not given. m) Hebrew, "zebe."

n) The first of the judges, 1381 B.C. [Judg. 3:9, 10]. o) The faithful spy [Num. 13, 14].

Jekuthiel, ancestors respectively of Gedor, Soco, and Zanoah, all from Mered.¹⁹ Hodia's wife was the sister of Naham; and her sons, one from Gerem and the other from Maacah, were ancestors respectively of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maacathite.²⁰ Shimon's sons were Amnon, Rinah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon; and Ishi's sons were Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

²¹Judah's son Shelah had the following: Er, the ancestor of Lecah; Laadah, the ancestor of Mareshah and the families of the house of Ashbea, who worked in fine linen; ²²Jokim, with the men of Cozeba, Joash, and Saraph, who were leaders in Moab; and Jashubi-lehem. These are old records.²³ The men were makers of pottery and inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah, where they lived in the king's presence for his work.^p ²⁴Simeon had these sons:^q Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul. ²⁵His line of descendants ran: Shallum, Mibsam, Mishma, ²⁶Hammuel, Zaccur, and Shimei. ²⁷Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children. In all their multiplying the families, they did not come up to the people of Judah.^r ²⁸They lived at Beer-sheba, Moladah, Hazarshual, ²⁹Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, ³⁰Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, ³¹Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri, and Shaaraim. These were their cities and villages till the reign of David.^s ³²There were also Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan, five others, ³³besides all the villages which surrounded these cities as far as Baal. These constituted their settlements, and they kept their genealogy registration.

³⁴Now Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah the son of Amaziah, ³⁵Joel, Jehu, whose line of ancestry went back to Joshiah, Seraiah, Asiel, ³⁶Elieonai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, ³⁷Ziza, whose line of ancestry went back to Shiphi, Allon, Jedaiiah, Shimri, and Shemaiah — ³⁸these princes, as mentioned by name with their families, headed houses that had greatly outgrown their limits. ³⁹So they migrated to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, looking for pasture lands for their flocks. ⁴⁰There they found rich, good pasture; the land was spread out, undisturbed, and quiet, because the people formerly living in it were Hamitic. ⁴¹These registered by name, came during the reign of Hezekiah king of Judah and struck down the tents of the inhabitants and the Meunim that were found there. They annihilated them to this very day and settled in their places, because there was pasture for their flocks. ⁴²Also from the people of Simeon there were 500 men under the leadership of Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, who went against Mount Seir. ⁴³They struck down what was left of the escaped remnant of Amalek^t and have remained there up to the present.

5 AS FOR THE SONS OF REUBEN, THE first-born of Israel; for he was the oldest son, but when he violated his father's couch,^u his inheritance rights as first-born were transferred to the sons of Joseph^v the son of Israel, though they were not registered for that position. ²Although Judah got the power among his brothers, so that the ruler should come from him, yet the inheritance rights as first-born did go to Joseph. ³Reuben, the first-born son of Israel, had these sons:^w Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. ⁴Then the line of descent went: Joel,^x Shemaiah, Gog, Shimei, ⁵Micah, Reaiah, Baal, ⁶and Beerah, a tribal chief of Reuben

p) They are thus brought down to the time of the kingdom[s], 1050-586 B.C.

q) This section enlarges on the family of Simeon [as noted in Gen. 46:10; Ex. 6:15; and Num. 26:12-14].

r) Simeon, who with Levi was scattered among the tribes because of the massacre of Shechem [Gen. 34:25-30; 49:5-7], was made to inherit the southwestern corner of Palestine [Josh. 19:1-9]. Simeon virtually merged with Judah, though after the division of the kingdom, elements of the tribe having moved north, it was counted with the ten northern tribes [II Chron. 15:9; 34:6]. s) 1010-970 B.C.

t) Both Saul and David had won victories over these old enemies [I Sam. 14:48; 15:7; and II Sam. 8:12]. u) With Bilhah [Gen. 35:22; 49:4].

v) As the first son of Rachel, the wife whom alone Jacob loved.

w) This section enlarges on the family of Reuben [as noted in Gen. 46:9; Ex. 6:14; and Num. 26:5-7]. x) Of which of the four Joel was the son is not stated.

whom Tiglath-pileser^y king of Assyria took away into captivity. ⁷Beerah's fellow rulers, according to their families in the registering by genealogical descent, were: Jeiel, the leader; Zechariah, ⁸Bela, who descended from Joel through Shema; and then Azaz, who lived in Aroer, even as far as Nebo and Baal-meon. ⁹He also settled eastward to the edge of the desert that stretches from the Euphrates River, because they had great herds of cattle in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰In the days of Saul^z they had made war with the people of Hagar, who had fallen before them; so they settled down in what had been their tents throughout the area east of Gilead.

Gad Born about 1918 B.C.

¹¹Across from them lived the people of Gad in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah. ¹²In Bashan itself they consisted of Joel the chief; Shapham the second; and Janai and Shaphat. ¹³Their fellow rulers according to their clans were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber, a total of seven, ¹⁴who traced their ancestry from their father Abihail back through Huri, Jaroah, Gilead, Michael, Jeshishai, and Jahdo, to Buz. ¹⁵Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief according to their clans. ¹⁶These latter lived in Gilead in a part assigned to Bashan with its dependencies, and in all the pastures of Sharon as far as they extended. ¹⁷All of Gad were registered by genealogy in the days of Jotham king of Judah and of Jeroboam II king of Israel.^a

Before 733 B.C.

¹⁸Concerning the people of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, they had valiant men who could carry shield and sword and bend a bow and were trained for warfare, totaling 44,760 on active duty. ¹⁹These made war against the men of Hagar, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.^b ²⁰They were given help against them. The men of Hagar together with all those that were allied with them were turned over into Israel's power, because in the battle they^c appealed to God and He answered their prayer, for they trusted in Him. ²¹So they took away their herds: camels 50,000; sheep 250,000; donkeys 2,000, and 100,000 human captives. ²²The number that fell mortally wounded was great, because the battle was God's. Thus they settled in their enemies' former territory until the exile.^d

²³The members of the half tribe of Manasseh settled in the land, a dense population from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon. ²⁴The leaders of their clans were Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, brave warriors, famous and chiefs according to their family groups. ²⁵But they broke faith with the God of their fathers and turned adulterously to the gods of the native peoples whom God had destroyed before them. ²⁶So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, the spirit, that is, of Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, who carried them into captivity, these people of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the River Gozan, where they are up to the present.^e

6 LEVI HAD THESE SONS:^f GERSHON, Kohath, and Merari; ²the sons of Kohath being Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ³Descendants of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam, Aaron's sons being Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ⁴The line of descendants from Eleazar^g ran:^h Phine-

y) Elsewhere spelled Tiglath-pileser. This was probably in the preliminary captivity of the 3½ Trans-Jordan tribes, 733 B.C. [vs. 26; see II Kings 15:29], and not the final fall of Samaria, 722. z) 1050-1010 B.C. a) 751-736 B.C. and 793-753 B.C. respectively.

b) Arab and Ishmaelite desert tribes [see Gen. 25:15]. c) The Hebrews.

d) Of 733 B.C., see vs. 26 and note on vs. 6.

e) About half the tribe, named for Machir, conquered the Gilead country before the death of Moses.

f) This section enlarges on the family of Levi [as noted in Gen. 46:11; Ex. 6:16-19; Num. 3:17-20; and 26:57-62].

g) The older sons, Nadab and Abihu, killed in the wilderness for irreverent behavior, left no children [Lev. 10:1, 2; Num. 3:4].

h) The list of high priests that follows for the 860 years between the exodus and the fall of Jerusalem does not include the descendants of Ithamar who held the office under the last judges and the early kingdom: Eli, Phinehas [II], Ahitub [I], Ahimelech [I] [Ahizah], Abiathar, and Ahimelech [II], [I Sam. 14:3; 22:20; II Sam. 8:17]; nor certain other high priests who are mentioned elsewhere—Amariah [II] [II Chron. 19:11], Jehoiada [II Kings 11:9], Zechariah [I Chron. 16:5], [II Chron. 24:20], Urijah [II Kings 16:10], Azariah [III] [II Chron. 31:10], and Meraioth [I Chron. 9:11].

has, ⁵Abishua, Bukki, ⁶Uzzi, Zerachiah, ⁷Meraioth, Amariah, ⁸Ahitub [II], Zadok, ¹⁹Ahimaaz, Azariah, ¹⁰Johanan, Azariah [II] (who held the priesthood in the temple built by Solomon in Jerusalem), ¹¹Amariah [III], ¹²Ahitub [III], Zadok [II], ¹³Shallum, Hilkiah, ¹⁴Azariah [IV], Seraiah, ¹⁵and Jehozadak, who was deported when the LORD, through Nebuchadrezzar, took Judah and Jerusalem into exile.¹

¹⁶As for the sons of Levi, Gershom, ^mKohath, and Merari, ¹⁷the names of Gershom's sons were Libni and Shimei; ¹⁸Kohath's were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel; ¹⁹and Merari's, Mahli and Mushi. These make up the Levitical families according to their founding fathers. ²⁰The line of descent from Gershom went: Libni, Jahath, Zimmah, ²¹Joah, Iddo, Zerah, and Jeatherai. ²²That of Kohath ran: Amminadab, ⁿKorah, ^oand his sons Assir, ²³Elkanah, and Ebiasaph. Then from Ebiasaph the line continued: Assir, ²⁴Tahath, Uriel, Uziah, and Shaul. ²⁵Now the line of descendants of Elkanah ^p[II] went: Amasai, Ahimoth, ^q²⁶and Elkanah [III]; and after this last-mentioned Elkanah, his successor Zophai, Nahath, ²⁷Eliab, ^rJeroham, and Elkanah [IV]. ²⁸Then the sons of Samuel were Joel, ^tthe oldest, and Abijah, second. ²⁹Lastly the line of descent from Merari went: Mahli, Libni, Shimei, Uzzah, ³⁰Shimea, Haggiah, and Asaiah.

³¹These are the men whom David appointed to superintend the singing in the house of the LORD after the ark had been established there. ³²They were rendering service in song before the tent of meeting, ^uwhich was the place of divine presence until the construction by Solomon of the LORD's Jerusalem temple, and they officiated over their assigned task as it was prescribed for them. ³³These appointees, together with their sons, were: Heman the singer, of the clan of Kohath, who traced his ancestry back through Joel, Samuel, ³⁴Elkanah [IV], Jeroham, Eliel, Toah, ³⁵Zuph, Elkanah [III], Mahath, Amasai, ³⁶Elkanah [II], Joel, Azariah, Zephaniah, ³⁷Tahath, Assir, Ebiasaph, Korah, ³⁸Izhar, Kohath, and Levi to Israel; ³⁹Asaph, his colleague, who stood at his right hand and who traced back his ancestry through Berechiah, Shimea, ⁴⁰Michael, Baaseiah, Malchijah, ⁴¹Ethni, Zerah, Adaiah, ⁴²Ethan, Zimmah, Shimei, ⁴³Jahath, Gershom, and Levi. ⁴⁴Their colleagues, the men of Merari, on the left, under Ethan, whose ancestry went back through Kishi, ^vAbdi, Malluch, ⁴⁵Hashabiah, Amaziah, Hilkiah, ⁴⁶Amzi, Bani, Shemer, ⁴⁷Mahli, Mushi, Merari, and Levi. ⁴⁸Moreover, their fellow tribesmen, the Levites, were dedicated to all the work of the tabernacle of the house of God, ⁴⁹while Aaron and his sons made the sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense; who conducted the entire work of the most holy place and who made atonement for Israel, exactly as God's servant Moses had given commandment.

1400 B.C.

⁵⁰The descendants of Aaron went in the following line of succession: Eleazar, Phinehas, Abishua, ⁵¹Bukki, Uzzi, Zerachiah, ⁵²Meraioth, Amariah, Ahitub [II], ⁵³Zadok, and Ahimaaz. ⁵⁴These, made up of Aaron's descendants, members of the clan of Kohath, held the following districts within their boundaries as the places where they lived,

i) High priest during David and Solomon, 979 B.C.

j) This may refer to his resisting Uziah's attempt to take over priestly functions, 751 B.C. [II Chron. 26:17].

k) The high priest who discovered the book of the law given by Moses, causing Josiah's reformation of 621 B.C. [II Chron. 34:14]. l) In 586 B.C.

m) Gershom in vs. 1 and in the other historical books.

n) Apparently another name for Izhar [vs. 38].

o) Swallowed by the earth for rebelling against Moses [Num. 16].

p) The names that follow indicate that this must be Elkanah the great-great-great-grandson of Ebiasaph [vss. 36, 37], not the brother of Ebiasaph, just mentioned in vs. 23.

q) In vs. 35, Mahath. r) In vss. 35 and 34, Zuph, Toah, and Eliel.

s) Husband of Hannah and father of Samuel [I Sam. 1:1].

t) The name is left blank in Hebrew but may be supplied from vs. 33 and I Sam. 8:2.

u) Where supremely God met the people, and secondarily the people met each other.

v) They are also called Jeduthun [25:1], and Kushaiah [15:17].

because the [first] lot had fallen to them:^w ⁵⁵in the territory of Judah they were assigned Hebron with its surrounding open lands, ⁵⁶though the city's fields and villages were reserved for Caleb the son of Jephunneh.^x

⁵⁷Thus Aaron's descendants received of the cities of refuge,^y Hebron; also Libnah with its surrounding open lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa, ⁵⁸Hilen, Debir, ⁵⁹Ashan, and Beth-shemesh, each with its surrounding open lands. ⁶⁰Then from the tribe of Benjamin they were assigned Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth, each with its surrounding open lands. The total of the cities distributed among their families came to thirteen.^z

⁶¹The rest of the descendants of Kohath were granted ten cities by lot from the family of the tribe [of Ephraim and of Dan^a and], from a half tribe, the half of Manasseh; ⁶²the descendants of Gershom, according to their families, thirteen cities, from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and Manasseh in Bashan; ⁶³and the descendants of Merari, according to their families, twelve cities by lot from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. ⁶⁴The people of Israel granted cities with their surrounding open lands to the Levites; ⁶⁵they assigned by lot, however, the cities from the tribes of the people of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, which are above listed by name.

⁶⁶For some of the families of the sons of Kohath, the allotted territory included cities from the tribe of Ephraim. ⁶⁷They received of the cities of refuge: Shechem with its surrounding open lands in the hill country of Ephraim; also Gezer, ⁶⁸Jokmeam, Beth-horon, ⁶⁹Aijalon, and Gath-rimmon, each with its surrounding open lands. ⁷⁰Then from the half tribe of Manasseh came Aner and Bileam, with their surrounding open lands. These were for the families of the rest of the descendants of Kohath.

⁷¹To the descendants of Gershom there were granted from the family of the half tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan and Ashteroth; ⁷²from the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh, Daberath, ⁷³Ramoth, and Anem; ⁷⁴from the tribe of Asher: Mashal, Abdon, ⁷⁵Hukok, and Rehob; ⁷⁶and from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, and Kiriathaim, each with its surrounding lands.

⁷⁷Last remaining, the descendants of Merari were allotted from the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono and Tabor, ⁷⁸and from Trans-Jordan at Jericho, to the east of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the desert, Jahzah, ⁷⁹Kedemoth, and Mephaath; ⁸⁰and from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, ⁸¹Heshbon, and Jazer, each with its surrounding open lands.

7 AS FOR THE SONS OF ISSACHAR, they were these four:^b Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron. ²Tola had Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Shemuel, powerful heroes and leaders of their clans, descendants of Tola, who came in the time of David to number 22,600 by their genealogies. ³Then from Uzzi was born Izrahiah, whose sons were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah, a total of five, all of them leaders; ⁴and from whom, according to their clan genealogies, came military fighting units totaling 36,000, because they had many wives and sons. ⁵Their fellow tribesmen of all the families of Issachar were powerful heroes. The grand total by genealogical enrollment amounted to 87,000.

⁶The three sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, and Jediael.^c ⁷The sons of Bela: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri, five leaders of clans and mighty warriors. Their genealogical enrollment came to 22,034. ⁸The sons of Becher: Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Om-

w) The Aaronic group had won the first lot in the distribution of the land [Josh. 21:10]; the following verses on Levitical cities compare with Josh. 21:3-40.

x) As promised by Moses and Joshua [Josh. 14:6-15].

y) See Num. 35; Deut. 19:1-10; and Josh. 20 on these six cities.

z) Only eleven have been named in this passage; the others are recorded in Joshua 21.

a) Here we are supplying from Joshua 21:5 "of Ephraim, and of Dan, and," as mentioned presently in vs. 66.

b) This section enlarges on the family of Issachar as shown in Gen. 46:13 and Num. 26:23-25.

c) There were others [see 8:1-10]. These sections in I Chron. compare with Gen. 46:21 and Num. 26:38-40, supplementing and providing slight variants.

ri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these were sons of Becher. ⁹Their enrollment based on genealogical descent through these mighty warriors, who were clan heads, amounted to 20,200. ¹⁰The sons of Jediel: Bilhan, whose sons were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. ¹¹All these were descendants of Jediel, powerful heroes and heads of clans, totaling 17,200 on active duty for war. ¹²Shuppim and Huppim were sons of Ir, ⁴ and the Hushim, of Aher.^e ¹³Naphtali had these sons:^f Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum, who were thus grandsons of Bilhan.

¹⁴The sons of Manasseh: Asriel,^g born through Manasseh's Aramaean concubine, who had given birth to Machir the father of Gilead. ¹⁵Machir had chosen a wife of the Huppim and Shuppim family, and his sister was called Maacah. A second descendant was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had [only]^h daughters. ¹⁶But Maacah the wife of Machir gave birth to a son and named him Peresh; his brother was named Sheresh, whose sons were Ulam and Rakem; ¹⁷Ulam's son was Bedan. These are counted with the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. ¹⁸Also Hammolecheth, Machir's sister, gave birth to Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah; ¹⁹while the sons of Shemidaⁱ were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

²⁰Ephraim had these sons:^j Shuthelah, whose line of descent went: Bered, Tahath, Eleadah, Tahath, ²¹Zabad, Shuthelah, Ezer, and Elead. But the latter two were killed by the men of Gath who had been born in the land^k when they came down^l to rustle their cattle. ²²So for many days their father Ephraim was in mourning until his brothers came to comfort him; ²³but then he went in to his wife, who conceived and gave birth to a son. He named him Beriah because this happened when his family was "in trouble."^m ²⁴His daughter was Sheerah, who built both lower and upper Beth-horon, as well as Uzzen-sheerah. ²⁵Additional sons of his were Rephah and Resheph, from the latter of whom the line of descent went: Telah, Tahan, ²⁶Ladan, Ammihud, Elishama, ²⁷Non,ⁿ and Joshua. ²⁸Ephraim's territory in which they settled was bounded by Bethel and its dependencies, by Naaran on the east, by Gezer and its dependencies on the west, and by Shechem with its dependent towns as far as Ayyah and its dependencies. ²⁹The people of Manasseh held possession of Bethshean, Taanach, Megiddo, and Dor, each with its dependent towns. In these places the descendants of Joseph the son of Israel settled.

³⁰Asher had these sons:^o Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah. ³¹The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith; ³²but Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham, and their sister Shua. ³³The sons of Japhlet: Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath, his sons; ³⁴while from his brother Shemer^p came Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram; ³⁵and from his brother Helem,^q Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal. ³⁶Zophah's sons: Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, ³⁷Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera; ³⁸while from Jether^r came Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara. ³⁹The sons of Ulla: Arah,^s Hanniel, and Rizia. All ⁴⁰these were descendants of Asher, heads of clans, chosen men, mighty warriors, and chief officers. As registered by genealogy for wartime service, they totaled 26,000 men.

8 BENJAMIN'S SONS CAME AS FOLLOWS:^t first, Bela; second, Ashbel;

d) Iri [vs. 7]. e) Perhaps Ahiram of Num. 26:38.

f) These equal Gen. 46:24 and Num. 26:48-50 with minor differences of spelling.

g) A great-grandson of Manasseh through Machir and Gilead. For the more complete records of western Manasseh see Num. 26:28-34 and Josh. 17:2-6. h) Num. 26:33; 27:1; and 36:2.

i) Another great-grandson of Manasseh through Machir and Gilead.

j) This section enlarges on the family of Ephraim as noted in Num. 26:35-37. k) Canaan.

l) The Gittites came to Goshen, on the border of Egypt toward Palestine, where the Israelites had settled under Joseph, to rustle Israel's cattle. m) Hebrew, "Berah." n) Elsewhere, Nun (Ex. 33:11; Josh. 1:1). o) This section enlarges on the family of Asher as noted in Gen. 46:17, and Num. 26:44-47. p) Shomer, vs. 32. q) Hotham [?], vs. 32. r) Ithram in the preceding verse.

s) Ara [?], in the preceding verse. t) This chapter constitutes a major supplement to ch. 7:6-12, as well as to Gen. 46:21 and Num. 26:38-41.

third, Aharah; ²fourth, Nohah; and fifth, Rapha. ³Bela's sons were: Addar, Gera, Abihud, ⁴Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, ⁵Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram. ⁶Ehud^u had these sons, who were clan leaders for the inhabitants of Geba, the group taken away to Manahath ⁷by Naaman, Ahijah, and particularly by Gera; Ehud's sons then were Uzza and Ahihud. ⁸Shaharaim, too, in the country of Moab, after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara,^v had children; ⁹through his wife Hodesh he had Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, ¹⁰Jeuz, Shachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, leaders of clans. ¹¹By Hushim he had begotten Abitub and Elpaal; ¹²Elpaal's sons: Eber, Misham, Shemed (who built Ono and Lod with its dependencies), ¹³Beriah, and Shema, too, who were clan leaders for the inhabitants of Aijalon, and they drove out the dwellers of Gath. ¹⁴Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, ¹⁵Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶Michael, Ishpah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah. ¹⁷Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, ¹⁸Ishmerai,^w Izliah, and Jobab were sons of Elpaal. ¹⁹Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, ²⁰Eli-enai, Zillethai, Eliel, ²¹Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimirath were sons of Shimei.^x ²²Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, ²³Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, ²⁴Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, ²⁵Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak. ²⁶Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, ²⁷Jareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.^y ²⁸These were leaders of clans, leaders indeed, by their genealogical registers, who lived in Jerusalem.

Saul's Reign, 1050-1010 B.C.

²⁹Now there lived in Gibeon the patriarchal head^z of the city, the name of whose wife was Maacah. ³⁰His sons included Abdon, the oldest, Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, ³¹Gedor, Ahio, and Zecher. ³²Then Mikloth^a became father of Shimeah, and they lived in near-by Jerusalem, separate from their brothers, but still with fellow tribesmen. ³³And Ner,^b was the father of Kish, the father of Saul, whose sons were Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab,^c and Esh-baal.^d ³⁴Jonathan's son was Merib-baal,^e who was the father of Micah, ³⁵whose sons were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. ³⁶Ahaz had Jehoaddah, whose sons were Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. From Zimri the line of descent went: Moza, ³⁷Binea, Raphah, Eleasah, and Azel. ³⁸Azel had six sons, named Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; all these were sons of Azel. ³⁹The sons of his brother Eshek were Ulam his first-born, second Jeush, and third Eliphelet. ⁴⁰The sons of Ulam were powerful heroes, who could bend the bow and who also had many sons and grandsons, to the number of 150. All these were descendants of Benjamin.

Before the Fall of Jerusalem in 586 B.C.

9 SO ALL OF ISRAEL WERE REGISTERED by genealogy, and they may be observed recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. Judah, however, because of the people's unfaithfulness, was taken captive to Babylon. ²Previous to this event, the men who lived on their holdings in their cities were the lay-Israelites, the priests, the Levites, and the temple servants.^f ³In Jerusalem there lived members of the tribes of Judah, of Benjamin, of Ephraim, and of Manasseh: ⁴Uthai, who traced his ancestry back through Ammihud, Omri, Imri, and Bani, among the descendants of Perez to Judah. ⁵Of the descendants of Shiloh:^g Asaiah, who was the first-born, with his sons. ⁶Of the descendants of Zerah: Jeuel and 690 of their fellow clansmen. ⁷Then of the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu, whose ancestry went back through Meshullam and

u) Neither Ehud's ancestry in Benjamin, nor that of Shaharaim [vs. 8], is given.

v) Evidence of moral deterioration.

w) Meshullam and Ishmerai may be variants for Misham and Shemed in vs. 12.

x) Shema [vs. 13]. y) Perhaps Jeremoth [vs. 14]. z) Jeiel [9:35].

a) The youngest son [9:37, 38].

b) Another son [9:36], whose grandson, Saul, was first king of Israel, 1050-1010 B.C.

c) Ishui [in I Sam. 14:49]. d) Ish-bosheth [see note on II Sam. 2:8].

e) Mephobosheth [see note on II Sam. 4:4].

f) Literally, "given ones"; temple servants, as the men of Midian [Num. 31:47], and of Gibeon [Josh. 9:23], organized into a distinct group by David [Ezra 8:20].

g) Read, "Shelah"; with Perez and Zerah one of the leading families of Judah [Num. 26:20].

Hodaviah to Hassenuah; ⁸Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah, descendant through Uzzi of Michri; Meshullam, whose ancestry went back through Shephatiah and Reuel to Ibnijah; ⁹and 956 of their fellow tribesmen according to their genealogical registers. All the above were family leaders in their respective clans.

¹⁰Of the priests there were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin; ¹¹with Azariah [IV], the ruler of the house of God, ¹who traced back his ancestry through Hilkiah, Meshullam, Zadok [II], Meraioth, and Ahitub [III]; ¹²Adaiah, whose line went back through Jeroham and Pashhur to Malchijah; ¹Massai, going back through Adiel, Jahzerah, Meshullam, and Meshillemith to Immer; ^k¹³and 1760 of their fellow tribesmen, leaders of clans and distinguished for their efficiency, carrying on the service of the house of God.

¹⁴Of the Levites there were: She-maiah, who traced his ancestry back through Hasshub, Azrikam, and Hashabiah to be a descendant of Merari; ¹¹⁵Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, Mattaniah, whose line, back through Mica and Zichri, made him a descendant of Asaph; ^m¹⁶Obadiah, going back through Shemaiah and Galal, a descendant of Jeduthun; ^mBerechiah the son of Asa, who was the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

¹⁷There were the gatekeepers: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their colleagues (Shallum being the leader), ¹⁸to date at the king's gate to the east; and they were the gatekeepers for the stations of the men of Levi. ¹⁹Shallum, whose ancestry went back through Kore and Ebiasaph to Korah, ⁿand his fellows of the clan of Korah were responsible for the administration of the service, watching the doorways to the "tent," ^oeven as their fathers had supervised the encampment of the LORD, guarding the entrance. ²⁰Their director in that earlier day had been Phinehas son of Eleazar^p — the LORD was with him! ²¹Then Zechariah son of Meshelemiah had been a gatekeeper of the entrance way for the tent of meeting. ^q²²The total of those chosen for gatekeepers at the doorways came to 212; they were registered by genealogy in their own villages, these men whom David and Samuel the seer had appointed to such positions of trust. ²³So they and their sons were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the "tent," ²⁴posted as guards, and acting as gatekeepers toward the four winds, to the east, west, north, and south. ²⁵Their colleagues in their villages, moreover, were to come in periodically, every seven days, to be with them; ²⁶because these Levites, the four distinguished gatekeepers, were indeed in positions of responsibility, being charged with the rooms and the treasures of the house of God. ^r

²⁷They would spend the night around the house of God because the watch was committed to them, and in the morning they were in charge of the key. ²⁸Some of them were over the utensils of the service, because by number they both brought it in and took it out. ²⁹Others were designated for the objects in general, all the holy instruments, the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the incense, and the spiced perfume. ³⁰These who mixed the ointment for the spiced perfume were taken from the priestly families; ³¹though of the Levites, Mattithiah, who was the oldest son of Shallum of the descendants of Korah, was appointed in trust over the making of the flat cakes; ^s³²while some of their fellows of the descendants of Kohath, were responsible for the bread which was set in rows, ^tto make it ready Sabbath by Sabbath. ³³These

h) These appear to be names of the 2nd, 1st, and 21st of the 24 priestly courses which David had established [I Chron. 24:7-18], rather than of individuals.

i) About 600 B.C., shortly before the captivity [see 6:13]. j) David's 5th course [24:9].

k) David's 16th [24:14]. l) One of the three sons of Levi.

m) These were two of David's chief musicians, 1000 B.C.

n) Though Korah himself was destroyed, his clan continued as an important part of the Kohath division of Levi [see 6:22-28 and notes].

o) The form of God's house, the tabernacle, prior to the construction of the permanent temple.

p) Son of Aaron and his successor as high priest in the wilderness.

q) Under David [I Chron. 26:2]. r) Functions of gatekeepers correspond to those of our custodians.

s) For meal offerings [Lev. 2:4-7]. t) The "showbread" [Lev. 24:5, 6].

then were the singers, clan leaders of the Levites, having exemption in their rooms from other service, because day and night they were charged with the work; ³⁴and these were the Levitical clan leaders in general, leaders indeed by their genealogical registers, who lived in Jerusalem.

³⁵There lived in Gibeon, Jeiel,^u the patriarchal head of the city, whose wife's name was Maacah, ³⁶and whose sons were Abdon, the oldest, Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, ³⁷Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸Mikloth became father of Shimeam; and they lived in near-by Jerusalem, separate from their brothers, but still with fellow tribesmen. ³⁹Ner was the father of Kish, the father of Saul, whose sons were Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab, and Esh-baal. ⁴⁰Jonathan's son was Merib-baal, who was father of Micah, ⁴¹whose sons were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea (and Ahaz). ⁴²Ahaz had Jarah, whose sons were: Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. From Zimri the line of descent went: Moza, ⁴³Binea, Rephah, Eleasah, and Azel. ⁴⁴Azel had six sons, named Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

1010 B.C.

10 WHEN THE PHILISTINES MADE war against Israel,^v the men of Israel fled before them, and the mortally wounded fell on Mount Gilboa. ²But the Philistines pressed closely after Saul and his sons, and they struck down Jonathan, Abinadab,^w and Malchi-shua, sons of Saul. ³Saul himself was fiercely attacked in the battle; against him the bowmen found their mark, causing him to writhe in anguish. ⁴Thus Saul gave his armor-bearer the word, "Draw your sword, and run me through with it, so these uncircumcised may not come and practice their ruthless sport on me!"

But the armor-bearer did not have the heart; he was terribly afraid. Saul, therefore, took the sword and fell on it; ⁶and when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on the sword and died. ⁸So Saul met his death; his three sons too; indeed his entire house died together. ⁷When all the men of Israel who were in the valley became aware of the rout and of the death of Saul and his sons, they gave up their cities and fled, so that the Philistines came and settled among them.

⁸So it was that when on the next day, the Philistines came to plunder the bodies, they found Saul and his sons as they had fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹They stripped him and took away his head and his armor, which they sent around through the Philistine territories, so as to spread the good news to their idols and to the people. ¹⁰Then they placed his armor in the house of their gods and fastened up his head in Dagon's temple. ¹¹But when all Jabesh-Gilead^x heard in full what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²the whole company of fighting men took action. They removed the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the prominent tree in Jabesh, after which they kept a fast for seven days.

¹³So Saul died because of his unfaithfulness in which he acted disloyally against the LORD, because he had not kept the LORD's word and had even tried a medium's seance. ¹⁴He did not look to the LORD, who therefore caused his death and the transference of the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

1003 B.C.

11 THUS ALL ISRAEL CAME TOGETHER to David at Hebron^y and said, "Here is the situation: We are your bone and your flesh. ²Moreover, in times past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel

u) Perhaps the Abiel of I Sam. 9:1 and 14:51. The rest of this chapter is practically identical with ch. 8:29-38 except for minor matters such as the spelling of names. It serves to introduce the record of the end of Saul's reign.

v) The climax of their third and last great oppression. This chapter is, in general, identical with I Sam. 31, though there is some difference in the choice of details. w) Ishui, in I Sam. 14:49.

x) Still loyal to Saul, after his great deliverance for them nearly forty years earlier [I Sam. 11:1-11].

y) The 7½ yrs. of David's rule at Hebron over Judah only, 1010 to 1003 B.C. [II Sam. 2-4], are here passed by; vss. 1-9 are parallel to II Sam. 5:1-10.

out and brought it in; the LORD your God also told you: You are the man who is to be the shepherd for My people, for Israel, and it is you who shall be sovereign over My people Israel."

³So when all the elders who led Israel had come to Hebron to the king and when David in the presence of the LORD had made a compact with them at Hebron, they anointed David king over Israel, as the LORD had given word through Samuel.²

⁴Then David with all Israel marched on Jerusalem, known as Jebus, in which were the Jebusites, the natives of the territory. ⁵They told David, "You shall not get in here!"^a But David did capture the fortress of Zion, which now is the city of David. ⁶David had also issued a proclamation, "Whoever is the first to strike down a man of Jebus shall be generalissimo"; and Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief commander. ⁷David occupied the fortress, for which reason it was called, "The City of David."

⁸Furthermore, he did construction work around it from Millo^b even to the surrounding area, while Joab restored the rest of the city. ⁹Thus David's power kept increasing for the LORD of hosts was with him.

¹⁰These are the leaders of David's heroes, men who were strong advocates of his rule and who, along with all the rest of Israel, were committed to making him king, in accordance with the LORD's statement for Israel. ¹¹The list then of the heroes David had consists of these:^c Jashobeam, son of a man of Hachmon, the leader of the Thirty,^d who so thrust with his spear that 300 were laid low at one time. ¹²After him, Eleazar the son of Dodo, a descendant of Ahoah, next among the three outstanding heroes; ¹³he was with David at Pas-dammim where the Philistines had mustered for battle. At a section of the field that was full of barley, the people had broken and fled before the Philistines; ¹⁴but they^e took up a position in the middle of that section, recovered it, and struck down the Philistines; so the LORD saved them with a great victory.^f ¹⁵Three of the thirty leaders had gone down to the rocky cliff to join David in the cave of Adullam, during the camping of the Philistine army in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁶At that time David was in the stronghold, but an outpost of the Philistines occupied Bethlehem. ¹⁷Then David felt a longing and said, "If only somebody could get me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem there by the gate!" ¹⁸So the three heroes broke into the Philistine camp, drew water out of the well by the gate of Bethlehem, took it, and carried it to David. But David would not drink any; he poured it out as an offering to the LORD ¹⁹with the exclamation, "Be it far from me, because of my God, to do such a thing! Could I drink the blood of these men, their very souls? For they have brought it at the risk of their lives!" He would not, accordingly, drink any. This was what the three heroes did.

²⁰Then there was Abishai, Joab's brother and commander over the Three,^g who also thrust with his spear to lay low 300 men and he gained a reputation along with the Three; ²¹in fact, he was doubly honored over the Three by being made their superior, though he did not stand as high as the [first] three. ²²And Benaiah^h son of Jehoiada, who was the son of a valiant man of great accomplishments from

z) I Sam. 15:28; 16:1-13.

a) The mountain position of the fortress of Zion made it almost impregnable. This, plus its strategic location between northern Israel and southern Judah and its foreign [neutral] nature, made it an ideal site for David's proposed capital. b) One of the fortifications.

c) Twelve of the heroes are commanders of the twelve corps of David's armed forces [Ch. 27]. d) Perhaps the initial number in this "legion of honor." e) I Samuel 23:39 lists 37, including the outstanding Three and the two commanders, while this chapter [vss. 41b-47] notes 16 additions to the original group.

e) Either the Three, or Eleazar alone.

f) After him, "Shammah the son of Agee of Harar" [II Sam. 23:11]. So, the most distinguished "Three" are Jashobeam, Eleazar, and Shammah.

g) He had commanded with Joab against Abner [II Sam. 2:24], and later led divisions in the wars against the Ammonites [II Sam. 10:10], against Absalom [18:2], and Sheba [20:6]. His heroism with David in Saul's camp is recorded in I Sam. 26:6f.

h) Commander of the professional Cretan and Philistine troops that made up David's guard [I Chron. 18:17], and Solomon's leading general [I Kings 4:4].

Kabzeel. He was the one who struck down the two ariels^l of Moab. He also went down into a pit and killed a lion on a snowy day ²³and he too destroyed the huge Egyptian, seven and a half feet tall, who had in his hand a spear the size of a weaver's bar;^j but he went at him with a club, snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. ²⁴These were things done by Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He, too, gained a reputation along with the three heroes; ²⁵but, though he was indeed more honored than the Thirty, he did not come up to the Three. David appointed him over his guard.

²⁶Then came these mighty warriors: Asahel,^k Joab's brother; Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem; ²⁷Shammoth from Haror; a certain Helez; ²⁸Ira son of Ikkeish from Tekoa; Abiezer from Anathoth; ²⁹Sibbecai from Hushah; Ilai, a descendant of Ahoah; ³⁰Maharai and Heled son of Baanah, both from Netophah; ³¹Ithai son of Ribai, from Gibeah of the people of Benjamin; Benaiah from Pirathon; ³²Hurai from the valleys of Gaash; Abiel from the Jordan Valley; ³³Azmaveth from Baharum; Eliahba from Shaalbon; ³⁴Bene-hashem from Gizon; Jonathan son of Shagee ³⁵and Ahiam son of Sacar, both from Hara; Eliphal son of Ur; ³⁶Hepher from Mecherah; a certain Ahijah;^l ³⁷Hezro from Carmel; Naarai son of Ezbai; ³⁸Joel brother of Nathan; Mibhar son of Hagri; ³⁹Zelek from Ammon; Naharai from Beeroth, who was armor-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruah; ⁴⁰Ira and Gareb, both descendants of Jether; ⁴¹Uriah the Hittite;^m ⁴²Zabad son of Ahlai; ⁴³Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was a leader of Reuben and with whom were thirty men; ⁴⁴Hanan son of Maacah; Joshaphat the Mithnite; ⁴⁵Uzzia from Ashteroth; Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham from Aroer; ⁴⁶Jediael son of Shimri and his brother Joha from Tiz; ⁴⁷Eliel from Mahavim; Jeribai and Joshaviah sons of Elnaam; Ithmah from Moab; ⁴⁸and Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel from Zobah.

1011 B.C.

12 THE FOLLOWING ARE THE MEN who came to David at Ziklagⁿ while he was still restricted in his movements because of Saul the son of Kish; they were part of the heroes who maintained his military power, ²were equipped with the bow, and could sling stones and shoot arrows from their bows either right-handed or left-handed; they came from Benjamin, from among the fellow tribesmen of Saul: ³Ahiezzer, the leader, and Joash, both of them being sons of Shemaah of Gibeah; Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu from Anathoth, ⁴Ishmaiah from Gibeon, a hero rated along with the Thirty and even over the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad from Gederah, ⁵Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah, a descendant of Haruph, ⁶Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, all descendants of Korah;^o ⁷and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

⁸From the people of Gad there came over to David at his desert stronghold^p these powerful heroes, fighting men of war who could handle the shield and spear, who had faces like lions and who were fast as deer in the hills: ⁹Ezer, the leader; Obadiah, the second; Eliab, the third; ¹⁰and Mishmannah, Jeremiah, ¹¹Attai, Eliel, ¹²Johanan, Elzabad, ¹³and Jeremiah, in that order, down to Machbannai, the eleventh. ¹⁴They were all descendants of Gad and leaders in the army, the least of whom was equal to a hundred, and the greatest,

i) "Lions of God," probably a general term for heroes rather than their personal name.

j) The heavy shaft that held the threads taut.

k) Killed when pursuing Abner in David's war against Ish-bosheth [II Sam. 2:18-23].

l) "Pelonite," in most translations, refers to no place; it equals "a certain."

m) The husband of Bath-sheba, murdered by order of David in the king's attempt to cover up adultery with his wife [II Sam. 11].

n) The town on the Judean border, over which David had been appointed vassal ruler by Achish, the Philistine king of Gath, [I Sam. 27:5-7].

o) The Kohathite who rebelled against Moses; see notes on 6:22 and 9:19. These five would therefore be from the tribe of Levi rather than of Benjamin, as the rest in this list, though probably residents of Benjamite territory.

p) Perhaps still the Cave of Adullam; compare 11:15 and I Sam. 22:1.

to a thousand! ¹⁵These were the men that crossed the Jordan in the first month^a when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to rout the valley opposition both eastward and westward.

¹⁶Then too, there were men from Benjamin and Judah, who came to the stronghold to be with David. ¹⁷When David went out to meet them, he addressed them, "If you have come to me peaceably to help me, then you can count on my heart being united with yours; but if it is to betray me to my enemies when there is no stain of violence on my hands, let the God of our fathers observe it and be the judge!" ¹⁸Then the Spirit took hold of Amasai, leader of the Thirty, (to reply),^r

"We belong to you, O David;

We are with you, son of Jesse!

Peace, yes, perfect peace go with you;

Peace bless him who fights for you,

Because your God does lend you aid!"

So David received them and placed them among the officers of his force.

1010 B.C.

¹⁹From Manasseh there were certain men who shifted allegiance to David when he marched to battle, allied with the Philistines against Saul.^q David's men, however, did not actually fight on their side because the Philistine rulers, after consultation, dismissed him with the statement, "With our heads as his pledge, he might desert to his old master Saul." ²⁰So on David's return to Ziklag, there joined him from Manasseh: Adnah, Jozabad, Jedaiel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai; each of these a commander of a thousand men in Manasseh. ²¹They proved of assistance to David against the band of raiders;^t for they were all powerful heroes and became high officers in the army. ²²In fact, men would come daily to enlist under David until he had a formidable force, like the army of God.^u

1003 B.C.

²³These are the totals of the divisions equipped for war, that joined David at Hebron, whose aim, as the LORD had directed, was to turn Saul's kingdom over to him: ²⁴Of Judah, those who could carry the shield and spear, 6,800 equipped for war; ²⁵of Simeon, powerful military heroes, 7,100; ²⁶of Levi, 4,600, ²⁷plus Jehoiada, the chief ruler of the Aaronic group, with whom were 3,700 ²⁸and Zadok,^v a powerful hero even in his youth, and his clan with its 22 chiefs; ²⁹of Benjamin, the relatives of Saul, 3,000; though up to this point the majority of them were maintaining loyalty to the house of Saul; ³⁰of Ephraim, 20,800 powerful heroes, men of reputation in their clans; ³¹of the half tribe of Manasseh,^w 18,000, who were designated by name to come to make David king; ³²of Issachar, 200 of their leaders who had understanding of the times and knew what Israel should do, and under whose command were all their fellow tribesmen; ³³of Zebulun, men subject to muster, who drew up rank with all types of weapons of war, 50,000, demonstrating single-hearted solidarity; ³⁴of Naphtali, 1,000 chiefs, and with them, 37,000 with shield and spear; ³⁵of Dan, 28,600 men drawing up rank; ³⁶of Asher, men subject to muster to maintain the line, 40,000; ³⁷and from Trans-Jordan, of Reuben, Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh, with all the weapons of combat, 120,000.

³⁸All these fighting men who could draw up rank, came to Hebron with hearts determined to make David king over the whole of Israel; indeed, all the rest of Israel was of one mind to make David king. ³⁹For three days they were present with David, eating and drinking, because their fellow countrymen had made preparations for them. ⁴⁰Then, too, those who were near by, and as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, were bringing pro-

q) March-April, the time of the spring flood [see Josh. 3:15; 4:19].

r) Literally, "clothed Himself with Amasai," as in Judg. 6:34 and II Chron. 24:20.

s) See I Sam. 29 for the description.

t) Those from Amalek who had plundered David's city of Ziklag while he was away [I Sam. 30].

u) That is, very great; note the same phrase for the cedars in Ps. 80:10.

v) Perhaps the Zadok who was the colleague and successor of Abiathar as high priest.

w) The western half; see vs. 37.

visions on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen: flour, cakes, pressed fig cakes, bunches of raisins, wine, oil, herds, and flocks, all in great quantities, because gladness reigned in Israel.

1003-1002 B.C.

13 DAVID HAVING CONSULTED^x with the commanders of the units of 1000 and of 100, namely with every leader, ²addressed the whole assembly of Israel: "If this seems desirable to you and if the project is indeed from the LORD our God, let us act with determination and summon our fellow citizens who are remaining throughout the territories of Israel, together with the priests and the Levites in their cities with the surrounding open lands, that they may meet with us. ³Then we can bring back to us the ark of our God, for in the days of Saul we have had no concern for it."^y ⁴The entire assembly agreed that this should be done—the thing was right in all the people's judgment — ⁵and David accordingly assembled all Israel, from Shihor of Egypt^z to the approaches of Hamath, to bring in the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

⁶Then David with all Israel went up to Baalah, which is Kiriath-jearim^a and belongs to Judah, to bring up from there God's ark, with which is associated His name: The LORD who thrones between the cherubim. ⁷They transported it on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, with Uzza and Ahio^b driving the cart. ⁸David, meanwhile, and all Israel were dancing before God with all their strength, with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets. ⁹But when they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza reached out his hand to catch hold of the ark, because the oxen had slipped. ¹⁰The LORD's anger rose against Uzza, and God struck him for having laid hands on the ark; so he died there in God's presence.^c ¹¹David was deeply moved at the LORD's outbreak against Uzza; he called that place Perez-uzza,^d a name kept to the present day. ¹²In his fear at that time toward God, he exclaimed, "How can I ever bring in the ark of God to be with me?" ¹³So David did not have the ark moved into the city of David to be with him but redirected it to the house of Obed-edom, who had come from Gath. ¹⁴The ark of God stayed with the family of Obed-edom in his house for three months; and the LORD prospered the household of Obed-edom^e along with all that he had.

1003 B.C. and following

14 NOW HIRAM KING OF TYRE sent David messengers^f and then logs of cedar, with men skilled in erecting walls and in carpentry, to build him a palace.^g ²Thus David recognized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel; for his kingdom had been highly exalted for the sake of Israel, God's own people. ³David, however, took more wives^h at Jerusalem and became father of more sons and daughters. ⁴The following are the names of sons that were born in Jerusalem:ⁱ Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁶Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, ⁶Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

⁸When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they advanced in full force to get hold of him; but David was informed and went out to face them.^j

⁹The Philistines came and raided in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰Then David

x) II Sam. 6:1-11 gives a briefer report with minor variants.

y) The one exception is noted in I Samuel 14:18, and even there the ark might not actually have been used, only requested.

z) The stream bed that marked the southeastern border of Palestine, [see Josh. 13:3].

a) Where the ark had stayed in the house of Abinadab for almost a century, following its capture by the Philistines at the first battle of Eben-ezer and its subsequent return [Sam. 7:1].

b) Sons of Abinadab, [II Sam. 6:3].

c) Emphasizing for all future generations the necessity for reverence and conforming obedience toward God's sacred objects. The ark should never have been mounted on a cart; it should never have been touched; there were poles to carry it [Ex. 25:14]. d) "The outbreak of Uzza."

e) A Levite of the family of Korah in the clan of Kohath [26:1,4], and so meeting the requirement for a caretaker of the ark. f) This chapter parallels II Sam. 5:11-25.

g) It is well that the world renders service to the church.

h) Prohibited by the law [Deut. 17:17]. i) This same list appears, with minor variants, in 3:5-8.

j) This attack must have come shortly after his national anointing, even before the capture of Jerusalem [see II Sam. 5:17].

inquired of God, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Wilt Thou give them over into my hands?" The LORD replied to him: Go up, and I will deliver them into your hands. ¹¹So they went up against Baal-perazim; and, as David struck them down there, he exclaimed, "God has broken through my enemies by means of my hand, like a breakthrough of water!" Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.^k ¹²There his opponents even abandoned their gods, and at David's command, they burned them with fire.^l ¹³When the Philistines again undertook a raid in the valley, ¹⁴David once more made inquiry of God. God said to him: Do not go up after them; circle them and come in on them by the front of the balsam trees. ¹⁵It shall be when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, at that instant you shall launch the attack, for God will have gone out before you to overwhelm the Philistine army. ¹⁶David did as God had ordered him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as to Gezer. ¹⁷Thus the fame of David spread throughout all lands, and the LORD laid the dread of him on all the nations.

1002 B.C.

15 ^{THE KING^m ERECTED BUILDINGS} for himself in the city of David, but he also prepared a place for the ark of God and set up a tent for it. ²Then, after he had cautioned, "No one is to carry God's ark except the Levites, since they are the ones whom the LORD has chosen to bear His ark and serve Him forever," ³David assembled all Israel to Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD into the place he had made ready for it. ⁴He gathered the descendants of Aaron and of Levi; ⁵of Kohath, Uriel the leader with 120 of his clan; ⁶of Merari, Asaiah the leader with 220 of his; ⁷of Gershon,ⁿ Joel with 130; ⁸of Elizaphan,^o Shemaiah with 200; ⁹of Hebron, Eliel with 80; ¹⁰and of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader, with 112 of his clan. ¹¹Then David called for the priests, Zadok and Abiathar, and for the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, ¹²and said to them, "You are the clan leaders of Levi; consecrate yourselves, you and your fellow tribesmen, so you can bring the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, up to the place I have prepared for it; ¹³for it is because you did not carry it the previous time, that the LORD our God made an outbreak against us, as we failed to seek Him in the proper way." ¹⁴So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁵When the descendants of Levi had lifted up God's ark in the way Moses had prescribed by the word of the LORD, that is, by poles on their shoulders,^p ¹⁶David ordered the leaders of Levi to have their tribesmen who were singers to take stations with musical instruments—harps, lyres, and pace-setting cymbals^q—lifting up the sound for joy. ¹⁷The Levites accordingly appointed Heman son of Joel; one of his colleagues named Asaph son of Berechiah; and out of their fellows from Merari, Ethan son of Kushaiah. ¹⁸Along with these were their associates of a second class: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.^r ¹⁹The singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were assigned to the bronze cymbals for setting the pace;^s ²⁰Zechariah, Aziel,^s Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, to the soprano lyres; ²¹and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azariah, to the harps for leading off. ²²Moreover, Chenaniah, the leader of the men of Levi, was charged with the striking up of

k) "Master of the breakthroughs." l) As required by the law [Deut. 7:5, 25].

m) II Sam. 6:12-19 gives an abbreviation of the material of this and of the following chapter, with minor variants. n) Elsewhere, "Gershon" [6:1]; though compare 6:16f.

o) This and the following two are family subdivisions within the first-named Levitical clan of Kohath [Ex. 6:18,22].

p) It requires persons, rather than animals and carts, to render Him acceptable service.

q) Literally, "hearing-causers," — cymbals that marked the time by sounding clearly and loudly.

r) To this list could probably be added the Azariah of vs. 21. s) Shortened from Jaaziel in vs. 18.

song—he carried on the instruction in singing because of his skill; ²³Berechiah and Elkanah, with being gatekeepers for the ark; ²⁴and the priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, with the blowing of the trumpets before God's ark. Obed-edom and Jehiah were also gatekeepers for the ark. ²⁵So David and the chiefs of Israel and the commanders of the units of 1000 took up the march with rejoicing to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the house of Obed-edom.^t ²⁶Now when God was evidently helping the Levites who were carrying the ark of the LORD's covenant, they sacrificed seven each of steers and of rams. ²⁷David also dressed in a robe of fine linen, as were all those of Levi who were carrying the ark, together with the singers and the leader Chenaniah, who struck up the song for them. David was wearing a white linen cape,^u too. ²⁸All Israel was bringing up the ark of the LORD's covenant with shouting, the sound of rams' horns, trumpets, pace-setting cymbals, lyres, and harps. ²⁹But as the ark of the covenant of the LORD made its entrance into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, was looking down through a window and when she saw King David rejoicing there with dancing, she despised him in her heart.

1002 B.C.

16 SO THEY BROUGHT IN THE ARK of God, and when they had placed it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, they presented in the presence of God burnt offerings and peace offerings. ²When David had finished the sacrifice of burnt offerings and of peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. ³Furthermore, he made an allotment to each Israelite, including men and women, a round loaf of bread, a package of dates, and a cake of raisins to each. ⁴Next he appointed as directors of services before the LORD's ark certain Levites, who would maintain the commemoration, the thanksgiving and the praise for the LORD God of Israel: ⁵Asaph, the chief; and subordinate to him Zechariah, Jeiel,^v Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, ⁶Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, who were assigned to the harps and lyres as instruments; Asaph himself had the pace-setting cymbals; and, with the trumpets which were blown regularly before the ark of God's covenant, the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel.

⁷On that day David for the first time committed to the hands of Asaph^w and his associates the giving of thanks to the LORD:^x and proclaim to the nations His acts.

⁸Oh, give thanks to the LORD, sound

His name,^y

⁹Sing to Him, yea, to Him sing psalms; all His miracles ponder and speak.

¹⁰Have your boast in His sanctified name, and rejoice, hearts that look for the LORD.

¹¹Make resort to the LORD and His might, and His presence perpetually seek.

¹²Oh, remember His miracles wrought, with His marvels and judgments of mouth, ¹³Ye descendants of Israel, His servant, elect, who from Jacob have sprung, ¹⁴It is He who is LORD and our God, with His judgments throughout the whole earth.

¹⁵To His covenant always attend, for a thousand generations imposed, ¹⁶Unto Abraham surely confirmed, and to Isaac laid down with an oath.

¹⁷He defined it for Jacob as statute, for a covenant, Israel's to stand:

¹⁸I am giving thee Canaan, the land, your inheritance bounded by line,

t) For this occasion Ps. 24 seems to have been written and set to music. It was prophetic of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and symbolic of His being welcomed in our hearts.

u) Hebrew, "ephod." He seems to have removed his outer garment; note Michal's reaction [vs. 29 and II Sam. 6:20]. v) In 15:18, Jaaziel.

w) Twelve psalms were written by Asaph and his descendants, Ps. 50, and from 73 through 83. x) This marked the beginning of regular Levitical choirs, that soon became so important a part of Hebrew public worship.

y) The model songs, with which David then provided them, consist with slight modifications, of Ps. 105:1-15, Ps. 96, and Ps. 106:1, 47, 48. These three psalms are listed anonymously in the Psalter but, on the basis of his use of them here, it would appear that David is their author.

¹⁹Though you are insignificant now very few and mere pilgrims therein.
²⁰True, they wandered from nation to nation,
from kingdom to people most strange.
²¹But He granted not one to oppress
them,
rebuking for them even kings:
²²Those anointed by Me, do not touch!
'Gainst My prophets, attempt nothing wrong!^z ²³So now sing to the LORD, all the earth,
His salvation, yes, daily proclaim.
²⁴Oh, repeat to the nations His glory, to all of the peoples His deeds.
²⁵For the LORD is great, much to be praised,
and revered above all so-called gods.
²⁶For all gods of the pagans are vain, but the LORD even the heavens hath made.
²⁷There is splendor and honor before Him,
and power and joy where He dwells.
²⁸Give the LORD, O ye families of men, give the LORD highest glory and might.
²⁹Give the LORD all the fame due His name;
bring an offering and come before Him.
Serve the LORD in your holy array, ³⁰be in awe before Him, all the earth;
thus the world will immovably stand.
³¹Let the heavens be glad, and earth sing;
let them tell among men, "The LORD reigns!"
³²Let the sea in its fulness resound;
let the field with its products rejoice.
³³Then shall trees of the woods sing aloud
at the face of the LORD, for He comes to accomplish His judgment on earth.
³⁴Oh, give thanks to the LORD, who is good for His covenant love does hold true; ³⁵and cry, "Save us, O God, our Salvation,

and gather us, snatched from the world, to give thanks to Thy most holy name
and to glory ourselves in Thy praise.
³⁶Let the LORD God of Israel be blest from eternity, world without end."
The response of all the people was,
"Amen!"^a praising the LORD.

1002 B.C.

³⁷So he left Asaph and his associates there in charge of the ark of the LORD's covenant, to maintain a constant service before the ark as each day required, ³⁸along with Obed-edom (who was the son of Jeduthun),^b Hosah, and sixty-eight of their colleagues, as gatekeepers.
³⁹But at the same time [he retained] Zadok the priest and his priestly associates before the dwelling of the LORD^c at the high place that was in Gibeon, ⁴⁰to sacrifice burnt offerings continually, morning and evening, to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering, in accordance with everything written in the law of the LORD, which He had prescribed for Israel. ⁴¹With them were Heman, Jeduthun, and the rest of those selected, who had been designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, "for His loving-kindness holds ever true." ⁴²Heman and Jeduthun had the trumpets, the cymbals for those who set the pace, and the sacred musical instruments. The sons of Jeduthun were assigned to the gate. ⁴³Then all the people returned to their respective homes, and David went back to bless
his household.

17 AFTER DAVID HAD COME TO LIVE in his palace,^d he said to Nathan the prophet, "See here, I am living in a cedar palace while the ark of the LORD's covenant is under tent curtains." ²Nathan replied to David, "Do whatever you have in mind, because God is with you."^e ³But that night the ^z) Abraham was designated a prophet in God's protecting him against Abimelech king of Gerar [Gen. 20:7]. ^a) Meaning, "True indeed!"

^b) Not to be confused with Jeduthun, the chief singer of the clan of Merari, for Obed-edom's family was of Kohath. ^c) The tent of meeting [II Chron. 1:13], first erected by Moses.

^d) Chapters 17 and 18 are close parallels to II Sam. 7-8.

^e) This statement was based on Nathan's personal judgment; not on divine revelation.

word of God came to Nathan: ⁴Go, tell My servant David, The LORD has spoken: It is not for you to build Me the temple for My residence.^f ⁵From the time I brought out Israel until now, I have lived in no house; I have been moving from tent to tabernacle for a dwelling. ⁶Yet at any point in My journeying with all Israel, did I ever say a word to any one of the judges of Israel to whom I committed the leadership of My people to the effect, Why have you not built Me a cedar temple?

⁷But now this is what you are to say to My servant David, The LORD of hosts has thus spoken: I took you from the pasture, from following the flock, to be leader over My people, over Israel. ⁸I have been with you in all that you have undertaken; I have eliminated all your enemies from before you and so have given you a name equal in reputation to that of the greatest men on earth. ⁹I have, moreover, established a place for My people Israel and planted them, so that they inhabit their own land with no more shifting about and no more continued wasting by the unrighteous as at the first.^g ¹⁰or from the time I appointed judges over my people Israel. I have subdued all your enemies.^h Now I inform you that the LORD is building a house for you.ⁱ

¹¹When your days are over and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your posterity after you, one of your own sons; and I will confirm his sovereignty. ¹²He will build Me a house;^j and I will establish his throne forever; ¹³so I will be that one's Father, and He shall be My son.^k I will not have My loving-kindness leave your son, as I had it leave the one who was before you;^l ¹⁴I will uphold him in My house and in My kingdom forever: his throne shall be eternally established.^m ¹⁵In accordance with all these words and all this vision, Nathan delivered the message to David.

¹⁶Then King David, after he had come in, remained in the LORD's presence and prayed, "Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me to this point?" ¹⁷Then, as though this were a little thing in Thine eyes, O God, Thou hast spoken of the house of Thy servant into the far distant future. Hast Thou regarded me according to the standard for exalted men, O LORD God? ¹⁸What can David further say to Thee about the honor to Thy servant, since Thou knowest what Thy servant is like, ¹⁹O LORD! It is for the sake of Thy servant and in accordance with Thy decree that Thou hast done all these astounding things in making such greatness known. ²⁰O LORD, there is none like Thee, nor is there any God apart from Thyself, according to all that has come to our ears. ²¹Who, moreover, is like Thy people Israel, a nation unique upon the earth, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, and so didst enhance Thine own name by deeds great and terrible, driving out nations before Thy people, whom Thou didst redeem from Egypt. ²²Yes, Thou hast established Thy people Israel to be Thine own people forever; and Thou, LORD, Thou hast become their God.ⁿ

²³Now, O LORD, let what Thou hast spoken about Thy servant and his household stand for eternity. ²⁴Do according to Thy promise, that Thy name may forever be seen as reliable and great, so men shall say, 'The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, He is God over Israel'; when the family of Thy servant David shall be established before Thee. ²⁵For Thou, O my God, Thou hast revealed to Thy servant that Thou art building him a house;^o ac-

f) David was disqualified because of his warfare [22:8;28:3].

g) In Egypt; by Amalekites, Ammonites, Midianites, and Philistines.

h) So this chapter chronologically comes after ch. 18.

i) Before we can build for God, He has built for us, and indeed has built us.

j) Done by Solomon [I Kings 5:5].

k) Fully realized in Jesus Christ, the promised Descendant of David [Luke 1:32, 33], who as God's Son occupies the eternal throne [Heb. 1:5; see also Ps. 2:7; Acts 13:33; and Heb. 5:5]. As Christ Jesus, Son of Man and Son of God, is in His human nature the perfect Man, He fulfils [fills out] all human qualities. In this spirit, the kingship and throne of Solomon are prophetic of the kingship and throne of the promised Messiah.

l) King Saul. m) To the tent sanctuary he had erected [ch. 16:1].

n) These last words are the central promise of the covenant [Gen. 17:7; Ex. 6:7; and Rev. 21:3].

o) Not a building, like the "house" David wished to build for God, but a dynasty.

cordingly, Thy servant has found courage to make this prayer before Thee. ²⁶Surely, LORD, Thou art God and hast promised this good thing to Thy servant. ²⁷Now Thou hast been pleased to bless the house of Thy servant that it may continue forever before Thee; and, because Thou, LORD, hast uttered the blessing, it shall indeed be eternally blessed."

1002 to 995 B.C.

18 IN PROCESS OF TIME, DAVID overcame the Philistines and humbled them, taking Gath and its surrounding towns from Philistine control. ²He struck down Moab, so that Moabites became subject to David, paying tribute. ³David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah as far as to Hamath, when the latter attempted to confirm his power at the Euphrates river.^p ⁴David took captive 1000 of his chariots, 7000 cavalry, and 20,000 infantry, and he hamstrung all his chariot horses, reserving only enough for 100 chariots. ⁶Then, when the Syrians of Damascus came to the aid of Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 of the men of Syria ⁶and went on to station garrisons in Syria of Damascus. So the Syrians became subject to David, paying tribute. The LORD gave David the victory everywhere he went. ⁷David, moreover, took the golden shields which had been carried by Hadadezer's officers, and brought them to Jerusalem; ⁸and from Tibhath and Cun,^q cities of Hadadezer, David exacted a very large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the brazen sea, the pillars, and the bronze furnishings.^r ⁹When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had overcome all the forces of Hadadezer king of Zobah, ¹⁰he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to extend congratulations over the battle in which he had beaten Hadadezer; because Hadadezer had repeatedly been at war with Tou. He had with him all sorts of articles of silver, gold, and bronze, ¹¹which King David dedicated to the LORD, along with the silver and gold which he had removed from all the countries, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

¹²Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck down 18,000^s troops of Edom in the Valley of Salt. ¹³He then posted garrisons in Edom, so that the whole nation became subject to David. Surely the LORD gave David the victory wherever he went. ¹⁴So David reigned over all Israel, executing justice and maintaining the right for all his people. ¹⁵Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the armed forces; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilub was recorder; ¹⁶Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary; ¹⁷Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cretan and Philistine guard;^t and the sons of David were chiefs at the side of the king.

About 955 B.C.

19 IN THE COURSE OF EVENTS NAHASH the king of the Ammonites died,^u and his son succeeded him on the throne. ²David announced, "I will show Hanun friendship, because his father showed kindness to me."^v David therefore sent envoys to console him about his father. But when David's embassy arrived in the land of the Ammonites and came to Hanun to comfort him, ³that nation's officials advised Hanun, "Do you think it is to honor your father that he has sent you comforters? Is it not rather to investigate and to overthrow the land by

p) See 19:16-18, the second defeat of the Syrians; the verses of this chapter summarize the full account in 19:6-19.

q) These, and some of the names that follow, have variant forms in the corresponding verses (II Sam. 8:8-18).

r) For the temple. Note David's accumulations for Solomon's temple in 22:2-5, 14-15.

s) The title to Ps. 60 mentions Joab as David's leading general slaying 12,000 Edomites; II Sam. 8:13 notes David slaying 18,000.

t) The Philistines were Europeans; they had come originally from Caphtor [Crete] [Amos 9:7] and were greatly reinforced by refugees from Crete when the island fell to Greek invaders about 1200 B.C. [Jer. 47:4]. At the time of the rise of Saul, 1048 B.C., the Philistines were dominating Israel and using Hebrews as mercenary troops [I Sam. 14:21]; but David's victories in 1003 reversed the situation, Philistines are now in his employ.

u) Chs. 19:20-3, except for their omission of David's crime with Bath-sheba, are parallel to II Sam. 10-12.

v) This would hardly be the same Nahash against whom Saul had fought fifty-five years before [I Sam. 11], but may have been a son, who helped David against Saul.

acting as spies, that his servants have come to you?" ⁴So Hanun seized David's envoys, shaved them, cut off their robes half way, just below the belt, and sent them away. ⁵When word came to David about the men, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly humiliated. And the king directed them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow out; then come back."

⁶When the Ammonites realized how seriously they had antagonized David, they sent 2,000,000 dollars in silver^w to enlist mercenary troops in their cause from Aram of Mesopotamia and of Maacah and from Zobah, including chariots and cavalry. ⁷They hired for themselves 32,000 war chariots, together with the king of Maacah and his people, all of whom came and encamped before Medeba. The people of Ammon likewise gathered from their cities and came to battle. ⁸David heard about it and dispatched Joab with the entire army of brave men. ⁹The Ammonites came out and drew up ranks for the conflict at the gate of the city,^x while the kings who had come were posted separately in the field. ¹⁰But Joab, upon his discovery that the battle front was against him both front and rear, picked a force out of all the men selected in Israel and deployed them to engage the Syrians. ¹¹The rest of the troops he assigned to the command of his brother Abishai to form for battle against the Ammonites. ¹²"If Syria proves too strong for me," he said, "you are to be my support; but if the Ammonites prove too strong for you, then I will come to your defense. ¹³Keep up your courage, and let us show strength for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God! Then let the LORD do what is good in his sight!"^y ¹⁴So Joab and his forces took up the attack against the Syrians, and they fled before him. ¹⁵The people of Ammon, too, when they saw Aram^z in flight, ran before his brother Abishai in the same way and took refuge in the city. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem.^a ¹⁶But when the Syrians sensed their defeat at the hands of Israel, they dispatched messengers and summoned the Arameans which were beyond the river,^b Shophach general of Hadadezer's army being made commander. ¹⁷David, on being informed, mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, advanced, and formed his ranks against them. So David drew up the array to engage Syria in conflict, and they joined battle with him. ¹⁸Again Syria fled before Israel, and David destroyed of Syria 7,000 chariot [men] and 40,000 infantry; he also killed Shophach the commander of the forces. ¹⁹As a result, when those who were under Hadadezer saw that they were overwhelmed before Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him. There was no desire on Syria's part to send further aid to the Ammonites.

About 994 B.C.

20 WITH NEXT YEAR'S SEASON, AT the time when kings march forth,^c Joab led out the strength of the army to devastate the land of the Ammonites. He came and laid siege to Rabbah, while David was staying in Jerusalem. At last Joab overcame Rabbah and tore it down. ²From the head of Malcam David took the crown, the weight of which he found to be seventy-five pounds^d in gold, plus a precious stone that was in it, and it was placed on David's own head. He also carried off the plunder of the city in great quantity; ³and the people in it he brought out and forced to become laborers, cutting with saws, iron picks, and axes. This was what David did to all the cities of the Ammonites, after which David and his whole army returned to Jerusalem.

⁴War resumed against the Philistines

w) Hebrew, 1000 talents, each weighing about 75 lbs. avoirdupois, or 92 lbs. troy [the 12-ounce lb.] worth a total of about $2,000,000. x) Their capital, Rabbah [cf. 20:1].

y) A combination of faith and works.

z) Syria was the western portion of Aramea and went much by that name.

a) It seems to have been too late in the year to undertake a siege [see 20:1].

b) East of the Euphrates. c) Spring, after the rainy season.

d) Hebrew, one talent, or about 92 lb. troy weight, equivalent to nearly $30,000. The crown could not be worn by a man, Malcam being the leading Ammonite idol [Zeph 1:5]. The name was also spelled Milcom [I Kings 11:5,33].

after an interval, at Gezer;^e then it was that Sibbecai^f from Hushah struck down Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaim,^g so that they were subdued. ⁶Another time war took place against the Philistines and Elhanan the son of Jair overcame Lahmi the brother of Goliath of Gath, whose spear had a shaft like that of a weaver's bar.^h ⁶Once more there was war, at Gath, this time involving a huge man who had his fingers and toes in sixes, twenty-four in all; he too was born of Raphah. ⁷But when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of David's brother Shimea, struck him down. ⁸These were born to Raphah in Gath, but they fell at the hands of David and his men.

About 995 B.C.

21 SATAN, HOWEVER, STOOD UP against Israel and aroused David to take a census of Israel.ⁱ ²David ordered Joab and the leaders of the people, "Go, count Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan, and bring me a report, so that I may know their number." ³Joab tried to reason, "May the LORD multiply His people a hundred times over what they are now; but, my master and king, does not my master have them all as servants? Why should my master want to do this? Why should he become a cause for guilt against Israel?"^j ⁴The king's word, however, prevailed against Joab; so Joab went out, and when he had traveled all over Israel, he came back to Jerusalem. ⁵Joab then turned over to David the figures for the census of the people. All Israel consisted of 1,100,000 men who used the sword; and Judah, of 470,000 men, likewise using the sword.^k ⁶But Levi and Benjamin he did not register along with the rest, because the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.

⁷There was displeasure, moreover, in God's eyes concerning this matter, so that he struck Israel down. ⁸David, it is true, confessed to God, "I have sinned greatly in doing this; and now, I pray Thee, take away the wrong of Thy servant, for I have indeed played the fool." ⁹But the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer: ¹⁰Go, tell David, this is what the LORD has decreed: I offer you three things; choose one of them for Me to do to you. ¹¹So Gad came to David and informed him, "This is what the LORD has decreed, Choose for yourself: ¹²three years of famine; or three months of being swept away before your adversaries, with the sword of your enemies overtaking you; or three days of the sword of the LORD, that is of epidemic in the land, the angel of the LORD working destruction all over the territory of Israel. Now therefore decide what answer I am to return to Him who sent me."

¹³David replied to Gad, "I am in deep distress; let me fall, I pray, into the hands of the LORD, because His mercies are so great; but into the hands of man may I not fall." ¹⁴So the LORD sent an epidemic upon Israel, and there fell 70,000 men out of Israel.^l ¹⁵God also sent an angel toward Jerusalem to destroy it; but when he was at the point of destroying it, the LORD observed, felt compassion regarding the calamity, and gave orders to the destroying angel, Enough! Relax your hand now! This was when the LORD's angel was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan^m the Jebusite.

¹⁶When David raised his eyes and

e) These events therefore follow the first Philistine wars, described in 14:8-16, but precede the God-given rest from foreign enemies granted David by about 995 a.c. [II Sam. 7:1]. They are also recorded, with minor variants, in II Sam. 21:15-22 and may be associated with the campaigns noted in I Chron. 18:1.

f) One of the "thirty" heroes [11:29] and commander of the 8th corps of David's army [27:11]. g) The Rephaim were an ancient people [Gen. 14:5], noted for their size, but, except for Og's kingdom in Bashan, had died out by the time of Moses [Deut. 3:11].

h) Heavy, to hold the threads taut. See I Sam. 17:7.

i) The parallel record in II Sam. 24 goes behind this and shows that Satan was the instrument of God, being used to execute punishment on Israel for their sins. Compare Job 1:6-12 and I Kings 22:20-22.

j) There was nothing inherently wrong in a census; but in this case David seems to have been looking to the armed strength of his people [note vs. 5], rather than maintaining his faith in the promises of God [cf. 27:23].

k) II Sam. 24:9 gives the round figure for Judah of 500,000 and notes that in Israel only 600,000 could be classified as physically fit.

l) Appropriate punishment, since the sin seems to have been the reliance upon numerical military strength. m) In II Sam. 24:18, "Araunah."

saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven and in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem, David and the chiefs, wrapped in sackcloth, fell on their faces. ¹⁷David appealed to God, "Was it not I who ordered the census of the people? I am the one who has sinned and acted so wrongly. But these sheep,ⁿ what have they done? O LORD my God, let Thy hand, I pray, be against me and my father's household, but not against Thy people to be stricken by a plague!" ¹⁸The LORD's angel, accordingly, ordered Gad to tell David that David should go up and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹So David went up at Gad's word, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

²⁰Ornan, meanwhile, was threshing wheat when he turned and saw the angel, and his four sons that were with him went into hiding. ²¹Then David approached Ornan, and when Ornan looked and saw David, he went out from the threshing floor and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before David. ²²"Let me have the area of the threshing floor," David addressed Ornan, "so I can build an altar on it to the LORD. Give it to me at full price, that the plague may be restrained from continuing on the people." ²³"Take it for your own," Ornan remonstrated with David, "and let my master the king do whatever seems good in his eyes. See, I am giving the cattle^o for the burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for the wood and the wheat for the offering of meal! I am giving it all." ²⁴"No," King David answered Ornan, "I will certainly buy it at full price; I will not take for the LORD what belongs to you, or offer a burnt offering that costs me nothing!"^p ²⁵So David paid Ornan for the area 6,000 dollars' worth of gold by weight.^q ²⁶Then

David built an altar there to the LORD and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. Besides, he called out to the LORD, who answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering. ²⁷The LORD also gave orders to the angel, who returned his sword to its sheath.

²⁸It was at that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite,^r that he made sacrifice there. ²⁹Now the tabernacle of the LORD that Moses had made in the desert and the altar of burnt offering were during that period at the high place in Gibeon; ³⁰but David could not go before it to seek God, because he was so terrified by the sword of the LORD's angel.

22 DAVID THEN SAID, "THIS PLACE is the temple of the LORD God; and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

²So David proceeded to assemble the resident aliens that were in the land of Israel and assigned stonecutters to prepare squared stones for building God's temple. ³David next made ready great quantities of iron to make nails for the doors of the gates and for binding plates; also bronze in an amount too great to be weighed ⁴and countless cedar logs, because the people of Tyre and Sidon brought David cedar logs in great quantity. ⁵David explained, "My son Solomon is still a youth and inexperienced;^s but the temple to be built for the LORD is to be made most magnificent, of fame and glory through all lands. I am therefore making preparations for it." So David made ample provision before his death.

⁶David also called in his son Solomon and charged him with building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel. ⁷David addressed Solomon, "My son, I had in mind personally to build a n) Scripture frequently compares leader and people to shepherd and flock [see 11:2 and Ps. 23].

o) Used to pull the wooden threshing sledges over the grain.

p) So God expects us Christians to yield Him the best in our lives, not merely what involves no sacrifice.

q) Hebrew, 600 shekels. II Sam. 24:24 notes a small amount [50 shekels] in silver paid for the threshing floor itself.

r) Ornan's threshing floor on Mt. Moriah, on which Abraham offered Isaac to God. The temple was soon built by Solomon [II Chron. 3:1]. It seems therefore that Ps. 30, by David, "at the dedication of the temple," dates here; vs. 5, 6 well describe David's situation at this point.

s) See note on II Sam. 12:24. Born in 990 B.C., Solomon would be twenty at his accession.

temple to the name of the LORD my God,⁸ but the LORD's word came to me saying: You have shed too much blood and carried on great wars; you are not to build a temple to My name,¹ because you have spilled so much blood on the ground before Me.⁹ But see, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of peace; for I will give him relief from all his enemies on every side. Indeed, Solomon¹⁰ shall be his name; and peace and security will I ordain over Israel in his days.¹⁰ He then will build a house for My name — so that one shall be my son, and I will be His Father — and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.^v ¹¹Now, my son, the LORD be with you, so that you may prosper and build the temple of the LORD your God, even as He has spoken in reference to you.¹² Only the LORD grant you insight and understanding, so that when He gives you charge over Israel, you may keep the Law of the LORD your God.¹³ Then you will prosper, if you take care to execute the statutes and judgments which the LORD commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous! Do not fear; be not downcast! ¹⁴See, by my hard labor I have amassed for the LORD's temple 13,100,000 pounds of gold, 116,400,000 pounds of silver,^w and bronze and iron that cannot be weighed because of their abundance. I have prepared timbers and stores as well, to which you will want to make additions.¹⁵ You have also with you a great number of workers, cutters and carvers in stone and timber, and all kinds of skilled workers for every task,¹⁶ for gold, silver, bronze, and iron, a countless amount. Get up and do it, and the LORD be with you!"

¹⁷David also gave orders to all the leaders of Israel to provide assistance for his son Solomon,¹⁸ "Is not the LORD your God with you? Has he not granted you peace on every side? For He has surrendered the inhabitants of the land into my power, so that the land lies subdued before the LORD and His people.¹⁹ Now set your minds and hearts to seek the LORD God so as to bring the ark of the LORD's covenant and the holy equipment of God into the temple that is to be built to the LORD's name."

971-970 B.C.

23 WHEN DAVID BECAME OLD AND advanced in years, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.^x ²He also assembled all the leaders of Israel and the priests and the Levites.³ After a census had been taken of the men of Levi aged thirty and above, the total of their heads, man for man, was 38,000.⁴ "Of these," said David, "24,000 are to supervise the work of the LORD's temple, 6,000 to act as officers and judges, 54,000 to be gatekeepers, and 4,000 to offer praise to the LORD on the instruments I have made for singing praise."

⁶David then organized them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.⁷ The descendants of Gershon were divided among Ladan and Shimei.⁸ The sons of Ladan were three; Jehiel, the leader, Zetham, and Joel: ⁹also the sons of Shimei,^z three: Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran. The total of these constituted the clan leaders for Ladan.¹⁰ The sons of Shimei were: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah, the total for Shimei's sons being four,¹¹ with Jahath as leader and Zizah second; but since Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, they became, as a result, a clan with a single reckoning.

¹²The sons of Kohath were four: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel,

t) This was the word brought David by Nathan before Solomon's birth [17:4]. War may at times be required by God Himself [cf. 14:10 and 19:13]; but David had been guilty of needless bloodshed [see II Sam. 8:2]. u) Hebrew, "peaceful."

v) A direct quotation from II Sam. 7:13, 14, the prediction of Solomon's building the temple, though the clause about being God's son refers supremely to Christ.

w) Troy weight; Hebrew, 100,000 and 1,000,000 talents respectively. The value, even by modern standards, would be $5,000,000,000; and its purchasing power in ancient days was much greater. x) The disputed succession and the details of his taking power are given in I Kings 1,2.

y) Compare the list in 6:16-30 and the references cited in the note to 6:1.

z) This Shimei could hardly be the Shimei, son of Gershon, listed in vs. 7 and 10. It is likely that he and Ladan were sons of Libni, the older son of Gershon and brother of Shimei [see 6:17]. Thus the clans of Gershon totaled 9; 6 for Ladan and 3 for Shimei, on the basis of the combination of Jeush and Beriah in vs. 11.

¹³the sons of Amram being Aaron and Moses. But Aaron was set apart to be sanctified as most sacred, that he and his sons forever should offer sacrifice before the LORD, serve Him, and pronounce blessings in His name at all times. ¹⁴As for Moses, the man of God,^a his sons were reckoned in with the tribe of Levi. ¹⁶Moses' sons were Gershom and Eliezer, ¹⁶Gershom's sons having Shebuel as leader ¹⁷and Eliezer's having Rehabiah as chief. Eliezer had no other sons, but Rehabiah's offspring came to be very numerous. ¹⁸Izhar's sons had Shelomith as leader. ¹⁹Hebron's sons consisted of Jeriah as leader, Amariah second, Jahaziel third, and Jekameam fourth. ²⁰Uzziel's sons were Micah as leader and Isshiah second.

²¹Finally, the sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi, the sons of Mahli being Eleazar and Kish. ²²Eleazar died leaving no sons, but only daughters; so their cousins, the sons of Kish, took them in marriage.^b ²³Mushi's sons were three: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth.

²⁴These were the descendants of Levi by their clan heads and leaders as they were registered according to the number of their individual names. They were to do the work of the ministry of the LORD's temple from the age of twenty upwards;^c ²⁵because David had explained, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has granted peace to His people and has taken up His perpetual dwelling at Jerusalem, ²⁶so the Levites need no longer carry the tent-dwelling and all the equipment for its service."^d ²⁷For by David's last orders, the number of the Levites included those aged twenty and above. ²⁸Their function was to assist the sons of Aaron to serve the LORD's temple in reference to the courts, the rooms, and the purifying of all that was holy, and for the work of the service of God's temple: ²⁹for the bread which was set in rows;^d for the fine flour for the offerings of meal, including the cakes that were not raised with yeast, those from the baking pans, and the well-mixed ones; for every measure of capacity and size; ³⁰and for standing morning by morning to sing thanks and praise to the LORD, and the same at evening,^e ³¹and at every presentation of burnt offerings to the LORD on the Sabbaths, new moons, and feast days,^f in such number as was prescribed for them, continually before the LORD. ³²They were to keep charge of the tent of meeting and sanctuary and to carry out the requirements of their fellow tribesmen, the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the LORD's temple.

24 AS FOR THE DESCENDANTS OF Aaron, their divisions were these: the sons of Aaron had been Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar;^g ²but when Nadab and Abihu died before their father and left no children, Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests. ³So with the help of Zadok, who was of the descendants of Eleazar, and Ahimelech,^h who was of Ithamar's sons, David organized them according to their classes for service. ⁴Moreover, the descendants of Eleazar were found to be more numerous in respect to leaders than were the descendants of Ithamar; so they organized them under sixteen clan leaders of Eleazar's descendants and eight of Ithamar's.ⁱ ⁵Their assignments were determined by lot, the one group along with the other: for high

a) For this distinctive title, see also Deut. 33:1 and Ps. 90's title.

b) According to the Mosaic Law for the preservation of family property [Num. 36]. This gave the clan of Merari 4 divisions [1 for Mahli and 3 for Mushi], making then, with the 9 each of Gershom and Kohath, 22 Levitical divisions, plus the Aaronic priests.

c) Compare vs. 3. Moses had likewise taken the census of Levites aged thirty and above [Num. 4:3], but later included in the work those of twenty-five and upwards [8:23-26]. The explanation for David's further lowering of the age limit appears in vs. 26.

d) Compare 9:32, the showbread; literally, "bread of His presence."

e) The times of the two regular daily sacrifices [Ex. 29:38, 39].

f) There were the three great annual feasts of Passover, Pentecost, and Tabernacles [Ex. 23:14-17, Deut. 16:16]. g) For the priestly family [compare 6:3-15], and the accompanying notes.

h) The son of Abiathar [vs. 6], and grandson of Ahimelech, who had been high priests in the earlier days of David.

i) The 24 priestly classes continued as the basis for rotating the priestly duties into New Testament times. Although some of these classes died out or had to be consolidated with others, new ones were formed to take their places. In the return from exile, 538 B.C., four registered classes were represented, David's 2nd, 3rd, and 16th, and a new class, Pashhur [Ezra 2:36-39]; and by 520 B.C. 22 were again in operation [Neh. 12:1-7]. Compare vs. 12-21 and 10:2-8.

officers of the sanctuary, God's high officers, had come from the descendants both of Eleazar and of Ithamar; ⁶and the secretary from Levi, She-maiah, son of Nethanel, wrote them down in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the clan leaders of the priests and of the Levites. One clan was drawn for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

⁷The first lot, then, came out for Jehoiarib; the second for Jedaiah; ⁸the third for Harim; fourth, Seorim; ⁹fifth, Malchijah; sixth, Mijamin; ¹⁰seventh, Hakkoz; eighth, Abijah; ¹¹ninth, Jeshua; tenth, Shecaniah; ¹²eleventh, Elia-shib; twelfth, Jakim; ¹³thirteenth, Huppah; fourteenth, Jeshebeah; ¹⁴fifteenth, Bilgah; sixteenth, Immer; ¹⁵seventeenth, Hezir; eighteenth, Happizzez; ¹⁶nineteenth, Pethahiah; twentieth, Jehezkel; ¹⁷twenty-first, Jachin; twenty-second, Gamul; ¹⁸twenty-third, Delaiah; and the twenty-fourth, for Maa-ziah. ¹⁹These made up their classes for service for going into the LORD's temple as prescribed for them through their ancestor Aaron, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

²⁰As for remaining descendants of Levi: included among the descendants of Amram were Shubael, ^k among whose sons were Jehdeiah ²¹and Rehabiah, the leader of whose sons was Isshiah. ²²For the people of Izhar there was Shelomoth, ¹ among whose sons was Jahath. ²³The sons [of Hebron^m were: first] Jeriah, Amariah second, Jahaziel third, and Jekameam fourth; ²⁴while the sons of Uzziel were Micah, among whose sons was Shamir ²⁵and Micah's brother Isshiah, among whose sons was Zechariah. ²⁶The sons of Merariⁿ were Mahli and Mushi; and among the sons of Jaaziah^o was Beno; ²⁷in fact, Merari's descendants through Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri. ²⁸Of Mahli there were Eleazar, who had no sons, ²⁹and Kish, among whose sons was Jerahmeel; ³⁰while the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites by their clans. ³¹And they also,^p to correspond with their fellow tribesmen, the descendants of Aaron, cast lots in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the clan leaders of the priests and the Levites, the head of a clan being treated in the same way as his younger brother.

971-970 B.C.

25 DAVID AND THE HIGH ARMY OFFICERS next set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who should prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. In reference to men who could carry out their service, ²their number for Asaph's sons consisted of Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Ashareliah, sons of Asaph and under his direction, Asaph prophesying^q under the direction of the king. ³As for Jeduthun, Jeduthun's sons were: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, a total of six, who were under the direction of their father, Jeduthun, who with the lyre prophesied in thanksgivings and praises to the LORD. ⁴As for Heman, Heman's sons were: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah,^r Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. ⁵All these were sons of Heman, the king's seer in the words of God; for God exalted his power by giving He-

j) To this class Zacharias, father of John the Baptist, belonged [Luke 1:5].

k) In 23:16, "Shebuel." l) In 23:18, "Shelomith."

m) "Hebron"; for vss. 20-24 amplify 23:12-20 on the four sons of Levi's son Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

n) With Kohath and Gershon, one of the three sons of Levi; vss. 26-30 amplify 23:21-23.

o) A descendant of Merari whose precise relationship is not given.

p) The above mentioned list of non-Aaronic Levites. The list includes men from the clans of Kohath and Merari only, the special activities of Gershon being other than assisting in the temple worship.

q) Many of the O.T. prophecies are in poetic form; and much of the poetry is of prophetic nature, God's messages for His people. Compare the faith shown by the poem that Heman used to name his last nine sons [note to vs. 4], and such Psalms as 50 and 73-83 by Asaph and his descendants.

r) Starting with the sixth son, Hananiah, the names, when translated from Hebrew, form the following prayer of Heman about his work as a singer: [6] Be gracious, O LORD; [7] Be Thou gracious to me! [8] My God, Thee; [9] I have praised; [10] And exalted for helping; [11] Though sitting forlorn; [12] I have proclaimed; [13] Highest; [14] Visions.

man fourteen sons and three daughters. ⁶They were all under the direction of their father to sing in the temple of the LORD,^a for the service of God's temple with cymbals, harps, and lyres. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the direction of the king. ⁷The number of them along with their fellow tribesmen who were trained in singing to the LORD was 288, each one a master musician.

⁸The singers cast lots for their assignments, the younger in the same way as the older, the master as well as the student.^t ⁹The first lot came out for Asaph to Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, he and his fellow tribesmen and sons making a total of twelve. ¹⁰the third for Zaccur, with his sons and fellow tribesmen, twelve; ¹¹the fourth for Izri,^u with his sons and fellow tribesmen, twelve; made up in the same way, ¹²fifth, Nathaniah; ¹³sixth, Bukkiah; ¹⁴seventh, Jesharelah; ¹⁵eighth, Jeshaiiah; ¹⁶ninth, Mattaniah; ¹⁷tenth, Shimei; ¹⁸eleventh, Azarel; ¹⁹twelfth, Hashabiah; ²⁰thirteenth, Shubael; ²¹fourteenth, Mattithiah; ²²fifteenth, Jeremoth; ²³sixteenth, Hananiah; ²⁴seventeenth, Josbekashah; ²⁵eighteenth, Hanani; ²⁶nineteenth, Mallothi; ²⁷twentieth, Eliathah; ²⁸twenty-first, Hothir; ²⁹twenty-second, Giddalti; ³⁰twenty-third, Mahazioth; ³¹and the twenty-fourth, for Romamti-ezer, with his sons and fellow tribesmen, twelve.

971-970 B.C.

26 AS FOR THE CLASSES OF THE gatekeepers: belonging to the descendants of Korah^v was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. ²Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the first-born, second Jediael, third Zebadiah, fourth Jathniel, ³fifth Elam, sixth Jehohanan, and seventh Eliehoenai. ⁴Obed-edom^w also had sons: Shemaiah the first-born, second Jehozabad, third Joah, fourth Sacar, fifth Nethanel, ⁵sixth Ammiel, seventh Issachar, and eighth Peullethai; because God had blessed him. ⁶To his son Shemaiah were born sons, who became ruler over their clans because they were mighty heroes. ⁷Shemaiah's sons, then, were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, and his able brothers, Elihu and Semachiah. ⁸All these, they and their sons and brothers, were among the descendants of Obed-edom, mighty men with capacity for the service, the total for Obed-edom being sixty-two. ⁹Meshelemiah likewise had sons and brothers who were men of ability, totalling eighteen. ¹⁰Then there was Hosah,^x of the descendants of Merari, who had sons: Shimri, the leader (for though he was not the first-born, still his father had made him chief); ¹¹second Hilkiah, third Tebaliah, and fourth Zechariah. All the sons and brothers of Hosah numbered thirteen.

¹²To these classes of the gatekeepers, that is, to the leaders of the men along with their relatives, were assigned various watches for them to serve in the LORD's temple. ¹³They cast lots according to their clans, the younger in the same way as the older, gate by gate. ¹⁴The lot to the east fell to Shelemiah;^y after which they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a counselor who had insight, and his lot came out northward. ¹⁵For Obed-edom it was to the south; for his sons, at the storehouse; ¹⁶and for Shuppim^z and Hosah, to the west, by the gate of Shellecheth on the highway that goes up,^a watch following

s) Including the daughters, it would seem.

t) Because the division by lot into classes seems to have included all 4,000 of the singers [23:5], not just the 288 master musicians.

u) In vs. 3, "Zeri"; compare similar spelling variants for the leaders of the 7th, 11th, 13th, and 15th classes.

v) The notorious Levite who rebelled against Moses; see 6:22 and 9:19 with the accompanying notes. From 9:19 it appears that the full spelling of Kore's father's name was Ebiasaph. "Asaph" could not be the famous musician of that name who belonged to the clan of Gershon, because Korah, and his descendants who were to guard the temple gates, belonged to the clan of Kohath. w) The Levite who had received God's blessing when he kept the ark after the death of Uzza [13:13, 14]. For his appointment, see 15:24, 25 and 16:38.

x) Appointed at the same time as Obed-edom [see 16:38]. The number there mentioned, 68, had increased to 93 men [18 plus 62 plus 13], who constituted the leaders for the total group of the 4,000 gatekeepers [23:5]. y) In vs. 1 and elsewhere, "Meshelemiah."

z) Not otherwise known, but probably, like Hosah, a gatekeeper from the clan of Merari.

a) From the lower city, through the Tyropeon Valley, to the higher elevation of the western side of the temple.

upon watch. ¹⁷To the east were posted six Levites, to the north four each day, to the south four daily, at the storehouse two posts of two each, ¹⁸and at the annex^b to the west four at the highway and two at the annex itself. ¹⁹These made up the classes of the gatekeepers, who belonged to the descendants of Korah and of Merari.

²⁰Among the men of Levi, Ahijah was in charge of the treasures, both those of God's temple and those of the dedicated gifts. ²¹Then the sons of Ladan, that is, the sons of Ladan's branch of the family of Gershon, and who specifically were the group of Jehieli;^c ²²these members of the group of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasures of the LORD's temple. ²³Similarly, for the members of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel,^d ²⁴Shebuel the son of Gershon and grandson of Moses had been the chief treasure-officer; ²⁵but the line of descent from Eliezer^e went through Rehabiah, Jeshaiiah, Joram, and Zichri, down to Shelomoth. ²⁶This Shelomoth and his brothers were in charge of all the treasures of the dedicated gifts which King David, the clan leaders, the commanders of the units of 1000 and 100, and the high army officers had consecrated;^f ²⁷for out of the wars and their plunder they had made dedications for the maintenance of the LORD's temple. ²⁸Shelomith^g and his brothers, moreover, were in charge of everything that had been consecrated by Samuel the seer, by Saul the son of Kish, by Abner the son of Ner, and by Joab the son of Zeruiiah, by every man who had made dedications.

²⁹Among the members of Izhar, Chenaniah and his sons were appointed to the outside work over Israel, to act as officers and judges. ³⁰Then from the members of Hebron, Hashabiah and his relatives, who numbered 1,700 able men, had the oversight of that part of Israel that lay west of the Jordan, both for all the LORD's work and for the service of the king. ³¹Also from the members of Hebron was the leader Jerijah, because in the fortieth year of the reign of David, men of Hebron were picked out by their clan genealogies, when mighty warriors among them were found at Jazer in Gilead. ³²His relatives numbered 2,700 men of power, clan leaders whom King David appointed over the men of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasse^h for every affair of God and the king.

971-970 B.C.

27 THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL BY their number, the clan leaders, the commanders of units of 1,000 and 100 and their officers who served the king in all the affairs of the military units were organized into army corps that were called to active duty and then released month by month throughout all the months of the year, each corps of which consisted of 24,000 men. ²Over the first corps, active in the first month, was Jashobeamⁱ the son of Zabdiel, his unit consisting of 24,000. ³He was of the descendants of Perez^j and was commander of all the officers of the corps for the first month. ⁴Over the corps for the second month was Dodai, the descendant of Ahoah, in whose unit, which also consisted of 24,000, was Mikloth as the executive officer. ⁵The commander of the third corps for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada the priest, one of the high officers, his unit likewise consisting of 24,000. ⁶He was that Benaiah^k who was a hero among the thirty, and indeed over the thirty.

b) The form is uncertain, perhaps a colonnade or court.

c) Jehiel, Zetham, and Joel were sons of Ladan; but Jehiel was the accepted leader among the brothers [23:7]. d) The divisions of the clan of Kohath.

e) The brother of Shebuel's father Gershon [23:15-17].

f) See 18:11 and II Chron. 5:1 for David's devotion in this regard.

g) A variant spelling for Shelomoth; comp. vs. 25 and 26.

h) The tribes of Israel east of the Jordan. Being dedicated to God's law, the Levites could be entrusted with important public offices.

i) These "lieutenant generals" who commanded the twelve corps were distinguished military figures and are elsewhere described, with occasional variant spellings of their names.

j) One of the two chief divisions of the tribe of Judah [2:4].

k) See 11:22-25 and the note to 11:11.

His son Ammizabad was in his own contingent. ⁷The fourth, for the fourth month, was Asahel the brother of Joab, whose place was taken by his son Zebadiah after him, his unit consisting of 24,000 men. ⁸The fifth commander for the fifth month was Shammuth of the clan of Izrah,¹ his unit consisting of 24,000 men; ⁹and, in the same way, sixth, Ira son of Ikesh, from Tekoa; ¹⁰seventh, Helez from Beth-pelet, of the descendants of Ephraim; ¹¹eighth, Sibbecai from Hushah, of the clan of Zerah; ¹²ninth, Abiezer from Anathoth, of the men of Benjamin; ¹³tenth, Maharai from Netophah, of the clan of Zerah; ¹⁴eleventh, Benaiah from Pirathon, of the descendants of Ephraim; ¹⁵and the twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai from Netophah, of the family of Othniel,^m his unit like the others consisting of 24,000 men.

¹⁶Then there were those over the tribes of Israel: for the men of Reuben, the tribal prince Eliezer the son of Zichri; for the men of Simeon, Shephatiah the son of Maacah; ¹⁷for Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel, with Zadok over Aaron's section; ¹⁸for Judah, Elihu,ⁿ one of David's brothers; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael; ¹⁹for Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel; ²⁰for the descendants of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah; ²¹for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah; and for the Gilead half of Manasseh, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;^o ²²and for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel. ²³David, however, did not take the number of those who were twenty years old and under, because the LORD had promised to multiply Israel like the stars of heaven.^p ²⁴Joab the son of Zeruiah did begin a census, but he never completed it. Moreover, because of it there was anger against Israel, and the total was not entered in the figures of King David's chronicle.

²⁵The man in charge of the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel; while over the stores of supplies in the field, the cities, the villages, and the fortified points, was Jonathan the son of Uzziah. ²⁶Over those who did the field work for tilling the soil was Ezri the son of Chelub; ²⁷over the vineyards, Shimei of Ramah; over the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars, Zabdi from Shiphmoth; ²⁸over the olive and mulberry trees in the lowland^q area, Baal-hanan from Geder; over the stores of oil, Joash; ²⁹over the herds that grazed in Sharon, Shitrai who was himself of Sharon, and over those in the valleys, Shaphat the son of Adlai; ³⁰over the camels, Obil of Ishmael; over the donkeys, Jehdeiah from Meronoth; ³¹and over the flocks, Jaziz the Hagrite. All these were the overseers of the property that belonged to King David.^r ³²David's uncle Jonathan, being a man of understanding and literary ability, was a counselor; Jehiel the son of a man of Hachmon tutored the king's sons; ³³Ahithophel was counselor to the king, though Hushai of Erech was the king's confidant; ³⁴and after Ahithophel,^s the post was filled by Jehoiada the son of Benaiah and by Abiathar. The commander of the king's armed forces was Joab.

970 B.C.

28 DAVID ASSEMBLED AT JERUSALEM all the leaders of Israel, including the tribal princes, the officers of the army corps that served the king, the commanders of the units of 1000 and 100, and the overseers of all the property and livestock that belonged

1) The other chief division of Judah [2:4].

m) The first of the Hebrew judges [Judg. 1:13; 3:9-11]. n) Elsewhere called Eliab [2:13].

o) The famous general and uncle of King Saul from Benjamin, [26:28 and I Sam. 14:50; compare with I Chron. 8:33; 9:39].

p) The promise given over 1,000 years before to Abraham [Gen. 22:17]. David, therefore, did not order a total numbering of the people, which would have left the impression of questioning the prophecy. He had, however, through lack of faith in the power of God to protect his kingdom, taken a sinful census of the men of fighting age [21:1-8].

q) Hebrew "Shephelah," between the Philistine coastal plain and the inland Judean hills.

r) This list of high officials supplements the earlier "cabinet" presented in 18:15-17 and II Sam. 20:23-26.

s) Ahithophel had deserted David for Absalom [II Sam. 15:12,31 and 16:20-23], but when thwarted by Hushai [15:32,37 and 17:1-16] had committed suicide [17:23].

to the king and his sons, together with the officials, the mighty men, and every powerful hero. ²Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brothers and my people. I myself had in mind to build a temple as a resting place for the ark of the LORD's covenant and for the footstool of our God,^t even making preparations for building. ³But God told me: You are not to build a temple to My name, because you are a man of wars and bloodshed;^u ⁴even though the LORD, the God of Israel, had chosen me from all my father's house to be king over Israel forever.^v For He did indeed choose Judah to be ruler and within the tribe of Judah my father's house and among my father's sons He chose me to be made king over the whole of Israel."^w

⁵"Then out of all my sons, because the LORD has given me many children, He chose my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the LORD's dominion over Israel. ⁶He told me, moreover: Your son Solomon, he will build My house and My courts — for I have chosen that one to be My son, and I will be his Father ⁷and I will establish his kingdom forever, if he loyally carries out my commands and judgments as is done at present. ⁸Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, which is the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God, so that you may retain possession of this good land and transmit it as an inheritance to your children after you for ever.

⁹"As for you, my son Solomon, acknowledge your father's God and serve Him wholeheartedly with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every development of the thoughts; if you seek Him, He will be found by you, but if you leave Him,

He will reject you for ever. ¹⁰Take note now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong and do it!"

¹¹Then David handed his son Solomon the plans for the porch and the temple structures, its treasuries, upper rooms, inner rooms, and the place for the mercy seat.^x ¹²The plans, moreover, included all that came by the Spirit, who was with him:^y the courts of the house of the LORD; all the surrounding rooms for the treasuries of God's temple and the treasuries of the dedicated gifts; ¹³for the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, for any work of the service of the LORD's temple; and for all the equipment used in this service, ¹⁴requisite weight in gold for all the articles of every kind of service; all the silver objects by weight for all the articles of every kind of service; ^{15a}a weight in gold for the golden lampstands and their lamps according to the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and the silver lampstands in agreement with the weight of each lampstand, and its lamps corresponding to the service of each lampstand; ¹⁶also the weight in gold for the tables of the bread which was set in rows,^z table by table, and the silver for the silver tables; ¹⁷the forks, the basins, and the jars made of pure gold, and the golden bowls by weight for each bowl and the silver bowls by weight for each bowl; ¹⁸the incense altar made with refined gold by weight; and the plans for the chariot,^a the golden cherubim that spread out and made a covering over the ark of the LORD's covenant. ¹⁹"The LORD has given instructions in writing from His hand, which," (said David,) "came upon me, about all this, all the working out of the plans."

²⁰So David told his son Solomon, "Be strong and courageous, and do it!"

t) The "mercy seat," that covered the ark and above which the cloud of God's glorious presence appeared [cf. II Sam. 22:11 and the footnote].

u) Compare 22:7-16 and the notes. David had spoken of these matters with Solomon privately.

v) His dynasty, culminating in Christ, would be eternal [17:11].

w) For this progressively narrowing choice, see Gen. 49:8-10, I Sam. 16:1-13, and I Chron. 22:9-10. x) See the note on vs. 2.

y) Comp. vs. 19; the plans for the temple were divinely inspired, as had been those of Moses' tabernacle [Ex. 25:9, 40; 27:8]. Objects and their arrangement were typical of the way salvation was to be accomplished by Christ [Heb. 8-9, especially 8:5]. z) Comp. 9:32.

a) Cherubim are angelic beings, appearing in human form but also having wings [Ezek. 1:5; comp. Ezek. 10:1]. God's "riding upon" them [II Sam. 22:11], seems to be associated with His glorious presence between the cherubim on the ark [see I Chron. 13:6; Ex. 25:20-21].

Do not fear; be not downhearted, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not abandon you; He will not leave you until all the work of attending to the LORD's temple is completed. ²¹Look at the divisions of the priests and of the Levites for all the service of God's temple! Furthermore, for each task you will have with you all kinds of volunteers with skill for any task, along with the leaders as well as the whole people for all your orders."

970 B.C.

29 KING DAVID THEN WENT ON TO address the whole assembly, "My son Solomon, the one whom alone God has chosen, is still a youth and inexperienced;^b the work, however, is great, because the edifice is not to be for man but for the LORD God. ²For this temple of my God, therefore, I have, to the best of my ability, prepared gold, silver, bronze, iron, and timbers, each for its appropriate use, carnelian stones and jewels for settings, stones for hard mortar and mosaics, all kinds of precious stones, and large quantities of alabaster. ³Furthermore, because of my deep interest in my God's temple, I have, over and beyond all I have provided for the sacred temple, a private treasure of gold and silver, which I have designated for the temple of my God: 393,000 pounds of gold of the kind that comes from Ophir^c and 815,000 pounds of refined silver^d for overlaying the walls of the buildings; ⁶gold for the gold articles and silver for the silver things, and for any assignment at the hands of the engravers. So now, who will make a voluntary offering this day, consecrating himself to the LORD?"

⁶At that, the clan leaders, Israel's tribal princes, the commanders of the units of 1000 and 100, and the supervisors of the king's business responded with a voluntary offering ⁷and gave for the service of God's temple 655,000^e pounds plus 50,000 dollars worth^f of gold, 1,164,000 pounds of silver, 1,656,000 pounds of bronze, and 9,200,000 pounds of iron.^g ⁸Also, whoever found precious stones in his possession delivered them over to the treasury of the LORD's temple under the direction of Jehiel,^h descended from Gershon. ⁹The people, moreover, rejoiced over their freewill offering, because they offered to the LORD voluntarily and wholeheartedly.ⁱ King David too felt deeply happy.

¹⁰In the presence then of the whole assembly, David expressed his adoration to the LORD. David declared, "Blessed be Thou, LORD God of our father Israel,^j from eternity to eternity. ¹¹Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the pre-eminence, and the majesty;^k for everything in heaven and earth is Thine. Thine, O LORD, is the dominion and the exalting of Thyself as head over all. ¹²Wealth and honor come from Thy presence; Thou art the ruler over all. In Thy hand are power and might; it lies in Thy hand to make anything great or strong. ¹³So now, our God, we are offering thanks to Thee and are praising Thy glorious name; — ¹⁴Yet who am I, or who are my people, that we should have the ability to make such a voluntary offering? For everything comes from Thee, and it is from Thine own hand that we have given back to Thee.^l ¹⁵We are mere tenants before Thee, temporary residents, as all our ancestors have been; our days on the earth are like a shadow,

b) This section contains thoughts similar to those expressed at the time David commenced his preparations for the temple [see 22:5,14].

c) High quality [see II Chron. 8:18; 9:10].

d) Troy weight; Hebrew, 3000 gold and 7000 silver talents, or about $90,000,000, and $14,000,000, respectively [cf. 22:14]. In ancient days, however, its purchasing power was much greater. e) Troy weight; Hebrew, 5000 gold talents, or about $150,000,000.

f) 10,000 darics, Persian gold coin worth about $5. It circulated when Chronicles was written in the days after the exile, so the author [Ezra?] used it to describe this offering in 970 B.C., when coining had still been unknown.

g) Troy weight; Hebrew 10,000, 18,000, and 100,000 talents respectively. The silver would be worth about $20,000,000. h) The official family of temple treasures [26:21-22].

i) As all offerings to God should be [II Cor. 9:7]. j) Jacob [Gen. 32:28].

k) From these praises come the words at the close of our Lord's prayer [Matt. 6:13].

l) This is the basis of stewardship. Everything we have and are is from God, being held in trust by us, and it should therefore be used for Him.

and we are without permanence. ¹⁶O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided to build Thee a house for Thy holy name comes from Thy hand; all of it is Thine!

¹⁷"But O my God, I know that Thou dost test the heart and dost take pleasure in what is right; so I, in the honesty of my heart, willingly offered all these things. Now then, with what gladness have I seen Thy people, who are present here, make a voluntary offering to Thee! ¹⁸O LORD, the God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, preserve this for ever as the attitude of the thoughts of Thy people's hearts; and direct their hearts toward Thyself. ¹⁹And grant my son Solomon a heart of integrity to carry out Thy commands, Thy solemn charges, and Thy statutes to do everything and to erect the edifice, for which I have made the preparations."

²⁰Then David directed all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God!" So the whole assembly expressed their adoration of the LORD God of their fathers, bowing down and prostrating themselves to the LORD and to the king. ²¹The following day they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered to the LORD burnt offerings: 1,000 each of bullocks, rams, and lambs, with their corresponding drink offerings, also a large number of sacrifices for all Israel.^m ²²Thus they ate and drank that day with great joy in the presence of the LORD. Then for a second time they made David's son Solomon king and anointed him as ruler for the LORD,ⁿ with Zadok as priest. ²³So Solomon took his seat on the LORD's throne as king in the place of his father David; he prospered, and all Israel became obedient to him, ²⁴all the officers and men of power, as well as the whole number of King David's sons,^o rendering their submission to Solomon the king. ²⁵The LORD, moreover, highly magnified Solomon in the eyes of all Israel, bestowing upon him royal majesty such as no king over Israel before him had enjoyed.

970 B.C.

²⁶David the son of Jesse was king of all Israel. ²⁷The time he reigned over Israel was forty years, ruling seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ²⁸Then at a good old age he died, advanced in years, wealthy and honored, and with his own son Solomon taking up the rule after him. ²⁹Now the affairs of King David, from first to last, are recorded in the works of Samuel the seer, Nathan the prophet, and Gad the receiver of visions, ³⁰together with all his reign and power and the times that transpired for him, for Israel, and for all the kingdoms of the lands.

m) Probably "offerings of peace," which were eaten by the people in a feast, as the LORD's guests. n) He had already been proclaimed king, but probably there was but one anointing [23:1 and see I Kings 1]. Confirmatory rites were of value, particularly where there had been a disputed succession. Cf. I Sam. 10:24 and 11:15, on Saul.

o) Particularly Adonijah, his older brother, who had attempted to take the throne [I Kings 1:53].

THE SECOND BOOK OF

CHRONICLES^a

970 B.C.

1 SOLOMON, THE SON OF DAVID, WAS established in his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with him and magnified him greatly. ²Then Solomon, when he had given the word to all Israel, to the leaders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every prince of Israel and all the heads of clans, ³went with the whole congregation to the high place in Gibeon, because at that place was God's meeting-tent—the one which Moses, the LORD's servant, had made in the wilderness. ⁴For, though David had brought the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to a prepared place in Jerusalem where he had pitched a tent for it,^b ⁵the bronze altar, made by Bezaleel son of Uri, son of Hur, still stood in front of the LORD's tabernacle, and Solomon and the assembly resorted to that place. ⁶There Solomon sacrificed before the LORD on the bronze altar of the meeting-tent, presenting on it 1000 burnt offerings.

⁷That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him: What shall I give you? Ask Me! ⁸Solomon answered God, "Thou didst treat David my father with much loving-kindness and hast made me king in his place. ⁹Now, O LORD God, confirm Thy promise to David my father,^c since Thou hast made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰Give me wisdom and knowledge that I may properly conduct myself before this people, for who is able to govern this great people of Thine?"

¹¹Then God replied to Solomon: Because you had this in mind and did not ask for wealth, riches, and honor, or the death of your adversaries, or even for long life, but rather asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge so as to govern wisely My people over whom I have made you king, ¹²therefore, wisdom and knowledge are granted you, and I will add to these wealth, riches, and honor such as none of your royal predecessors have had, nor will any successor compare with you. ¹³So Solomon returned to Jerusalem from the high place of Gibeon, from before the congregation's meeting-tent; and he reigned over Israel.

¹⁴Solomon amassed chariots and cavalry^d so that he had 1400 chariots and 12,000 cavalry, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. ¹⁵The king also made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as are sycamore trees in the lowland. ¹⁶Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt, a caravan of the king's traders purchasing each drove for a set price. ¹⁷They brought a chariot out of Egypt for 400 dollars in silver, and a horse for 100,^e for in this way they were export agents^f also for all the kings of the Hittites and of Syria.

a) If Chronicles continues I Chronicles as part of one originally unified book.

b) The old tabernacle and bronze altar were at Gibeon, though David had prepared a place in Jerusalem for the ark as described in I Chron. 15. c) Recorded in I Chron. 22:9,10.

d) An early mistake of Solomon; accumulation of horses was divinely disapproved by God (Deut. 17:16). e) Heb., 600 shekels, and 150 shekels. f) The Israelites had aptitude as middlemen.

970 B.C.

2 SOLOMON DETERMINED TO BUILD a temple in honor of the name of the LORD, and a palace for himself; ²and for this work he enrolled 70,000 burden bearers, 80,000 woodcutters in the mountains, and 3600 foremen over them.

³Solomon also sent to Hiram^g king of Tyre, saying, "You were a great help to David my father in sending him cedars to build himself a house in which to live. ⁴Now you will observe that I am about to construct a temple in honor of the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him so as to offer before Him fragrant incense offerings morning and evening, on Sabbaths and new moons, and at the set occasions of the LORD our God, this being ordained for Israel eternally.

⁵"The temple I am about to build must be great, because our God is greater than all other gods. ⁶Yet, who is capable of building Him a temple, since heaven—yes, even the highest heaven—cannot contain Him? Who, indeed, am I that I should build Him a temple, though only to offer incense before Him? ⁷So now, send me a skilled craftsman for working in gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and with purple, crimson, and blue, and proficient in carving engravings, along with the experts who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. ⁸Also send me cedar, cypress, and red sandalwood from Lebanon,^h for I realize that your servants are experienced in felling the trees of Lebanon. And I assure you that my servants will work with your servants, ⁹to prepare me a large amount of lumber, since the temple I am about to build will be great and marvelous. ¹⁰In addition, I will give to your servants, the woodcutters, 20,000 sacksⁱ of threshed wheat, 20,000 sacks of barley, 20,000 barrels^j of wine, and 20,000 barrels of oil."

¹¹Then Hiram king of Tyre replied in a letter which he sent to Solomon, "Because the LORD loved His people, He has made you king over them. ¹²Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who made the heaven and the earth," continued Hiram, "who has given David the king a wise son possessing understanding and ability to build a temple to the LORD and a palace for himself. ¹³So now I will send a master craftsman, my famed Hiram, skilled in understanding—¹⁴the son of a woman from the people of Dan,^k whose father was a man of Tyre—expert at working in gold, silver, copper, iron, and stone; in wood, blue, and purple; in fine linen and scarlet, and at carving all kinds of engravings, and at inventing any device assigned him—to work along with your experts and those of my master David your father. ¹⁵Regarding the wheat, barley, oil, and wine which my master mentioned, let him ship it to his servants,^l ¹⁶and we will cut as much timber of Lebanon as you need and bring it by sea in floats to Joppa, that you may convey it up to Jerusalem."

¹⁷Then Solomon registered all the aliens in the land of Israel after the census which David his father took of them, and they were found to be 153,600, ¹⁸of whom he made 70,000 burden bearers, 80,000 woodcutters in the mountains, and 3600 foremen to keep the people at work.

966 B.C.

3 SOLOMON BEGAN TO BUILD THE temple of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah,^m where the LORD had appeared to David his father, making preparation at the site chosen by David, on the threshing floor of Ornanⁿ the Jebusite. ²He started building on the second day of the second

g) Heb., "Hiram," called Hiram throughout I and II Kings, but to be distinguished from Hiram, the master craftsman, who is sometimes referred to as "Hiram" in Kings.

h) These are not commands but trade orders. Solomon would pay for deliveries.

i) Heb., "cors." A cor—10 bushels.

j) Heb., "baths." A bath—9 gallons.

k) Probably of Dan by birth, though a widow of a man of Naphtali [I Kings 7:14]. Solomon's choice of a man half-Hebrew undoubtedly was pleasing to his people.

l) King Hiram's workmen, for their daily food.

m) Of redemptive significance because of David's sacrifice there [I Chron. 21:18-30] and as the probable site of Abraham's offering of Isaac [Gen. 22:2 ff., Heb. 11:17].

n) Spelled "Araunah," in II Sam. 24:16.

month^o during the fourth year of his reign.

³This is the foundation which Solomon laid for building the house of God: it was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. ⁴The porch at the front end of the house reached across the 30-foot width of the house and was 180 feet high, covered on the inside with pure gold. ⁵He veneered the large room with cypress, overlaid with fine gold on which he designed palms and chain work. ⁶The house was decorated with precious stones for beauty; its gold was Parvaim gold,^p and the structure was overlaid with gold. This included its beams, its sills, its doors, and its walls on which cherubim were carved.

⁸He also constructed the room of the Holy of Holies, measuring 30 by 30 feet—the width of the temple—and overlaid it with 18,000,000 dollars^q worth of fine gold. ⁹The weight of the nails was 26 ounces^r of gold. The upper rooms also were overlaid with gold.

¹⁰For the room of the Holy of Holies he made two cherubim of sculptured work, overlaid with gold. ¹¹Their wing-spread totalled 30 feet, since each had one wing 7½ feet long touching the wall of the building and the other wing 7½ feet long, grazing the wing of the other cherub. ¹²The two cherubim thus spread across the 30 feet. ¹³They stood on their feet, facing the house. ¹⁴The veil^s was made of violet, purple, crimson, and fine linen and adorned with cherubim.

¹⁵Finally, in front of the house he set up two pillars, 52 feet high, each crowned with a 7½-foot capital. ¹⁶He made chains in the inner room to put on top of the pillars, fashioning also 100 pomegranates,^t which he attached to the chains. ¹⁷Thus he erected the pillars in front of the temple, one at the right and one at the left, naming the former Jachin^u and the latter Boaz.^v

966 B.C.

4 FURTHERMORE, HE CONSTRUCTED a bronze altar 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 15 feet high. ²He made the cast reservoir^w circular, 15 feet in diameter and 7½ feet high; a 45-foot tape would reach around it. ³Figures like oxen stood around within the 15-foot diameter underneath the reservoir and surrounded it; these were cast in two rows, simultaneously with its casting. ⁴The reservoir rested on top of 12 oxen, three of them facing north, three west, three south, and three east, and all having their rear sections inward. ⁵It was a handbreadth thick with a brim made like a cup's brim, like a lily blossom; when full, it held 3,000 barrels.^x ⁶He fashioned ten basins for washing, placing five at the right side and five at the left, in which they rinsed what was to become the burnt offering; but the reservoir was for the priests to wash in.

⁷He molded ten golden lampstands according to pattern and set them in the temple, five on the right hand and five on the left. ⁸He also built ten tables and placed them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left, and he made a hundred golden bowls. ⁹Further, he constructed the priests' court and the great court, with its doors, and he overlaid their doors with bronze. ¹⁰He put the reservoir on the right side of the temple, facing south-east. ¹¹Huram^y made the pots, shovels, and basins.

So Hiram finished doing the work which he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God: ¹²two pillars, the bowls, and the capitals on top of the two pillars, the two pieces of network to cover these two bowls of the capitals surmounting the pillars, ¹³four hundred pomegranates for the two pieces of network, two rows of pomegranates for each piece of network to cover the two bowls of the capitals on the pillars. ¹⁴It was he who made the

o) The month Ziv [I Kings 6:1] which began in mid-April.

p) Probably named for the region where it was mined, as Ophir in S.E. Arabia mentioned in ch. 9:10, Job 28:16. q) Heb., "600 talents." A talent—92 lb. Troy.

r) Heb., "50 shekels," or 400 dollars. A shekel—.512 oz.

s) Which hung in front of the Holy of Holies.

t) A common Palestinian fruit, looking somewhat similar to an apple. u) "He shall establish."

v) "Strength," or "In it is strength." w) Heb., "the sea," so called because of its great size; it was a huge basin used by the priests for washing.

x) See ch. 2:10. y) Of Tyre, under orders of King Solomon.

stands and the basins on the stands, ¹⁶the reservoir, and the twelve oxen under it.

¹⁶Now Hiram, his honored craftsman, had used polished bronze to make for King Solomon the pots, shovels, pronged meat-forks, and all their equipment for the house of the LORD. ¹⁷The king did his casting in the Jordan plain in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah. ¹⁸Solomon made so large a number of all these articles that the weight of the bronze was not calculated.

¹⁹Solomon made out of fine gold all the things which were for the temple of God, including the golden altar, the tables which held the showbread, ²⁰the lampstands and their lamps which, by commandment, were to burn in front of the inner room; ²¹even the flowers, lamps, and tongs were of gold — perfect gold! ²²The snuffers, basins, spoons, and fire pans, too, were of fine gold. Even the doorway of the house, the inner doors to the Holy of Holies, and the doors of the house — that is, the temple — were of gold.

960 B.C.

5 AT VARIOUS TIMES, WHILE THE work which Solomon did for the house of the LORD was being finished, he brought the things which David his father had dedicated,^z both the silver and the gold, and all the items, to store them in the treasuries of the house of God.

²Then Solomon assembled in Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the tribal heads, princes of the clans of the people of Israel, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion. ³So, when all the men of Israel were gathered to the king at the feast — the feast of the seventh month^a — ⁴then all the elders of Israel presented themselves, ⁵and the Levites lifted up the ark.^b The priests and Levites brought up the ark, the meeting-tent, and all the sacred articles which were in the tent. ⁶Then King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, which was assembled with him in front of the ark, sacrificed so many sheep and oxen that they could neither be numbered nor calculated. ⁷So the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD into its place under the wings of the cherubim in the Holy of Holies, in the inner chamber of the temple. ⁸For the cherubim stretched out their wings over the place for the ark, so that these formed a covering over the whole ark and its carrying poles. ⁹These poles, however, were so long that their ends beyond the ark were visible at the front of the inner room but did not show outside, and it remains there up to the present. ¹⁰Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets which Moses had put there at Horeb,^c where the LORD had made a covenant with the people of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

¹¹Then the priests went out of the holy place; for all the priests who were present had dedicated themselves, not observing the priestly rotation.^d ¹²All the singing Levites, too, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and brothers, dressed in fine linen, were standing at the east of the altar with cymbals, lyres, and harps, along with 120 priests who sounded the trumpets. ¹³Then the trumpeters and singers united to lead out as one voice to praise and give thanks to the LORD. They also burst out with the sound of trumpets, cymbals, and instruments of music in praise to the LORD, "Because He is good, because His loving-kindness is everlasting." It was then that the house, the LORD's temple, was filled with a cloud, ¹⁴so that the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

960 B.C.

6 SOLOMON SAID, "THE LORD HAS declared that He would dwell in

z) David desired to build the house himself [I Chron. 17], but being forbidden to do so, he made all possible preparations. These treasures had mostly been obtained through his successful warfare.

a) Probably as part of the completion of the temple, the month prior to the completion month mentioned in I Kings 6:38.

b) Only Levites were allowed to do this work [Num. 4:15] — a lesson deeply illustrated by the death of Uzzah [I Chron. 13:1-10] and henceforth strictly observed by David and Solomon [I Chron. 15:2]. c) Commanded in Ex. 25:16; accomplished in Ex. 40:20.

d) On such an important occasion the usual division of ministries was abandoned, all the priests taking part in the ceremony, regardless of their turn to serve.

the heavy cloud.^e ²I now have built a residence for Thee, yes, a place for Thy continual presence." ³Then the king turned around and blessed all the congregation of Israel while the whole Israelite assembly stood.

⁴He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who by His hands has brought to pass that which He spoke by His mouth to David my father, saying: ⁵From the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt I have not chosen any city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house where My name should be, neither have I selected a man to be ruler over My people Israel. ⁶But now I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.^f ⁷When David my father planned on building a temple to the name of the LORD God of Israel, ⁸the LORD said to David my father: You have done well that you had in mind to build a temple to My name; ⁹nevertheless, you yourself shall not build the house, but your son, who shall come forth out of your loins, is the one who will build the temple to My name.^g ¹⁰And the LORD kept His word which He spoke, for I have arisen in the place of David my father and sit on the throne of Israel as the LORD promised; ¹¹I have now built this temple to the name of the LORD God of Israel, and there I have placed the ark in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the children of Israel."

¹²He stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the congregation of Israel and spread forth his hands, ¹³for Solomon had made a bronze platform, seven and a half feet square and four and a half feet high, which he had put in the center of the outer court; and he stood upon it, knelt down on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, spread out his hands toward heaven, ¹⁴and said,^h "O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like Thee in heaven or on earth, who dost observe the covenant and faithful love with Thy servants who walk before Thee with all their hearts. ¹⁵Thou hast done for David my father what Thou didst promise him, for Thou hast spoken with Thy mouth and hast performed it with Thy hand just as it is now. ¹⁶So then, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father what Thou hast spoken to him, saying: You shall not lack a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if onlyⁱ your sons will take heed to their way to walk in My Law as you have walked before Me. ¹⁷Now then, O LORD, the God of Israel, make Thy word come true which Thou hast spoken to Thy servant David.

¹⁸"But will God actually dwell with men upon earth? For see, even heaven, yes, the highest heaven, cannot contain Thee; how much less this house which I have built! ¹⁹Yet, have regard to the prayer and supplication of Thy servant, O LORD my God, to listen to the appeal and the prayer which Thy servant is praying before Thee. ²⁰Let Thine eyes be open toward this house day and night, even toward this place where Thou didst promise to put Thy name, and listen to the prayer which Thy servant makes toward this place. ²¹Be Thou attentive to the supplications of Thy servant and of Thy people Israel when they pray toward this place, and hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place; and when Thou hearest, forgive.

²²"If a man sins against his neighbor, who then puts him under oath, forcing him to swear, and he comes in to swear the oath before Thine altar in this house, ²³then hear Thou from heaven, take action, and judge between Thy servants, requiting the wicked by bringing his conduct upon his own head and vindicating the righteous by giving to him according to his righteousness.

²⁴"Should Thy people Israel be defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against Thee, but they turn

e) Mentioned in Ex. 19:9; Lev. 16:2. f) Note I Chron. 17:4-14. g) Recorded in II Sam. 7:13. h) Solomon's prayer, one of the most beautiful of Scripture, shows much familiarity with, and reverence for, God's warnings given to all Israel through Moses in Lev. 26, and Deut. 28. i) Solomon seemed conscious of the condition required for blessing [see I Kings 2:4; 6:12,13]. Note also the frequent reminders to God of His promises — a practice in prayer much used in O.T. [as in Ex. 32:13; Num. 14:18; Neh. 1:8,9; Dan. 9:13].

again to Thee, confess Thy name, pray, and make supplication in this house, ²⁶then hear Thou from heaven, forgive the sin of Thy people Israel, and bring them back to the land which Thou gavest them and their fathers.^j ²⁶"If heaven is shut up so that there is no rain because they have sinned against Thee, but they pray toward this place and confess Thy name, turning also from their sin because Thou hast afflicted them,^k ²⁷then hear Thou in heaven, forgive the sin of Thy servants and of Thy people Israel — when Thou shalt instruct them about the good way in which they should walk — and give rain on Thy land which Thou hast given Thy people for an inheritance.

²⁸"When there is famine in the land, or pestilence, blight or mildew, locust or grasshopper, or when their enemies besiege them in the city areas, or when there is any other plague or disease, ²⁹then if prayer or supplication be made by any man or by all Thy people Israel — who knows each his own plague and pain, so that he spreads out his hands toward this house — ³⁰then hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place, and forgive, rendering to each man, whose heart Thou knowest according to all his ways — for only Thou dost know the hearts of the children of men — ³¹so that they may revere Thee and walk in Thy ways as long as they live in the land which Thou didst give to our fathers.

³²"Also when a foreigner who is not of Thy people Israel but comes from a distant country^l because of Thy great name and Thy strong hand and Thine outstretched arm,^m who shall come and pray toward this house, ³³hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place, and do Thou according to all which the stranger shall request of Thee, so that all people of the earth may know Thy name and revere Thee, as do Thy people Israel, and that they may realize that this house which I have built is called by Thy name.

³⁴"Should Thy people go to war against their enemies by Thy commission and pray to Thee toward this city which Thou hast chosen and this house which I have built for Thy name, ³⁵then listen Thou from heaven to their prayer and their supplication and defend their cause. ³⁶If they sin against Thee — for there is none who does not sin — and Thou be angry with them and dost deliver them to their enemy, so that the victors take them captive to a country either far away or near by, ³⁷even then, if they take it to heart — while in the country to which they were taken captive — and repent, making supplication to Thee in the country of their captivity, confessing, 'We have sinned; we have acted perversely, we have done wickedly,'ⁿ ³⁸and so return to Thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the country of their captivity to which they were taken prisoner, praying toward their own country which Thou gavest to their fathers, and toward this city which Thou hast chosen, toward this house which I have built for Thy name, ³⁹then hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplication; maintain their right, and forgive Thy people, who have sinned against Thee.

⁴⁰"Now, my God, let Thine eyes be open and Thine ears attentive to prayer from this place. ⁴¹Arise now, O LORD God, unto Thy rest, Thou and the ark of Thy strength. Let Thy priests, O LORD God, be robed with salvation, and let Thy saints rejoice in prosperity. ⁴²O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Thine anointed one.^o Remember Thy acts of loving-kindness to David Thy servant."

7 WHEN SOLOMON HAD FINISHED praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple, ²so that the priests could not enter the LORD's

j) As every one who leads audibly in public worship should aim to represent before God the needs and aspirations of the group, so Solomon is broad in remembering the situations that will occur among Jehovah's worshippers.

k) "Sorrow works repentance," [II Cor. 7:10; comp. Ps. 119:67,71]. l) Missionary interest.

m) Comp. Isa. 52:10, and our "roll up the sleeves," an expression of power and action.

n) Giving vent to deep contrition, as in Ps. 106:6; Dan. 9:5.

o) Formula used when the ark was moved during the wilderness journey and preserved in Ps. 132:8-10; see also Num. 10:35,36.

house because the glory of the LORD had filled His temple.^p ³All the people of Israel were looking on, when both the fire and the glory of the LORD came down on the temple — then they bowed down upon the pavement with their faces to the ground and worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, "Because He is good; because His loving-kindness is everlasting."

⁴Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. ⁵King Solomon himself offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep; in this manner the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶The priests were standing at their posts, the Levites also with instruments of music for the LORD which David the king had made for giving thanks to the LORD, "Because His loving-kindness is everlasting," when David gave praise through their service. As the priests blew the trumpets before them, all Israel stood. ⁷Solomon consecrated the inside of the court which was in front of the LORD's house, where he offered up the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, for the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to hold the burnt offerings and the meal offerings and the fat.

⁸So Solomon at that time held the feast seven days and all Israel with him, a very large gathering from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt. ⁹On the eighth day they held a solemn meeting, for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days and the feast seven days. ¹⁰Finally, on the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he dismissed the people to their tents, joyful and glad-hearted over the good which the LORD had done for David and Solomon and Israel, His people. ¹¹So Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's palace, and he succeeded in all that entered his mind to do in the house of the LORD and in his own palace.

¹²The LORD appeared to Solomon by night and said to him: I have heard

your prayer and have selected this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.^q ¹³If I shut up heaven so there is no rain, or if I command the grasshopper to devour the land, or if I send epidemic among My people, ¹⁴and My people, who are called by My name, humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and forgive their sin and heal their land. ¹⁵My eyes shall be open and My ears attentive to prayer from this place, ¹⁶for I have now chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever, and My eyes and My heart shall be there always. ¹⁷As for you, if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, obeying all that I have commanded you and observing My laws and judgments, ¹⁸then I will make your kingdom's throne secure just as I covenanted with David your father saying: You shall not lack a man to rule over Israel.

¹⁹But if you on your part turn away and forsake My laws and My commandments, which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰then I will pluck them out of My land, which I gave them, and will cast away from My presence this house which I have sanctified for My own name, making it a byword and a taunt among all peoples. ²¹To every passerby there shall be such astonishment over this house, which was exalted, that he will exclaim, "Why has the LORD done so to this land and to this house?" ²²And they will reply, "It is because they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and they seized upon other gods and worshiped and served them; therefore He has brought all this calamity against them."

946 B.C.

8 AT THE END OF THE TWENTY years^r during which Solomon had built the LORD's house and his own palace, ²Solomon built up the cities which Hiram had given him^s and

p) Probably similar to the occurrence at the dedication of the tabernacle [Ex. 40:34,35].

q) Notice the central place sacrifice held in worship [as in Lev. 17:11; Heb. 9:22].

r) Seven years on the temple [I Kings 6:38]; 13 years on his palace [I Kings 7:1].

s) Probably in the land given to King Hiram [I Kings 9:11-13] but returned by him as unsatisfactory.

made Israelites settle there. ³Also Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and conquered it. ⁴Moreover, he built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the cities that were supply centers in Hamath. ⁵He fortified the store-cities Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon with walls, gates, and bars; ⁶also Baalath, and all the cities that were supply centers which Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities for the cavalry. Indeed, Solomon built everything he wanted to construct in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

⁷Now regarding all the people that remained of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel, ⁸from among their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel had not wiped out, Solomon conscripted slave labor, as it is up to the present time. ⁹But those who were of the sons of Israel, Solomon did not make into slaves for his work, because they were soldiers and his captains and commanders over his chariotry and cavalry. ¹⁰These were the chiefs of the leaders King Solomon had: 250 men in charge of the people. ¹¹Solomon also brought up the daughter of Pharaoh^t from the city of David to the palace he had built for her, because he said, "My wife shall not reside in the house of David king of Israel, inasmuch as those places into which the ark of the LORD has entered are holy."

¹²Solomon then^u offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the LORD's altar, which he had built in front of the porch, ¹³in the daily routine of offering according to Moses' commandment^v — on the Sabbaths, and new moons, and set feasts, which are three times annually: at the feast of unleavened bread, at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of tabernacles. ¹⁴According to the ordinance of David his father,^w he appointed the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their duties of praising and ministering before the priests in the daily routine, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate, for this had been the command of David, the man of God. ¹⁵Indeed, they did not deviate from the king's command to the priests and Levites in any respect, including the treasures. ¹⁶So all the work of Solomon was established from the day of the founding of the house of the LORD, and until its completion when the house of the LORD was finished.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and Elath on the seacoast in the land of Edom; ¹⁸and Huram by his servants sent him ships and servants who knew the sea, who went with Solomon's servants to Ophir and took from there 13,000,000 dollars^x in gold and brought it to King Solomon.

946 B.C.

9 WHEN THE QUEEN OF SHEBA^y heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test out Solomon with hard questions. She had a large retinue, including camels carrying spices, much gold, and precious stones. During her visit with Solomon, she talked over with him all that she had in mind, ²and Solomon answered all her questions; indeed, there was not a thing concealed from Solomon which he could not explain to her. ³Finally, when the queen of Sheba had observed Solomon's wisdom, also the house that he had built, ⁴the food for his table, the assembly of his retainers, the attendance of those who waited on him in full dress, his cupbearers, their clothes, and the upright position of his body-guards, it took her breath away. ⁵Then she remarked to the king, "The report which I heard in my own country about your affairs and your wisdom was true! ⁶But I did not take their words seriously until I came and saw with my own eyes. Truly, half the greatness of your wisdom was not told me! You excel the report that I heard. ⁷Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom.

^t) Although Pharaoh's daughter is not included in the "foreign wives" who caused Solomon to sin (1 Kings 11:1), yet she could hardly have joined him in the worship of God.

^u) With the temple completed, worship was conducted there, not at Gibeon as in ch. 1:3.

^v) In Lev. 23:37. ^w) Given in 1 Chron. 24.

^x) Heb., "450 talents." A talent of gold—$30,000. ^y) Kingdom in S. W. Arabia, Aden.

⁸Blessed be the LORD your God who took delight in you, to set you on His throne as king to the LORD your God!¹² It was because your God loved Israel to establish it forever, that He set you as king over them to administer equity and justice."

⁹She also presented to the king $1,680,000^a in gold and a great quantity of spices and precious stones. There had never been any such spices as that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon, ¹⁰though the servants of both Hiram and Solomon who carried gold from Ophir imported sandalwood and precious stones. ¹¹With the sandalwood the king made raised walks for the house of the LORD and for the king's palace, as well as lyres and harps for the singers. Previously such as these had never been seen in the land of Judah. ¹²Then King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba everything she wanted and requested, besides what she had brought the king.^b After this she and her servants turned and departed for their own country.

¹³Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was $19,980,000^c in gold, ¹⁴which was in addition to what the merchants and traders brought in; all the kings of Arabia, together with the governors of the land, brought gold and silver to Solomon. ¹⁵Out of beaten gold Solomon made 200 large shields, using $280,000^d of gold per shield, ¹⁶and 300 smaller shields, using $140,000^d of gold per shield; these the king assigned to the palace of the forest of Lebanon. ¹⁷The king also fashioned a large throne out of ivory, overlaying it with pure gold. ¹⁸This throne had six steps and a footstool of gold fastened to the throne, with arms on each side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside these arms. ¹⁹Twelve lions stood on the six steps, arranged on both sides — never before had such been made for any kingdom. ²⁰All of King Solomon's drinking service, too, was of gold and the utensils of the palace of the forest of Lebanon were of costly gold — silver was not considered precious during the days of Solomon. ²¹For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with Hiram's^e servants; every three years these ships of Tarshish arrived laden with gold and silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

²²So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. ²³In fact, all the kings of the earth were accustomed to seek audience with Solomon, to hear the wisdom which God had put in his heart. ²⁴And each used to bring his own gift — silver and gold articles, robes, armor, spices, horses, and mules — a yearly amount. ²⁵In addition, Solomon had 4000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen; these he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. ²⁶He ruled over all the kings from the river^f to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt. ²⁷The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as cobblestones, and he made cedars as plentiful as the sycamores which abound in the lowlands. ²⁸Horses for Solomon were imported from Egypt and from all regions.

²⁹As regards the rest of Solomon's affairs, both first and last, are they not recorded in the words of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah of Shiloh, and in the visions of Iddo the seer about Jeroboam Nebat's son? ³⁰For forty years Solomon reigned as king in Jerusalem over all Israel. ³¹So Solomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of his father David; and Rehoboam^g his son reigned in his place.

930 B.C.

10 REHOBAM WENT TO SHECHEM^h because all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ²Now Jeroboam, Nebat's son, had been in Egypt, where he had fled for fear of King Solomon,ⁱ but when he heard of this, he returned from Egypt. ³They

z) As the Hebrew priest was priest to the LORD, so the king was king to the LORD.

a) Heb., "120 talents."

b) i.e. His exchange gifts corresponded to those presented by her.

c) Heb., "666 talents."

d) Heb., "600 (shekels) of gold," [vs. 15]; "300 (shekels) of gold," [vs. 16]; one shekel— .512 oz.

e) Heb., "Hiram," see note on Ch. 2:3. f) Euphrates. g) "The nation is enlarged."

h) Forewarning of a rebellious attitude — Jerusalem was the proper place. i) I Kings 11:40.

sent and called for him; and so Jeroboam came with all Israel and told Rehoboam, "Your father made our yoke severe; now then, ease up on the burdensome servitude of your father and the heavy yoke that he imposed on us, and we will serve you."⁶ He answered them, "Wait for three days and then come to me again." So the people left.

⁶King Rehoboam consulted with the elderly men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he was still alive. "How would you advise me to answer this people?" he asked. ⁷They replied to him, "If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak favorable words to them, then they will become your subjects for all time."

⁸But he turned a deaf ear to the advice which these elders recommended and conferred with the young men who had grown up with him and were standing in his presence. ⁹To them he also put the question: "What do you advise that we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Ease up on the yoke which your father put on us?'" ¹⁰The young men who had grown up with him suggested, "In this way you should answer the people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke severe, but as for you, ease up on our yoke!' This is the way you should reply to them, 'My little finger will be thicker than my father's thighs. ¹¹Though my father imposed a heavy yoke on you, yet now I will add to that yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I [will discipline you] with scorpions.'"^j

¹²On the third day Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam as the king had appointed them, saying, "Come to me again on the third day." ¹³But the king answered them sharply; for king Rehoboam had disregarded the advice of the old men ¹⁴and instead spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men: "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will increase it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will do so with scorpions."^k ¹⁵The king would not listen to the people, because the turn of events was of God, that the Lord might carry out His word which He had spoken through Ahijah of Shiloh to Jeroboam, Nebat's son.^k ¹⁶As for all Israel, when the king would not listen to them, the people replied to the king, "What part do we have in David? No inheritance at all in Jesse's son! Each man to your tents, O Israel! Now, see to your own house, David!" So all Israel left for their tents; ¹⁷but as for the children of Israel who resided in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam remained king over them. ¹⁸King Rehoboam sent off Hadaram,^m who had charge of the labor gangs, but the people of Israel stoned him to death; so King Rehoboam hurriedly mounted his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹In this way Israel revolted against the house of David even to this day.

930 B.C.

11 WHEN REHOBOMAM CAME TO Jerusalem, he mustered the 180,000 choice troops of the houses of Judah and Benjamin for war with Israel to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.ⁿ ²But the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah the man of God: ³Say to Rehoboam, Solomon's son, king over Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, ⁴This is what the Lord has spoken: You shall not go up, neither shall you fight against your brothers. Go back, every man, to his own house; for this thing has happened by My decree. They paid attention to the Lord's words and turned back from marching against Jeroboam. ⁵So Rehoboam settled in Jerusalem, and he fortified cities in Judah for defense. ⁶He worked on Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, ⁷Beth-zur, Soco, Adullam. ⁸Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, ⁹Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, ¹⁰Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron; these became fortified cities in

j) A metal-tipped scourge. k) See I Kings 11:30, 31.

l) Slogan used by Sheba in rebellion against David [II Sam. 20:1].

m) Probably to negotiate with dissatisfied Israel.

n) That Jerusalem was mostly located in Benjamin enhanced the loyalty of that tribe to the house of David. For them the worship in the temple remained a vital element of true living.

Judah and Benjamin. ¹¹He reinforced the strongholds, stationing commanders in them, along with food supplies, oil, and wine. ¹²With shields and spears in every city he strengthened them greatly; so Judah and Benjamin remained his.

¹³Furthermore the priests and Levites throughout all Israel took their stand with him from all their localities. ¹⁴For the Levites abandoned their suburban lands and property and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from ministering to the LORD, ¹⁵and he had ordained for himself priests for the high places and the goat idols and the calves he had made. ¹⁶Laymen, too, out of all the tribes of Israel who had made up their minds to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, followed them to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God of their fathers. ¹⁷During three years they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and upheld Rehoboam, Solomon's son; for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.^o

¹⁸Rehoboam married Mahalath daughter of David's son Jerimoth and of Abihail daughter of Jesse's son Eliab. ¹⁹She bore sons to him: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham. ²⁰Later he took Maacah daughter^p of Absalom, who bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹Rehoboam loved Maacah, Absalom's daughter,^p more than any of his other wives or concubines (for he took 18 wives and 60 concubines, and had 28 sons and 60 daughters). ²²Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah as head and prince among his brothers so as to make him king. ²³He displayed wisdom^q in distributing his sons throughout all the districts of Judah and Benjamin and all the fortified cities, giving them ample provisions and seeking a large number of wives.^r

926 B.C.

12 WHEN REHOBAM'S ROYAL POWER became established and he had become strong, he and all Israel forsook the Law of the LORD. ²Then, because of their unfaithfulness to the LORD, Shishak Egypt's king ³marched against Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam with 1200 chariots, 60,000 cavalry, and innumerable troops, who came with him from Egypt—Lubians, Sukkiites, and Ethiopians. ⁴He captured the stronghold cities of Judah, advancing as far as Jerusalem. ⁵Meanwhile, Shemaiah the prophet met with Rehoboam and the princes of Judah who had gathered into Jerusalem for fear of Shishak, and said to them, "This is what the LORD has spoken: You have abandoned Me, so I, now, do abandon you into Shishak's hands." ⁶Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and acknowledged, "The LORD is righteous."^s ⁷Accordingly, when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, this message came to Shemaiah from the LORD: They have humbled themselves. Therefore I will not bring them to ruin but will shortly give them an escaped remnant, and My anger shall not be poured out against Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸But they will become his servants and recognize the difference between servitude to Me and to the kingdoms of the lands.

⁹So Shishak king of Egypt advanced against Jerusalem and confiscated the treasure of the LORD's temple and of the king's palace, taking it all, including the shields of gold which Solomon had made.^t ¹⁰In their place King Rehoboam made bronze shields and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the gate of the king's palace. ¹¹Whenever the king came to the temple of the LORD, this guard would present itself to carry them and then would replace them in the guardroom. ¹²Because he had humbled himself, the LORD's anger was turned aside from him, so that

o) Until he became strong and self-reliant [ch. 12:1].

p) General term meaning female descendant, here granddaughter. Almost certainly Absalom's daughter surpassed all others in beauty.

q) Perhaps a lesson learned from David's sad experience [II Sam. 13, esp. vss. 26,27].

r) For these sons.

s) Acknowledgment of God's justice in punishment is a leading factor in genuine repentance.

t) Ch. 9:15,16.

the LORD did not send total destruction; in fact, there remained good things in Judah.

¹³So King Rehoboam established himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to place His name. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. ¹⁴Nevertheless, he did wrong in that he did not fix his heart^u to seek the LORD. ¹⁵As for the activities of Rehoboam, both first and last, are they not recorded in the words of Shemaiah the prophet and Iddo the seer in the register of genealogy? There were hostilities between Rehoboam and Jeroboam constantly. ¹⁶So Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David, and Abijah his son became king in his place.

913 B.C.

13 ABIJAH BECAME KING OVER Judah in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, ²and he reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah^v daughter of Uriel from Gibeah. When war broke out between Abijah and Jeroboam, ³Abijah engaged in battle with an army of mighty warriors—400,000 picked troops, whereas Jeroboam ordered the battle against him with 800,000 picked troops—strong, courageous men.^w ⁴Then Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim^x which lies in the Ephraim hill country and called, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel! ⁵Should you not understand that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the monarchy over Israel to David forever, to him and his sons by a salt covenant?^y ⁶Yet Jeroboam,^z Nebat's son, and servant to David's son Solomon, turned and rebelled against his master. ⁷And certain good-for-nothing ne'er-do-wells joined him and defied Rehoboam, Solomon's son—for Rehoboam was immature^a and faint-hearted and failed to assert himself against them. ⁸Now you plan on using your strength against the LORD's kingdom in the hand of David's sons, and you are a huge multitude, but you have with you the calves of gold which Jeroboam made as gods for you. ⁹Have you not driven out the LORD's priests, Aaron's son and the Levites, and like the people of the nations made your own priests out of anyone who came with a young bullock and seven rams to consecrate himself, to become a priest to no god?

¹⁰"But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him. We have priests from Aaron's descendants ministering to the LORD, and the Levites carrying on their service, ¹¹sacrificing burnt offerings to the LORD every morning and evening, burning incense of spices, and caring for the rows of bread on the pure table,^b and the golden lampstand that its lamps may be burning every evening. We are observing the injunction of the LORD our God; but you—you have forsaken Him. ¹²See here! God is with us at our head as are His priests with the alarm bugles to signal the advance against you. O sons of Israel! Do not fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers, for you shall not win."

¹³Nevertheless, Jeroboam sent an ambush around to come at them from behind;^c in this way they were in front of Judah and at the same time had the ambush at their rear. ¹⁴When Judah faced about, look! the battle was both in front of and behind them. They cried out to the LORD, and the priests blew their bugles. ¹⁵The men of Judah shouted, and when the men of Judah shouted, then it was that God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶For the men

u) Example of O.T. emphasis on the heart. See also I Sam 16:7.

v) Called Maacah in ch. 11:20, where her relationship is given to Absalom, whose only daughter Tamar [II Sam. 14:27] married Uriel.

w) Entirely plausible figures in view of David's census [II Sam. 24:9].

x) A scene reminiscent of Jotham's fable [Judg. 9:7].

y) Since unbreakable friendship was signified by eating salt together, and salt's preservative use made it an appropriate symbol for eternity, the immutability of the covenant is stressed, [as in Num. 18:19]. z) Mentioned in I Kings 11:28.

a) Heb., "youth"; in view of the fact that Rehoboam was 41 [Ch. 12:13] at that time, Abijah probably refers to inexperience. b) Called such in Lev. 24:6.

c) Tactics also of Joshua [Josh. 8:4,5].

of Israel fell back before Judah, and God gave them over into their hand. ¹⁷Abijah and his people struck them down with a great slaughter, fatally wounding 500,000 picked troops of Israel. ¹⁸At that time the men of Israel were subdued, but the men of Judah were strengthened, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers. ¹⁹So Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured some cities from him: Bethel with its suburbs, Jeshanah with its surrounding territories, and Ephraim with its suburbs. ²⁰Neither could Jeroboam regain power during Abijah's lifetime, and at length the LORD smote him and he died. ²¹But Abijah built up his strength. Moreover, he took fourteen wives for himself; he had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. ²²The rest of Abijah's affairs, his ways and his words, are recorded in the exposition of the prophet Iddo.

910 B.C.

14 ABIJAH SLEPT WITH HIS FATHERS,^d and they buried him in the city of David. Then Asa his son became king in his place and during his days the land had ten years of peace, ²for Asa^e did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God. ³He removed the foreign altars and the high places; he shattered the pillars and chopped down the Asherahs.^f ⁴He ordered Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to keep the law and the commandment. ⁵He removed the high places and incense altars out of all the cities of Judah.^g Therefore the kingdom was peaceful under him. ⁶He also built fortified cities in Judah while the land lay undisturbed—for he had no war during those years, the LORD having given him peace. ⁷He instructed Judah, "Let us build these cities and surround them with walls having towers, gates, and bars, while we are still in possession of the land by reason of our having sought the LORD our God. We have sought Him; therefore He has given us rest on all sides."^h So they built and thrived. ⁸And Asa commanded an army of 300,000 from Judah bearing light shields and spears and 280,000 from Benjamin armed with larger shields and bows; these were all strong and mighty men.

About 899 B.C.

⁹Now Zerahⁱ the Ethiopian came up against them with an army of a million and 300 chariots, advancing as far as Mareshah. ¹⁰Asa marched against him, drawing up the battle lines in the valley of Zephathah by Mareshah. ¹¹Then Asa called on the LORD his God, praying, "O LORD, there is none but Thee to help the powerless against the mighty;^j help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on Thee, and in Thy name do we come against this horde. O LORD, Thou art our God, do not let man hold out against Thee!" ¹²Then the LORD struck down the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah so that the Ethiopians fled. ¹³Asa and the people with him chased them as far as Gerar, and there fell so many of the Ethiopians that none were left alive, for they were beaten before the LORD and His army. They collected a large amount of plunder. ¹⁴They also overthrew all the cities around Gerar,^k because the awe of the LORD had come over them;^l and because there was abundant booty they plundered these cities. ¹⁵They went so far as to attack the cattle tents, capturing many sheep and camels; but finally they returned to Jerusalem.

895 B.C.

15 NOW THE SPIRIT OF GOD CAME on Azariah, Oded's son, ²and he went out to meet Asa, saying to him, "Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin! The LORD is with you while you are with Him; if you seek Him, He will be found by you; but

d) Ch. 13:23 in Heb. e) Ch. 14:1 in Heb.

f) Pillars were stone monuments dedicated to Baal worship; Asherahs were wooden poles or tree trunks dedicated to the worship of the nature goddess, Astarte. On one pole or stump the likeness of the female secret organ was carved, and on another that of the male; a Baal altar was between the two. g) A reform suggesting that of Josiah [Ch. 34:3,4].

h) Excellent illustration of Prov. 16:7.

i) Probably Osorkon I, successor to Sheshenq I [Shishak of Ch. 12:2] and second ruler of the 22nd dynasty of Egypt, a period of revived power.

j) See Jonathan's conviction [I Sam. 14:6]. k) In the Philistine country about six miles south of Gaza.

l) As over Jericho [Josh. 2:9,11], and foretold by Moses [Ex. 15:16].

if you forsake Him, He will forsake you.^m ³For some time Israel has been without the true God, without a teaching priest, and without law. ⁴But in their extremity they returned to the LORD, the God of Israel;ⁿ when they sought Him, He was found by them. ⁵During those times there was no security for anyone who went out or came in, because many disturbances came to all the inhabitants of the lands. ⁶Nation dashed against nation, and city against city, for God plagued them with all sorts of adversity. ⁷But you, be strong, and do not lose heart, for your efforts shall be rewarded.^o ⁸When Asa heard these words and this prophecy coming from the prophet Oded, he gained courage to remove the detestable things^p from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities which he had taken from the Ephraim hill country, and he renewed the LORD's altar which stood in front of the porch of the LORD.

⁹Then he brought together all Judah and Benjamin, and those from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who lived among them. For a large number came over to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. ¹⁰These were assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign. ¹¹That day they sacrificed to the LORD some of the plunder they had brought — 700 cattle and 7000 sheep — ¹²and entered into the covenant^q to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul.^r ¹³Indeed, anyone who would not seek the LORD God of Israel was to die, whether small or grown, man or woman. ¹⁴They made this oath to the LORD with a loud voice and a cheer, with trumpets and horns. ¹⁵All Judah was glad for the oath, because they had sworn with all their heart and sought

Him with all their will; He was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

¹⁶King Asa even deposed Maacah his mother from being queen,^s for she had made a repulsive Asherah image.^t This image Asa cut down, smashing and burning it at the brook Kidron. ¹⁷Although the high places were not removed from Israel, yet Asa retained his integrity of heart all his lifetime. ¹⁸He also brought the dedicated articles belonging to his father and himself to the temple of God — silver, gold, and utensils. ¹⁹No war occurred until the thirty-fifth year^u of Asa's reign.

894 B.C.

16 IN THE THIRTY-SIXTH YEAR OF Asa's reign, Baasha, Israel's king advanced against Judah and built Ramah, to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah. ²Then Asa withdrew silver and gold from the treasures of the LORD's temple and from the king's palace and sent it to Ben-hadad king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, ³"There is a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Note that I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha Israel's king, that he may withdraw from me."^v ⁴So Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies to the cities of Israel, and they overpowered Ijon, Dan, and Abel-maim, along with all the storage cities of Naphtali. ⁵When Baasha heard this, he quit building Ramah and gave up his enterprise. ⁶Then King Asa brought all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timbers of Ramah with which Baasha had been building, and with these he built Geba and Mizpah.

⁷At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, "Because you relied on the king of

m) Clear statement of the proportionate relationship between consecration and God's fellowship and blessing. Compare I Sam. 2:30.

n) How often distress is used by God to turn us to Him! o) Cf. I Cor. 15:58. Reward is sure. p) Presumably images, particularly the carved poles at which the people indulged in lewd practices under cover of religion. q) Renewal of covenant of Ex. 19:5-8.

r) Thus fulfilling conditions listed in Deut. 4:29.

s) Grandmother of King Asa; daughter or granddaughter of Absalom.

t) See explanation of Asherah of ch. 14:3.

u) Dated from the division of Israel from Judah of 930 B.C.

v) An ungodly move that cost him and his people dearly.

Syria and did not rely on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. ⁸Were not the Ethiopians and Lubians a large horde with a great many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand.^w ⁹For the eyes of the LORD flash back and forth over the whole earth to display His strength on behalf of those whose heart is full of integrity toward Him.^x In this you acted foolishly, for from now on you will be engaged in wars."¹⁰But Asa was angered at the seer and threw him into prison stocks, for he was enraged at him over this. Also at this time Asa cruelly oppressed certain of the people. ¹¹Note that the affairs of Asa from first to last are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

872-870 B.C.

¹²In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and this illness grew severe; yet even in his sickness, he did not seek the LORD but rather the physicians. ¹³Asa slept with his fathers, expiring in the forty-first year of his reign, ¹⁴and they buried him in the vault which he had chiseled out for himself in the city of David, laying him on a bed that was filled with sweet spices and various kinds of ointments mixed by the perfumer's skill, and a very impressive burning^y was held for him.

872-869 B.C.

17 HIS SON JEHOSEPHAT BECAME king in his place and strengthened himself against Israel. ²He quartered troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and stationed garrisons throughout all the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. ³The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the old paths of David his father² and did not seek the Baalim.^a ⁴Instead he followed the God of his father and walked in His commandments—not according to the doings of Israel. ⁵So

the LORD established the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah presented gifts to Jehoshaphat so that he attained great riches and honor. ⁶He took heart in the ways of the LORD and went on to remove the high places and shame images^b from Judah. ⁷Also in the third year of his reign he sent out his princes—Ben-hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah—to teach in the cities of Judah, ⁸accompanied by the Levites—Shemaiah, Nathaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites—and by Elishama and Jehoram, priests. ⁹So these taught throughout Judah, taking with them the book of the Law of the LORD, and they went around into all the cities of Judah, teaching among the people.

¹⁰The awe of the LORD had come over all the kingdoms of the lands which surrounded Judah so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat.^c ¹¹In fact, some of the Philistines did regularly bring gifts and silver as tribute to Jehoshaphat; even the Arabians brought him flocks: 7700 rams and 7700 he-goats. ¹²So Jehoshaphat grew greater, outstandingly so, building fortresses and store cities throughout Judah. ¹³He had much construction work in the cities of Judah and mighty, courageous warriors in Jerusalem. ¹⁴Now this is how they were enrolled by their clans: In Judah the commanders of thousands were: Adnah, commander, accompanied by 300,000 strong and brave men; ¹⁵next to him, Jehohanan, commander, accompanied by 280,000; ¹⁶next to him, Amasiah, Zichri's son, who willingly offered himself to the LORD,^d accompanied by 200,000 strong and brave men. ¹⁷From Benjamin: Eliada, a strong and brave man, and with him 200,000 equipped with bow and shield; ¹⁸next to him Jehozabad, with 180,000 fitted out for war. ¹⁹These were the king's officers besides the ones whom the king had stationed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

w) Related in Ch. 14:9-13. x) Quality of heart noted of Asa in Ch. 15:17.

y) A kindling of fragrant spices in honor of the generally good King Asa.

z) Term here applies broadly to a male ancestor; refers to faithfulness of David, especially prior to II Sam. 11. a) General term for all false gods. b) See note on Ch. 14:3.

c) Again illustrates Prov. 16:7. d) A willing heart produces devotion which calls forth this brief commendation of an otherwise unknown leader.

853 B.C.

18 WHEN JEHOSEPHAT HAD AMPLE riches and honor, he made a marriage alliance with Ahab.^e ²After a few years he visited Ahab in Samaria. Ahab butchered a large number of sheep and cattle for him and his company and persuaded him to march against Ramoth-gilead. ³For Ahab king of Israel inquired of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go to Ramoth-gilead with me?" To this he responded, "I am as you, and my people as your people, we will be with you in the war. ⁴But first of all," requested Jehoshaphat of the king of Israel, "let me ask that you seek the word of the LORD." ⁵So the king of Israel called together the prophets,^f 400 men, and said to them, "Shall we advance against Ramoth-gilead for battle or shall I desist?" "Go up," they replied, "and God will deliver it into the king's hand." ⁶But Jehoshaphat queried, "Isn't there another prophet of the LORD around here that we may inquire from him?" ⁷The king of Israel responded to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom to seek the LORD,^g but I hate him, for he never prophesies good about me, but always bad.^h He is Micaiah, Imla's son." Then Jehoshaphat said, "Oh, let not the king say so!" ⁸So the king of Israel summoned an officer and ordered, "Hurry and get Micaiah, Imla's son."

⁹The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting each on his throne dressed in his robes. This was in the threshing area of the entrance gate to Samaria, where all the prophets were prophesying before them. ¹⁰Then Zedekiah, Chenaanah's son, made iron horns for himself and said, "This is what the LORD says: With these you will gore Syria until they are destroyed." ¹¹And all the prophets were prophesying the same way, saying, "Go against Ramoth-gilead and win, for the LORD will give it into the king's hand."

¹²Meanwhile, the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah informed him, "Listen, the prophets' messages to the king are unanimously good. How about making your message like one of theirs and speaking favorably?" ¹³Micaiah replied, "As the LORD lives, whatever my God shall say, that will I proclaim."ⁱ ¹⁴When he came to the king, the king inquired of him, "Micaiah,^j shall we march against Ramoth-gilead to battle or should I give it up?" He retorted, "Go on up and win, that they may be delivered into your hands!" ¹⁵But the king took him to task, "How many times have I adjured you never to speak to me anything except the truth in the name of the LORD?"^k ¹⁶Then he responded, "I saw all Israel scattered out over the hills like sheep without a shepherd. And the LORD said: These have no master. Let everyone of them return to his own house in safety." ¹⁷"What did I tell you?" remarked the king of Israel to Jehoshaphat. "He does not prophesy good about me, but rather calamity!" ¹⁸"That being so," he^l continued, "listen to the LORD's word: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne with all the throngs of heaven standing around Him at His right and left. ¹⁹The LORD said: Who will persuade Ahab, Israel's king, to go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? As one said one thing, and another said something else, ²⁰one spirit^m moved forward, stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD quizzed him: In what way? ²¹He replied, 'I will go out and become a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' You will succeed in persuading him, He answered; go ahead and do this. ²²Now notice, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these your prophets, for the LORD has decreed evil against you."

e) Of his son Jehoram with Athaliah, Ahab's daughter [Ch. 21:6]. An unwise alliance rebuked in Ch. 19:2, and illustrating Amos 3:3 and II Cor. 6:14.

f) Probably prophets connected with the calf worship established by Jeroboam in Dan and Bethel, carried on under the name of the LORD [I Kings 12:28]. g) God has His man for each generation.

h) Typical attitude of considering, not ourselves, but the preacher, wrong.

i) Baalam so resolved, too [see Num. 22:18-20,38; 24:13].

j) Short form of the prophet's name, as Silas for Silvanus in I Thess. 1:1.

k) Ahab sensed Micaiah's sarcasm. l) Micaiah.

m) Reference here to one spirit may indicate current familiarity with a specific angelic being, possibly "the accuser" (Satan) of Job 1:6,7.

²³Then Zedekiah, Chenaanah's son, stepped up and struck Micaiah on the cheek, saying, "Which way did the Spirit of the LORD cross over from me to speak to you?" ²⁴"Look," said Micaiah, "you will see in that day, when you enter an inside room to hide yourself!" ²⁵The king of Israel ordered, "Take Micaiah and remand him to Amon, officer of the city, and to Joash, the king's son, ²⁶with orders, 'The king commands this, Put this man in prison and feed him prison fare of bread and water until I return safely.'" ²⁷Micaiah rejoined, "If you actually return safely, the LORD has not spoken by me! Hear this, all you peoples!" he called.

²⁸Even so, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah went up against Ramoth-gilead. ²⁹The king of Israel, moreover, proposed to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you wear your own regalia." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they entered the battle. ³⁰Now the king of Syria had ordered his chariot captains, "Do not fight against small or great, but only against the king of Israel." ³¹So it happened that when the chariot captains saw Jehoshaphat, they concluded, "That is the king of Israel," and encircled him to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; God drew them away from him. ³²When the chariot captains realized he was not the king of Israel, they retired from pursuing him. ³³But one of the men took a shot with his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the layers of breastplate and body armor. He ordered his driver, "Turn your hand and take me out of the front line, for I am wounded." ³⁴Through that day the battle raged, while the king of Israel kept himself standing in his chariot opposite Syria until evening; but about sundown he died.

853 B.C.

19 THEN JEHOSEPHAT, JUDAH'S king, returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem. ²But Jehu son of Hanani the seer, went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you give help to the wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, indignation from the LORD shall come upon you. ³Even so, there are good things found in you, for you have destroyed the shame images out of the land and have set your heart to seek God."

⁴Jehoshaphat then settled down in Jerusalem and went out again among the people from Beer-sheba to the Ephraim hill country, turning them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers. ⁵He appointed judges throughout the land, in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, ⁶and instructed these judges: "Watch what you do, for you are not judging for men, but for the LORD who will be beside you in judicial affairs. ⁷Now may reverence for the LORD come over you; pay attention and perform this, for with the LORD our God there is no injustice, partiality, or bribe-taking."

⁸In Jerusalem Jehoshaphat also stationed some of the Levites and priests along with clan leaders of Israel for the judgment of the LORD and for disputes, after they had returned to Jerusalem. ⁹These he charged, "So shall you do, in reverence for the LORD, in faithfulness, and with a heart of integrity. ¹⁰Regarding every case which may come before you from your brothers living in the cities, which involves blood versus blood, law, commandment, regulations or ordinances, you shall warn them not to be guilty before the LORD, lest anger should come on both you and your brothers. This you shall do so as not to incur guilt. ¹¹Note also: Amariah is high priest over you in all matters regarding the LORD, and Zedabiah, Ishmael's son, ruler of the house of Judah, in all matters regarding the king; the Levites are officials before you. Deal fearlessly, and the LORD be with the good."

853 B.C.

20 LATER THIS HAPPENED: THE men of Moab and Ammon, together with some Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat in battle. ²Men came to inform Jehoshaphat, saying, "A huge multitude has come against you from beyond the sea,^o from Syria; and note this, they are at Hazazon-tamar" (which is En-gedi). ³In fear, Jehoshaphat set his face to seek the LORD and proclaimed a fast throughout Judah. ⁴And Judah came together to seek the LORD; indeed they came to seek the LORD out of all the cities of Judah.

⁵Then, in the house of the LORD in front of the new court, Jehoshaphat stood up in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem ⁶and said: "LORD God of our fathers, art Thou not God in heaven, and dost Thou not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? There is both strength and might in Thy hand, and there is none who can stand up against Thee. ⁷Didst Thou not, O, our God, dispossess the inhabitants of this land in favor of Thy people Israel, giving it to the descendants of Thy friend Abraham forever? ⁸Later they settled in it and built a sanctuary in it for Thy name, saying, ⁹'If calamity, sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine come on us,^p we will stand before this house and before Thee—for Thy name is in this house—and cry to Thee out of our distress, and Thou wilt hear and save.' ¹⁰See, now! The men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom Thou didst not let Israel invade as they came out of the land of Egypt^q—instead they turned away from them and did not destroy them—¹¹see how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out from Thy possession, which Thou didst cause us to inherit. ¹²O our God, wilt Thou not judge them? For we have not power against this huge array which has come against us, and we are at a loss what to do; but our eyes are on Thee."^r ¹³All Judah was standing before the LORD, including their infants, wives, and children.

¹⁴Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel^s in the midst of the congregation—he was the son of Zechariah the son of Benaiah, Jeiel's son, a son of the Levite Mattaniah, one of Asaph's sons—¹⁵and he said, "Pay attention, all Judah and Jerusalem residents and King Jehoshaphat. The LORD has said to you: Be not afraid, neither be discouraged on account of this great horde, for the battle is not yours but God's.^t ¹⁶Go down against them tomorrow. Surely now they are going up by the upward slope of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷But you will not need to fight in this; just hold your place, stand still, and see^u the victory of the LORD who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Fear not; be not perplexed; tomorrow go out before them, and the LORD be with you." ¹⁸Then Jehoshaphat bowed with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the residents of Jerusalem fell before the LORD to worship the LORD. ¹⁹The Levites, of the sons of the Kohathites and of the sons of the Korahites, on their part, arose to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.^v

²⁰Early the next morning they got up and marched out to the wilderness of Tekoa. When they were setting out, Jehoshaphat stood to say, "Hear me, O Judah and you residents of Jerusalem! Trust in the LORD your God, and you will be established. Trust in His prophets, and you will be successful." ²¹He took counsel with the people, appointing those who were to sing to the LORD and those who were to give praise in sacred vestments as they advanced in front of the troops, saying, "Praise the LORD, because His loving-kindness is everlasting!"^w

²²When they began the ringing

^o) Dead Sea; "from beyond the sea" [Edom] and "from Syria."

^p) Summary of part of Solomon's prayer [ch. 6:28-30]. From this occasion the 46th Psalm may have been inspired. ^q) Cited from Deut. 2:4,5,9,19. ^r) Compare Ps. 123:2.

^s) This inspired descendant of the psalmist Asaph may be the specific author (referred to by family name in the title) of Psalm 83 wherein the military situation seems similar to that in this text. ^t) So said David when facing Goliath [I Sam. 17:47].

^u) The same advice God had given Moses at the Red Sea [Ex. 14:13].

^v) As our LORD on earth taught us and practiced — and so did Paul — they gave thanks for answered prayer before the battle had begun.

^w) In 1632 A.D., when Gustaf Adolph of Sweden faced Wallenstein, who had brought the Austrian forces to bring Northern Europe back to the Roman Church, 20,000 Swedes joined their king in singing, "A mighty fortress is our God," and gained a mighty victory.

shout and praise, the LORD set an ambush against the sons of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir who had come against Judah, and they were beaten. ²³For the men of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to destroy and annihilate them, and when they had wiped out the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another. ²⁴When Judah arrived at the lookout in the wilderness and faced toward the horde, what were they but corpses, lying on the ground, none having escaped! ²⁵Jehoshaphat and his people proceeded to collect the plunder and found much among them, including goods with the bodies and precious articles. They stripped off for themselves more than they could carry, spending three days collecting the loot; for it was enormous.^x ²⁶On the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Berachah;^y for there they blessed the LORD, and as a result they have called the name of that place the valley of Berachah to this day. ²⁷Then they turned—all the men of Judah and Jerusalem, headed by Jehoshaphat—to go back with joy to Jerusalem, for God had made them rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸So they went into Jerusalem to the house of the LORD with harps, lyres, and trumpets. ²⁹Again the awe of God came over all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰The kingdom of Jehoshaphat had peace, for his God gave him rest on all sides.

³¹So Jehoshaphat ruled over Judah; he was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³²He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not turn aside from it, doing right in the eyes of the LORD—³³except that the high places were not removed and the people still would not fix their heart on the God of their fathers. ³⁴Now the rest of Jehoshaphat's affairs, both first and last, see, they are written in the words of Jehu the son of Hanani, which he inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. ³⁵Later on, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted wickedly; ³⁶he joined with him in making ships to go to Tarshish.^z They made the ships in Ezion-geber.^a ³⁷But Eliezer, Dodavahu's son, from Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has broken up your efforts." So the ships were so damaged that they could not sail to Tarshish.

848 B.C.

21 JEHOSEPHAT WENT TO REST with his fathers, was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Jehoram his son became king in his place. ²His brothers, other sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat, Judah's king. ³Now their father gave to each of them large gifts of silver, gold, and valuable items, together with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the first-born.

⁴When Jehoram took over his father's kingdom and had strengthened his position, he killed^b all his brothers with the sword and even some of the princes of Judah. ⁵Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for eight years. ⁶But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, doing as the dynasty of Ahab had done, for Ahab's daughter had become his wife.^c He did wrong in the eyes of the LORD. ⁷However, the LORD was unwilling to destroy the dynasty of David because of the covenant^d which He had made with David, in which He had promised to give a lamp^e both to him and to his sons for all time.

⁸During his time, the Edomites revolted from being under Judah's control and set up their own king. ⁹Then Jehoram, accompanied by his captains and all his chariotry, crossed over and, attacking by night, struck down the

x) Because they had been coming to settle in the land [vs. 11]. y) Means "blessing."

z) Phoenician colony in Spain, or possibly Sardinia. a) On the Red Sea.

b) This may indicate the character difference cited in vs. 13, as well as jealous protection for his throne rights. c) Mentioned in ch. 18:1. d) II Sam. 7. e) Right to the throne.

Edomites and their chariot captains who had surrounded him. ¹⁰Nevertheless, Edom revolted from the domination of Judah to this day. At that time, because he had left the LORD, the God of his fathers, Libnah also revolted from his sway.

¹¹He also made high places in the hill country of Judah, causing the inhabitants of Jerusalem to become unfaithful and turning Judah astray. ¹²Then a writing came to him from the prophet Elijah, warning him, "The LORD, the God of your father David, has said this: Because you have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³but have rather followed in the way of the kings of Israel, causing Judah to be unfaithful and making the inhabitants of Jerusalem commit harlotry like that of the dynasty of Ahab,^f and because you have killed your brothers, your father's own family, who were better than you, ¹⁴now listen! The LORD is going to strike a great blow to your people, including your sons, your wives, and all your goods. ¹⁵You also will become severely ill from an intestinal disease until your vitals fall out because of the day-after-day disease."

¹⁶Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and of the Arabians who are located beside the Ethiopians. ¹⁷Advancing against Judah, they invaded it and captured all the property they found there belonging to the king's household, including his sons and his wives. Thus no son was left to him, except Jehoahaz,^g his youngest.

¹⁸After all this, the LORD struck him with an incurable intestinal disease. ¹⁹So it came about as time passed, that by the end of two years his intestines came out because of his sickness, and he died in intense suffering. His people made no burning for him like the burning for his fathers.^h ²⁰He was thirty-two years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years, expiring without being mourned. They buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

841 B.C.

22 THEN THE INHABITANTS OF Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place; for all his older sons had been killed by the band of marauders that had come with the Arabians against the camp. So Ahaziah, Jehoram's son, reigned as king of Judah. ²Ahaziah was forty-twoⁱ years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for one year; his mother's name was Athaliah, Omri's granddaughter.^j ³He too, walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was counselor to him in his doing what was wrong. ⁴So he did evil in the eyes of the LORD as the dynasty of Ahab had done, because, after his father's death, they became his advisors, leading him to ruin.

⁵Following their advice, he joined with Ahab's son, Joram the king of Israel, to make war against Hazael the king of Syria, at Ramoth-gilead. The Syrians wounded Joram,^k and he returned to Jezreel to recuperate from the wounds he had received while fighting at Ramah against Hazael king of Syria. So, because of this illness, Azariah, Jehoram's son, king of Judah, went down to Jezreel to visit Joram.

⁷The downfall of Ahaziah — his visiting Joram — was of God; for after he had arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu, Nimshi's son, whom the LORD had anointed to put an end to the dynasty of Ahab.^l ⁸It came about that while Jehu was executing judgment against the house of Ahab, he encountered the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who

f) Given in greater detail in I Kings 16:31-33.

g) More frequently called Ahaziah [Ch. 22:1]. Both mean "The LORD holds," differing only in whether "ahaz" (meaning "holds") is first or last. Somewhat parallel is our Dorothy and Theodore; both mean "God's gift," differing only in whether "dor(e)" (meaning "gift") is first or last.

h) Recorded in ch. 16:14. i) Should probably read "22." The miscopying of one letter could cause the apparent disagreement with II Kings 8:26. j) And daughter of Ahab and Jezebel.

k) Joram is a shortened form of Jehoram, as is Silas of Silvanus. Though the longer form (Jehoram) is that actually used in vss. 5, 6b, and 7b, the spelling Joram has been adopted so as to keep distinct the Jehoram of Judah from the Jehoram (Joram) of Israel.

l) Told in II Kings 9:6,7.

served Ahaziah,^m and he killed them. ⁹He then made search for Ahaziah, who was captured while hiding in Samaria; he was brought before Jehu, who had him killed. Even so they buried him, for they reasoned, "He was the son of Jehoshaphat who sought the LORD with all his heart." But there was no one from the house of Ahaziah who was able to exercise control over the kingdom.

¹⁰When Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son was dead, she set out and killed all the royal descendants of the house of Judah.ⁿ ¹¹But Jehoshabeath, the king's daughter, took Joash, Ahaziah's son, stole him away from among the king's sons, who were put to death, and placed both him and his nurse in the storeroom for beds. This Jehoshabeath, being Ahaziah's own sister as well as the daughter of King Jehoram and wife of the priest Jehoiada, hid him away from Athaliah, so that she could not kill him. ¹²He stayed with them, hidden in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah was queen over the land.

835 B.C.

23 IN THE SEVENTH YEAR JEHOIADA took courage and brought into a mutual agreement the captains of hundreds: Azariah, Jeroham's son; Ishmael, Jehohanan's son; Azariah, Obed's son; Maaseiah, Adaiah's son; and Elishaphat, Zichri's son. ²They toured through Judah, called together the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, also Israel's clan leaders, and these came to Jerusalem. ³This whole assembly made a covenant with the king in the temple of God. He told them, "See, the king's son is to reign as the LORD promised concerning David's sons. ⁴This is the thing for you to do: a third of you priests and Levites who come in on the Sabbath will serve at the entrance as gatekeepers. ⁵Another third will be at the king's palace, and a third at the foundation gate, while all the people will stay in the courts of the LORD's temple.

⁶Let no one enter the LORD's house, except the priests and the ministering Levites; they may enter, for they are holy; but all the people must observe the LORD's injunction.^p ⁷The Levites are to encircle the king completely, each with his weapon in hand, and anyone who enters the house is to be executed. Stay with the king as he enters and as he leaves."

⁸So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest had commanded and each took his men, both those entering on the Sabbath and those leaving on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed the divisions. ⁹Then Jehoiada the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears, shields and the smaller shields that were in the temple of God and had been King David's. ¹⁰He had all the people stand around the king, weapons in hand, from the south side of the house to the north side by the altar and the temple itself. ¹¹Then they brought out the king's son, placed the crown on him, and presenting him with the testimony,^q they made him king. Jehoiada and his sons then anointed him and proclaimed, "Long live the king!"

¹²When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the king, she came in to the people at the LORD's house. ¹³She looked, and there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance, the princes and the trumpeters near the king, all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing horns, and the musicians leading the praise with musical instruments. Athaliah tore her clothes and cried out, "Treason! Treason!" ¹⁴At that, Jehoiada the priest sent out the captains of hundreds, army officers, having instructed them, "Take her out from the inner ranks and have anyone who follows her killed with the sword." This was because the priest had insisted, "She is not to be killed in the LORD's house." ¹⁵So they laid hands on her

m) Apparently young nephews and cousins who called themselves "brothers" (male relatives) of Ahaziah in II Kings 10:13.

n) This account is also given in II Kings 11:1-3 with slight variations as, for instance, in spelling, o) Jehoiada the high priest. p) No lay people were allowed to enter the temple proper, which means the holy place and the Holy of Holies [Num. 3:10].

q) That is, the Law [Ex. 23:21], which was to be his constant guide [Deut. 17:18-20].

as she came to the entrance of the horse gate of the king's palace, and there they executed her.

¹⁶Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king to be the LORD's people.

¹⁷All the people went to the temple of Baal, broke it down with its altars, and smashed its images; they executed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars. ¹⁸Jehoiada placed the administrative officers of the LORD's house under direction of the Levitical priests, whom David had assigned to be over the LORD's house. Their task was to offer burnt offerings to the LORD, as is written in the law of Moses, with joy and singing, as ordered by David. ¹⁹He stationed the doorkeepers near the doors of the LORD's temple, so that no one who was unclean for any cause could enter in. ²⁰Then taking the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers among the people, and all the people of the land, he escorted the king down from the LORD's temple. They came through the upper gate to the king's palace where they set the king on the throne of the kingdom. ²¹So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city had quiet because Athaliah had been put to death with the sword.

835 B.C.

24 JOASH WAS SEVEN YEARS OLD when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem forty years; his mother's name was Zibiah from Beersheba. ²Joash, too, did right in the eyes of the LORD during the priest Jehoiada's lifetime. ³Jehoiada obtained two wives for him,^r and he had sons and daughters.

⁴Later on it came into the heart of Joash to restore the LORD's temple.

⁵Gathering the priests and Levites together, he said to them, "Go out into the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel for the repairing of the temple of your God year by year—and you are to hurry the matter!" But the Levites did not hurry it. ⁶Then the king summoned Jehoiada the high priest and said to him, "Why is it that you have not required the Levites to bring from Judah and Jerusalem the assessment^s of Moses the LORD's servant, which was levied on the congregation of Israel for the tent of testimony?"^t ⁷For the sons of that wicked Athaliah had broken into God's house and had even turned over to the Baalim all the dedicated articles of the LORD's house.

⁸So the king ordered them to make a chest^u and place it outside at the gate of the LORD's temple. ⁹Then they issued a proclamation in Judah and in Jerusalem to bring in to the LORD what was assessed on Israel in the wilderness by Moses, God's servant. ¹⁰All the princes and all the people were glad and brought it in, dropping it into the chest until all had given. ¹¹Whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the Levites and they saw that it contained much money, the king's secretary and the high priest's deputy would empty the chest, take it up, and return it to its place. This they did daily and collected money abundantly. ¹²The king and Jehoiada passed it on to those in charge of the service of the LORD's temple, who, in turn, were hiring masons and carpenters to renew the LORD's house, and iron-workers and coppersmiths to restore the temple of the LORD. ¹³So these workers labored, and the restoration work progressed under them; they restored the house of God to its proper condition and made it strong. ¹⁴When they had finished, they brought in to the king and to Jehoiada what was left of the silver, and it was made into utensils for the LORD's temple—instruments for serving and for making sacrifices, bowls, and gold and silver items. They continued sacrificing burnt offerings in the LORD's house regularly throughout Jehoiada's lifetime.

¹⁵Jehoiada, however, grew old and advanced in years and died. He was

r) More wives than God had arranged for, but less than kings were accustomed to take.

s) See Ex. 30:15,16. t) Because the tabernacle housed the tables of the Law or Testimony (Ex. 25:16), it was sometimes called "the tent of testimony" [Num. 9:15].

u) From this comes the "Joash chest" custom, for contributions in some churches.

130 years old at his death,¹⁶ and they buried him with the kings in the city of David, for he had done noble things in Israel, both toward God and toward His temple.¹⁷ Nevertheless, after Jehoiada's death the princes of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and at that time the king began to listen to them.¹⁸ They disregarded the temple of the LORD, the God of their fathers, serving the shame images and idols instead, and because of their guilt in this, anger came on Judah and Jerusalem.¹⁹ He^v sent prophets among them to turn them back to the LORD, and these bore witness among them, but they would not listen.^w

²⁰Then the Spirit of God came on^x Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest, who went and stood above the people, saying to them, "This is what God has said: Why are you transgressing the commandments of the LORD so that you cannot succeed? Because you have left the LORD, He has left you."²¹ But they conspired against him, and at the king's command they stoned him in the court of the LORD's temple.^y ²²Thus King Joash did not bear in mind the loving faithfulness which Jehoiada his father had practiced in his behalf, but killed his son. As he was dying, he cried, "Observe, O LORD, and pay back!"

²³So it came about that, at the year's end, the army of Syria advanced against him,^z reaching Judah and Jerusalem. They destroyed all the people's leaders from among them, and they shipped all their plunder to the king of Damascus.²⁴ Though the Syrian army advanced with but few men, yet the LORD delivered a very large army into their hand, because they^a had left the LORD, their fathers' God. So they executed judgment against Joash.

²⁵Then after these had gone from him—for they did leave him, though with many wounds—his servants plotted against him, because of his murder of the priest Jehoiada's son, and killed him on his bed. He died and was buried in the city of David, but not in the royal tombs.²⁶ Now those who conspired against him were Zabad son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad son of Shimrith the Moabitess.²⁷ Concerning his sons, the many prophecies against him, and the restoration of God's house, note, these are written in the exposition of the book of the kings. Amaziah his son became king in his place.

796 B.C.

25 AMAZIAH WAS TWENTY-FIVE years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Jehoaddan, from Jerusalem.² He did what was right in the LORD's eyes, but not wholeheartedly.³ When the kingdom had become established under him, he killed those servants of his who had assassinated his father the king;⁴ but he did not put their children to death, because he did what was written in the Law, in the book of Moses^b where God commanded, "Fathers shall not be executed for children, neither shall children be executed for fathers; each may be executed only for his own sin."

⁵Amaziah called Judah together and assigned them by their clans to leaders of groups of thousands and of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin.^c He then took a census of those from twenty years old and above and found them to be 300,000 capable men who could go out to war and handle a spear and shield.⁶ In addition, he hired 100,000 strong and courageous men from Israel for $218,000 in silver.^d ⁷But a man of God came to him and said, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, because the LORD is not with Israel and all these men of Ephraim!"⁸ But if you do go, carry on! Act strong in battle. God will yet make you fall before your enemy, for God has the power to help or to overthrow."⁹ Then replied Amaziah to the man of God, "But what shall I do

v) God. w) Compare II Chron. 30:6,10. x) Lit. "clothed Himself with."

y) Referred to by Jesus in Matt. 23:35 where an ancestor Barachiah is mentioned; this priest should not be confused with the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah [Zech. 1:1].

z) Joash. a) The Jews. b) In Deut. 24:16.

c) Most of Benjamin had remained with Judah when the northern tribes separated. Simeon had already been absorbed with Judah, and the tribe of Levi was mostly in the southern section.

d) Heb., "100 talents"; one talent—92 lbs. Troy, or about $2176.

about the $200,000 which I have given to the troops from Israel?" The man of God responded, "God is able to give you far more than that."^e ¹⁰So Amaziah dismissed them to return home, those troops which had come to him from Ephraim; but they were highly incensed at Judah and returned home burning with rage.

¹¹Amaziah, however, took courage, led his forces out, and marched to the Valley of Salt where he struck down 10,000 men of Seir. ¹²The men of Judah also captured 10,000 alive, brought them to the top of a cliff, and there pushed them over the cliff's top so that all of them were dashed to pieces. ¹³Meanwhile the men of the troops, which Amaziah had sent back from accompanying him to war, made raids on the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon. They killed 3000 of the inhabitants and took much loot.

¹⁴After Amaziah had come back from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought in the gods of those men of Seir and set them up as his own gods, bowing before them and burning sacrifices to them. ¹⁵Therefore the LORD became angry with Amaziah and sent a prophet to him, who said to him, "Why do you look to the gods of these people, who did not deliver their own people out of your hand?" ¹⁶But as he was speaking, he^g broke in, "Have you been appointed counselor to the king? Quiet! Why should you be killed?" ^hSo the prophet stopped with, "I notice that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not given heed to my advice."

790 B.C.

¹⁷After consultation, Amaziah, Judah's king, sent a challenge to Joash son of Jehoahaz, Jehu's son, king of Israel, "Come, let us face each other in battle!" ¹⁸But Joash, Israel's king, sent this answerⁱ back to Amaziah king of Judah, "A bramble bush on Lebanon sent to a cedar which was on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to be my son's wife.' But a wild animal that was on Lebanon passed by and trampled that bramble down. ¹⁹You have said to yourself, 'See, I have beaten Edom,' so you have the audacity to boast! Stay at home now; why ask for trouble which will only make you fall, both you and Judah with you?"

²⁰But Amaziah would not listen, for it was of God, so that He might turn them over into the hand of their enemies, because they had looked to the gods of Edom. ²¹So Joash, Israel's king, marched up and he and Amaziah, Judah's king, faced each other in battle at Beth-shemesh which belongs to Judah. ²²But Judah was defeated before Israel, and each man fled to his own tent. ²³At Beth-shemesh Israel's King Joash even captured Amaziah, Judah's king, the son of Joash, Jehoahaz's^j son, and brought him to Jerusalem where he demolished 200 yards of the Jerusalem wall, from the Ephraim gate to the corner gate. ²⁴He returned to Samaria with all the gold, silver, and utensils found with Obed-edom^k in the house of God, with the treasures of the king's palace, and with hostages.

²⁵Amaziah son of Joash king over Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of the king of Israel, Joash the son of Jehoahaz. ²⁶The rest of Amaziah's affairs, first and last, see, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷From the time that Amaziah turned away from the LORD, they conspired against him at Jerusalem; he fled to Lachish, but they sent after him to Lachish and assassinated him there. ²⁸They then brought him by horse and buried him with his fathers in Judah's capital.

790 B.C.

26 ALL THE PEOPLE OF JUDAH took Uzziah who was sixteen years old and made him king in place

e) Beautiful O.T. combination of Matt. 6:33 and Eph. 3:20.

f) The unanswerable argument against Israel's idolatry. g) The king, Amaziah.

h) Amaziah affords an illustration of the pagan idea that the king stood superior even to God's law; the attitude of Jezebel showed in bringing about the death of Naboth to obtain his property [I Kings 21]. Only in God-fearing Israel were kings, as well as commoners, made accountable to the Law of God. i) By use of a fable; comp. Judg. 9:7 ff.

j) Same as Abaziah [see ch. 21:17 note]. k) See I Chron. 26:15.

of his father Amaziah. ²He was the one who, after the king slept with his fathers, built up Eloth and won it back for Judah. ³Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-two years; his mother's name was Jechiliah, from Jerusalem. ⁴He did right in the eyes of the LORD in all the ways that Amaziah his father had done. ⁵He made a point of seeking God during the lifetime of Zechariah, who had insight in divine visions, and while he sought the LORD, God made him thrive.

⁶He went out and fought against the Philistines, demolishing the walls of Gath, Jabneh, and Ashdod, and building cities near Ashdod and among the Philistines; ⁷God helped him against the Philistines; also against the Arabians who lived in Gurbaal, and against the Meunites.¹ ⁸The Ammonites, too, paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread even to the entrance of Egypt, because he strengthened himself still more. ⁹For Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem on the corner gate, on the valley gate and at the corner buttress, thus strengthening each. ¹⁰He built lookouts in the wilderness and dug out many cisterns, for he had much cattle, both in the lowlands and in the plain. He also had plowmen and vinekeepers in the hill country and in the garden land, for he loved the soil. ¹¹Uzziah, moreover, had a combat army for waging war by regiments according to the number of their levy as directed by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the adjutant, and as ordered by Hananiah, one of the king's commanders. ¹²The total number of the clan leaders, strong and courageous men, was 2600. ¹³Under these was the army corps, 307,500 with great power for making war and for aiding the king against his enemies. ¹⁴Uzziah prepared shields, spears, helmets, coats of armor, bows, and slingstones for these men who made up the entire army. ¹⁵In Jerusalem also he made machines devised by inventors, to stand on the towers and corners for shooting arrows and heavy stones. Thus his fame spread for a great distance, because he received exceptional help so that he grew strong.

751 B.C.

¹⁶But when he was mighty, his heart grew haughty to his own destruction;^m for he transgressed against the LORD his God by entering the LORD's temple to make an offering on the incense altar.ⁿ ¹⁷Azariah the priest came in after him with eighty priests of the LORD who were courageous men. ¹⁸They stood up to Uzziah the king and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to offer sacrifices to the LORD, for that is the right of the priests, Aaron's descendants, who have been consecrated for such offering.^o Get out of the holy place, for you have transgressed! This will bring you no glory from the LORD God."

¹⁹Uzziah was indignant, but in his very rage at the priests, while holding the censer for burning incense in his hand, leprosy broke out on his forehead^p in front of the priests in the LORD's house near the incense altar. ²⁰The high priest Azariah stared at him, as did all the priests, and as they watched, he became leprous in his forehead. Then they rushed him out of there; indeed, he himself lost no time in getting out, for the LORD had struck him. ²¹To the day of his death King Uzziah remained a leper and lived in a separate house as a leper, for he was excluded from the LORD's house, and Jotham his son had charge of the royal palace, judging the people of the land. ²²The rest of Uzziah's affairs, first and last, were written by the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz. ²³So Uzziah went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the burial field which belonged to the kings, "because," they said, "he was a leper." Jotham his son became king in his place.

751 B.C.

27 JOTHAM WAS TWENTY-FIVE years old when he became king,

l) A people, probably living in Edom, several times enemies of Israel. Apparently some of these captives and their descendants served about the temple; therefore "Nethinim" [Neh. 10:28].

m) Success has ruined many a useful life, when God's help was forgotten and self-glorification set in.

n) Belonging to the Holy of Holies for ministries by the high priest. o) In Num. 16:40.

p) Compare the punishments of Gehazi [II Kings 5:27], and of Miriam [Num. 12:10].

and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Jerushah, Zadok's daughter. ²He did right in the eyes of the LORD according to all that Uziah his father had done; however, he did not enter the temple of the LORD. Nevertheless the people were still corrupt.^q ³He was the one who constructed the upper gate of the LORD's temple, and on the walls of the citadel hill he built extensively. ⁴He also built cities in the hill country of Judah, and on the wooded heights he erected fortresses and towers. ⁵He fought the king of the Ammonites, whom he overpowered. The men of Ammon that year gave him $200,000^r in silver, 10,000 measures^s of wheat, and 10,000 of barley. The men of Ammon brought this to him in the second and third years, too. ⁶So Jotham became mighty, for he established his ways before the LORD his God. ⁷The rest of Jotham's affairs and all his wars and his ways, see, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸He was twenty-five years old when he became king and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹Then Jotham went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. Ahaz his son became king in his place.

736 B.C.

28 ¹HAHAZ WAS TWENTY YEARS OLD when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for sixteen years. He failed to do what was right in the LORD's eyes as David his father had done; ²for he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel in that he made molten images to the Baalim,^t ³made sacrifices in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his sons in the fire,^u according to the detestable practices of the nations which the LORD had dispossessed before the children of Israel. ⁴He also killed and offered sacrifices on the high places and hills and under every leafy tree.

734 B.C.

⁵Therefore the LORD his God gave him over into the hand of the king of Syria, who defeated him, captured a large number of prisoners from him, and deported them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted heavy casualties on him. ⁶Indeed, because they had left the LORD, the God of their fathers, Pekah^v the son of Remaliah killed 120,000 in Judah in one day, all able men. ⁷Zichri, a hero of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah, the king's son,^w Azrikam the palace official, and Elkanah second to the king.

⁸The men of Israel took from their kindred people 200,000 wives, sons, and daughters as captives; they plundered much booty from them and brought the booty to Samaria. ⁹But a prophet of the LORD was there, Oded by name, who went out to meet the army as it was coming to Samaria. He said to them, "Observe! Because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hands; but you have gone and killed them in fury that reaches to heaven. ¹⁰Despite that, you are now thinking to oppress these people of Judah and Jerusalem as male and female slaves! Do you not have enough transgressions of your own against the LORD your God? ¹¹Now listen to me! Send back these prisoners whom you have captured from your kindred people, for the heat of the LORD's indignation is on you."

¹²So certain of the chiefs of the men of Ephraim: Azariah son of Johanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehiskiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai, took a stand against those returning from the battle. ¹³They said to them, "You should not have brought

q) Given in more detail in II Kings 15:35.

r) Heb., "100 talents"; one talent = 116.4 lbs. Troy, or about $2,000.

s) Heb., "cors"; one cor = 10:5 bushels. t) See Note on ch. 17:3.

u) Human sacrifice was forbidden by the Law [Deut. 18:10], condemned by the prophets [Ezek. 23:37,39]. Though deemed the greatest of sacrifices by many cultures of Biblical (and present) times, as reflected in Micah 6:7, God clearly implied His disapproval as early as Abraham's time [Gen. 22:12,13].

v) The king of northern Israel.

w) Son here means "close male relative"; Ahaz was scarcely old enough to have a son of military age.

these captives here, for thereby you are proposing to bring on us guilt before the LORD, adding still more to our sins and to our trespasses! Our guilt is already great so that His anger is on Israel." ¹⁴So the armed men left the prisoners and the loot in front of the princes and the whole gathering. ¹⁵Then the men already mentioned by name got up and took charge of the prisoners, giving clothing from the loot to the naked. They clothed them and gave them sandals, fed them, and gave them water. They anointed^x them and led the feeble on donkeys. So they took them back to the side of their fellow tribesmen at Jericho, the city of palm trees, and then returned to Samaria.

¹⁶At that time King Ahaz sent for the king of Assyria to help him, ¹⁷for the Edomites had again invaded and attacked Judah, carrying captives away with them. ¹⁸The Philistines,^y too, had invaded cities in the lowlands and in the south country of Judah, had captured Beth-shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco and its suburbs, Timnah and its suburbs, Gimzo and its suburbs, and had settled down there. ¹⁹For the LORD humbled Judah on account of Ahaz king of Israel,^z who had fostered lack of restraint in Judah and had transgressed greatly against the LORD. ²⁰But when Tilgathpiles^a king of Assyria arrived, he afflicted him, rather than strengthening him; ²¹for after Ahaz had stripped the LORD's temple, the king's palace, and the princes to pay off the king of Assyria, it still helped him not at all.

²²Even so, in the time of his distress he — that same king Ahaz — transgressed yet more against the LORD; ²³for he offered sacrifice to the gods of Damascus, which had attacked him, reasoning, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria are those who have helped them, it is to them I will sacrifice, so they may help me."^b But they proved, in fact, to be the cause of his downfall and of all Israel. ²⁴Moreover, after Ahaz had collected the utensils of God's temple, he cut up those utensils from the house of God and closed up the doors of the LORD's temple. He also made altars in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵Indeed, in every city throughout Judah he made high places for sacrificing to other gods, provoking the LORD, the God of his fathers. ²⁶Now the rest of his affairs, and all his ways, from first to last, see, they are recorded in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, but they did not bring him to the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

725 B.C.

29 HEZEKIAH BECAME KING WHEN he was 25 years old, and he remained king in Jerusalem for 29 years; his mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah. ²He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD according to all that David his father had done.

³In his first year as king, in the first month, he opened the doors of the LORD's house and repaired them. ⁴He also brought in the priests and the Levites, assembling them at the open space to the east, ⁵and said to them, "Listen to me, O Levites! Sanctify yourselves now, and sanctify the temple of the LORD, the God of your fathers, taking away the unclean things from the holy place. ⁶For our fathers have broken faith and have done wicked things in the eyes of the LORD our God by leaving Him. They have turned away their faces from the LORD's dwelling place and have turned their backs. ⁷They have even closed the doors of the porch and extinguished the lamps; they have failed to burn incense offerings and to offer the burnt offering in the holy place to the God of Israel. ⁸Consequently, the LORD's

x) For medicinal purposes, as oil [Isa. 1:6], or wine [Luke 10:34], or salve [Rev. 3:18] could be used. y) The situation described here, Israel suffering defeat at the hands of Edom and the Philistines, fits the prophecies of Joel 3:4 and Obadiah:10. These two prophets could then be dated at 735 B.C. Isaiah warned Ahaz to trust God [Isa. 7:9], but Ahaz relied on Assyria, to his own regret. z) Not of the northern kingdom, but as in vs. 27, of Israelites in Judah.

a) Supposed to be an ally [vs. 16], spelled Tiglath-pileser [III, 745-727 B.C., in II Kings 15:29; 16:7]. b) Purely selfish reasoning which purposely ignores God's conditions of righteousness, prerequisite to blessing.

anger has come down on Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of horror, of astonishment, and of hissing, as you see with your own eyes. ⁹Look! It is because of this that our fathers have fallen by the sword and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity. ¹⁰Now then, it is in my heart to enter into a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that His fierce anger may be diverted from us. ¹¹So now, my sons, be not negligent, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him to serve Him, to be His ministers and to offer sacrifice."

¹²Then these Levites stood up, from the descendants of the Kohathites: Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah; from the sons of Merari: Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and from the Gershonites: Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah. ¹³From the sons of Elizaphan: Shimri and Jeuel; from the sons of Asaph: Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴from the sons of Heman: Jehuel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun: Shemaiah and Uzziel. ¹⁵These, in turn, summoned their brothers, sanctified themselves, and went in to cleanse the LORD's temple according to the king's command by the words of the LORD. ¹⁶The priests went into the inside of the LORD's house to cleanse it, bringing all that was unclean which they found in the temple of the LORD out into the court of the LORD's house, from which place the Levites took it out to the brook Kidron. ¹⁷Having begun to sanctify it on the first day of the first month, they reached the porch of the LORD on the eighth day of the month, a total of eight days for sanctifying the house of the LORD, finishing on the sixteenth day of the first month. ¹⁸Then they went in to King Hezekiah and reported, "We have cleansed the entire house of the LORD, including the altar for the burnt offerings with all its utensils and the table for the showbread with all its utensils. ¹⁹All the utensils, too, which King Ahaz in his unfaithfulness had set aside while he was king, we have put in order and sanctified. There they are in front of the LORD's altar."

²⁰Early in the morning King Hezekiah called together the princes of the city and went up to the LORD's temple. ²¹They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs,^e and seven he-goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. He ordered the sons of Aaron, the priests, to offer these on the LORD's altar.^f ²²So they killed the cattle, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it toward the altar; then they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood toward the altar; then they killed the lambs and sprinkled that blood toward the altar. ²³Next, they brought the he-goats near for the sin offering before the king and the assembly and laid their hands on them. ²⁴The priests then killed them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar to atone for all Israel, because the king had ordered that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be for all Israel.

²⁵He had stationed the Levites at the LORD's temple with cymbals, with lyres, and with harps, according to David's orders,^g together with Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet, for the order had come from the LORD's hand through His prophets.^h ²⁶So as the Levites stood with the Davidic instruments and the priests with the trumpets, ²⁷Hezekiah gave orders to offer up the burnt offering on the altar. At the time of the commencement of the burnt offering, the song of the LORD began, with the trumpets and on the instruments of David king of Israel. ²⁸Thus, as all the congregation worshiped, the song was pouring forth and the trumpeters were sounding; all this continued until the burnt offering had been completed.

c) The first six men are listed according to their descent from Kohath, Merari, and Gershom, Levi's three sons. Elizaphan is of the Kohath line [Num. 3:30], and Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun [Ethan] are the leaders of the Levitic musicians from the families of Gershom, Korah, and Merari, respectively.

d) Both the temple and the porch (court). e) For burnt offerings.

f) Not on any false altars as those of Ahaz [ch. 28:24].

g) Refers to I Chron. 15:16.

h) This states a principle of inspiration: God, the primary source, speaks through an agent — prophet, writer, king, etc. [as in Amos 3:7; Acts 1:16; Heb. 1:1].

²⁹Again at the conclusion of the burnt offering, the king and all those present with him bowed down and worshiped. ³⁰Then King Hezekiah and the princes ordered the Levites to sing praises to the LORD in the words of David, and of Asaph¹ the seer; so they sang joyful praises while they¹ bowed down and worshiped.

³¹Then Hezekiah spoke out, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the LORD's temple." So the congregation brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and everyone so inclined brought burnt offerings. ³²The number of burnt offerings which the congregation brought was 70 cattle, 100 rams, and 200 lambs; all these were for burnt offerings to the LORD. ³³The consecrated items, moreover, totaled 600 cattle and 3000 sheep. ³⁴But there were not enough priests, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore their fellow tribesmen, the Levites, came to their aid until the work was accomplished, or until more priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests were.^k ³⁵With the many burnt offerings was the fat of the peace offerings, also the liquid offerings which accompanied the burnt offerings. Thus the service in the LORD's temple was re-established. ³⁶And Hezekiah rejoiced with all the people over God's preparation of the people; for the thing happened suddenly.

725 B.C.

30 HEZEKIAH SENT WORD TO ALL Israel and Judah and even wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh inviting them to come to the LORD's temple at Jerusalem for the observance of the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. ²The king, his princes, and the whole assembly at Jerusalem, had decided to keep the Passover in the second month,¹ ³for they had not been able to observe it in its time because not enough priests had sanctified themselves and the people had not assembled at Jerusalem. ⁴This decision seemed proper in the king's eyes and in the eyes of the whole assembly. ⁵So they decreed to dispatch heralds through all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, that they come and keep the pass-over to the LORD God of Israel in Jerusalem; for they had not, in any number, observed it as it was prescribed.

⁶So the couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the hand of the king and his princes, and according to the king's command they proclaimed, "Sons of Israel! Return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel! Then will He return to the remainder of you who have been left by the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷Be not like your fathers or like your brothers, who transgressed against the LORD, the God of their fathers. For, as you can see, He turned them over to desolation. ⁸Now then, do not stiffen your necks like your fathers did, but yield to the LORD and attend His sanctuary which He has sanctified forever. Serve the LORD your God, that His fierce anger may be diverted from you. ⁹If you return to the LORD, your brothers and sons will gain favor with their captors so that they may return to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate and will not turn away His face from you, if you return to Him."

¹⁰So the couriers traveled from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and on to Zebulun. But people made fun of them and mocked them. ¹¹Even so, certain men from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun did humble themselves^m and came to Jerusalem. ¹²God's hand also moved in Judah to give them one heart to observe the orders of the king and of the princes by the word of the LORD.

i) The two chief authors of our book of Psalms. Asaph was David's appointee for the regular praising of God with music [1 Chron. 16:5,37]. j) Everyone else.

k) Neither the Levites nor the priests had for long periods received sufficient support from tithes to sustain their lives and that of their families.

l) Rather than the first month, as prescribed in the law [Ex. 12:18], because the temple was in process of being cleansed [ch. 29:17]. Such an exception was allowed by Num. 9:9-11.

m) Access to God's fellowship always involves self-humbling; note Isa. 57:15; Luke 18:13,14.

¹³So there assembled at Jerusalem a huge throng to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month — it was an exceptionally large assembly. ¹⁴They set out and did away with the altars that had stood in Jerusalem,ⁿ and they removed all the incense altars, dumping them in the brook Kidron.

¹⁵On the fourteenth day of the second month, they killed the Passover. The priests and the Levites, having been put to shame, sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings into the LORD's temple. ¹⁶They stood at their posts according to their assignment prescribed by the Law of Moses, the man of God, and the priests sprinkled the blood received from the hand of the Levites.

¹⁷Since there were many in the congregation who had not sanctified themselves, the Levites took over the killing of the Passover for all who were not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD. ¹⁸For many of the people, many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves. Nevertheless, because Hezekiah had prayed on their behalf, they ate the Passover — though not as written. He had prayed, "The good LORD pardon everyone ¹⁹who has set his heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, though it be not according to the purification rules of the sanctuary."^o ²⁰The LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

²¹The people of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread for seven days with great joy. The Levites and the priests were also giving praise to the LORD day after day on loud instruments to the LORD, ²²and Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all those Levites who displayed good skill for the LORD. So they ate that appointed feast for seven days,^p sacrificing peace offerings and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

²³Then all the congregation decided to observe seven more days, and they did observe those seven days joyfully.

²⁴For Hezekiah king of Judah had made 1000 young bulls and 7000 sheep available for the congregation; the princes too had donated 1000 bulls and 10,000 sheep for the congregation, and a large number of the priests had sanctified themselves. ²⁵So they rejoiced, the whole congregation of Judah, the priests and Levites, all the congregation who had come from Israel, and the foreign residents,^q both those who came from the land of Israel and those who resided in Judah. ²⁶The rejoicing^r in Jerusalem was great indeed; for there had not been anything like this in Jerusalem since the day of Solomon son of David, king of Israel. ²⁷In conclusion, the Levitical priests stood up and blessed the people, and their voice was heard, for their prayer reached to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

725 B.C.

31 AFTER ALL THIS WAS ENDED, all the Israelites who had been present went out to the cities of Judah, demolished the pillars, chopped down the shame images, tore down the high places and altars from all Judah and Benjamin, and even in Ephraim and Manasseh until they had finished; then all the men of Israel went home, each to his own property and city.

²Hezekiah then re-established the divisions of the priests and Levites according to their groupings, each man in accordance with his service, both of the priests and of the Levites: that is, for burnt offerings and peace offerings, and to minister and give thanks and praise in the gates of the LORD's camp.^s

³The king's portion from his private fortune for the burnt offerings, namely for the morning and evening sacrifices, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, new moons, and set feasts, was according to that written in the Law of the LORD.^t ⁴And he ordered the people who lived in Jerusalem to contribute their portion^u for the priests

n) Set up by King Ahaz [ch. 28:24], as were most other objects of Hezekiah's cleanup.

o) Clearly stressing the "spirit of the law," — not merely the letter; a picture of the future King's constant emphasis [as in Matt. 23:23; Luke 14:1-6].

p) As specified in Ex. 12:16-18. q) Sanctioned since the very first Passover [Ex. 12:49].

r) Genuine joy accompanies right relationship to God [note Ps. 16:11; Acts 8:8, 39].

s) An old phrase, applied to God's dwelling as in I Chron. 9:19, here also refers to the temple.

t) In Num. 28 and 29. u) Prescribed in the Law [as in Ex. 23:19 and Lev. 27:30-33].

and Levites, that they might stand firm^v in the Law of the LORD. ⁵When this order had been circulated, the men of Israel brought generously of the first fruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey, and all their field crops; indeed, they brought an abundant tithe of everything. ⁶The children of Israel and Judah who resided in the cities of Judah also brought their tithe of cattle and sheep and the tithe of the holy things consecrated to the LORD their God; they brought and piled them up in heaps. ⁷In the third month they began to pile up the heaps, and in the seventh month they were finished. ⁸When Hezekiah and his princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel; ⁹and Hezekiah inquired of the priests and Levites about the heaps. ¹⁰Azariah the high priest of the house of Zadok answered him, "Since contributions began to come in to the LORD's temple, we have eaten to the full,^w and there has been great superabundance; for the LORD has blessed His people, and this large quantity is left over."

¹¹Hezekiah then ordered that they prepare rooms in the LORD's house; and when they had made them ready, ¹²they scrupulously brought in the contributions, tithes, and dedicated things. Conaniah the Levite was appointed as officer over them, with Shimei his brother as assistant. ¹³Appointed under charge of Conaniah and his brother Shimei, by order of King Hezekiah and Azariah prince of God's temple, were Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah. ¹⁴Kore son of Imnah the Levite, the doorkeeper toward the east, was appointed over the voluntary offerings that were presented to God, to distribute those contributions of the LORD and the most holy things. ¹⁵Under him were Eden, Miniamin, Ieshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, faithful men for making allocations in the priests' cities to their brothers by divisions, to great and small, ¹⁶with the exception of all those males on the genealogical register from three years old and above, who went to the LORD's temple for their daily portions, while serving by their assignments according to their divisions.

¹⁷In the genealogical register the priests were listed according to their clans and the Levites from twenty years old and above, according to their ministries by their divisions. ¹⁸The allocations were for the rest of those of the register, including all their little ones, wives, sons, and daughters, for the whole congregation. For by their faithful service they were sanctifying themselves in this matter of the holy things. ¹⁹As regards the sons of Aaron, the priests, in their city-suburb fields, men were appointed by name for each city to give out portions to every male of the priests, and to all those registered of the Levites.

²⁰Hezekiah acted in like manner throughout all Judah and did the good, the right, and the faithful thing before the LORD his God. ²¹In every task which he undertook for the service of the house of God, for the Law, and for the commandment in seeking his God, he did it with all his heart and was successful.

701 B.C.

32 AFTER THESE EVENTS AND these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah,^x encamping against the fortified cities, which he proposed to take for himself. ²When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come with intentions of waging war against Jerusalem, ³he consulted with his princes and brave men to stop up the waters of the springs that were outside the city. They aided him ⁴by getting together many people who stopped up all the springs and the stream which ran

v) Subsistence for the priests and Levites depended on the gifts of the people [Num. 18:12, 21, 24]. Therefore, in time of backsliding, the priests and Levites were tempted to use other means to gain a living; for example, by hiring out to a family or clan [Judg. 17:10; 18:19]. A call for proper tithing was a near essential for a consecrated priesthood.

w) Note on vs. 4 indicates close connection of the offering with the priests' subsistence.

x) The siege by Sennacherib and Hezekiah's sickness and pride are mentioned in detail in II Kings 18-20 and Isa. 36-39; much corresponds verbatim.

through the middle of the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find good water supplies?"^y ⁵He augmented his strength by rebuilding all the wall that had been broken down and adding to the towers and outer wall. He also reinforced the Millo^z in the city of David and provided a good supply of weapons and shields. ⁶He set combat leaders over the people and, gathering them at the open place near the city gate, he spoke encouragingly to them, ⁷"Be strong! Stand firm! Be not afraid or disheartened because of the king of Assyria, or in the face of all the throng that is with him, for there are more with us than with him."^a ⁸With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles." And the people relied on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria while he himself remained at Lachish with all his imperial force, sent men to Jerusalem to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judeans who were at Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰"This is what Sennacherib the king of Assyria has said: 'On what are you relying, that you remain in this besieged Jerusalem?' ¹¹Has not Hezekiah deceived you, only to give you over to death through famine and thirst, by saying, 'The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria.'?" ¹²Is not this same Hezekiah the very one who got rid of His high places and His altars^b and ordered Judah and Jerusalem, "Before one altar you are to worship, and on it you are to offer sacrifice."?" ¹³Do you not realize what I have done, both I and my fathers, to all the people of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of those countries able by any means to deliver their land out of my hand? ¹⁴Who, among all the gods of those nations which my fathers wiped out, could save his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand? ¹⁶Now then, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you this way. Do not believe him, for there is not a god of any nation or kingdom able to deliver his people from my hand, or from the hand of my fathers. Surely then, your God cannot deliver you from my hand."

¹⁶His servants raged still more against the LORD God and against Hezekiah His servant. ¹⁷In addition, he wrote letters reproaching the LORD, the God of Israel, speaking against Him, "Just as the gods of the nations of other lands could not deliver their people from my hand, so also Hezekiah's God cannot deliver His people from my hand." ¹⁸They also shouted loudly in the Jewish language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and demoralize them, so that they might capture the city. ¹⁹In this way they made reference to the God of Jerusalem as being like the gods of the people of the earth, the work of men's hands.^c

²⁰On this account both Hezekiah the king and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed and cried out to heaven. ²¹Therefore the LORD sent an angel who annihilated all the strong fighting men, the officers and commanders of the camp of the king of Assyria, so that he returned to his home country in disgrace. There, as he entered the temple of his god, certain of his own offspring assassinated him with the sword. ²²So it was that the LORD saved Hezekiah and the residents of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all; for He gave them rest on all sides. ²³Many were then bringing gifts to Jerusalem for the LORD, along with valuable presents for Hezekiah king of

y) Excellent military strategy in arid terrain.

z) A particular stronghold within Jerusalem used by David [II Sam. 5:9] and Solomon [I Kings 11:27], and apparently part of the old Jebusite stronghold [II Sam. 5:7].

a) Elisha voiced similar assurance in II Kings 6:16; applied for the individual Christian in I John 4:4.

b) The God-inspired reforms of Hezekiah, although according to Deut. 12:2-11, were considered iconoclastic and "narrow" by pagan Sennacherib.

c) Since such "gods" are only man's handicraft [Deut. 4:28], Scripture heaps devastating ridicule on idols and idol-worshippers [as in Ps. 115:4-8; Isa. 44:9-17; Jer. 10:3-5].

Judah, for he was exalted in the eyes of all nations from then on.^d

711 B.C.

²⁴Now in those days Hezekiah became critically ill, but after praying to the LORD, He spoke to him and gave him a sign.^e ²⁵Hezekiah, however, failed to respond adequately to the benefits that had been shown him; for his heart grew proud. Therefore indignation came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶Then Hezekiah humbled himself regarding his heart's pride, both he and the residents of Jerusalem; consequently, the LORD's indignation did not come on them during Hezekiah's lifetime.

²⁷Hezekiah had so much wealth and honor that he made himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all sorts of precious articles, ²⁸as well as storage places for crops of grain, wine, and oil; stalls for all kinds of cattle and herds and flocks for the stalls. ²⁹He procured cities for himself and abundant possessions, in flocks and herds, for God gave him much property. ³⁰This same Hezekiah stopped the upper outlet of the waters of the Gihon and turned them straight down along the west side of the city of David.^f Indeed, Hezekiah was successful in all his undertakings. ³¹So, then, when ambassadors from the princes of Babylon were sent to him to enquire about the sign which had occurred in the land,^g God left him to test him, to find out all that was in his heart.

³²Now the rest of Hezekiah's affairs and his acts of faithful love, see, they are recorded in the vision of the prophet Isaiah^h son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³So Hezekiah went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in the slope of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the residents of Jerusalem honored him at his death. His son Manasseh became king in his place.

696 B.C.

33 MANASSEH WAS TWELVE YEARS old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. ²But he did what was wicked in the eyes of the LORD, like the detestable practices of the nations which the LORD had dispossessed before the children of Israel. ³For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had torn down; he reared up altars to the Baalim and constructed shame images;ⁱ he rendered worship to all the host^j of heaven and served them. ⁴He built altars in the very temple of the LORD about which the LORD had said: My name shall be in Jerusalem forever.^k ⁵He constructed altars to all the host^j of heaven in the two courts of the LORD's house. ⁶He made his sons pass through the fire^l in the valley of the son of Hinnom; he practiced spiritism, fortune-telling, and sorcery, as well as encouraging mediums and wizards. He multiplied evil practices in the LORD's eyes and thus provoked Him to anger. ⁷He even set up the image of the idol he had made inside the temple of God, of which God had stated to David and Solomon, his son: In this house, here in Jerusalem, which I chose from all the tribes of Israel, I will place My name forever^m and I will not again cause the foot of Israel to stir from the land that I have appointed for your fathers, provided they observe to do all that I have commanded them in all the Law and regulations and judgments by the hand of Moses.ⁿ ⁹But Manasseh led Judah and the residents of Jerusalem astray into evil beyond that of the nations which the LORD had destroyed before the people of Israel.

648 B.C.

¹⁰The LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, but they would not

d) Practical example that "righteousness exalts a nation," [Prov. 14:34].

e) The sickness and the sign of the sundial are recorded in Isa. 38.

f) This and the "conduit" of II Kings 20:20 refer to the remarkable tunnel which connects the Virgin's Well with the Pool of Siloam. This tunnel has provided us with an interesting piece of archaeological evidence. "The Siloam Inscription," on the right wall of the tunnel, tells the story of the boring through to complete the conduit.

g) The sign of the sundial, recorded in Isa. 38:7-8; II Kings 20:8-11.

h) The portion of Isaiah is here spoken of as being in the frequently alluded to [ch. 16:11], but now lost "book of the kings of Judah and Israel."

i) Explained in ch. 14:3 note.

j) Multitude of stars, as in "starry host of heaven"; such worship was expressly forbidden in Deut. 4:19; 17:3.

k) Cited from ch. 6:6. l) See ch. 28:3 note. m) See ch. 7:16. n) II Sam. 7:10.

listen. ¹¹So the LORD brought against them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria. They seized Manasseh with hooks, binding him in double fetters, and carried him off to Babylon. ¹²There in his distress, he appealed to the LORD his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. ¹³Because he prayed to Him, He^o was entreated by him and granted his request by restoring him to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh acknowledged that the LORD indeed is God.

¹⁴Afterwards he built up the outer wall of the city of David westward to Gihon in the valley and toward the fish gate, and he surrounded the citadel hill, making it very high. He stationed combat leaders in all the fortified cities of Judah. ¹⁵He removed the foreign gods and the image from the LORD's temple, all the altars too which he had built on the hill of the LORD's temple and in Jerusalem; he dumped them outside the city. ¹⁶He further set up the LORD's altar and sacrificed on it peace offerings and thank offerings and ordered Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁷Nevertheless the people still continued sacrificing at the high places,^p although it was only to the LORD their God.

¹⁸Now the rest of the affairs of Manasseh, his prayer to his God^q and the words of the prophets who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, notice, they are in the records of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹His prayer, His being entreated of him,^r all his sin and rebellion, and the locations where he built high places and erected shame images^s and idols before he humbled himself — see, these are written among the words of the seer. ²⁰So Manasseh slept with his fathers and was buried in his own house. Amon his son became king in his place.

641 B.C.

²¹Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king and remained king in Jerusalem for two years. ²²He did what was wrong in the eyes of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the images which his father Manasseh had made^t and served them. ²³He, however, did not humble himself before the LORD as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; instead, Amon multiplied his guilt. ²⁴His servants conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace. ²⁵But the people of the land executed all the conspirators against King Amon, and the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

639 B.C.

34 JOSIAH WAS EIGHT YEARS OLD when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem thirty-one years. ²He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, for he walked in

631 B.C.

the ways of David his father, not deviating to the right or to the left. ³In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began seeking the

627 B.C.

God of his father David. In the twelfth year he began to clean up Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, shame images, and carved and molten images. ⁴In his presence they tore down the altars to the Baalim; the incense stands set high above them he chopped down and the shame images and the carved and molten images he broke in pieces and ground up, scattering them over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ⁵He burned the bones of the priests on their own altars;^u so he cleaned up Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶Even in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their surrounding ruins,^v he broke down the altars and shame images. ⁷When he had beaten the images to powder and chopped down all the incense stands in all the land of ^o) God.

^p) The pitfall also of better kings, for example Asa [I Kings 15:14], and Solomon [I Kings 3:3].

^q) This verse suggested the "Prayer of Manasses," a later false writing found in the Apocrypha.

^r) That is, how God heard his prayer. ^s) See ch. 14:3 note.

^t) Re-erected after Manasseh's reform which, it seems, was not thoroughgoing; sin leaves scars which cannot be removed.

^u) So was fulfilled the prophecy to Jeroboam, the founder of the false altars [I Kings 13:2].

^v) The cities of the northern kingdom were, to a large extent, allowed to go to ruin after the fall of Israel to Assyria.

Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

621 B.C.

⁸In the eighteenth year of his reign, as he was cleaning up the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah, mayor of the city, and Joah son of Joahas, the recorder, to repair the temple of the LORD his God. ⁹They went to Hilkiah the high priest and turned over the money brought to the house of God which the doorkeepers, the Levites, had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim and from the whole remnant of Israel, and from all Judah, Benjamin, and the residents of Jerusalem. ¹⁰They, in turn, gave it to those doing the supervisory work in the temple of the LORD; and those doing the work, who were at work in the house of the LORD, put it toward repairing and strengthening the house. ¹¹That is, they handed it to the carpenters and builders to purchase quarried stones and lumber for couplings and to furnish beams for the buildings which the kings of Judah had abandoned to ruin. ¹²The men worked on the job conscientiously. Over them as foremen were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites of the descendants of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam of the descendants of the Kohathites, to supervise. All the Levites skilled on musical instruments ¹³were both in charge of the burden bearers and assigned as foremen over all the workers for each job. Some of the Levites served as scribes, as officers and as doorkeepers.

¹⁴Now as they were bringing out the money which had been brought to the LORD's temple, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the Law of the LORD given through Moses. ¹⁵Hilkiah brought it to the attention of Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the book of the Law in the LORD's house." So Hilkiah turned the book over to Shaphan. ¹⁶Shaphan in turn brought the book to the king when he reported to the king again, saying, "Everything that was made your servants' responsibility, they have accomplished; ¹⁷for they have taken out the money found in the LORD's house and have turned it over to the supervisors and the workers on the job." ¹⁸It was then that Shaphan the scribe told the king, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book," and Shaphan read from it to the king.

¹⁹When the king heard these words of the Law,^w he tore his robes. ²⁰The king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, ²¹"Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for the remnant of Israel and Judah concerning the words of the book which has been found. For the LORD's indignation is great which is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD to do according to all that is written in this book."

²²So Hilkiah and the others who were from the king went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath, Hasrah's son, keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in the second quarter^x of Jerusalem, and they spoke to her as instructed. ²³She answered them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: Tell this to the man who sent you to me. ²⁴The LORD has spoken: See, I am bringing calamity against this place and against its residents, even all the curses written in the book which was read before the king of Judah. ²⁵Because they have abandoned Me and have sacrificed to other gods so as to provoke Me with all the works of their hands,^y therefore My indignation will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched. ²⁶But concerning the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, this you shall tell him. This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: About these words which you have heard, ²⁷because your heart was receptive and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against its residents and because you humbled yourself before Me and tore your robes and wept before Me, there-

w) This illustrates "by the law is the knowledge of sin", [Rom. 3:20]. From Shaphan's reading of the Mosaic Law [Gen. through Deut.], it was probably Deut. 28-30 which brought about Josiah's immediate reaction. x) District.

y) A phrase often used to refer with contempt to idols [as in Deut. 4:28; ch. 32:19].

fore I also have heard you. The LORD has spoken. ²⁸See, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace; surely, your eyes shall not see all the punishment which I will bring on this place and on its inhabitants." So they brought back word to the king.

²⁹Then the king sent, and summoning all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem, ³⁰the king went up to the LORD's temple accompanied by all the men of Judah, the residents of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites, and all the people, great and small. There he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant, which had been found in the LORD's temple. ³¹Then the king stood at his place and renewed the covenant before the LORD: to follow the LORD and to keep His commandments, testimonies, and statutes with all his heart and with all his soul; to observe the words of the covenant written in this book. ³²Also he had all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin accept it; and the residents of Jerusalem did according to this covenant with God, the God of their fathers. ³³So Josiah got rid of all the detestable things from the lands belonging to the people of Israel. He also led all who were in Israel to serve the LORD their God. During his lifetime they did not turn away from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

620 B.C.

35 ¹JOSIAH KEPT THE PASSOVER TO the LORD in Jerusalem, and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. ²He set the priests at their tasks and encouraged them for the service of the LORD's temple. ³Then he ordered the Levites who taught in all Israel and were dedicated to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the temple which Solomon, David's son, king of Israel, built. It is no longer your responsibility to carry it on your shoulders. Minister now to the LORD your God and to His people Israel, ⁴and prepare yourselves by your clans, according to your divisions as written by David^z king of Israel and as written by Solomon his son. ⁵Stand in the holy place with the Levitical clan divisions corresponding to the groupings of the clans of your fellow tribesmen, the lay people, ⁶and then kill the Passover. Sanctify yourselves and prepare for your brothers to do according to the word of the LORD by the agency of Moses."

⁷Josiah made a contribution of flocks of lambs and kids for the people. The entire amount was for the Passover sacrifices in behalf of all those present and numbered 30,000^a besides 3000 cattle; these were from the king's own property. ⁸His officials also donated willingly for the people, priests, and Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, leaders in God's temple, contributed 2600^a for the Passover sacrifice of the priests, as well as 300 cattle. ⁹Conaniah, with Shemaiah and Nethanel his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, princes of the Levites, donated for the Levites 5000 Passover lambs, as well as 500 cattle.

¹⁰The service, therefore, having been made ready, the priests stood at their posts and the Levites by their divisions according to the king's orders. ¹¹These killed the Passover; the priests sprinkled blood as it was passed to them, and the Levites did the skinning. ¹²Then they separated the burnt offerings to distribute them by divisions to the clans of the lay people, so they might offer them to the LORD as it is written^b in the book of Moses. They did this also with the cattle. ¹³So they roasted the Passover in the fire according to the ordinance, and the other consecrated offerings they boiled in the pots, kettles, and pans, and then brought them speedily to the whole group of the people. ¹⁴After that they made preparation both for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, Aaron's sons, were offering up burnt offerings and fat offerings until nighttime; therefore the Levites prepared both for themselves and for the priests,

z) Preserved, at least partially, in I Chron. 23-26.

a) Lambs and goats as distinguished from cattle — calves, heifers, and bullocks.

b) Compare Hezekiah's Passover [ch. 30:18].

the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵Also the singers, the sons of Asaph, stayed at their posts according to the orders of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the doorkeepers stayed by each door; they did not need to leave their stations because their fellow tribesmen, the Levites, made preparation for them.

¹⁶So all the service of the LORD was prepared on that day according to the command of King Josiah; that is, the observance of the Passover and the offering up of burnt offerings on the LORD's altar. ¹⁷The men of Israel who were present there observed the Passover at that time together with the feast of unleavened bread for seven days. ¹⁸There had never been held such a Passover in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; for none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah did, involving the priests and Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the residents of Jerusalem. ¹⁹It was in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign that this Passover was held.

608 B.C.

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt came for battle at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to engage him. ²¹He^c sent messengers to him saying, "What do I have to do with you, king of Judah, for it is not against you that I have come up this day, but against the power with which I am at war,^d and God has commanded me to hurry. Quit interfering with God, who is with me, that He may not destroy you." ²²However, Josiah did not turn away from him, but went to battle against him disguised,^e for he did not listen to the words of Neco which really were from the mouth of God but went to fight in the valley of Megiddo. ²³The archers shot at King Josiah with the result that the king called out to his servants, "Take me away, for I am gravely wounded." ²⁴So his servants took him out of the chariot and put him into the second chariot which he had and brought him to Jerusalem. There he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. ²⁵Jeremiah composed a lament over Josiah and all the men and women singers spoke about Josiah in their lamentations as they do to this day, for they made them a standing custom in Israel. Note that they are written in the lamentations.^f ²⁶Now the rest of the affairs of Josiah and his acts of faithful love in accord with what is written in the Law of the LORD, ²⁷and his affairs, from first to last, see, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

608 B.C.

36 THEN THE PEOPLE OF THE LAND took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in the place of his father. ²Jehoahaz^g was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for three months. ³Then the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem and put the land under tribute for $200,000 in silver and $30,000 in gold.^h ⁴The king of Egypt made his brother Eliakimⁱ king over Judah and Jerusalem, changing his name to Jehoiakim; and Neco took his brother Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt.

⁵Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for eleven years, but he did what was wrong in the eyes of the LORD his God. ⁶Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon advanced against him and bound him in brass chains to take him to Babylon.^j ⁷Nebuchadrezzar also took part of the utensils of the LORD's temple to Babylon,

c) Neco. d) Neco was attempting to defeat Babylon, chief contender for world power following the decline of Assyrian supremacy.

e) Ahab also went disguised into his final and fatal battle [ch. 18:29].

f) These lamentations, or dirges, were well known at the time this account was written, but should not be confused with our book of Lamentations which was composed after the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem.

g) Short form of Jehoahaz, as Joram is of Jehoram [ch. 22:5 note], and Micah of Micaiah [ch. 18:14 note].

h) Heb., "100 talents of silver and a talent of gold," 1 talent of silver equals $2,000; 1 talent of gold equals $30,000. i) Older brother of Jehoahaz; compare vs. 2 and 5.

j) Neco was defeated at Carchemish by Nebuchadrezzar who, as part of his tactics against occupied Judah, took Daniel and others captive to Babylon.

depositing them in his temple in Babylon. ⁸Now the rest of the affairs of Jehoiakim, his detestable practices and the things found against him, see, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.

597 B.C.

⁹Jehoiachin was eighteen* years old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for three months and ten days; but he did what was wrong in the eyes of the LORD.

¹⁰At the turn of the year, King Nebuchadrezzar sent to bring him to Babylon, with the precious utensils from the LORD's temple. He appointed his uncle¹ Zedekiah as king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for eleven years.

¹²But he did what was wrong in the eyes of the LORD his God; he did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet who spoke from the mouth of the LORD. ¹³Besides, he rebelled against King Nebuchadrezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁴All the leaders too of the priests and people acted most unfaithfully by taking part in all the detestable practices used by the nations; and they desecrated the LORD's temple which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

¹⁵Nevertheless the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by the hand of His messengers, rising early and sending them,^m for He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. ¹⁶But they repeatedly mocked the messengers of God, despised His words, and made sport of His prophets until the LORD's indignation was stirred up against His people beyond remedy.

586 B.C.

¹⁷Accordingly He sent up against them the king of the Chaldeans who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary and did not spare young man or maiden, old man or very aged. He gave them all into his hand. ¹⁸All the utensils of God's temple, large and small, and the treasures of the LORD's temple and of the king and his princes—all these he took to Babylon. ¹⁹They burned the temple of God and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, setting fire to all the palaces and destroying all its precious utensils. ²⁰As for the rest, who were spared from the sword, he took them captive to Babylon, where they became servants to him and to his sons until the kingdom of Persia came to power. ²¹This was to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah,ⁿ until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths; for as long as it lay desolate it had a Sabbath-rest, fulfilling seventy years.

538 B.C.

²²In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, to fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah,^o the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia that he should proclaim in all his kingdom and even by writing: ²³"This is what Cyrus king of Persia has said, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has commissioned me to build Him a temple in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of any of His people, may the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.'"^p

k) "Eighteen" is given by several manuscripts and agrees with II Kings 24:8, though the majority of manuscripts read "eight."

l) Heb., "brother" in the sense of male relative; in this case, it means "uncle," according to II Kings 24:17.

m) We would say, early and late, or time and again. Jeremiah repeatedly uses the phrase to describe the urgency of God's warning through the prophets (as in Jer. 25:4; 44:4); a brief summary of the message may be seen in Jer. 35:15. n) See Jer. 29:10.

o) See Jer. 25:12.

p) These last two verses appear again almost identically as the introduction to the book of Ezra, which continues the same narrative. Is Ezra perhaps the writer of the books of Chronicles?

EZRA

538-537 B.C.

1 IN THE FIRST YEAR^a OF CYRUS, king of Persia, in order that what the LORD had predicted through Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD aroused the spirit of Cyrus, king of Persia, to proclaim throughout all his kingdom, both orally and in writing: ²"Thus has Cyrus, king of Persia, declared: 'The LORD, the God of heaven, who has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, has directed me to build a house for Him in Jerusalem in Judah. ³Therefore anyone among you belonging to His people, let him return to Jerusalem in Judah and let him build the house for the LORD, the God of Israel—He is God^b—in Jerusalem; and may his God be with him! ⁴Also let assistance be rendered to every survivor,^c wherever he may be located, by his neighbors in the granting to him of silver, gold, animals, and miscellaneous articles in addition to a free-will offering for the house of God in Jerusalem.'"

⁵So the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, also the priests and the Levites, all from these whom God so inclined, made preparations for going up to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem. ⁶And all their neighbors assisted them with articles of silver and gold, with animals, with precious things and with miscellaneous items in addition to a free-will offering. ⁷Also Cyrus the king brought out the vessels of the house of the LORD which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and had placed in the house of his gods; ⁸these did Cyrus, king of Persia, direct Mithredath, the treasurer, to bring forward and count out to Sheshbazzar,^d prince of Judah. ⁹And this is their number: 30 gold and 1000 silver dishes, 29 knives, ¹⁰30 gold bowls,^e 410 silver bowls of another type, and 1000 other vessels. ¹¹All the vessels of gold and of silver were 5400.^f All of these did Sheshbazzar take along when they of the captivity trekked from Babylon to Jerusalem.

537 B.C.

2 NOW THESE ARE THE SONS OF THE province^g who came out of the captivity to Babylonia which Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had imposed upon them, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own city. ²They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel: ³The sons of Parosh, 2172; ⁴the sons of Shephatiah, 372; ⁵the sons of Arah, 775; ⁶the sons of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, 2812; ⁷the sons of Elam, 1254; ⁸the sons of Zattu, 945; ⁹the sons of Zaccai, 760; ¹⁰the sons of Bani,

a) Recent findings show Cyrus took Babylon in the fall, 539 B.C. b) Or, "He is the God who is in Jerusalem." c) Those, or descendants of those, who had been taken captive. d) Babylonian name for Zerubbabel, cf. 5:14,16.

e) Covered vessels, cf. I Chron. 28:17 and Ezra 8:27 for same word.

f) These fifty-four hundred must include many articles not definitely mentioned. g) Jews.

642; ¹¹the sons of Bebai, 623; ¹²the sons of Azgad, 1222; ¹³the sons of Adonikam, 666; ¹⁴the sons of Bigvai, 2056; ¹⁵the sons of Adin, 454; ¹⁶the sons of Ater of Hezekiah, 98; ¹⁷the sons of Bezai, 323; ¹⁸the sons of Jorah, 112; ¹⁹the sons of Hashum, 223; ²⁰the sons of Gibbar, 95; ²¹the sons of Bethlehem, 123; ²²the men of Netophah, 56; ²³the men of Anathoth, 128; ²⁴the sons of Azmaveth, 42; ²⁵the sons of Kiriatharim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, 743; ²⁶the sons of Ramah and Geba, 621; ²⁷the men of Michmas, 122; ²⁸the men of Bethel and Ai, 223; ²⁹the sons of Nebo, 52; ³⁰the sons of Magbish, 156; ³¹the sons of the other Elam, 1254; ³²the sons of Harim, 320; ³³the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 725; ³⁴the sons of Jericho, 345; ³⁵the sons of Senaah, 3630.

³⁶The priests: The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, 973; ³⁷the sons of Immer, 1052; ³⁸the sons of Pashhur, 1247; ³⁹the sons of Harim, 1017.

⁴⁰The Levites: The sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel of the sons of Hodaviah, 74. ⁴¹The singers were the sons of Asaph, ⁴²128. ⁴²The sons of the gatekeepers were the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai, in all 139.

⁴³The temple attendants: The sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shamlai, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephisim, ⁵¹the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Hamur, ⁵²the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁴the sons of Nezhiah, and the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁵The sons of Solomon's servants: ¹The sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda, ⁵⁶the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷the sons of Shephathiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, and the sons of Ami. ⁵⁸All of the temple attendants and the sons of Solomon's servants were 392.

⁵⁹Those who also went out of Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but who could not show their ancestral houses nor their race to prove that they were of Israel: ⁶⁰The sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, 652. ⁶¹Those of the sons of the priests: The sons of Habaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, and the sons of Barzillai, who married one of the daughters of Barzillai, ¹the Gileadite and then took her family name. ⁶²These sought their names among those recorded in the register, but as they were not found, they were considered polluted and were barred from the priesthood. ⁶³Moreover, the governor^k ordered them to refrain from eating of the most holy things until the priest should stand up with Urim and Thummim.¹

⁶⁴The total number of the group was 42,360 ⁶⁵besides 7337 servants, both men and women, and 200 singers, both men and women. ⁶⁶They had 736 horses, 245 mules, ⁶⁷435 camels, and 6720 asses.

⁶⁸Some of the heads of father's houses, upon their arrival at the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, gave willingly for the house of God, so as to erect it again on its site; ⁶⁹according to their ability they gave a total of 305,000 dollars of gold, 170,000 dollars of silver and 100 priests' garments.

⁷⁰So the priests, the Levites, the common people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple attendants dwelt in their cities, even all Israel in their cities.

537-536 B.C.

3 IN THE SEVENTH MONTH^m, THE children of Israel, now being in their cities, gathered as one man to

h) A chief musician under David. i) A division of temple custodians similar to the temple attendants, cf. v. 43, often mentioned along with them.

j) Cf. II Sam. 17:27; 19:31 f; I Kings 2:7. k) Hebrew "Tirshatha" referring to Zerubbabel.

l) For determining the will of God. m) October, likely the first year of the return, 537 B.C.

Jerusalem. ²Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak, with his fellow-priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, with his brothers, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel so that they might offer burnt-offerings upon it as directed in the law of Moses, the man of God. ³They erected the altar on its base, being afraid of the people of the neighboring lands, after which they offered on it burnt-offerings to the LORD both in the morning and in the evening. ⁴Then they kept the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is prescribed,ⁿ and the number of daily burnt-offerings as set forth in the law for each day of the Feast,^o and afterwards the continual burnt-offerings and the (offerings) at the new moon and at all the appointed feasts of the LORD that were dedicated, and of all who willingly offered a free-will offering to the LORD. ⁶Beginning with the first day of the seventh month^p they offered the burnt-offerings to the LORD, even though they had not yet laid the foundation of the LORD's temple.

⁷Then they hired masons and carpenters^q and they paid the people of Sidon and Tyre with food, drink, and oil so that they would bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea and down to Joppa in accordance with the permission which Cyrus, king of Persia, had given. ⁸In the second month of the 536-535 B.C.

year following that of their return to the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites, along with all who returned from the captivity to Jerusalem, began to build the house of the LORD, having first appointed the Levites who were at least twenty years of age, to superintend the work. ⁹Jeshua with his sons and his brothers and Kadmiel with his sons, all of whom were descendants of Judah,^r along with the sons of Henadad^s with their sons and their brothers, all Levites, together took the oversight of the workmen of the house of God.

¹⁰When the builders had laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they^t appointed the priests, officially clothed, with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals to praise the LORD in accordance with the direction of David, king of Israel. ¹¹They sang responsively in praise and thanksgiving to the LORD, saying that He is good because His lovingkindness endures forever toward Israel. Indeed, all the people shouted resoundingly in their praise to the LORD because the foundation of the house of the LORD had been laid. ¹²But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' houses, who were old enough to have seen the first temple, as they looked upon the foundation of this new temple now laid, wept sorely;^u while others raised their voices in shouting for joy. ¹³However, the people could not distinguish between the sound of the shouts of joy and the sound of those who wept because the shouting was so loud that it was heard for a great distance.

535-534 B.C.

4 WHEN THE ENEMIES^v OF JUDAH and Benjamin^w heard that those who had recently returned from captivity were building the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, ²they came to Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers' houses and said to them, "We would like to help you build, because we also worship your God and have sacrificed to Him since the day when Esarhaddon,^x king of Assyria, brought us to this country." ³But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the heads of fathers' houses replied to them, "We cannot permit you to help us build the house of our God, but we, ourselves together, will build to the LORD, the God of Israel, in ac-

n) Cf. Lev. 23:34-42; Deut. 16:13-15. o) Cf. Num. 29:12-38. p) Feast of Tabernacles not beginning until the fifteenth day, some fourteen days of burnt-offerings must have preceded it. q) "Masons" here may refer to rougher workmen in both wood and stone, and "carpenters" to finishers in both. r) Not Judah, the son of Jacob, but one called Hodaviah, 2:40. Notice, this Jeshua is another person than mentioned in v. 8. s) Probably three families here, though possibly Henadad was a common ancestor of Jeshua and Kadmiel. t) Refers not to the builders but to Zerubbabel and Jeshua, v. 8. u) This temple would be far less majestic than the earlier one. v) Samaritans, who became enemies. w) Includes all who returned, with most being of these two tribes. x) Reigned 730-668 B.C., son and successor of Sennacherib.

cordance with the order of Cyrus, king of Persia." ⁴Then the inhabitants of the land began to hinder and to bring trouble^y upon the people of Judah in their building; ⁵even hiring counselors to work against them by frustrating their plans, which they continued to do all the days of Cyrus,^z king of Persia, and until the reign of Darius,^a king of Persia.

About 480-460 B.C.

^{6b}Later on, shortly after Ahasuerus^c began to reign, a letter of accusation was written against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷Also in the days of Artaxerxes,^d king of Persia, a letter was sent by Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and their companions, written in the Aramaic language using Aramaic characters. ⁸Rehum, the governor, and Shimshai, the secretary, penned the letter, it also being against Jerusalem, to Artaxerxes the king. ⁹In addition to Rehum, the governor, and Shimshai, the secretary, others having a part were their companions, the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites ¹⁰and peoples of the other nations whom the famous and honored Asnapper^e brought to and made live in the city of Samaria and neighboring lands west of the River^f and so forth.^g ¹¹This is a copy of the letter which they sent to Artaxerxes the king: "Your servants, the men on this side of the River, and so forth."^h ¹²Be it known to the king that the Jews which came from you to our territory, to Jerusalem, are building that rebellious and bad city. They are erecting its walls and diggingⁱ its foundations. ¹³Also be it known to the king that if this city is built and its walls are completed, the people will not pay tax of any kind and consequently you as king will suffer loss.

y) Or "terror."

z) Cyrus died in 529 B.C. a) Darius began to reign, 522 B.C. b) Verses 6-23 give, parenthetically, events out of chronological order here, but involving similar opposition of later years. c) Reigned 485-465 B.C. d) Reigned 465-425 B.C.

e) A shortened form of Ashurbanipal, 668-626 B.C., son and successor of Esarhaddon, v. 2.

f) Euphrates. g) Writer thus indicates an intended omission. h) Writer thus indicates an intended omission. i) Or "repairing." j) Euphrates.

k) A probable reference to rebellions under Jehoiaqim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah against Nebuchadnezzar. l) True especially of David and Solomon. m) Or "troops."

n) The close of the parenthetical section beginning with v. 6. o) 520 B.C., cf. Hag. 1:1 and Zech. 1:1.

Enemies Would Infiltrate; Work Stops

¹⁴Now because we receive sustenance from the king, it does not seem proper for us to see the king suffer such a dishonor; we, therefore, send this letter that the king may be informed, ¹⁵and that a search be made in the records of your predecessors wherein shall be found that this city has been rebellious and unprofitable to kings and countries, against whom, in past days, it has continually revolted and for which it was finally destroyed. ¹⁶We are informing the king that if this city is built and its walls are completed, as a result he will lose his control over all territory west of the River."

¹⁷Then the king sent a reply to Rehum, the governor, and Shimshai, the secretary, and their companions who lived in Samaria and the neighboring lands west of the River;^j "Peace, and so forth. ¹⁸The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read to me. ¹⁹I gave direction, search was made, and it was found that this city in days past did rise up against kings with rebellion and revolution being made therein.^k ²⁰Also there have been powerful kings in Jerusalem whose rule extended even over all the land west of the River and to whom taxes of various kinds were paid by the conquered people.^l ²¹Therefore, you are to order these people to cease building this city until further notice, ²²and beware of failure to do this, for the king does not wish to experience loss in this matter."

²³So when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read to Rehum and Shimshai, the secretary, and their companions, they went immediately to Jerusalem to the Jews and by strength and force^m made them quit building."⁵³⁴ B.C.

²⁴Then the work on the house of God in Jerusalem ceased and nothing further was done until the second yearⁿ of the reign of Darius, king of Persia.

520 B.C.

5 THEN THE PROPHETS, HAGGAI THE prophet,^p and Zechariah the son^q of Iddo, began to preach to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, ²with the result that Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, arose and, with the prophets of God helping them, began to build the house of God in Jerusalem. ³About that time Tatnai, the governor west of the River,^r and Shethar-bozenai, with their companions, came and asked them, "Who gave you official permission to build this house and to finish this wall?" ⁴Then we told them^s what the names of the men were who were doing the building. ⁵The eye of God was watching over the elders of the Jews, however, for they were not made to cease work^t while a letter was sent to Darius and he gave reply to it.

⁶This is a copy of the letter which Tatnai, the governor west of the River, and Shethar-bozenai and his companions, the Apharsachites who lived west of the River sent to Darius the king. ⁷These jointly sent the letter in which they wrote: "Peace be to Darius the king. ⁸Be it known to the king that we have gone into the province of Judah to the house of the great God and have found that it is being built with large^u stones, that timbers are being joined into the walls and that the work is being done diligently with rapid progress being made. ⁹Also we spoke with the elders asking them who had given them official permission to build the house and finish the wall. ¹⁰In addition we asked of them the names of the leaders in this project, that you might have this information as well. ¹¹The following is the answer which we received from them:

"We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and we are building this house which was first constructed many years ago, when a great king of Israel built and finished it."

¹²But because our fathers provoked the God of heaven, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried the people away into Babylon. ¹³Then in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, Cyrus decreed that this house of God should be rebuilt. ¹⁴Moreover, in regard to certain gold and silver vessels of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple in Jerusalem and put in a temple in Babylon, these did Cyrus the king take out again from that temple in Babylon and deliver to Sheshbazzar^w whom he had appointed as our governor. ¹⁵And he said to him, "Take these vessels and place them in the temple in Jerusalem and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site."^x ¹⁶Then this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God in Jerusalem and from that time on it has been in building but still is not completed.'

¹⁷"So now, if the king is so pleased, let search be made in the treasure-house^y of the king there in Babylon to see if Cyrus did thus decree that this house of God in Jerusalem should be rebuilt and then let the king communicate to us his pleasure in this matter."

6 THEN DARIUS THE KING GAVE THE order and search was made in the house of records wherein also the treasures of Babylon were kept. ²And in the palace at Ecbatana in the province of Media a book was found containing the following record:

³"In his first year, King Cyrus made a decree^z concerning the house of God in Jerusalem: 'Let the house be built, a place for the offering of sacrifices, and let its foundation be strongly laid. Both its height and width shall be ninety feet, ⁴with three courses of great stones and a course of new timber; and the expense shall be met out of the royal treasury. ⁵Also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God,

p) The common designation of Haggai, cf. 6:14 and Hag. 1:1.

q) Grandson, Zech. 1:1; word may be so used for later descendant. r) Euphrates.

s) Or "Then they asked what the names..." t) These officials could have required the work to cease. u) Literally "stones of rolling," i.e., too large to carry.

v) Solomon, who ruled forty years, about 970-930 B.C.

w) Babylonian name for Zerubbabel, cf. 1:8. x) On the site of the former temple.

y) A repository for important documents as well as treasure, cf. 6:1.

z) Cf. 1:1f. for a record of this decree.

which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and put in their place in the temple in Jerusalem, the house of God.^f

⁶"Now, therefore, Tatnai, governor west of the River,^a Shethar-bozenai and your companions, the Apharsachites who live west of the River, keep away; ⁷let the work on this house of God alone and allow the governor and elders of the Jews to build this house of God in its place. ⁸Moreover, I hereby order how you shall give assistance to the Jews for the building of this house of God: That out of the king's tribute-money from west of the River the cost is to be paid to these men without delay so that they be not hindered. ⁹Also whatever the priests in Jerusalem say they need for burnt-offerings to the God of heaven, such as young oxen, rams, lambs, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, let it be given to them daily without fail, ¹⁰so that they may offer sacrifices well-pleasing to the God of heaven and pray for the welfare of the king and his sons. ¹¹Furthermore, I issue this order that, if anyone changes this command, let him be lifted up and impaled^b upon a beam torn from his own house, and let his house be made a heap of refuse. ¹²May the God, who caused His name to dwell there, overthrow every king or people who seeks to change this command so as to destroy this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have made this decree; let it be carried out in full."

520-516 B.C.

¹³Then Tatnai, the governor west of the River,^c Shethar-bozenai and their companions, because of this which Darius the king had sent, did accordingly with all diligence.^d ¹⁴The elders of the Jews continued to build, being helped greatly by the preaching of Haggai, the prophet, and of Zechariah the son of Iddo. They built and also finished it in accordance with the command of the God of Israel and according to the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes,^e kings of Persia. ¹⁶The house was completed on the third day of the month Adar in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.^f

¹⁶Then the children of Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the others who had returned from the captivity, observed with joy the dedication of this house of God, ¹⁷offering up at the dedication of this house of God 100 oxen, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and, as a sin-offering for all Israel, 12 male goats, one for each tribe of Israel.

¹⁸Also the priests were arranged in their divisions and the Levites in their courses^g for the service of God in Jerusalem as prescribed in the book of Moses.^h

516 B.C.

¹⁹These who had returned from captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month;ⁱ

²⁰the priests and the Levites having purified themselves together, so that all were clean. They killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, for their brothers, the priests, and for themselves. ²¹Those who ate included the children of Israel who returned from captivity and also all who had separated themselves unto them from the sin of the nations of the country to follow after Jehovah, the God of Israel. ²²With joy they kept this feast of unleavened bread for the seven days, for the LORD had caused them to rejoice, having inclined the heart of the king of Assyria^j in their favor so that he assisted them in the work on the house of the God of Israel.

458 B.C.

7 ^{LATER^k, DURING THE REIGN OF} Artaxerxes, king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah,^l son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah, ²son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub, ³son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth, ⁴son of Zerahiah, son of Uzzi, son of

a) Euphrates. b) A common, though severe, form of punishment.

c) Euphrates, again. d) These leaders may not themselves have felt hostile to the Jews, but had acted for the Samaritans. e) Anticipation reference to Artaxerxes Longimanus, 465-425 B.C. f) March, 516 B.C. g) Cf. Num. 3 and 8 and I Chron. 23 and 24.

h) Aramaic portion, which began at 4:8, closes here at 6:18.

i) April. j) Darius, who was king of Assyria in that he ruled over what had been Assyrian territory. k) Fifty-eight years later, from 516-458 B.C.

l) Son here means descendant, for Seraiah died 130 years prior, cf. II Kings 25:18-21.

Bukki, ⁶son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazer, son of Aaron the chief priest,^m went up from Babylon. ⁶He was a scribe, well versed in the law of Moses which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. Also the king gave him all that he requested, according to the favor of the LORD his God upon him.

⁷Others who went with him to Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king, were priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple attendants, and some of the children of Israel. ⁸He arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the king's seventh year. ⁹He had begun the trek from Babylon on the first day of the first month so that he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month,ⁿ in accordance with the good favor of the LORD his God, upon him. ¹⁰For Ezra had disciplined himself to study the Law of the LORD, to practice it, and to teach its statutes and ordinances in Israel.

¹¹This is a copy of the letter which King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra, priest and scribe, well versed in matters of the commandments of the LORD and His statutes to Israel:^o ¹²"Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra, priest and scribe of the law of the God of heaven, and so forth.^p ¹³I make a decree that anyone of the people of Israel or their priests or Levites in my realm, who freely offers to go to Jerusalem with you, may go. ¹⁴You are being sent by the king and his seven counselors^q to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in accordance with the law of your God which is in your hand; ¹⁵and to convey the silver and the gold which the king and his counselors have freely given to the God of Israel who dwells in Jerusalem, ¹⁶in addition to all the silver and gold that you may be able to collect anywhere in the province of Babylon, and the freewill offerings of your people and priests, voluntarily given, for the house of their God in Jerusalem. ¹⁷You must be sure to use this money to buy oxen, rams, and lambs with their meat-offerings and drink-offerings,^r that they may be offered upon the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem; ¹⁸and with whatever is left of this silver and gold you may do as you and your brothers believe is in accordance with the will of your God. ¹⁹The vessels^s that have been given to you for the service of the house of your God you are to deliver in the presence of the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰Also you may supply out of the king's treasure-house^t whatever else you find necessary and have occasion to provide for the house of your God. ²¹In accordance, I, Artaxerxes the king, do issue this order to all the treasurers west of the River^u: that, whatever Ezra, priest and scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall ask of you, you are assuredly to give, ²²up to 200,000 dollars^v of silver, 1000 bushels^w of wheat, 900 gallons^x of wine, 900 gallons of oil, and as much salt as necessary. ²³Whatever is required by the God of heaven for the house of the God of heaven is to be completely provided, for we do not want His indignation to fall upon the realm of the king and his sons. ²⁴Furthermore, we inform you that the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, temple attendants, and servants of this house of God shall not have to pay taxes of any kind. ²⁵And you, Ezra, in accordance with the wisdom which your God has given you, appoint judges and other officials to govern all the people west of the River, those who are familiar with the laws of your God, and instruct all who do not know them.^y ²⁶Whoever disobeys the law of your God or of the king is surely to be punished by such means as death, banishment, confiscation of goods, or imprisonment."

²⁷Blessed be the LORD, the God of

m) Abbreviated list showing Ezra's descent from Aaron; for other names to insert, see I Chron. 6:3-15; 9:10,11.

n) Departed in April, arrived in August, 458 B.C. o) Verses 12-26 are in Aramaic.

p) Writer thus indicates an intended omission. q) Cf. Esther 1:14.

r) Cf. Num. 15:1-16. s) Probably the same as in 8:25-27. t) Cf. 6:8. u) Euphrates.

v) One silver talent worth about $2000; 100 talents here about $200,000.

w) Hebrew, one hundred cors; one cor is about ten bushels.

x) Hebrew, one hundred baths; one bath is about nine gallons.

y) Refers primarily to Israelites unlearned in the law.

z) Ezra's consequent praise to God. The Hebrew is resumed here, cf. v. 12.

our fathers, who has put the thought into the heart of the king to beautify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem²⁸ and who has given me favor with the king, his counselors, and all his mighty princes. Hence I took courage in view of the blessing of the LORD my God upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to make the return with me.

8 THESE ARE THE HEADS OF THEIR fathers' houses, along with their genealogies, who made the trip with me from Babylon in the reign of King Artaxerxes: ²A descendant of Phinehas,^a Gershom; a descendant of Ithamar, Daniel; a descendant of David, Hattush, a son of Shecanish; ³a descendant of Parosh, Zechariah, accompanied by 150 men of that family;^b ⁴a descendant of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai, the son of Zerariah, accompanied by 200 men; ⁵a descendant of Shecaniah the son of Jahaziel, accompanied by 300 men; ⁶a descendant of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, accompanied by 50 men; ⁷a descendant of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah, accompanied by 70 men; ⁸a descendant of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, accompanied by 80 men; ⁹a descendant of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, accompanied by 218 men; ¹⁰a descendant of Shelomith^c the son of Josiphiah, accompanied by 160 men; ¹¹a descendant of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, accompanied by 28 men; ¹²a descendant of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, accompanied by 110 men; ¹³descendants of Adonikam were Eliph-elet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah accompanied by 60 men; ¹⁴and descendants of Bigvai were Uthai and Zabbud accompanied by 70 men.

¹⁵I assembled all these at the river that flows past Ahava^d where we remained three days. I made a survey of the people and of the priests, but found no Levites among those who had gathered. ¹⁶Consequently, I called Eliezer,

